Let us tune up the ignition of your car—saves trouble. Hankey Garage. 5tf.

Piano for Sale: Packard, in splendid condition, if interested see Mrs. John Doll. 17t2p.

Sheep Shearing promptly done. Call Floyd Coburn–68F2. 16t3p.

WANTED TO RENT

1 to 3 rooms, with or without board, by refined middle aged man. What have you? Address, Mr. George, % The News. 17t1

KIND FRIENDS: I have purchased the Wyans Barber Shop at Spencerville, Ind., and will be in Wednesday and Friday afternoons each evening during the week and all day Saturday. Will be in full time when business warrants. All work guaranteed. Special hair cuts for ladies. G. W Milliman. 17t2

Coburn's Corners

The Ladies Aid met Wednesday P. M. with Hazel Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilder spent Sunday in the W. W. Wilder home.

Attendance at Coburn Corners for April 29 was 85, collection $3.49.

Iris Wilmot of St. Joe spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart.

Will Volfakas is working for Garth Shull and Clarence Peck for Merwin Place.

Donna Mae Washler spent Sunday night with Miss Slyria Washler of Newville.

Mary Paff and daughter, Gladys Houk of six corners called on Mattie Hart Saturday P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Washler and children ate dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Curt Washler.

Fred Hart and son Elwood purchased a new tractor the past week, now just watch their dust fly.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Poper were given a house warming Wednesday evening. Pop corn and candy was served.

Mark Twain condemned polygamy on the ground that "no man can have two masters."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benner, of Butler called on friends here Sunday. They were enroute to St. Joe.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Norman and family were here from South Bend over the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt.

Several from here attended the meeting of the Christian Churches of DeKalb County, held at Auburn Sunday evening.

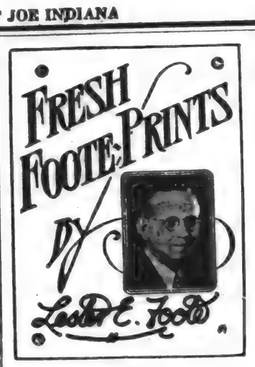
A surprise party in honor of Rev. C. W. Moore was held at his home Wednesday evening, April 25. About 40 attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Jr., and 2 children were here Sunday from Mongo, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Sr.

May 6 will be Young People's Anniversary Day at the U. B. Church. The young people will have charge of the evening services.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Enzor, Mrs. Jennie Gengnagel, Frederick Gengnagel and John Washler attended a Democratic speech and banquet at Auburn last Wednesday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and family and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fickle were guests April 25, of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Ginder. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Ginder's and Rev. Moore's birthday anniversaries.



"One thing about the nudists, you can't pin any thing on them."

A totally blind World War veteran is entitled to get a maximum of $150 per month plus $50 per month for nurse or attendant.

The smallest adult couple in the world is Clarence C. Howerton, age 25, only 26 inches tall and Lya Graf, 21 inches tall.

The city of Amsterdam, Holland, is built upon piles driven in the ground. It is intersected by numerous canals crossed by nearly three hundred bridges.

In the National Park of Hot Springs, Arkansas, there are forty-six hot springs.

In the Big Tree National Park, California, there are 12,000 Sequoia trees with diameters ranging from ten to thirty-six feet.

A child prodigy (something extraordinary) is little Miss Joanne Xenos, the nine-year-old daughter of an unemployed Greek living in Chicago. She completed the grades and entered high school in three years.

Vulgarity and swearing are used mostly by the least uneducated because of the lack of sufficient vocabulary to satisfactorily express themselves.

Dr. Rexford G. Tugwell, head man in the President's Brain Trust, classifies himself as a liberal. "A liberal," says Dr. Tugwell "would like to rebuild the station but keep the trains running. Radicals prefer to blow up the station and do without service until the new structure is ready."

"Without proper food during their growing years, and with no attention to teeth, tonsils, and ailments which would be curable if treated promptly, thousands of young people are starting life under a handicap which they can never overcome."

Now with daylight savings time, standard time, and in many places, sun time, after we inquire what time, then we must add "which time?"

With a New Jersey tailor jailed for charging less than forty cents for pressing a suit of clothes, some of our readers inquire, "Is it a free country?" However in a free country law is intended to protect the interests of the majority. A real patriotic and sympathetic minority will fall in line.

Brazil is troubled with a surplus of coffee and has ruled that no coffee trees may be planted there during the next three years.

Art Coyle
Candidate For Sheriff
Republican Ticket

VOTE FOR
W. W. SHARPLESS for JUDGE
—ON THE—
(DEMOCRATIC TICKET)
A practicing attorney at the DeKalb County Bar since 1896. Never have sought public office before. Qualified by experience in handling a large volume of legal business over a period of 38 years, with a practice not only in DeKalb county, but in surrounding counties and in federal courts.
Your Vote at the Primary will be Greatly Appreciated.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
Garden Seeds a Specialty
Special prices on Screen Doors, Screen Wire, Poultry Netting, Chick Feeders, etc.

CLEAN UP WITH DIC - A - DOO
AND PAINT UP WITH BURDSALL'S HIGH QUALTY PAINTS
A PAINT FOR EVERY PURPOSE
PRICE AND QUALITY COMBINED

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

-- FOR --
PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
Republican Ticket
GEORGE E. MOUNTZ
GRADUATE DePauw University and Harvard Law School.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.
Dundon Red Ash BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:
HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

REPAIRS ARE NOT EXPENSIVE AT
The Elmwood Wrecking Co, Inc.
Used parts for your auto, truck and tractor. We have them
We, are the largest auto wreckers in Western Illinois.
We undersell the town. - Call, wire or write.
ELMWOOD AUTO WRECKING CO., Inc.
540 Mulberry St. GALESBURG, ILLINOIS Main 4994

VOTE VOTE VOTE
AND RENOMINATE
Otto L. Waterman
for RECORDER
IF YOU FEEL
HE HAS BEEN A CREDIT TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY
DURING HIS FIRST TERM IN OFFICE AS RECORDER
Capable - Courteous - Experienced

Mrs. Nina M. Little OF GARRETT
—FOR—
County Recorder
on the
DEMOCRAT TICKET
Widow of TRACY C. LITTLE Publisher of Garrett Clipper A taxpayer for 30 years and qualified by a long experience in business. I have never sought office before. I will be grateful for your support at the Primary.

William H. Breckbill
Of Smithfield Township
Candidate for the nomination of County Commissioner of the North District on the Democratic ticket, subject to the vote at the May primary. I will appreciate the support and encouragement of the voters of the county. Economy is my motto.

U. S. RAUT
(JAKE) of Auburn
Candidate for Republican Nomination for
County Recorder
Your Suppora and Influence will be Appreciated
PRIMARY ON MAY 8th.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT
Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

NEWVILLE

The Missionary Society met May 1 with Mrs. Mae Young.

C. R. Langstaff, of Lima, Ohio, spent Monday at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Bardsley, of Harlan, called on Mrs. Kate Fusselman Sunday afternoon.

Nelson Ayers is home from Detroit, where he spent the winter with his brother, Harry Ayers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dean and son, of Montpelier, Ohio, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Roberts.

Hattie Walker and brother Sam Synder of Logansport ate supper Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place.

Mrs. Agnes Shull Mercer a former girl of this vicinity is a patient at the Bonnell Souder hospital of Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Flody Coburn and son Merle spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Newton Miller and daughter Charlotte.

Mrs. Emily Hollabaugh, Minnie Ulm and Winifred Hart were at Auburn Friday taking the second project lesson for the Home Bureau Club.

Twenty-five from this vicinity attended the Get Together meeting at Auburn Sunday night of the DeKalb County Christian churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Orange Herrick of St. Joe and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick and sons of Ft. Wayne were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Perry.

CONCORD

George Johnson is quite poorly.

Mrs. Thelma Baker called Monday evening on Miss Cleota Morr.

Most everyone around here has their oats sowed and are trying to get their gardens made now.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fetters spent Sunday night with her mother, Mrs. Aaron Carper, who is not much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy and daughter, Vivian, spent a week ago Sunday in Fort Wayne with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Quance.

Mrs. C. Jackson had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson, Ford Jackson and family and Eloise and James Draggoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller and son, Earl, were Sunday dinner guests in the Don Washler home. In the afternoon they went to the Clarence Goings home at Hurshtown to see the baby, who is having the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wyatt, of Auburn spent Sunday in the Ira Bone home. Afternoon and evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Vince Stemen, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Provines and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bassett and three children, Junior, Merle and Dessie.

"There are no friends like old friends,
To help us with our load
That all must bear who journey
O'er life's uneven road;
And when unconquered sorrows,
The weary hours invest,
The kindly words of old friends
Are always found the best."

VOTE VOTE TOTE
JOHN W. MERTZ
MADE A MOST EXCELLENT RECORD
STATE REPRESENTATIVE
(DEMOCRATIC TICKET)
PRIMARY ELECTION, TUESDAY, MAY 8

LUTHERAN APPOINTMENTS

Schedule for the pastor's preaching appointments:

	May 6
Albion		Spencerville
	May 13
Butler–St. Joe		Spencerville
	May 20
Spencerville		Albion
	May 27
Butler–St. Joe		Spencerville
	June 3
Albion		St. Joe
	June 10
Butler–Spencerville		St. Joe
	June 17
St. Joe		Albion
	June 24
Butler–Spencerville		St. Joe

May your church be a means of increasing your faith and a way to strengthen your courage. May it help to bring you and others into a closer relationship with Jesus Christ. Let everyone make diligent use of the means of Grace: the Sacrament of Baptism and Communion.

Please keep this schedule for reference.

A. H. Fabianske.

It is suggested by some southern Congressmen that the "House Restaurant" be closed rather than permit Negroes to eat there. However, these southern gentlemen have never refused to accept the Negro vote.

"He who hesitates is not necessarily lost as according to the old adage," says the Versailles (Illinois) Independent. "Sometimes he misses a good chance to get stung."

MAY

L 919

281

• • • we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, MAY 10, 1934 NUMBER 19

TOWN BOARD VOTED DAY LIGHT SAVING TIME

While the town board is personally divided on the notion of changing to the fast time, yet after some discussion, it was unanimously voted to adopt the "Day Light Saving" time in order to be in harmony with surrounding towns, and urge that the town fall in line and adopt this until the last of September. It has been the custom, made necessary by the change being made in other centers in the county. Much dissatisfaction resulted in having the two kinds of time. People can adjust themselves easily by falling into line with the request of the board.

Due to the fact that Marshal Chas. Cochran has left for the summer, Frank Curie was placed in full charge of that office.

The dog question again received its share of debate, after numerous complaints were filed with the board, and their action will be found in another column of this paper. It is a fact that we are threatened with a drouth but that the dogs were not particular at what time of day that they would spray the garden spots, lettuce and radish beds and shrubbery, so they thought best to advise all dog owners, that it would be more satisfactory to let each gardener look after his own spraying.

From the state for gas tax distribution a check for $115.09 was received, which raised the checking account to over $500, and anticipating the 40% distribution on the $1,400 on deposit in the local bank, will soon bring the bank balance to over a thousand dollars.

At the last meeting of the board, two petitions were presented asking the board to sanction a reduction of electric rates in the residential and commercial class and another for the street lighting, and members of the I. & M. Electric Compay were present and asked that the board consider the petitions unil their May 7 meeting, before action be taken, and they consented.

Last Monday evening the company representatives were present in the persons of D. J. Blair, resident manager of Butler, Mr. Otto Probst of South Bend, and Mr. Caldwell, field man also of South Bend, discussed the petition at length and each of the petitioners were notified to appear, but only six stood fire to their requests in the petition by showing up at the meeting. It was shown that during the last twenty years that there had been a constant reduction in rates for electricity to the present date, when only the first of the year, all rural patrons received their rate reduction, while the towns had received their a short time before. A total reduction of 5½ cents per KWH is the result of the present ownership.

In Sepember, 1933, when the local town board made its present levy, the tax rate was insufficient to raise money for the street lights, and a company representative came to St. Joe to look into the matter, and an adjustment of the situation was then undertaken by the South Bend offices. In order to make any adjustment of rates, it would necessarily have to apply to all towns serviced with street lights in the area of the company, and necessitated considerable calculation to be able to offer a feasible reduction, and the first of the year brought encouraging reports from the company, although nothing was made public.

Mr. Caldwell reported that no reduction in the residential or commercial rates could be expected, due to the upward trend of prices for all materials, that goes into the manufacturing and transmitting of electric energy to their customers.

A small reduction had been proposed to the board of $750 per light on the eleven 200 watt lights, and $7.50 on the 100 watt lights, totaling $195 a year, and should the board accept this proposal, would be officially signed up at the next meeting.

Harry Kees made a motion that he two petitions be withheld from the Public Service Commission, and was carried, making them null and void as far as the board was concerned, and should the petitioners desire to carry their charges to that body, the town would not be a party to the petition.

A similar petition was filed with the Public Service Commission, over the heads of the board and signers present signified a desire to withdraw their names as soon as possible and steps were taken to assist them in a business like way.

The petitions were circulated by Harry Hursh and the Monday night meeting demonstrated that most of the signers were willing to pass the buck to the instigator of the petition, and were not willing to stand fire to the charges thewy made over their signatures.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDED CONFERENCE SUNDAY

The spring conference of the DeKalb County Council of Christian Education, held Sunday afternoon at St. Mark's Lutheran Church, was by far the most largely attended in a number of years. St. Mark's church was filled. The large crowd for a day as beautiful as Sunday was a great testimonial to the speaker, Dr. J. Raymond Schutz, of Manchester College, North Manchester.

Stanley Means, of St. Joe, the new county president of the organization presided and at the business meeting the announcement of the state convention at South Bend on June 14, 15 and 16 was made. Dr. D. W. Kurtz, president of Bethany Biblical College, Chicago, will be the principal convention speaker. Dr. Kurtz was the headliner at the county convention in Auburn the early part of this year. The dates of the next county convention were set for February 7 and 8, 1935. No place has been designated for the coming meeting.

President Means announced that the vice presidents were to share in a definite way this year, in the responsibilities of the work of the county, and it has been divided as follows:

W. C. McBride, Keyser, Union and Butler.

Ward Jackman, Fairfield, Smithfield, Grant and Richland.

Henry Funk, Franklin, Troy, Stafford and Wilmington.

Stanley Means, Concord, Newville, Spencer and Jackson.

At roll call, a representative from each of the townships were present. Each department of the organization is expected to hold a county worker's conference.

Arthur Friend of Jackson township was selected to fill the vacancy of Adult Superintendent, and William Graham heads the new organization for Union township.

A feature of Sunday afternoon's meeting was a chorus of children, a new project under the supervision of Mrs. Gertrude Borthwick of St. Joe. Between seventy-five and a hundred children are enrolled, they sing the standard church hymns. Fred W. Knott of Auburn, led the group singing. Rev. O. B. Noren, pastor of St. Mark's gave the opening invocation and Rev. C. E. Jennings of Waterloo the dismissal prayer.

Dr. Schutz in his address, "Six Dimensions of the Kingdom of God," reviewed the condition of the world's great powers at the present time and attributed the present unrest to the lack of faith. He said faith has been lost by the present generation more than any other in history. The people of the world have lost faith in themselves, their leaders, their governments and their religions and it will be only through the Kingdom of God and a return to faith that normal conditions will be restored, he asserted.

The divisions of the subject were made as the objects of the church in building the Kingdom of God, as:

1. Faith as foundation.
2. Service as motive.
3. Cooperation.
4. Golden Rule as Law of Kingdom.
5. Optimistic in Spirit.
6. Character as Goal.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS

By authority of the Town Board, all persons owning dogs within the corporation of St. Joe, are hereby notified to keep all dogs within their property limits. If let run at large, same will be taken into custody.

FRANK CURIE,
Marshal.

1942.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the Hankey Garage, are invited to call at once to The News office and make settlement of their accounts.

Adrian Hankey.

1942.

Unofficial Tabulation Concord-Spencer

A flash just received as we go to press leads us to believe that we are safe in forecasting the results of the primary Tuesday on the county ticket as follows:

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon had a lead of 3 votes over W. G. Erick, at time of receiving flash.
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.
Nothing obtainable on Commissioners and County Councilman.

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg, with a big lead.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mountz.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer, Bert Bachtel.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.
Nothing obtainable on Commissioners and County Councilman.

The vote of interest to our readers as found in Concord and Spencer township, follows:

REPUBLICAN TICKET

	Con.	Spen
Congressman
Mark L. Grosh	10	3
Walter E. Helmke	25	18
David Hogg	157	108
Judge
William P. Endicott	176	113
Prosecutor
Howard S. Grimm	74	44
George E. Mountz	114	76
Representative
Harry M. Shull	165	107
Auditor
Frank R. Bowman	94	77
Jesse C. Provines	95	44
Treasurer
Bert Bachtel	155	110
Recorder
A. Meade Baker	138	83
Ulysses S. Raut	38	21
Nannie P. West	18	16
Sheriff
Artus Coyle	71	43
Ernest E. Turner	107	71
Coroner
Harold W. Johnson	159	107
Surveyor
Lawrence M. Condrey	82	54
Wayne T. VanAuken	88	57
Assessor
Charles E. Miser	176	118
Commissioner, North
Frank W. McCullough	65	49
Chas. G. Potter	100	59
Commissioner, South
Walter J. Baker	171	125
Councilman at Large
Lloyd C. Eckhart	101	65
Ed. W. Graf	82	47
H. D. Weaver	120	76
Joseph R. Wiley	74	59
State Convention
Roscoe Walter	175
Trustee—Concord
Gertrude Borthwick	68
George Strong	18
A. W. Trostel	113
Advisory Board
Frank Akins	153
Ed Schrader	137
Sam Wyatt	127
Precinct Committeeman
Laney Gee	158
Trustee—Spencer
Claud Laub		73
M. Butler		43
A. Dwyer		12

DEMOCRAT TICKET

	Con.	Spen
Congressman
James I. Farley	142	77
Judge
Edgar W. Atkinson	87	63
W. W. Sharpless	19	11
Walter D. Stump	54	14
Prosecutor
John C. Armstrong	144	78
Representative
John W. Mertz	81	33
Florance B. Smith	72	55
Auditor
William G. Erick	84	73
Frank E. Lyon	73	23
Treasurer
Lloyd H. Douglas	93	26
Ferne Ferguson	14	10
Claude P. Fitch	19	34
Edwin C. Trovinger	32	23
Recorder
Nina M. Little	27	28
Charles R. Morr	121	45
Otto L. Waterman	14	13
Sheriff
Herbert N. Grimm	110	69
Arta C. Zimmeran	45	20
Coroner
Benj. O. Shook	140	78
Carl J. Swank	21	17
Surveyor
Fred F. Groscop	32	12
Calvin C. Kain	81	54
John H. Rugman	46	21
Assessor
Eli T. Cochran	131	74
Commissioner, North
William H. Brecbill	36	24
Charles F. Conrad	21	14
John Platt	92	34
Commissioner, South
Cleve H. Grube	144	74
Councilman at Large
Frank E. Draggoo	109	64
Howard A. Hinklin	76	40
L. F. Tombow	96	41
State Convention
John C. Hull	107
Wayland Mutzfeld	51
Trustee—Concord
E W. Johnson	140
Advisory Board
Royce Gibford	108
Roy Wade	120
Adrian Washler	104
Precinct Committeeman
Grant Baltz	87
Harvey Hull	75
Trustee—Spencer
F. E. Rhodes		73

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS.

Grover Curie and family, of Kendallville, were in town Tuesday.

Ora Baker and Bruce Koch, of Bluffton, were home over the primary.

Wm. Hart, of Fort Wayne, was in town Tuesday and visited the cemetery.

Frank Meese painted the Wm. Pepple home last week and did a splendid job.

Miss Eloise Coburn is at Hicksville spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Miller.

The Saturday before Memorial Day, has been designated as Poppy Day, and it will be May 26.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Emily Hallabaugh at 2 P. M. this Thursday, May 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burgett and family, of New Haven, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Miller.

Rev. Frank Osbun, wife and two daughters, of Ashley, were Thursday guests in the Mrs. Anna Dilley home.

Stanley Koch and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koch and son, Jimmy, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday dinner guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch.

Walter White moved into the Sam Malone property last week, moving from south of Garrett, where he lived on the Gisinger fur farm. Walter is a son of the late Gene White.

Harry Kinsey and two daughters, of Hamilton spent from Friday until Sunday in the George Kinsey home. John Willett and family, of near Hicksville were Sunday guests also.

Mrs. Mary Bailey, who has been staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Watson, near Spencerville, has been taken to the home of another daughter, Mrs. Marvin Poper, south of Coburntown. Her health is quite poor.

PAY TRIBUTE TO CHARTER MEMBER

An interesting ceremony was held at the Church of Christ, Sunday morning, in honor of Mrs. Eva Sheffer, the only living charter member of the church which was organized May 2, 1886.

The minister, H. K. Schondelmayer, paid her tribute in a well chosen address, at the close of which he presented her a hugh basket of flowers, given by her Sunday School class, "The Loyal Workers."

A solo, "Face to Face," a favorite of Mrs. Sheffer's, was sung by Mark Williams, and a copy of the Charter was read by Mrs. Meade Baker. The following names were signed to the Charter, forty-eight years ago:

Joshua M. Lounsberry, Mrs. Ava Lounsberry, E. M. Vollmar, R. K. McDonald, Annie M. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Filley, B. S. Sheffer, Eva S. Sheffer, Emma Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Jared Irwin, Chas. Coburn and Miss Emma Tustison.

MONEY AVAILABLE LATER THIS WEEK

The 40% distribution of funds held in the St. Joe Valley Bank, was not made by F. M. Brandon, local representative, as he had planned in time for tax paying time. Months of hard work had been done by him to get a federal loan in time to meet the tax paying season, but due to some action at Chicago, word came that funds would not be available until later this week.

Many of the depositors were, of course, disappointed, but yet feel that Mr. Brandon did all he possibly could to make the much needed distribution.

The loan was authorized, checks were all in readiness for Monday issuance, when the word came of the delay in receiving the cash.

VISITORS WELCOME

The Leighty Orchards will be in full bloom by Saturday, Sunday and Monday, and Mr. Leighty stated that he would be glad for visitors, who appreciate a sight of this kind. Indications now point to the heaviest bloom in years.

BEIDLER
VARIETY STORE
WALL PAPER AND PAINT
Let Us Figure Your Job
East 7th. Street
Phone 254J AUBURN, IND.

BISHOP
AUTO BODY SERVICE
"YOU MUST BE SATISFIED"
Your Repainting or Body Work will have our Prompt Attention.
600 W. 15th. Street
Phone 720J Auburn, Ind.

Margaret's Beauty Shoppe
All Lines of Beauty Culture
Real Marcel – Finger Waving
Hair Cutting – Permanent Waving
105 East 2nd. Street
AUBURN, IND.

GORDON - HARVEY
Cosmetic & Beauty Salon
"A Beauty Aid for Every Need"
Established Since 1916
418 South Main Street
Phone 369 Auburn, Ind.
Permanents $4.00 Up.

Huber Theatre
HICKSVILLE, OHIO
Thursday, Friday, Saturday
MAY 10-11-12
"WONDER BAR"
—WITH—
Al Jolson, Dick Powell and Kay Francis
The picture that everybody has been waiting to see. 250 girls with gorgeous gowns, the latest songs and dances. Going to heaven on a mule by Al Jolson, dances by Hal Leroy. Better than 42 street or Gold Diggers. Warner Brothers greatest picture of the year.
Don't miss this one.
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
MAY 13-14-15
"LAUGHING BOY"
—WITH—
Ramond Novarro, Lupe Vilez
This is a fine picure, also News Reel and Comedy.
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday
MAY 16-17
"LAZY RIVER"
—WITH—
Jean Parker and Robert Young
Two young lovers fighting for their happiness on the river of romance.
Shows Start On
Week Days at 7:30
Sunday at 4:30
Running Continuously

Do you prize their health?

SAFE in the Electric Refrigerator—kept at a temperature always below 50 degrees—is the fresh milk so necessary to your child's health. Safe, too, is the food for the whole family.

Most food spoils rapidly, if it is not kept at a temperature below 50 degrees, and is often dangerous to health. The temperature of an Electric Refrigerator is automatically controlled and set below 50 degrees for adequate protection to food.

Wherever Electric Refrigerators are sold, a demonstration will be gladly given. The model of your choice may be purchased for a small amount down with the balance on easy time payments.

Published in the interest of the Electrical Contractors and Dealers by Indiana & Michigan Electric Company

L 919

U 282

MAY

Treasure for Two

By FLORENCE B. JACOBS

©, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

UNDER some scrub pines, the cowboy and the sheriff sat. Quietly. Companionably.

The cowboy fanned himself with his sombrero, then finally wiped his face with a bandanna whose color seemed to give the mercury fresh impetus. "Gosh, ain't it hot!"

"I'll say. Le's go swimmin'."

"Later, maybe . . . afterwards."

"Afterwards?" The sheriff seemed a bit slow on the uptake, due perhaps to the heat, perhaps to a recent surfeit of blueberry pie. The sheriff loved good things to eat, and in consequence his shining badge rode on the topmost curve of a series which made his stomach.

"Sure. Afterwards. You know after we check up on the map and decide about things."

"Oh, yeah," the sheriff knew now; and knowing, forgot about the second helping of pie, forgot even a few degrees of the sultry August heat. "Gee, yes . . . You got the map?"

"I should say so. Right here, boy," slapping a greasy pocket; then, with a careful glance up at the overhanging branches and down the railroad tracks to the far horizon, bringing from the same pocket a worn scrap of paper.

Together they pored over it, eyes and hands twitching with eagerness.

"You see the mark—kind of a dagger, like? That's where the stuff's buried. You follow this trail," a grimy forefinger showed the way, "through Devil Man's Hollow, past Skeleton Rocks, 'til you come to a pine 'thout branches, shaped like a cross. They hung a nigger there once. . . ."

A cold wind blew through the August heat. "Gee," said the sheriff, "what'd he do?"

"He was after the gold, too. That's why they hung him. But they did other things to him first." The long look which passed between them was too heavy with terror for the comfort of words. "So you can see how careful we got to be."

"S'pose they should get after us?" A sheriff's badge is evidently no guarantee as to the stoutness of heart beneath it.

"Let 'em!" The cowboy patted both pockets suggestively. "They don't call me Two-Gun Riley for nothin'!

"We'll meet here tomorrow night," he went on—"It's the dark o' the moon now—and start out. And when we come back, with the doubloons and the gold caskets an' them long strings o' pearls big as marbles . . . boy!"

"Boy!" echoed the sheriff, who saw no sense in straining after originality.

The cowboy's face became gravely calculating. "Now we're goin' to need money for this, Bill. There's things to be bought—grub an' tools and such. We'll pool what we got and then I better take charge of it. You know what happened last time, when you had the money."

The sheriff looked doubtful; but his slower wits were no match for the other's keen gray eyes. Besides, a certain crimson memory brought his cheeks almost to the boiling point. He turned his pockets inside out and put their specie yield into the cowboy's hand.

"Okay . . . And it's settled that when we get to Spaniards' Rest, we pick our spots, and the one that finds the chest first, keeps it? The other one has to help him bring it back, but he can't claim nothin'!"

"That's what we said."

"Then there's jus' one more thing, Bill."

"What is it?" asked Bill, in a carefully toneless voice which promised nothing.

"Why, about Milly. You know that the guy who gets the gold oughtta get the girl. It'd be just like Milly to stick by the man that loses—she's that way. But you and me know that wimmin need clothes and jewels 'n' things. So I think we ought to protect Milly from herself; fix it up so the one who finds the treasure gets Milly, and the other one fades outta the picture."

"Mmm," said the sheriff, "but suppose I get it? Would you be willin' to clear out and leave me Milly?"

"Sure!" the other assured him, with a large, free gesture which indicated how far he was prepared to go. "You bet I will. Why, Bill, I won't never see Milly again, if you get the treasure."

But the stress which he put on the last words overreached itself. The sheriff was pricked to suspicion.

"Yeah," he sneered, "if I get the treasure. And prob'ly you got it fixed some way so there's no chance o' my gettin' it. I know you, Jim Riley. You're too darned smart. I ain't gonna promise nothin'."

"All right," said the cowboy, "all right for you, Billy Thomas. The expedition's off. I was lettin' you in on this because you was my pal—but you ain't any more. I'll just go alone and have all the treasure for myself."

In a single decisive move the cowboy returned the map to his pocket and fastened the flap. Then he took a sucker from another pocket and applied his tongue to its gummy brown surface.

The sheriff began to cry. "I'm sick of this game," he wailed, "I want my penny back and my head aches and—"

"Aw, be your age," the other sneered at him. "Ain't you most nine? Well, here's your penny then, crybaby! Now scram!"

Clutching his penny, the sheriff scrammed. . . . Should you have stayed to shoot it out with Two-Gun Riley, almost eleven and known as a desperate hombre?

Farmers May Now Get After Weeds

Land Removed From Corn and Wheat Provides Splendid Opportunity.

By Bruce Thornton, Associate Botanist, Colorado Agricultural College. WNU Service.

An exceptional opportunity for farmers to control harmful weeds is offered in the removal of large acreages of land from wheat and corn under the government's plan of controlled production.

Such weeds as field bindweed or wild morning glory, white weed or perennial peppergrass, poverty weeds, Canada thistle and Russian knapweed may be controlled or eradicated by cultivating often enough to prevent any green growth appearing above the surface of the ground. Clean cultivation is the cheapest method of eradication available at present.

This usually requires cultivating once a week for two consecutive years, although cultivations may be less frequent as the plants are weakened. One year of clean cultivation has produced desired results under some conditions, weakening weeds so that a heavy sowing of alfalfa has smothered them out completely. However, there is always a chance that some plants will survive under this method.

These weed pests defy ordinary control methods because of the huge amounts of food materials held in reserve in their extensive, creeping root systems. Usual cultural practices, where care is not taken to keep green growth from appearing, often increases rather than decreases the growth and spread of the weeds.

Clean cultivation has been hindered in the past by the hesitancy to take land out of production, although crops produced in weedy areas usually are of poor quality and low yield. Now that farmers are being paid rentals by the government to keep land out of corn and wheat, or the production of any crop competing with any basic commodity, an unusual opportunity presents itself for eradicating injurious weeds by clean cultivation. Weed eradication will increase the value of the land and remove a source of possible further damage.

Quail, Farmers' Friend, Must Have Food Supply

Among the chief causes for lack of quail and upland birds on farms may be scarcity of necessary food and cover. Failure to supply substitute "patches" when natural feeding ground has been destroyed and neglect to preserve the natural cover for the bob-white's habitat, are among the chief causes of gradual reduction, says the Missouri Farmer. Many measures may be taken on the average farm to increase or improve the food for quail, and help bring about an increase in their numbers.

Seed can be broadcast in early spring around gulleys and washes, on roadsides, around the borders of fields and like situations. Cain, hemp, lespedeza, clover and many species of small wild beans and cowpeas provide excellent sustenance for quail. Once started lespedeza volunteers year after year, unless killed out by burning the land over after the seed germinates in the spring. When harvesting grain a few rows on the outside near cover may be advantageously left for the birds. Quail at times do much work on the farm by destroying serious insect pests and are considered one of the farmer's best allies and deserve the serious consideration on any man's farm.

Bees Are in Demand

Were it not that honey producing is profitable enough to induce people to keep bees, it would be necessary to raise some type of insect solely for the purpose of pollenation, says Dr. E. F. Phillips, professor of entomology at Cornell university, in his recent address to the Empire State Honey Producers' association. So necessary is the service that bees render to the fruit growers of New York state that 600 colonies of them were imported last year to aid in pollenization in Niagara county alone, and in other counties throughout the fruit-growing region growers are renting colonies of bees for the purpose. Not only do bees produce a $2,000,000 honey crop annually in New York state but they pollinate more than one-third of the $15,000,000 apple crop as well.

Along the Furrows

Consumers in this country ate more than 15,000,000,000 pounds of meat in 1933.

• • •

Sugar beet shipments from Utah in 1933 were 10 per cent higher than those of 1932.

• • •

Number of farms supplied with high-line electric service in Ohio rose from 16,000 in 1923 to 48,000 in 1933.

• • •

Ohioans destroyed, in 1933, a total of 178,994 common barberry bushes on 575 properties in 26 counties.

• • •

Past experience in marketing beef cattle indicates that carrying cattle much beyond 1,000 to 1,100 pounds is hazardous most months of the year.

• • •

In recent years, over 90 per cent of the United States flax crop has been produced in North Dakota, Minnesota, South Dakota and Montana, the states ranking in production in the order named.

Newfoundland Sealers

Dragging Pelts to a Sealing Vessel.

Prepared by National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.—WNU Service.

DURING the late spring each year, St. Johns, Newfoundland, is a beehive of activity; for the vessels of the famous Newfoundland sealing fleet are returning from the northern seal-hunting grounds.

Sailing dates for sealing vessels are fixed by law and not by weather. No killing is permitted before March 14 nor after May 1.

At eight o'clock in the morning, March 7, St. Johns is black with men. On that day the sealing fleet weighs anchors and sails for the annual hair-seal hunt, the second most valuable fishery of Newfoundland. St. Johns-men line Water street and crowd the piers where the ships lie.

The heartfelt wishes of St. Johns and the whole island go with these men and ships as they move out of the harbor. Whistles scream Godspeed, bells ring out, cannons fire salutes, bunting flies on ship and shore, boys and men race along the Battery road, cheering the ships to the Narrows and beyond.

The sealing hands come from various parts of the island, some of them starting for St. Johns late in February. It is the worst time of the year—rough weather. The men bid good-by to their families and start out, many on snowshoes, walking to trunk-line railway stations.

St. Johns begins to fill up with them the first days of March. They wear canvas jumpers over homemade guernseys (sweaters), moleskin or homespun trousers, one to four red or white flannel shirts, and home-knit, heavy drawers. Some wear sealskin caps and some sealnors or whalers, which are leather, wool-lined caps with ear flaps. Their mittens are also homemade.

Husky Men Are Needed.

Captains like to sign up men who frequent the open bays fishing and hunting birds and who are seasoned in the woods. A man who has been dragging a sled and lugging wood all winter is in fine fettle for the job ahead of him. He's got good wind to go after the seals. A man snogging seals has to be light-footed, running and jumping over the ice like a deer. A big fellow with broad shoulders has to be followed around with a life belt; he will be falling into the water all the time.

They want men light and nimble, raw-boned fellows, small. Sometimes, to get light, the men take off everything except their underwear and boots, in order to follow fast after the seals, which can go as fast or faster than a good man running.

The day is appointed for the signing of the men. "The John Doe will sign her crew at nine o'clock," says a placard on the office of the ship owners. Men fill up the room and the clerk reads the whereases, the wherefores, the whys, and the shares. Then the sealers put down their names or make their crosses if they can't write.

Each sealer then receives a ticket with his number and name on it, and also a "crop." A crop is an advance of a small sum of money. Some men send the money home; others don't use it; and others buy tea, sugar, belt, sheath and knife, skin boots, oilskins, or tobacco.

If they think they are getting something for nothing, some of the sealers will buy anything—anything from a needle to an anchor.

The ship clears Channel Head and hauls up for Cape Ray. The ice is about ten miles offshore and the lop (big sea) hoves down from the northwest. The ship, with engines wide open, takes them green over the forecastle, clean over the bridge. In about 20 minutes she is one solid block of ice.

With the coming of night the wind drops, enabling the vessel to make the ice—that is, get under the weather edge of ice, where the water smoothes. Here the craft lies until daylight next morning. At the first crack of dawn it is under way, following the leads and open water, and at length meeting the big level sheets of slob (new) ice. For a while the ship makes good progress, but, on working in, the leads begin to narrow and close up and the sheets get heavier.

Not Fur Seals.

At last the lookout reports seals ahead.

Where do these seals come from?

What kind of seals are they?

The seals on Pribilof islands in Bering sea are different from the harps and hoods that are hunted off Newfoundland. The Pribilof is a fur seal (near relative of the sea lion) and its skin is used for making beautiful coats, worn by fair ladies to give them an air of distinction. It hauls out on the land. It pups or whelps on the land, while the harp and the hood haul out on the ice to give birth to their puppies. Newfoundland fishermen call it seal "fishery," because the Atlantic seals live as much in the water as cod and haddock. During the season of Lent the sealers eat the hair seals just as they would fish.

Capt. Robert A. (Bob) Bartlett, a veteran sealer, once said, "When I tell girls about the large number of seals we get off Newfoundland, some of them ask why I don't bring them fur coats? I feel like thirty cents, knowing I can't comply with their wishes. Well, I am sorry, I tell them, but the seals we go after are the hair seals, and all they are good for is to make soap and pocketbooks."

There are several different kinds of seals around the shores of Newfoundland and the Gulf of St. Lawrence: the square flipper, the horsehead or gray seal, the jar or ringed seal, the bay or shore seal, the harp seal, and the hooded seal. The harp and the hood are the two kinds that the Newfoundland sealers hunt in their sealing vessels. The first four varieties mentioned hang about Newfoundland and other northern waters, in small groups, but only the hood and the harp herds beat away to the northward and return to their whelping grounds in an annual migration over 2,000 miles of ocean.

Harp Is the Best Seal.

The seal par excellence is the harp. As an adult it carries a gray-colored patch on the back, shaped like a harp, for which it is named. The harp yields more oil than the hood and the young are easy to handle. Because it gathers in close herds, less time is required in hunting it.

After having been down to the Banks, the harps work northward to a vast sea eddy eastward of Belle Isle strait, and also in to the Gulf of St. Lawrence to the west of the Magdalens. Now they are the sport of wind and weather of stormy March, and until the coming of the airplane spotter the seal skippers had nothing but their own judgment and experience to bring them to the herd.

The harp seal seeks new ice—that is, ice a few inches thick that forms in the open leads between the heavier ice. Only in new ice can the harp bore bobbing holes and get to its young, which are born on the new ice.

The baby harp looks like a fluffy white muff with two large, liquid brown eyes peering out. It is as woolly as a gosling. Later the hairs become longer and whiter, until in about 20 to 25 days the young seals roll the white coats off in their movements around the ice and become "ragged jackets." This white, woolly coat is replaced by a hair coat covered with dark spots the size of an American quarter-dollar.

In its first days the puppy seal is helpless and dependent on its mother. It whines like a baby. The weight at birth is about seven pounds. Drinking its mother's rich milk, it puts on a pound to a pound and a half a day.

Sealing is a hard life.

Men on board a sealer are jammed in as tight as sardines in a box, particularly in the smaller wooden vessels. Going out, every available bit of space is filled with coal, with ice-fighting equipment, sealers' chests, dunnage bags and sealing gear, and men as thick as flies around a molasses puncheon.

A sealer carries provisions for two months and a half—70 to 80 barrels of potatoes, 100 quintals of codfish, 80 barrels of flour, 35 barrels of pork, many pounds of tea, molasses to sweeten the tea, butter, turnips, and beans.

Contrast in Menus.

Could some of the old sealing crews take a look at what's going on now, they would be shell-shocked with wonder. They'd think the fishery was ruined on account of luxurious living. They had nothing but hard biscuit and tea, pork and duff, with little grease in the duff. No soft bread whatever.

The men go overboard in gangs, or watch crews, 40 to 50 men in a watch. The master watch is responsible for the working of the men and their safety. Each crew tries to beat the other crew, and each man tries to beat the other man. Where the seals are fairly plentiful, the master watch raises a marker flag and leaves some men, and then another flag and more men.

The mother harp goes down a bobbing hole, as the sealer approaches. Young seals are saucy and will come for a man until he snogs them with his bat. He turns the dead whitecoat on its back and slits it down the belly. Then he carefully cuts the body away from the pelt, which is the skin with the white fat fastened to it, and then cuts off the hinder daddles (black flippers). One or both front flippers may be removed.

On the Funny Side

MEMORY

The school inspector had been questioning the class for a considerable time. Presently he said:

"I wish I were a boy again and back at school." He paused: "Do you know why I wish that?"

For a second or two there was silence. Then a grimy hand went up.

"Well?" asked the inspector.

"'Cos you've forgotten all you ever knowed," said the youth.

Has Good Chauffeur

Captain Fried, hero of many ocean rescues, reaches New York but once a month on an average. The other day a friend asked him how he got from the ship to his home in Tuckahoe.

"By machine," he answered.

"How long does it take?"

"Less than an hour."

"You must have a good chauffeur," the friend said.

"Yes," said Fried, "but she won't let me drive!"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Might Lend Him a Razor

The office boy took off his cap, presented the bill and said: "My boss says I'm not to go back until you give me the money you owe him."

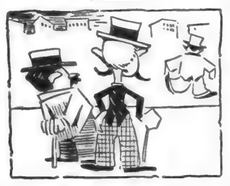
"Indeed!" said the debtor. "I wonder if he'll recognize you with a beard."

Ought to Be Good

"What is your husband working on now?" the inventor's wife was asked.

"He's trying to design a car that will jump over a fast train at the crossing instead of arguing with it about the right of way when the driver thinks he's in too big a hurry to wait," sighed the weary wife.

THE SKINFLINT!



"When they came back from the wedding trip he had just $2.65 in his pocket."

"What a tight-wad!"

Taken In?

Mrs. Smart—My husband considered a long time before he proposed to me. He was very careful not to get involved.

Mrs. Sharp—It's always those extra careful people who get taken in, isn't it?—Pathfinder Magazine.

Horn O. K.

"Go easy. This hill's not too safe."

"Can't slow down—the brakes are not working."

"You don't mean to say—"

"Oh, don't get panicky, the horn's all right."—Toronto Globe.

More Appropriate

Mrs. Jewsmith—I suppose you'll want a den in our new house?

Mr. Jewsmith—I'd like one but I lead such a dog's life I guess I'll have to be content with a kennel.

Another?

She had just accepted him, and they were blissfully discussing the "might-have-beens."

"Darling," he inquired in the confident tone of one who knows what the answer will be, "why didn't you accept that little donkey, Jones?"

"Because," she answered, dreamily, "I loved another."

Your local dealer carries Ferry's Pure Bred Vegetable Seeds. Now only 5 cents a package. Adv.

Hash

"Hey, cook, I'd like to take home the recipe of that hash you are cooking that smells so good."

"There is no recipe for hash. It just collects."—Christian Register.

The Only Way

Did you hear about the two kangaroos who skipped from home, jumped into marriage and lived hoppily ever after?

ATTRACTIVE FROCK, DESIGNED FOR THE MATRONLY FIGURE

Complete, Diagrammed Sew Chart Included.

PATTERN 9668

Soft lines, planned carefully to give slenderness of appearance—that is an achievement in the designing of dresses for the heavier woman. And here is the pattern that does the clever trick. It can be made up in one of the fresh new prints, preferably with a small-figured design in it. Or it can be made of plain silk in any of the new spring shades. The jabot finish at the yoke-line is particularly good, covering a full bust and lending interest to the dress in an unobtrusive way.

Pattern 9668 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48 and 50. Size 36 requires 4⅝ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth St., New York.

OVERSTUDY

"A man must be a student all his days to hold a position like yours," remarked the admiring constituent.

"That is true," answered Senator Sorghum, "and, like a student, I get so weary of hard lessons that I am going in for more recreation. I am going to organize a movement to include a sports page in the Congressional Record."

Nuisance

"How did you happen to let that man break jail?"

"I wouldn't exactly say he broke jail," answered Cactus Joe. "But he complained of the bill of fare and then he kicked about the wine card till we just naturally got tired of him and threw him out."

LARGE IF

"Do you think a man should divide his earnings with his wife?"

"Yes—if she don't get it all first."

Easily Explained

Judge—How can you be so mean as to swindle people who put confidence in you?

Prisoner—Well, your honor, they are the only ones that you can swindle.

A Different Kind

London child (on her first view of a rainbow)—Oo-mummy—what is it, advertising?—London Tatler.

MAY

L 919

283

STRONG MEDICINE

Lady—I want a wart removed.

Hardware Clerk—But, lady, I'm not a doctor.

Lady—I know it. I want to buy a revolver!

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

The Milking Spot

Lawyer (trying to badger witness) —And where did you see him milking your cows?

Witness—Just a little back of the center.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Cocksure

"You say he's sure of himself?"

"Is he? Why, he always does cross-word puzzles with a pen."

THE EASY WAY TO IRON!

KEEP COOL
SAVE TIME
SAVE WORK
SAVE MONEY
with the

Coleman SELF-HEATING Iron

THIS Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100.00 washing machine! It will save your strength . . . help you do better ironing easier and quicker at less cost.

Instant Lighting . . . no heating with matches or torch . . . no waiting. The evenly-heated double pointed base irons garments with fewer strokes. Large glass-smooth base slides easier. Ironing time is reduced one-third. Heats itself . . . use it anywhere. Economical, too . . . costs only 1½¢ an hour to operate. See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP AND STOVE CO.
Dept. WU88, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Toronto, Ontario, Canada (4898)

OLD AGE PENSION INFORMATION
Send Stamp.
Box 85 - - - - - - - - Merriam, Kansas.

CUT ME OUT

and mail me, with 10c coin or stamps and your name and address to LORD & AMES, Inc., 360 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, I will bring you a generous sample of Lonay Face Powder and Lonstone, the marvelous all-purpose beauty cream. Also details how to make $5.00 to $10.00 a week extra in your spare time

Impossibility

You cannot improve your time by tinkering with your watch.

What* SHE TOLD WORN-OUT HUSBAND

SHE could have reproached him for his fits of temper—his "all in" complaints. But wisely she saw in his frequent colds, his "fagged out," "on edge" condition the very trouble she herself had whipped. Constipation! The very morning after taking NR (Nature's Remedy), as she advised, he felt like himself again—keenly alert, peppy, cheerful. NR—the safe, dependable, all-vegetable laxative and corrective—works gently, thoroughly, naturally. It stimulates the eliminative tract to complete, regular functioning. Non-habit-forming. Try a box. 25c—at druggists'.

NR TO-NIGHT TOMORROW MORNING

"TUMS" Quick relief for acid indigestion, heartburn. Only 10c.

Cuticura Ointment Soothes and Heals

skin irritations quickly and easily. Let it be your first thought in treating itching, burning affections, eczema, pimples and other disfiguring blotches. No household should be without it.

Price 25c and 50c

Sample free. Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 18S, Malden, Mass.

PYORRHEA, Trench Mouth, Bleeding Gums surely corrected by MYRAL the amazing new dollar dentifrice or money returned. Write Myral Distributing Co., Fort Worth, Texas.

TOBACCO
Mild, mellow, finest flavored. Pipe or cigarette smoking 5 lbs. postpaid $1.00. WOODRUFF T. CO., Cottagegrove, Tenn.

Gold Bond Chicks. Quality bred from selected flocks. Produced from large eggs. Orders filled promptly. Attractive prices. Write Drake's Poultry Farms, Concordia, Mo.

Salesmen! Now, amazing, beautifying invention. Brings most desired thing in life. Absolutely guar. $1.00. You make $1.15 on. Sheldon C. P. C., Box 68, Brooklyn, N. Y.

SORES Write LUCKS—Dr. Newberg Clinic for Free Old Sore Book. Dr. Hard Building, Montana, Ohio.

WNU—A 10—34

Print With Plain Is Style Formula

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THAT new style formula which calls for gay print combined with a monotone weave is taking the world of fashion by storm. The idea has so captivated designers they are working their imagination overtime in order to play up dramatically to this challenge to their genius. The three fetching costumes in the illustration tell an eloquent story in regard to this new and thrilling print-and-plain movement.

Let us consider first the perfectly charming model in the center. It requires genuine artistry to produce anything like this. The manner in which the daisy motif of the print is worked to relieve a straight waistline and to unify blouse and skirt is nothing less than a stroke of genius. The lining of the jacket which, by the way, reflects the very fashionable coolie-coat influence is also of the daisy print. White gloves, a navy hat and pocketbook and navy shoes carry a last word style message.

Did you think it a redingote ensemble—the costume to the left in the picture? It does look the part, we will admit, but in reality it is a voguish one-piece dress of navy sheer with a swish of startling print dashing its way down the entire front of the frock. The collar may be worn open to show revers. Of course you have made mental note of the jaunty little white Breton sailor which this fashionable young woman is wearing. The wee feather brings just the right color note to this nobby headpiece.

Surprise number one is that the costume to the left is not a redingote ensemble and now for surprise number two which is to the effect that the costume to the right in the group is just that—a redingote model. This redingote of unusual styling buttons at one shoulder and down the side under the arm. While it looks as if it might be a one-piece dress it is really an entirely separate item and can be worn as a coat with any frock. A black sheer fabric fashions it and it tops a print crepe gown in yellow and black. Her black Milan straw Breton sailor is definitely chic.

So high does enthusiasm run for this alliance of print and a solid color you will find all sorts of neckwear fancies and accessories to wear with your one-color dresses made of gay Mexican and Roman-stripe or plaid prints. The new bib collars with cuffs to match are animated with cunning pleatings and bright buttons. Plastrons of print silk which cover the entire front of the bodice and are tied about the waist are quite the rage. Try one of these with that navy or black frock which calls for a freshening spring touch. You will be elated to see what one of these neckwear sets of startling print can do to a hitherto somber frock.

Here's another suggestion, why not a boutonniere with gloves to match of multi-colored or checked print to wear with your spring tailored suit? Perhaps an audacious plaid or stripe scarf tied in a huge bow to wear with your navy or brown swagger suit is more to your liking. By the way, had you heard about the increasing popularity of brown prints? This movement is worth watching. Many of these smart brown prints are patterned with lovely fresh spring yellows and vivid orange with a dash of pure white.

©by Western Newspaper Union.

STRIPE VELVET

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Summer velvets are proving a great attraction to the style-conscious woman who is looking for the newest and the smartest materials. It can readily be seen from this picture that summer velvet in two-color stripe makes an exceedingly smart swagger sports coat. You can visualize this in navy and white or brown and beige or other combinations, for this most desirable velvet comes in various color alliances. The hat is trimmed, in a most effective manner, with a two-color velvet ribbon.

NUN INFLUENCE IN PLAYTIME STYLES

Playtime costumes for modish moderns recalling the habits of cloistered nuns have stepped upon the fashion stage as a novel note in spring fashions.

Though the black dinner costumes were lightened by gayer touches than a nun ever donned, and gold necklaces and earrings brightened the ensemble, the long-sleeved dinner frocks with demure high necks, the halo hats worn by the mannequins, the serenity of their faces and walk, lent a touch of the habit worn by the French "religieuse."

Madame Lanvin showed a long-sleeved, high-necked dinner gown of scarlet red crepe with an instep length black faille coat and a black halo hat. The mannequin, whose hair was swept serenely back from her face, wore two great gold ball earrings and a belt of golden nail heads. Another striking costume combined a long-sleeved frock of black lace, a long black faille coat and hat.

Mannish Lines Disappear in Latest Spring Suits

Femininity is the essence of that new spring suit.

Though a trimly tailored effect of simplicity is still the rule, the hard mannish line in vogue for several seasons has been tossed on fashion's scrap heap. Wools are often a little softer, silhouettes look less as though they had been sketched by hard black crayon on white paper, accessories such as golden snail or silver seashell fastenings are decidedly feminine.

Metal-Threaded Organdy

Organdy gowns, woven with metal threads or splashed with shimmering sequins, are designed with full sweeping hems which billow about the wearer's feet.

Precocity Often Found to Be Trick of Brain

A boy of sixteen who can tell the day of the week on which any date occurs, either back to 1600 or forward to 2000, has been discovered in a British mental welfare hospital.

Youthful prodigies of this kind occur from time to time, but in most cases such powers don't last a very long time. For instance, one youngster who could work out in his head multiplication sums whose answers extended to 36 figures when he was ten years old had no more power of calculation than the ordinary intelligent person when he grew up.

It is also possible, as has been demonstrated in numbers of cases, for a human "calculating machine" to be below the normal level of intelligence in other respects. Out of thirteen cases described by one investigator, in which those powers were present during the early years of life, three were of average brain power, four were described as "low" in intelligence, and one as "very low."

Ferry's Seeds are sold only in fresh dated packages. When you buy Ferry's Seeds you are sure of the finest quality available. Adv.

He's an Easy Mark

It doesn't take a very bright woman to dazzle the average man.

"TREASURE ISLAND" TODAY

Not many people today know that the famed "Treasure Island" of Stevenson's story lies in the south Pacific half way between Samoa and Fiji, somewhat off the regular steamer lanes though certain vessels divert their routes to pass it. The island, now known as Niuafou, is three and a half miles in diameter with a two-and-a-half-mile fresh water lake 90 feet above sea level within it. There are no harbors and one tiny village. One white man resides there.

"spring fever" time is here

...and what does it mean to you?

JUST THIS: if you feel listless, run-down, appetite dull, with a weak, let-down feeling ...perhaps nervous and worn out... why not make an effort to "snap out" of this condition?

Try toning up your appetite... increasing your red-blood-cells... the best way to be happy.

You need a tonic—not just a so-called tonic... but a tonic that will tone up your blood. S.S.S. is specially designed to do this for you. Unless your case is exceptional you should improve as your oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin increases.

At all drug stores in two convenient sizes. The larger size is more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

In the Spring—take S.S.S.

Discovery

"Taxi, sir?"

"Much obliged. I was just wondering what it was."

Faith a Necessity

Faith in something is an absolute and vital essential to the life of every woman.—Exchange.

FOR BETTER GARDENS

In fresh dated packets at your local store

FERRY'S PUREBRED VEGETABLE SEEDS NOW 5¢

Luckily for Anglers

Fish may be bought if they can't be caught.

Moderation Called For

Exercise your rights but don't work them to death.

Supply Always on Hand

Every man's credit is good when it comes to borrowing trouble.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES finds he's vulnerable

WHILE lots of people can safely drink coffee, there are a great many others who cannot. Perhaps . . . without realizing it . . . you are one of these.

The caffein in coffee may be robbing you of sleep, upsetting your digestion, or undermining your nervous system.

If you have any reason to suspect that coffee is disagreeing with you . . . why don't you switch to Postum for 30 days? You'll find it a delicious drink . . . and it may be a real help. Postum contains nothing that can possibly harm you. It is economical, easy to prepare. A product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE! Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U.—6-10-34
Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address.
This offer expires Dec. 31, 1934.

Allay Pimply Skin

Help nature clear up the blotches and make your skin lovelier the safe easy way—use bland, effective

Resinol

WATCH THE SPECIALS

YOU can depend on the special sales the merchants of our town announce in the columns of this paper. They mean money saving to our readers. It always pays to patronize the merchants who advertise. They are not afraid of their merchandise or their prices.

MAY

L 919

284

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Lawn Mower Sharpening and Repairing. (Not an Emery Grind.) Satisfaction Guaranteed. Walter Keesler. 18t3p.

For Sale: Manchu Soy Beans, good quality. N. A. Goldsmith, 2 miles north-east of Grabill. 18t3p.

WANTED: White Oak, red oak, white ash, maple and basswood. Butler Hardware Lumber Co. Phone 210L or call at saw mill. 17t4p.

For Sale: Pop corn for seed or popping. Australian Hulless and Golden Gate. S. W. Armstrong. 19t1p.

Buy Started Chicks at Attractive Prices. Hi-Record Hatchery. Grabill, Ind. Phone Leo 215. 18t2

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

For Sale or Trade for Potatoes, Milwaukee mowing machine, 5-ft. cut. Ray Littlefield, Concord. 19t1p.

Let us tune up the ignition of your car—saves trouble. Hankey Garage. 5tf.

MORTUARY

BLEEKS

Wm. C. Bleeks, son of James and Elizabeth Bleeks, was born March 16, 1856, in Newville Township, and departed this life May 2, 1934 at the age of 78 years, 1 month and 17 days.

On Christmas Eve, 1881, he was married to Elsie Gill, who died January 5, 1923. To this union there was born, Ora, who died February 6, 1934; Walter, who is in the west; Charles, of north of Concord, and Carrie, of Orangeville.

He was the last of a family of nine children and he was a member of the I. O. O. F. of Auburn and K. of P. Lodge of St. Joe.

Sixteen grandchildren, two great grand-daughters, nieces and nephews and a host of friends are left to mourn their loss.

The funeral was held from the Kinsey funeral home Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. V. O. Harrold. Burial in Riverside cemetery.

K. OF P. RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas it has pleased the Almighty God to remove from our midst and call to his eternal reward, Brother Wm. Bleeks,

Therefore, Be it resolved, That in the death of Brother Bleeks, the K. of P. Lodge, No. 400, has lost a valued member, and this community a good citizen.

Therefore, Be it Resolved, that we be urged to a more faithful discharge of our duties in exemplification of his virtues.

Be it Further Resolved, as a mark of respect and esteem to our deceased brother, that our charter be draped for a period of thirty days, that these resolutions be spread on record in the minutes of our Lodge, that a copy be sent to the St. Joe News for publication and a copy sent to the bereaved family, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Committee:
Laney Gee.
Roy Wade.
Ward Woodcox.

Virginia Goldsmith
wishes to announce that during her illness, that her hatchery will be in operation.
All orders for Chicks or Custom Hatching, will receive prompt and efficient attention. Your advance orders will be greatly appreciated.
HATCHERY
Phone 2212 Spencerville.

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT
Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

TO CHANGE CLOSED FISHING SEASON

Sportsmen and conservationists of Indiana have realized for several years the necessity of revising and changing the fish and game laws. The State Conservation committee, meeting at Turkey Run State Park, voted to consider definite changes at its next meeting and appointed a committee to recommend definite changes and prepare needed amendments to the present laws. The necessity of change in the closed season has been discussed much, and the same law prohibiting fishing during spawing season will not work for northern and southern Indiana, due wholly upon the climate and a more flexible system is to be recommended.

NEW METHOD OF FENCING

Electric fencing is being advocated as a cheap and satisfactory method of fencing a farm, and it is meeting with approval, wherever tried. Carl Carpenter is making this experiment on his farm, and when you pass his country home, you will wonder just why the hogs will stay within the bounds of a single wire. The secret is that the wire is attached to the electric wire with a transformer to reduce the voltage to such a degree as to not be harmful to the stock and they will not attempt to pass under or over wire.

Coburn's Corners

Warren Smith was a Sunday afternoon caller at J. S. Shull's.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for May 6 was 93, collection $3.99.

Lew Washler had charge of the young people's meeting Sunday evening.

Hazel Washler was hostess to the Rural Housewife Club Tuesday afternoon.

Lizzie Shull, who was taken to Decatur, is reported as able to be up most of the time.

Buy Started Chicks at Attractive Prices. Hi-Record Hatchery. Grabill, Ind. Phone Leo 215. 18t2

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter and Mrs. Ida Chubb and son, Ivan were Fort Wayne shoppers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Koch and children, of Fort Wayne, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Koch.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Hattie Walker and Martha E. Hart called an Pearl Shull and daugher, Geraldine, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sommer, of Spencerville, were out calling on old friends and neighbors in this vicinity Sunday afternoon.

Garth Shull and family were dinner guests of Mr. Wolford, of Fort Wayne, Sunday. They also called on George Hart, who is being cared for at the Klopfenstein home, and found George gaining.

The house warming at Marvin Poper's was a very enjoyable affair, and the guests gave them a hen shower of which they were greatly surprised and delighted. Some were thoughful and brought feed that did not have a hen, one thoughtful neighbor brought a setting hen and eggs that they might later enjoy a fry. Claud Laub took the prize in pop corn eating, a dish pan did not fill the bill, so he was given a ten quart milk pail, which gave him the victory.

NEWVILLE

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and family attended an all day Aid meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer McCullough, May 3.

Mr. and Mrs S. S. Wyatt spent Thursday in Fort Wayne.

Mother's Day will be observed at the U. B. Church, May 13.

Wm. Hill, of Antwerp, Ohio, visited relatives here Monday.

Fred Shisley is under the care of Dr. Unger of Evansport, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. James Revett were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt.

Abner Trostel attended the Sunday School convention in Auburn, May 6th.

Mrs. Ina Traxler, Mona Traxler and Dorothy Wasson were Fort Wayne visitors Saturday.

The Ladies Aid of the U. B. Church will meet Thursday afternoon, May 10, at the church.

James DeLong, of Corunna, called on friends here Monday. He was enroute to Antwerp, Ohio.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and faimly were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cline, in Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben King and family were here from Fort Wayne Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark.

Mother's Day will be observed May 13 at Mt. Pleasant with all day services. It will also be young people's anniversary day.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler attended the Sunday School convention at Auburn Sunday afternoon, and also called on Mrs. V. J. Thomas at Sacred Heart Hospital in Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Yeiser and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. McNamara and family, A. C. Koeppe and A. J. Countryman spent Saturday in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Fusselman and daughter, Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fusselman were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Kate Fusselman. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. A. Driver and daughter, Eva from South Bend and Shirley Diehl from Ft. Wayne.

SPENCERVILLE

Mr. Richard Shook visited his parents here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Doll and family spent Saturday in the Paul Dean home.

Born to Delbert and Garnet Hudson Furnish twin girls Sunday morning.

The True Blue Class will meet Saturday afternoon with Louise and Betty Shockley.

A license was issued recently to Kenneth Smith and Maola Dove of this place, at Fort Wayne.

The B. F. Markle family spent Sunday afternoon in the Tillie Oberholtzer home near Harlan.

Many Spencerville people were at the Paul Baer airport Sunday viewing the Kroger air circus.

Henry Markle and family will return to this city from Detroit to spend Mother's Day with his parents.

Miss Lola Laux is working in Auburn, having taken employment at house work immediately after the close of school.

The Friends Garage was rented recently by a Ft. Wayne man who will work in connection with Rousaeu Brothers of Fort Wayne.

Mother's Day will be observed at the Lutheran Church on Sunday morning. The following Sunday, the school will be in charge of the young people's class and teachers and officers will be given a day's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean were guests at Sunday night supper of Mr. and Mrs. Russel McComb at Auburn. Other guests were Mr. Wier McComb and Mr. Wayne Davis, of Garret. In the afternoon they attended the Kroger air show.

Mrs. Ethel Bowser and Mrs. Cleo Reed had the misfortune, while driving on State Road No. 1 Friday afternoon, to have a truck run into them, smashing both fenders. Neither lady was injured.

Mrs. Mintie Rhodes very pleasantly entertained the C. C. Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Household hints were given in response to roll call, after which talks and round table discussion of house cleaning methods were given. At the close of club's business an attractive lunch was served.

Tuesday afternoon radio listeners had the chance to hear an interview with Carol Miller, the 1934 Purlitzer Prize winner, over the Columbia Broadcasting system. Astounding is the fact that Mrs. Miller is an inhabitant of a very backwooday town in Carolina and yet found material and local color for her novel in that small locality "where nothing ever happens."

Mrs. Elsie Fisher is numbered with the sick.

Donald Culbertson spent Sunday with Robert Hafner.

Miss Joyce Dean was a recent guest in the Eck Hursh home.

Mrs. Maud Beams will entertain the C. C. Club Thursday afternoon May 10.

Mrs. Bina Shilling spent Monday the guest of her parents at Antwerp, Ohio.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman was a week-end guest of the Louis Markle home near Harlan.

Herbie Osborne, of Andrews, Ind., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Emila Gloyd.

The Home Bureau will meet with Mrs. Winnie Shook Wednesday afternoon at 1:30.

Audra Ward, Lillian, Max and Chalmer Walter, were recent guests at the Roy Chaney home.

The Misses Edith and Eva Mae Culbertson, were Sunday dinner guests at the Paul Furnish home.

Mrs. Frances Chapman, who has been caring for Mrs. Bernice Baker, spent Sunday with her family.

The Young Ladies' Social Club will be entertained Friday night by Troas Carpenter of Coburntown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hudson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Furnish and babes Sunday afternoon.

The Y. M. P. Bible Class of the Lutheran Church will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kraft Thursday evening.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for May 6, was 79, collection $2.86; Lutheran 65, collecion $2.73.

Mr. Edgar Dennis and children, of Richmond, Ind., were week-end guests at the R. U. Bowser and J. L. Reed homes.

Misses LaVern and Marcella Furnish are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, at Hicksville, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Badiac and family, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday evening callers of Mrs. Emila Gloyd and family.

Mr. John Sturgis, Mrs. Syders and children, of Cincinnati, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rhoades and family.

Mr. Fred High, of Fort Wayne, spent the week-end here with his wife, Mrs. Golden High, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. High.

It is well to take a few minutes each day in observation of the unfoldment of leaves and flowers and plants of this miraculous thing called nature.

The hot weather called Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Abel to enjoy a picnic dinner Sunday on the banks of the St. Joe River.

Mrs. Princess Zonker and children, of St. Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Carper, of near Auburn, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Shilling and family.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church held a chicken supper Saturday evening in the building formerly occupied by High's Restaurant. There was a good attendance.

Mrs. Sudie Howey very pleasantly entertained the C. C. Club at her home last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Alein Neher and son, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Helen Loraine Rhodes were guests.

Tuesday, a lot of candidates lost in the election. It could not be otherwise. Some must lose that others may win. Let us hope that it follows the "age old" theory—"the survival of the fittest."

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Remember Mother by sending her a beautiful card—You can see them at News office.

Jeanne Hatch, of Spencerville, spent Sunday here with her brother, Jimmy Hatch.

The scarlet fever quarantine has been lifted from the Chas. Bishop home west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Maurer, of Auburn, called at the home of Mrs. Anna Dilley Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Helf, of Defiance, Ohio, called on their sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Bets, Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Ruth Curie, Jean Goodwin, Geraldine Thornton and Virginia Shull attended "The Ghost of Lollypop Bay" an operetta given by the Auburn High School last Friday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch were calling on friends at Garrett Sunday afternoon. They called at the home of E. J. Bron and found Mr. John Gisinger in poor health, suffering from heart trouble.

Eugene Gee spent last week with Waldo Baker and wife of near Auburn.

The Methodist Ladies Aid Society will meet Thursday evening with Mrs. Alice Reidenbach.

Word was received last week by Chas. Woodcox, that his son, Homer, was in San Diego, Calif.

Mary Stewart is doing house work for Mrs. Frank Butler, who has been quite poorly all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wade and Mr. Martin Engle took Sunday dinner with Mrs. Helen Wade and children.

Mrs. Harry Kinsey, of Hamilton, underwent an operation Saturday morning at the Dr. Sanders Hospital in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull and F. B. Leighty and wife attended a birthday dinner at the Wm. Quance home Sunday.

Next Sunday Mother's Day programs will be observed in all the Sunday Schools. Be in your school next Sunday without fail.

Mrs. Frank May has been on the sick list at the home of her son, Crates May, north of Fort Wayne, but was brot to her home Tuesday.

Mrs. Vera Elson and Goldie Keller, of north of Concord, were Thursday afternoon guests in the home of Mrs. D. C. McCann. Ross Bishop and wife were evening guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clark and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook, Eugene Carper, Walter Gee and Lucille Gee were Sunday callers in the Foster Gee home.

Mrs. Effie Wineland purchased the 3½ acres of land and one lot, 62x150, from Craig Sheffer and wife last week. Mr. Wineland will keep and cow besides doing some farming. The large hen house will be used as a barn.

Two more satisfied customers as users of the classified ads in The News came to our attention today. Sam Armstrong said he sold his stove the same day the paper was out and Walter Keesler, reports 3 new customers the first half day. Read this column and see what people have advertised.

Screen Doors, $1.95. Curie Hardware. 19t1.

George Strong purchased a Chevrolet car last week.

Mr. Lee Lane, Wabash section foreman, has been laid off.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham spent an hour last Saturday with Mother Bailey at the home of Geo. Watson.

William A. Thomas, of 214 North Union Street, Auburn, has purchased the Henry Ford hotel and Valentine theatre at Defiance, Ohio. The equipment in the Elite theatre was also included in the deal. The purchase price was $62,000.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Schondelmayer and Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker attended the home-coming and banquet at the Ashley Church of Christ, Sunday. Mr. Schondelmayer preached the sermon for the evening service at the Auburn Church of Christ.

Wm. Staman believes that goats are alright in the pasture lot, but when they interfere with the ladies wardrobe on the yard line, they're all wrong. Bill has two goats and Monday they ate two of his wife's dresses, and he is fully convinced that they are not worth it. A trip to the ready-to-wear store is now inevitable.

Charles Thornton entertained at a party last Saturday evening. Those present besides the host were the Misses Kathryn Young, Louise Sechler, Jean Ridgway, Ruth Curie, Ersa Reidenbach and Gelardine Thornton and Frank Monroe, Ronald Borthwick, William Morr, Romy McSorley and Carl Goodwin. Homemade ice cream and wafers were served to the young people by Mrs. Thornton.

Mrs. John Baker, residing at 306 West Eighth Street, Auburn, suffered a painful accident early Monday morning. Her left hip was broken in a fall at her home. She was taken to the Dr. J. A. Sanders Hospital in the Clark ambulance. Mrs. Baker, who has been sick for a long time, got out of bed about 2 o'clock Monday morning to fix a curtain which she imagined was not hanging properly and fell.

CROUSE & THAYER Oil Co.
HICKSVILLE, O.
KEROSENE, per gallon - 9c.
High grade Motor Oil, guaranteed, per gal. 45c
In lots of 5 gallons or more
Naptha, High Test Light and Range Gasolene, Cup, Pressure, Differential and Axle Greases, Separator Oil.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.
Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:
HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50
Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.
NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

REPAIRS ARE NOT EXPENSIVE AT
The Elmwood Wrecking Co, Inc.
Used parts for your auto, truck and tractor. We have them
We are the largest auto wreckers in Western Illinois.
We undersell the town. Call, wire or write.
ELMWOOD AUTO WRECKING CO., Inc.
540 Mulberry St. GALESBURG, ILLINOIS Main 4994

MAY

L 919

U 285

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX | ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, MAY 17, 1934 | NUMBER 20

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Wes Hart burned another kiln of brick this week.

Mad Meeks and wife have been at Chicago this week.

Jimmie Ryan talks of taking the stump for Ben Leighty.

Mrs. H. K. Reynolds is visiting friends at Attica, Ohio.

Frank Walker got badly kicked by a horse on Wednesday evening.

The Jackson Band will give a social in Boots' grove Saturday evening.

The Globe Bakery of St. Joe is no more. It died last week of an empty pocket book.

There were 100 empty freight cars standing on the side tracks at this place last week.

Joe Baker is a great fellow for improvements. The latest thing he has is a patent fly roost.

Dave Howey and wife of Montpelier, Ohio, visited with friends in this vicinity last week.

John Davis attended the soldier's reunion at Fort Wayne last Saturday and Sunday.

Married at the Methodist parsonage in Spencerville, by Rev. Frank Hussey, on Thursday evening August 7th, 1884, Mr. Tell Elson to Miss Emma Jenkins.

You have to get up in the morning when you find any one that can beat Billy Curie on an off hand shot. He went out to kill a beef the other day, and they got the animal cornered up and Billy got the muzzle of his gun up against the steer's head and fired, an sir, for an honest fact, he missed the whole business.

Fishing in the St. Joe River is good now; that is it is a good time to fish but a poor time to catch any thing.

Mrs. John Davis left last Tuesday morning to visit friends in the eastern part of Ohio. She expects to be absent about three weeks.

It is our duty to keep the public posted on matters of interest, consequently we hereby inform the readers of this paper that Alex Filley has built a pig pen.

For President
BENJAMIN LEIGHTY
of St. Joe
For Vice President
BARCUS Q. HIPPENHAMMER
of Porke Avenew

I feel rejoiced tu hav the plasure ov givin tu this grate nashun anuther presidenshal ticket, an one wich will no dout bea successfool, if it gets enuf voats. I clame that this is the best ticket that has ben histed befour the American people. The man who heads this ticket has a politika] reccord that is as brite as the bottom side ov a tea kettel, as spotless as a turkey red handkercheaf and as lasting as a ripe watter mellon. He has alwus stuck tu his party wen evar he nu whar it wus, an now he wants his patry to stick tu him. He is solud on the tarrif questshun, a strong prohighbishanest, dont chew nor smoak, and ways about 201 pounds. No man can refuze tu support him on account ov his politicks, becaws he hasn't got eny. He is the only perfect candidate in the feald. Modesty forbids that we say mutch ov the tale end ov this ticket; it is a tolerable delicate matter to brag up one's own qualificashuns, but we feal saef in saying that the tale will carry New Yorke and Indiana, an if the head can carry the balance ov the staits, we will bea victorious. Hurraw fur us.

Barcus Q. Hippenhammer.

REPUBLICAN VOTE IN DEKALB COUNTY

Official Figures for Contested Offices in Each Precinct at Tuesday's Primary Election

Following is the complete official vote by precincts of the primary vote in DeKalb county for candidates on the republican ticket in each office in which there was a contest for the nomination:

UNION NO. 1

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 30, Hogg 57. Prosecutor—Grimm 44, Mounts 40. Auditor—Bowman 20, Provines 58. Recorder—Baker 7, Raut 69, West 14. Sheriff—Coyle 50, Turner 39. Surveyor—Condrey 31, Van Auken 52. Commissioner, north—McCullough 43, Potter 32. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 70, Graf 29, Weaver 51, Wiley 42.

UNION NO. 2

Congress—Grosh 4, Helmke 38, Hogg 112. Prosecutor—Grimm 100, Mounts 57. Auditor—Bowman 57, Provines 94. Recorder—Baker 13, Raut 126, West 18. Sheriff—Coyle 85, Turner 68. Surveyor—Condrey 77, Van Auken 73. Commissioner, north—McCullough 81, Potter 65. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 130, Graf 51, Weaver 91, Wiley 92.

UNION NO. 3

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 26, Hogg 74. Prosecutor—Grimm 60, Mounts 39. Auditor—Bowman 36, Provines 56. Recorder—Baker 3, Raut 89, West 10. Sheriff—Coyle 49, Turner 49. Surveyor—Condrey 45, Van Auken 51. Commissioner, north—McCullough 45, Potter 46. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 82, Graf 27, Weaver 56, Wiley 52.

UNION NO. 4

Congress—Grosh 4, Helmke 49, Hogg 103. Prosecutor—Grimm 81, Mounts 71. Auditor—Bowman 38, Provines 108. Recorder—Baker 14, Raut 118, West 22. Sheriff—Coyle 83, Turner 66. Surveyor—Condrey 79, Van Auken 59. Commissioner, north—McCullough 85, Potter 50. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 123, Graf 47, Weaver 97, Wiley 86.

UNION NO. 5

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 24, Hogg 54. Prosecutor—Grimm 43, Mounts 36. Auditor—Bowman 20, Provines 56. Recorder—Baker 9, Raut 58, West 12. Sheriff—Coyle 44, Turner 33. Surveyor—Condrey 25, Van Auken 43. Commissioner, north—McCullough 48, Potter 24. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 57, Graf 26, Weaver 43, Wiley 29.

UNION NO. 6

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 24, Hogg 101. Prosecutor—Grimm 77, Mounts 44. Auditor—Bowman 31, Provines 95. Recorder—Baker 5, Raut 95, West 30. Sheriff—Coyle 74, Turner 55. Surveyor—Condrey 48, Van Auken 66. Commissioner, north—McCullough 57, Potter 57. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 106, Graf 40, Weaver 84, Wiley 64.

UNION NO. 7

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 26, Hogg 113. Prosecutor—Grimm 69, Mounts 67. Auditor—Bowman 47, Provines 94. Recorder—Baker 7, Raut 86, West 53. Sheriff—Coyle 62, Turner 70. Surveyor—Condrey 58, Van Auken 64. Commissioner, north—McCullough 63, Potter 64. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 90, Graf 41, Weaver 91, Wiley 60.

UNION NO. 8

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 17, Hogg 112. Prosecutor—Grimm 78, Mountz 44. Auditor—Bowman 43, Provines 86. Recorder—Baker 18, Raut 78, West 14. Sheriff—Coyle 65, Turner 61. Surveyor—Condrey 39, Van Auken 76. Commissioner, north—McCullough 58, Potter 57. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 101, Graf 36, Weaver 81, Wiley 58.

UNION NO. 9

Congress—Grosh 0, Helmke 10, Hogg 78. Prosecutor—Grimm 55, Mountz 32. Auditor—Bowman 31, Provines 55. Recorder—Baker 13, Raut 68, West 7. Sheriff—Coyle 36, Turner 52. Surveyor—Condrey 36, Van Auken 46. Commissioner, north—McCullough 35, Potter 42. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 70, Graf 19, Weaver 51, Wiley 41.

UNION NO. 10

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 6, Hogg 48. Prosecutor—Grimm 32, Mountz 24. Auditor—Bowman 21, Provines 32. Recorder—Baker 6, Raut 41, West 8. Sheriff—Coyle 11, Turner 45. Surveyor—Condrey 17, Van Auken 38. Commissioner, north—McCullough 27, Potter 26, Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 38, Graf 22, Weaver 36, Wiley 24.

SMITHFIELD SOUTH

Congress—Grosh 6, Helmke 5, Hogg 46. Prosecutor—Grimm 40, Mountz 19. Auditor—Bowman 27, Provines 25. Recorder—Baker 21, Raut 17, West 15. Sheriff—Coyle 15, Turner 39. Surveyor—Condrey 19, Van Auken 31. Commissioner, north—McCullough 24, Potter 30. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 27, Graf 23, Weaver 31, Wiley 19.

SMITHFIELD NORTHWEST

Congress—Grosh 0, Helmke 6, Hogg 54. Prosecutor—Grimm 34, Mountz 26. Auditor—Bowman 32, Provines 23. Recorder—Baker 16, Raut 13, West 29. Sheriff—Coyle 18, Turner 42. Surveyor—Condrey 38, Van Auken 18. Commissioner, north—McCullough 35, Potter 33. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 39, Graf 12, Weaver 32, Wiley 25.

SMITHFIELD NORTH

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 4, Hogg 39. Prosecutor—Grimm 26, Mountz 24. Auditor—Bowman 15,

(Continued on Page 4, Col. 2)

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS ANNOUNCED

The Veterans Memorial Day Association announce that plans for the observance of Memorial Day here on Wednesday, May 30th, have virtually been completed. As in the past the forenoon program will consist of decorating graves in outlying cemeteries at Bear Creek, Morr, and Jenkins, Cemeteries, ending with serivces at Coburntown and Alton Cemetery.

The afternoon program at St. Joe Gym followed by decoration of graves in Riverside Cemetery. The usual program at the Gym has been changed inasmuch as a thirty minute patrjotic play, given by local talent, will be substituted for the customary speaker of the day.

The people of the community are going to miss something good if they miss this play. Co-operation of the whole community is asked in the observance of this day, and all ex-service men (of any war or peace time service) are urged to be out and attend these services in a body. Watch for complete program next week.

Officers of the Memorial Association this year are:

President Ralph Sechler.
Sec.-Treas., Harvey Hull.
Marshall, John Crothers.
Custodian, Roy Reidenbach.
Sergeant-at-Arms, Leon Kees.
Chaplain, Abner Trostel.

Lula Woodcox and daughter, Beatrice were callers in Newville Monday afternoon.

REMODELNG OF PROPERTY HAS STARTED

The tide has evidently turned in local affairs, because this week we are able to report to our readers of a number of local repairs, that looks good to us, and indicates that there is some money being spent.

The Wilbur Yeiser home is fast nearing completion, and is now in the hands of the painter and its only a few days until the family will again enjoy their home.

Wm. Strouse is also making quite extensive repairs on the Bailey property. A new basement is being dug and cemented and other needed repairs will be made.

The John Wineland home is also undergoing some repairs. A ceiling is being dropped.

Jack Messenger built a new barn and he is now cementing the basement.

The flour mill put in a sky light, and also made extra room for new machinery that will be installed soon, so as to produce more flour.

The old bake shop at the rear of the Central Store is being torn away, thus eliminating the fire hazard to a certain degree, and making the business rooms more pleasant.

MRS. JOHN BAKER BURIED HERE MONDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. John Baker of 305 West Eighth Street, Auburn, were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the John R. Clark funeral home, with Rev. Joseph Ferguson, of east of Auburn officiating. Burial was made in the cemetery at St. Joe.

Mrs. Baker died Saturday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the Dr. J. A. Sanders Hospital. She had been a patient at the hospital since last Monday when she broke her left hip by falling in her bedroom. From the time she entered the hospital there had been no hope of her recovery.

The deceased was 68 years, 4 months and 16 days old. She was born a half mile south of Concord, the daughter of William and Rachel Jane Draggoo. She was one of a family of fourteen children. On July 28, 1899, she was married to Mr. Baker in Auburn and to them was born a daughter, Barbara, who died when she was four years old at St. Joe.

Surviving besides the husband are a sister, Mrs. John Johnson, of Fort Wayne and a large number of half brothers and half sisters.

Mrs. Baker was a member of the St. Joe Methodist Church.

HOGG BEATS HELMKE BY 13,025 MARGIN

All Precincts in Fourth Congressional District have Reported Results in Tuesday's Primary Election

With all precincts reported in the fourth congressional district, David Hogg had plurality of 11,409 votes over Walter E. Helmke, former Allen county prosecutor, in the republican race for nomination for representative in congress.

Tabulations in all counties of the district were complete Thursday. Helmke had 7,684; Hogg 20,709 and Mark L. Grosh 929.

On the democratic ticket, Congressman James I. Farley was unopposed, but was accorded a heavy complimentary vote.

Counties and their vote for the three republican candidates are:

	Helmke	Hogg	Grosh
LaGrange	746	1,554	160
Steuben	569	2,449	88
Noble	858	3,138	118
DeKalb	572	3,719	115
Whitley	822	1,978	97
Adams	137	592	23
Wells	314	1,230	99
Allen	3,676	6,749	229

Hogg carried all of the eight counties in the district. The plurality of Hogg over Helmke in each follows: LaGrange, 808; Steuben, 1,880; Noble, 2,280; DeKalb, 3,147; Whitley, 1,156; Adams, 765; Wells, 916; Allen, 3,073; total plurality, 13,026.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The Church of Christ will hold a bake sale in Hurni's Store next Saturday. Call and see our Baked goods. 20t1.

Why not set up the clock and eliminate all arguments as to time? Be in harmony with the towns around you.

DEMOCRATIC VOTE AT PRIMARY POLLS

Official Figures for All Contested Offices in Each of 45 Precincts in DeKalb County

The official vote for contested nominations on the democratic ticket at Tuesday's primary election in each of the forty-five precincts in DeKalb county follows:

UNION NO. 1

Judge—Atkinson 38, Sharpless 8, Stump 15. Representative—Mertz 37, Smith 20. Auditor—Erick 27, Lyon 31. Treasurer—Douglas 4, Ferguson 20, Fitch 15, Trovinger 19. Recorder—Little 37, Morr 8, Waterman 15. Sheriff—Grimm 31. Zimmerman 28. Coroner—Shook 46, Swank 12. Surveyor—Groscop 11, Kain 28, Rugman 20. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 29, Conrad 1, Platt 24.

UNION NO. 2

Judge—Atkinson 60, Sharpless 16, Stump 42. Representative—Mertz 87, Smith 18. Auditor—Erick 58, Lyon 54. Treasurer—Douglas 13, Ferguson 24, Fitch 46, Trovinger 34. Recorder—Little 56, Morr 22, Waterman 35. Sheriff—Grimm 44, Zimmerman 74. Coroner—Shook 88, Swank 24. Surveyor—Groscop 23, Kain 51, Rugman 45. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 42, Conrad 16, Platt 46.

UNION NO. 3

Judge—Atkinson 83, Sharpless 7, Stump 54. Representative—Mertz 96, Smith 36. Auditor—Erick 56, Lyon 84. Treasurer—Douglas 10, Ferguson 55, Fitch 32, Trovinger 45. Recorder—Little 69, Morr 23, Waterman 46. Sheriff—Grimm 82, Zimmerman 59. Coroner—Shook 111, Swank 23. Surveyor—Groscop 14, Kain 80, Rugman 47. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 44, Conrad 8, Platt 79.

UNION NO. 4

Judge—Atkinson 90, Sharpless 13, Stump 55. Representative—Mertz 96, Smith 43. Auditor—Erick 72, Lyon 74. Treasurer—Douglas 50, Ferguson 12, Fitch 53, Trovinger 39. Recorder—Little 73, Morr 34, Waterman 44. Sheriff—Grimm 94, Zimmerman 63. Coroner—Shook 125, Swank 26. Surveyor—Groscop 21, Kain 60, Rugman 72. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 57, Conrad 20, Platt 63.

UNION NO. 5

Judge—Atkinson 51, Sharpless 11, Stump 36. Representative—Mertz 61, Smith 24. Auditor—Erick 59, Lyon 32. Treasurer—Douglas 9, Ferguson 31, Fitch 22, Trovinger 34. Recorder—Little 44, Morr 18, Waterman 31. Sheriff—Grimm 65, Zimmerman 32. Coroner—Shook 79, Swank 12. Surveyor—Groscop 11, Kain 31, Rugman 51. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 45, Conrad 10, Platt 30.

UNION NO. 6

Judge—Atkinson 58, Sharpless 10, Stump 42. Representative—Mertz 76, Smith 22. Auditor—Erick 50, Lyon 51. Treasurer—Douglas 5, Ferguson 25, Fitch 30, Trovinger 45. Recorder—Little 61, Morr 17, Waterman 28. Sheriff—Grimm 64, Zimmerman 45. Coroner—Shook 90, Swank 14. Surveyor—Groscop 11, Kain 64, Rugman 31. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 48, Conrad 15, Platt 31.

UNION NO. 7

Judge—Atkinson 53, Sharpless 13, Stump 32. Representative—Mertz 67, Smith 21. Auditor—Erick 53, Lyon 41. Treasurer—Douglas 11, Ferguson 25, Fitch 32, Trovinger 26. Recorder—Little 35, Morr 28, Waterman 32. Sheriff—Grimm 57, Zimmerman 39. Coroner—Shook 79, Swank 12. Surveyor—Groscop 14, Kain 51, Rugman 33. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 32, Conrad 8, Platt 45.

UNION NO. 8

Judge—Atkinson 47, Sharpless 7, Stump 19. Representative—Mertz 46, Smith 23. Auditor—Erick 33, Lyon 34. Treasurer—Douglas 11, Ferguson 17, Fitch 15, Trovinger 26. Recorder—Little 29, Morr 14, Waterman 28. Sheriff—Grimm 36, Zimmerman 39. Coroner—Shook 52, Swank 20. Surveyor—Groscop 15, Kain 37, Rugman 25. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 38, Conrad 13, Platt 19.

UNION NO. 9

Judge—Atkinson 33, Sharpless 11, Stump 21. Representative—Mertz 53, Smith 20. Auditor—Erick 30, Lyon 44. Treasurer—Douglas 2, Ferguson 21, Fitch 17, Trovinger 39. Recorder—Little 26, Morr 22, Waterman 30. Sheriff—Grimm 48, Zimmerman 30. Coroner—Shook 62, Swank 14. Surveyor—Groscop 9, Kain 36, Rugman 38. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 35, Conrad 10, Platt 27.

UNION NO. 10

Judge—Atkinson 25, Sharpless 0, Stump 29. Representative—Mertz 37, Smith 7. Auditor—Erick 28, Lyon 20. Treasurer—Douglas 10, Ferguson 6, Fitch 18, Trovinger 17. Recorder—Little 8, Morr 25, Waterman 21. Sheriff—Grimm 31, Zimmerman 19. Coroner—Shook 36, Swank 10. Surveyor—Groscop 8, Kain 14, Rugman 33. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 23, Conrad 12, Platt 11.

SMITHFIELD NORTHWEST

Judge—Atkinson 37, Sharpless 24, Stump 54. Representative—Mertz 33, Smith 24. Auditor—Erick 70, Lyon 36. Treasurer—Douglas 11, Ferguson 14, Fitch 48, Trovinger 36. Recorder—Little 77, Morr 16, Waterman 21. Sheriff—Grimm 37, Zimmerman 23. Coroner—Shook 7, Swank 113. Surveyor—Groscop 20,

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 1)

The Ostrich does NOT bury its head in the sand when in danger.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

There has been a great deal of misleading political propaganda published in recent months concerning the electrical industry. Some of our friends have urged us not to stand idly by for the reason that this misleading material reflects indirectly on our company.

As a company, we are good citizens and large taxpayers in the communities we serve. The men and women employees of the company who serve you in this business are likewise good citizens. They are your friends and neighbors who spend their wages here for housing, food and clothing.

We are taking this means—a series of letters in the newspapers—to give you the facts. They speak for themselves and will serve to refute the rumors.

H. T. Eyestone
Vice President & General Manager

"The flying rumor gathered as it rolled,
And all who told it added something new,
And all who heard it made enlargements, too—
In every ear it spread, on every tongue it grew."
POPE.

RUMORS REPEATED OFTEN PROMOTE BELIEF

MAY

L 919

286

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

The forgotten war debts have bobbed up again, this time in response to the President's statement that small token payments will be accepted no longer, and that in the absence of a full June installment, any nation in arrears will be considered to have defaulted. England, it is said, will come up to the mark, followed by other nations to whom self-respect is not an entire stranger. This will please the United States primarily because she needs the money, but secondarily because no one likes to think of such countries as England and Italy as dead-beats.

In the old school-days, the victim selected for public speaking used to get up with quaking knees and recite a speech attributed to Regulus, in the course of which he said: "And so shall Regulus, though he be dead, fight as he never fough before." It is not recalled just who Regulus was, but he may have been a bootlegger. At least, the government has found it necessary to muster four thousand men to do battle with a trade supposed to have breathed its last with the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

If anyone needs relief or advice, his troubles are over, under the provisions of the National Recovery Act. All that he has to do is to select the right board, and spread his woes before it. A list is appended for the convenience of the reader. It includes the AAA, FACA, TVA, EHFA, PWA, PRA, NRA, ERA, GFA, NIRA, PIA, FCA, SRB, SAB, NRRB, FEHC, FHSC, FRSC, GSC, ICC, NEC, RFC, ITPC, HOLC, PWEHC, FCT, IBRT, TCFT, OFCT, NPB, CSB, FHLBB, HLB, NBL, IAB, NCB, LAB, CC, EC, CCC, ECPC, EHC, FDIC, and there may be others. If necessary, after exhausting the foregoing list, write for a more complete one.

Chewing Mechanic Now Leaves Tobacco Home

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — J. W. "Jigger" Johnson, colorful riding mechanic, will leave his chewing tobacco in the pits when he rides in the 500-mile race this year. It almost cost his driver victory in a previous contest.

Johnson, a short, wiry chap as nervous as a bucket of worms, will sit beside pilot A. B. "Deacon" Litz in the Decoration Day classic at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on May 30.

It was back in 1931 that "Jigger" left off tobacco-chewing while at work. He was riding with Louis Schneider. Billy Arnold had been leading all day and setting his usual terrific pace. At 400 miles Billy went through the wall and shortly afterward Tony Gulotta, who had succeeded Arnold as leader, spun in the oil of the Arnold wreck and went out of the race. Shortly afterward Schneider found himself out front, headed for victory. He steadied down to a safe pace which would bring him in.

"Jigger," elated with the prospects, popped a nibble of tobacco into his mouth. Shortly afterward, a few drops of the brown juice smeared Schneider's goggles. It looked like oil.

"What's leaking! What's leaking!" screamed Schneider, reaching for the breaks, prepared to stop.

"Just my mouth," replied "Jigger."

Schneider's discourse on chewing tobacco immediately after the race was not recorded.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Uncle Joe Shull spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Sherman Hart at Hicksville.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for May 13 was 70, collection $3.29.

Lew Washler's entertained Carl Hook and family, of Hicksville, Sunday.

Merle Coburn and George Hart, Jr., spent Sunday afternoon with Roy Shilling.

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday afternoon with Winifred Hart to make Sunshine and Cloudy bags.

A fine Moher's Day program was rendered by several members of the Sunday School Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hart, of Hicksville, called on Mrs. Alice Hart Sunday afternoon at the home of Fred E. Hart.

Many were pleased to greet Mrs. Cora Maxwell at Sunday School and church Sunday, she has been unable to attend for some time.

Miss LaNore Laub spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, returning to her work in Fort Wayne Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Perry and children, Kenneth and Sally Ann and Mrs. Vol Hay called on Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place Sunday afternoon.

Henry Schoolmaster, of Lansing, Mich., spent the week-end in this vicinity looking after his lot in Alton cemetery, also calling in the M. C. Hart home and visiting with Wesley Hart.

Mrs. Mattie Hart and daughter, Elizabeth and Mrs. George Hart and children, spent Mother's Day in Fort Wayne with Bess and Bob Klopfenstein and George Hart, Sr. George is feeling fine but is weak. He hopes to be able to return home in ten days.

Mrs. George Watson and daughter, Mrs. Ray Wasson and little daughter spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Bailey who is being cared for in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Poper. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart were also visitors in the same home.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Lola Laux has accepted a position at Auburn.

Joyce Dean spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eck Hursh.

Mother's Day was observed on Sunday morning at the Methodist Sunday School with flowers, readings and songs. The eldest mother present was Mrs. Cora Steward and youngest mother, Mrs. Esther Gloyd.

Miss Mildred Osborne, of Andrews, Indiana, came last week to visit her grandmother, Mrs, Emily Gloyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Place and family, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay.

Mrs. Ray Means entertained the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church at her home on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswalt, Miss Wilda McNabb, of Fort Wayne, Miss Ethel and Mr. Kenneth McNabb and Walter Kimes, of Detroit were visitors at the John McNabb and Roy Chaney homes Sunday.

John McNabb attended the Auburn musical Friday evening. His grandson assisted in the concert.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman is assisting at the Delbert Furnish home.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School May 13, was 88, collection $3.63; Lutheran, 65.

Mr. and Mrs. Janney, of Lansing, Michigan, were week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown.

It is reported that Miss Dorothy Kelley and Mr. Virgil Kimes, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimes, were married recently when he returned from the C. C. Camp at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown attended the Methodist Church Home Missionary annual conference held at Garrett, Monday. The Queen Esther girls attended the banquet in the evening.

NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS

By authority of the Town Board, all persons owning dogs within the corporation of St. Joe, are hereby notified to keep all dogs within their property limits. If let run at large, same will be taken into custody.

FRANK CURIE,
Marshal.

1912.

Mrs. Kathryn Dean, while raking the yard last week, came in contact with ivy vines and is suffering from poison.

Little Miss April Bowser, of St. Joe was a recent guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser.

Eleanor Eula and Phyllis Chaney and Ruth Franklin enjoyed a birthday party at Lillian Walter's on Thursday afternoon. It being the occasion of her 8th birthday.

Miss Helen Webb is spending her vacation with friends at Hicksville.

Mrs. LeAnna Steward is beautifying their lawn by building a fine rock garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and daughter, Delores, of St. Joe, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hazel Steward.

Miss Doris Beams visited her sister, Mrs. Florence Peck, and family at Anderson a few days recently.

Mrs. Emila Gloyd will entertain the Cheerful Workers Class of her Sunday School Friday afternoon.

Walter Kimes spent Mother's Day with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

A son, named Dale, Jr., was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Dale McNabb of Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and daughters, of Defiance and Virgil Laux, were Sunday guests at the Gale Bowser home. Mr. and Mrs. Wade also visited the Rufus Boots and Frank Butler homes.

Mrs. R. F. Moffet, Mrs. Nancy Rhodefer, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rhodefer, of Auburn and Miss Susan Sechler, of St. Joe, were Thursday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer. Sunday, Mrs. Elory Brace and son, Glenn, of Scipio were guests in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Henslee and family spent Sunday in the Ray Baker home south of town.

Miss Virginia Goldsmith is slowly recovering at her home here. Her appetite is splendid but weakness still persists. Visitors are very welcome.

Mrs. Vernon Wilmot, Mrs. Minnie Kimes, son, Robert, and daughters, Roseann and Donna May, of Fort Wayne, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Allen have purchased the Hobaugh place and will move as soon as some needed repairs are made.

Messrs Merritt and Aubur Butler have received contracts to build cement bridges on a new cement road being built near Greenville, Indiana. They left Monday morning to begin work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kraft very pleasantly entertained the Y. M. P. Bible Class at their home Thursday evening. After the business hour, a pot lunch was served.

Mrs. Maud Beams entertained the C. C. Club at her home on Thursday. The next meeting has been postponed until May 31, and will be held at this time with Mrs. Pauline Baumgartner.

The Young Ladies Social Club met with Troas Carpenter, of Coburntown on Friday evening. Prizes were awarded to Doris Rhoades, Janice Bowser, Pauline Baumgartner and Kathryn Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Beeks Erick are driving a new Ford V-8.

Fred High spent the week-end at his home here.

Miss Louise Shockley, who has been visiting her grandparents near Muncie, returned home last week.

Miss Doris Beams is spending her summer vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beams and babe spent Sunday with the grandmother, Mrs. Miller, and with Geo. Beams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Markle, of Detroit, Michigan, spent Sunday with the parents, B. F. Markle and family. Other guests were Mrs. Tillie Oberholtzer and Miss Cozy Oberholtzer, of near Harlan.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean and daughter, Joyce, spent Sunday with the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dean and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hursh.

The twin girls at the Delbert Furnish home have been named Betty Sue and Bonny Lou.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dean of Montpelier, took Sunday supper with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dean.

The Spencer Township Home Bureau Club met with Winnie Shook Wednesday afternoon. Responses were given on the "old home place." A round table discussion of the merits of a garden was held in connection with the project lesson on spending the food dollars, which was given by Mrs. Winifred Hart. The hostess later served ice cream, angel food cake and coffee. Those present were Zona Abel, Marjorie Reeser, Forrest Reeser, Hazel Washler, Winifred and Thelma Hart, Rallie Markle, Lillie Shull, Mrs. Coburn, Kathryn Dean, Dorothy Markle, Donna Washler, Joyce Dean, Evelyn Shook, and the hostess.

JACKSON TOWNSHIP SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

The Jackson Township Council of Christian Education will hold its regular spring session at the Meese Chapel Church May 20th; at 1:30, C. S. T. Our theme, "The Value of the Child in Church Services."

The following program will be rendered:

Song ..... Convention.
Devotional, A child from Meese Chapel.
Song ..... Convention.
Reading of minutes of last convention.
Special ..... Hopewell.
Reports of the Township Sunday Schools: Hopewell, Meese Chapel, Rehoboth.
Group Singing by the children.
Special ..... Meese Chapel.
Remarks from County Children's Superintendent, Mrs. Gertrude Borthwick, of St. Joe.
Special ..... Rehoboth.
Offering.
Address, "The Children and America's Future," Rev. I. L. Pusey of Leo.
Song ..... Convention.
Benediction.

Arthur M. Friend, Pres.
Agnes Warstler, Sec.

ITEMS ABOUT ST. JOE

Lutheran Sunday School Mother's Day attendance, 120; offering, $4.06.

Dean Kees was brought home last week from Auburn, where he underwent an appendicitis operation. He is feeling fine.

Evelyn Woods and Stephen Murphy, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday evening guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Susan Hollopeter and daughter, Myrtle, of near Cedarville. Mother Hollopeter is in very poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Curie and baby, Mrs. Marcelene Hanour and baby and Enid Curie, all of Fort Wayne, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Curie over Sunday.

The monthly meeting of the Lutheran Brotherhood was held at the home of Ray Reasoner Monday evening with twenty-two present. Eight new members were added to the organization.

Mrs. Frank May was returned Sunday from the home of her son, Crates May, near Fort Wayne, where she has been ill for several days. She is reported as some better today, being up a part of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shenberger and daughter, Margaret, and Don Cook, of Ashland, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reasoner and daughter, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday guests in the Ray Reasoner home.

Mrs. Jennie Ashbaugh and grandson, Earl, Mrs. Tuttley, Mrs. Cook and Miss Higgins, of Montpelier, and Mr. Robert Burley, of Chicago, took Sunday dinner with I. M. Woodcox and family. Afternoon callers in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Don Burley, of Princeville, Illinois.

The Primary and Junior Classes of the Lutheran Sunday School were guests of honor Sunday at a dinner given them by the Ladies Aid and Men's Bible Class, for winning in recent attendance contests. Fifty-one kiddies were seated at the specially decorated tables to enjoy the bounteous dinner served them.

A drive is being made against the dogs of the town running about, tracking up gardens and committing other wastes characteristic of the canine family. There should be a little more effort put forth, to stop this nuisance, as so termed by the town board. Persons having dogs, should cooperate with the desires of the board, as they are speaking for the best interests of our people.

Carrie Sechler has qualified to act as executrix of the will of the late Wm. C. Bleeks of St. Joe, who died May 2, by filing $2,500 bond in the DeKalb circuit court with Harlow Sechler and Marion C. Blue as sureties. There is $1,200 in personal property and the heirs are three children, Walter Bleeks, address unknown, Chas. Bleeks, of Auburn, and Carrie Sechler, of St. Joe, and nine grandchildren, Bertha Fouts, Leola Bleeks, Helen Kimberly and Wm., Robert, Bernice, Denel and Melvin Bleeks, all of Defiance, Ohio, and Violet Stephens, of Napoleon, Ohio.

Miss Virgila Shull was a guest in the Lee O. Tustison home at Defiance, Ohio, several days last week, attending the May Day fete and other College festivities.

REPORT RED CROSS ACTIVITIES, MARCH, APRIL to MAY 12

During the School Year 3427 pupils were examined by our County Dentists and Dr. Snowberger at Hudson. 541 were O. K., 2896 needed care, 3816 baby and 2287 permanent teeth needed filling, 2020 required Prophylaxis and 1250 teeth needed extraction.

During the last 2 months $35 was given by the Parent Teachers Association in Auburn and $25.00 donated by different organizations in Garrett. These sums financed the cost of dental care for 13 pupils in Garrett and 27 in Auburn. Notes from some of the parents of these children showed an appreciation for care that they themselves were unable to give.

Even the first grade children showed an eagerness to go with the nurses to the Dentists. This would place their names on the Honor Roll. In some rooms 50% have had corrections made and many more will visit their Dentist this summer. In a 2 room school, shortly after an examination 18 pupils had dental corrections made. Ten pupils in different parts of the county were taken by the nurse to the Dentist, through funds from the Junior Red Cross.

So many adults are suffering from the effects of lack of preventive and curative dental care, that should have been given in childhood or adolescence, in the shape of damaged hearts, lowered vitality, Pporrhea, Trench Mouth, loss of tonsils, infected tonsils, loss of teeth, and other poor conditions. Many men and women walk around with fifthy, unclean mouths and then wonder why they have aches and pains and feel irritable, ugly and about 50% dead.

This is one of the reasons why we center our Public Health Education in our schools. By this means we educate the children to prevent the diseases that arise in later life to mar the happiness and vitality and drain some or all their life's earnings or make him a dependent on charity.

Then, how important it is for communities to feel and assume the responsibility for Public Health Education and to provide proper facilites for the prevention and cure of diseases at the time when it will be the most beneficial; therefore, lessen the cost to the community and state, and give added happiness to the individuals assisted.

From a questionnaire, at the Teachers County Institute in March, the Nurse was glad to know that, out of 68 teachers, during the last 12 months 32 had secured a complete physical examination and 18 vision and dental examinations and corrections.

The insurance companies that give their policy holders the privilege of a free complete medical examination have found that it has added ten years to the lives of those who took advantage of these examinations.

Afteh the Nurses have finished Vision Testing in the schools, they will make a survey of the preschool children who will enter school this fall. Examinations by Physicians, Health Conferences, Home Visits, Immunization will be some of the activities carried on in connection with this work.

Catherine Eoll,
DeKalb County Nurse.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company

Garden Seeds a Specialty

All PERFECTION
Oil Burning Stoves
Offerec at Large Reduction
--OF--
10 to 40 off

Open Evenings. Come and SEE OUR STOCK.

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

WITH
and WITHOUT

Electric Irrigation

GIVE your farm a New Deal with Electric Irrigation! Irrigated and unirrigated apples from the same orchard were photographed with results like those shown in the illustration. Quantity, too, is increased. One farmer, for example, increased the yield of his 75-acre orchard by at least 5,000 bushels during the drouth of 1932. Orchardists agree that a large amount of water is consumed by an apple tree from the time the apples are about one-half grown until maturity.

Irrigation is equally effective for all types of crops. There is no need to fear drouths when you have Electric Irrigation.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

MAY

L 919

U 287

(Continued from Page 1)

Kain 51, Rugman 39. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 10, Conrad 91, Platt 14.

SMITHFIELD SOUTH

Judge—Atkinson 32, Sharpless 16, Stump 33. Representative—Mertz 67, Smith 17. Auditor—Erick 47, Lyon 27. Treasurer—Douglas 8, Ferguson 17, Fitch 31, Trovinger 19. Recorder—Little 27, Morr 7, Waterman 51. Sheriff—Grimm 70, Zimmerman 16. Coroner—Shook 24, Swank 56. Surveyor—Groscop 15, Kain 50, Rugman 14. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 56, Conrad 15, Platt 13.

SMITHFIELD NORTH

Judge—Atkinson 49, Sharpless 40, Stump 13. Representative—Mertz 59, Smith 34. Auditor—Erick 66, Lyon 27, Treasurer—Douglas 10, Ferguson 11, Fitch 30, Trovinger 40. Recorder—Little 24, Morr 20, Waterman 58. Sheriff—Grimm 68, Zimmerman 38. Coroner—Shook 25, Swank 75. Surveyor—Groscop 30, Kain 55, Rugman 15. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 29, Conrad 51, Platt 23.

WILMINGTON NO. 1

Judge—Atkinson 52, Sharpless 15, Stump 14. Representative—Mertz 55, Smith 20. Auditor—Erick 17, Lyon 68. Treasurer—Douglas 20, Ferguson 11, Fitch 31, Trovinger 11. Recorder—Little 22, Morr 18, Waterman 42. Sheriff—Grimm 65, Zimmerman 20. Coroner—Shook 65, Swank 12. Surveyor—Groscop 21, Kain 48, Rugman 10. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 10, Conrad 4, Platt 66.

WILMINGTON NO. 2

Judge—Atkinson 27, Sharpless 20, Stump 31. Representative—Mertz 53, Smith 21. Auditor—Erick 20, Lyon 60. Treasurer—Douglas 26, Ferguson 20, Fitch 16, Trovinger 12. Recorder—Little 22, Morr 21, Waterman 36. Sheriff—Grimm 49, Zimmerman 26. Coroner—Shook 61, Swank 18. Surveyor—Groscop 19, Kain 51, Rugman 14. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 9, Conrad 10, Platt 63.

WILMINGTON NO. 3

Judge—Atkinson 38, Sharpless 11, Stump 26. Representative—Mertz 50, Smith 15. Auditor—Erick 25, Lyon 48. Treasurer—Douglas 27, Ferguson 11, Fitch 22, Trovinger 10. Recorder—Little 19, Morr 8, Waterman 45. Sheriff—Grimm 58, Zimmerman 16. Coroner—Shook 55, Swank 14. Surveyor—Groscop 13, Kain 40, Rugman 18. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 10, Conrad 3, Platt 56.

WILMINGTON NO. 4

Judge—Atkinson 33, Sharpless 7, Stump 14. Representative—Mertz 37, Smith 14. Auditor—Erick 16, Lyon 39. Treasurer—Douglas 16, Ferguson 14, Fitch 12, Trovinger 12. Recorder—Little 14, Morr 28, Waterman 12. Sheriff—Grimm 34. Zimmerman 19. Coroner—Shook 37, Swank 17. Surveyor—Groscop 12, Kain 27, Rugman 15. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 9, Conrad 3, Platt 40.

WILMINGTON NO. 5

Judge—Atkinson 41, Sharpless 20, Stump 52. Representative—Mertz 64, Smith 42. Auditor—Erick 40, Lyon 79. Treasurer—Douglas 22, Ferguson 18, Fitch 56, Trovinger 16. Recorder—Little 15, Morr 30, Waterman 75. Sheriff—Grimm 99, Zimmerman 17. Coroner—Shook 87, Swank 18. Surveyor—Groscop 15, Kain 60, Rugman 41. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 37, Conrad 16, Platt 57.

STAFFORD

Judge—Atkinson 32, Sharpless 4, Stump 4. Representative—Mertz 27, Smith 10. Auditor—Erick 5, Lyon 34. Treasurer—Douglas 14, Ferguson 6, Fitch 13, Trovinger 6. Recorder—Little 13, Morr 8, Waterman 18. Sheriff—Grimm 27, Zimmerman 11. Coroner—Shook 34, Swank 5. Surveyor—Groscop 6, Kain 16, Rugman 16. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 4, Conrad 0, Platt 35.

SPENCER

Judge—Atkinson 63, Sharpless 11, Stump 14. Representative—Mertz 33, Smith 55. Auditor—Erick 73, Lyon 23. Treasurer—Douglas 26, Ferguson 10, Fitch 24, Trovinger 23. Recorder—Little 28, Morr 45, Waterman 13. Sheriff—Grimm 69, Zimmerman 20. Coroner—Shook 78, Swank 17. Surveyor—Groscop 12, Kain 54, Rugman 21. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 24, Conrad 14, Platt 39.

TROY

Judge—Atkinson 10, Sharpless 3, Stump 5. Representative—Mertz 11, Smith 6. Auditor—Erick 3, Lyon 15. Treasurer—Douglas 15, Ferguson 1, Fitch 1, Trovinger 1. Recorder—Little 1, Morr 1, Waterman 16. Sheriff—Grimm 15, Zimmerman 3. Coroner—Shook 14, Swank 4. Surveyor—Groscop 3, Kain 13, Rugman 2. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 1, Conrad 3, Platt 14.

CONCORD

Judge—Atkinson 87, Sharpless 19, Stump 54. Representative—Mertz 81, Smith 72. Auditor—Erick 84, Lyon 73. Treasurer—Douglas 93, Ferguson 14, Fitch 19, Trovinger 32. Recorder—Little 27, Morr 121, Waterman 14. Sheriff—Grimm 110, Zimmerman 45. Coroner—Shook 140, Swank 21. Surveyor—Groscop 32, Kain 81, Rugman 46. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 36, Conrad 21, Platt 92.

JACKSON NORTH

Judge—Atkinson 44, Sharpless 38, Stump 45. Representative—Mertz 76. Smith 38. Auditor—Erick 51, Lyon 61. Treasurer—Douglas 19, Ferguson 17, Fitch 33, Trovinger 51. Recorder—Little 20, Morr 73, Waterman 36. Sheriff—Grimm 85, Zimmerman 39. Coroner—Shook 98, Swank 21. Surveyor—Groscop 27, Kain 51, Rugman 48. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 48, Conrad 22, Platt 45.

JACKSON SOUTH

Judge—Atkinson 76, Sharpless 18, Stump 48. Representative—Mertz 58, Smith 71. Auditor—Erick 114, Lyon 26. Treasurer—Douglas 13, Ferguson 24, Fitch 73, Trovinger 31. Recorder—Little 38, Morr 80, Waterman 26. Sheriff—Grimm 107, Zimmerman 31. Coroner—Shook 133, Swank 9. Surveyor—Groscop 25, Kain 57, Rugman 60. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 35, Conrad 22, Platt 69.

FRANKLIN EAST

Judge—Atkinson 18, Sharpless 7, Stump 21. Representative—Mertz 26, Smith 17. Auditor—Erick 16, Lyon 28. Treasurer—Douglas 31, Ferguson 5, Fitch 3, Trovinger 1. Recorder—Little 8, Morr 6, Waterman 32. Sheriff—Grimm 38, Zimmerman 7. Coroner—Shook 33, Swank 11. Surveyor—Groscop 10, Kain 23, Rugman 11. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 3, Conrad 3, Platt 42.

FRANKLIN WEST

Judge—Atkinson 46, Sharpless 13, Stump 36. Representative—Mertz 66, Smith 27. Auditor—Erick 39, Lyon 53. Treasurer—Douglas 41, Ferguson 8, Fitch 26, Trovinger 15. Recorder—Little 4, Morr 3, Waterman 88. Sheriff—Grimm 68, Zimmerman 23. Coroner—Shook 57, Swank 37. Surveyor—Groscop 25, Kain 52, Rugman 19. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 16, Conrad 17, Platt 62.

GRANT NO. 1

Judge—Atkinson 58, Sharpless 29, Stump 58. Representative—Mertz 92, Smith 40. Auditor—Erick 63, Lyon 68. Treasurer—Douglas 10, Ferguson 29, Fitch 61, Trovinger 24. Recorder—Little 35, Morr 25, Waterman 92. Sheriff—Grimm 129, Zimmerman 24. Coroner—Shook 87, Swank 48. Surveyor—Groscop 29, Kain 77, Rugman 31. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 91, Conrad 15, Platt 31.

GRANT NO. 2

Judge—Atkinson 56, Sharpless 21, Stump 66. Representative—Mertz 93, Smith 37. Auditor—Erick 66, Lyon 70. Treasurer—Douglas 16, Ferguson 35, Fitch 47, Trovinger 37. Recorder—Little 26, Morr 37, Waterman 79. Sheriff—Grimm 126, Zimmerman 23. Coroner—Shook 90, Swank 50. Surveyor—Groscop 27, Kain 81, Rugman 34. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 96, Conrad 13, Platt 29.

GRANT NO. 3

Judge—Atkinson 20, Sharpless 4, Stump 33. Representative—Mertz 38, Smith 17. Auditor—Erick 21, Lyon 35. Treasurer—Douglas 3, Ferguson 11, Fitch 28, Trovinger 14. Recorder—Little 18, Morr 13, Waterman 27. Sheriff—Grimm 45, Zimmerman 13. Coroner—Shook 40, Swank 15. Surveyor—Groscop 8, Kain 18, Rugman 29. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 28, Conrad 1, Platt 27.

FAIRFIELD EAST

Judge—Atkinson 43, Sharpless 12, Stump 30. Representative—Mertz 65, Smith 15. Auditor—Erick 39, Lyon 39. Treasurer—Douglas 3, Ferguson 8, Fitch 38, Trovinger 30. Recorder—Little 29, Morr 31, Waterman 23. Sheriff—Grimm 49, Zimmerman 36. Coroner—Shook 18, Swank 67. Surveyor—Groscop 21, Kain 43, Rugman 19. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 33, Conrad 35, Platt 12.

FAIRFIELD WEST

Judge—Atkinson 29, Sharpless 12, Stump 29. Representative—Mertz 64, Smith 11. Auditor—Erick 32, Lyon 34. Treasurer—Douglas 9, Ferguson 9, Fitch 31, Trovinger 21. Recorder—Little 27, Morr 15, Waterman 29. Sheriff—Grimm 42, Zimmerman 32. Coroner—Shook 32, Swank 41. Surveyor—Groscop 11, Kain 32, Rugman 30. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 29, Conrad 20, Platt 20.

NEWVILLE

Judge—Atkinson 89, Sharpless 17, Stump 40. Representative—Mertz 83, Smith 41. Auditor—Erick 61, Lyon 85. Treasurer—Douglas 26, Ferguson 26, Fitch 62, Trovinger 20. Recorder—Little 31, Morr 64, Waterman 43. Sheriff—Grimm 105, Zimmerman 33. Coroner—Shook 100, Swank 33. Surveyor—Groscop 31, Kain 85, Rugman 35. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 18, Conrad 23, Platt 95.

KEYSER NO. 1

Judge—Atkinson 8, Sharpless 17, Stump 3. Representative—Mertz 20, Smith 5. Auditor—Erick 11, Lyon 12. Treasurer—Douglas 9, Ferguson 6, Fitch 14, Trovinger 4. Recorder—Little 17, Morr 6, Waterman 3. Sheriff—Grimm 13, Zimmerman 12. Coroner—Shook 19, Swank 7. Surveyor—Groscop 13, Kain 3, Rugman 13. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 11, Conrad 5, Platt 7.

KEYSER NO. 2

Judge—Atkinson 19, Sharpless 9, Stump 18. Representative—Mertz 21, Smith 25. Auditor—Erick 26, Lyon 17. Treasurer—Douglas 4, Ferguson 8, Fitch 12, Trovinger 23. Recorder—Little 28, Morr 14, Waterman 7. Sheriff—Grimm 36, Zimmerman 14. Coroner—Shook 33, Swank 14. Surveyor—Groscop 11, Kain 6, Rugman 33. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 30, Conrad 6, Platt 7.

KEYSER NO. 3

Judge—Atkinson 7, Sharpless 40, Stump 10. Representative—Mertz 30, Smith 23. Auditor—Erick 31, Lyon 21. Treasurer—Douglas 3, Ferguson 5, Fitch 33, Trovinger 11. Recorder—Little 27, Morr 4, Waterman 14. Sheriff—Grimm 24, Zimmerman 33. Coroner—Shook 32, Swank 20. Surveyor—Groscop 25, Kain 14, Rugman 16. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 22, Conrad 4, Platt 26.

KEYSER NO. 4

Judge—Atkinson 17, Sharpless 21, Stump 17. Representative—Mertz 27, Smith 27. Auditor—Erick 23, Lyon 27. Treasurer—Douglas 3, Ferguson 4, Fitch 37, Trovinger 9. Recorder—Little 38, Morr 6, Waterman 11. Sheriff—Grimm 38, Zimmerman 14. Coroner—Shook 38, Swank 15. Surveyor—Groscop 18, Kain 14, Rugman 23. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 30, Conrad 3, Platt 20.

KEYSER NO. 5

Judge—Atkinson 49, Sharpless 145, Stump 31. Representative—Mertz 100, Smith 109. Auditor—Erick 110, Lyon 91. Treasurer—Douglas 23, Ferguson 49, Fitch 107, Trovinger 27. Recorder—Little 207, Morr 7, Waterman 14. Sheriff—Grimm 150, Zimmerman 65. Coroner—Shook 172, Swank 38. Surveyor—Groscop 167, Kain 41, Rugman 18. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 136, Conrad 31, Platt 43.

KEYSER NO. 6

Judge—Atkinson 56, Sharpless 169, Stump 29. Representative—Mertz 108, Smith 121. Auditor—Erick 135, Lyon 83. Treasurer—Douglas 15, Ferguson 49, Fitch 127, Trovinger 40. Recorder—Little 200, Morr 23, Waterman 28. Sheriff—Grimm 190, Zimmerman 53. Coroner—Shook 182, Swank 45. Surveyor—Groscop 177, Kain 42, Rugman 28. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 127, Conrad 54, Platt 38.

KEYSER NO. 7

Judge—Atkinson 40, Sharpless 75, Stump 11. Representative—Mertz 66, Smith 53. Auditor—Erick 62, Lyon 46. Treasurer—Douglas 14, Ferguson 17, Fitch 64, Trovinger 20. Recorder—Little 117, Morr 2, Waterman 12. Sheriff—Grimm 99, Zimmerman 25. Coroner—Shook 96, Swank 16. Surveyor—Groscop 99, Kain 17, Rugman 10. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 59, Conrad 14, Platt 34.

KEYSER NO. 8

Judge—Atkinson 17, Sharpless 107, Stump 14. Representative—Mertz 61, Smith 61. Auditor—Erick 68, Lyon 51. Treasurer—Douglas 8, Ferguson 28, Fitch 77, Trovinger 10. Recorder—Little 117, Morr 4, Waterman 13. Sheriff—Grimm 97, Zimmerman 24. Coroner—Shook 89, Swank 30. Surveyor—Groscop 103, Kain 18, Rugman 13. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 83; Conrad 19, Platt 31.

KEYSER NO. 9

Judge—Atkinson 29, Sharpless 68, Stump 48. Representative—Mertz 24, Smith 26. Auditor—Erick 28, Lyon 44. Treasurer—Douglas 13, Ferguson 23, Fitch 65, Trovinger 18. Recorder—Little 99, Morr 17, Waterman 11. Sheriff—Grimm 33, Zimmerman 15. Coroner—Shook 51, Swank 14. Surveyor—Groscop 103, Kain 15, Rugman 20. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 42, Conrad 6. Platt 15.

KEYSER NO. 10

Judge—Atkinson 16, Sharpless 45, Stump 9. Representative—Mertz 29, Smith 35. Auditor—Erick 28, Lyon 35. Treasurer—Douglas 3, Ferguson 9, Fitch 42, Trovinger 14. Recorder—Little 56, Morr 8, Waterman 6. Sheriff—Grimm 46, Zimmerman 22. Coroner—Shook 50, Swank 11. Surveyor—Groscop 35, Kain 13, Rugman 23. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 33, Conrad 7, Platt 23.

RICHLAND NORTH

Judge—Atkinson 28, Sharpless 9, Stump 40. Representative—Mertz 42, Smith 30. Auditor—Erick—29, Lyon 44. Treasurer—Douglas, 7, Ferguson 26, Fitch 21, Trovinger 15. Recorder—Little 22, Morr 21, Waterman 28. Sheriff—Grimm 55, Zimmerman 20. Coroner—Shook 46, Swank 27. Surveyor—Groscop 21 Kain 36, Rugman 17. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 24, Conrad 9, Platt 34.

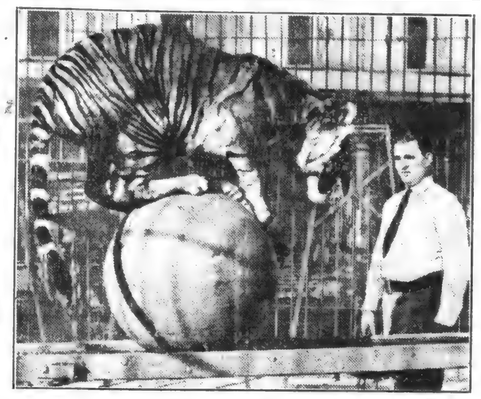
RICHLAND SOUTH

Judge—Atkinson 31, Sharpless 18. Stump 28. Representative—Mertz 46 Smith 24. Auditor—Erick 20, Lyon 51. Treasurer—Douglas 9, Ferguson 12, Fitch 27, Trovinger 19. Recorder—Little 25, Morr 25, Waterman 22. Sheriff—Grimm 48, Zimmerman 21. Coroner—Shook 55 Swank 20. Surveyor—Groscop 23 Kain 33, Rugman 21. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 28, Conrad 7, Platt 39.

BUTLER TOWNSHIP

Judge—Atkinson 53, Sharpless 53. Stump 31. Representative—Mertz 61, Smith 67. Auditor—Erick 66, Lyon 60. Treasurer—Douglas 9, Ferguson 12, Fitch 99, Trovinger 19. Recorder—Little 50, Morr 26, Waterman 60. Sheriff—Grimm 84. Zimmerman 54. Coroner—Shook 108, Swank 18. Surveyor—Groscop 43, Kain 50, Rugman 45. Commissioner, north—Brecbill 59, Conrad 25, Platt 38.

Jungle Cats New Fair Thrill



Greatest animal act in history free to visitors to Chicago's new World's Fair which opens May 26. The great cat balances on the huge ball under the watchful eye of trainer Allen King, as part of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana exhibit this summer, featuring thirty-three lions, tigers and pumas in a single act. This is only one of 84 miles of free exhibits. Other features will be fifteen reproductions of actual foreign villages giving Exposition-goers a world tour right on the Fair grounds. New low rail and bus rates to the Fair have been announced. There is ample parking space for auto tourists just outside the Fair grounds.

I want to thank the Republican voters of DeKalb County for the fine vote, which I have received. I want to express my deep appreciation to those of my friends, who not only voted for me, but used your influence in my behalf. I assure you, I am indeed grateful for this service.

Since nominated, I promise to make a real campaign, hopeful of being Elected this Fall to one of the most important offices in the County— that of County Auditor.

To this end, I hope to have your votes and continued support at the Election this Fall.

Very Respectfully yours,
Jesse C. Provines.

TO THE VOTERS OF DEKALB COUNTY

I certainly appreciate what you Voters did for me on Primary election day. To You and the Friends who worked for my nomination, I am thankful.

ULYSSES A. RAUT,
20t1. Auburn, Indiana.

A THANK YOU

"For when the one Great Scorer comes to write against your name, He writes not if you won or lost, but how you played the game," and so I thank the many Voters who had enough confidence in my ability to support me, in spite of the fact that I am a woman.

20t1. Mrs. Gertrude Borthwick.

THANKS TO VOTERS

I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to the Voters of Concord Township for their support at the primary May 8th.

20t1p. A. W. TROSTEL.

THANKS TO VOTERS

I wish to sincerely thank my friends, of the immediate and surrounding communities, for their most liberal support in the recent primary.

20t1p. MEADE BAKER.

ST. JOE LUTHERAN CHURCH

Beginning next Sunday worship service will be held every other Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock, C. D. S. T. Church School will follow immediately after worship at 11 o'clock.

Please pass this word of the change of service on to your neighbors.

A. H. Fabianske, Pastor.

NEWVILLE

A large acreage of melons has been planted in this vicinity.

Charles Smith, Jr., was here Saturday from Mongo, visiting his parents.

Mrs. Lizzie Joslin was the guest Monday afternoon of Mrs. Kate Fusselman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins, of St. Joe visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Platter and Mrs. Kate Fusselman spent Saturday evening in Butler.

Mrs. Vera Miller and two sons spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kinney, at McClure, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith and Mrs. Helen Smith attended the funeral of B. A. Smith at Antwerp, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jennings, Kenneth Gaff and Mona Traxler were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wyatt in Ft. Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Manford Smith, of Hicksville and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt, of this place, visited Mrs. Pearl Simanton Friday evening at the home of her son, in Auburn.

Harry Brown and two children, Mrs. Kate Richmond and daughter, Blanche, and Mrs. Ellen Barnes and two children visited over the week-end with relatives in Peru.

Rev. A. K. Schondelmayer will preach the Memorial sermon at the Christian Church Sunday evening, May 27 and Rev. C. W. Moore will deliver the Memorial address at the U. B. Church at 2 P. M., May 30.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Blair, of Butler, were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Sith. In the afternoon both families called on Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilson at Harlan and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chapman at Woodburn.

Newville Township 8th grade graduates are Tracy Sprow, Maxine Beree, Treva Sprow, Eva Helen Young, Jack Richmond, Kent Seeley, Russell Shaffer, Mabel Glawe, Mary Evelyn Niese, Anna Marie Hendrick, Junior Tustison, Derrell Murphy, Bill E. Ginther, and James A. Hart. Commencement will be held at Auburn June 6.

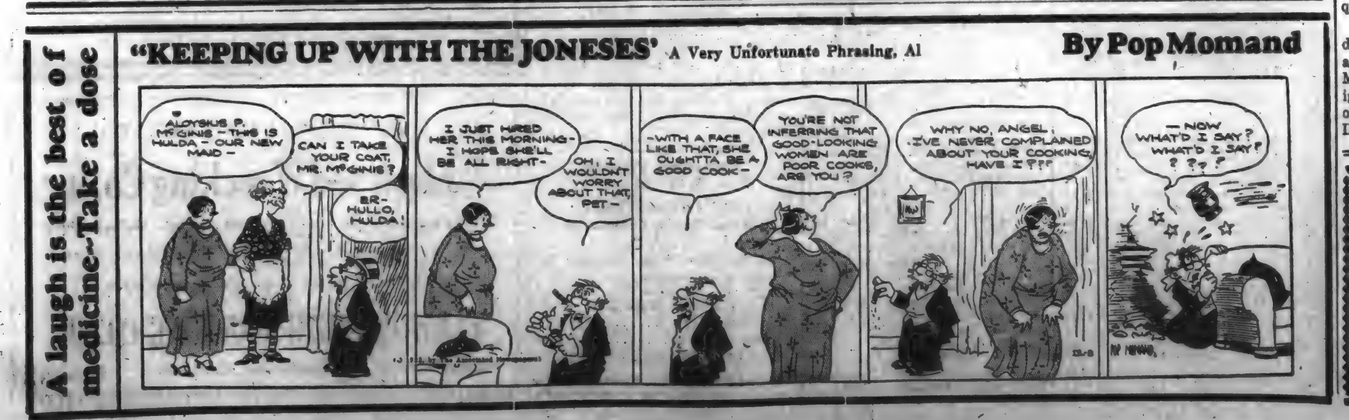
C. C. Dean and Clarence Baron enroute home from Auburn, Saturday failed to make the turn at the Howey curve on the Auburn Road, and the Dean truck left the road and went into a deep ditch. Neither one of the men sustained serious injuries, the truck was left standing on its nose in the ditch until Monday, when it was dragged home.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Flora Rahmy, Mrs. Blanche Bricker and Miss Lucile Rahmy, of Marion, Indiana, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker.

Mrs. Hazel Steward and daughter, Mrs. Harold Baker and baby, and Mrs. Gerry Gloyd, of Spencerville, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Ada Berry and Mrs. Mary Betz and Jimmy Hatch, who was quite sick.

The following were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox, Mr. and Mrs. John Scrivo, of Detroit, Michigon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Philley, of Huntington, Indiana and Mrs. Don Burley, of Princeville Illinois.



Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

MAY

L 919

288

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

FOR SALE!

OR TRADE COLUMN

Lawn Mower Sharpening and Repairing. (Not an Emery Grind.) Satisfaction Guaranteed. Walter Keesler. 18t3p.

For Breeding purposes, a fine Guernsey Bull. Clint Lucas, St. Joe. 20t2p.

For Sale: Manchu Soy Beans, good quality. N. A. Goldsmith, 2 miles north-east of Grabill. 18t3p.

WANTED: White Oak, red oak, white ash, maple and basswood. Butler Hardware Lumber Co. Phone 210L or call at saw mill. 17t4p.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

Let us tune up the ignition of your car—saves trouble. Hankey Garage. 5tf.

WE PAY

Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange

Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

CONCORD MAN DIES

George Johnson, 66, of Concord, died at his home Tuesday evening, after only a four days bedfast illness, but for the past two years he has been unable to do much of his farm work. The funeral arrangements have been made for Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, C. D. S. T., from Concord Church, with burial at Auburn.

AN APPRECIATION

I wish to thank the Voters of St. Joe and vicinity for their splendid support in the recent primary. I hope I may be able to show my appreciation in the future.

I also want to say a word for our other candidate and your neighbor, Mr. Condrey. I consider him a very fine, clean, young man and his defeat should not be considered as any reflection upon his ability or character.

20t1p. WAYNE Van AUKEN.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS

All persons knowing themselves indebted to the Hankey Garage, are invited to call at once to The News office and make settlement of their accounts.

19t2. Adrian Hankey.

Virginia Goldsmith

wishes to announce that during her illness, that her hatchery will be in operation. All orders for Chicks or Custom Hatching, will receive prompt and efficient attention. Your advance orders will be greatly appreciated.

HATCHERY

Phone 2212 Spencerville.

PHONE 290

Stanley P. Nelson Monuments

Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries

AUBURN, IND.

(Continued from Page 1)

Provines 28. Recorder—Baker 14, Raut 20, West 14. Sheriff—Coyle 15, Turner 32. Surveyor—Condrey 17, Van Auken 28. Commissioner, north—McCullough 23, Potter 24. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 28, Graf 20, Weaver 26, Wiley 29.

STAFFORD

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 6, Hogg 23. Prosecutor—Grimm 20, Mounts 10. Auditor—Bowman 12, Provines 17. Recorder—Baker 20, Raut 4, West 5. Sheriff—Coyle 7, Turner 23. Surveyor—Condrey 15, Van Auken 10. Commissioner, north—McCullough 16, Potter 19. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 21, Graf 6, Weaver 22, Wiley 25.

WILMINGTON NO. 1

Congress—Grosh 0, Helmke 6, Hogg 64. Prosecutor—Grimm 31, Mounts 34. Auditor—Bowman 36, Provines 28. Recorder—Baker 17, Raut 16, West 34. Sheriff—Coyle 14, Turner 49. Surveyor—Condrey 28, Van Auken 34. Commissioner, north—McCullough 17, Potter 51. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 27, Graf 52, Weaver 34, Wiley 51.

WILMINGTON NO. 2

Congress—Grosh 0, Helmke 7, Hogg 44. Prosecutor—Grimm 18, Mounts 31. Auditor—Bowman 30, Provines 19. Recorder—Baker 15, Raut 8, West 26. Sheriff—Coyle 11, Turner 40. Surveyor—Condrey 22, Van Auken 25. Commissioner, north—McCullough 15, Potter 36. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 23, Graf 39, Weaver 35, Wiley 28.

WILMINGTON NO. 3

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 21, Hogg 46. Prosecutor—Grimm 24, Mounts 44. Auditor—Bowman 38, Provines 29. Recorder—Baker 22, Raut 17, West 30. Sheriff—Coyle 14, Turner 55. Surveyor—Condrey 39, Van Auken 30. Commissioner, north—McCullough 11, Potter 53. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 33, Graf 48, Weaver 41, Wiley 51.

WILMINGTON NO. 4

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 1, Hogg 26. Prosecutor—Grimm 17, Mounts 10. Auditor—Bowman 12, Provines 15. Recorder—Baker 14, Raut 10, West 4. Sheriff—Coyle 7, Turner 20. Surveyor—Condrey 12, Van Auken 15. Commissioner, north—McCullough 12, Potter 16. Councilman-at-Large— Eckhart 14, Graf 11, Weaver 19, Wiley 19.

WILMINGTON NO. 5

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 8, Hogg 45. Prosecutor—Grimm 28, Mounts 26 Auditor—Bowman 10, Provines 41. Recorder—Baker 8, Raut 26, West 19. Sheriff—Coyle 14, Turner 41. Surveyor—Condrey 18, Van Auken 33. Commissioner, north—McCullough 16, Potter 33. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 25, Graf 25, Weaver 25, Wiley 28.

CONCORD

Congress—Grosh 10, Helmke 25, Hogg 157. Prosecutor—Grimm 74, Mounts 114. Auditor—Bowman 94, Provines 95. Recorder—Baker 138, Raut 38, West 18. Sheriff—Coyle 71, Turner 107. Surveyor—Condrey 82, Van Auken 88. Commissioner, north—McCullough 65, Potter 100. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 101, Graf 82, Weaver 120, Wiley 74.

FAIRFIELD EAST

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 12, Hogg 44. Prosecutor—Grimm 17, Mounts 41. Auditor—Bowman 26, Provines 30. Recorder—Baker 18, Raut 19, West 16. Sheriff—Coyle 11, Turner 48. Surveyor—Condrey 22, Van Auken 32. Commissioner, north—McCullough 48, Potter 10. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 34, Graf 13, Weaver 40, Wiley 25.

FAIRFIELD WEST

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 2, Hogg 31. Prosecutor—Grimm 15, Mounts 17. Auditor—Bowman 9, Provines 22. Recorder—Baker 9, Raut 12, West 8. Sheriff—Coyle 6, Turner 27. Surveyor—Condrey 6, Van Auken 25. Commissioner, north—McCullough 25, Potter 9. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 22, Graf 8, Weaver 20, Wiley 14.

FRANKLIN EAST

Congress—Grosh 5, Helmke 21, Hogg 63. Prosecutor—Grimm 41, Mounts 46. Auditor—Bowman 32, Provines 46. Recorder—Baker 22, Raut 28, West 29. Sheriff—Coyle 18, Turner 68. Surveyor—Condrey 21, Van Auken 57. Commissioner, north—McCullough 19, Potter 67. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 35, Graf 37, Weaver 48, Wiley 58.

FRANKLIN WEST

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 14, Hogg 38. Prosecutor—Grimm 29, Mounts 29, Auditor—Bowman 20, Provines 30. Recorder—Baker 21, Raut 9, West 17. Sheriff—Coyle 10, Turner 41. Surveyor—Condrey 15, VanAuken 33. Commissioner, north—McCullough 14, Potter 44. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 26, Graf 27, Weaver 29, Wiley 31.

GRANT NO. 1

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 12, Hogg 94. Prosecutor—Grimm 59, Mounts 47. Auditor—Bowman 51, Provines 52. Recorder—Baker 15, Raut 68, West 20. Sheriff—Coyle 23, Turner 81. Surveyor—Condrey 27, Van Auken 72. Commissioner, north—McCullough 50, Potter 51. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 66, Graf 45, Weaver 61, Wiley 45.

GRANT NO. 2

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 10, Hogg 97. Prosecutor—Grimm 57, Mounts 47. Auditor—Bowman 58, Provines 44. Recorder—Baker 14, Raut 60, West 31. Sheriff—Coyle 36, Turner 69. Surveyor—Condrey 38, Van Auken 59. Commissioner, north—McCullough 58, Potter 44. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 66, Graf 34, Weaver 60, Wiley 43.

GRANT NO. 3

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 5, Hogg 53. Prosecutor—Grimm 21, Mounts 37. Auditor—Bowman 28, Provines 31. Recorder—Baker 7, Raut 40, West 10. Sheriff—Coyle 16, Turner 42. Surveyor—Condrey 22, Van Auken 34. Commissioner, north—McCullough 31, Potter 25. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 41, Graf 20, Weaver 31, Wiley 27.

JACKSON NORTH

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 7, Hogg 45. Prosecutor—Grimm 21, Mounts 32. Auditor—Bowman 10, Provines 43. Recorder—Baker 3, Raut 37, West 14. Sheriff—Coyle 21, Turner 32. Surveyor—Condrey 23, Van Auken 30. Commissioner, north—McCullough 32, Potter 19. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 39, Graf 21, Weaver 31, Wiley 30.

JACKSON SOUTH

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 4, Hogg 48. Prosecutor—Grimm 26, Mounts 24. Auditor—Bowman 19, Provines 29. Recorder—Baker 3, Raut 29, West 17. Sheriff—Coyle 14, Turner 38. Surveyor—Condrey 17, Van Auken 33. Commissioner, north—McCullough 17, Potter 27. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 35, Graf 12, Weaver 31, Wiley 22.

NEWVILLE

Congress—Grosh 10, Helmke 5, Hogg 60. Prosecutor—Grimm 35, Mounts 35. Auditor—Bowman 48, Provines 23. Recorder—Baker 61, Raut 3, West 6. Sheriff—Coyle 16, Turner 53. Surveyor—Condrey 38, Van Auken 27. Commissioner, north—McCullough 33, Potter 33. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 31, Graf 30, Weaver 44, Wiley 32.

SPENCER

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 18, Hogg 108. Prosecutor—Grimm 44, Mounts 76. Auditor—Bowman 77, Provines 44. Recorder—Baker 83, Raut 21, West 16. Sheriff—Coyle 43, Turner 71. Surveyor—Condrey 54, Van Auken 57. Commissioner, north—McCullough 49, Potter 59. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 65, Graf 47, Weaver 76, Wiley 59.

TROY

Congress—Grosh 7, Helmke 19, Hogg 83. Prosecutor—Grimm 48, Mounts 58. Auditor—Bowman 38, Provines 65. Recorder—Baker 43, Raut 21, West 37. Sheriff—Coyle 22, Turner 82. Surveyor—Condrey 47, Van Auken 50. Commissioner, north—McCullough 56, Potter 49. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 44, Graf 61, Weaver 69, Wiley 80.

RICHLAND NORTH

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 6, Hogg 47. Prosecutor—Grimm 27, Mounts 28. Auditor—Bowman 22, Provines 28. Recorder—Baker 10, Raut 29, West 12. Sheriff—Coyle 19, Turner 37. Surveyor—Condrey 28, Van Auken 24. Commissioner, north—McCullough 46. Potter 10. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 41, Graf 27, Weaver 22, Wiley 29.

RICHLAND SOUTH

Congress—Grosh 4, Helmke 7, Hogg 51. Prosecutor—Grimm 29, Mounts 31. Auditor—Bowman 19, Provines 39. Recorder—Baker 12, Raut 22, West 22. Sheriff—Coyle 24, Turner 36. Surveyor—Condrey 19, Van Auken 40. Commissioner, north—McCullough 47. Potter 12. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 48, Graf 24, Weaver 43, Wiley 36.

BUTLER TWP.

Congress—Grosh 4, Helmke 8, Hogg 63. Prosecutor—Grimm 34, Mounts 40. Auditor—Bowman 26, Provines 43. Recorder—Baker 6, Raut 32, West 40. Sheriff—Coyle 28, Turner 49. Surveyor—Condrey 25, Van Auken 45. Commissioner, north—McCullough 31, Potter 35. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 40, Graf 26, Weaver 52, Wiley 43.

KEYSER NO. 1

Congress—Grosh 0, Helmke 3, Hogg 11. Prosecutor—Grimm 8, Mounts 6. Auditor—Bowman 3, Provines 11. Recorder—Baker 4, Raut 4, West 6. Sheriff—Coyle 7, Turner 7. Surveyor—Condrey 1, Van Auken 12. Commissioner, north—McCullough 3, Potter 9. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 8, Graf 6, Weaver 10, Wiley 7.

KEYSER NO. 2

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 4, Hogg 27. Prosecutor—Grimm 10, Mounts 21. Auditor—Bowman 13, Provines 17. Recorder—Baker 9, Raut 0, West 13. Sheriff—Coyle 9, Turner 20. Surveyor—Condrey 4, Van Auken 26. Commissioner, north—McCullough 15, Potter 15. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 21, Graf 14, Weaver 33, Wiley 17.

KEYSER NO. 3

Congress—Grosh 5, Helmke 7, Hogg 21. Prosecutor—Grimm 7, Mounts 24. Auditor—Bowman 10, Provines 23. Recorder—Baker 6, Raut 10, West 18. Sheriff—Coyle 12, Turner 20. Surveyor—Condrey 10, Van Auken 22. Commissioner, north—McCullough 13, Potter 17. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 17, Graf 14, Weaver 19, Wiley 17.

KEYSER NO. 4

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 2, Hogg 20. Prosecutor—Grimm 8, Mounts 15. Auditor—Bowman 3, Provines 20. Recorder—Baker 4, Raut 12, West 7. Sheriff—Coyle 3, Turner 19. Surveyor—Condrey 12, Van Auken 10. Commissioner, north—McCullough 10, Potter 13. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 18, Graf 10, Weaver 10, Wiley 11.

KEYSER NO. 5

Congress—Grosh 4, Helmke 20, Hogg 73, Prosecutor Grimm 13, Mounts 85. Auditor—Bowman 43, Provines 49. Recorder—Baker 34, Raut 20, West 38. Sheriff—Coyle 30, Turner 63, Surveyor—Condrey 29, Van Auken 56. Commissioner, north—McCullough 49, Potter 40. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 60, Graf 38, Weaver 75, Wiley 45.

KEYSER NO. 6

Congress—Grosh 3, Helmke 8, Hogg 82. Prosecutor—Grimm 15, Mounts 80. Auditor—Bowman 48, Provines 41. Recorder—Baker 31, Raut 14, West 44. Sheriff—Coyle 20, Turner 68. Surveyor—Condrey 26, Van Auken 59. Commissioner, north—McCullough 41, Potter 47. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 72, Graf 37, Weaver 67, Wiley 36.

KEYSER NO. 7

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 11, Hogg 67. Prosecutor—Grimm 16, Mounts 67. Auditor—Bowman 34, Provines 34. Recorder—Baker 25, Raut 14, West 35. Sheriff—Coyle 21, Turner 50. Surveyor—Condrey 20, Van Auken 47. Commissioner, north—McCullough 26, Potter 40. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 39, Graf 19, Weaver 50, Wiley 35.

KEYSER NO. 8

Congress—Grosh 2, Helmke 11, Hogg 29. Prosecutor—Grimm 6, Mounts 35. Auditor—Bowman 17, Provines 19. Recorder—Baker 10, Raut 8, West 19. Sheriff—Coyle 7, Turner 31. Surveyor—Condrey 13, Van Auken 22. Commissioner, north—McCullough 22, Potter 15. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 23, Graf 14, Weaver 32, Wiley 15.

KEYSER NO. 9

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 9, Hogg 41. Prosecutor—Grimm 19, Mounts 33. Auditor—Bowman 15, Provines 24. Recorder—Baker 14, Raut 15, West 17. Sheriff—Coyle 11, Turner 33. Surveyor—Condrey 17, Van Auken 25. Commissioner, north—McCullough 27, Potter 15. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 28, Graf 24, Weaver 31, Wiley 30.

KEYSER NO. 10

Congress—Grosh 1, Helmke 8, Hogg 26. Prosecutor—Grimm 13, Mounts 20. Auditor—Bowman 16, Provines 17. Recorder—Baker 13, Raut 6, West 11. Sheriff—Coyle 8, Turner 23. Surveyor—Condrey 5, Van Auken 30. Commissioner, north—McCullough 14, Potter 14. Councilman-at-Large—Eckhart 13, Graf 6, Weaver 17, Wiley 14.

Local Briefs

McCormick-Deering Repairs at Curie Hardware. 20t1.

The front of the Hull barber shop has been given a coat of ivory paint.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

The Lutheran Missionary Society will meet Thursday at 2 P. M. C. S. T. at the home of Mrs. J. R. Shilling.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milliman, of Avinton, Ohio, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Milliman. They also called on Mrs. Lizzie Milliman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hart and family and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hart were entertained to Sunday diner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Dix at Harlan.

Your Kodak films can be purchased at News office and you can also leave your order for prints here. Our customers are pleased and a trial will convince you.

The Memorial Day Association is planning on an ice cream social and band concert on Saturday night, May 26th to raise funds to defray expenses for Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Turnbull, of Dayton, Ohio, were home over Sunday as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Koch, and to spend the day with their two sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Burley and son, of Princeville, Ill., were here guests over Sunday of their parents, returning by way of Chicago to allow their son to be in school Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo, of Concord are the parents of a baby girl born Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Draggoo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Van Zile in Auburn. The new member of the family has been named Sally.

The Public Service Commission on last Friday granted the Northern Indiana Railways, Inc., permission to discontinue operation of three of its lines on midnight, June 2. The interurban lines ordered abandoned were the eastern division, from South Bend to Goshen, via Elkhart; the northern division, from South Bend to Benton Harbor and St. Joseph, via Niles and the western division, from South Bend to Michigan City, via La Porte. The company will continue its street car service at South Bend and at Mishawaka, and its bus service between South Bend and Elkhart.

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Friday, Saturday
MAY 18-19

"BOWERY"
—WITH—
Wallace Berry, Geo. Raft
Jackie Cooper, Fay Wray

You will find this a very fine picture with hundreds of laughs, also comedy in Venice.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
MAY 20-21-22

"GAMBLING LADY"
—WITH—
Ann Harding, Cleve Brook
Otto Krnger

Ann Hardings greatest role to date. Fighting her own battles in a world of men. News reel and Comedy.

Wednesday, Thursday,
MAY 23-24

"BY CANDLELIGHT"
Elissa Landi, Paul Lukas
Nita Aether

A brilliant stage play now becomes a screen play.

Shows Start On
Week Days at 7:30
Sunday at 4:30
Running Continuously

The Richmond State Hospital is operating on Eastern Standard Time during the summer months, beginning May 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shilling and two sons, Richard and James, and Bert Wiler, were Sunday dinner guests in the Mrs. Adam Shilling home.

Miss Thelma Malone, 22, a former resident of Auburn, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Malone live at Hillsdale, Mich., was one of three persons killed near Michigan City early Saturday morning when five trucks and four automobiles crashed. Miss Malone left home Friday night to go to a dance at Sturgis, and her parents did not know that she had gone elsewhere, until the notice of her death reached them. A dense fog that night caused the smash up. Her father, Clarence, is a brother of Sam Malone of St. Joe, and was raised here.

DR, BONNELL SOUDER HOSPITAL

The Dr. Bonnell Souder Hospital, located at West Sixth Street, their phone number being 620 is a modern and up-to-date hospital in all respects where they admit surgical, medical and maternity cases. In the up-building of the modern city of today there are no institutions that are more essential or play more important part than the hospitals where people of the community can know that they will be taken care of by physicians and nurses who are thoroughly competent.

The equipment is thoroughly modern and up-to-date and the many patients from this territory who have been there, speak highly for the service which they render. Their corps of nurses are most competent and the physicians and surgeons who operate are the leading men of the profession in the county.

We are pleased to call Dr. Bonnell Souders' Hospital in this review to your attention and to state that you can entrust yourself or any member of your family to their care with the knowledge that they will receive the best of care and attention. We recommend this hospital to our many readers.

HATCHERY

The thorough scientific knowledge which governs the management of the Auburn Hatchery, located at 219 East 9th Street, their phone number being 791–J, has inspired a confidence of hundreds of chick purchasers throughout this section of Indiana. The customer's confidence has been rewarded with rugged, healthy chicks, which later performed as advertised in the poultry years. Years of serious application to a single calling ought to make one efficient. For a long time the Auburn Hatchery has been serving the poultry men and women of DeKalb County with healthy chicks, which under the proper care developed into superb layers. At this widely advertised institution the chicks hatched are from males and hens renown for their performances as unexcelled layers. White Rocks, Barred Rocks, White Wyandottes, and Leghorns are the feature at this hatchery, conducted by the genial Mr. R. A. Gerig. Whatever your wants you better consult this reliable concern first.

Much of their business is repeat, which speaks well for the customers confidence in the Auburn Hatchery. For the past 18 months statistics show that the poultry division of agriculture has produced greatest income for amounts invested. Is it any wonder that the poultry men from around Auburn are going to this hatchery with requests for chicks?

A Chick from this well organized firm gets a real start. From blooded parents and inoculated against the many diseases which beset the young chicks, the little fellow has everything in his favor for coming into maturity ready to make his or her owner a real profit. The next time you are in Auburn visit the Auburn Hachery—you will find Mr. Gerig a very genial and valued authority in his field. Mr. Gerig is one of the oldest hatchery men in northern Indiana devoting his entire time to this busiess since 1920.

Mrs. Belle Ridgway, who has been staying at Hobart, is here for a couple weeks visit among relatives. She is looking fine.

CROUSE & THAYER Oil Co.

HICKSVILLE, O.

KEROSENE, per gallon - 9c.

High grade Motor Oil, guaranteed, per gal. 45c

In lots of 5 gallons or more

Naptha, High Test Light and Range Gasolene, Cup, Pressure, Differential and Axle Greases, Separator Oil.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

REPAIRS ARE NOT EXPENSIVE AT

The Elmwood Wrecking Co, Inc.

Used parts for your auto, truck and tractor. We have them
We are the largest auto wreckers in Western Illinois.
We undersell the town. Call, wire or write.

ELMWOOD AUTO WRECKING CO., Inc.

540 Mulberry St. GALESBURG, ILLINOIS Main 4994

MAY

L 919

U 289

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1934 — NUMBER 20

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago— M. E. Olds, Editor

Sol Barney was at Kendallville last week.

Frank Barney was in Chicago last Wednesday.

Ben Zimmerman came home from Michigan last week.

Frank Draggoo and Josh Lounsberry, drove to Butler last Tuesday.

Wm. Shambaugh of Fort Wayne made his semi-annual visit to St. Joe last week.

Rev. Moffet of Cleveland preached an eloquent sermon at the church in this place last Sunday evening.

Gus Hull will move on a farm near Waterloo next week, and Vince Dilley will move into the house where he now lives.

Although there are two good livery barns in this place, yet it is not enough at times to supply the demand. Last week two or three days there was no rigs to be had at all.

C. O. Merica, formerly principal of the St. Joe schools was in town last week, shaking hands with his friends. Mr. Merica was desirous of teaching here again this winter, but Trustee Brown said "nixy."

There was a large crowd of people in town on Wednesday evening of last week to witness the drill of the St. Joe Blaine & Logan club. The Spencerville club was also present and with their fine uniforms they made a splendid appearance. Baker Brothers band assisted by Mart Bodey and others filled the air with music, and the people with patriotism.

The democrat club received 100 torches this week.

Wm. Shambaugh spoke at Spencerville Monday night.

The night operator got a bug in his ear the other evening. Dr. Bowman took it out.

John Widney would like to have the man who stole his bridle come back and get the horse.

H. K. Reynolds has turned over a new leaf and now gets up every morning at eight o'clock.

Did you ever set down on a yellow jacket's nest?. Mart Tustison did the other day, but he got right straight up again.

Joe Knisely was made shouting happy the other morning on account of a baby boy that commenced to board at his house.

David Butler, one of the old settlers of this county, died at the old farm residence near Spencerville on Wednesday afternoon of last week, and was buried on the following Friday.

Wm. Staman talks of trading his property in this place for Wm. Cahill's farm. Should he trade, however, he will not move out of town but will probably build another house at once.

Rev. Lineberry, the new pastor at the Methodist Church preached an interesting sermon in the church at this place last Sunday evening, to a large and attentive audience. He will preach again in two weeks.

There has been somewhat of a change in the mail route running through here from Fort Wayne to Butler. The hack now comes up from Fort Wayne on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, instead of going down on these days as it formerly did. The change was made in order that Mr. Phillips, who lives in Ft. Wayne could be at home over Sundays

Elderberry pie is ripe.

Dr. Bowman is building an addition to his house.

Mrs. Widney has moved into the rooms over Tustison's grocery.

Doll Kester is putting the fining touches on to John Widney's house this week.

Jimmie Ryan will speak up on Porke Avenue some evening next week. Every body turn out.

Mr. and Mrs. Florance Buchanan attended the Methodist Conference at Kendalville last week.

They have another night operator at the depot. J. S. Davis the former one is breaking on the local.

John Knight, son of Wm. Knight living near Concord, wanted to have some fun last Saturday, so he took a bottle and put some powder in it and touched it off. The bottle went off and so did he. Although it did not result in any thing serious it might have been otherwise, and should be a warning to boys not to fool with loaded bottles.

The democratic club from this place attended a pole raising one mile north of Newville on last Thursday night. They had a band of music and three four-horse wagon loads of people and made a fine appearance. Gen. Blair of Waterloo was the speaker and those who were present say he delivered a very able and interesting speech.

Burglars entered the store of Olds & Carnes at Spencerville one night last week and helped themselves to a lot of cutlery, cigars, tobacco and what change there was in the money drawer, amounting to perhaps twenty-five or thirty dollars. They got in by cutting out the glass and raising the window. Should you see any thing of the rascals, shoot them.

PROVED-
by millions of miles of testing by engineers

PROVED-
in the hands of hundreds of thousands of owners

Now we ask you to Drive it only 5 miles and you'll never be satisfied with any other low-priced car

DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

CHEVROLET Why do you suppose Chevrolet keeps repeating in all of its advertising, "Drive it only 5 miles"? Because Chevrolet engineers have tried out all the various makes of low-priced cars. They have compared performance—on rough roads, in traffic, over hills, through sand and mud and water. And they know what thousands of Chevrolet owners have proved in their daily driving: The Chevrolet ride simply can't be matched by any other in the low-price field. It can't be matched—because no other low-priced car matches any of these five leading features.

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICH.

Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms
A General Motors Value

SAVE WITH A CHEVROLET SIX

FULLY-ENCLOSED KNEE-ACTION WHEELS

80 HORSEPOWER
80 Miles per Hour

CABLE-CONTROLLED BRAKES

BODIES BY FISHER

SHOCK-PROOF STEERING

FURNISH MOTOR SALES, Spencerville, Indiana

BOARD DISCUSSED DOG NUISANCE

Dogs running about town will be shot on sight by Marshal Curie, and the town board again authorized that dogs be confined or kept at home, and refrain from running about town and committing wastes that can be avoided. One dog was killed this week and others have date of execution set, providing they appear on the streets without their owner. This was again the discussion of the town board Monday night.

Work about town in patching holes in the street, cutting down humps in road at a number of crossings were ordered done at once by the marshal.

Some work will be done by the town on the berm of road one on Spencerville street, preparatory to the state making a metal berm.

The allowance of bills and a continuation of a number of things to be discussed at a later meeting, completed the evening's work until June 4th.

HICKSVILLE PAPER ESTABLISHED 60 YEARS

Last week the News-Tribune, Hicksville, owned and operated by M. J. Schell & Son, entered its 60th year of continuous service. The editors have been giving to Hicksville, one of the best weekly papers in North-western Ohio, and their equipment will surpass towns of many times their population. The News extends congratulations to its Ohio freinds whose paper is 10 years our senior.

MAY REGISTER BEFORE FALL ELECTION

Voters' registration under the new law has now been resumed in DeKalb county and it will continue until twenty-nine days before the election in November.

Voters not registered will not be able to vote this fall. Those who registered in time of vote at the Primary May 8 need not register again, but if they move from one precinct to another they must have their registration cards transferred.

County Clerk Carl Walter states that no house-to-house canvass will be made. At this time voters may register at his office but later he will announce additional registration offices at other points in the county.

TO ASK CUT IN AUTO LICENSE FEE

Plans for a state-wide program to reduce automobile license fees to a flat $3 registration charge for all cars, to eliminate the annual drivers' license by substituting a three-year driver's license and to free the state police force from politics, place it on a civil service basis and increase the force sufficiently to permit adequate patroling of the highways, were discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Fort Wayne Motor Club at the Indiana hotel Wednesday.

A LETTER TO MERCHANTS

The value of your local newspaper to the success of your business cannot be overestimated. It's worth all the support and cooperation you can give it, for the newspaper is a mirror reflecting the life of the community in which you and your store have an important part.

Your advertisement is the reflection of your store in this mirror. Everybody sees it there. If it is not there the mirror is dark, where your store should be. You are there but you cannot be seen. Your store is open for business as usual, but "Out of sight; out of mind!"

To keep in step with the progress of your community; to get your share of business, you must advertise regularly. Take your newspaper publisher into your confidence; he can give you invaluable assistance. Establish an advertising budget. Plan a regular schedule for your advertisements. It's a policy that is followed by the most successful stores; it's an idea that will be profitable to you.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

Ladies of the Methodist Church will hold a sale of Baked Goods in The News office window, Saturday morning. Remember to make your purchase for Sunday dinner. 21t1.

TO ISSUE EARLY

Because of Memorial Day next week, The News will be issued on Tuesday, to save being a day late.

We plan to take the day off like the rest of the folks, therefore whatever you want in next week's paper will have to be in early Monday forenoon.

Mrs. Vina Quance, of Auburn, is here for a few days, visiting in the J. C. Hull and F. B. Leighty homes.

Mrs. Jane Randall received word from her son, Harry Randall, of Chicago, stating that he had not been able to work for some time because of his health. Mrs. Randall had been in the hospital for three days, being treated for cat bites and scratches. During the night, recently, the cat became insane and pounced upon her, while she lay sleeping. For fear of complications resulting, she was taken to the hospital, and is getting better.

MEMORIAL DAY PLANS ANNOUNCED

The Veterans Memorial Day Association announce that plans for the observance of Memorial Day here on Wednesday, May 30th, have virtually been completed. As in the past the forenoon program will consist of decorating graves in outlying cemeteries at Bear Creek, Morr, and Jenkins, Cemeteries, ending with serivces at Coburntown and Alton Cemetery.

The afternoon program at St. Joe Gym followed by decoration of graves in Riverside Cemetery. The usual program at the Gym has been changed inasmuch as a thirty minute patriotic play, given by local talent, will be substituted for the customary speaker of the day.

The people of the community are going to miss something good if they miss this play. Co-operation of the whole community is asked in the observance of this day, and all ex-service men (of any war or peace time service) are urged to be out and attend these services in a body. Complete program on another page.

Officers of the Memorial Association this year are:
President Ralph Sechler.
Sec.-Treas., Harvey Hull.
Marshall, John Crothers.
Custodian, Roy Reidenbach.
Sergeant-at-Arms, Leon Kees.
Chaplain, Abner Trostel.

CAMP WORK DELAYED ON ACCOUNT OF SNOW

A letter from Malcolm Woodcox, our latest enlistment in the C. C. C. now stationed in Washington, writes interestingly to his parents:

"Dear Mother and Dad:

"Well here we are at Spokane but not settled for good as yet, we are stuck here for a while until the snow melts in the mountains of Idaho, probably about six weeks we will stay there until the first of August then move down to Southern California, on account of the snow again.

"We had a very nice trip on Pullman train from Louisville via Indianapolis, Chicago, Omaha, Gillette, Wyo., here we had our first sight of the Rockies, although the country had been very hilly for a long way. After a long stretch of open country we came to a large Indian Reservation and went right by the scene of Custer's last stand. My, is that Historical! We stopped at Great Falls, Montana, for exercise and could notice the air getting much thinner, gets your wind when you run.

"Next stop was in Glacier National Park. We were there for an hour and amused ourselves by throwing snow balls at people picking wild flowers below (believe it or not.) The altitude here is 7760 feet. Over the continental divide the altitude is 10,585 feet. The scenery is great here, waterfalls an hundred or more feet high, and those mountains, I just can't describe them in a letter. There were numerous tunnels through the mountains, some one-half mile in length. The mountains are covered up to the vegetation line with pine, pine as far as you can see in any direction. I saw some bear, deer, coyotes and prairie dogs at different times on the trip.

"We arrived here at 6:00 A. M., then out to camp and into tents at 10:00. We get more to eat here than at Camp Knox, and lots better, its really very good. Spokane is a very pretty place of 150,000 inhabitants, full of trees and set in a valley with mountains on three sides. Well that's about all for now, will write soon again, good bye.

Co. 562. Malcolm."
C. C. C.
Fort George Wright,
Washington.

VEGET'BLE PLANTS

the largest and finest varieties in the COUNTY, AT

TEN EYKE'S Greenhouse

AUBURN, INDIANA

For That Summer Wear

SWEATERS — Sleeveless $1.00
Novelty Knit. Colors: White, Blue, Green, Tan, Black, Rust.

TERRY CLOTH SWEATERS ..... 75c and $1.00
Colors: White, Blue, Canary. All sizes.

TROUSERS: White, Grey and Tan Flannel, ... $3.00
Slack Models : 22 Inch Bottoms

SANFORIZED SLACKS $2.00
In checks, plaids, and stripes and nubs. 20 and 22in bottoms. Sizes 28 inch to 52 inch waist.

WHITE DUCK, Sanforized ..... $1.50 and $2.00

Sanforized Seersucker Trousers, all sizes, ... $1.00 - $1.50

Boys Summer Trousers, Sanforized $1.50

The McBride Co.

AUBURN, - - - INDIANA

MAY

L 919

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

MORTUARY

JOHNSON

George Johnson, son of William and Rachel Johnson, was born in Jackson Township, DeKalb County Indiana, July 31, 1868 and departed this life from his home in Concord, May 15, 1934, at the age of 65 years, 9 months and 14 days. He was a member of the Concord Methodist Protestant Church. Although ill health kept him from attending services regularly in his latter years, he still kept his faith in Christ as his personal Saviour.

On November 29, 1900 he was married to Jeneva Hull, and to this union were born four children. He leaves to mourn their great loss his faithful wife; the children: Carl, of New Haven, Mrs. Olie Maurer, of Garrett, Robert and Arthur at home; a brother, R. M. Johnson, of Auburn; two sisters, Mrs. James Goings, of Ft. Wayne and Mrs. D. C. Norris, of South Bend; six grand children and many relatives and friends.

The funeral was held from the Concord Church Friday afternoon, with burial at Auburn, conducted by Rev. V. O. Harrold, pastor, and Rev. C. O. Johnson, a former pastor, of Dunkirk, Indiana.

CARD OF THANKS

In this manner permit us to thank friends, neighbors and many good people who were sympathetic and helpful to Mr. Johnson and our family during his sickness, and after his death. Your acts of kindness will always be remembered.

Mrs. Johnson and Children.

SMITH

Clara Gertrude, only daughter of Christian and Margaret Koch, was born in Spencer Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, October 22, 1876 and departed this life on May 18, 1934 at the age of 57 years, 6 months and 26 days.

At the age of 14 years she consecrated her life to the service of the Master, joined the M. E. Church at Spencerville and was a most devoted member until called home to her eternal reward.

On July 7, 1901 she was united in marriage to Wm. L. Smith and was a true affectionate companion.

From early childhood she was a constant sufferer from bodily ailments but these afflictions were borne bravely and cheerfully. Even tho frail of body yet her spirit soared to heights attained by only a few.

Her greatest joy was when she was serving others and many have been cheered along life's uneven pathway by her encouraging words and loving deeds.

She leaves to mourn her passing a patient, devoted husband; an adopted son, Ora, wife and daughter, of Spencerville; her one and only brother, John C. Koch, of Spencerville, a great number of relatives and a wide circle of friends.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Spencerville M. E. Church, Rev. Studebaker and Rev. H. J. Brown, officiating. Burial was made at Scipio, directed by Mayola Kinsey & Son.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

The first circus of the season is at Auburn next Monday.

Harry Loucks quit work at the Widney orchards Monday.

Lutheran Sunday School, May 20, attendance 36, collection $2.64.

Harry Stametz, of Greenfield, Indiana, was an over night guest of Robert Nicholls and wife, recently.

F. M. Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hoffman, of Hicksville, Ohio, were callers in the Meade Baker home, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gee, their son, Eugene, and Mrs. Jennie Abel were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Flora Gee and granddaughter, Lucille.

Master Jimmie Koch, of Fort Wayne, is here for a couple days looking after his granparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch, while his mother is at Auburn caring for her grandmother, who is ill.

Evangelist J. Marion Small, of Lake James, was in town Monday afternoon, calling on friends. He was a supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker. He has begun a series of meetings at Cedar Lake.

Elder H. K. Schondelmayer performed the rite of baptism for three candidates from the Church of Christ, Sunday afternoon. Two from St. Joe and one from Newville were immersed in the St. Joe river, near Dills' bridge. The impressive ceremony was attended by members from both churches.

NEWVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. George Wonderly, of Mark Center, visited friends here Monday.

Mrs. Lucille Traxler and children are visiting her parents in Butler, this week.

Kent Seely has gone to Apple Creek, Ohio, to spend the summer with his grandparents.

Mrs. Ethel Huffman, of Chicago, and Mrs. Nina Kees, of St. Joe, called on friends here Saturday.

Mr. and. Mrs. Hugh Traxler spent Sunday afternoon at Melburn, Ohio, with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Caskey.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrain Washler spent Sunday in Fort Wayne. Their daughters, Helen and Garnet, who had been there since Wednesday, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Iro Morhart, daughter, Lois and son, Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Walters, daughter, Luella and sons Robert and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Smith at Mongo and helped Elsie May Smith celebrate her first birthday.

SPENCERVILLE

The Glawe Restaurant has been redecorated during the past week.

Gust Hafner has accepted a position in a shoe repair store in Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Woun, of Harlan, were Sunday afternoon guests at the Phillip Chaney home.

James Reed and wife are driving a new Chevrolet Coach purchased at the Furnish Garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rectenwall and son, Warren, spent the weekend with relatives at Niles, Mich.

Mrs. Kathryn Steward and son, were Monday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kimes, and family.

Methodist Sunday School attendance for May 20, was 65, collection $2.66; Lutheran 87, collection $3.70.

Robert Hafner attended the Field Day exercises at the Waterloo school the guest of Raymond and LaVern Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale McNabb were Sunday afternoon and evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hensley and family.

Memorial services will be held next Sunday afternoon at the Scipio cemetery. Rev. Howard Brown will act as chairman.

In the recent examinations given some of the Wabash Railroad employes, Gale Bowser received the very excellent report of 99.7.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown and daughter, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Braybrook of near the Scipio Church.

Miss Mildred and Master Herbie Osborne, who spent several weeks with their grandmother, Mrs. Emila Gloyd, left Sunday for their new home at Montpelier, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gloyd and daughter, Beverly, were Friday evening guests at the Charles Hahn home. Miss Beverly remained for a few days visit with her grandparents.

Mrs Emila Gloyd very pleasantly entertained the Cheerful Workers Class at her home Friday afternoon. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gloyd and daughter, Clarence Gloyd of near Hicksville, Miss Mildred Osborne of Montpelier and Miss Moudy of west of town.

MEYER SEEKS THIRD SPEED CROWN

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — A quiet young chap with the demeanor of a student and the nerve of a human fly, will attempt to drive himself into a self-made niche in racing fame here May 30th—he wants to be the first three-time winner of the annual 500-mile race.

He is Louis Meyer, who came to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway as an unknown to win in 1928 and who repeated his victory last year to share the double victory honors with the great Tommy Milton who won in 1921 and 1923.

Milton has retired from the speed paths to the automotive industry but Meyer, who has just turned thirty, has not yet approached the peak of his racing fame.

With little racing experience, Meyer came to Indianapolis early in 1928 looking for a car to drive. He became weary of promises made by the manager of a car team who had lured him to the track and he became attracted to one of the two racing cars which had been completed by Phil Shafer, veteran driver. But Shafer wanted to sell and was not interested in a percentage driver. Meyer remembered a garage owner in Tippecanoe City, Ohio, who was enthusiastic about automobile racing. He called Alden Sampson long distance and so sold him on the idea that Sampson disposed of his small business in Ohio and bought the car. Shafer gave the new team the pick of the two cars. The one Meyer picked won. Shafer's car finished in sixth place.

Golden High spent several days last week in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Bernice Baker is in a critical condition at this writing.

Miss Virginia Goldsmith is slightly better after a relapse last week.

James Reed beautified the lawn at his home by building a rock garden.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jenkins, of Butler, called on friends at this place Sunday afternoon.

The Young Ladies' Social Club will meet Friday evening with Mrs. Pauline Baumgartner.

Miss Helen Webb has returned to her home after spending a short vacation with relatives in Hicksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stiman and family were Sunday dinner guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Alice Zimmerman, and family.

Mrs. Daisy Butler was taken to the clinic at Fort Kayne Monday for a complete diagnosis. She was brought home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erving Vendrely and son, Buddy Ronald, of Monroe, Michigan, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hosford, of Wolf Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean and daughter, Joyce, took Sunday dinner with Floyd Dean's.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Koch and children, of Fort Wayne, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Koch and family.

The Young People's Class of the Lutheran Sunday School had entire charge of the school on Sunday morning, and all present greatly enjoyed the service.

Mr. Howard Means accompanied Rev. Fabianske to synod, Monday. This is the Indiana Synod, our church having been transferred from the Michigan synod to the Indiana synod.

Miss Iris Vendrely, a former resident of this place, was graduated from the St. Joseph Hospital Training School at the commencement held Sunday night at the Catholic Community Center.

Miss Margaret Chaney attended a birthday surprise party on Keith Klopfenstein Saturday evening at Harlan. The young people composed the girls' and boys' basket ball teams of the Harlan School.

The Young Peoples' Class, taught by Flossie Rhoades, held a class party in the church basement on Thursday evening. On Saturday evening, they gathered at the home of Mrs. Arlene Rhoades to surprise Merle Dean Furnish on his birthday.

STOLEN CAR LOCATED

Fred Quance, of Auburn, had his Ford Coupe stolen Saturday evening at the McIntosh school house, where Mrs. Quance had driven the car to a musical rehearsal. No trace has been found yet today by the sheriff. The car was covered by insurance. Later: The car was found abandoned on a side street in Auburn, Tuesday night by the police, and was taken into custody at once.

CONCORD

Childrens' Day plans are under way at this place.

Lloyd Draggoo lost a colt last week and came near losing the mother.

Mrs. Harkey is staying a couple weeks with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Johnson.

Mrs. Cora Bouse and children are spending a couple weeks with her sister, Mrs. Maud Harris and family.

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo was at Auburn Sunday to see the new granddaughter. They expect to come home this week.

Mrs. Dell Draggoo received word last week that Mrs. Sarah Widney and daughter, Ida, of Alabama, were coming back to Concord in June to be in their home for the summer.

Mrs. Chas. Jackson and Mable spent Monday and Tuesday with her sister Mrs. Nan Lysher and son. On Wednesday they went to the Holl Jackson home and visited until Thursday evening of last week.

Mrs. James Wyatt, of Auburn, is in a serious condition from a complication of ailments. Recovering from a light stroke she was apparently much better until three months ago. She has been bedfast for three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bone spent Sunday with her.

A surprise on Elza Jones, of near Edon, took place at his home last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fettere and two sons, Wayne and Walter and Mrs. John Fetters, attended. Most of the relatives live around Bryon and Edgerton. They came in with well filled baskets to the number of about 30 friends and neighbors.

HOME BUREAU

The Concord Township Home Bureau met at the home of Mrs. Grace Sheffer, Friday, May 18th. Owing to the absence of the president and vice president, Laura Washler, took charge. Being in honor of Mother's Day, the program consisted of a piano solo, Mother Machree by Cora Curie. The Origin of Mother's Day by Emily Hallabaugh; a reading, "When Mother Came Home," by Millie Shull; vocal solo "Mother Dear," by Helen Ulm. "The Ages of Woman" in charge of Cora Curie was cleverly given, a person representing each age:

Graduate ..... Virginia Shull
Bride ..... Helen Tustison
Mother and Baby, Helen Wade and daughter
Grandmother of 20th Century, ... Daisy Keeler
Great Grandmother.. Millie Shull
Great Great Grandmother .....Anna Tustison

The project leader, Emily Hallabaugh gave a talk on "Marketing." The club song was then sung and the creed read by all. Each member responded to roll call by giving "My Mother's Favorite Song." The president arrived and took charge, reading an invitation to the County Picnic to be held June 21.

On June 8th the club is invited to a strawberry breakfast at the home of Mrs. Bird Nicholls. Each member to bring a bowl, cup and spoon, and their dinner in a pail. The day is to be spent in having a good time. Twenty-five members and two guests were present. Ice cream, wafers and coffee were served by the committee.

Club Reporter.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET AT INDIANAPOLIS

The Indiana Branch of the National League of District Postmasters, which is composed of the Third and Fourth Class Postmasters will hold their State Convention at Indianapolis, June 25 and 26.

There will be in attendance a representative from the Postoffice Department, as well as local Inspectors; the Indianapolis Postmaster, Mrs. Seidensticker; Edgar S. Brown, Superintendent of Finance of the Indianapolis office; and also R. A. Ward, of Alden, Kansas, member of our National Executive Committee.

Considering that during the past year and a half there has been a large number of newly appointed Postmasters, the aim of this year's convention is to make it more a "school of instruction" for the benefit of the new appointees.

Arthur Lockwood, State President, Uniondale, Indiana; Chas. E. Noble, State Secretary, Rolling Prairie, Indiana.

ITEMS ABOUT ST. JOE

An extremely heavy freeze visited the community Tuesday night.

Hollis Dilley is at Indianapolis this week attending Lutheran Synod.

William Finzer, of Hicksville, spent last Thursday with Earl Kinsey.

George Tustison is home from Connersville. Work was not sufficient to pay his living expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jenkins, Miss Lucille Gee and Gerald Gee, were Auburn shoppers, Saturday.

Our heat wave and drouth was broken Monday night with a light shower followed by cooler weather.

Mrs. Frank Bachtel and daughter, Josephine, left Wednesday to spend a few days with her brother near Columbia City.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Tulley and daughter, Marjory, of Ligonier, were Tuesday guests of Mrs. Jane Randall. Mrs. Ivy Tyler, who has been here for several weeks, returned home with them.

A large number of farmer friends turned out Wednesday to assist George Hart in planting his melons. A pot luck dinner was served at noon by the ladies, and they all had a fine time together. The Hart family surely appreciated the kindness of their neighbors and friends.

Three St. Joe girls are working in Fort Wayne restaurants beginning this week. Eloise Bowman is working at Eagle Dairy Lunch and Hazel and Bob Storer are working in Throp Restaurants on Wayne and Harrison Streets. Beatrice Storer is taking a course at Betty Jean Beauty School. They expect to room together.

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Friday, Saturday
MAY 25-26
"COMING OUT PARTY"
—WITH—
Frances Du, Gene Raymond
It cost Dad $50,000.00 to prepare me for society's matrimonial market.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
MAY 27-28-29
"BOTTOMS UP"
—WITH—
Spencer Tracy, Pat Patterson, John Boles
A love story with laughter, music and such songs as "Waiting at the gate for Katy" "Little did I dream" "Turn on the Moon" by the producer of "Sunny Side Up."

Wednesday, Thursday
MAY 30-31
I Believe in You"
with Victor Joy, Rosemary Ames. Meet a new star, Rosemary Ames. She will capture your heart with her beauty and charms.
Also good comedies every evening.
Spend an enjoyable evening at THE HUBER, where it is always cool.
Sunday shows start at 4:30, on week-days at 7:30.

Under New Management

FRIEND'S GARAGE

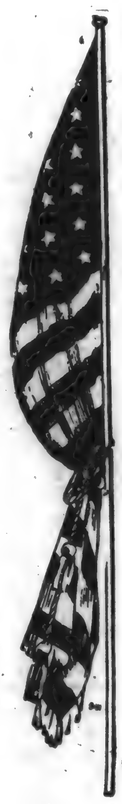
JOHN KNOP, MANAGER
SPENCERVILLE, INDIANA

AUTO REPAIRING, FIRESTONE TIRES AND BATTERIES.
BATTERY RECHARGING AND REPAIRING
OXY-ACETYLENE WELDING and CUTTING, GRINDING, etc.
"GOOD GULF" Gasoline and Lubricating Oils
COME IN AND GET ACQUAINTED

MAY

L 919

291



MEMORIAL DAY

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM

8:30 A. M. Leave St. Joe to decorate soldiers' graves in Bear Creek, Morr, and Jenkins Cemeteries.
1:00 Concert by St. Joe Band on Main Street.
1:30 Program at High School Gymnasium.
Music ..... Band
America ..... Audience
Invocation
Music ..... Band
Gettysburg Address....Burl Rude
Special Number .....
.....Frances Reidenbach
Play—"The Boy in Blue"
CAST
David Page (The Boy in Blue)
..... Earl William Kinsey
Carol South ..... Virginia Shull
Colonel South ..Derwood Ridgway
Paul Lee ..... Harvey Hull
Isabel Trent ..... Louise Sechler
Jeanne Faire .....Jean Goodwin
Mammy ..... Treas Carpenter
Music ..... Band
Pledge to Flag 5th and 6th grades.
Reading of roster of dead.
Announcements
Star Spangled Banner...Audience
Benediction
Parade to Cemetery.
Decoration of Graves.
Services at Monument.
Dismissal.

Rev. H. K. Schondelmayer will preach the Memorial sermon at the Christian Church Sunday evening, May 27, and Rev. C. W. Moore will deliver the Memorial address at the U. B. Church at 2 P. M., May 30.

MAY

L 919

U 292

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

For Sale: Some nice Beef Steak Tomato plants. Howard Shilling. 21t2.

Lawn Mower Sharpening and Repairing. (Not an Emery Grind.) Satisfaction Guaranteed. Walter Keesler. 18t3p.

For Sale: Good seed and eating potatoes. George Walter. 21t1p

For Breeding purposes, a fine Guernsey Bull. Clint Lucas, St. Joe. 20t2p.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen, brown Persian Kitten. Reward for return. Wayne Graber at Harley Like home. 21t1p.

For Sale: Manchu Soy Beans, good quality. N. A. Goldsmith, 2 miles north-east of Grabill. 18t3p.

For Sale: Baby Gilts and Baby Hampshire Boars, extra good stock. Priced to sell. O. E. Ginther, mile north Spencevrille, Road 1. 21t1

WANTED: White Oak, red oak, white ash, maple and basswood. Butler Hardware Lumber Co. Phone 210L or call at saw mill. 17t4p.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Coburn's Corners

The children of Coburn's Corners are busy practicing for Children's Day.

Estel Coburn and family moved recently to Willard, Ohio, where Mr. Coburn has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coburn and cihldren, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter and Lewis Freeman, called at M. C. Hart's late Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Eva Shull remains about the same, only walks a few steps each day and that with the assistance of two helpers. This condition confines her to her bed most of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart were at Plymouth, Indiana, Sunday, consulting with Mrs. Hart's physician. They ate dinner and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hart and family at Goshen.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Manz, Chas. Manz and Bess Klopfenstein brot George Hart to the home of his parents for dinner Sunday. Mrs. Hart and children were also present. Mr. Hart was taken to his home in the evening. He is improving more each day.

The Ladies Aid held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Hart, Tuesday, May 15. Sunshine and Shadow bags were made to be used in a contest between the ladies and gentlemen, which will commence June 1 and run until Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. Mattie Hart and Mrs. Gladys Hart were chosen captains. Those receiving sunshine bags must put in one cent every day the sun shines at 9 o'clock and those receiving the shadow bags must do likewise only pay when cloudy at 9 o'clock. This is going to be an interesting contest, the losing side is to treat the winning side to a supper and entertainment. A t close of the business meeting the hostess served a dainty lunch to 14 members and 3 children.

Iris Wilmot, of St. Joe, spent Sunday with Virginia Poper.

Troas Epler, of St. Joe, visited last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Scholes.

Clyde Hart, who is suffering with a hard cold was unable to be present at Bible School Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Bevington, of Hicksville spent Sunday evening with Mr. J. S. Shull.

Willard Maxwell, of Covington, Kentucky, spent from Tuesday until the next Monday with his mother, Mrs. Cora Maxwell.

The Truth Seekers Class held their monthly meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Claud Laub, Sunday, with pot luck dinner. There was a good. attendance and all had a fine time together.

4-H CLUB ORGANIZED

The first meeting of the 4-H Club was held Monday at 2 P. M. at the home of Mrs. Leon Kees.

The following officers were elected:

President, Jean Ridgway.
Vice Pres., Eloise Coburn.
Sec.-Treas., Clara Wiers.
Senior Leader, Mrs. Leon Kees.
Junior Leader, Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey.

A name was also chosen for the club, "The Happy Workers." The members are:

Marcia Wade, Stella Hart, Beverly Wade, Troas Epler, Leila Hurni, Minta Davis, Nelda Kees, Christine Zonker, Betty Kees, Marcella Wiers, Karma Jean Wilcox, Clara Wiers, Jean Ridgway, Eloise Coburn.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Leila Hurni on Monday of next week. The refreshment committee is composed of Eloise Coburn, Leila Hurni and Beverly Wade.

The hostess served ice cream.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Local Briefs

Love is mother of virtues.

Mrs. Sylvia Ginther was at Auburn Saturday on business.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. John Kelly, living north of Jackson Center, died last week as result of an operation. She was 49 years old.

The local flour mill is compelled to run nights in order to keep up with the orders for Burco flour. The mill capacity is going to be increased.

In Indiana last week, there were reported 1296 cases of measles and 113 of scarlet fever. Of the first cases DeKalb reported 3 and the latter cases 3.

Asa Shuff of Michigan, has been the guest of his mother, Mary Shuff for the past week. Also his sister, Lizzie and brother Harry. Asa is looking fine.

Your Kodak films can be purchased at News office and you can also leave your order for prints here. Our customers are pleased and a trial will convince you

With this warm weather, the merchants will probably be thinking of putting on an evening's entertainment during the summer, as last year. Extra fine crowds attended last season.

Mrs. F. M. Thornton, Geraldine and Charles left Friday for Washington, D. C. Charles will return in about a week to work for Mrs. Inez Hadsell. Mrs. Thornton and Geraldine will remain indefinitely.

The Sherwood Savings bank of Sherwood, has been closed for liquidation, Ira J. Fulton, state banking superintendent annouced Friday. The bank has been operating recently under restrictions with Charles O. Reeb in charge.

A Century of Progress Souvenir Edition FREE with the Sunday Chicago Herald and Examiner of May 27th. Here is Just What You Will Want—a Complete Daily Listing of Special Events for the Month and Many Photographs. Order your copy at news office today.

There never was an improvement made, of any kind, that someone did not object to. There never was a progressive step taken that someone doesn't object to. If the advice of the objectors had been listened to, we would still be living in log cabins and burning tallow dips.

The Ginnivan Dramatic Company are again on the road after a retirement of about three years and their first showing as usual will be in Ashley. The company is composed of nearly all new players. They are showing at Ashley all this week as their opening.

It is announced that the state liquor stores are to be closed at Ottawa, Napoleon, Paulding and six other places if citizens do not blow in more of their funds on booze. We once heard it quoted that more booze for father meant less shoes for the children. —Hicksville News-Tribune, Editor Scheil says that whilp Ohio is losing all this, Indiana still has McNutt.

Joe Woodcox has been given the position as clerk and assistant at the local post office under M. E. Storer, providing there is no slip up in the plans while Mr. Storer has not been notified of his appointment as acting postmaster, yet he raks among the 3 high in the recent examination and already has the temporary appointment. Mr. Storer is rendering good service to the public for a beginner at the job.

Of course your wife has poor judgment, think whom she married.

Miss Lillian Ernest, of Jackson, Michigan, was a visitor in the Frank Curie home Saturday.

Rev. C. O. Johnson and wife, of Dunkirk, Indiana were Friday evening supper guests in ye editor's home.

Daylight savings time was adopted at the Methodist Church Sunday morning and folks seemed anxious for its passage.

Mrs. Mary Kinsey has sold her residence property to Mr. A. M. Baughman. Mrs. Kinsey is contemplating a public sale to dispose of her goods.

Release of 700,000 wall-eye pike baby fish was made last week in the St. Joe river of the conservation Department. This is the first release of the season.

The Memorial Day Association is planning on an ice cream social and band concert on Saturday night, May 26th to raise funds to defray expenses for Memorial Day.

Mrs. Thelma Blalock and baby and Mrs. DeLora Curie spent Sunday in the Grover Curie home at Kendallville. Keith Curie came over Sunday morning after them.

"What we don't know won't hurt us" is the doctrine of the flippant and irresponsible. It is untrue. The greatest tragedies of life are brought about because we do not know. Experience teaches but too often in gaining experience the mischief has been done.

Lester and Clay Coburn caught about a dozen carp Sunday morning as they were spawiing along the river bank near the Hadsell bridge. Clay shot one with his bow and arrow and it jumped out of the water about three feet. This was real sport for the boys.

A. W. Trostel attended a reunion of the Spanish American War veterans held at Elkhart Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Nicholls, of Orangeville, spent over Friday night with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Hull, and family at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Mason, of Auburn and Mrs. Belle Ridgway, were Sunday guests in the Floyd Ridgway home. Mrs. Ridgway accompanied them home in the evening for a few days visit.

People are learning the value of our classified column, and every week new customers are trying it out. Read it this week and then tell your friends what you read there. It's real news, if it is classed as advertising.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
Garden Seeds a Specialty
All PERFECTION
Oil Burning Stoves
Offered at Large Reduction
--OF--
10 to 40 off
Open Evenings. Come and SEE OUR STOCK.

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:
HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50
Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

REPAIRS ARE NOT EXPENSIVE AT
The Elmwood Wrecking Co, Inc.
Used parts for your auto, truck and tractor. We have them
We are the largest auto wreckers in Western Illinois.
We undersell the town. Call, wire or write.
ELMWOOD AUTO WRECKING CO., Inc.
540 Mulberry St. GALESBURG, ILLINOIS Main 4994

PATENTS AND TRADE-MARKS
C. A. SNOW & Co.
Successful Practice since 1875. Over 25,000 patents obtained for inventors in every section of country. Write for booklet telling how to obtain a patent, with list of clients in your State.
510 8th St., Washington, D. C.

. . the higher meats go . . .
the greater the ECONOMY of ELECTRIC COOKERY

The "New Deal" plays the tune and up go meat prices. Economize by purchasing an Electric Range and conserve your food. A roast cooked electrically weighs much more than one cooked by any old-fashioned method. It doesn't require higher mathematics to show that the savings in such waste alone will soon pay for an Electric Range, and it only costs one cent a meal per person to cook electrically, while the daily food saving goes on. See us today and select your Electric Range.

WATCH YOUR STEP

See an Electric Range Before You Buy!

We Sell Hotpoint Westinghouse Marion ELECTRIC RANGES

MAY

L 919

U293

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1934 — NUMBER 21

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Russ Copp was at Michigan City last Thursday.

Mrs. Mad Meek is visiting with friends at Avilla.

The Butler grist mill burned down one night last week.

Miss Cora White returned home from a visit among relatives in Ohio, last week.

J. M. Lounsberry had the misfortune to let a heavy piece of timber fall upon his foot last week, which laid him up for a couple of days.

Politics got heated up among the small boys of St. Joe last week. The little republican boys went to the woods and brought in a pole about 65 feet long, and after a good deal of whooping and hurrahing, and a couple of dog fights, they stood it on end, and swung to the breeze a flag upon which was inscribed the name of the man who they expected to honor with their votes. No sooner had the last shovelful of dirt been deposited around the roots of this republican sapling, until the young democracy began to flop their wings, and they flew to the woods, and of course the lit upon a hickory tree. They cut it down, hauled it into town, and with boyish enthusiasm they histed a pole which would have been a credit to older heads. No name was inscribed upon their streamer, but the pole, as well as the racket they made plainly indicated who the man was that should receive their support at the coming election. The republican youngsters claim to have the highest pole, while the democrat boys think they have the straightest.

Wash Woodcox and Curt Washler were up to hear Hendricks speak at Pleasant Lake last Tuesday.

It wasn't two seconds hardly after the earthquake had occurred last week, before the street was lined with people and you could hear them asking one another. "Say, did it shake your house?"

Wm. Leighty was sitting upon a hitching post in front of the store the other day, and as he sat he thought, and as he thought he looked, and as he looked he beheld laying in front of him a squash seed, and remembering something about an acorn and an oak tree that he used to read about in a spelling book when he was a small boy, he said, "Large water melons from little squash seed grow." Just imagine, if you please a large Georgia water melon growing on an Iniana squash vine. Whew!

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Widney gave a party at their residenct in St. Joe, on last Friday afternoon, in honor of the birthday anniversary of their little granddaughter, Cora Sechler. Quite a number of her little friends had been invited among whom were the following: Mattie Tustison, Cora Widney, Bessie Patterson, Retta and Katie Bishop, Lina Sheffer, Mae Leighty, Nena Leighty, Anna Sechler, Elnora Sechler, Francis Sechler and Jennie Baltz. The little folks played and talked and enjoyed themselves as children only can. Bye-and-bye Mrs. Widney called and said "Supper is ready" and then their little eyes began to sparkle and as they marched in and took their seats around that table loaded down with good things, their bright, happy, smiling faces told but too plainly that their happiness was complete. May little Cora as well as all the other little girls who were present live to see many happy returns of the day.

Hip! Hip! Hurrah!

The social held at the residence of Mr. Evans on Thursday evening of last week, for the benefit of Rev. Frank Hussey was largely attended; in fact, there wasn't room for any more. The evening was spent in social and friendly coversation after which lunch was served. It was a pleasant occasion.

On last Sabbath evening Rev. Frank Hussey preached his last sermon here before going to conference, and as he does not expect to be returned to this charge, it will in all probability be the last time he will preache here, for years at least. Rev. Hussey has many warm friends here who are sorry to see him leave.

We hed a ralley ovar at Goosetown the other nite. I wus the orater. I spoak fur three long ours, an in awl that vast multitood ov peple who had assembled tu here me discuss the grate politikal questshuns ov the day, ther wasn't a tear shed nor a nose wiped. We hed a grand tyme. I arrived home about midnite an bein considerabel exhausted I went immedieightly tu bed an fel asleap. While I sleap I drempt that I hed bin elected Vise Presidant ov the Unitead Staights, an just az I wus about tu take mi seat, I wus awakened by a band ov musick serunading me, as it were. I listened an then I listened agin; thos stranes were melodius tu mi ear. I arose, lit a lite, and went tu the windo, an ther settin on a bric wall not ten feet awa wus too cats, with ther backs up an ther mouths open singing awa fur deer life: they'ed screeched an hollered an whooped an yelled an clawed, until finaly ther concert wus ended an tha put up ther instruments an moved on tu the next showing place. I onlit the lite and went tu bed.

Musickally Yours,
Barcus O. Hippenhammer.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Since 1926 your electric company has made 3 substantial rate reductions to its residential customers representing a saving to them in the interval of more than $920,000.

The result is that the average domestic customer on our lines receives 38% more electricity today for each penny he pays than he received in 1926.

Nowadays an electric service bill is not just a lighting bill. Usually, it includes in addition to lighting and small appliances such conveniences as an electric iron, a vacuum cleaner, a washing machine and radio entertainment. And for all this, the average customer pays only 8.4 cents a day. Consider how much you receive for this small daily charge. Compare it with anything else you buy, and you will realize that electricity is cheap in this community.

H. R. Evans
Vice President & General Manager

THE PURCHASING POWER OF PENNIES

MAL WOODCOX WRITES OF HIS TRIP WEST

Fort George Wright, Wash.
May 16, 1934.

Fred B Leighty, Editor,
St. Joe News, St. Joe, Ind.
Dear Fred:

Just received your package of three copies of The News, and sure was glad to see the old home town paper again. You see we don't get any news out here yet as the company newspaper subscriptions have expired and as yet have not been renewed. Thanks again for the papers and here's a little about our camp and trip out here you might use in The News.

After leaving Fort Knox, Ky., we traveled north thru Indiana to Chicago then to Omaha, Nebraska, to Sheridan, Wyoming, near here we saw the scene of the famous battle called Custer's Last Stand.

We continued on thru Billings, Montana to Great Falls, Montana, about six hours later we entered Glacier National Park in the heart of the Rocky Mountains. Here we threw snowballs, while others were gathering a few wild flowers for souvenirs. We continued on thru the Rockies till evening, after which we retired for the nite and awoke next morning (Saturday, May 6) in Spokane, Washington. Our camp is only four miles west out of Spokane.

Our camp, altho only temporary, seems to suit everyone. We are situated in a valley, surrounded by mountains on three sides and a very beautiful mountain river running right next to the camp. We are quartered in tents (6 men to a tent) and have about 191 men in our company.

We moved last Friday to a permanent camp in Idaho, in the heart of the Rockies and 60 miles from the nearest town. We will really be out in the wild country there.

As to myself, I've landed a job as bookkeeper and operator of the company store now and am in line for the supply sargeant job. This carries with it a rating as a leader, altho your work is in the camp.

Well, I guess I've taken enough of your time for now so I'll bring this epistle to a close. Here's my new address that we will be camped at after Friday in case anyone cares to write. I'll try to answer any one who will write.

C. C. C. Camp F-155
Company 562
Nowhere Creek,
Coeur D' Alene, Idaho.

Rather a long address but I guess they have them that way out here in the wild, wooly west.

Yours sincerely,
Mal Woodcox.

SPENCERVILLE BANK FUNDS ARE NOW RELEASED

The Farmers and Merchants bank officially opened under Class A last week. Under the new banking laws it is believed a greater trust will be put in bank deposits. The officials have had a long, hard struggle to meet all the banking requirements, but now everyone feels good to think they can operate again in full force and that the funds are not restricted. Of course, there will be changes made in the bank policies to conform with the regulations but security and confidence are the two main aspects considered by the public. All funds will be guaranteed by Federal Deposit Insurance.

HEALTH CONFERENCE

On Thursday afternoon, June 7, a Pre-School Health Conference will be held in the Lutheran Church at St. Joe, from 1 to 4 (C. D. S. T.) Dr. Bonnell Souder, of Auburn, will be the attending physician, accompanied by two nurses. It is hoped that parents who have children entering school this year, will bring them to this conference. Mothers, this is an opportunity you should not miss.

Mrs. Pluma Hamilton is local chairman, assisted by Josephine Kees and Catharine Bowser for St. Joe; Gertrude Borthwick, rural west; Louise Sechler, north; Margaret Hamilton, east.

APPOINTMENT ASSURED

Cong. James I. Farley, has designated Edward Storer, acting postmaster at St. Joe, for appointment as permanent postmaster.

MEMORIAL DAY FOR 1934

On Wednesday, May 30, our nation will again assemble to honor its heroic dead. A thousand battles on land and sea echo the glory of their valiant deeds. Under the quiet sod, or beneath the murmuring waves, their bodies sleep in peace. But in the destinies of men, their souls go marching on. Because of them our lives are free. Because of them our nation lives. Because of them the whole world is blest.

When we recall the things they did, the hero hosts seem mighty in our midst. When peril threatened and their country called, with what divine self-sacrifice they left their paths of peace to spring to arms, to make their breasts a barricade against the nation's foes. No sorrow for the loved ones left behind could dim the purpose in their souls. No weariness of march and watch could keep them from their heart's desire. No horror of the field or trench, of gas or bomb, could beat their courage down.

They fought for us, for us they fell. Now with one accord, in deepest reverence, we do them honor.

People from all parts of DeKalb county will be here for this Memorial Day service, and let everyone take pride in seeing that flags are floating about their yards and business places and that a genuine cleaning-up be made in order to lend digity to the day.

We again reproduce the program for Wednesday as follows:

Central Standard Time

8:30 A. M. Leave St. Joe to decorate soldiers' graves in Bear Creek, Morr, and Jenkins Cemeteries.
1:00 Concert by St. Joe Band on Main Street.
1:30 Program at High School Gymnasium.
Music ..... Band
America ..... Audience
Invocation
Music ..... Band
Gettysburg Address....Burl Rude
Special Number .....
.....Frances Reidenbach
Play—"The Boy in Blue"

CAST

David Page (The Boy in Blue)
..... Earl William Kinsey
Carol South ..... Virginia Shull
Colonel South ..Derwood Ridgway
Paul Lee ..... Harvey Hull
Isabel Trent ..... Louise Sechler
Jeanne Faire .....Jean Goodwin
Mammy ..... Troas Carpenter
Music ..... Band
Pledge to Flag 5th and 6th grades.
Reading of roster of dead.
Announcements
Star Spangled Banner...Audience
Benediction
Parade to Cemetery.
Decoration of Graves.
Services at Monument.
Dismissal.

President Ralph Sechler.
Sec.-Treas., Harvey Hull.
Marshall, John Crothers.
Custodian, Roy Reidenbach.
Sergeant-at-Arms, Leon Kees.
Chaplain, Abner Trostel.

SHRINERS ENTERTAIN CHILDREN AT FORT WAYNE

Two years ago, Mrs. Gertrude Borthwick, under the auspices of the Concord Township Home Bureau, took Robert Loucks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Loucks to the Shriners Hospital for crippled children in Chicago, where he remained for eight months, undergoing operations for the correction of club feet.

Last Friday a public program was given at the Mizpah Temple, Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, to which all crippled children who have been cured at the Shrine Hospital were invited, there being approximately thirty from Fort Wayne and vicinity.

Dr. B. H. Moore, surgeon-in-chief of the Shriners' Hospital in Chicago, was present and gave all the crippled children a "check-up" and examination, among them being Robert Loucks, of St. Joe, Mrs. Borthwick taking Mrs. Loucks and Robert to Fort Wayne for the program. A banquet was served to about fifteen hundred Shriners, crippled children and guests in Valencia Gardens, after which all went to the Shrine Auditorium for a program.

One feature of the program being a talk by Dr. B. H. Moore during which he introduced each crippled child, told in what way they had been crippled and had them walk across the stage and back to demonstrate their cure. Later, moving pictures were shown of the children as they had entered the hospital, and then after they had been cured. Robert's picture was shown as he entered the hospital in February, 1932, standing on the ankles of his club feet, then a picture was shown taken in May, 1933, with the club feet entirely corrected.

Perhaps few people realize until they have visited a hospital for crippled children, or have seen a demonstration such as was put on by the Shriners last Friday, just what a wonderful work is being done by the Shriners in restoring crippled children. Perhaps few in this community realize just what it means to one little child that has been freed from a handicap, which would perhaps have spoiled his whole life. And the people of this community should rejoice with the ladies of the Home Bureau who were instrumental in placing one little child on an equality with other children.

ITEMS ABOUT ST. JOE

G. F. Gauntt left Saturday for Boston, to be a guest of his daughter and family for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hartsough, of Goshen, Indiana, were Sunday guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Viena Rude and two children.

Material is being unloaded here by the state highway department for repairing of the berm through St. Joe on Road One.

Chas. Tustison is very low at the home of his son, Earl, at Hicksville. Will Hamilton and family were Saturday evening guests in the Tustison home.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Sheffer and son, will leave today (Thursday) for a trip south. They do not know how long they will be gone or just where they will go. We wish them a pleasant trip.

The Memorial Association want to thank all who contributed in any way to the success of the ice cream social Saturday night. The boys are very much pleased over the success of the social having cleared nearly twenty-five dollars.

A card received by Mrs. Lela Northrup Tuesday from Mrs. Mabelle Thornton, who is at Washington, D. C., states that she has received temporary appointment in the bureau of agricultural statistics, and that she began her work Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hull and son and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter, called on the Alvin Walker family of near Coletown Sunday afternoon. They found Mrs. Walker, who has been suffering for the past three months of inflammatory rheumatism, much improved and able to be out and around.

Transfer of real estate in St. Joe of late are as follows: Auburn State bank to Ima E. Epler, pt. sec. 15, $1; Auburn Building & Loan Association to Edgar and Blanch Leighty, .16 acre sec. 15, $1; Mary Kinsey to Allen M. Baughman, lot 4 and s. ½ lot 3, Curie add., $450; C. and Grace Sheffer to Effie Wineland, .15 acre and 3.50 acres sec. 15, $575.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orange Herrick were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Frank and son, Bobby, of Reading, Michigan; supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick, son, Lawrence and boy friend, Donald Steele, of Fort Wayne, and in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Loren Spake and baby daughter, Patricia Ann and sister, Miss Norma Spake of Auburn, were callers.

VEGET'BLE PLANTS

the largest and finest varieties in the COUNTY, AT

TEN EYKE'S Greenhouse

AUBURN, INDIANA

MAY

L 919

U 294

LIFE AND DEATH

By THAYER WALDO

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service.

THERE were three in the little office.

Its overhead fixture cast a flat white glare down upon them, sharply illumining faces that were sober and tense.

Garrison sat before the desk, a telephone receiver to his ear, waiting without speech.

Fiberg hovered close by, watching his face, similarly silent.

By the window stood Vilma, statesque, black-pompadoured, an evening wrap caught loosely about one shoulder. She stared through the smutted panes at a blank wall twenty feet beyond, eyes wide, unwinking.

The voice of the man at the instrument suddenly sounded:

"Hello—what? . . . No! Damn it, I don't want Berlin! This is Zenith Pictures, Hollywood, and we're trying to put through a call to Hotel Graz in Vienna, for— . . . what? . . . Oh! How soon? . . . H—l! Well, keep the line open and call me the moment there's a chance."

He cracked the earpiece home.

Fiberg leaned forward to ask thinly:

"So what?"

"No good—couldn't make connection," the publicity man said.

It was little above a murmur.

"Service all tied up. Can't tell when we'll get a clear wire. She wanted to give me Berlin, but that's no use. Couldn't get any information there."

* * *

A pause; his gaze went to the immobile figure across the room.

At last he queried:

"Vilma's positive he's in Vienna?"

"Sure," the producer muttered; "that's how we know where he'd be staying. She got from him a cable yesterday just before he's taking the train in Berlin."

Garrison mumbled something darkly unintelligible and slumped back in the chair.

After an instant he pulled out cigarettes, plucked one, and passed Fiberg the pack.

When both had lights, the publicity man growled:

"Damn strange quirk of fate, or something—Erich getting there just the day this revolution busts loose."

Fiberg's head bobbed in glum assent.

"Yes, and him an Austrian, too. Vilma thinks he's sure to be getting mixed up in it. Such a business! The best director we got—best in the business—phenagling around in civil wars and maybe getting all shot up. Oy!"

* * *

Garrison rose abruptly and commenced to stride the floor.

"God Almighty, J. L.!" he gritted. "Is that all you can think of? What about him—the man we've known and worked with? Remember, there's bullets and blood and death over in those Vienna streets, and Erich's right in the middle of it. Erich's there, the woman who loves him is here—and we're helpless. Doesn't that mean anything to you?"

Savagely the producer ground his cigarette under a heel and blurted:

"Why don't you shut up! When I'm trying to forget things like that, you have to be throwing them in my face!"

The other man swung around, forcing a smile.

"I know," he said brusquely. "Sorry; it's just sort of got me. This waiting and not being able to do anything, I mean. Perhaps if Vilma weren't here, or if she'd only say something. . . ."

He halted, fixing an oblique, brooding look upon the woman.

Her posture was unchanged, save for a closer wind of the cloak about her shapely figure.

Garrison swore—a soft, guttural sound—and flicked his fag-end against the wall.

Before him, spread out on the desktop, lay a paper. From the buff rectangle a huge scare-head screamed:

VIENNA RIOTING GROWS
TOURISTS IN JEOPARDY

* * *

For a long moment he stood glowering down at it, scanning once again the columns of print below.

Suddenly he spoke, and for the first time his voice was raised, harsh with baffled anger.

"Listen! We gotta do something—anything! I'll go nuts just standing around here, reading stuff like that and thinking about him! Lord, if he'd only stayed in Berlin one more day!"

Fiberg waved a meaty hand protestingly.

"Hey, wait a minute! Remember, we ain't absolutely sure yet, but maybe he did!"

The publicity man snapped his fingers, crying:

"You're right—of course we aren't! Perhaps he's okay after all. Might have missed the train or something, and—"

"No!" With startling sharpness her voice rang out, and the two men swung around simultaneously.

She had turned a little and was facing them, her expression fixedly somber.

"That is futile talk," she said. "You are simply trying to create illusions."

Starting toward her, Garrison urged:

"Now, don't look at it that way, Vilma. You know we really haven't—"

Above his words sounded the phone bell's clamor.

Whirling, he dashed for the instrument, snatched it up.

No other slightest sound was in that room as he feverishly barked:

"Yes—hello! Operator? . . . What's that? . . . Clear wire? Yes—my God, yes! Let me have them, quick! . . . Hello, hello; Vienna—Hotel Graz? . . . You speak English? . . . Good! This is Hollywood, California, calling. Are you open and doing business? . . . Well, is a Mr. Erich Trautmann registered there? . . . T-R-A-U-T-M-A-N-N—Erich Franz Trautmann, the director. . . All right—but please hurry!"

* * *

Then a wordless, waiting moment.

Vilma had slowly crossed the room and stood now just before the desk; restlessly, her eyes wandered over the news sheet. . . .

The publicity man was speaking again:

"Yes! . . . Not there? . . . And hasn't been at all? You're absolutely certain about this? . . . Wonderful! Thanks—thanks a million!"

The receiver clattered from his nerveless fingers as Garrison leapt up, shouting:

"He's safe—he must be! He didn't go! Now we can—"

With a low moan of anguish, Vilma closed her eyes, swayed a little, and sank down upon the floor.

Stunned, the men stood rooted for a split second, then sprang forward together.

Fiberg went down on one knee by the still form, half-raised her in his arms.

"What's the matter? What's happening here?" he babbled querulously.

"Why should she be passing out just when everything's okay?"

Garrison, erect, gazed down at the pale and tragic mask framed by jet hair. At last he turned away, seeking uncertainly for something. He saw only a tan paper, black with type. . . .

Vigorously the producer was massaging Vilma's temples. She stirred.

"Ah—she's coming out of it now!" he exclaimed. "Still I can't figure what—"

"Good God!" Garrison's voice was low, surcharged.

The man behind him looked up swiftly.

For an instant there was nothing further. Then slowly the publicity man pivoted.

In one hand was the paper; a finger of the other pointed to a heading in the middle columns.

Puzzledly, Fiberg bent nearer, squinted for focus, and made out:

GERMAN TRAFFIC
VICTIM IDENTIFIED
Man Killed by Taxi
Before Berlin Depot
Is Hollywood Director

Rare Sheep Specimens for the Smithsonian

Eight specimens of the "blue sheep," one of the rarest of the larger mammals in zoological collections, have been obtained for the Smithsonian institution at Washington in the high mountains of Szechwan province, of western China, by Rev. D. C. Graham, a collaborator of the institution, it was announced a short time ago, notes a writer in the New York Herald Tribune.

This creature, otherwise known as the Bharal and to zoologists as pseudois nayaur, is a crag-dwelling animal found at elevations up to 10,000 feet in altitude or more. It is little known to the outside world.

It has a distinctive place among mammals because of various anatomical characters which place it on the dividing line between sheep and goats. It is neither one nor the other, but is somewhat closer to the former. It is blue-gray in color, with white markings on the back and a white stomach. The rams have olive-brown horns that curve barkward. The collection sent to Washington contained other rare specimens; among them a giant panda, another creature seldom represented in zoological collections. There were also such rare creatures as the serow, or black goat; the goral, or Chinese mountain goat; the tufted deer, the raccoon dog, the hog badger, the mountain red wolf, and a species of musk deer with saber-like teeth.

The Smithsonian institution revealed there is no reason to believe that all of these animals are especially scarce, but they are found in a region that is seldom visited by American or European collectors because of the difficulty of access.

Fur Seal of North Pacific

The fur seal of the North Pacific is an unusual creature, classified as a mammal adapted to aquatic life. Few people have ever seen a genuine fur seal, for the animals frequent inaccessible spots. Not only is the common hair seal so different from the fur seal as to indicate a separate ancestral origin, but it also carries a worthless pelt. The fur seal was formerly native to many sections of the world, but it is now confined to the colder regions of the North Pacific.

Grow in the Mountains

The mountain forget-me-not is a mat plant with flowers of the purest blue, exquisitely fragrant, against a background of gray foliage, says Nature Magazine. The mountain pink grows as a dense cushion with numerous deep pink flowers. The alpine gentian, Gentiana romanzovii, has white, funnel-shaped flowers, streaked with blue and spattered with purplish dots. The flowers are stemless, about two inches long, standing erect amid thick grasslike leaves.

Interesting Point in Ascertaining Real Age

Dr. Serge Voronoff, the eminent gland specialist, is credited with the belief that he has perfected a method of physical examination which will establish one's exact age. Apparently it is not the method used with a tree, of sawing through the trunk and counting the rings, for Zaro Agha, the ancient Turk, has consented to undergo it, or so the United Press has reported from Istanbul.

It will be interesting to learn the result of the examination. Zaro Agha, it may be remembered, came to this country four years ago as a subsidized exhibit of what total abstinence did for a person.

A different recipe for longevity was that of Mrs. Belle Rhynes, of Savannah, Ga., who died a short time ago at the reputed age of one hundred and twenty-three years. She attributed her survival to the fact that she had smoked a pipe since she was eleven years old. Somewhat along the same line was the testimony of Peter Pollen, of Trinidad, who celebrated his one hundredth birthday by diving into a rushing stream and swimming thirty-five yards under water. In the tropics, he advised, drink rum and smoke a pipe.

If only Doctor Voronoff's test might determine scientifically not only how old such human antiquities were, but why, it would spare us many a controversy.—Literary Digest.

Some Men!

A man recently sought divorce because his wife refused to talk to him. Some men haven't enough sense to leave well enough alone.—Washington Star.

Face "Broken Out?"
First wash with pure Resinol Soap. Then relieve and improve sore pimply spots with soothing
Resinol

MATHEMATICAL WONDER

A doctor at an asylum at Nantes, France, discovered among his patients a "lightning calculator," who, although he could scarcely read and could not write, solved mental arithmetic problems involving large numbers. Asked, "How many seconds there are in thirty-nine years, three months and twelve hours?" he gave the correct answer in thirty-two seconds. Explaining how he calculated the number of seconds in thirty years, he said: "I know by heart that there are 31,536,000 seconds in a year. I multiply 30,000,000 by 30, which gives me 900,000,000. Then I multiply 1,500,000 by 30, and get 45,000,000; 30,000 by 30, which gives 900,000, and 6,000 by 30, giving 180,000. I add all these products and get 946,080,000 seconds in thirty years." This answer was give in fourteen seconds.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Radios on Snowplows

To facilitate communication with stations and trains on the government railways, radio receiving sets were installed on snowplows at work in various parts of Japan during heavy snowfalls. They were found highly efficient in assisting traffic.

KILLS ANTS
Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.
PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

TURKEY'S "MODERN" TURN

Modernization of Turkey under the regime of Kemal Pasha is not an unmixed blessing so far as the situation of Turkish husbands is concerned, judging from a report from Ankara found in a Vienna paper. According to prison statistics quoted in the message from the Turkish capital, more than 50 per cent of about 700 women in the jails of the republic are there for having murdered their one-time matrimonial partners. Just why the "emancipated" wives should make such grewsome use of their newfound freedom is not explained in the report.

He Might, but—

Einstein celebrated his fifty-fifth birthday by filling out his first American income tax return. That would be a great mathematician's idea of making whoopee.—The New Yorker.

This Girl Knows..
YOU CAN DEPEND ON NR, IT'S ALL-VEGETABLE ..SAFE!
Bright Eyes... No Bad Skin
She learned long ago how often dull eyes, pimply skin, nervousness and lack of pep come from bowel sluggishness and constipation. Now NR (Nature's Remedy) is her secret of sparkling loveliness and vital health. No more ineffective partial relief for her—all-vegetable NR Tablets give thorough cleansing, gently stimulating the entire bowel. Millions take NR for thorough, effective relief from constipation and biliousness. Get a 25c box. All druggists'. Pleasant—safe—and not habit-forming.
NR TO-NIGHT TOMORROW MORNING
"TUMS" Quick relief for acid indigestion, heartburn. Only 10c.

CUT ME OUT
and mail me, with 10c coin or stamps and your name and address to LORD & AMES, Inc., 360 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, I will bring you a generous sample of Loray Face Powder and Loratone, the marvelous all-purpose beauty cream. Also details how to make $5.00 to $20.00 a week extra in your spare time.

MONARCH'S TREASURES

The treasures of King George V would, if sold, make him a very rich man. The state dinner service, wrought from purest gold, is valued at over $4,500,000.

SAVES MORE TIME and WORK than a $100.00 WASHING MACHINE
Coleman Self-Heating Iron
No Heating with Matches or Torch... No Waiting... Lights Instantly, Like Gas
REDUCE your ironing time one-third... your labor one-half! The Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100 washing machine! Iron any place where you can be comfortable. No endless trips carrying iron from stove to board. Operating cost only ½¢ an hour. Helps you do better ironing, easier, quicker.
See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.
THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE COMPANY Dept. WUN6, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; or Toronto, Ontario, Canada. (205)

KILL ALL FLIES
Placed anywhere, Daisy Fly Killer attracts and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective, neat, convenient—Cannot spill—Will not soil or injure anything. Lasts all season. 20c at all dealers. Harold Somers, Inc., 150 De Kalb Ave., B'klyn, N.Y.
DAISY FLY KILLER

OLD AGE PENSION INFORMATION
Send stamp.
JUDGE LEHMAN - - Humboldt, Kan.

DETECTING TRICKS OF CROOKED CLERKS. How they outwit employers and public and beat cash registers, sales slips and checking systems. How to catch them. Copyright. In plain sealed cover $1.00 postpaid. FARMERS ACCOUNTING SERVICE, Box 486, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

For Sale—Illini Soybeans $1.25 bu. Used No. 8 combine McCormick-Deering. METAMORA IMPLEMENT, Metamora, Ill.

SORES AND LUMPS - My Specialty Write for Free 140 Page Book Dr. Boyd Williams, Hamilton, Miss.

Firestone
LEADERSHIP
"The Ultimate Test of Leadership is Performance"

FIRESTONE maintains its leadership in tire development by producing a new tire for 1934 with a wider tread, flatter contour, deeper non-skid, greater thickness, and more and tougher rubber, which gives greater non-skid safety, more traction, greater blowout protection, and more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

These achievements are made practical by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping, providing greater adhesion between the plies of the high stretch cords and between the Gum-Dipped body of the tire and the tough, massive non-skid tread. It also provides greater strength, longer flexing life, and greater protection against blowouts.

Gum-Dipping made it possible for Firestone to design, develop and put on the market the first successful balloon tire in 1923. This tire was the pattern used by all others and completely revolutionized the tire industry and set new standards for the automobile industry.

For fourteen years leading race drivers have driven to victory on Firestone tires, built with Gum-Dipped high stretch cords. They have trusted their lives to Firestone Leadership—as they know that the patented Firestone construction features provide them with greater safety—longer mileage—and greater blowout protection.

Have your Firestone Dealer or Service Store replace your smooth dangerous tires with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934.

Listen to Lawrence Tibbett or Richard Crooks and Harvey Firestone, Jr., every Monday night—N. B. C. Network

Performance RECORDS
FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRES

—for fourteen consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the 500-mile Indianapolis Race.
THIS MEANS BLOWOUT PROTECTION

—for seven consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the daring Pikes Peak climb where a slip meant death.
THIS MEANS NON-SKID SAFETY AND TRACTION

—for three consecutive years have been on the 131 buses of the Washington (D. C.) Railway and Electric Company covering 11,357,810 bus miles without one minute's delay due to tire trouble.
THIS MEANS DEPENDABILITY AND ECONOMY

—were on the Neiman Motors' Ford V-8 Truck that made a new coast to coast record of 67 hours, 45 minutes, 30 seconds actual running time.
THIS MEANS ENDURANCE

Firestone
HIGH SPEED TYPE

SIZE	PRICE
4.50-20	$ 7.85
4.50-21	8.15
4.75-19	8.65
5.25-18	10.30
5.50-17	11.30
5.50-19 H.D.	14.45
6.00-17 H.D.	15.10
6.00-18 H.D.	15.55
6.00-20 H.D.	16.40
6.50-17 H.D.	17.50

Other Sizes Proportionately Low

MORE THAN 50% MORE NON-SKID MILEAGE
THE NEW Firestone AIR BALLOON FOR 1934

The new Firestone Air Balloon for 1934 embodies all the improvements in the new Firestone High Speed Tire. The lower air pressure provides maximum traction and riding comfort. Gum-Dipping safety-locks the cords, providing 30 to 40% greater deflection and blowout protection.

Get 1935 low swung style by equipping your car today with these new tires and wheels in colors to match your car. See your local Firestone Dealer or Service Store for a FREE DEMONSTRATION.

Firestone Tires are Track Tested on the greatest proving ground in the world—The Indianapolis Speedway.

Firestone Tires are ROAD TESTED on the large fleet of Firestone test cars, day and night every day in the year, over all kinds of roads and highways.

See these new Firestone High Speed Tires made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building at "A Century of Progress"—Opening May 26

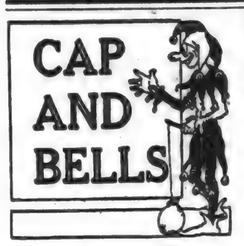
Copyright, 1934, The Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

MAY

L 919

U 295

CAP AND BELLS



SMOOTH STRATEGY

"In the course of time you must have made many enemies."

"I have made but few enemies," answered Senator Sorghum. "Occasionally, of course, I have provoked active expressions of antagonism which I was sure I could argue down. But I never deliberately make an enemy except when I feel that I need him in my business."

Broken to Harness

"Just why do you want a married man to work for you, rather than a bachelor?" asked the curious chap.

"Well," sighed the boss, "the married men don't get so upset if I yell at them."—Brooklyn Citizen.

She'd Sell Ice to Byrd

Mother—What happened when that high-pressure salesman called today?

Daughter—Oh, I sold him father's old clothes and all the discarded furniture in the attic.—Detroit Free Press.

Brought a Lot of Grief

"What invention do you figure is one we best could do without?"

"The fountain pen—without it my name never would have gotten on a lot of dotted lines."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Practice

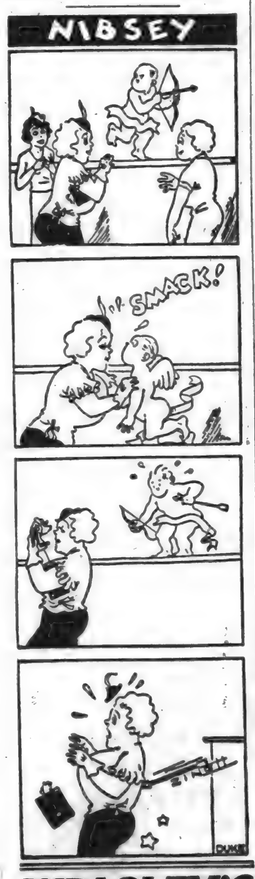
"How gracefully he seems to eat corn on the cob."

"He ought to. He's a piccolo player."

Bedtime

Neighbor—I've come to take my wife home.

Hostess—Mr. Jones, why didn't you come sooner?—Deseronto Post.



WRIGLEY'S GUM

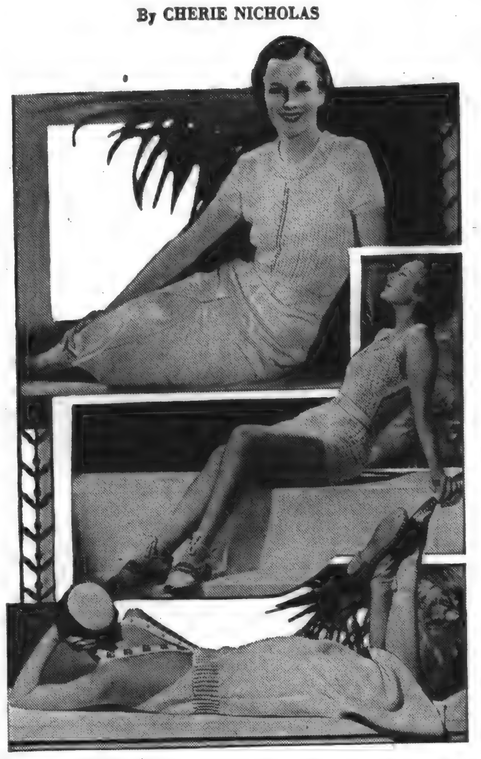
WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE PERFECT GUM

The Standard of Quality

CODE

Chic Beach Togs, Cotton Crocheted

By CHERIE NICHOLAS



EVERY style-minded woman is wearing or will be wearing before the season is over something of cotton crochet. You are supposed to have at least one crochet garment in your spring and summer wardrobe and as many more as you may be fortunate enough to acquire. The important thing to remember is that for real chic the crocheting is done with either thread or string. The vogue for cotton-crochet garments grows more insistent with the passing of each day.

If you are looking forward to sunning yourself into a perfect physical condition this summer and if you aspire to do it modishly and if you crochet, the sun-suit and the beach dress in the picture will set your fingers all of a tingle to begin with hook and cotton without a moment's delay.

As everybody knows, it is neither hygienic nor comfortable to keep on a wet and chilly bathing suit while you are sunning yourself. A smart sun-suit like the one centered in this group comes to the rescue. You can make it yourself easily. Crochet either of heavy knitting or crochet cotton thread or of the now-so-popular crochet cord, which is so beautifully soft, comfortable and washable. The smart shutter effect over the diaphragm and the clever strap arrangement of this suit are unusual notes. A pleasing variety of stitches adds to its attractiveness.

Below, in the group, is a stunning and versatile garment. It is fundamentally a dress, but it does all sorts of tricks. The entire dress is crocheted of a heavy cotton crochet cord which is cool and delightfully wearable, having the advantage of being lightweight so that it will not hang on you in a cumbersome way. The straight skirt fastens up the front with square wooden buttons, and it will come undone as far as you need it for a vicious serve or a flying leap on the beach. It is backless to the waist and has two narrow straps which button together with the same brown buttons. The straps unbutton and slip off the shoulders for a perfect sun bath. Note the cunning crochet cap which fits so snugly, keeping the hair from blowing about.

The little short-sleeved sweater with the turnover collar shown at the top of the illustration is an item you cannot well do without in your resort wardrobe. You will find that it will fit in with any number of occasions. It is charmingly made of a fine mercerized crochet cotton, and the lacy openwork stitch up the front lends an air which distinguishes it from the general run of sports sweaters.

Have you seen the voguish two-piece frocks (blouse and skirt) which up-and-doing women are crocheting of natural colored string? These string-knit dresses are a most enviable possession and as the summer advances you will be congratulating yourself on being the owner of a costume which so faithfully bespeaks a well-dressed appearance. The charm of it is that it can be kept immaculate in that it tubs perfectly. The skirt will especially prove a treasure, for it can be worn with all sorts of dainty lingerie blouses.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

BRIEF SPORT TOGS FOR REAL ACTION

The shirtwaist dress with a skirt "and an extra pair of pants" is a timely suggestion for the girl who hails any sort of excuse for shedding her skirt. Shorts are accepted by the right people even though they are so often abused by the wrong people.

It's cotton time again. Among the many kinds of cotton which are highlighted is seersucker, a type which makes its entrance in something miraculously like a disguise.

There seems to be a brisk demand for plain cottons, either white or pastel, by way of change. The rank and file of shirtwaist dresses are made of striped shirtings, cotton or silk. Many of these open center front, and fasten with pearl buttons. The shorts beneath are either separate, or are one with the shirt, in which case the skirt is separate. All of which makes things easier for the laundress and more practical for everyone.

Gloves, Bags, Muffs Take on Increased Proportions

The bags, gloves and muffs which give a fashionable finish to new costumes have taken on increased proportions to fit the long, sweeping silhouette.

Bags are huge. Schiaparelli makes one of mahogany brown calfskin which is almost as large as a small overnight bag.

The new "pillow" muffs cover the entire front of the figure. Exactly the shape of an oblong pillow, made of such furs as beaver and astrakhan, they recall the muffs carried by the beauties of the nineteen hundreds.

The newest and smartest gloves are of fur (breitchwantz or caracul) and come half way up the lower arm. Others are made of the same wool as the ensemble and cuffed in fur to match its trim.

In such bulky stuffs as these they are naturally larger than last year's gloves.

NEWEST EARRINGS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Listen to this, for it's news, real news with a thrill—earrings that outline the lobe of the ear! See them pictured here. At the top a clip earring in the form of a handsome large gold leaf almost covers the ear lobe. This is a most popular type for daytime wear. The conch shell inspired the design for the becoming rhinestone clip earrings that outline the ear lobe of the patrician young woman posing below in the picture.

Tiny Monsters Worn

Ornaments in the shape of monsters are latest London vogue.

OLD CHRISTMAS STILL KEPT UP

Had Origin in First English Colony in New World.

Each year we read with sentimental interest descriptions of the celebration of "Old Christmas" by fisherfolk and other residents of the ancient village of Rodanthe, on the long and narrow outer barrier islands that impound Pamlico sound off North Carolina. Sometimes we read that the celebration is held on January 5 and sometimes that it is held on January 6, the difference being that Twelfth Night, or Old Christmas Eve, may have greater emphasis in celebration than Twelfth Tide on Twelfth Day (Old Christmas Day) as the villagers continue a celebration that extends back to their forefathers and even the time of Sir Walter Raleigh and establishment of the first English colony in the New world.

However, if we search the back districts of the Missouri Ozarks, it is quite likely that we could find this belated celebration of Christmas much closer to our own modern homes, as well as hear the belief expressed that on Twelfth Night cattle of the fields kneel in greeting to the new-born Christ. This tradition and refusal to accept the calendar corrections of Pope Gregory were brought to this country by early settlers from Britain and persisted for many generations not only in the barrier islands that protect North Carolina from the raging sea, but in the mountains along the eastern seaboard, spreading even to the Ozarks of Missouri and Arkansas as the mountaineers sought new homes.

It is fitting, however, that the tradition had its spread only by family and that the outstanding community expressions remains near the place it was introduced to America, in Dare county, North Carolina, where the first white child to be born in America came into being. This child was Virginia Dare, granddaughter of John White, a leader, whose small Roanoke island colony disappeared without trace while White was on a journey home for supplies.

Rodanthe is only about a score of miles from Roanoke island and a part of the same chain of banks, with Kitty Hawk, where the first successful airplane flight was made, only a few miles away on the same chain. So what better place could be found for the support of tradition, even though there be some uncertainty whether it is in observance of Old Christmas Eve or Old Christmas Day that fishing nets are laid aside?—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

"Grandfather" of Radio

Thomas Edison, who has been called the father of electric light and the phonograph, may likewise be considered the father—or at least the grandfather—of modern radio, since in 1883 he made the progenitor of our modern radio tubes, and took out a patent that Marconi later purchased.

This was revealed at the national electrical exposition in New York, when members of the New York Electrical society used one of Edison's early lamps as detector tube in a radio set, and successfully received a regular broadcast program with it. The great inventor was aware of the electrical action of the tube.—Literary Digest.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Penalty of Greatness

It would be impossible to find a single great man in the world today who has not had some mud thrown at him.—Maxim Gorky.

"spring fever" time is here

...and what does it mean to you?

JUST THIS: if you feel listless, run-down, appetite dull, with a weak, let-down feeling ...perhaps nervous and worn out...why not make an effort to "snap out" of this condition?

Try toning up your appetite...increasing your red-blood-cells...the best way to be happy.

You need a tonic—not just a so-called tonic... but a tonic that will tone up your blood. S.S.S. is specially designed to do this for you. Unless your case is exceptional you should improve as your oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin increases.

At all drug stores in two convenient sizes. The larger size is more economical. © The S.S.S. Co.

In the Spring—take S.S.S.

DELICATELY FRAGRANT Toilet And Nursery

Cutleura Talcum, pure and medicated with balsamic essential oils, is indispensable to the comfort of every member of the family. Get the beneficial results of these essences by dusting on Cutleura Talcum—see how cool and refreshed your skin is, free from any chafing or irritation. Truly beneficial to the skin and especially recommended for babies.

Price 25c

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., Malden, Mass.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES fails to outwit Cupid

WHILE lots of people can safely drink coffee, there are a great many others who cannot. Perhaps—without realizing it—you are one of these.

The caffein in coffee may be robbing you of sleep, or upsetting your digestion, or undermining your nervous system.

If you have any reason to suspect that coffee is disagreeing with you . . . why don't you switch to Postum for 30 days? You'll find it a delicious drink . . . and it may be a real help. There is nothing in Postum that can possibly harm you. It is economical and easy to prepare. A product of General Foods.

FREE: Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE. Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. U.S.A.

Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address.

Offer expires December 31, 1934

MAY

L 919

U 296

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

For Breeding purposes, a fine Guernsey Bull. Clint Lucas, St. Joe. 20t2p.

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 21t5

For Sale: Some nice Beef Steak Tomato plants. Howard Shilling. 21t2.

For Sale: Good seed and eating potatoes. George Walter. 21t1p

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

ESTATES APPRAISED BY THE COUNTY ASSESSOR, CHAS. E. MISER

William E. Randall Estate, Sarah Jane Randall, Administratrix: personal property, $2,253.75; real estate, $1,400.00; total estate $3,653.75.

Malinda Myers Estate, Thomas E. Myers, Administrator: personal property, $1,528.00; real estate, $1,800.00; total estate, $3,328.00.

Robert C. Capen Estate, Anna M. Capen, Administratrix: personal property, $1,154.00; real estate, $5,880.00; total estate, $7,034.00.

Barbara A. Potts Estate, Clinton C. Smith, Administrator: personal property, $6,800.42; real estate, $590.00; total estate, $7,390.42.

SPENCERVILLE

Fred High spent Sunday at his home here.

Mrs. Eva Garman visited Mrs. Frank Butler Thursday afternoon.

Mrs Frank Butler was returned from the clinic Wednesday in a critical condition.

Lehr Wilder was a guest in the Lutheran Sunday School Sunday, giving an association talk.

Miss Betty Garman, of near Huntertown, is spending her vacation with Helen Garman, south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Snyder and family of near Butler, have moved into the McKinley property on Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Smith have moved from the Betz property here in town to live with William Smith south of town.

The C. C. Club will meet with Pauline Baumgartner on Thursday afternoon. The program will observe Memorial Day.

Mrs. Paul Clark and son, Ronald, and Mr. and Mrs. George Doll and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Doll.

Miss Wilda McNabb and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswald, of Fort Wayne, were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb.

Mrs. Pearl Kortwright, Mr. and Mrs. John Correll and Mrs. Clara McClain, of Columbia City, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Zetta Wertman.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean and daughter, Joyce, spent Sunday in the Eck Hursh home. In the afternoon they attended Decoration Day services at Leo.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stafford and family, of near Hicksville, and Mrs. Marjorie Rezor and son, Forest, were Sunday afternoon guests at the Phillip Chaney home.

The Young Ladies Social Club held a Mystery Party Friday evening. Following various notes found in mysterious places the band of funny-paper characters finally ended up in Hart's Nursery where they were given on initiation of the third degree before they were given seats. Prizes at the games were won by Berneice Wilder, Gaylon Markle, Troas Carpenter, Kathryn Dean and Esther Lake. The "Mystery" is still unsolved as to whe held up the party near the river bridge. However, the flash lights were found on the porch of one Maggie Sunday morning. Will the girls who had them taken please call and get them.

ICE
Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES
HURNI STORE

The B. F. Markle family were Fort Wayne callers Friday.

Mrs. Arlene Rhodes has not been so well the past few weeks.

Miss Mary Wade spent part of last week at the Frank Butler home.

A number from here attended the Decoration Day services at Leo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McNabb visited in the Joe Spitler home Friday afternoon.

Miss Platter, of Newville, is spending a few days at the Wm. Reed home.

Mr. John Doll, west of town, had his hand quite seriously injured in a buzz-saw last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Walter and children spent several days last week at Indianapolis.

Miss Dorothy Burns spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Elsie Allen, and family.

Born to Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Fabianske, a son, John Paul, last Friday morning at Hicksville.

Mrs. Bernice Baker was resting more comfortable at this writing, being able to sit up a part of the time.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown and baby were Friday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman returned to her home after spending several weeks assisting in the Delbert Furnish home.

Methodist Sunday School attendance for May 27 was 77, collection, $2.74; Lutheran attendance, 73, collection, $3.51.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gloyd and children, who have spent the past year at the Emila Gloyd home moved last week to Fort Wayne.

A get-to-gether meeting of the Methodist Church was held on last Wednesday night at the parsonage. There was a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James McKinley. Mrs. McKinley is not so well since moving on their farm.

Mrs. Tressie Smith, Agnes Baker, Clara Brattain and Violet Kimes spent several days last week cleaning and papering in the Vol Hay home.

Mrs. Melvina Quance, of Auburn, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer and called on many of her old friends while here.

Mrs. Nancy Chaney's many friends will be pleased to know she was able to take a short ride Sunday afternoon, the first time away from her home for many months.

Rev. Howard Brown will preach his farewell sermon at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning, June 3. The annual conference will begin next Monday morning at Elkhart, Indiana.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown and daughter, James Reed and wife were Sunday dinner guests in the R. U. Bowser home. Supper guests were Mrs. Emila Gloyd, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitacre and daughter, of Highland, Indiana, and the Reeds.

The Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church held a called meeting on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Louie Beam. The society will hold an all day meeting next Friday with Mrs. Ralph Culbertson. There will be an election of officers. Pot luck dinner, and the ladies will sew. The Ladies Aid will also meet with Mrs. Culbertson on Wednesday afternoon, June the sixth.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Beams entertained at dinner Sunday Mrs. Melvina Quance, of Auburn, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer. Miss Doris Beams is home on her vacation and assisting at the office as one of the "hello" girls in Miss Virginia Goldsmith's absence. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henderson, of Grant, Michigan, and Mr and Mrs. Arney, of Three Rivers, Michigan, were afternoon guests in the same home.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Mrs. Ruth Buss and children have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Perry.

Mrs. Wm. Lake and son, of South Bend, spent her vacation in this vicinity last week.

J. S. Shull and O. K. Shull and family spent Sunday at Columbia City with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shull.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Curie, of Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jump, daughter, June, and Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook, of Hicksville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Charles Curie and family.

Roy Shilling spent Sunday with Charles Washler.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for May 17 was 90, collection $3.75.

Earl B. Smith and family, of St. Joe called on Mattie Hart Tuesday evening.

Children's meeting next Sunday night at the Corners. Everybody welcome.

Paul Koch was employed at the J. S. Shull farm Wednesday doing carpenter work on the barn.

Miss Lotus Schoolmaster and father, of Lansing, Michigan, spent the week-end at M. C. Hart's.

Merwin Place and wife and Hattie Walker attended Decoration services at Scipio Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ida Hadsell and Charley Thayer, of Hicksville, called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart Sunday afternoon.

Clyde Hart has been entertaining ivy poisoning and Junior Hart sumac posoning. Either one can give the many new ways of cure on the subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Shull and daughter, Geraldine and Mrs. Dale Hart and daughter, Martha, spent Sunday at Garrett with their mother, Mrs. Eva Shull.

Mrs. Vina Quance, of Auburn, was a supper guest Wednesday evening of Mrs. Mattie Hart, spending the night and following day with Mrs. Fred Hart and calling on old friends.

NEWVILLE

Forest Clark was under the care of Dr. Hull last week.

Floyd Taylor and son are clamming in the Maumee river.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hull, of Garrett, were Newville visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Della Dove and brother, Bert Farner, of Butler, visited relatives here Sunday afternoon.

Harry Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fuller, of Garrett, spent Thursday afternoon at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Dean were here Sunday from Montpelier, Ohio, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clark Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler, Kenneth Gaff and Mona Traxler, spent Sunday afternoon at Bryan and Evansport, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Elda McNamara and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Wedler from Fort Wayne were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. McNamara.

Mrs. Alice Rex, Frank Rex, Mrs. Inez Hill, from Montgomery, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Welsh from Coldwater, Michigan, called on friends here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Huntington and daughter, Irma, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lublow and daughter, were here from Constantine, Michigan, visiting relatives.

FROM ABOUT ST. JOE

Lutheran Sunday School attendance 100; collection, $3.40.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter were Sunday guests of Harvey Hull and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Condrey are home from Indianapolis, where they spent the past week.

George Wilmot and family were guests of the Marvin Poper family near Coburntown, Sunday.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Quance and children, of Auburn, took Sunday diner with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull, and in the afternoon they all called at the O. E. Ginther and Harry Thomas homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Blair at Butler, Sunday afternoon, and attended the Memorial services. They report a very fine program and parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser and two sons called at the L. W. Yeiser home Sunday afternoon. Miss Rosemary accompanied them home in the evening, after having spent a couple days with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long and daughter, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Miller, and husband. Mr. Miller, who has been suffering with rheumatism for some time, has not been quite so well for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Crates May and three children spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank May, and daughter, Miss Violet. Mrs. Nettie Faylor, of Auburn, is at the May home assisting in the care of Mrs. May, who has been quite sick for several weeks, but at this time seems to be improving slowly.

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

The following claims will be allowed by the DeKalb County Commissioners at their regular meeting June 4, 1934:

Indiana Bell Telephone Co., Telephone service, $82.65
Carl Walter, Clerk's office expense, $10.40
Auburn Printing Co., Do., $78.12
R. E. Heidrich, Do., $25.00
Levey Printing Co., Do., $21.50
Miller Bryant-Pierce Co., Do., $9
Schaab & Bros. Co., Do., $17.47
Rile R. Carpenter, Registration of voters, $26.00
Frank E Lyon, Auditor's office expense, $5.00
Levey Printing Co., Do., $6.25
C. S. Goodard, Do., $7.00
Merritt M. Maxwell, Treasurer's office expense, $4.90
John P. Hoff, Sheriff's mileage, $159.24
John P. Hoff, Sheriff's office expense, $3.00
John P. Hoff, Return of fugative criminals, $55.50
Kenneth D. Smith, Deputy Surveyor's Salary, $92.00
C. C. Kain, Sur. mileage, $28.40
Ft. Wayne Blue Print & Supply Co., Surv. office ex., $7.95
Levey Printing Co., Co. Supt. expense, $15.00
Ashton Staman, Do., $1.20
Benj. O. Shook, Coroner's expense, $21.20
Herbert C. Willis, Co. Assessor's office expense, $4.65
Nora I. Brown, Probation officer's salary, $57.00
Nora I Brown, Probation offi. expense, $21.77
Fay Blaker, Board of Children's Guardian, $15.00
Lizzie Dohner, Do., $20.00
Chloey Davis, Do., $20.00
Addie Campbell, Do., $10.00
Irma Brunson, Do., $15.00
Dr. Bonnell Souder, Do., $2.00
Ila Shilling, Do., $12.00
Lenora DeRas, Do., $15.00
Josephine Donely, Do., $10.00
Violet Morgan, Do., $3.00
Mabel Wyatt, Do., $10.00
Flora B. Swaidner, Do., $10.00
Anna Warstler, Do., $12.00
Sallie Ross, Do., $15.00
Darnnallda Kennedy, Do., $12.00
Sylvia Marti, Do., $15.00
Clara Krick, Do., $7.50
Alice Lower, Do., $20.00
Fannie Strange, Do., $20.00
Anna Snyder, Do., $15.00
Bertha Freeze, Do., $15.00
Elizabeth Sutton, Do., $10.00
Daisy Hampshire, Do., $15.00
Ula Carroll, Do., $15.00
Doris Noragon, Do., $15.00
Jennie Frain, Do., $15.00
C. E. McClintock, Pauper Atty. salary, $37.50
Wm. Stonebraker, Court house employee salary, $125.00
Orville Summers, Do., $50.00
Evan Link, Do., $75.00
J. H. Walter, Do., $75.00
Ella Johnson, Do., $25.00
Auburn Water & Light, Court house expense, $56.20
Fisher Bros. Paper Co., Do., $28.68
Auburn Hardware Co., Do., $4.41
John P. Hoff, Prisoner's board, $12.60
John P. Hoff, Prisoner's washing, $1.50
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Jail ex., $3.10
Northern Ind. Fuel & Light Co., Do., $25.00
The U. S. Chemical Co., Do., $1.31
Paul Myles, Do., $4.00
S. C. Morr, County Farm emp. Salary, $83.33
Nora Rogers, Do., $41.66
Audrey Berryhill, Do., $30.00
H. C. Hoodelmier, County Farm expense, $20.01
Allen Feagler, Do., $68.00
Standard Oil Co., Do., $50.44
Ashton Staman, Do., $9.95
Schaab Bros. & Co., Do., $5.75
Sanco Prod. Co., Inc., Do., $16.40
Davidson Hatchery, Do., $17.00
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $23.80
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Do., $1.89
Sacred Heart Hospital, Do., $108.60
O. G. Baker, Do., $4.00
John Ashelman, Do., $5.50
Washington O. Seelers, Do., $62.00
E. A. Baker, Do., $36.40
A. G. Houser, Do., $19.20
Arthur Grube, Commissioner's expense, $11.04
Chas. G. Potter, Do., $7.08
Cleve H. Grube, Do., $8.82
T. E. Myers, Boys' 4-H Club Work, $50.00
Garrett Clipper, Public printing, $57.18
The Waterloo Press, Do., $35.00
R. W. Murray, Union Twp. Poor relief, $278.50
Trustee David Roger's Home, Orphan Poor in other Inst., $112.50
Kenneth Smith, County Drain expense, $17.16
Wm. Goe, Do., $6.00
John Moore, Do., $7.20
Willis Daniels, Do., $2.40
Thelma L. Grosh, Do., $20.40
John Edwards, Do., $16.50
Wm. Burns, Do., $12.00
James DeWitt, Do., $12.00
Orville Farrington, Do., $2.40
George Strock, Do., $9.00
Levi Rowe, do., $3.60
Clarence F. Ayers, do., $42.00
Arthur Ober, do., $23.10
J. H. Leighty, do., $6.60
Ernest Rohm, do., $50.50
Lester Snyder, do., $32.40
Dale Sleek, do., $15.60
L. E. Brunkhart, do., $12.60
E. E. Walter, do., $12.00
DeKalb Co. Farm Bureau, do., $125.32
Jacob Rosenberry, do., $6.78
John B. Mock, do., $11.40
John N. Shoudel, do., $10.20
Harvey Zonker, do., $6.00
Irene Byron Sanatorium, expense, $387.00
Ray and Millie Herrick, County owned farm expense, $50.00
Noragon & Co., do., $62.45
Haffner's 5 & 10c Store, Memorial Day expense, $57.53
Martin Huffman, assessing Butler township, $142.00
Henry Deetz, assessing Fairfield, $176.00
J. E. Deetz, assessing Fairfield $40.00
Dode Houlton, Franklin, $260.00
M. H. Houlton, Franklin, $40.00
Fern Morr, Grant, $56.00
Helen G. Morr, Grant, $20.00
Artie R. McNamara, Jackson, $60.
Blanche McNamara, Jackson, $39.
Wm. Martz, Keyser, $330.00
Mrs. Luella Martz, Keyser, $150.00
Mrs. Chas. VanLear, Keyser, $132.
Jay W. DeWitt, Richland, $260.00
Mattie M. DeWitt, Richland, $42.00
Lee R. Wise, Smithfield, $124.00
Leone Wise, Smithfield, $69.00
Arlie Dwyer, Spencer, $45.00
Eugene Webster, Stafford, $180
B. J. Campbell, Troy, $104.00
Helen M. Brown, Union, $60.00
Donald B. Brown, Union, $27.00
E O. Likens, Union, $126.00
Geo. W. Griest Wilmington, $260
Admeda A. Griest, Wilming., $195
Elizabeth Hart, Wilmington, $130
Frank Henney, Primary exp, $32.40
Carl A. Peters, Do., $49.00
Freeman Fifer, Do., $56.50
E. E. Walter, Do., $38.40
Lewis R. Resler, Do, $55.60
Philip Brown, Do., $53.40
Gertrude Wise, Do., $31.00
Mrs. Mary Dunn, Do., $58.60
Neva Beaty, Do., $85.95
Mabel Briner, Do., $37.60
Mrs. J. A. Grant, Do., $62.80
Arthur J. Carrigan, Do., $36.60
Ervin Nelson, Do., $50.60
Phil Berg, Do., $56.35
Jay DeWitt, Do., $30.40
Leona J. Koehilla, Do., $57.00
Charlie Dickerhoff, Do., $29.60
Mabel Gallahin, Do., $58.60
John A. Shafer, Do., $33.80
Lemuel Campbell, Do., $35.90
Frank Curie, Do., $34.60
Henry Harris, Do., $33.60
Maud Roberts, Do., $46.60
Ray Whittington, Do., $54.95
Harry Karle, Do., $35.65
Archie Hewitt, Do., $50.60
Fred Ballentine, Do., $37.60
Ivan Oberlin, Do., $47.50
Grace Zitzman, Do., $52.60
Walter D. Creager, Do., $33.90
William M. Allen, Do., $60.35
Mrs. Geo. Weaver, Do., $34.60
Carl C. Voss, Do., $55.95
Cleo M. Cogley, Do., $39.00
R. B. Emerson, Do., $61.20
Orville D. Houser, Do., $34.50
Rue W. Murray, Do., $28.60
William Fetter, Do., $29.60
Elmer Oberlin, Do., $29.60
Orlo Deetz, Do., $30.60
Floy Hilkey, Do., $34.60
Herman Swander, Do., $29.60
W. E. Bardsley, Do., $37.20
John Schlosser, Do., $52.00
John L. Weaver, Do., $23.60
C. O. Metcalf, Do., $75.00
Fred W. Knott, Do., $75.00
Carl Walter, Do., $75.00
Oraetta Creasy, Do., $12.00
Gertrude M. Metcalf, Do., $12.00
Karl C. Knapp, Do., $12.00
Henry C. McIntyre, Do., $12.00
S. E. Shutt, Do., $3.08
Rue Murray, Do., $18.56
Forrest Oiler, Do., $11.27
Levey Printing Co., Do., $339.20
Charles Tomlinson, Do., $6.00
Auburn Printing Co., Do., $474.10
Frank Purdy, Sheriff's Emergency expense, $30.00
C. C. Kain, Gravel Road repair, $168.50
Harve Zonker, Do., $6.75
Avery Stahl, Do., $6.75
Clyde Willhelm, Do., $6.75
Paul Zonker, Do., $6.75
Allen Putt, Do., $6.75
Charles Cole, Do., $12.00
Oscar Keller, Do., $9.60
Frank Putt, Do., $25.10
Paul Stackhouse, Do., $11.75
Bruce Shanton, Do., $91.68
C. P. Martin, Do., $91.00
Levi Hoover, Do., $16.80
Clinton Williams, Do., $4.80
Arnol Burtch, Do., $29.40
Clarence Houser, Do., $9.00
John Chittenden, Do., $3.00
Frank Hovarter, Do., $21.00
Henry Carpenter, Do., $1.50
C. U. Bowers, Do., $10.75
Lige Weaver, Do., $4.80
C. C. Miller, Do., $3.75
A. F. Ober, Do., $3.00
E. H. Barley, Do., $91.00
Carl Houser, Do., $4.00
E. R. Burnison, Do., $1.50
Jay Bunge, Do., $91.88
Christ Beard, Do., $22.50
Guy Zirkle, Do., $10.80

(Continued on Supplement)

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT
Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.
Dundon Red Ash
BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:
HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50
Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.
NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

REPAIRS ARE NOT EXPENSIVE AT
The Elmwood Wrecking Co, Inc.
Used parts for your auto, truck and tractor. We have them
We are the largest auto wreckers in Western Illinois.
We undersell the town. Call, wire or write.
ELMWOOD AUTO WRECKING CO., Inc.
540 Mulberry St. GALESBURG, ILLINOIS Main 4994

MAY

L 919

1297

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Walter and Lucille Gee spent Thursday evening in Hicksville.

Donald Kinsey, of Fort Wayne, was in town Saturday night, and he assisted in the band concert.

Mrs. Lela Northrup and son, Curtice, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lawrence, of Chicago, spent from Wednesday until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E Foltz.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wineland are again at Auburn assisting in caring for Mr. Wineland's father, Mr. John Scott.

Geo. Bartlett of Ft. Wayne was a guest in the Harry Kees home from Saturday until Friday. Bessie Bartlett called on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Wm. Bachelor is on the sick list, being confined to her bed. Sunday a number of friends of the Bachelor family from Payne, Ohio, spent the day in their home.

Eugene Carper, of near Auburn, spent a few days last week with his daughter, Mrs. Foster Gee, and family. Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Baker.

Farmers in the Jackson Center vicinity gathered at the John Kelly home a few days ago and plowed three fields and planted his corn. Mr. Kelly had been detained with his work due to the illness and death of his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham are leaving Tuesday afternoon to visit in the C. J. Foltz home near Holgate, Ohio, until Wednesday, going on to the Leipsic, Ohio, cemetery, where they will attend the Decoration Day services, returning home the same evening.

Mrs. Mary Betz, Mrs. Ada Berry and grandchildren, Jimmy and Jeanne Hatch, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reichelderfer at Quincy, Michigan, helping Mrs. Reichelderfer celebrate her birthday. Twenty-eight relatives and friends were there.

Bert Bachtel, of Waterloo, republican candidate for county treasurer, is in a critical condition, having developed bronchial pneumonia in addition to typhoid fever.

Don't demand public improvements and lower taxes in the same breath.

If you have something to sell and are in a big hurry to sell it, let the classified advertising department of The News prove its ability as a speedy and efficient sales medium.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wyatt, of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Jennie Andress and Mr. ad Mrs. Harry Hursh, were luncheon guests on Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hamilton, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reidenbach and daughters, motored to Wawaka, Sunday, and spent the day with Mr. Reidenbach's mother, Mrs. John Reidenbach. They also attended the Memorial services at the Osborn cemetery.

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Friday, Saturday

June 1-2

"Harold Teen"

—WITH—

Hal Leroy, Patricia Ellis. Guy Kibbie. A thrill, a laugh, a surprise every minute. Everyone from 6 to 60 will enjoy this one.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday

June 3-4-5

"As the Earth Turns"

—WITH—

Jean Miner and Donald Wood. A sincere story told in real human style-depicting the joys and sorrows of life.

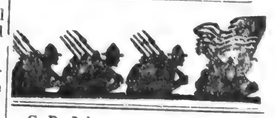
Wednesday, Thursday

June 6-7

"Registered Nurse"

Bebe Daniels, Lyle Talbot. Also a Laurel and Hardy Comedy, "Oliver the 8"

Sunday shows start at 4:30, on week-days at 7:30.



C. R. Johnson and J. W. Brown, accompanied by their wives, of Auburn, were the Sunday dinner guests in the E. W. Johnson home north of Concord. Mrs. Edna Moody, of Garrett, was an afternoon and evening guest.

Russell Ridgway met with an accident Friday, that might have proved very serious indeed. Playing in the alley near his home, he climbed upon a dump truck body, and it collapsed pinching Russell. George Milliman was near by, heard the cries and ran to his assistance, lifting the body from him, while Robert, his older brother, pulled him from underneath it. Dr. Shook was immediately called, but no serious injuries were discovered in the examination and the little fellow is about again.

If you want pictures in your advertising, we have them

C. E. McCLINTOCK

Attorney at Law

City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.

Auburn, Indiana

PATENTS AND TRADE-MARKS C. A. SNOW & CO.

Successful Practice since 1875. Over 25,000 patents obtained for inventors in every section of country. Write for booklet telling how to obtain a patent, with list of clients in your State.

710 8th St., Washington, D. C.

MAY

L 919

U 2 9 8

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

(Continued from Page 4)

John Oyler, Do., $10.80
James Zirkle, Do., $18.90
Waldo Smith, Do., $11.40
Haven Ross, Do., $6.00
Don Frazier, Do., $3.90
Bud Kelly, Do., $30.00
Henry Mergy, Do., $6.30
Jess Lower, Do., $2.40
Emery Martin, Do., $2.40
Wayne Durst, Do., $5.00
Pleasant Lake Gravel Co., Do., $3
Frank Adler, Do., $6.00
Jay Martin, Do., $2.80
Wm. Keeler, Do., $92.86
Russel Lyon, Do., $2.50
Clarence Keller, Do., $4.00
Frank Bechtel, Do., $10.80
Ward Woodcox, Do., $3.90
Vern Coburn, Do., $13.20
Geo. Beams, Do., $10.20
Hary Leighty, Do., $16.50
Nathan Grain Co., Do., $23.68
Wm. Henley, Do., $6.00
Elmer Johns, Do., $91.56
Theron Little, Do., $12.00
Paul Nicholls, Do., $9.60
Wm. Steller, Do., $4.80
Wm. McCann, Do., $42.60
Wm. Allwood, Do., $7.95
Geo. Campbell, Do., $6.00
Gordon Collins, Do., $10.80
Archie Cook, Do., $3.00
Commodore Hagerty, Do., $7.50
Sherman Ginder, Do., $30.30
Ralph Lucy, Do., $8.40
Henry Winebrenner, Do., $2.40
Geo. Hull & Son, Do., $9.60
Alvin Loomis, Do., $2.40
Perry Turner, Do., $4.80
Roscoe Kepler, Do., $7.20
Ercel Dever, Do., $2.40
Arthur DeWitt, Do., $7.20
Gilbert Everetts & Helpers, Do., $18.00
Harry Souder & Helper, Do., $10.50
Fred Healy, Do., $3.00
Joe Schuler, Do., $22.20
Milton Keller, Do., $63.00
Clayton Hough, Do., $3.30
Silberg & Jenkins, Do., $1.37
Mrs. N. O. Griffin, Do., $2.50
Wm. Mutzfeld & Sons, Do., $24.39
B. B. Boyd, Do., $2.45
Walter Mutzfeld, Do., $7.60
C. D. VanZile, Do., $33.20
Fred Rosenberry, Do., $91.00
Jack Johnson, Do., $91.00
M. K. Baldwin, Do., $91.00
Mack Hatch, Do., $33.20
Wm. Rugman, Do., $33.20
Lester Casselman, Do., $72.80
A. J. Wilson, Do., $64.40
Dale Kreischer, Do., $55.20
Frank Bowman, Do., $55.20
C. O. Baker, Do., $31.20
Wm. King, Do., $43.20
James DeWitt, Do., $26.40
Christ Burns, Do., $33.30
Wm. Graham, Do., $27.60
Cloyd Groves, Do, $29.70
Wm. Stouder, Do., $27.30
Chas. DeWitt, Do., $28.80
Arnold Link, Do., $24.30
Frank Hidy, Do., $21.60
Harry Tomlinson Do., $29.10
Chas. Cochran, Do., $24.30
Wm. Kessler, Do., $26.40
Wm. Burns, Do., $21.60
Clifford Farmer, Do., $22.50
Maynard Fee, Do., $17.10
Lawrence Snyder, Do., $27.00
Harvey Hampton, Do., $21.60
Clair Miller, Do., $14.40
Forest Beaty, Do., $12.00
Adrian Miller, Do., $7.20
Romeo Rittenhouse, Do., $7.20
John Ball, Do., $4.80
Lloyd Landis, Do., $2.40
John Pogser, Do., $16.80
Lloyd Beckbarger, Do., $14.40
Theodore Hoffmeyer, Do., $19.20
Albert Pankopp, Do., $7.20
Eli Stahl, Do., $12.00
John Peckhart, Do., $7.20
John Ketel, Do., $4.00
John J. Cupp, Do., $7.80
L. W. Wells, Do., $15.00
Ralph Duesler, Do., $7.50
Fay Fee, Do., $13.75
John B. Miller, Do., $17.00
Henry Teves, Do., $9.00
W. A. Custer, Do., $4.00
Henry Trumpy, Do., $12.60
Edw. Trumpy, Do., $12.60
William Farner, Do., $2.90
E. S. Kelham, Do., $15.40
Willis Danniels, Do., $2.40
Wm. Goe, Do., $10.80
Thelma L. Grosh, Do., $3.00
E. L. Brant, Do., $1436.59
H. D. Weaver, Do., $45.00
W. K. Schaab, Do., $40.00
Lester Baker, Do., $210.00
Charles Wilson, Do., $90.45
The Jim Shop, Do., $2.00
Auburn Oil Co., Do., $117.18
Angola Brick & Tile Co, Do., $14.82
Indiana Bell Telephone Co., Do., $8.60
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $3.35
Levey Printing Co., Do., $5.00
J. D. Adams Co., Do., $7.39
Wayne Welding & Supply Co., Inc., Do., $7.27
The Brooks Oil Co., Do., $37.94
Arthur Rosenberry, Do., $4.56
The W. Q. O'Neall Co., Do., $399.60
Auburn Foundry Inc., Do., $16.36
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Do., $98.92
Hoosier Truck Parts Co., Do., $4.52
Angola Brick & Tile Co., Do., $7.15
A. B. C. Battery Shop, Do., $22.70
Cockrell Tractor Co., Do., $9.81
Beidler Variety Shop, Do., $2.65
General Motors Truck Co., Do., $95.25
Korte Bros. Inc., Do., $20.10
DeKalb County Farm Bureau Corp., Do., $17.61
Jacob Rosenberry, Do., $38.18
John Edwards, Do., $5.10
Kenneth Haverstock, Do., $7.50

COURT ALLOWANCES

Temple Cafe, Meals for Jurors, $18.10
Herrick's Restaurant, Do., $5.20
The Lawyers Cooperative Pub. Co., Law books, $10.00
West Publishing Co., Library books, $20.00

Signed: FRANK E. LYON,
Auditor of DeKalb County.

PERSONAL

Gerald Gee spent Monday at Auburn.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price spent Monday in Fort Wayne.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hurni Sunday morning.

Mr. W. H. Pepple spent over the week-end with Mrs. Sue Sherwood and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jenkins were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Baker at Bluffton.

Miss Mary Dressel, of Holgate, Ohio, spent the past few days with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Alice Copp has returned home from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. B. V. Widney, and husband, at Columbia City.

The Loyal Men and Women's Class of the Christian Sunday School held their monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Gee. The program of songs, readings and contests were enjoyed by all. There were 21 present. After the business meeting and program all did justice to a pot luck supper. The June meeting will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Storer.

L 919

U 299

JUNE

JUNE

L 919

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JUNE 7, 1934 — NUMBER 22

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Sept. 27, 1884

Mrs. J. D. Leighty visited with friends in Fort Wayne last week.

Ruff McDonald has moved into the Kauffman property.

Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Donaldson left last week for a visit among friends in Pennsylvania.

Thad Meese got severely kicked by one of his horses at the Hicksville fair last week.

Wm. Vollmar thinks St. Joe is a nice place to live and so he has moved back here from Ft. Wayne.

For years we have waited,
In hope and in glee,
Watching the billows,
Scanning the sea,
For our ship on the ocean,
Laden with gold,
To come and enrich us.
The tale is soon told;
No longer we're waiting,
For sorrow's our cup;
The ship has come in,
But it's bottom-side up.

O. L. Young of Butler was in St. Joe one day last week.

One of the largest crowds that has been in St. Joe since old settler's day gathered here on Wednesday evening of last week, to see the democrats raise their pole and hear their speakers spread forth the doctrines of old democracy. They were late in getting the pole up, but finally succeeded in raising it, after which they formed into a procession and marched to the speakers stand. The glee club then sang several fine selections of campaign music after which Frank Barney stepped forward and in a graceful manner introduced W. H. Shambaugh of Fort Wayne, who spoke for about one hour. Mr. Friend also of Fort Wayne followed Mr. Shambaugh in a lengthy speech. D. D. Moody was then called for but owing to the lateness of the hour he did not say much. The glee club then sang, the bands played, the men hollered, the babies cried, the dogs barked and everybody went home and went to bed.

There were six bands present.

It was a pity to waste that broom.

The pole is over 150 feet high.

The speakers stand was nicely decorated.

Frank Scholes of Fort Wayne assisted the glee club.

Wm. Shambaugh got mixed up on his "tater" story.

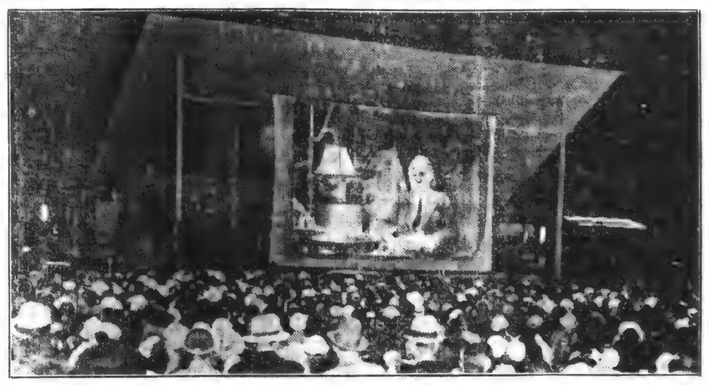
The ladies' Cleveland and Hendricks club of Newville made a fine appearance.

The martial bands made such a racket you couldn't hear the cornet bands.

Frank Furlow a prominent stump speaker of Hicksville was present, but did not get a chance to say any thing.

Wm. Bleeks got tired of living in the countdy so he moved back into town this week.

Thousands See President Light New World's Fair



Through the medium of a motion picture shown at the Lagoon theater, President Roosevelt turned on the lights of the new World Fair in Chicago for a record opening day crowd to see May 26. Visitors, who thronged in great numbers to the fifteen foreign villages that feature the exposition this summer, were surprised when they found that the Fair was complete in every detail and ready to receive them.

What is a doodlebug?

Alex Filley and J. H. Conrad went out hunting the other day and so far as we can learn they did not kill any more game than they could carry home.

SOCIAL AT CONCORD

Ice cream social at Concord, Friday evening, June 15, serving cake, chicken sandwiches, pie and coffee. Each article 5c. You will be welcome. 22t2.

BAKE SALE TO BE HELD SATURDAY

The Methodist ladies will hold a bake sale Saturday in News office window and the public is asked to make their purchases of baked goods for Sunday. Ladies of the church are requested to bring in their baked goods early in the forenoon.

LIFE OF CHARLES TUSTISON, A FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT DIED LAST WEEK AFTER A CONTINUED ILLNESS O F MANY MONTHS.

Charles A. Tustison, was born on a farm near St. Joe, Indiana, August 6, 1859, and departed this life at the home of his son in Hicksville, Ohio, May 30, 1934, aged 74 years, 9 months and 24 days. He was the last survivor of a family of three sons and five daughtere of Washington and Catherine Tustison.

He was married to Flora Scholes October 24, 1880, and their married life was spent at farming in the Coburn's Corners community. The wife died June 24, 1922. Since then Mr. Tustison has made his home with his two sons, Lee O. at Defiance, Ohio, and Earl W. at Hicksville, Ohio. Other survivors are two grandchildren, Irma, Hicksville, and Keith, Defiance.

Early Sunday morning, February 3, 1929, Mr. Tustison suffered a paralytic stroke which affected the right side of his body. He recovered sufficietly to be about the home for nearly four years, but during the last year has been bedfast most of the time, gradually failing until death came.

During the three and one-half years previous to his stroke, he was employed by the Crescent Printing Company, Defiance.

When a young man he united with the Church of Christ at Coburn's Corners and while a resident of this community was active in the affairs of the church. He was one of the trustees who supervised construction of the present building, and served the congregation as an elder for a number of years. After leaving the home community he has always regarded this as his church home, although unable to take an active part in its ministry.

Funeral was held Saturday afternoon at the Coburn's Corners Church. Dr. S. E. Brewster, of Hicksville officiated, assisted by Dr. W. A. Rex, Defiance. Burial was made in the Alton cemetery. Pallbearers were Abner Trostel, William Hamilton, Victor Dermott, Roy Maxwell, Fred Hart and Floyd Coburn.

Flower bearers were the following young ladies from Hicksville: Arlene Killian, Wilda Rex, Merrice Hoppe, Mary Jane Hoff, Mary Shirley, Betty Preston, Marjorie Wort, Jo Ferris and Virginia Olseon. Hymns were sung by Mrs. R. E. Tuttle and Mrs. L. L. Hoff, accompanied by Mrs. Landis, all of Hicksville.

The following friends from Defiance attended the funeral service: Mrs. W. A. Rex, Mr. and Mrs. Calude Ensign, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreischer, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Peters, George Ensign and F. S. Taylor.

The families of the two sons express their heartfelt thanks to the people of the home community for their interest in their Father's welfare. The greeting cards and other messages which came to him from time to time were a source of comfort, lending the cheer that only could come from those who had been near and dear in the days of his activity.

"BOOSTER" MEETING

The "Booster" meeting and banquet held at the Auburn Church of Christ, Tuesday evening, in the interest of the Christian Service Camp at Lake James, was largely attended. Fifteen persons from St. Joe were present.

Preceding the banquet, music was rendered by an orchestra, members of which were pupils of Price Roberts, minister of the Garrett Church of Christ. The banquet period was interspersed by stunt songs, camp jokes and much lively laughter. The evening's program included splendid talks on camp experiences, by the young people, an instructive talk on music by the Camp Registrar, Price Roberts, a stirring address on the camp's training for "Christian Service" by the camp manager, J. Marion Small, and a chalk drawing, "Blue Galilee," by Miss Martha Sweitzer, of Ashley. Prayer by H. K. Schondelmayer, of St. Joe, closed the meeting.

The following persons from St. Joe attended, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Schondelmayer and son, Harold, Willard Hurni, Mary and Annabelle Stewart, Beatrice Woodcox, Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker, Eloise Coburn, Carleton Wilmot, Lucille Gee, Keith Wilmot and Walter and Gerald Gee.

If you have something to sell and are in a big hurry to sell it, let the classified advertising department of The News prove its ability as a speedy and efficient sales medium.

ITEMS ABOUT ST. JOE

Adrian and Bill Hankey, of Detroit, were here the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jenkins spent a few days at their cottage at Cold Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quance, of Auburn, were Saturday night and Sunday guests in the F. B. Leighty home.

John Mutchler, weight 7¼ pounds, was born on Memorial Day to Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox at Sturgis, Michigan, hospital.

Stanley Koch, of Fort Wayne spent Sunday with his parents. They all called on Thos. Jolly in the afternoon and found him quite poorly.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Buckingham and daughter, Phyllis, of Marion, Ohio, are spending the week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mohney and daughter, Bobby, spent Decoration Day in the G. A. Kinsey home. Bobby is remaining with her grandparents for a visit.

Jim Stewart was home over Sunday from the C. C. Camp. Jim has been promoted to first sergeant with 240 men in charge, and, of course, an advance in salary. Congratulations.

Saturday night the Ford car of Butser Gee, caught fire. He was called and put out the fire, discovering that the carpet on the foot boards touched the exhaust and was set on fire.

Memorial Day was attended by many old time friends. The cemetery was in elegant condition and flowers were everywhere. The program at the gym was largely attended and the drama was a drawing card, being excellently produced.

Master James Hart, of the west end of town, was permitted Monday to go to the Donald Hart home down town, at noon he failed to return home and later was found at the gravel pit where he had been in bathing alone. He got side tracked some how and did not stop at his brother's long.

The Ladies Aid of the M. P. Church will hold an all day meeting this Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bishop, just west of town. Pot luck dinner will be served and each lady is requested to carry her own table service. All the ladies of the church are invited and the men have a special invitation to attend the dinner.

VEGET'BLE PLANTS

the largest and finest varieties in the COUNTY, AT

TEN EYKE'S Greenhouse

AUBURN, INDIANA

Now on display!

WORLD'S LOWEST-PRICED SIX

$465

AND UP List prices of Standard Six Sport Roadster at Flint, Mich., $490. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $10 additional. Prices subject to change without notice. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value.

A group of additional new models for the 1934 Chevrolet line—four full-size cars—100% Chevrolet in quality and reliability

CHEVROLET "A Chevrolet for $490!" That's the world's lowest price for a six-cylinder car. The lowest price, also, for a car of this size, wheelbase and power! And a figure that sounds even more impressive after you find out what it buys: A great big, full-size, long-wheelbase car identical in quality with all 1934 Chevrolets. A cushion-balanced SIX of surprising smoothness, power, snap and dash. The most economical full-size car that money can buy. And every closed model has a Body by Fisher. See this newest Chevrolet without delay, today.

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN

CHEVROLET

FURNISH MOTOR SALES, Spencerville, Indiana

You'll feel as COOL as You'll LOOK in Our New

Summer Dresses

And they're not very expensive either

$2.00 $3.00

PIQUES, VOILES, DIMITIES, PRINTS, SEERSUCKERS, Sleeveless or Cap Sleeves Sunbacks.

Have You Plenty Cool Summer Uderthings?

The McBride Co.

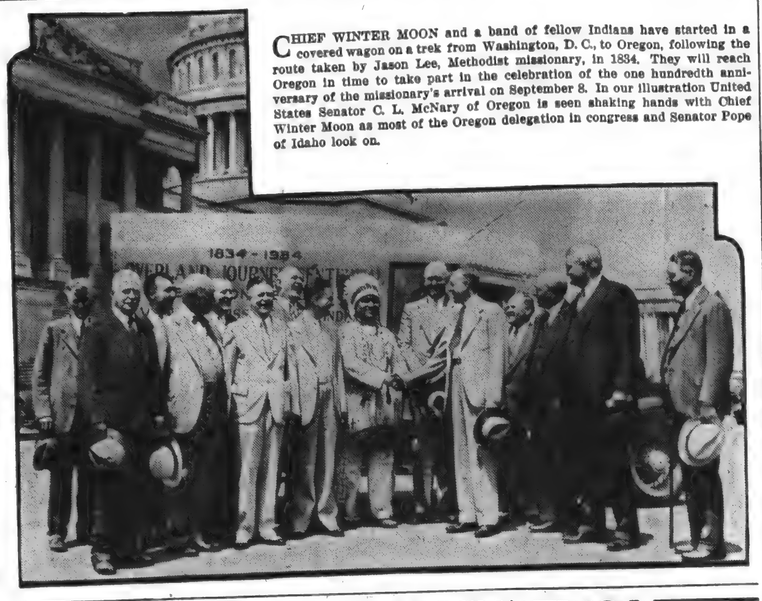
AUBURN, - - - INDIANA

JUNE

L 919

U301

Indians Start Wagon Trek Across the Continent



CHIEF WINTER MOON and a band of fellow Indians have started in a covered wagon on a trek from Washington, D. C., to Oregon, following the route taken by Jason Lee, Methodist missionary, in 1834. They will reach Oregon in time to take part in the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the missionary's arrival on September 8. In our illustration United States Senator C. L. McNary of Oregon is seen shaking hands with Chief Winter Moon as most of the Oregon delegation in congress and Senator Pope of Idaho look on.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

MORE TROUBLE FROM SALLY SLY

A FEW mornings after his talk with Jenny Wren about Redeye the Vireo, Peter once more visited the Old Orchard. No sooner did he come in sight than Jenny Wren's tongue began to fly. "What did I tell you, Peter Rabbit? What did I tell you? I knew it was so, and it is!" cried Jenny.

"What is so?" asked Peter rather testily, for he hadn't the least idea what Jenny Wren was talking about.

"Sally Sly did lay an egg in Redeye's nest, and now it has hatched, and I don't know whatever is to become of Redeye's own children. It's perfectly

"What Did I Tell You, Peter Rabbit? What Did I Tell You?"

scandalous," cried Jenny, and hopped about and jerked her tail and worked herself into a small brown fury.

"The Redeyes are working themselves to feathers and bone feeding that ugly young cowbird, while their own babies aren't getting half enough to eat," she continued. "One of them has died already. He was kicked out of the nest by that young brute."

"How dreadful!" cried Peter. "If he does things like that I should think the Redeyes would throw him out of the nest."

"They're too soft-hearted," said Jenny. "I can tell you I wouldn't be so soft-hearted. No, siree, I wouldn't! But they say it isn't his fault that he's there, that he's nothing but a helpless baby, so they just must take care of him."

"Then why don't they feed their own babies first and give him what's left?" asked Peter.

"Because he's twice as big as any of their own babies and so strong and greedy that he simply snatches the food out of the very mouths of the others. Because he gets most of the food he is growing twice as fast as they are. I wouldn't be surprised if he kicks all the rest of them out before he gets through. Mr. and Mrs. Redeye are dreadfully distressed about it, but they will feed him, because they say it isn't his fault. It's a dreadful affair, and the talk of the whole orchard. I suppose his mother is gadding about somewhere, having a good time and not caring a flip of her tail feathers what becomes of him. I believe in being good hearted. I certainly do. But there is such a thing as overdoing the matter. Thank goodness I'm not so weak minded that I can be imposed on in such a way as that."

"That may be so," replied Peter, "but just the same I can't help feeling a lot of respect for Mr. and Mrs. Redeye because of their kind heartedness."

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Chic Ensemble

Patent leather flowers in black, white and yellow, dictate the colors of the print dress in this ensemble with a black wool coat.—From Bergdorf Goodman.

Mother's Cook Book

PALATABLE PUDDINGS

DURING the warm months more delicate puddings of fruit and eggs in the form of souffles are much enjoyed.

Lemon Souffle.

Beat the yolks of four eggs until thick and lemon colored, add one cup of sugar very slowly and continue beating, then add the grated rind and juice of a lemon. Cut and fold in the whites of four eggs beaten stiff and turn into a buttered baking dish; set in a pan of hot water. Bake 35 minutes. Serve without sauce.

Spanish Souffle.

Melt one-fourth of a cupful of butter, add one-half cup of stale bread crumbs, cook until slightly browned, stirring often; add one cup of milk, two tablespoons of sugar, cook 20 minutes in a double boiler; remove from the fire, add the unbeaten yolks of three eggs and cut and fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Add flavor and bake as any souffle.

Steamed Blueberry Pudding.

Mix and sift together two cupfuls of flour, four teaspoons of baking powder, and one-half teaspoon of salt. Add one cup each of milk and blueberries rolled in flour, turn into a buttered mold and steam one and one-half hours. Serve with a creamy sauce or sugar and cream.

Graham Pudding.

Melt one-fourth of a cup of butter, add one-half cup of molasses, one-half cup of milk and a well-beaten egg. Mix together one and one-half cups of graham flour, one-half teaspoon of soda, one teaspoon of salt, and one cupful of seeded raisins cut fine. Turn into a buttered mold, cover and steam two and one-half hours. Serve with any fruit sauce. Dates or figs may be used in place of the raisins for variety.

A sauce to serve on angel food makes a most tasty pudding prepared thus: Cream one-third of a cup of butter, add one cup of powdered sugar very slowly, one egg white beaten stiff and two-thirds of a cup of mashed strawberries. Beat until well blended then add with whipped cream for a garnish.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

A CORNER IN MY HEART

By ANNE CAMPBELL

YOU have a little corner in my heart,
A sunny space belonging just to you,
With windows open so the gentle art
Of brown wrens singing may come drifting through.
There is a garden, and the fragrance drifts
Into the little corner where you are.
And in the evening palest moonlight sifts
In my glad heart, and there's an evening star.

Now you are gone, the sun no longer shines.
The garden flowers are dead, the moon no more
Looks down in splendor through the trumpet vines.
The star is absent from my heart's wrenched door.
A little corner of my heart is dull
And dusty that you made so beautiful!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Do YOU Know—

That the early Grecian boxers, while in training for a bout, were given a diet of new cheese, dried figs, and boiled grain, with warm water and no meat.

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

WNU Service

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

What is your opinion of married life, don't you think it is the happiest life?

Sincerely,
MAY DENN.

Answer—It all depends how the two people enjoy themselves.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Do you think it is safe for a man to shave his face with a dull razor blade?

Yours truly,
BOB BURR.

Answer—Sure I do. As long as the handle of the razor doesn't break, the beard is bound to come off.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Yesterday, a tramp came to my back door and asked for something to eat. I gave him a meal on his promise to cut my lawn. He ate the meal but he ran away and never kept his promise to cut the lawn. What do you think of that?

Yours truly,
I. FEAL ORFUL.

Answer—It just goes to show that you must never take the word of a total stranger.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

My sweetheart and I are going on a hike next Sunday. We intend walking cross country. My girl weighs 197½ lbs. What I want to know is this: When we come to a fence, is it my place to "help" her over the fence?

Truly yours,
P. DESTRIAN.

Answer—My dear boy, as your girl weighs nearly 200 pounds, it is your place to "help" the fence.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

A friend of mine says he knows a pair of twin girls that, whatever you tell them, must be told to them together. Why is that?

Yours truly,
RAY D. OHE.

Answer—That is because the twins look so much alike, they can't be told apart.

© the Associated Newspapers
WNU Service.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what is reluctance?"
"Paying a bill."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Benedict Arnold Scorned

After he betrayed his country, Benedict Arnold was commissioned a brigadier general of the British army and was awarded an amount of 6,315 pounds as compensation for his property losses. He led an expedition in Virginia and in New London. After the war he engaged in outfitting privateers. He was the object of scorn and neglect in England and died in London June 14, 1801.

Barbara Never Saw a Chair Before

BARBARA, the polar bear at the Whipsnade zoo, London, England, had not seen a chair before, so naturally she did everything with it but sit on it. Here she is doing a little balancing act with it while she seems to be praying that it doesn't fall on her.

A Few Little Smiles

OBEYING ORDERS

When supper was served Helen refused a second helping of ice cream with a polite but wistful, "No, thank you!"

"Do have some more, dear," her hostess urged.

"Mother told me to say, 'No, thank you,'" Helen explained naively, "but I don't think she could have known how small the first helping was going to be!"—Toronto Globe.

Wealth

Primo Carnera told a story in Miami.

"A powerful speed boat," he began, "shot out of the harbor the other morning and a young lady said to me:

"'That boat belongs to Mr. Van Gold. He has made an enormous fortune.'

"'Good for him!' I said. 'Is he rich enough to have his name in the Blue Book?'

"'Blue Book!' said the young lady. 'Why, he's rich enough to be called before the senate investigating committee.'"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Up-to-Date Budgeting

A film magnate said on his return from Europe:

"Budget balancing nowadays reminds me of a little story.

"A boy went into a shop and looked the stock over, then he said:

"'A nickel's worth of chewin' gum and a nickel back, and I'll be along with the dime next month er so.'"

Looked Impressive

Don't feel too highly flattered when some one asks for your John Hancock. A movie actress reports that one day she was solicited for her autograph by two small boys.

"Do you know who I am?" she asked them.

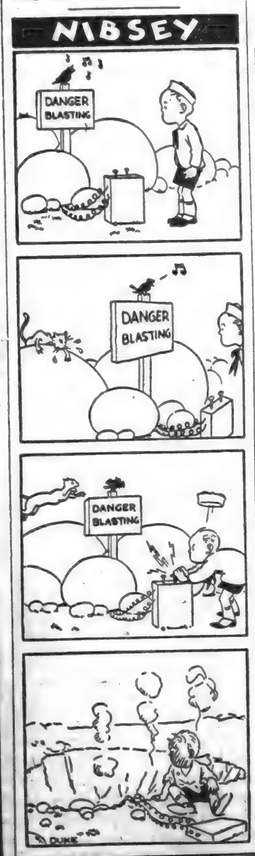
"No'm," the older boy answered, "but we thought we could find out this way."—Boston Transcript.

Bothering the Boss

"Are you the political boss of Crimson Gulch?"

"I used to be," answered Cactus Joe, "but the job isn't as good as it was when I got credit for any little prosperity that came around. Now I have to take the blame for everything that goes wrong."

NIBSEY



PRINT FROCK THAT IS WORTHY PLACE IN ANY WARDROBE

PATTERN 1776

There's nothing like a print frock to suggest spring—to brighten up our wardrobe—and our spirits! We'd love the model sketched here in one of the colorful all-over designs so popular this season. It has truly flattering, feminine lines—the gracefully flared sleeves, the slim semi-belted waistline and length-giving skirt panel. With the neckline worn open, artificial flowers posed at the neckline add a chic note. For added interest, tiny buttons trim the back bodice. Sleeves may be omitted or may be made of contrast.

Pattern 1776 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 4 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York City.

ENCOURAGEMENT

While the young suitor was waiting to take out his young lady the latter's little sister entered the room.

"Did you know my sister's got three other boy friends?" said the child.

The suitor pricked up his ears at this piece of news.

"Really!" he said, in surprise. "I haven't seen any of them."

"Neither have I," returned the child, "but she gave me a quarter to tell you."—Border Cities Star.

Bad for Both

Major (telling of big-game hunting)—There we stood, the tiger and I, in the thick of the jungle, face to face!

Dumb Dora—Oh, Major, how perfectly frightful it must have been for both of you!

Subtle Tact

Hicks—So you got the best of that argument with your wife?

Dicks—Sure, by agreeing with her in everything I made her doubt her own facts.—Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

Her Wish

"So Nellie married a farmer. And she always said she would marry a man of culture."

"Well, she did. A man of agriculture."

Too Suggestive

Weed—Guess I'll have to stop calling my wife "Toots."

Hay—Why?

Weed—It always reminds her that she wants an auto.

There You Are

What is the difference between a flea and an elephant?

An elephant can have fleas, but a flea can't have elephants.

Jilted

Gerald—"Anyhow, I am the real goods." Geraldine—"Oh, no! You are the canned goods."

JUNE

L 919

v 3 v 2

WAR ON SUPERSTITION

The Bunyip, the chief devil of aborigine tribes in Australia, is marked for extinction. Authorities who are trying to stamp out superstition are conducting a campaign of education against the dreaded "beast." With it also must go the "singed bone" punishment. The aborigine believes that if he sees the Bunyip he will die before the next sunrise. It is said to bear the shape of a frog, is about three feet high and haunts deep waterholes. The "singed bone" is believed to be feared by all natives. When a warrior has violated any rule of his tribe the tribe council take an ordinary shin bone, twist it, singe it at one end, and sharpen it at the other. The bone is then given to a runner, who goes at a steady jog-trot into the bush to seek the wrongdoer.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

It's Not Worth It

School yourself not to keep up a useless argument just because you feel you are right.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Should Be, Anyway

By yourself you may be in pretty good society.

ROOT BEER at 1¾¢ A QUART

Children

HOME-MADE Root Beer is cooling, refreshing, thirst-quenching. Children love it. A 15c package of T & T Concentrate makes 5 gal.—40 pints.

AT YOUR GROCER'S

Bears the Seal of Acceptance of the American Medical Association. Made from genuine roots, barks and herbs.

Thomas & Taylor Co., Chicago

T&T Root Beer CONCENTRATE

SEND YOUR BOY TO CAMP TREASURE ISLAND

In DIAMOND LAKE—Cassopolis, Michigan. Eight weeks of camp life amid beautiful and healthful surroundings. Boating, Swimming, Hiking and all summer sports under experienced supervisors. Camp Treasure Island is conducted by staff of Illinois Military School.

Season from July 2 to August 25

The cost is very moderate. Write for information

Col. Clyde Tarr, Illinois Military School, Abingdon, Ill.

MALE HELP WANTED

Man wanted for new local service station opening in your locality. $35.00 weekly to start. Experience not required. $200 cash deposit required on equipment. MANUFACTURERS, 324—H—441 Wesley Street, Wheaton, Illinois.

Goodbye ANTS

Simply sprinkle Peterman's Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. Get it at your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

Smooth Clear Skin

Don't endure pimples and blotches. Allay them quickly with pure Resinol Soap and safe, efficacious

Resinol

SORES AND ULCERS—Dr. Goodwin's Write for Free 132 Page Book Dr. Boil Specialist, Boston, Mass.

Summer of Wide Brims Is Message

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IT'S breathtaking the way millinery has burst into a blaze of glory before our enchanted eyes this season. Everything from flowers to feathers, fruit trimmings, ribbons and brims of startling dimension seems to be conspiring to bring "real millinery" back into the picture once more.

Now that brims have definitely "arrived" you may wear them as huge as you care to wear them. Fashion places no limit to their dimensions. Not for season upon season have brims been so wide, so versatile, so everywhere present, so chic and so picturesque.

In the circle leghorn and roses tell a summery tale of hats-beautiful such as will be worn with frocks of exotic print, with gowns of lace, or of net, pastel chiffons or organdies.

In the other large circle is a huge black panama with the new fruit trimming which is considered quite the last word this season. You must have at least one hat trimmed with a wee apple or so, or a trio of plums and green leaves, or a cluster of cherries or berries of some sort—anything just so it is tempting looking artificial fruit. By the way, the fruit motif in dress prints is also very good this season.

The hat up in the left corner of the group has one of those wee semi-wreathes about the front of its crown which is decorative yet conservative enough to permit this wide-brimmed chapeau to be worn with simple daytime costumes.

Just below, centered to the left, is a hat of rough cire straw, for cire and cellulose black straws, you must know, are the rage. So, also, are all-black fabrics of cired luster. A perky multi-colored quill imparts a dash and a go to this simple tailored hat which is just what is needed in a headpiece which is to top one's cloth or linen suit.

Brims that turn up in the back are excellent style, and are a pleasing change from the conventional cart-wheel of the merry widow type. The model shown in the lower left corner is indicative of this trend. Its simple ribbon trim tunes it to wear with the daytime tailleur.

Transparent brims are important millinery news. Huge capelines sheer as can be add an exquisite touch to the summer picture. Illustrated at the top, to the right, is a charming transparent brim. The bouquet of flowers together with a simple ribbon band trim this chapeau effectively.

Comes next, below to the right, a coolie beach hat. It has a cunning buckle fastening under the chin. Not only beach hats reflect the Chinese influence, for many of the smartest dress models carry pointed crowns which are so shallow they almost glide right into their large drooping-all-around brims in true coolie fashion.

Last in the picture is an immense cartwheel which is strictly tailored. Of course the new exceedingly shallow crowns, posed at so perilous an angle as most of them are, would never in the world stay on themselves and so here is a final message—old-style, now new style, elastic or hatpins!

© by Western Newspaper Union.

SHEER RAYON DOT

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Rayon has won its way to the top. Upon it leading designers have set their seal of approval. Dotted sheers in self color is the last word in summer materials. Raised rayon dots on a mousseline de rayon background describes the handsome all-black fabric which fashions the gown illustrated. This model is making a very prideful showing in the collection of man-made materials which the Fashion Group of America have been exhibiting in New York. They are smart for dinner and evening gowns but the big news concerning them is that the swankiest of daytime jacket suits and ensembles are being made of them, a tailleur of net being the newest of the new.

PASTEL WOOL NOW POPULAR FAVORITE

Every season sees some new fashion development which springs up mushroom fashion, overnight. This year it is short, loose or belted swagger coats of white or pastel wool over town frocks of plain or printed crepe.

These coats are sold separately. They are quite inexpensive. And they give a decidedly fresh and summery air to a dark ensemble. They may take the place of the black or navy redingote with which you started out the spring season.

String color is very smart with black or navy. Other popular shades are a deep dusty yellow, linen blue, and a soft leaf green. In many instances the color of the coat is accented in the print of the frock, or in some detail of belt, scarf or other trimming.

Evening Tailleurs Seen in Various Novel Fabrics

New evening tailleurs, combining a tailored jacket and instep-length skirt ready for restaurant dining, are fashioned of novel fabrics along striking lines. One suit of silver lame with a trim tailored jacket is finished with a black satin blouse and a facing of the same sable fabric inside the skirt hem. Black faille or taffeta suits cut on the same lines appear with either long-sleeved or sleeveless blouses of white organdie or flame red crepe.

Refreshing Colors Now Feature Newest Fashions

Colors this season are amazingly refreshing. There's a "Flagship" blue with all of the light in it of a sky from a sailing vessel. Russet is swapped from fall shades for spring and competes with the new clay some people object to.

Pale blue with a lavender tinge is lovely in knitted wear and for evening, with deeper blue trim. And brown comes in more different tinges than ever before.

Back Fullness

Black fullness in evening dresses continues to be their most noteworthy feature. It is achieved by ruffles, cascades of flounces, bustles and other devices.

Hatch Pheasant Chicks by Artificial Methods

The state of Pennsylvania, which probably turns out more pheasants than any other state, discarded its hen-hatching system last spring and made a complete change over to artificial hatching and rearing, with the result that out of 27,263 eggs set 20,164 chicks were hatched and 16,660 pheasants were raised. Chicks are hatched in electrically heated machines at 103 degrees and after hatching are kept in the incubator hatcher compartment at 100 degrees for 24 hours.

They are then transferred to the brooder house under hover at 98 degrees. The second week they are given access to a sun porch. The third week they are given access to a ground runway and the hover temperature is reduced gradually until by the fifth week the artificial heat is turned off completely. The sixth and seventh week the chicks are transferred to a holding field and are released during the eighth to the tenth weeks.

"Tums" Builds a Home

St. Louis, Mo.—The palatial new building being erected by A. H. Lewis Medicine Co., is a fitting exemplification of the enthusiastic sentiment of millions of users of Tums.

It will present a striking appearance in its contrast of blue-black terra cotta base with mottled cream above the second floor and glittering gold finish on high vertical mullions. Upper windows, fifty feet high, will have gold effect strips between them and furnish abundant light, while lower portion will have etched windows and stainless steel decorations.

The building, machinery and equipment will cost between $100,000 and $150,000 and is to be used exclusively for the manufacture of Tums.—Adv.

Hope to Learn Old Secret

To study four columns which have stood for 2,000 years without showing a sign of decay or dust, a body of European steel manufacturers are visiting India. They hope to learn how people of those days produced stainless steel. The columns were erected by Asoka, the great Buddhist emperor, in four districts of his Indian empire. Each stands on a high rock and is inscribed with the laws of Asoka's reign. Through the centuries earthquakes have not shaken them and storms have not rusted them. The secret of their making is believed to rest with descendants of the makers, and the steel manufacturers hope to learn this.

AIRPLANE STATISTICS

The United States leads the world in the number of private airplanes. Last year there were more than 1,200 machines in the country. France had 1,387, but this included many used for instruction and owned by clubs. France has the largest number of commercial planes, according to population, one to every 100,000 inhabitants. The United States has one for 500,000, Italy one for every 400,000, and Germany one for every 150,000.

THE EASY WAY TO IRON!

KEEP COOL
SAVE TIME
SAVE WORK
SAVE MONEY
with the

Coleman Ironing Iron

THIS Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100.00 washing machine! It will save your strength . . . help you do better ironing easier and quicker at less cost.

Instant Lighting . . . no heating with matches or torch . . . no waiting. The evenly-heated double pointed base irons garments with fewer strokes. Large glass-smooth base slides easier. Ironing time is reduced one-third. Heats itself . . . use it anywhere. Economical, too . . . costs only ½¢ an hour to operate. See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP AND STOVE CO.
Dept. W-36, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Toronto, Ontario, Canada (4866)

Happiness Recipe

To be happy the average man must have a full stomach and a full gasoline tank.

Cuticura Soap

A scientific soap that solves skin problems

If you are troubled with pimples, rashes, rough or blotchy skin you owe it to yourself to try Cuticura Soap. Delicately medicated and gently emollient, it acts as a protection to the skin and as a preventive of skin troubles. Start using Cuticura Soap now and see how much it helps.

Write for special folder on the care of the skin

Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 16S, Malden, Mass.

Ask for Folder Describing 100 Farms for sale. GEORGIA LAND CO., 316-318 Arcade Bldg., Atlanta, Georgia.

AGENTS! Dollar bill brings four, year-round repeaters. Sells on sight. Big profits. Write Sales Promotion and Advertising Co., 119 Third Ave., San Francisco, Calif.

SELL YOUR OWN INVENTION
I tell you how and furnish 4 leading mfrs. in your line for $1.00. La Rochelle, 1511 2nd Ave. S., Minneapolis, Minn.

OLD AGE PENSION INFORMATION
Send stamp
JUDGE LEHMAN - - Humboldt, Kan.

KILL ALL FLIES

Placed anywhere, Daisy Fly Killer attracts and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective. Neat, convenient—Cannot spill—Will not soil or injure anything. Lasts all season. 25c at all Dealers. Harold Somers, Inc., 150 De Kalb Ave., B'klyn, N.Y.

DAISY FLY KILLER

Have Their Place

Those who try to be ornamental if not useful get along pretty well if they are amiable.

Don't give up!

I DO NOT want to give up . . . but why do I tire so easily . . . why can't I 'carry on' . . . and how is it that I do not feel like myself?"

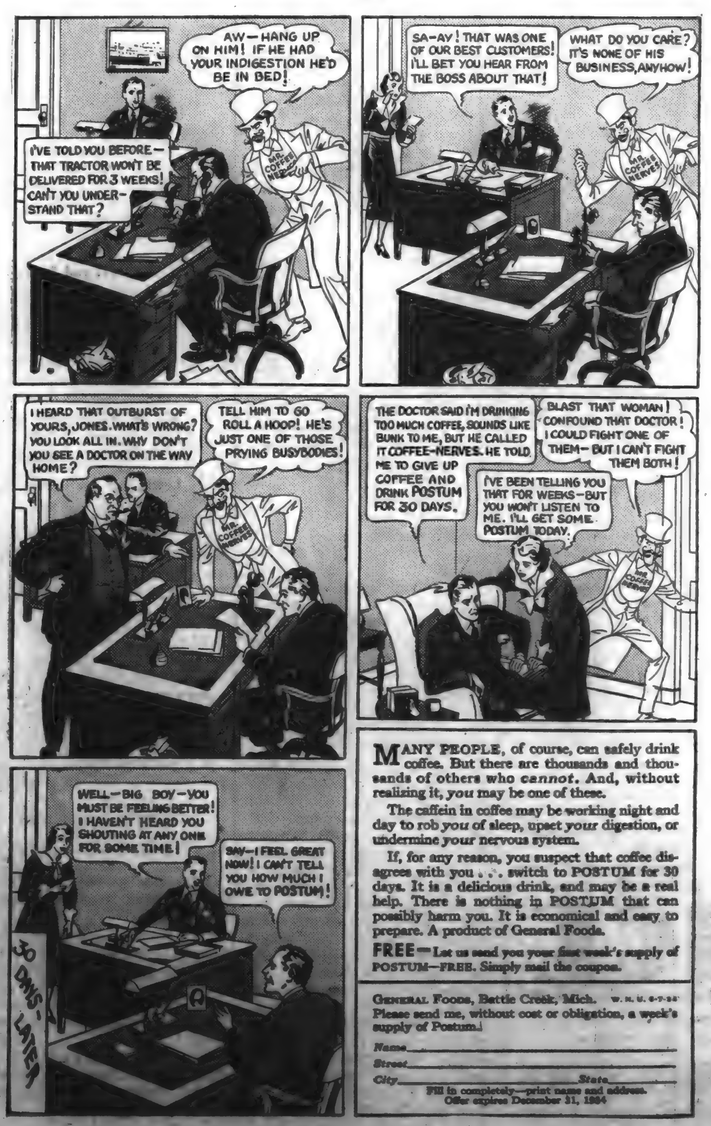
It may be that as the result of colds . . . indoor or over work . . . worry and the like . . . the strength of your blood has been weakened—that is, the red-blood-cells and hemo-glo-bin reduced . . . and Spring finds you with that "worn-out" and "let-down-feeling."

For such cases try that time-tested tonic S.S.S.—not just a so-called tonic, but a tonic specially designed to restore body strength by its action on the blood.

S.S.S. value has been proven by generations of use, as well as by modern scientific appraisal. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon notice a pick-up in your appetite . . . your color and skin should improve with increased strength and energy. © The S.S.S. Co.

In the Springtime—take S.S.S. Tonic. At all drug stores.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES . . . gets cut off!



MANY PEOPLE, of course, can safely drink coffee. But there are thousands and thousands of others who cannot. And, without realizing it, you may be one of these.

The caffein in coffee may be working night and day to rob you of sleep, upset your digestion, or undermine your nervous system.

If, for any reason, you suspect that coffee disagrees with you . . . switch to POSTUM for 30 days. It is a delicious drink, and may be a real help. There is nothing in POSTUM that can possibly harm you. It is economical and easy to prepare. A product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE. Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U. 6-7-34
Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name _____
Street _____
City _____ State _____

Fill in completely—print name and address.
Offer expires December 31, 1934

JUNE

L 919

0303

FOR SALE!

OR TRADE COLUMN

For Sale: Two horse power gasoline engine. Cheap for cash. 22t1. J. R. Leighty.

For Breeding purposes, a fine Guernsey Bull. Clint Lucas, St. Joe. 20t2p.

For Sale: Rural New York potatoes for seed or eating. 22t2p. Elmer Inlow.

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 21t5

For Sale: Some nice Beef Steak Tomato plants. Howard Shilling. 21t2.

For Sale: All kinds of Vegetable Plants. Dorothea Scholes Kessler. 22t1p.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

SPENCERVILLE

Helen Garman spent Memorial Day with Dorothy Markle.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Markle were Sunday dinner guests at the Zetta Wertman home.

Mrs. Charles Chapman and Miss Ethelyn Baker were shopping in Fort Wayne Monday.

Mr. Walter Kimes, of Detroit, was a week-end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and dughter, Delores, of St. Joe, were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Hazel Steward.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown and daughter spent Memorial Day with Rev. Brown's parents at Anderson, Indiana.

Bowser & Reed held an opening of their new grocery department, Saturday. Tumblers were given as souvenirs and ice cold lemonade was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jannay, of Lansing, Michigan, were week-end guests at the Rev. Brown home. Miss Jackie Brown returned home with them for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Rhoads of Ft. Wayne, spent Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Arline Rroads. Mr. Rhoads is improving nicely from his recent appendix operation and will soon be able to resume his work.

W. J. Baker has purchased a new grocery truck. The equipment is much better than his former truck, this one having a refrigerator which enables him to carry fresh meats and soft drinks, and while working will also be able to enjoy radio service.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Bowser and children, of St. Joe, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitacre and daughter, Jas. Reed and wife, and R. U. Bowser and wife attended the Bowser bifthday dinner given on Sunday at the Gale Bowser home. Those whose birthdays occurred during the last few days were C. L. Whitacre, April Bowser, Mrs. James Reed and Gale Bowser.

The Birthday Dinner Club was most pleasantly entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Markle and family with a basket dinner at the noon hour. Guests enjoying the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Walter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Manniwish and daughters, Joan and Doris Jean, of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tresh, Mrs. Gladys Tresh, Mrs. Frank Steward and children, Margaret and Walter Franklin and Miss Vera Silberg, all of Garrett; Dr. and Mrs. B. O. Shook and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Walter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and son, Robert, Mrs. Cora Steward and daughter, Arminta, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steward and children, Mrs. Lilla Shull, Miss Loretta Funk, Mrs. George Kimes and Miss Helen Garman.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

It's a mighty hard job to find soft snaps.

The new Timmerman baby has been named Patricia Mae.

Mrs. Paul Dean is recovering from an attack of tonsilitis.

Methodist Sunday School attendance June 3 was 76, collection, $2.38.

Guy Platter and daughters were Sunday dinner guests at the Wm. Reed home.

Mrs. Golden High spent several days last week with her husband at Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Laura Baltz and grandson are visiting with Mrs. Fred High for a few weeks.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner.

The Young Ladies Social Club will meet with Pauline Baumgartner Friday evening

Mrs. Cal Laux received word last week of the death of her sister at Fort Wayne.

Rev. Brown is attending the M. E. Conference which is being held in Elkhart this week.

Eleanor, Eula and Phyllis Chaney were Saturday afternoon guests of Miss Evelyn Shook.

Junior McNabb was a week-end guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb, and family.

Mrs. Frank Baltz and daughter, Erma, of Auburn, were Monday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer.

Mrs. Emila Gloyd is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Anson Dunton, and family of near Huntertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown and daughter, Jackie, were Friday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meek.

John McNabb and son, Kenneth and Junior Chaney, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswalt at Fort Wayne.

Wilbur Perry, wife and daughter, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, spent several days with his sister, Mrs. Berneice Baker, and family.

C. L. Whitacre and family spent several days with his sister, Mrs. Pearl Bichel and family and other relatives near Portland, Indiana.

Mrs. Fabianske and son, John Paul, were brought home Saturday from the Amaden Hospital at Hicksville. Mother and son are doing fine.

Rev. Howard Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson and children enjoyed a Sunday School picnic with the young married people's class on Friday.

The 23rd annual reunion of the Friend family will be held on Sunday, Jue 24 in the pavilion at Eckhart Park, Auburn. Basket dinner at the noon hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall and family, of Kokomo, Indiana, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Allen. The little daughter, Corine, remained for another week's visit.

The Cheerful Workers class of the Methodist Church began last week to make a quilt. The ladies will write names on the quilt. The money is to be applied on the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rhoades celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary and the birthday of their daughter, Miss Doris at their home north of town Sunday, by entertaining the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Lime Cooley and son Donald, Mrs. Shunn and Mr. Rollie Genth, all of Fort Wayne.

The C. C. Club was entertained last Thursday with a Memorial Day program at the home of Mrs. Pauline Baumgartner. Songs appropriate for the occasion were enjoyed. "When the 30th day of May was first made Memorial Day" was given by Kathryn Dean; "Flanders Field," by Mrs. Jennie Walter; "Pledge to the Flag" by Mrs. Ethel Bowser. The club will meet on next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Golden High.

An all day meeting of the Home Missionary Society was held Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and family. Pot luck dinner was enjoyed and an election of officers held with following result: Pres., Mrs. Golden High; vice president, Mrs. Helen Brown; recording secretary, Mrs. Edna Wyans; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Ethel Bowser; secretaries: spiritual life, Mrs. Louie Beam; christian citizenship, Mrs. Sudie Howey; young people, Mrs. Helen Brown; junior, Mrs. Frances Chapman; missionary education, Rev. Brown; supply, Mrs. Golden High; program committee, Mrs. Cora Steward, Mrs. Erma Howey, Miss Vera Reed and Mrs. Della Culbertson.

NEWVILLE

The little son of Rev. and Mrs. Moore has the chicken pox.

Floyd Taylor and son were home over Sunday from Antwerp.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Casebere are here from Texas visiting relatives.

Mrs. Lucille Traxler and children spent Saturday afternoon in St. Joe.

U. B. Quarterly Meeting was held at Union Chapel Monday evening.

D. D. Loomis and family of Butler were Sunday guests of Olen Loomis.

The Missionary Society met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Sada Washler.

The excessive heat and drought did a great amount of damage to growing crops in this locality.

Mrs. Lizzie Benninghoff has been under the care of a physician for some time, having heart trouble.

A daughter born recently to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Benner has been named Dixie May. This is their fourth child.

Byron Miller from Fort Wayne and Elsie Mendenhall, of Fremont visited relatives and friends here over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler visited the peony gardens west of Kendallville Sunday afternoon and also called on Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Thomas in Garrett.

Some of those from a distance who attended the Memorial services here were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keesbury, Catherine Mahoney, of Fort Wayne, C. C. Andrews and Albert Winter from Detroit, Mrs. Delbert Wyatt and family from Angola and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hull from Garrett.

Coburn's Corners

The R. H. C. met with Eleanor Crothers Tuesday afternoon.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for June 3 was 108, collection, $3.94.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilder spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder.

Mrs. Nellie Perry is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Cordelia Wade of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Uncle Joe Shull had as his dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Shull and children and grandchildren.

Glen Hart and family, of Goshen, spent a few days the past week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart.

Mrs. Pearl White, of Ft. Wayne, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Thomas, spent Thursday with Jay Hart and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Perry are planning on attending the North Side High School commencement at Fort Wayne this week. Their two grandsons, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herrick, are among the graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Scholes and son, Bobby, of Fort Wayne, visited over the week-end with Rev. J. N. Scholes and wife. Miss Gertrude Lewis has arrived to spend several weeks of her vacation in the Scholes home.

The Children's Day program entitled "Flowers of God's Kingdom" given Sunday evening to a full house, was well rendered and the decoratios were beautiful. The Mesdames Harriett Coburn, Emily Hallabaugh and Milden Curie should be highly commended. On Monday afternoon at the church a party was given for the children in compliments of the splendid way they took interest in their parts on the program.

CONCORD

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo attended the funeral of Mrs. Baily at Rehobeth.

Carl Johnson and family spent Sunday in the home of his mother, Mrs. George Johnson and family.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Ira Bone was called to Auburn Sunday evening on account of the illness of her sister, who had a bad spell.

Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson enjoyed the Children's exercises here Sunday evening. They spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Ford Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morr, son, Robert and daughter, Cleota, Miss Freida Wyatt, of Auburn, and Mr. Raymond Crick, of Fort Wayne, spent last Sunday with Henry Bartles and family at Goshen.

WITTENBERG BROTHERHOOD LATEST NEWS

The Brotherhood has grown with leaps and bounds in the last few months. There were 280 men at the Angola meeting, almost 50 new members were received. The next meeting will be in the Pleasant Lake U. B. Church on Wednesday eve 7:30, C. S. T., June 13th. It is expected that there will be 300 men in attendance.

Mr Arthur Sapp, one time candidate for state Governor, will be the speaker. He did not make the race however because of the low moral standards of his party at that time. This gives an index to the type of man that he is. He will speak on, "The Peace of the World." It will be well worth your time to hear him.

Mr. I. S. Kline, a former singing evangelist, has charge of the congregational singing. Rev. Basil Holt of the Angola Christian Church will lead the devotions. Mr. Walfred Lindstrom, formerly of Tri-State college is to be the Toast Master. An orchestra will furnish the music. A male quartette will give a few numbers. Mr. N. E. Yoder of the Auburn Lutheran Church has been asked to bring his Male Chorus. So a fine evening is assured. All men who would like to see the triumph of Right are invited to this gathering.

Local Briefs

Two splendid showers arrived this week.

The less a man knows the longer it takes him to tell it.

Calvin Hull spent Monday and Tuesday with Billy Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Baker, of Bluffton, visited in this community over Sunday.

Miss Vera Croxton, of Columbia City, is here the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hart.

Preparation for war is a constant stimulus to suspicion and ill will.—James Monroe.

F. G. Gauntt, manager of the St. Joe Flour Mill, has returned from New York and Boston.

Miss Inez Kinsey and Mr. B. C. Gerardot spent Sunday in the "Nick" Ridlen home in Auburn.

Ermin Haifley and family were Sunday guests in the Simon Nicholls home. Jay Ricketts and family and Harvey Hull's were afternoon callers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kinsey and granddaughter, Bobby Mohney, spent Sunday in the home of their son, W. E. Kinsey, at Jackson, Michigan.

Bruce Koch, accompanied by a boy friend from near Bluffton, spent over Saturday night and Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Koch.

Mrs. Anna Brown and children, of Elkhart are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hart, a few days this week, while Mr. Brown is working in Butler.

Harvey Hull and wife called on Rev. and Mrs. Fabianske and the new preacher, little John Fabianske, Monday evening, at the parsonage. All are feeling fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Klopfenstein of Grabill and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beams and daughter, Doris, of Spencerville, were Sunday evening guests in the Chas. Koch home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bronis were over week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hallabaugh. Mr. and Mrs. Bronis have just returned from an eight thousand mile trip through the East.

The 4-H Club met at the home of Christina Zonker, June 4, at 2 P. M. The meeting was called to order by the president. Four visitors were present, Gloria Jane and Marilyn Zonker, Murial Brown of Elkhart, Ind., and Candace May Loftus. The next meeting to be at the home of Jean Ridgway. Refreshment committee, Marcella Wiers, Marcia Wade and Stella Hart; entertainment committee, Eloise Coburn and Jean Ridgway. Sixteen responded to roll call by naming their favorite flower. Meeting then adjoured and the hostess served sandwiches and lemonade.

Lutheran Sunday School attendance 95, collection $3.86.

Miss Inez Kinsey attended the fair at Chicago, last week.

Lightning killed a fine sow for George Simanton Monday evening.

Lightning struck a tree in front of the George Wilmot home, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wineland, Mrs. J. R. Shilling and Mrs. Lela Northrup spent Tuesday in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Madelene Lemmon, daughter, Coyene, and son, Gahard Arthur, are spending a couple of weeks in the Rob Nicholls home.

Editors from north-eastern Indiana were entertained at Waterloo, Friday night, with The Press as host. A large number attended with their wives.

Your Kodak films can be purchased at News office and you can also leave your order for prints here. Our customers are pleased and a trial will convince you

Frank Brandon had an auto accident Saturday night, when he was run into by a Mr. Renecker on Road 8. The cars were damaged considerable but no one was hurt. Mr. Renecker became confused with the lights.

Russell Borthwick arrived home Sunday noon for a 30 days' vacation. His ship, U. S. Tennessee is docked at New York. There are 110 ships in the fleet reviewed by the President on Memorial Day. Russell went on to Chicago, where his mother is spending a couple weeks.

Mrs. Parlia Hull was very pleasantly surprised on her birthday last week. Those present were: Paul Carpenter and wife, Carl Carpenter and family, Lewis Wasson and family, George Wade and family and Paul Martin and wife. Home-made ice cream and cake were served.

Confirmation Sunday was impressively observed at the Lutheran Church Sunday morning, when a class of six young people were confirmed into the church. This was the first real confirmation class the local church has had in many years, and both the young people and Rev. Fabianske are to be congratulated.

A new project to be carried out in DeKalb county under the Governor's Commission for Unemployment Relief started Friday morning. It is project No. 17 E-5-19 and consists of air marking in Auburn, Garrett, Butler, Waterloo and St. Joe. These markers will have the name of the city or town where there is an air port placed on them, with a circle and arrow indicating the direction of the landing field. The color of the markers will be international orange over an aluminum and varnished base and will be placed at the best centrally located place in each city or town. The one at Garrett will be placed on top of the hotel and in Auburn on the roof of the Rieke Metal Products Corp. factory.

The home of Mrs. Belle Barney is being painted by George Kinsey.

Mr. and Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey and Earl Kinsey, were at Garrett Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Kinsey and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Derrow and family, of Auburn, spent several days of last week with the former's daughter, Mrs. Chas. Waterbeck, and family at Willard, Ohio.

Mrs. H. S. Bowman, of Chicago, was in town last Thursday for a short time, calling on friends. She was returning to Chicago Saturday, after spending two weeks at Fort Wayne with her daughters.

Miss Ethel Smith, of Auburn Junction, is here careing for her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Dilley. Mrs. Mary Kinsey, who has been with Mrs. Dilley, has gone to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ida Derrow at Auburn.

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
JUNE 10-11-12
"THE HOUSE OF ROTHCHILD"

George Arliss. He broke the sword of Napoleon with a stroke of his pen.

Also "Funnie Little Bunnies" a Walt Disney latest comedy hit in color.

Wednesday, Thursday
JUNE 13-14
"MEN IN WHITE"

Clark Gable, Myrna Loy. This is a very good picture winning the Pultzer Prize. Also cartoon and comedy.

Sunday shows start at 4:30, on week-days at 7:30.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PHONE 290

Stanley P. Nelson Monuments

Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries

AUBURN, IND.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

JUNE

L 919

0304

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1934 NUMBER 23

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago— M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Sept. 27, 1884

The republicans had a big blow out at Orangeville on Friday evening of last week. Clubs were present from St. Joe, Spencerville, Newville and Presler's, and they raised a pole in front of Harter's residence in about three jerks of a dead lamb's tail. The clubs then formed into a line about as straight as an ordinary rail fence and headed by a band of music marched to the residence of Harlow Gee, where seats and a speakers stand had been arranged. The exercises were opened with a song by Presler's Glee Club and, as the last strains of the first verse were dying away, there came a crash as if another earthquake had occured and when the smoke had cleared away it was found that the platform upon which the singers were standing had been made out of democratic planks, and they were rotten, consequently they gave way and the glee club came down. So with true republican grit, however they soon recovered from their fright, and stepping out on solid ground, finishing their song. After listening to short speeches by T. D. Meese, John Provines and others, the meeting adjourned by giving three cheers for Blaine & Logan.

Jud Gee said he built that platform.

Spencerville turned out two 4-horse wagon loads.

The business houses of Orangeville were all closed.

The pole was a beauty and stood about 100 feet above ground.

O. S. Blood was called for but said he never made speeches.

Wm. Simanton was present and seemed to enjoy the meeting.

Somebody stole 6 cans of cherries out of Wm. Leighty's cellar the other night.

J. H. Conrad can make anything from a tin whistle to a sheet iron monkey. For further particulars see the Plumed Knight.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET CHOSEN TUESDAY

Following is the complete Democratic state slate for the November election which was chosen in convention at Indianapolis, Tuesday:

Senator—Sherman Minton of New Albany.

Secretary of State — August Mueller of Indianapolis.

Auditor of State—Lawrence Sullivan of Princeton.

Treasurer of State—Peter Hein of Crown Point.

Judge of State Supreme Court —George L. Tremain of Greensburg.

Judges of State Appellate Court —Alfonso C. Wood of Angola and Harvey J. Curtis of Gary, for the northern division, and Posey T. Kime of Evansville and William H. Bridewell of Sullivan for the southern division.

Clerk of State Supreme and Appellate Courts—Paul Stump of Crawfordsville.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Floyd McMurray of Lebanon.

New Fair Throngs Storm Street of Villages

Shown here is part of the record-breaking opening day crowd at the new World's Fair in Chicago. The Street of Villages, offering a "tour of the world" in a single day, was the principal attraction for the sightseers, who were surprised to find the Exposition complete for the opening day, May 26.

M. E. PASTORS MAKE MANY CHANGES

As a result of the M. E. Conference held last week at Elkhart, a number of changes in pastors were reported Sunday by the stationing committee, and those of local interest are as follows:

Rev. Howard Brown, Spencerville, goes to Forrest Park, Fort Wayne.

Rev. J. S Newcombe, Fort Wayne to Spencerville.

Rev. E. J. Wickersham, Auburn to Portland.

Rev. Manford Wright, Kendallville to Auburn.

Rev. B. H. Franklin, Garrett.

Rev. C. H. Jennings, Waterloo.

Rev. W. H. Moler, Butler.

Rev. W. M. Hollepeter, Auburn Circuit.

The services next Sunday begin the new year.

CONCORD AID GOES TO BEBER HOME

The Concord Ladies' Aid Society was very pleasantly entertained Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs Earl Beber south of Garrett.

At the noon hour forty members and guests enjoyed a bounteous potluck dinner which was made more complete with the serving of creamed chicken, mashed potatoes and hot coffee by the hostess.

The afternoon meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Neva Johnson. Song services were led by the chorister, Mrs. Mary Krise, accompanied by Mrs. Thelma Baker at the piano. Prayers by various members were then given.

The lesson, "How May Our Meetings be Made More Helpful to Us" was given by the leader, Miss Cleota Morr, after which a round table discussion was held. The outstanding facts given to make the meetings more helpful were as follows: effort, inspiration, faithfulness, enthusiasm and cooperation.

Several musical numbers and readings were then enjoyed by all, the secretary's report was read by Mrs. Marie Draggoo and eighteen members responded to roll call.

After the singing of the closing song, the meeting adjourned and a social time was spent until late in the afternoon when all departed for their respective homes.

DIPHTHERIA-SCARLET FEVER FATALITY

Richard Paul Kain, aged 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Kain, 2432 Maumee Avenue, Fort Wayne, died of a complication of diphtheria and scarlet fever at 4:45 A. M. Tuesday at the residence after an illness of two weeks. The child had nearly recovered from scarlet fever when he became ill with diphtheria.

The boy was in the first grade of the McCulloch School. Surviving, besides the parents, are a sister, Ruth Helen, at home; the grandparents, Mr. J. S. Kain and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Yeiser, all of Newville township, and a great grandmother, Mrs Nora Yeiser, of Avilla.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence with the Rev. E. E. Trippeer officiating. Burial was made at Newville. Friends of the family heard the funeral services from outside the house through a public address system. The body was viewed through a window after 5 P. M. Tuesday.

PRE-SCHOOL CHILD HEALTH CLINIC

Thursday morn from nine o'clock until twelve, inspection of pre-school pupils was made by Catherine E. Eoll, Red Cross Nurse of DeKalb county, assisted by Lucile Elam, visiting health nurse, at the Lutheran Church.

Each pupil, weighed, measured and diseases checked and recorded giving county officials; history and health charts, a complete record. There were ten children out of sixteen examined. Many need to drink more milk, and rest, also medical care.

Mrs. Pluma Hamilton, chairman of the Red Cross, was assisted by committee, Violet May, Margaret Hamilton and Josephine Kees.

Many parents were present. Two of the group had been immunized. The committee wishes to thank those who kindly loaned scales, etc. Let's turn our minds on Young America and help each little child to over come the physical defects, disease and bring them up, finer and better children for we do our part.

LOCAL GIRL GRADUATES FROM I. U.

Monday, June 11th at twilight, marked the 105th commencement of Indiana University which was held in Meorial Stadium in Bloomington. Degrees were conferred on nearly one thousand students. Among those receiving diplomas from the hand of Dr. Bryan, president of Indiana University, was Virginia Lee Ginther, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ginther of Spencer township. She received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from the school of arts and sciences having as her majors, English and Social Sciences, and is licensed to teach these subjects in the public high schools of Indiana.

The commencement address was given by Professor Frank A. Fetter of Princeton Univgersity. The Baccalaureate address on Sunday afternoon was held in Alumni Hall and was delivered by Rev. Dr Matthew T. McClure of the University of Illinois. Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ginther attended the commencement activities.

A son, Jack Arlyn, was born on Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Woodcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keesler called at the home of their son, Henry Keesler, and family Sunday afternoon at Auburn.

Electricity has been wired into the Hollis Dilley country home, during the past week, and they are just now able to rightly enjoy their fine home.

SOCIAL AT CONCORD

Ice cream social at Concord, Friday evening, June 15, serving cake, chicken sandwiches, pie and coffee. Each article 5c. You will be welcome. 22t2.

WITH OUR CLUB LADIES

HOME BUREAU

Friday, June 8, was a day long to be remembered by the ladies of the Home Bureau. Arriving at 9 o'clock at the beautiful home of Mrs. Robert Nicholls, ladies were welcomed and then found their places at the small tables arranged in the spacious rooms. Covers were laid for four at each table and the decorations were small china baskets filled with various colored roses.

Mrs. Nicholls, aided by her committee, then served the breakfast consisting of strawberries and cream, ginger-whip cake, sandwiches and coffee.

The remainder of the morning was spent in chatting and taking pictures. If you are interested in how to make your photos more attractive, inquire of Mrs. Hallabaugh and Mrs. Krise.

At the noon hour each lady found her dinner pail and enjoyed her lunch on the large porch in kid fashion. Then came the fun of going to the river to fish and some found their ability to descend steep banks not so easy. Just ask Cora Fetters about that. Fish not biting so good some decided to go wading, if interested in the latest bathing suits and ideal beach attire Mrs. Cora Curie will be glad to inform you.

After deciding the end of a perfect day had been spent we returned to the house and were soon on our way home. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Nicholls and in return she asked that this might be an annual affair. Thaks again Mrs Nicholls and committee.

One who was there.

VEGET'BLE PLANTS
the largest and finest varieties in the COUNTY, AT
TEN EYKE'S Greenhouse
AUBURN, INDIANA

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Over 675 people scattered throughout the territory we serve receive their pay from Indiana & Michigan Electric Company.

This Company has an annual payroll of $1,042,300.00 a year. This is only a part of the earnings spent locally. Other large items are expended for materials, supplies, taxes and preferred stock dividends.

These employees of Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, many of them your friends and neighbors, spend their money right here at home. Their wages go toward buying and renting homes, the purchase of household goods, food and clothing.

They are your servants who receive their wages from you. Living here, most of their pay is returned to the community for subsistence.

H. T. Eyster
Vice President & General Manager

OUR EMPLOYEES SPEND THEIR PAY AT HOME

ANNUALLY THE EMPLOYEES OF THIS COMPANY RECEIVE A PAYROLL OF $1,042,300.00.

PUBLIC SALE!

of Household Goods, Rugs and Carpets at the late residence of Mrs Rebecca Beams on North Main street, Spencerville, at 1:30, on

SATURDAY, JUNE 16, 1934

Consisting of the following: Dining table and Chairs, Sideboard, Rockers, Beds, Springs and Mattress, Bedding, Comfortables, Two Heating Stoves-coal and wood, Range, Wilson Heater, Perfection Oil Stove, Bed Room Suit, Bookcase, Sewing Machine, Library Table, Kitchen Cabinet, Kitchen Table, Window Curtains, Dishes, and many useful articles not mentioned.

F. L. and George Beams

Terms, CASH. Art McNamara, Auct.

JUNE

L 919

U 305

PATTERN SUITED TO FROCKS OF VARIOUS TYPES AND FABRICS

PATTERN 1782

You'll soon be needing one of these completely new morning dresses, as warm days are well on the way. The design of this little frock is so adaptable to ideas of your own, you can use the same pattern to make several different dresses. Make it all of a printed wash silk or of solid-colored pale blue, green or rose cotton fabric. Or you can make the wing-like sleeve effect of a harmonizing or contrasting material—and you'll have still another new and very exciting dress. Really as lovely for afternoons as for mornings, and expresses gaiety in no small way!

Pattern 1782 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 16 takes 3¼ yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth street, New York City.

Smiles

WOW!

Hub—Where's that new dress you bought? I haven't seen you wearing it yet.

Wife—Huh! I saw our neighbor, Mrs. DeSnob, wearing one just like it, so I gave it to the next door laundress and made her wear it while hanging up the clothes so the snooty thing could see her with it on.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

One Out

"I've just been having a tussle with the dentist."

"Which beat?"

"It ended in a draw."

A Dreamer

"What is a debtor, pa?"

"A man who owes money."

"And what is a creditor?"

"The man who thinks he's going to get it."—Boston Transcript.

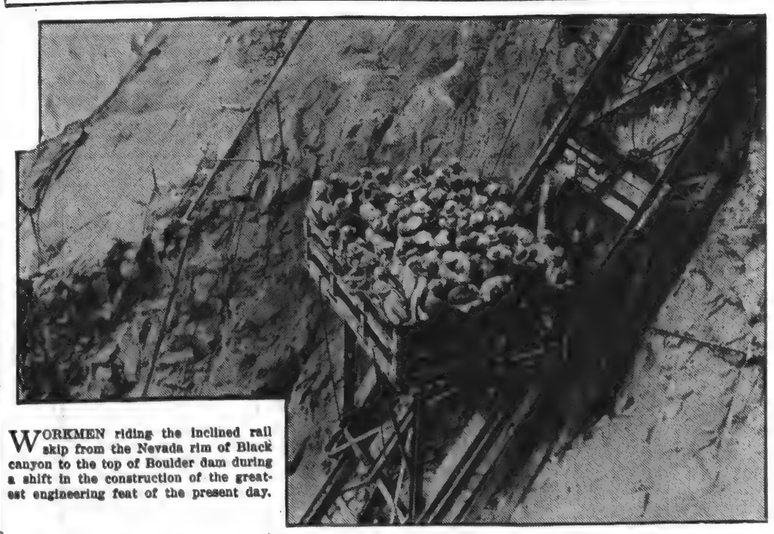
The Brute

Mrs. Knagg—My heart is broken. My darling little Fido is no more.

Mr. Knagg—That's good. Hitherto the pup has been altogether too much.—Brooklyn Eagle.

WRIGLEY'S GUM

How They Go to Their Work at Boulder Dam



WORKMEN riding the inclined rail skip from the Nevada rim of Black canyon to the top of Boulder dam during a shift in the construction of the greatest engineering feat of the present day.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

PETER LEARNS MORE ABOUT THE VIREOS

"SPEAKING of the Vireos, Redeye seems to be the only member of his family around here," remarked Peter.

"Listen!" commanded Jenny Wren. "Listen! Don't you hear that warbling song way over there in the Big Elm in front of Farmer Brown's house where Goldy the Oriole has his nest?"

Peter listened. At first he didn't hear it, and as usual Jenny Wren made fun of him for having such big ears and not being able to make better use of them. Presently he did hear that song. The voice was not unlike that of Redeye, but the song was smoother, more continuous and sweeter. Peter's face lighted up. "I hear him," he cried.

"That's Redeye's cousin, the Warbling Vireo," said Jenny. "He's a better singer than Redeye, and just as

"That's Redeye's Cousin, the Warbling Vireo," Said Jenny.

fond of hearing his own voice. He sings from the time jolly Mr. Sun gets up in the morning until he goes to bed at night. He sings when it is so hot that the rest of us are glad to keep still for comfort's sake. I don't know of anybody more fond of the treetops than he is. He doesn't seem to care anything about the Old Orchard, but stays over in those big trees along the road. Over in that Big Elm he's got a nest as high up as Goldy the Oriole's. I haven't seen it myself, but Goldy told me about it. Why anyone so small should want to live so high up in the world I don't know, any more than I know why anyone wants to live anywhere but in the Old Orchard."

"Somehow, I don't remember just what Warbler looks like," Peter confessed.

"He looks a lot like his cousin Redeye," replied Jenny. "His coat is a duller olive-green, and underneath he is a little yellowish instead of being white. Of course he doesn't have red eyes, and he is a little smaller than Redeye. The whole family looks pretty much alike anyway."

"You said something then, Jenny Wren," declared Peter. "They get me all mixed up. If only some of them had some bright colors it would be easier to tell them apart."

"One has," replied Jenny. "He has a bright yellow throat and breast and is called Yellow-Throated Vireo. There isn't the least chance of mistaking him."

"Is he a singer, too?" asked Peter.

"Of course," replied Jenny. "Every one of that blessed family loves the sound of his own voice. It's a family trait. A good thing is good, but more than enough of a good thing is too much. That applies to gossiping just as much as to singing, and I've wasted more time on you than I've any business to. Now hop along, Peter, and don't bother me any more today."

Peter hopped.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX
By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a boy sixteen years old and I have an ambition. I want to do something startling. Something that is bound to cause a commotion. What do you suggest?

Truly yours,
I. DEALIST.

Answer—Something that will startle people? Very simple. Go to a ballroom during a dance on a hot summer's night and throw about ten eggs in the electric fans.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

A friend of mine said that he knew a man that was in the hospital having splinters taken out of his tongue. Could that be true? If so, how do you account for splinters in a man's tongue?

Truly yours,
ANG. TIOUS.

Answer—That is probably true. It most likely happened this way: The man was very stingy. He had just paid for a drink and it split on the floor. See what I mean?

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Do you think it is right for men to work on Sunday, thereby breaking the Sabbath?

Truly yours,
E. VANGELIST.

Answer—I do in some cases. For instance, if it's a question which one is "broke," the man or the Sabbath, I say the Sabbath.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

What is meant by "A Man of Promise?"

Yours truly,
SID. KNEE.

Answer—A man of PROMISE is a chap who borrows money and never pays it back.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a boy eight years old. We have just started physiology in school. Tomorrow I must tell the teacher all about "The Five Senses." Please tell me what are the five senses?

Yours truly,
I. BALL.

Answer—The five "centses," my child, are nickels."

© the Associated Newspapers
WNU Service.

Beginning of Cabinet Offices

Departments of State, War, Post Office, Treasury and the office of the attorney general were established with the Constitution. This latter office was officially changed to the Department of Justice in 1870. The Navy department came into existence in 1798; Interior, 1849; Agriculture, 1889; Commerce and Labor, 1903; and Labor was established as a separate department in 1913.

Willows Produce Heavy Water

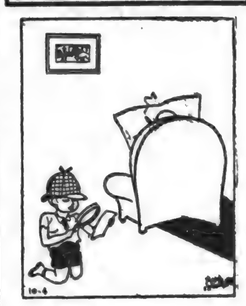
The weeping willow tree produces heavy water. The tree's roots draw in ordinary water. In the course of growth the tree breaks this water in its hydrogen and oxygen atoms.

Do YOU Know—

That golf was undoubtedly played in Colonial days, for there are court records to that effect in Albany, N. Y., where players were fined for breaking windows with golf balls.

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
WNU Service.

PAPA KNOWS—



"Pop, what is suspicion?"
"Looking through a keyhole."
© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

SAUCES FOR ICE CREAMS

ONE would think of ice cream in itself as being wholesome, toothsome and satisfying, plain as it is; but the addition of a sippy sauce which is easily prepared at home makes the serving an added way of expressing the real spirit of hospitality, when one wishes to offer something more than commonplace refreshment.

A few chopped nuts sprinkled over plain vanilla ice cream and topped with a spoonful of whipped cream and a maraschino cherry makes a most satifying sundae.

The careless preparation of a sauce to serve on or with any dish is always a convincing proof of the indifference paid to good cooking. To make a good sauce requires good taste, patience and judgment. To be good it must fit the dish where it is served—that is, be appropriate to it, smooth, artfully flavored and of the right consistency.

The opportunity to add one's individuality to a dish is well expressed in sauces served.

Maple Pecan Sauce.

Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add three-fourths of a cupful of sugar and one-fourth of a cupful of water, three tablespoonfuls of corn sirup and cook to a stage before the soft ball when tested in water. Remove from the fire, add one-fourth of a cupful of cream, three-fourths of a teaspoonful of mapleine, one-half cupful of pecans chopped. This makes six servings.

Chocolate Sauce.

Melt three squares of chocolate over hot water, add one-fourth cupful of water and stir until smooth; now add one cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of corn sirup and boil to the very soft ball stage, or 234 degrees. Remove from the fire, add one cupful of cream and one teaspoonful of vanilla. Beat until smooth. This makes two and one-half cupfuls of sauce. Cut eight marshmallows into small pieces. Boil one cupful of sugar and one-half cupful of water to a heavy sirup. Whip two egg whites, add the marshmallows and beat well. Flavor with any desired flavoring.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

A Universal Curse

Poison ivy has been discovered in practically every part of the United States except on high mountains and deserts.

In a Garden Chair

By ANNE CAMPBELL

I HEAR the sea, the tumbling sea,
And smell the spray in the clean salt air.
The gulls are sailing close to me.
The sky is blue, the horizon fair—
And I have not moved from my garden chair!

The mountains rise to snowy heights.
I climb the trail, and the way is hard.
My soul moves on to new delights.
I glimpse high heaven! I am not barred
From beauty, though held to my own back yard.

On wings of fancy I may go
To foreign countries and revel there,
Old sights are sweet in memory's glow,
And loveliness I may never share
Is mine, as I dream in a garden chair!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Covered Shoulder

A new version of the covered shoulder is found in this chic printed evening gown designed by Stein and Blaine. Ruffled black organza shoulder epaulets accent the black floral design on the orange print chiffon frock which is made for warm summer evenings.

"From what I read," says goofy Gertie, "the cannibal seems to digest the missionary more readily than his teachings."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Boys Build a Hydrofoil Speedboat

THIS speedboat, radical in design and expected to develop double the speed of present water craft of the same power, was completed by pupils of Rocky River High school in Cleveland, Ohio. The boat, powered with a standard outboard motor, is the first of its kind to be built upon the hydrofoil principle developed by Dr. Oscar G. Tietjens, nationally known research engineer. Every detail of the 15-foot craft was worked out by the students and their instructor, A. E. Skromp. The hydrofoil consists of a plane suspended underneath the boat which cuts through the water as the boat gathers speed and reduces the fluid resistance to a minimum.

Germans Set Up Island in Ocean for Planes

Men have literally made mountains out of mole hills and lakes out of duck ponds, and nature herself still makes and unmakes islands by volcanic action or by the work of great rivers like the Amazon. But now, while the Japanese report the disappearance of an island in the western Pacific, the Germans have created another one in the south Atlantic. Geologists attribute the burial of the Pacific island to a seaquake resulting from the slow shift of the earth's axis. The Germans have set up an artificial island on the other side of the globe by the simple device of anchoring a steamer in midocean. The ship is to serve as a way station where the planes which fly between Germany and Brazil can take on fuel and fresh pilots in their 12 or 14-hour jump from land to land.

In this latitude the combination of the western thrust of north Africa and the eastward bulge of South America narrows the Atlantic to about 1,600 miles. Though, given favorable weather, the crossing of this gap of water is little more than a routine matter for a skilled airman, the establishment of a halfway base greatly reduces whatever chances of mishap may exist.

Optimistic

Professor (in the middle of a joke) Have I ever told this one before?

Class (in chorus)—Yes.

Professor—Good! You will probably understand it this time.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

—Powdered Saxolite—
Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

RHEUMATIC?

Pure Natural Mineral Water May Help

MILLIONS FIND IT VERY BENEFICIAL

For over 2,000 years the great mineral waters of the World, given to us by Mother Nature, have proven themselves very beneficial in the treatment of "rheumatic" aches and pains, arthritis, sluggishness, certain stomach disorders and other chronic ailments.

It has been estimated that Americans alone have spent $100,000,000 a year in going to the mineral wells and health resorts of Europe. Over $1,000,000 of these foreign mineral waters are imported annually into this country to help suffering humanity.

But it isn't necessary to go to Europe to find fine natural mineral water. We have many marvelous mineral waters in our own country—many excellent health resorts to which you can go for the mineral water treatment for "rheumatic" aches and pains.

Most surprising of all, however, is the fact that today you can make a natural mineral water in your own home at a tremendous saving in expense. For Crazy Water Crystals bring you, in crystal form, healthful minerals taken from one of the world's fine mineral waters. Just the natural minerals. Nothing is added.

All you do is add Crazy Water Crystals to your drinking water, and you have a great mineral water that has helped millions to better health and greater happiness.

A standard size box of Crazy Water Crystals costs only $1.50 and is sufficient for several weeks thorough treatment for rheumatic pains. Crazy Water Co., Mineral Wells, Texas.

CRAZY Water CRYSTALS
are for sale by dealers displaying the red and green Crazy Water Crystals sign. Get a box today.

FOOT IRRITATIONS
Blisters, cracked skin, itching or burning soon relieved and healing promoted with soothing
Resinol

Ants
Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.
PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

JUNE

L 919 U306

Here's to a Smart Summer Wardrobe

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

TURN to the east or turn to the west or turn to the spot you love best where to tarry a while in the good old summertime. Unless your wardrobe be well stocked with timely and practical as well as chic and pretty apparel your vacation is apt to count nil in the way of uplifting joy and satisfaction. N'est ce pas?

Not that one necessarily must have an extravagant collection of lovely frocks and sportsy dresses and stunning hats and intriguing wraps and flattering accessories, for a few carefully chosen outfits count for far more than a superabundance of helter-skelter ill-advised fashions.

Reducing the formula for smart vacation clothes to its simplest, firstly a tailored-to-perfection ensemble for general daytime wear; secondly, a casual frock with swanky details for active sports wear, and thirdly, a sheer and lovely formal of alluringly feminine charm ought to go a far way toward helping start one's summer vacation style program in the right direction. The trio of stunning fashions shown here have been selected with this thought in mind.

Beginning with the tailored ensemble centered in the group, we feel we can recommend it as having all the necessary attributes to render it eligible for election as a fashion-supreme for general daytime wear. With all its summery daintiness when it comes to actual hard wear and tear it is a sturdy little affair designed to give real service. One of several reasons why you can depend upon it is that it is made of a soft yet firm Irish linen which is everfast when it comes to color, is easily washable and best of all it is uncrushable which counts a lot when one is on the go from morning to night. The dress is natural color with a yoke of linen strips in contrasting high shades joined with hand-fagoting. It is completed by a meticulously tailored three-quarter coat which, when removed, reveals a gay bodice top with mere suggestions for sleeves—really quite a fetching gown for informal afternoon wear.

The intriguing frock to the left in the group has all the makings of a winner whether it plays in a game of fashion or tennis or golf. It is a costume warranted to start the day off joyously, so don it first thing in the morning. Its practicability is equaled by its smartness expressed not only in the voguish checked Irish linen which fashions it, but in such arresting details as a row of big buttons traveling down the back of the skirt, when you would expect them to be at the front. The low cut back is not only a style feature but it is an invitation to the sun to send its health rays hither.

Comes at the close of a "perfect day in June" and during the months following, the glamorous shades of night when one would dance the magic hours away or make conquest of hearts, well here is the gown that will do it for you—to the right in the picture. It is made of a sheer black printed marquisette which makes you look beautiful whether you are or not. A velvet girdle encircles the waist and the slip underneath is of black taffeta so that it "sounds like music when she moves." It's amazing to what lengths party frocks and formals are going this season reaching even unto the floor and then some.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

Three Essentials in the Attainment of Old Age

"Our hospital records and the doctors' case files are bursting with information regarding the frailities and disintegration of old age, but only the life insurance records contain any great amount of reliable information regarding the normal conditions in extreme old age."

Thus Drs. Francis G. Benedict and Howard F. Root of the nutrition laboratory of the Carnegie institution in Washington introduced before the National academy a study of old age which they have made on the person of ninety-one-year-old Seth W. Lincoln of Worcester, a typesetter whose body and mind may well be envied by men half his age. Lincoln was tested just as if he were a piece of machinery—one that proved to be remarkably efficient. His heart, kidneys and arteries are those of a young man.

The specialty of Doctors Benedict and Root is metabolism—the conversion of food into tissue and energy. They measured Lincoln's basal metabolism, that is, his heat production, on an empty stomach in the morning while he was lying quietly. It was so low as to indicate senile debility and extreme muscular weakness. But Lincoln's quick movements, his active life, his strength belied any such conclusion. So Doctors Benedict and Root decided that "this man's body machine is working with extraordinary efficiency, and that when it is not performing muscular work it resembles an automobile engine while idling."

That this is probably the correct view is indicated by a comparison of Seth Lincoln with Sir James Crichton-Browne (eighty-nine) and the late Dr. W. W. Keen of Philadelphia, who died at ninety-five. Their oxygen consumption—which is what is actually measured in a basal metabolism test—was also low, though not quite so low as that of Lincoln.

The secret of Lincoln's longevity seems to be his ease of mind. He has passed through life unruffled by financial stress or great sorrow. This in the opinion of Doctors Benedict and Root "has relieved him of much of the excess tension and nerve-racking, wearing strain that come all through life to so many of our intense American business men."

How, then, is long life to be attained? The essentials are sound ancestors, temperate habits of life and freedom from worry.—New York Herald Tribune.

"Stuffed" Ballot Box in English Parliament

If an old yarn is to be believed, the people of the world owe their privileges regarding habeas writs to an old trick of crooked politics. When the act of 1679 was going through the English parliament there was strong opposition in the house of lords. The third reading, according to one Bishop Burnet, was carried by a trick. Two members of the house of lords, Grey and Norris, were appointed tellers to count the vote.

A very fat member was counted as ten members by Lord Grey who, so the narrater says, did it at first as a joke. Then, seeing that Lord Norris, who was in bad health, did not notice what had happened, Grey, who favored the bill, went on with his misreckoning, which added enough extra votes to carry the bill.

"There must have been," wrote a famous English authority some years ago, "some mistake, accidental or willful, for the members were declared to be 57 to 55 for the bill and by the minute-book of the lords it appears that there were only 107 peers in the house."

Life's Symbol in That Nothing Is Ever Lost

One of the ancient sages had seen the waters of the Nile spread over vast areas of the flat land, and the peasants in their shallops scattering grain over submerged fields, and he said: "That is a symbol of life. Cast your bread upon the waters and it shall return after many days."

Half our lives are made up of doing things like that, making ventures of faith, making for unknown, unseen destinations, trusting that every step is so much gained, that the sweat of body and brain is, somehow, somewhere, some time, preparing for us the reward of struggle and trial and pain and seeming loss.

Every effort we make, every thought we think, every influence we exert, not only affects us but affects somebody else, and thus goes on reproducing itself in the lives of others where we shall never trace or discover it.

That is why we must all go on doing our bit in the best way we know, following the gleam "O'er crag and torrent," keeping bright our faith in the essential rightness of things, even when everything seems to be going dead wrong, making no complaint of the way life has led us though it seems hard and even disastrous. What seems to us to be failure may be the essential preliminary to success. Nothing is lost, nothing is cast into the void, everything finds its eventual fulfillment, even as the dying leaves are the christening robes of spring.—London Answers.

ROOT BEER at 1¾¢ A QUART

Best Drink

HOME-MADE Root Beer is cooling, refreshing, thirst-quenching. Children love it. A 15c package of T & T Concentrate makes 5 gal.—40 pints.

Bears the Seal of Acceptance of the American Medical Association. Made from genuine roots, barks and herbs.

Thomson & Taylor Co., Chicago

AT YOUR GROCER'S

15¢

T&T Root Beer CONCENTRATE

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

Quick, Safe Relief For Eyes Irritated By Exposure To Sun, Wind and Dust

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dpt. W, Chicago, for Free Book

OLD AGE PENSION INFORMATION
Send Stamp.
JUDGE LEHMAN - - Humboldt, Kan.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM
Removes Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling
Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair
60c and $1.00 at Druggists.
Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO — Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N. Y.

SORES AND LUMPS - My Specialty. Write for Free 146 Page Book. Dr. Boyd Williams, Madison, Wisc.

SCOTCH PLAID NOW SEEN AT BEACHES

Now that the influence of practically every other nation has been seen in beach wear, along comes the Scotch trend, which presents as the last word in resort fashions a brief Scotch plaid skirt to wear over your swim suit.

And if you're so minded you may have a plaid sun hat or beret to match. Vivid plaid belts and shoulder straps also are blossoming out on some of the newest bathing suits, otherwise in solid colors.

Another beach costume goes definitely Turkish with a so-called skirt reaching to the middle of the calf, suggesting the sultan's trousers. Bloused fullness in front is caught at the hemline, and there are slits bound in vivid cotton braid, for the legs. The garment is really trousers, but looks like a skirt, or vice versa.

Sandals for Summer Wear Will Be a Riot of Color

Sandals, and more sandals for summer feet! From the cool meshed affairs to the perforated kidskin straps you can't ignore them. Bright colors are worn for street, as well as evening and beach and sports sandals are a blazing riot of color. All white footwear is the smartest footnote. Street models, afternoon, and evening, whatever you slip on your feet, the all white wins.

Cotton Tweed

A cotton tweed coat is something to keep in mind for summer wardrobes. The new ones, which look surprisingly like woolens, have coarse yarns in white, giving a nubby effect against colored grounds.

Fine Feathers

Feathers are an outstanding trim for evening gowns. Ostrich is the favorite and is seen in many versions, forming capes or shoulder accents.

SAILOR FASHION

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Sailor themes is news of high importance in connection with fashions for youngsters and juniors. Incidentally we might mention that it is also ultra chic for grown-up's costumes to take on nautical details, especially wide sailor collars in versatile interpretations. But to the subject before us—this cunning child in her modish little frock of white Irish linen which looks so smartly nautical with its sailor collar and sleeve bands of blue and its cord-laced fastening. Here we see the descendant of the sailor dresses which were the pride of the well dressed child in years gone by.

Coolie Coats

Coolie coats in pastel flannel are very smart, for street wear with dark dresses. The finger-tip length is favored and the sleeves are long and full.

CHOOSE THE TIRE CHAMPIONS BUY

Firestone

Tires have been on the winning cars in the gruelling Indianapolis 500-Mile Race FOR 15 CONSECUTIVE YEARS

EVERY winner in the 500-Mile Indianapolis Race—the most gruelling tire test in the world—drove to victory on Firestone High Speed Tires.

Race drivers know that heat generated by friction inside the cotton cords is the greatest enemy of tire life. These men will not risk their lives on any but Firestone Tires, because they know the high stretch cords in every Firestone Tire are protected by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Gum-Dipping soaks the high stretch cords in liquid rubber and saturates and coats the millions of fibers inside the cords, counteracting destructive friction and heat. It provides greater adhesion between the plies of the tire, and between the Gum-Dipped cord body and the tread.

Firestone chemists and engineers kept pace with new car developments by building stronger, safer tires to meet the exacting demands. See your Firestone Dealer or Service Store today and equip your car with new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934, with deeper, thicker, flatter, and wider non-skid tread, more and tougher rubber, more traction, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Remember, in Firestone High Speed Tires there is Greater Strength—Greater Safety—and Greater Blowout Protection than in any tire made.

THE NEW Firestone HIGH SPEED TIRE FOR 1934

SIZE	PRICE
4.50-20	$7.85
4.75-19	8.65
5.50-17	11.30
6.00-17 H.D.	15.10
6.00-20 H.D.	16.40
6.50-17 H.D.	17.50

Other Sizes Proportionately Low

THE ADHESION TEST

Note how the rubber in a Firestone Tire clings to the high stretch Gum-Dipped cords. This greater adhesion and strength is made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Note how the rubber in an ordinary tire pulls away from the cords that have not been soaked and insulated with rubber. This causes friction and heat within the cords, resulting in separation.

COME IN AND MAKE THIS TEST FOR YOURSELF

THE NEW Firestone AIR BALLOON FOR 1934

The new Firestone Air Balloon for 1934 embodies all the improvements in the new Firestone High Speed Tire. The lower air pressure provides maximum traction and riding comfort. Gum-Dipping safety-locks the cords, providing 30 to 40% greater deflection and blowout protection.

Get 1935 low-swung style by equipping your car today with these new tires and wheels in colors to match your car. Your Firestone Dealer or Service Store will give you a free trial on your car.

FREE TRIAL ON YOUR CAR

PERFORMANCE RECORDS
FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRES

—for fifteen consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the 500-mile Indianapolis Race.
This Means Blowout Protection

—for seven consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the daring Pikes Peak climb where a slip means death.
This Means Non-Skid Safety and Traction

—for three consecutive years have been on the 131 buses of the Washington (D. C.) Railway and Electric Company covering 11,357,810 bus miles without one minute's delay due to tire trouble.
This Means Dependability and Economy

—were on the Nelson Motors' Ford V-8 Truck that made a new coast-to-coast record of 67 hours, 45 minutes, 30 seconds actual running time.
This Means Endurance

Listen to the Voice of Firestone every Monday Night over N.B.C.—WEAF Network

See these New Firestone High Speed Tires made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building at "A Century of Progress," Chicago

Copyright, 1934, The Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

JUNE

L 919

0307

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Wanted: 75 Raspberry Pickers soon. Apply to Clyde Hart. 23t2.

For Sale: Rural New York potatoes for seed or eating. 22t2p. Elmer Inlow.

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 21t5

For Sale: Vegetable Plants of all kinds. Dorothea Scholes Kessler. 23t1p.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

ACID TEST FOR NRA

There has been a heated but nevertheless healthy discussion of the National Recovery Administration since the publication of the Darrow report.

As the NRA was founded on new and untried economic theories it is not surprising that there have been many inconsistencies in its operation. In Theodore Roosevelt's time there were slogans about "trust busting." Today the Sherman anti-trust law is in moth balls. If the NRA withstands the acid test to which it is being subjected it will be modified.

The Darrow report is constructive and its criticisms point out remedies to strengthen the NRA program. General Johnson has exploded and shown his temper, as usual. General Counsel Donald Richberg has issued intemperate statements against the authors of the Darrow report.

Evidently there is too much truth in the charge that some of the Johnson organization think "they own the NRA."

Washington expects there will be reorganization of the NRA this summer, and that the changes will serve to correct many defects that exist in the set-up.

There is nothing to be disturbed about in the present turmoil.

WHAT! REDUCE TAXES?

Much ahs been said about the advisability of reducing taxes, but pointing a need and accomplishing the result seem to be vastly different. There's the case in Michigan, for instance. The Automobile Club is sponsoring a petition to reduce gasoline taxes and motor vehicle registration fees. Taxes are preventing people from driving their cars, from buying new machines, argues the club. Reduce the taxes, put cars on the road, revenue in the treasury, and business in the automobile factories, it advises.

The club has been obtaining signatures for its petition at gasoline filling stations, the logical place since every motorist stops por supplies sooner or later. Indications now are, according to recent reports, that more than the legally sufficient number of signatures has been abtained.

Officialdom, however, doesn't like the idea. Road commissioners have notified fillign station proprietors to "pull in those petition blanks or lose government business." A recent news item from the capitol at Lansing said oil company representatives would be called to a conference with state officials and told plainly that unless the petition was withdrawn from circulation they would be prohibited from bidding for state business. The governor said he wouldn't attend, but warned that if those taxes are reduced, the taxpayers might expect substitute levies.

Shades of Washington, Jefferson, Hancock, and Adams, to say nothing of Roosevelts, past and present! What is this country coming to when elected officials tell those who elected them to office they connot have tax reduction? What is officialdom coming to that it assumes the authority to tell business whether it shall accommodate its customers?

If the situation in Michigan is any indication, office holders are not in the mood for tax reduction. Evidently they will insist that the taxpayers shall pay and pay and pay And upon what then will the taxpayers insist? Well, it looks as if regardless of whatever they decide to insist upon they'd better get started or officialdom will be telling them they can't even decide to insist!

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Giant is a patient in the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Ina Traxler and Mona Traxler spent Saturday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Corma Gibford are here from Detroit visiting Mr. and Mrs. Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Traxler and family spent Sunday with relatives south of Antwerp.

Rev. and Mrs. Moore were Wednesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Krafft.

C. C. Andrews and Albert Winter, of Detroit, spent Saturday here at the Andrews farm.

The U. B. Aid Society will have an ice cream social at the U. B. Church Friday evening, June 22.

Wm. Hoy, of Garrett, called on friends here Sunday evening. He was eroute home from Delaware Bend.

Water in the St. Joe River is the lowest in the memory of ye correspondent, due to continued drought.

Rev C. W. Moore preached at Showers Corners Friday evening, for Rev. Lewellyn, who is holding a revival there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and family are here from Mongo visiting his parents and marketing his strawberry crop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McNamara and GeNell Seely called on the Luterbein family in Edgarton, Ohio, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Rosa Snellbaker was taken in an ambulance to Butler Saturday, where she will be cared for in the home of her son.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clark spent Saturday night in Auburn with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar King, going from there to Chicago, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dove, Melvin Dove and Bert Farner, of Butler, spent Sunday afternoon here with Mrs. Lucille Traxler and family.

Don Snellbaker, of Detroit, Mrs. Hester Price, of Toledo, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Snellbaker, of Butler, were called here last week by the serios illness of Mrs. Rosa Snellbaker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Baker and Harvey Hull and family, of St. Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyon, of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stone, of Butler and Mrs. Elva Menzer, of Detroit, attended the Children's Day exercises at the Newville Christian Church Sunday evening.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3644

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Harvey Kimes, Sr., deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 6th day of July, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 6th day of June, 1934.

CLYDE G. RECTENWALL, Administrator.

Atkinson & Husselman, Atty. 23t3

Coburn's Corners

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday afternoon with Emily Hallabaugh.

Coburn's Corners attendance at Sunday School 93, collection $4.05.

Bess Klopfenstein and son, Bob, and June George, of Fort Wayne, and George Hart and family ate dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hart.

Everybody is busy picking berries this week.

Mrs. Thelma Hart was at Auburn Wednesday taking the Home Bureau project lesson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Guthrie called on Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hart Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Hart called on Mrs. Frank Butler and Virginia Goldsmith Sunday evening.

The Live Wires class, taught by Karl Hart, held their anual picnic at the Erick Grove Sunday.

Mr and Mrs. Elwood Hart called on Grandma Bailey, who is being cared for at the Marvin Poper home.

Mrs. Dan Shull, daughter and husband, called on J. S. Shull Monday afternoon, they were on their way home from the Century of Progress.

Lucille and Frank Curie, Jr., spent Sunday with Mrs. Charles Curie and family. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie were afternoon callers.

Tuesday evening, Mrs. Mildred Curie entertained a group of teachers with whom she taught in Hicksville High School. Those present were Mrs. H. S. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flurkey, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Culler, Mrs. Berniece Kerr, Miss Esther Howenstine, and Mr. George Patterson, of Hicksville; Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Lutterbein, of Edgerton and Mr. Leighton Cokey, of Farmer.

The Rural Housewife's Club held at the home of Eleanor Crothers, Tuesday afternoon, June 5, was well attended. After the business meeting Mrs. Edna Jenkins read, "It Takes a Heap of Living to Make a Place a Home," by Edgar A. Guest and Emily Hallabaugh conducted an advertisement contest Election of officers was held and the following were elected: President, Mildred Curie; vice president, Winifred Hart; secretary, Emily Hallabaugh; assistant secretary, Troas Carpenter; treasurer, Minnie Gee; press correspondent, Elizabeth Hart. In honor of the Club's 21st anniversary ,the hostess had a lovely decorated birthday cake with 21 candles, and served with it ice cream and strawberries and ice tea. Next meeting will be held with Lillian Scholes.

CONCORD

Roy Keller spent Sunday at his cottage at Lake Pleasant.

Mrs. Flossie Bassett called on Mrs. C. Jackson, Monday.

Mr. James Ervin ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Dell Draggoo.

"There can be no conflict between science and religion."—Mussolini.

Iris Jackson spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins and daughter.

Mr. John Timmerman visited with his sister, Mrs. C. Jackson, a short time last Friday.

Vera and Iris Jackson spent a short time Friday with her mother and sister and family in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Maurer and children, of Garrett, spent Sunday with Mrs. George Johnson and family.

On Sunday Ford Jackson and family and Mrs. Chas. Jackson and Mable took dinner in the Holl Jackson home.

Marion Littlefield and mother, of Detroit, spent Sunday afternoon in his father's home, Ray Littlefield and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goings and baby and Mrs. Roy Keller and so, Earl, enjoyed the Washler reunion at Eckhart Park, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bassett and three children, Junior, Merle and Dessie Marie, spent Sunday in Auburn with Mr. and Mrs. Reo Hauk.

Shoppers in Fort Wayne last Friday and Saturday were Chas. Morr and family, Mr and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo and Chas. Murphy and family.

Clifton Draggoo has been working for the state near Huntington. Sunday he went back to work and was accompanied by his wife and baby and they will do light house keeping.

Anticipate your printing needs

Local Briefs

Walter Means, of Fort Wayne, spent over Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Loren Means.

Lutheran Sunday School attendance 100, collection $3.65; Christian, 122, collection $4.56.

Mrs. Madelene Lemmon and children, of Pleasant Lake, were Sunday guests in the Harvey Hull home.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver spent Wednesday with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Hascall Crothers of Ligonier.

Carl Carpenter, wife and daughter, Betty and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter, spent Sunday at Hamilton Lake.

Mrs. Inez Chapman, of Angola and Mrs. Don Blair, of Butler, were supper and evening guests in the Frank Akins home, Monday.

Everett Pressler and wife are the proud parents of a baby girl born on Tuesday June 5th. The Presslers reside on the Saylor farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins visited Mr. John Faulkner at Kimmell Sunday forenoon and in the afternoon they visited at Lake Wawasee.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Umbenhour, of Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Woods and daughter, Jane, were Sunday guests in the George Weaver home.

Charles, Floyd, Hugh and Galen Custer, of Hillsboro, Ohio, were week-end guests of Ed Storer and family. They are nephews of Mr. Storer.

Charles Coburn was hurt Friday evening, when cranking a gas engine. It kicked and the crank hit him on the nose. Dr. Shook dressed his injuries.

Miss Wilma Bishop is the guest of her grandma, Clara McCann for two weeks. Mrs. McCann has been on the sick list but is better at this writing.

Children's Day will be observed at the Lutheran church next Sunday evenng. A pageant entitled "Who Bids?" will be the main feature of the program.

J. C. Hull and Ralph Sechler attended the Democratic State convention at Indianapolis, Tuesday. Mrs. Sechler is visiting relatives at Greenfield.

Your Kodak films can be purchased at News office and you can also leave your order for prints here. Our customers are pleased and a trial will convince you

Mrs. John Beard, of Waterloo, was a Sunday forenoon guest of Mrs. Jane Randall. In the afternoon Mrs. Radall visited with Mrs. Jane Coburn and family.

Diphtheria and scarlet fever have increased at Ft. Wayne during the past week. There are now 14 patients confined with the former and 28 with the latter.

The Lutheran Brotherhood, with their wives as guests, met at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dilley Monday evening. Home-made ice cream and cake were served.

Hazel and Beatrice Storer, of Fort Wayne, were home Saturday night and Sunday. The Storers also had as dinner guests Sunday George and Helen Wade and daughter, Gwen Lee.

A red fox was shot at the Clyde Hart home, east of Spencerville, after capturing a great many of their young chickens. The animal was crippled so it could not run, so they brought it to St. Joe Saturday to exhibit for awhile.

C. J. Bachellor and Mrs. Lucy Underwood, of Payne, Ohio, were Friday guests in the Wm. Bachellor home. Sunday, John Bachellor and wife were here and they all called on Mrs. Bachellor at the Souders Hosiptal at Auburn, where she underwent an operation last week for tumor. She is getting along fine.

Roscoe H Conine Tuesday filed suit in the DeKalb circuit court against Leo David on a note for $300 executed February 19, 1932, payable March 1, 1933; on another note for $200 signed March 19, 1932, and payable January 1, 1934; on another note for $270 executed June 3, 1932, and due in 9 months; and on account of $65.75 for cash loaned and merchandise. The total of the demand is $1,260. Russel R. Rideour is the plaintiff's attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bowman were Sunday guests in the Ora Baker home at Bluffton.

Mrs. Josephine Johnson and children, of Waterloo, were Sunday guests of her father, Jesse Loftus, and family.

Mrs. Jane Randall reports a letter from her son, Harry and family at Chicago, and it brings her the good news that they are both better and of course, Mrs. Randall feels better today, also.

SPENCERVILLE

Those who tell the truth do not have to remember what they say.

O. E. Ginther attended the Democratic convention at Indianapolis Tuesday, and he was accompanied by his daugher, Virginia Lee.

Mrs. Flossie Rhoades and daughter, Miss Doris, Miss Garnet Beams and Miss Arminta Steward were Saturday afternoon guests of Mrs. Ada Whitacre at the R. U. Bowser home. Sunday guests at the same home were Mrs. Margaret Mann, Mrs. Gaylon Tustison and daughters and Miss Irene Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith very pleasantly entertained the folpwing guests at their home Sunday for a family birthday dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Steward and son, of Garrett; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morr and babe, of near Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowerman, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kurtz, of near Angola; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kimes, Charles Kimes, wife and children, Charles Brattian, wife and chilrren, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, Ernest and Wanda Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay.

Miss Irene Webb was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Billingsby and daughter, Judy, of Rochester, Ind., psent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L M. Condrey.

The "Indiana Star Threshing Ring" will be entertained on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson.

The Ladies Aid of Methodist Church was very pleasantly entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ralph Culbertson. The guests were Mrs. Ada Whitacre and the Misses Edith, Alda and Lois Culbertson.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PHONE 290

Stanley P. Nelson Monuments

Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries

AUBURN, IND.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
OPEN EVENINGS

Before Buying-See Us About
-- YOUR --
Rope and Thrasher Belting
We Aim to have the Best
If we have it, it will cost you less
It will pay you to visit our store

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:
HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50
Call and see our list. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Kessler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

JUNE

L 919 [redacted] 308

SPENCERVILLE

There are substitutes for every thing but good quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Bowman and family were Sunday guests of Mrs. Ira Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser were Sunday afternoon guests at the Otis Gloyd home near Huntertown.

Miss Lillian Kreager and brothers, Harold and Clair, were Sunday guests of the Ralph Culbertson home.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School June 10 was 73, collection $2.26; Lutheran 65, collection, $2.76.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hireman, of South Bend, were Sunday guests at the Wm. Reed home.

The Home Bureau met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Victoria Means. She was assisted by Mrs. Marjorie Rezor.

Mrs. Alein Neher and son, of Fort Wayne, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes, Mrs. LaVern Angel and daughter, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Neher and family at Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hensley and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Fawley and spent the afternoon with other friends at Peru, Indiana.

The Young Ladies Social Club met on Friday evening with Mrs. Pauline Baumgartner. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Minnie Lantz, Mrs. Vernie Rhodes, LaVern Angel, and Miss Gaylon Markle. One guest was present, Mrs. Alein Neher of Fort Wayne.

The C. C. Club met on last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Golden High. The ladies answered to roll call with their mother's maiden name. A review of the club was given by Mrs. Maude Beams and Mrs. Cora Steward. Each member also told of some interesting event which has happened in the club. The guests were Mrs. Laura Baltz and Miss Joyce Dean.

Most people are willing to admit that they are right.

Mrs. Emily Gloyd is assisting at the Guy Platter home near Newville.

James Reed and wife spent Sunday afternoon and evening the guests of Roy Bowser and family at St. Joe.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church will meet on Wednesday afternoon, June 20, with Mrs. Kathry Dean.

The dry season has been a good one on the baby rabbits. There is an unusually large amount of rabbits this summer and in many places they are very destructive to the gardens and truck patches.

"Nature, with disastrous drought and dust storm, does more than the most elaborate machinery to discipline the wheat and corn farmer and his market," says the Literary Digest. "And," adds the Baltimore Sun, "It is no longer a novel consideration but it is nevertheless strange that this visitation from nature should be considered a calamity, while the AAA should be regarded as the work of beneficence."

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

PATENTS
AND TRADE-MARKS
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Successful Practice since 1875.
Over 25,000 patents obtained for inventors in every section of country. Write for booklet telling how to obtain a patent, with list of clients in your State.
710 8th St., Washington, D. C.

JUNE

L 919

L 3 0 9

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JUNE 21, 1934 — NUMBER 24

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago— M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Oct. 11, 1884

Try out T pot T.

Dr. Murphy was in town Thursday.

Take in your plants or they will freeze.

The school house is undergoing repairs.

The Ohio election takes place next Tuesday.

Shilling shipped a car load of sheep this week.

John Widney moved into his new house this week.

Dr. Ferrell is building up quite a practice in his profession.

Chas. Widney has been sick but is able to be out again.

Byron Woodcox is painting and graining the school house.

Walter Palmer and wife visited friends in St. Joe this week.

Mrs. W. C. Patterson visited friends at Hicksville this week.

The west end of St. Joe might appropriately be called Poletown.

Frank Draggoo got his foot smashed at Case's barn raising Friday.

Rev. E. K. Baker having gone to Synod, there will be no preaching in town next Sunday.

Quite a number of democrats from this place attended the rally at Hicksville last Wednesay.

Wm. Demaranville delivered a speech at the hall the other night. His subject was "Tariff on Salt."

Capt Cutter, the republican candidate for Sheriff was in town looking up his interest this week.

J. H. Davis has moved to Garrett and Mr. Wilson has moved into the house formerly occupied by him.

T. P. Keator will speak at Newville on Saturday evening, Oct. 18, 1884, at which time a large pole will be raised. Everybody turn out.

Dr. Stewart of Garrett will deliver a prohibition speech at this place on Friday evening, Oct. 17, 1884. There will also be a pole raised. All are invited to come out.

A martial band is a nice thing but there ought to be a cut off valve attached to each one of them so that when they got thru they would stop. The most of them don't know where the tune ends.

Some one suggested the idea of leaving that young midnight buckeye stand and fill the dirt in around it so that it would grow and then probably until the campaign of 1888 it would be grown to a good sized pole.

Last Wedesday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. John Engle, and a large number of her friends celebrated the occasion by giving her a party. A very pleasant time was had and Mrs. Engle was the recipient of a number of nice presents.

ROBERT WIERS AGAIN WRITES TO THE NEWS

ECW Camp No. 6
Snake River, Yellowstone Park.
St. Joe News, St. Joe, Ind.

Dear Fred:

I am typing a line or two to let you know that I am in a different location than I was when I wrote my last letter. We are in Yellowstone National Park, where there are plenty of bears, deer, mosquitoes, etc. and when I say mosquitoes I mean just that.

Yesterday it rained, last night it snowed, and today it is warm, so you can never tell just what kind of weather you are going to have. I want to take time now to thank you for sending me the paper because it sure seems good to see a home paper although it takes about 3 or 4 days to get it out here. Here is a little about our trip out here you might use in The News.

After leaving Henryville, we traveled north thru Indiana to Chicago on the Pennsylvania R. R. then on to Davenport, Iowa, at which point we crossed the Mississippi, then we went to St. Paul, to Minneapolis, then to Fargo, N. D., Bismark, N. D. and on to Billings, Montana, Gardiner, Montana and there we motored the remaining 100 miles through the park by truck.

We arrived in camp about 9:00 on the evening of the 25th of May and then we had to pitch camp in the evening and that certainly was a job. Well we had a nice trip and after we rested up for a while we were ready to start to work and get the camp set up.

I secured a job in the ECW office as you can probably tell by now, but they gave me a little Corona Portable and the keys are very close together and it is very hard to type on but if I get used to it I will be able to type a better one. At least I hope so.

I guess that is all that I have to say at present so I will quit for now and if anyone wants to write to me my address will be found on the bottom of the letter.

Yours Sincerely,
Bob Wiers.

William R. Wiers,
CCC Co. 586 Camp YNP-6
Snake River, Yellowstone Park, Wyoming.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Donald Hart is spending two weeks with relatives at Paulding, Ohio.

Paul Krabill is home on a short vacation from his work at Siam, where he is telegrapher for the B. & O.

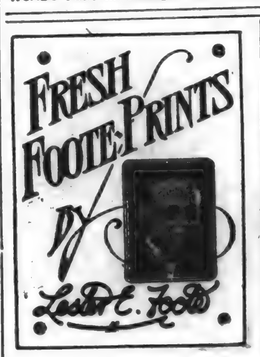
The Friendly Circle Class of the Lutheran Sunday School will serve ice cream and cake on the church lawn Saturday eve, June 30. 24t2.

A Free Clinic will be held by the DeKalb County Tuberculosis Association in Waterloo, Wednesday, June 27, from 10 to 4 o'clock, in the town hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shroyer and son, Wilbur, were recent guests of friends and relatives at Sidney and Maplewood, Ohio. They report crops about the same as in this locality.

Fireworks Thrill World's Fair Crowds

Brilliant fireworks displays are a frequent night feature at the new World's Fair in Chicago. This bomb is one of the many that burst on opening night. The buildings are, left to right: Federal building, Sky Ride and Electrical group. The opening day crowd was surprised to find the Fair complete.



The Government has appropriated one million dollars to fight the Chinch bugs.

One of the best substitutes for a tour of the world ever collected together is the fifteen "foreign villages" which are at the World's Fair this summer.

Hair cuts at Cherryville, Kansas, are only fifteen cents each and at one barber shop a free mug of beer was given one day to each customer.

"Whenever I hear people discuss birth control," says Clarence Darrow, "I always remember that I was fifth."

Twenty-one per cent of Chicago's 1933 livestock receipts were hauled there in trucks.

At Oklahoma City a woman has sued the city for an injury received while sliding down in one of the children's play slides in a public park.

The memory of Washigton is perpetuated in the United States by the bearing of that name by 28 cities, 32 counties, and one state.

Nearly every school-boy knows who was born in Hardin county, Kentucky, and also at Mooresville, Indiana.

In Bucharest, a professional sword swallower was arrested on a charge of faking but to prove his innocence the defendant took the bayonet from one of the guard's guns and thrust it down his throat.

What can a man believe? We have just read an Associated Press story about one Countess giving birth to 36 children all at the same time. This was reported to be back in the year of 1296 and to have happened in Poland.

At San Francisco a suit has been filed by Lee Gordon, age 33, to collect $33,000 damages from the Nelson Steamship Company for the serious injuries which he received when he stepped and tripped on a monkey's tail while carrying a sack of potatoes to the kitchen on board one of said company's steamships.

DEKALB AGAIN IN GOLD CROWN CLASS

For the fourteenth consecutive year, DeKalb county was listed as a Gold Crown County at the 70th annual convention of the Indiana Council of Christian Education, which closed a three-day convention at South Bend Friday. The DeKalb county organization was 100 per cent in meeting all of the requirements laid down by the state association. The only other 100 per cent county was Randolph.

Between 1,400 and 1,500 delegates attended the convention, seventeen representing DeKalb county.

George E. Beugnot, of Auburn, was re-elected a vice president of the state organization. It will be the fourteenth year for Mr. Beugnot as one of the vice presidents.

Dr. J. Raymond Schutz, of Manchester College, North Manchester, was re-elected president. Other officers named were Dr. William Lowe Byran, president of Indiana University; Harry Eller, of Crawfordsville, T. Fred Williams, of Lafayette and Charles Puckett, of Winchester, vice presidents; F. M. Dickerman, of Indianapolis, treasurer.

Named on the state executive committee-at-large included William P. Dearing, of Oakland, C. R. Newman, of Culver, Roger Mayhill, of Delphi, Howard Anderson and Dean S. Milner, of Indianapolis. Territorial representatives-at-large are A. E. Kemmer, of Lafayette, William H. Ball, Muncie, A. F. Sittloch, of Richmond, E. H. Stranahan, Marion and G. A. Stephen, of Monticello.

The delegates voted to hold the next convention at Washington, Indiana.

SPENCERVILLE WIFE GETS DIVORCE IN CIRCUIT COURT

Complaining of non-support, LaVerne Angel, of Spencerville, secured a divorce in the DeKalb circuit court Monday from Chas. E. Angel.

The plaintiff also was awarded the custody of the only child, Patsy June, and the defendant was ordered to pay $7 a week for the child's support. A judgment for $1,000 alimony was also entered against the defendant.

Married Oct. 8, 1932, the couple separated last September. Mrs. Angel testified that she and the baby had to live with her parents and that she worked out to make a living.

Atkinson & Husselman are attorneys for the plaintiff. The defendant did not appear and the state was represented by R. W. Sharpless, prosecuting attorney.

AT METHODIST CHURCH

Preaching Sunday, July 1, at 10:30 A. M. (D. S. T.) Rev. William D. Koehnlein, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

NOTICE DOG OWNERS!

We want to close our books for the year on July 16. Payment of dog tax is kindly requested on or before that date.

24t2 Township Assessor.

GARRETT MAN HURT WHEN INTERURBAN HITS HIS AUTO

A. R. Cole, aged eighty-two, who lives just south of the city limits, Garrett, suffered a broken left arm Sunday at about 11:30 when an interurban car struck his Chrysler sedan which he had just stopped in front of the Baptist Church in Garrett.

The arm, which was broken near the shoulder, had been injured twice before in the last six weeks from falls on Mr. Cole's farm. No bones had been broken, however.

Mr. Cole had driven into Garrett Sunday morning to get his daughter, Fairie, who was attending services at the Baptist Church. He drove off Cowen street and around the block to be headed south in front of the church. As the services were just completed and he could not get to the curb he stopped the car on the interurban tracks. He did not see the approaching interurban, which hit his car head on at a slow speed. The bumper, left front light and radiator were slightly damaged.

Mr. Cole is well known in St. Joe, as his wife is a sister to Mr. John Wineland.

TO TEACH AT HEBRON

Mrs. Frank Curie received a letter from Miss Helen Ditmars stating that after six weeks training at Purdue, she will be located at Hebron, Indiana, where she will teach another year. Her many friends regret to see her leave St. Joe, yet are very glad to know that she has a position.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Randall, of Chicago, announce the marriage of their daughter, Marion, to Joseph Carlin, of Chicago. Marion is a graduate of Linnbloom High School and Mr. Carlin of Harrison High. Mr. Carlin will graduate from Lyola Dental College this fall.

FREWORKS HANDLED ONLY BY STRICT RULES

Regulations from State Fire Marshal and Director of Safety Al Feeney in regard to the handling, storing and selling of Fourth of July fireworks in the state of Indiana are as follows:

All dealers are required to abide by the regulations which specify that "no fireworks shall be put on display before June 20. This display must be done in such a way that there will be no danger of the goods being exploded by the rays of the sun or other agency or under any conditions exposing them in such a way that they may be accidetally exploded. This can be done by putting such fireworks in a non-inflammable container completely enclosed above, below and on all sides, except the front, in the display window.

"Sales by retail merchants may begin on June 20, but no deliveries of fireworks shall be made until July 2. Sales and deliveries shall terminate July 5.

"No fireworks shall be displayed or sold on the streets, sidewalks, alleys, yards, vacant lots or other such places in any city or town of the State of Indiana. Nor shall they be displayed or sold closer than 25 feet to any public highway in the State of Indiana.

"All dealers must keep all fireworks stored in non-inflammable containers, if the original shipping cases have been unpacked before June 20.

"No fireworks that are capable of causing serious injury to the person by explosion or contact shall be sold.

"No fireworks shall be sold to children under 12 years of age.

"No fireworks shall be sold or exploded at any public filling station or bulk station.

"The sale of toy pistols and caps any time during the year is not a violation of the fireworks law.

"The state department reserves the right to stop the use, sale, display and storage of fireworks by any person doing the same in a careless and negligent manner, or violating any of these rules."

The order of Feeney places a ban on the following fireworks articles in Indiana: globe flash salute, marble flash salute, cherry flash salute, auto burglar alarm or auto joker, K-O flash salute, OK flash salute, Radio salute, glitta crax, whistling tornado, whistling cyclone, whistling storm king, spit devil, son of a gun, devil on the walk, No. 0, 1, 2 white snakes (poisonous,) hot air paper balloons (all sizes,) or any fireworks articles equal to the above mentioned articles manufactured under other trade names.

BROWN—CURIE

The marriage of Mary Jane Curie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie, and Roger Brown, of Hicksville, took place Tuesday, June 12th at Auburn. The young couple are at Hicksville where the groom is employed. The groom is a member of the Ohio National Guards and in a short time will leave for camp to spend two weeks time. After their return they will go to housekeeping in Hicksville.

Mary Jane is a graduate of the local high school, and has since made an excellent clerk in the Zonker Store, and has acquired a large circle of friends who extend congratulations.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company

OPEN EVENINGS

Before Buying-See Us About -- YOUR --

Rope and Thrasher Belting

We Aim to have the Best

If we have it, it will cost you less

It will pay you to visit our store

We Handle Standard Binder Twine

Kinsey Funeral Home

Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant

Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

St. Joe Garage

NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Under New Management

ALL KINDS OF TRACTOR AND AUTOMOBILE REPAIR WORK, BATTERY CHARGING, CAR GREASING AND OIL CHANGE.

THE PRICE WE CHARGE FOR OUR SERVICE IS BASED UPON PRESENT DAY CONDITIONS.

Sinclair Gas and Oil

WALTER ZONKER

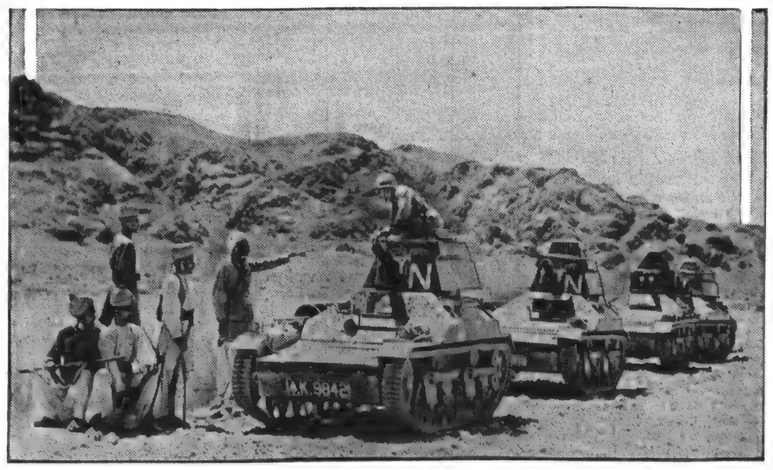
Meade Baker, Manager. Rheo Bassett, Mechanic

JUNE

L 919

U 3 1 0

British Tanks Patrol the Khyber Pass



ALWAYS the famous Khyber pass, which connects India with Afghanistan, is carefully guarded by the British. In our illustration a section of the British Second Light Tank company is seen patrolling that region. The officer is asking information from Afridi tribesmen of the Khyber Khassadar force who guard the road through the pass.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

JENNY WREN'S BIG COUSIN

PETER RABBIT never will forget his surprise when Jenny Wren asked him one morning if he had seen anything of her big cousin. Peter hesitated. As a matter of fact he couldn't think of any big cousin of Jenny Wren. All the cousins Peter knew anything about were very near Jenny's own size.

Now Jenny Wren is one of the most impatient small persons in the world. "Well, well, well, Peter, have you lost your tongue?" she chattered, "Can't you answer a simple question without taking all day about it? Have you seen anything of my big cousin?"

"You needn't be so cross about it if I am slow," replied Peter. "I'm just trying to think who your big cousin is. I guess, to be quite honest, I don't know him."

"I Saw Him Only Yesterday on the Edge of the Old Pasture."

"Don't know him! Don't know him!" sputtered Jenny. "Of course you know him. You can't help but know him. I mean Brownie the Thrasher."

In his surprise, Peter fairly jumped right off the ground. "What's that?" he exclaimed. "Since when was Brownie the Thrasher related to the Wren family?"

"Ever since there have been any Wrens and Thrashers," retorted Jenny. "Brownie belongs to one branch of the family and I belong to another, and that makes him my second cousin. It certainly is surprising how little some folks know."

"But I have always supposed he belonged to the Thrush family," protested Peter. "He certainly looks like a Thrush."

"Looking like one doesn't make him one," snapped Jenny. "By this time you ought to have learned that you never can judge anybody just by looks. It always makes me provoked to hear Brownie called the Brown Thrush. There isn't a drop of Thrush blood in him. But you haven't answered my question yet, Peter Rabbit; I want to know if he's here yet."

"Yes," said Peter. "I saw him yesterday on the edge of the Old Pasture. He was fussing about in the bushes and on the ground and jerking that long tail of his up and down and sidewise as if he didn't know what to do with it. I've never seen anybody twitch his tail around the way he does."

Jenny Wren giggled. "That's just like him," said she. "It is because he thrashes his tail around so much that he is called the Thrasher. I suppose he was wearing his new spring suit."

"I don't know whether or not it was new, but it was mighty good looking," replied Peter. "I just love that beautiful reddish brown of his back, wings and tail, and it certainly does set off his white and buff waistcoat with its dark streaks and spots. You must admit that anyone seeing him dressed so like the Thrushes is to be excused for thinking him a Thrush."

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX
By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a poor woman and sell doughnuts for a living. I charge three cents apiece for the doughnuts. One man says he will buy a dozen doughnuts every day if I will take off one cent from the price of each doughnut, for the hole. I can't afford to sell them cheaper than three cents and would like him for a customer. What shall I do?

Sincerely,
OLIVE OYLE.

Answer—The next time you see him tell him you have decided to give him one cent for each hole when he returns the holes.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am in love with a young lady and I thought she loved me too. Last night I called at her house and her sister told me my girl was not at home. I happened to look on the rack in the hall and I saw my girl's hat hanging there, so I knew she was home. I never want to see her again. Am I right?

Sincerely,
BOB O. LINK.

Answer—You are acting silly. Because you saw her hat in the hall you say she must have been home. In that case, if you saw your girl's stockings in the wash you'd swear she was in the laundry.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

My father told me that a "window" and a "widow" were just the same. How can that be?

Yours truly,
FRANK LEE SPEAKING.

Answer—Your father's advice is very good. He means that when you get near either of them, you want to look out.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

A girl friend of mine was married yesterday and of course I went to the wedding. Some relatives brought their baby to the wedding and all during the ceremony the baby cried. It seemed to spoil the whole thing. I expect to be married very shortly and I want to know how I can keep the guests from bringing babies to the wedding. What shall I do?

Sincerely,
N. GAGED.

Answer—When you have your wedding invitations printed just have printed in one corner of the invitations—"No Babies Expected."

© the Associated Newspapers
WNU Service

Do YOU Know—

That at the mouth of the great Amazon River, lies an island of, approximately the same size as England. It is the island of Marajo—many thousands of square miles in extent—one half of which is dense jungle the other half a vast campos or prairie.

WNU Service

Many Tongues Broadcast

Czechoslovakia believes its broadcasting stations lead the world in the number of languages broadcast. That at Prague generally makes its daily announcements in Czech and German, but every week it also uses Russian, English and French and occasionally Polish and Serb. At Bratislava the announcers speak in Russian, Slovene, Polish, Rumanian and Hungarian.

Mother's Cook Book

SOME GOOD DRINKS

WHEN the weather is either unseasonably hot or too cool we need, some days, a chilling, tinkling drink and the next a hot one. A delightful drink that will appeal to nearly all tastes is the following fruit drink:

Fruit Iced Tea.

Make one cup of strong tea, using two or three teaspoons of the tea to a cupful of boiling water. Let it stand five minutes to steep, then chill. Squeeze the juice of four lemons, three oranges and add enough sugar to sweeten. Chill with plenty of ice, add a half gallon of water and serve with thin slices of orange and lemon floating on the glass.

Ginger Ale Cream.

Serve ice cream in tall glasses, fill up with ginger ale.

Chocolate Ice Cream Soda.

Into a tumbler put a small cone of ice cream, pour over this two tablespoons of chocolate sirup and fill the glass with chilled soda water drawn from a syphon.

Mulled Cider.

Put one quart of sweet cider into a saucepan. Add one small stick of cinnamon broken into pieces, one-half teaspoon of whole allspice, six whole cloves and one small piece of ginger root. Bring to the boiling point, let boil three minutes. Skim and turn into a hot stone pitcher, serve hot in small steins. Hot gingerbread, snappy cheese mixed with rich cream, makes a palatable luncheon with a stein of cider.

Delicious Punch.

Prepare a sirup of one cup of sugar, one-half cup of water, cook until it spins a thread; pour the sirup over three beaten egg whites and add slowly to one quart of freshly made english breakfast tea infusion which has been chilled; add this mixture to one quart of lemon flavored ice cream and mix thoroughly; turn into a freezer and freeze to a mush. Serve from a punch bowl in tall thin glasses.

Ginger Ale Cobbler.

Fill soda water glasses half full of finely crushed ice, add one slice of pineapple (the small size), then fill with ginger ale. Serve at once.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what is imperceptible?"
"Hen's teeth."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

AN AIRPLANE FLIES OVER

By ANNE CAMPBELL

FROM an airplane looking down
Over the recumbent town,
Slum and mansion, avenue,
Alley, boulevard and street,
Melt into an even view,
In a harmony complete.

All is equal from the skies.
God, whose home is Paradise,
Sees his people as do we;
Little folks with aims so high,
Gazing heavenward to see
A red airplane in the sky!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Ensemble for Beach

This beach coat in Mexican effect is of white and henna cotton and is trimmed with large wooden buttons. The hat of sombrero type is of rough straw.

Ant Army at Work

There is a South American ant which proceeds to a cocoa plantation in army formation. Each insect stands on a leaf and slowly and carefully cuts out an almost perfect circle, and back against they march in procession, each with the circle of leaf over the head like an umbrella. Back to their home, the ants masticate the leaf pieces and place them in prepared beds. A peculiar fungus soon grows up in these gardens upon which the ants feed, seemingly their only food.

Dentistry for the Alligator

THIS dentist, Carl Link, would be out of luck if Pontchartrain Billy were to shut his mouth in the middle of his annual dental work. The one hundred and seventy-five-year-old patriarch of the Los Angeles Alligator farm has his valuable molars watched with more care than some humans and as a result will probably live to snap at more than one future generation of visitors.

On the Funny Side

WE KNOW THEM, TOO

Smart was looking rather puzzled.

"Tell me, old fellow," he said to a friend, "have you ever heard of such a thing as cold embers?"

The friend shook his head vigorously.

"Never," he replied. "There can't be such a thing."

Smart smiled artfully.

"Oh, yes, there is," he replied. "November and December—they're cold enough, aren't they?"

Behind the Times

Uncle is coming to lunch and the bride provides asparagus, an unwonted luxury in February. Uncle eats it as if it is nothing.

Bride—But, uncle, what do you think of asparagus in February?

Uncle—Um, that is nothing. Why, way out in Little Slowcombe we had it eight months ago.—Fliegende Blaetter (Munich).

The Real Reason

The tired-looking man sat facing the solicitor. "So you want a divorce from your wife," said the latter. "Aren't your relations pleasant?"

"Mine are," came the answer, "but hers are simply terrible."—London Answers.

Can't Blame Him

Blinks—How did it happen that a man in Perkins' circumstances sent his daughter to Europe for a year?

Jinks—She had fallen in love with a crooner, and he said he'd a darn sight rather go to the poorhouse than have such a thing for a son-in-law.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Merciless Campaigning

"Several of your friends in congress are physicians."

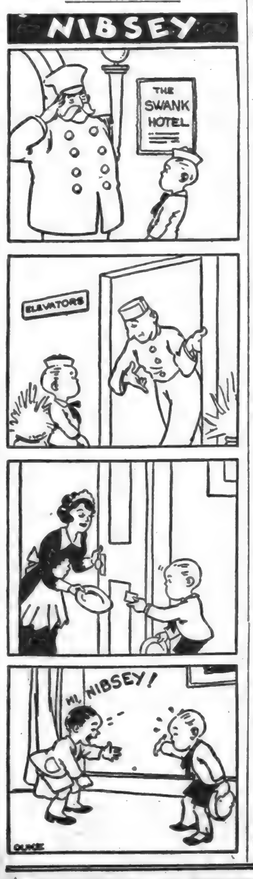
"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "but they are cautious doctors who prescribe only simple remedies. What we need is a bunch of dentists who can pull teeth and administer gas."

Prolific, Anyway

Guest (being shown paintings)—Did you say this is a Corregio?

Host—No, a replica.

Guest—Oh, well, he's a pretty good man, too, isn't he?—London Humorist.



SIMPLE FROCK THAT ACCENTS SMARTNESS

PATTERN 9969

A simple frock is just a simple frock unless it is cleverly cut—and then it becomes one of the smartest things a woman can wear in summer. But choose your design with the greatest care—remember it will have no help from frills or furbelows. To be dead certain of getting something chic, you cannot do better than this model with its smart and becoming neck and its well fitting panels. It is, by the way, a wonderful style for slimming the figure. Use cotton or linen for chic results.

Complete, diagrammed sew chart included.

Pattern 9969 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 34, 36, 30 and 40. Size 16 requires 3⅝ yards 36 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for the pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER AND SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York City.

BOTH SAD CASES

Two men met after 40 years.

Black—I have lost my whole fortune and must go hungry.

White—And I have been forbidden by my doctor to drink beer and must go thirsty—we all have our sorrows.—Lustige Blaetter (Berlin).

Foxy Idea

"Why do you prefer players who have happy homes?" the manager of the baseball team was asked.

"Because," he replied, "the big thing in baseball is getting home, and if a fellow thinks a lot of home he'll be more anxious to get there than one who doesn't."

According to Custom

The Usher—Hey, you! This guy says you bounced a bottle on his bean. What's the idea?

The Guest—Nothin'. Only he butted in on our party an' introduced himself as the "Human Battleship," and I thought it was time he was tested.—Brooklyn Eagle.

A Sure Case

Prisoner—I took the money intending to put it back. You see, I wanted to get married and—

Lawyer—And you expected to put money back after marrying? I can get you off on the ground of insanity. —Exchange.

More Important

Man—My wife is very busy. She's going to address a woman's club.

Neighbor—She's working on the address, I presume.

Man—No; the dress.

A Suggestion

Kathryn—Oh, dear! It's so hard for me to find a fit in any kind of shoes.

Kitty—Ever try snowshoes?—Brooklyn Eagle.

QUALITY GUM

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT
THE PERFECT GUM

AIDS DIGESTION

NRA CODE

JUNE

L 919

JAPAN HONORS EDISON

A society has been organized in Japan to collect funds for a stone monument to Thomas Edison. It will be at Yawata, in Yamashiro province, whence Mr. Edison obtained his first supply of bamboo carbonization which made possible the filament for electric bulbs.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Persuasion Best

Don't force a man into a promise—he'll break it.

ROOT BEER at 1 3/4¢ A QUART

A Real Joy

A 15c package of T&T Concentrate makes 5 gallons—40 pints—of good, pure, sparkling root beer. Cooling, refreshing, thirst-quenching. Made from genuine roots, herbs and barks.

AT YOUR GROCER'S

15¢

Thomson & Taylor Co., Chicago

T&T Root Beer CONCENTRATE

Worm's "Standing"

A worm is the ultimate consumer—and vice versa.

SAVES MORE TIME and WORK than a $100.00 WASHING MACHINE

Coleman SELF HEATING Iron

No Heating with Matches or Torch ... No Waiting ... Lights Instantly, Like Gas

REDUCE your ironing time one-third ... your labor one-half! The Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100 washing machine! Iron any place where you can be comfortable. No endless trips carrying iron from stove to board. Operating cost only ½¢ an hour. Helps you do better ironing, easier, quicker.

See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE COMPANY
Dept. WUM8, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; or Toronto, Ontario, Canada. [208]

STOP "just planning" ... START GOING on a GREAT LAKES CRUISE

Nine-day Duluth-Buffalo and return Cruise $75. Seven-day Chicago-Buffalo and return cruise $60. Palatial ocean-type ships. Incomparable cuisine and entertainment. Full day for sightseeing in Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Go now! Lowest fares in history for the finest cruises in America.

Great Lakes Transit Corporation
S.S. Octorara S.S. Tionesta
S.S. Juniata

Sailing frequently between Duluth, Houghton, Sault Ste. Marie, Mackinac Island, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo. Also twice weekly sailings from Chicago and Milwaukee.

Automobiles Carried Between All Ports

For full information apply any Travel or Railroad Agent or R. J. Kennedy, 203 So. Dearborn St., cor. Adams St. (Suite 301) Chicago.

POOR COMPLEXIONS

Clogged pores, pimples improved in a few days by Resinol Soap and the effective medication of

Resinol

KILL ALL FLIES

Placed anywhere, Tanglefoot Fly Killer stirred and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective, quick, convenient—Cannot spill—Without foul or injurious odor. Lasts all season. 30c at all dealers. Harold Kroger, Dept. 120 De Kalb Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

DAISY FLY KILLER

ANTS DIE

Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

Chic Plaid or Dotted Sports Linens

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

A CRAZE for linen is on. Any fabric, just so its linen, seems to be the idea when it comes to material for this summer's sports, afternoon, and even formal evening costumes. Add accessories to the list, for the summer style program is largely made up of hats, shoes, gloves, pocketbooks and neckwear which are fashioned of linen ranging from finest and sheerest of handkerchief linen to sturdy linens which make the handsomest suitings imaginable.

It's the actual seeing of these marvelous linens which makes one appreciate and realize the why and the wherefore of the fuss and furore made over them. The new plaided and checked, dotted and otherwise patterned soft Irish linens "get you" the moment you glimpse them. That good-looking are they, the smart set are having their travel and about-town and clubhouse costumes tailored of these materials.

As for beach and tennis, golf and general sports wear, these linens—well, words fail us. However, here are three illustrations which will get the message across better than anything that might be said or written on the subject.

If you are in the class of enthusiasts which go in for tennis and golf, beach sports, hiking and general outdoor sports and leisure pastimes no need telling you that "shorts" are the order of the day. It is our personal opinion that no trio of shorts costumes could be more attractive if they tried than the group here pictured.

Pleated shorts turn a clever trick, for they give every appearance of a smart-fashioned short skirt, which makes them eligible to many an occasion where the more simply constructed shorts might seem out of place. The pleated shorts on the seated figure in the illustration are very attractively styled. The stunning blouse with its chic high collar and its modish side fastening and its intriguing sleeves is fashioned of a soft Irish linen which is plaided in blue. The pleated shorts are bright red which makes a very patriotic coloring, indeed, for this good-looking sports costume.

The shorts to the left are also made of blue and white Irish plaid linen, only the plaids are larger than for the blouse just described. Navy blue buttons and a navy blue eton collar are good color accents. Inverted pleats both in front and back insure perfect freedom. The fashionable high neckline in front and a completely bare back follow along lines of newest daytime decolletage, a good idea for sun tanning.

The Irish linen which fashions the beach shorts to the right in the group is of the loose-weave uncrushable type which gives such entire satisfaction in the wearing on hot summer days for rough-and-tumble frolic in the sands. It is backless with a graceful V-line front neckline, which adopts small revers so that if one wants to slip on a jacket after one's sun bath, the costume is quite complete.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

SHOW SHORT SKIRT WITH SUMMER GARB

There are rumors to the effect that as summer advances, street frocks and suits will be slightly shorter, so that one must get after calves and ankles that have thickened.

It is possible to buy anklets of rubber that will reduce fatty accumulations.

They can be worn at night. Certain exercises are helpful—high kicking, running up stairs, lifting up on the toes. Massage will take off inches if it is vigorous.

Make a bracelet of the hands, twist and turn and dig in. Rub up and down with the flattened thumb. During the treatment keep the skin surface covered with borated talcum.

Travel Accessories Best Matching All Clothes

If you are going on a trip and haven't room in your bags to pack several pairs of evening slippers and an extra wrap, take along something that will blend with each formal gown which you intend to wear.

If one of your frocks is black and another is blue, pale green or some other pastel shade, black slippers and a black wrap will go with each dress.

Brown satin pumps and a brown wrap will blend with almost everything except black. They're very nice with pink and good with silver and gold.

Seersucker Raincoats

Checked seersucker is being used to fashion many popular raincoats. Some of them are made in a sleeveless style with cape tops. Matching umbrellas and hats complete these ensembles.

Velvet for Summer

Black velvet and white pique are being featured in one important eastern summer collection of hats. The velvet appears in crowns, brim facings, flowers, belts and pipings.

NEW MILLINERY

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Here's two of the latest in distinctive millinery. For the very good-looking model at the top the designer makes a pirate's cap drape of vel piquante which is a multi-colored striped velvet which made its debut this season, and uses it for the crown of this handsome wide-brimmed navy blue straw. The colors are red, blue, navy, yellow and white. The effect is striking and novel. The new straws are often cellulose and the straw vote is "yes" to the stunning model below in the picture. The high-luster effect which is now so very fashionable in blacks is sustained by a trimming of wide cellulose ribbon. Worn also are rayon mesh gloves with cellulose ribbon cuffs which together with the chapeau makes a stunning ensemble, which was much-admired during a recent exhibition of man-made materials held recently in New York by the Fashion Group of that city.

Hugo's Famous Tribute to Great Predecessor

Just a century after Voltaire's death in 1778, Victor Hugo delivered an oration on the man and his abiding influence, a writer in the Kansas City Star recalls. Hugo was not only his country's greatest poet in the Nineteenth century, but equally famed as the writer of such celebrated dramatic novels as "Notre Dame" and "Les Miserables." He was also a superb orator, and it is safe to say that no more eloquent words have been spoken concerning the Eighteenth century sage during all the years which elapsed since 1778 when Voltaire laid down the burden of his body.

The following passage from that address, May 30, 1878, vividly sums up what the later great Frenchman felt concerning the earlier great man of the same race:

"In the presence of this society, frivolous and dismal, Voltaire alone, having before his eyes those united voices, the court, the nobility and capital; that unconscious power, that blind multitude; that terrible magistracy, so severe to subjects, so docile to the master, crushing and flattering, kneeling on the people before the king: that clergy, vile melange of hypocrisy and fanaticism: Voltaire alone, declared war against that coalition of all the social iniquities, against that enormous and terrible world, and he accepted battle with it. And what was his weapon? That which has the lightness of the wind and the power of the thunderbolt. A pen. With that weapon he fought: with that weapon he conquered.

"Gentlemen, let us salute that memory. . . . He conquered the old code and the old dogma. He conquered the feudal lord, the Gothic judge. . . . He raised the populace to the dignity of people. He taught, pacificated, civilized. He was indefatigable and immovable. He conquered violence by a smile, despotism by sarcasm, infallibility by irony, obstinacy by perseverance, ignorance by truth. I have used the word, smile. It is Voltaire. Whatever may be his just wrath, is passes, and the irritated Voltaire always gives way to the Voltaire calmed. Then in that profound eye the smile appears. That smile, I repeat, is Voltaire. Luminous, that smile was fruitful also. The new society, the society for equality and concession, and that beginning of fraternity which calls itself tolerance, reciprocal good will, the just accord of men and rights, reason recognized as the supreme law, the annihilation of prejudices and fixed opinions, the serenity of souls, the spirit of indulgence and of reason, harmony, peace—behold, all has come from that great smile!"

Don't give up!

I DO NOT want to give up ... but why do I tire so easily ... why can't I 'carry on' ... and how is it that I do not feel like myself?"

It may be that as the result of colds ... indoor or over work ... worry and the like ... the strength of your blood has been weakened—that is, the red-blood-cells and hemo-glo-bin reduced ... and Spring finds you with that "worn-out" and "let-down-feeling."

For such cases try that time-tested tonic S.S.S.—not just a so-called tonic, but a tonic specially designed to restore body strength by its action on the blood.

S.S.S. value has been proven by generations of use, as well as by modern scientific appraisal. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon notice a pick-up in your appetite ... your color and skin should improve with increased strength and energy. © The S.S.S. Co.

In the Springtime—take S.S.S. Tonic. At all drug stores.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES loses another victim

MANY PEOPLE, of course, can safely drink coffee. But there are thousands and thousands of others who cannot. And, without realizing it, you may be one of these.

The caffein in coffee may be working night and day to rob you of sleep, upset your digestion, or undermine your nervous system.

If, for any reason, you suspect that coffee disagrees with you ... switch to Postum for 30 days. It is a delicious drink, and may be a real help. There is nothing in POSTUM that can possibly harm you. It is economical and easy to prepare. A product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE. Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U. 6-41-34
Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address.
Offer expires December 31, 1934.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

—Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

ANY SKIN DISEASE QUICKLY HEALED 3 cent stamp brings details. J. GERNAND - - - Elmhurst, Ill.

CHEMIST recent graduate in analytical and industrial chemistry desires position. Can make small investment. Write Advertiser, Room 9, 4650 Drexel Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

Eczema on Hands Skin Peeled Off in Pieces

Cuticura Healed

"I was troubled with eczema on my hands for ever so long. I could not put my hands in much water because after I got through I could just peel the skin off in pieces. It would form like a rash and bothered me terribly, burning and itching. My hands were sights and I was ashamed.

"I tried a lot of different remedies that did not help. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it helped a lot. I bought more and now my hands are completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. H. S. Hammond, 10 Pleasant St., Hollis-ton, Mass., Aug. 16, 1933.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. One sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. R, Malden, Mass."—Adv.

FOR FLORIDA BEST BARGAIN LIST. Homes, farms, groves, acreage, lots, write W. D. OUTMAN, REALTOR 530 Times Bldg. - St. Petersburg, Fla.

SORES AND LUMPS—My Specialty Write for Free 144 Page Book Dr. Boyd Williamson, Madison, Wis.

JUNE

L 919 U 3 1 2

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Wanted: 75 Raspberry Pickers soon. Apply to Clyde Hart. 23t2.

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 21t5

For Sale: Rural New York seed or eating potatoes. Henry Shroyer. 24t1p.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3644

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Harvey Kimes, Sr., deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 6th day of July, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 6th day of June, 1934.

CLYDE G. RECTENWALL,
Administrator.

Atkinson & Husselman, Atty. 23t3

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana, Administrator of the Estate of Nancy R. Palmer, deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

RALPH E. PALMER,
Administrator.

June 14, 1934.
H. C. Crabill, Attorney. 24t3.

SPENCERVILLE

Fred High spent the week-end with his family here.

Miss Lola Laux is working in the Central Grocery here.

Miss Dorothy Markle enjoyed an outing at Circle Park, recently.

Raymond Foltz sprained his shoulder while working recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones were guests of the Hallabaughs over Sunday.

Miss Donna Gibson returned home Sunday from points around Muncie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes are entertaining their grandchildren this week.

Mrs. Ralph Furnish and daughter, Pauline, spent Wednesday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beams and family were recent guests in the Frank Beams home.

Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown moved on Monday to their new home in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Roy Chaney, who has been quite seriously ill, is much improved at this writing.

Steps are being taken by a number of citizens to insure Memorial Day exercises for next year.

A very large crowd attended the free moving pictures on Saturday evening, given by the merchants.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean spent the week-end at the Judy cottage at Big Lake. They attended a reunion while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Snyder entertained a number of relatives and friends by "listening-in" on the fight Thursday evening.

The class of 1935 of the Harlan high school held their annual outing at Lake James on Sunday. Those from here attending were Kenneth McNabb and Kenneth Klopfenstein.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Ralph Beams is home from I. U. for the summer.

Mrs. Clara Brattian and daughters spent Saturday in Ft. Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed spent Sunday afternoon at Napoleon, O.

Misses Edith and Alta Culbertson are, visiting relatives near Churubusco.

Communion services will be held Sunday morning at the Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Emila Gloyd, who is staying at Newville, spent Sunday at her home here.

Rev. Newcombe, the new M. E. minister delivered his first sermon on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Shockley and children were Sunday afternoon guests at the Vaughn Allen home.

Delbert Furnish has rented the Sarah Betz house and will move his family there this week.

Miss Doris Beams left Monday morning for Muncie, Indiana, where she will attend college.

Rev. and Mrs. Fabianske and children spent the first of the week at North Manchester, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hahn were Saturday evening supper guests at the Gerry Gloyd home.

Word has been received here of the serious illness of Mrs. John Benninghoff, Sr., of Fort Wayne.

Mrs. LeAnna Steward will entertain the Young Ladies Social Club on Tuesday evening, June 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kimes were last week guests of the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Smith and daughter were Sunday morning guests at the Zetta Wertman home.

Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe and twin daughters spent Sunday afternoon at the Mrs. Cora Steward home.

Carol and Dickie Reed, of Muncie, Indiana, are visiting the Minnie Tyndall and Wm. Reed homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and daughters visited the Bine Boots and Frank Butler homes over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Horn and family moved into their new home on the Geo. Horn place on Thursday.

Josephine Fisher and her True Blue class enjoyed a picnic in the Wearley woods on Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Bowser and sons were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vallieu of Dayton, Ohio.

Attendance at the M. E. Sunday School June 17, was 63, collection $2.15; Lutheran 80, collection $3.57.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hensley and family spent Sunday afternoon at Hamilton Lake.

Mrs. Shroyer and Mrs. Perry and children, of near Churubusco were recent guests at the Ralph Culbertson home.

The Scipio Ladies Aid and the Ladies Aid from this place will meet at the parsonage Thursday in an all day meeting.

A sale was held Saturday afternoon disposing of the household goods of the late Rebecca Beams. The property has already been rented to the new high school principal.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson and grandson, Dickie, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arnold and children were Saturday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson.

The C. C. Club will hold their last meeting before vacation at the home of Mrs. Ray Means north of the high school on Thursday afternoon. Members are supposed to come prepared with a song or recitation.

Children's Day services will be held Sunday morning at the M. E. Church and Sunday evening at the Lutheran Church a varied program consisting of a small play, acrostics, drills, exercises, recitations and songs will be given.

Ralph and Woodrow Hursh and George Doll motored to Monroe, Michigan, Friday night and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Vendrely. While there they cruised on Lake Erie but were unable to fish because of heavy storms.

Last Thursday evening the young married people's class met with Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hallabaugh. The evening was spent by hearing the broadcast of the fight and by visiting. Later a weiner and marshmallow roast was enjoyed with pies of all kinds for dessert. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Roy Means, Kenneth Miller, Harold Kraft, Jay Mason, Harold Furnish, Virgil Kimes, Harry Laux, Frank Beerbower, Paul Dean, Maurice Hallabaugh, Mrs. Gaylon Tustison and the children, Leland and Gerald Miller, Gerald Means, Barbara and Beverly Loux, Marilyn and Nancy Tustison, Joyce Dean and Jack Hallabaugh.

The first group of the Methodist Ladies Aid held an ice cream social in the Charles High Restaurant on Saturday night and many attended.

Mrs. Janice Bowser and sons, Jimmy and Jerry spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Wade and family at Defiance, Ohio.

Miss Doris Beams will sing on Thursday at 11 o'clock at the church wedding of her friends, Miss Mary Vivian Peck and Mr. Earl Noble, of Frankton, Ind.

Mrs. Minnie Tyndall left Tuesday to stay at the Mark Tyndall home in Fort Wayne while Mr. and Mrs. Tyndall attend the World's Fair at Chicago this week.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Maude Beams and daughter, Doris spent Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs Wm. Peck at Anderson, Ind. Mr. Beams and son, Ralph spent the day in Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitacre and daughter, Yvonne, of Highland, Indiana, who have been visiting the R. U. Bowser family for the past three weeks have returned to their home.

Mrs. Tressie Kelley Smith and Mrs. Lena Zimmerman attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Effie Baker, of Crestline, Ohio. The funeral was held from the home of the lady's mother in Fort Wayne.

The Young People's class of the Methodist Sunday School held their class meeting last night in High's building. Pot luck supper was enjoyed. The Cheerful Workers class will meet on Friday afternoon in the same building.

Miss Mary Ayers, of Coburntown Sunday School, Forest Brattian from the M. E. School and Lloyd Laux representing the Lutheran School attended the Sunday School convention at South Bend last week representing Spencer township.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNabb, of Auburn, Mrs. John Franklin and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. John McNabb and son, Kenneth and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McNabb spent Thursday evening at the Roy Chaney home. Their guests on Sunday afternoon were Mr. John Myers and daughter, of Harlan, Miss Wilda McNabb, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Abel.

Coburn's Corners

The R. H. Club met with Lillian Scholes Tuesday afternoon.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for June 17, was 99, collection $3.91.

Mrs. Cad Shull, who is at Decatur, Ind., is reported as getting along just fine.

Clyde Hart was able to be present at Bible School Sunday, after several weeks absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart ate dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Poper and family.

Miss Anna McCutcheon, of Edgerton, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Garth Shull and Mrs. Fred Ulm.

Mrs. Dora Wilder spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder, it being their wedding anniversary.

Spencerville school reunion is announced for Thursday, June 28. All are invited who have ever attended the school.

Mrs. Eva Shull, of Garrett, who fell and injured her hip, is now able to walk a few steps with the assistance of crutches.

Miss Mary Ayers, following Bible School, gave a splendid report of the Sunday School convention held at South Bend last week.

Mrs. Fred Hart was called Sunday morning to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Dora Coburn at Fremont, Michigan, who is seriously ill.

Bess Klopfestein spent Sunday afternoon with her son, Robert, at the home of George Hart. Bob and Morgan Harrison are employed at the Hart farm during their summer vacation.

Mrs. Leslie Toye, of Summit, New Jersey, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laumore, of Arcola, Indiana, spent Thursday with Mrs. Chas. Curie. Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee were afternoon callers.

Word received from Howard Dermott and Kenneth Coburn, who started West three weeks ago to make a hitch hike trip to California, stated they were at Marshalltown, Iowa, and their next stop would be St Louis.

The Willing Helpers Class, taught by Mrs Edna Jenkins, held their class picnic at Erick's Grove Sunday following Bible School, with pot luck dinner. Home made ice cream was served to the little Helpers in afternoon. Some enjoyed a swim in the old St. Joe.

NEWVILLE

Joyce Moore was a chicken pox patient last week.

The Traxler families are spending the week at Crooked Lake

E. M. Hetzler, of Angola, called on friends here last Wednesday.

The U. B. Aid Society will have an ice cream social at the Newville U. B. Church Friday evening, June 22.

Mrs. Viola Harter was in Butler last week assisting in the care of her mother, Mrs. Rosa Snellbaker.

Charles Arford, of Butler and Rev. C. W. Moore, of this place, attended a group meeting at Plymouth, Indiana, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Yeiser and daughter, Harriett, Mrs. Lileth Kain and daughter, Helen, were Auburn visitors last Wednesday evening.

The L. W. Yeiser home is under quarantine, their daughter, Mrs. Lileth Kain, of Fort Wayne, being ill there with scarlet fever. The case is very light.

Mr. and Mrs. Vet Johnson and daughter, Frances, from Toledo and Mr. and Mrs. Corma Gibford, of Detroit, spent the past week here with Mr. and Mrs. Green.

CONCORD

Mrs. Anna Koch spent the latter part of last week with her sister, Mrs. C. Jackson.

Byron Widney and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bone called on Mrs. Sarah Widney Sunday afternoon.

The new minister that did the preaching here Sunday did quite well and those hearing him were well pleased.

The social at Concord last Friday evening was quite a success and the ladies all feel good over the proceeds, $32.

Mrs. Ralph Palmer and daughter, Jean, of Monroeville, spent last Thursday with her aunt, Mrs. Ernest Johnson.

Mrs. John Fetters entertained at Sunday dinner Mr. Elza Jones and Mrs. Rosa Camp of Edon Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fetters and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo and daughter, Sally spent from Friday until Monday at the parental homes, Mr. and Mrs. Del Draggoo and Mr. and Mrs. Van-Zile at Auburn.

Sunday guests of Mrs. George Johnson were Mr. and Mrs Peabody and son, of Columbia City, Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen and family and a young lady friend. Mrs. Johnson's sister, Miss Florence Hull is spending this week with her.

Mrs. Sarah Widney and daughter, Ida, arrived home last Friday to spend about two and a half months in their Concord home. Both are looking well and seem to be enjoying fairly good health. Miss Ida teaches school in Alabama.

Local Briefs

A new 1934 road map is yours for the asking at News office.

Betty Nicholls was from Friday until Sunday a guest of Calvin Hull.

Miss Violet May visited a few days last week with friends at Muncie.

The Widney reunion is being held today at the Carl Carpenter home north of town.

Joe Woodcox reports a fine catch of rock bass Monday from the river, just a dozen good sized ones.

Ralph Patterson, Jr., of Springfield, Ohio, was a Sunday night and Monday guest of Frank Curie, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walter and two sons attended the Detrick reunion held Sunday at the Byron Lake home south of Harlan.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bishop, daughter, Frances and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Brown were Sunday dinner guests of Albert Haverstock's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown and son, Warren, of north of Butler, were Sunday guests in the A. W. Trostel home. Recent guests in the same home were Mrs. J. W. Love and Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Petty, of Roan.

Mr. L. B. Crothers, a former St. Joe resident and father of John Crothers, died Tuesday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Bhising, at West Wayne St., Fort Wayne. He had been confined to his bed for two months. No funeral arrangements are announced.

Kodak Films—At News Office.

The DeKalb-Allen County Pythian Sisters association met at Butler, Wednesday in an all day meeting.

Miss Ruth Curie is spending two weeks in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jump, south-east of Hicksville.

Reunion notices printed at The News office in a hurry. Get your cards here for that annual family gathering.

Mrs. J. P. Buckingham, who has been ill for several days, is now feeling better and able to be up and around again.

Mrs. Ella Gill was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs O. H. Herrick. Lawrence Herrick is also spending a few days with his grandparents.

A good sized crowd attended the Children's Day exercises Sunday night at the Lutheran Church and the Sunday School attendance was 77, collection $2.96.

Mrs. W. R. Bachellor, who underwent an operation for tumor at Souders' Hospital recenty, is expected home this week. She is making a rapid recovery.

The Perry Carnahan barn, in Jackson township, burned to the ground Friday afternoon, while they were at the field after a second load of hay. No live stock or machinery were in the barn.

Sunday dinner guests at the Floyd Ridgway home were Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Armstrong and family of Auburn and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Armstrong. Ronald and Betty Armstrong remained for the week.

New gold deposits, together with the recent increase in price of the metal, has started a rush in the Brown-Morgan county district. The gold is about the purest found in nature, running close to 22 carat fine.

Ralph Patterson and family, of Springfield, Ohio, were Sunday guests in the Merritt Sechler home, returning home Monday. Sunday evening guests were H. C. Hathaway and wife, Clayton Hathaway and family, Mrs. F. H. Langley, Everett Mavis and family and Frank Curie and family.

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ridgway last Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday anniversary of the host, who was very much surprised. Home made ice cream and cake were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Abe Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Dale VanWagner and children, of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hallabaugh and family, of Spencerville; Derwood Ridgway and family and Clayton Baker and family of this place.

An effort is being made as the result of a meeting Monday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce in Auburn, to organize, the merchants of DeKalb county into a unit of the Associated Retailers of Indiana, wihch is pledged to a material reduction of governmental expenses in Indiana, aiming especially to the repeal of the gross income tax. The organization is non-partisan. Owners of business will be asked to join and their employes will be solicited to become members of the organization which already numbers 300,000 voters in Indiana.

Mrs. Alice Reidenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Frank May and daughter, Violet, were Tuesday evening callers in the C. G. Bishop home.

Mr. M. L. Miller, of Grand View, Ind., is here installing the new machinery at the flour mill. He arrived Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Warstler and children and C. G. Bishop, wife and daughter attended the Children's Day services at Rehoboth Suday evening and the offering amounted to $17.58.

The 4-H Club met at the home of Mrs. Leon Kees Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president. Fifteen members responded to roll call. Games were played. The next meeting will be held July 2 at Mrs. Kees'. Committees are: refreshment, Myra Keesler, Nelda Kees and Clara Wiers; entertainment, Stella Hart, Beverly Wade, Minta Davis, Marcella Wiers, Jean Hurni, Troas Epler, Myra Keesler. Committee served fruit salad and cake.

The DeKalb county corn-hog production adjustment committee received instructions Thursday from the Indianapolis headquarters that all restrictions as to date for planting fodder corn and grain sorghums for forage on non-contracted acreage on farms under wheat, corn-hog or tobacco contracts have been removed. The question has come up regarding the harvesting of clover seed and other legume seeds on contracted acres. So far as the local committee knows, it is not permitted. Administrative ruling No. 60 was to permit the increase of pasture and roughage crops and should be so interpreted, the order says.

LIFE PROTECTION AT COST!

$1,500 Mutual Life Protection for $7.00; approximate total cost $13.00 per year; non-medical, ages 5 to 75; all races; dues waived after 15 years. Strictly mutual, non-profit Life Protection at cost. Write for particulars.

Dept. A, FAMILY MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION, Heard Bldg., Phoenix, Arizona. 24t3

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Friday, Saturday
JUNE 22-23

"A VERY HONORABLE GUY"
Joe E. Brown Alice White

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
JUNE 24-25-26

"RIPTIDE"
Norma Shearer, Robert Montgomery.

The most fascinating romance of a modern woman since "DIVORCE."

Sunday shows start at 4:30, on week-days at 7:30.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds	$1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds	$1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

JUNE

L 919

V313

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JUNE 28, 1934 NUMBER 25

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago— M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Oct. 11, 1884

Alex Filley is putting a brick wall under his house.

Another cheap excursion to Chicago next Thursday.

This is a grate year fur pole raseing. The crop is goin tu bea a large one an prices wil probala bea lo. The demokrats rased a pole with a brom on it but the winds kame, and as it wus not built upon a rock, it broke off an tumbled down. The republikans tha undertuke tu rase a pole that wood reach tu the moon, an after trying too tymes thay hed tu giv dt up without so much as a stubb tu show fur ther wurk. Then ther wus anuther party who's naim we could not lern, that kame intu town betwean midnite an moring an headed bi a bras band that is the whol band must hav ben pretty brassy, tha tuke a buckeye pole and proceded tu raise it. Now ther wusn't ana thing mean about ther puttin up a pole at nite, but it was a little cheaky fur them to use the hole tu set it up in that wus maid fur anuther breed ov poles. Howevar its none ov mi apple-sauce, I'm in the pole business miself.

Yours in favor of Poles,
Barcus Q. Hippenhammer.

Saturday, Oct. 25, 1884

The campaign will soon be over.

Moses Ashelman's lost his barn and grainery Monday night by fire.

Mrs. Harlow Gee went to Iowa last Wednesday to visit friends.

Jake White is up in the big woods of Michigan hunting bear.

Fred Jenkins will teach school in district number four this winter.

Ruff McDonald has been working at Garrett for the past two weeks.

The cold snap this week made people hunt around for their winter wraps.

The pay car passed through last Thursday and made the railroad boys happy.

Charlie Grubb and Mervin Widney attended a rally at Maysville last Wednesday evening.

George Hamm is building a barn for a man by the name of Gerig, living near Leo.

Quite a good deal of wheat has been brought to market this week. Prices ranged from 72 to 75 cents.

Rev. Coomer of Maysville, will preach at the church at this place on Sunday evening, Nov 2, 1884.

J. S. Jackman, candidate for representative on the republican ticket, was in town last Thursday.

There will be a large public sale at the residence of James R. Roller, (deceased,) two and a half miles north of Maysville, on Saturday, Nov. 1, 1884.

George Bleeks had the misfortune to lose one of his horses this week. "Sam" as he was called, was a fine little buggy horse, and will no doubt be greatly missed by George and his family.

It is really amusing to read the reports given by the different correspondents and reporters for the papers. For instance if there is a republican rally the republican papers will say there was a very large crowd present; the speaking as splendid; there was several bands in attendance and over 300 torchlights in the procession &. The democrat papers would say of the same meeting that it was a very dry affair, that there was about 50 persons present including the women and children, that the speaking was all a pack of lies, that the music was horrible, that there was only 85½ torches in line by actual count, and they were mostly carried by boys &. On the other hand if the democrats have a rally the republican papers would probably say that it was a thin meeting, there was only 7 men, 33 women, 5 babies and 2 dogs present, and the speaker was so full of benzine that he couldn't say any thing, that the music sounded like a pack of boys pounding on a lot of tin pans, that there wasn't enough voters to make a decent torchlight procession &. The democrat papers would claim in their account of it that it was one of the grandest meetings ever held in this part of the country. And so they have it. Now why wouldn't it do to tell something near the truth about these matters and not have so many lies to account for.

NOTICE DOG OWNERS!

We want to close our books for the year on July 16. Payment of dog tax is kindly requested on or before that date.

24t2 Township Assessor.

AT METHODIST CHURCH

Preaching Sunday, July 1, at 10:30 A. M. (D. S. T.) Rev. William D. Koehnlein, of Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

The Friendly Circle Class of the Lutheran Sunday School will serve ice cream and cake on the church lawn Saturday eve, June 30. 24t2.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

The administration is trying to establish all commodity prices on the 1926 price level. The cost of living today as determined by the United States Bureau of Labor is 23% below 1926.

The average rate for domestic electric service on our lines is actually 30% less than it was in 1926. Our rates have not gone up like other things, but have steadily declined.

Our bills to all classes of customers in the year 1933 amounted to $792,300 less than the same service would have cost them at 1926 rates.

H. T. Ewald
Vice President & General Manager

YOU HAVE SAVED THROUGH ELECTRIC RATE REDUCTIONS

SINCE 1926 WE HAVE MADE 3 RATE REDUCTIONS RESULTING IN A SAVING TO OUR CUSTOMERS OF $920,091.

TOWNSHIPS OWE COUNTY $28,000 FOR POOR RELIEF

The growing problem of financing poor relief in DeKalb county is reflected in the semi-annual settlement of tax collection which was started Friday by County Auditor Frank E. Lyon.

A year ago the county credited the townships with $12,168.57 collected from poor fund levies. This left a balance due the county of $22,000. This year the amount credited is more than double that of a year ago, being $24,733.05, but despite this the balance due the county has increased to $38,000.

The total distribution being made by the auditor is $324,768.16, an increase of $20,000 over June, 1933. The delinquent tax distributed, $13,635.09, is approximately the same as a year ago. The sum distributed this year includes three new items, in accordance with new laws passed by the state legislature. They are as follows: taxes on deposits and capital stock of banks, $2,569.39; taxes on personal property of building and loan associations, $630.06 and collections of delinquent plan, $847.32. The general property tax distributed amounts to $321,508.09.

The state's share of the county's tax collections this spring is $26,286.09. The county general fund gets $52,902.38; county road bonds and interest $23,013.70 and township road bonds $38,234.16.

The distribution to the other various taxing units of the county follow:

Auburn city, $15,757.43.
Auburn schools, $31,289.92.
Butler city, $5,745.80.
Butler schools, $6,792.77.
Garrett city, $5,296.11.
Garrett schools, $20,602.15.
Altona, $141.62.
Ashley, $810.30.
Corunna, $615.36.
St. Joe, $405.38.
Waterloo, $4,123.55.
Waterloo schools, $6,254.34.
Union township, $4,763.37.
Wilmington township, $3,773.82.
Franklin township, $4,835.56.
Butler township, $4,221.36.
Concord township, $3,868.51.
Fairfield township, $4,330.89
Grant township, $4,835.56.
Jackson township, $5,217.75.
Keyser township, $4,511.05.
Newville township, $1,335.65.
Richland township, $3,744.12.
Smithfield township, $9,573.63.
Spencer township, $3,831.59.
Stafford township, $869.38.
Troy township, $1,614.33.

WINONA LAKE PROGRAM OPENS JULY 1

All preliminary work has been done for the opening of this World Famous Religious Resort and the present indications are that the attendance this season will be much greater than last. Already many of the cottages are occupied with people who expect to remain all through the season.

The School of Missions, an annual gathering, is now in session and will continue one week.

Sunday, July 1st, will be the official opening day, and Rev. Hurd Allyn Drake, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Kokomo, Indiana, will preach twice, at 10:45 and 6:30. Dr. Drake is the vice president of Winono Lake Institution.

A special program of Sacred Music will be given at 8:00 by the A Cappella Choir of Battle Creek, Michigan, directed by Prof. Harlan W. Cleaveland. This program promises to be one of unusual merit. The choir has appeared in many Sacred Concerts, and last year presented a program at "A Century of Progress."

Numerous activities will take place during the summer season, Schools, Conferences and the great Mid-west Chautauqua, which lasts six weeks, July 1 to August 11; The World's Greatest Bible Conference, August 12-26; The School of Sacred Music, August 13-25 and many other interesting features that mark the season's program.

MANY POSTOFFICES CHANGE CLASSIFICATION

Effective July 1, the postoffice at Ligonier will be advanced from second class to first class and the office at Kendallville will be reduced from first class to second. Classification of an office is determined by the amount of its business. The office at Albion will be reduced from second class to third and the following third class offices will be reduced to fourth class: Ashley, Bunker Hill, Largo, Millersburg, Orland and St. Joe.

BIRTHDAY BREAKFAST

Wednesday, June 20, was a day long to be remembered by the R. A. C., who gave one of their members, Mrs. Edith Cole, at her home north of St. Joe a birthday breakfast surprise. Arriving at 7 A. M. with well filled baskets they found their hostess just ready to retire to take her morning beauty nap. To say it was a surprise is putting it mild. Breakfast was served in their out door dining room north of the house. After a short business session the morning was spent in reviving the hostess and chatting and music. Those present were: Miss Susan Sechler, Mrs. Mary Sechler, Mrs. Jennie Sechler, Mrs. Harriett Sechler, Nora Blue, Grace Dilley, Louise Sechler, Agnes Monroe and daughter, Nancy and Mrs. Cora Curie, all of St. Joe; Mrs. Mabel Pahud, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Jennie Moffet, Mrs. Pauline Rhodefer, Mrs. Jocie Baltz and daughter, Erma and Mrs. Flossie Mavis and daughter, Betty, of Auburn; Mrs. Jessie Adams, Fort Wayne, Mrs. W. A. Sommer, Spencerville and the hostess. One Present.

WO—HE—KA

The third annual summer camp for boys and girls between the ages of nine and sixteen will be held between July 23 and August 4. The camp gets its name from the purposes for which it was organized: WO for worship, HE for health in body and mind, and KA for camp.

This year WO–HE–KA will be held at the west side of Lake Gage overlooking the lake to the east. There are two large buildings for sleeping quarters, two screened-in-porches for classrooms, a delightfully wooded grove for playground, a tennis court, natural amphitheatres for campfires, quiet nooks and high banks overlooking the lake for devotionals. Lake Gage is seven miles northwest of Angola.

Our teachers are all trained and experienced in handling individuals of camp age; our cooks know how to prepare body building foods; and our other helpers are capable of doing their assigned tasks.

Daily schedule will be from 6 A. M. to 9:15 P. M., with something planned for every hour. We expect all persons to join in group participations, but a camper will not be compelled to take morning dip nor take part in games if he finds it impossible.

Every one coming will be expected to cheerfully study, do necessary camp duties, be obedient, and have a very good time.

Again this year we will select an all-camp girl and an all-camp boy on merits of good camping.

We would like to assure the parents that children will be under constant observation, that they are going to have well prepared foods, enough sleep, plenty of exercise, and be carefully watched during the swimming period. Competent instructors will be on hand during periods in the water in addition to the buddy system which will be followed.

Rev. A. H. Fabianske.

WIDNEY REUNION

The Widney reunion was held at the lovely country home of Carl Carpenter, north of St. Joe, Thursday June 21. A basket dinner was served to 50 guests. In the afternoon a short business session was held and the following officers were elected: Grace Dilley, president; Mrs. Miller, of Garrett, vice president and Harvey Hull, secretary and treasurer. A short program was enjoyed by all. The next reunion will be held at the country home of Grace Dilley, north of St. Joe.

TO THE CREDITORS OF THE ST. JOE VALLEY BANK

It has been impossible to be in St. Joe on my regular office days recently, having been called to Chicago and Indianapolis in connection with my duties.

Unless I am obliged to leave in the future, for similar reasons, I will be at the bank during office hours on Saturdays.

Very truly yours,
FRANK M. BRANDON.

Church of Christ S. S. report an attendance of 116, $4.10.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company

OPEN EVENINGS

Before Buying-See Us About
-- YOUR --
Rope and Thrasher Belting
We Aim to have the Best
If we have it, it will cost you less
It will pay you to visit our store
We Handle Standard Binder Twine

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

St. Joe Garage
NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS
Under New Management

ALL KINDS OF TRACTOR AND AUTOMOBILE REPAIR WORK, BATTERY CHARGING, CAR GREASING AND OIL CHANGE.

THE PRICE WE CHARGE FOR OUR SERVICE IS BASED UPON PRESENT DAY CONDITIONS.

Sinclair Gas and Oil
WALTER ZONKER
Meade Baker, Manager. Rheo Bassett, Mechanic

JUNE

L 919

314

DETACHABLE CAPES MAKE FOR VARIETY

PATTERN 9943

Detachable capes are so fascinating and so smart! This is a lovely dress for town wear, and it is adaptable to all sorts of occasions. It's especially attractive if made of a dotted print, as shown in the picture; but any of the checks, stripes or figured fabrics are nice for it. The dress is uniquely fashionable in that it combines tall slenderness with well-planned curves. The curved hip line is repeated by the curve of the yoke, collar and cape. Very becoming to every one!

Pattern 9943 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 4 yards 39-inch fabric and ¼ yard contrasting.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

SMILES

OFTEN RHYMES WITH "CUTE"

"Say, Bill, how in thunder can one distinguish 'minute,' meaning sixty seconds, from 'minute,' meaning very small?"

"There's no visual way, Jim, but if you see 'minute steak' on the bill of fare you know how the adjective is pronounced when you get your order."—Philadelphia Evening Star.

A Specialist

"Doctor, I want to consult you about my stomach."

"But, madam, you are mistaken, I am a doctor of philosophy."

"Goodness me! What strange diseases there are nowadays."

Understanding

Percy—Er—er—um—um—that is ah—might I—er—

Jeweler—Certainly, sir. Samuel, bring me over that tray of engagement rings.—Toronto Globe.

Word to the Wise

"I see you have a 'No Tipping' sign on the wall," remarked the diner.

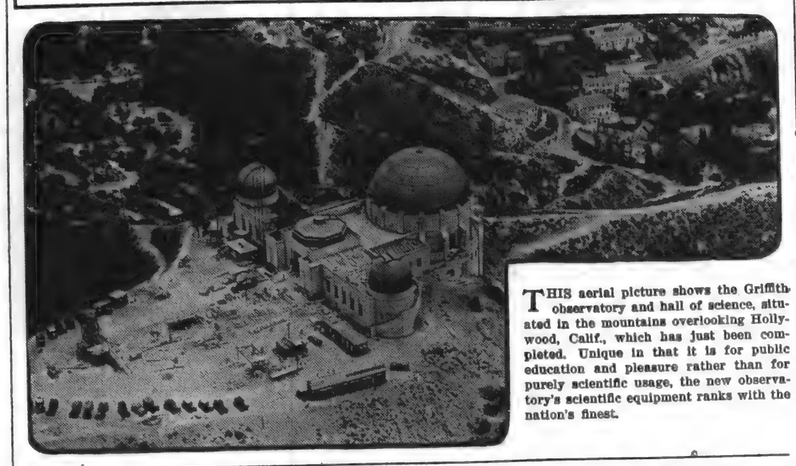
"Oh, yes," said the waiter, "but only those on a diet ever pay any attention to it."

QUALITY GUM

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE PERFECT GUM

5¢ AND WORTH IT!

Griffith Observatory, Near Hollywood, From the Air



THIS aerial picture shows the Griffith observatory and hall of science, situated in the mountains overlooking Hollywood, Calif., which has just been completed. Unique in that it is for public education and pleasure rather than for purely scientific usage, the new observatory's scientific equipment ranks with the nation's finest.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

PETER GETS ANOTHER SURPRISE

"DID you hear my cousin, Brownie the Thrasher, sing?" asked Jenny Wren of Peter Rabbit.

"Did I hear him sing?" replied Peter, his eyes shining at the memory. "He sang especially for me. He has a wonderful voice, has Brownie, and when he is singing he acts as if he enjoys it himself and knows what a good singer he is. I noticed that that long tail of his hung straight down, the same way Mr. Wren's does when he sings."

Peter Blinked and Stared, for He Was a Very Much Surprised Rabbit.

"Of course it did," retorted Jenny promptly. "That's a family trait. The tails of both my other big cousins do the same thing."

"What—wha—what's that? Have you got more big cousins?" cried Peter, staring up at Jenny Wren as if she were some strange person he had never seen before.

"Certainly," retorted Jenny. "Mocker the Mocking-bird and Kitty the Catbird belong to Thrasher's family, and that makes them second cousins to me."

Such a funny expression as there was on Peter's face! He felt that Jenny Wren was telling the truth, but it was surprising news to him, and so hard to believe that for a few minutes, he couldn't find his tongue to ask another question. Finally he ventured to ask very timidly, "Does Brownie imitate the songs of other birds the way Mocker and Kitty do?"

Jenny Wren shook her head very decidedly. "No," said she; "he's perfectly satisfied with his own song."

"He ought to be," declared Peter. "Anyone who can sing as he can should be quite contented."

Before another word could be said, the clear whistle of Glory the Cardinal sounded from a tree just a little way off. Instantly Peter forgot all about Jenny Wren's relatives and scampered over to that tree. You see, Glory is so beautiful that Peter never loses a chance to see him.

As Peter sat staring up into the tree trying to get a glimpse of Glory's red coat, the clear, sweet whistle sounded once more. It drew Peter's eyes to one of the upper branches, but instead of the beautiful brilliant coat of Glory the Cardinal, he saw a bird about the size of Welcome Robin, dressed in ashy gray with two white bars on his wings and white feathers on the outer edges of his tail. He was very trim and neat and his tail hung straight down after the manner of Brownie's when he was singing. It was a long tail, but not as long as Brownie's. Peter blinked and stared, for he was a very much surprised rabbit.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Afternoon Tunic

This attractive tunic dress for afternoon is of powder blue silk linen. It buttons down the back and has a sheer navy blue scarf.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what are racketeers?"

"Kids next door."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN

The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have just written a song. The lyrics are very sad. They are about a young man telling how he made love to a young girl and of her promise to marry him, then on the day before the wedding she tells him she will not marry him because she found out he didn't have any money. Will you please give me a suitable title for my song?

Yours truly,
ART ISTICT.

Answer—The best title for your song (according to the above description) would be "She Looked Me Up in Bradstreet's, Now I'm Dun."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Is it true that a Scotchman "loves HIS whisky?"

Sincerely,
JACK KNIFE.

Answer—It is true that he loves whisky, but not "his." He loves someone else's.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a young lady 22 years of age and considered very pretty. I am keeping company with three young men about my own age. Is it all right for me to go with three different fellows?

Yours truly,
I. M. A. FLIRT.

Answer—It is not all right if the other two find it out.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

In the government income tax notice, mention is always made of "A Full Return." What do you think that means?

Sincerely,
D. LINQUENT.

Answer—To me "A Full Return" always means when a man comes back home drunk.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I hear a great deal of talk about "Mermaids." I don't believe there are such things, do you? If so, maybe you are smart enough to tell me where they sleep?

Sincerely,
C. BEAST.

Answer—My dear child, "Mermaids" when they are little babies sleep in "the cradle of the deep," and when they grow up, "in the bed of the ocean."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

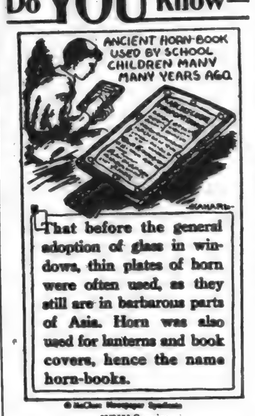
I have heard several authors of books referred to as "chemists." I know some authors have different degrees conferred on them, but never "chemist." Can you tell me what makes an author a "chemist?"

Truly yours,
I. REED ALOTT.

Answer—An author is called a "chemist" when his book becomes a drug on the market.

© the Associated Newspapers
WNU Service.

Do YOU Know—



That before the general adoption of glass in windows, thin plates of horn were often used, as they still are in barbarous parts of Asia. Horn was also used for lanterns and book covers, hence the name horn-books.

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate
WNU Service

Mother's Cook Book

FOR WARM DAYS

ICED coffee prepared as usual, served with ice, sugar and cream, according to taste, makes a most refreshing drink for a warm day, served at luncheon. Here is a treasured recipe which it will be well to prepare and have ready for any emergency.

Lemon Sirup.

Grate the rind from one lemon, add the juice of six lemons with four cupfuls of sugar and two cupfuls of water. Boil together for ten minutes; cool and put into a bottle in the ice chest. When serving pour a tablespoonful or two of the sirup into a glass, add chipped ice with cold water and serve at once. This is so good and is always ready to serve at a moment's notice.

Lemon Soup.

Add the juice and grated peel of a lemon to four cupfuls of water, bring to a boil and thicken slightly with three teaspoonfuls of arrow root mixed with a little cold water. It is better to add the juice of the lemon without cooking, just as it is served.

Mint Sangaree.

Crush three spriga of mint with a lump of sugar, drop into a glass half full of cracked ice. Add four tablespoonfuls of grape juice and fill the glass to the brim with charged water. Shake thoroughly and strain into another glass. Serve garnished with a sprig of mint.

Chicken a la Stanley.

Melt one-fourth of a cupful of batter, add one large onion thinly sliced and two broilers cut into pieces for serving. Cover and cook slowly for ten minutes. Remove the chicken, rub the stock and onions through a sieve and add one and one-half tablespoonful each of butter and flour cooked together. Add cream to make the sauce of the right consistency, season well and serve poured over or around the chicken on a hot serving dish. Garnish with sauted bananas.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

A ROOM IN A HOSPITAL

By ANNE CAMPBELL

SEEN in the morning light, the creamy walls
Are tinged with the faint luster of the dawn.
Outside my room, a rustle in the halls
Whispers another night has come and gone.

The rattle of the trays proclaims the hours,
As steadily the day moves into night. . . .
There may be visitors, new books, bright flowers
To touch the heart with exquisite delight.

There are good thoughts to share in spite of pain,
New friends to make, old friends to greet once more;
A slow advance toward health and strength again
To meet that strange old world outside my door.

But in the meantime, my affection holds
One world alone. . . . The sunlight speeds the gloom,
As I lie here, while all my love enfolds
My world . . . the narrow walls of one small room. . . .

Copyright.—WNU Service.

GIRLIGAGS

"One thing about us women," says sensuous Sue, "we always know our next scent is coming from the corner drug store."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Model Farm House of the Future

ILLUSTRATING the changes in American living conditions, this model farm house erected by The Country Home, a national farm magazine, attracts much attention at the World's Fair in Chicago. It is in a beautifully landscaped lot adjoining the dairy exhibits. New ideas are embodied in its construction, which is of brick, steel and concrete. The lower floor contains living room, kitchen, laundry, wash room, farm office, work shop and two-car garage. The upper floor has four bedrooms and bath, plus a "roof deck" over the entire garage. The brick used is reinforced with steel rods, precast in panels, and set in place much as the so-called fabricated houses are built. The house is fireproof and can be built for less than $5,000. As shown at the World's Fair, it is completely equipped with all modern improvements. The house has no cellar, its architects maintaining that a cellar is obsolete and expensive.

YEAR OF DRYNESS

Perhaps 1934 will be known in history as the year of the drought. Abnormally dry weather prevailed over Central Europe and in early June it damaged German crops to a minimum of 25 per cent. In England more than 160 rural areas were short of water and the rainfall for the year ending May 31 was the lowest ever recorded. The level of the Thames fell so much that fish were landlocked in many backwaters.—Literary Digest.

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

A Few Drops Every Night and Morning Will Promote a Clean, Healthy Condition!

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dpt. W, Chicago, for Free Book

Over the Hills, Etc.

"Was your barn hurt during the cyclone?"

"I dunno; I ain't found it yet."

DO YOU SUFFER FROM NEURITIS?

American and European Scientists Agree That Mineral Water Is Beneficial

TRY THIS NATURAL WAY

People spend hundreds of millions of dollars every year going to the great mineral water health resorts of Europe and America.

Many of these people have to travel thousands of miles. Many of them were suffering untold pain from "rheumatic" aches, from arthritis, from neuritis, from gout. Others suffered from certain stomach ailments or excess acid or sluggishness or a general rundown condition.

The scientific and medical records of Europe and America show that a very large percentage of these people gained blessed relief and help by these natural mineral water treatments.

Today, however, you do not have to travel long distances to partake of the healthful qualities of fine natural mineral water. You do not even have to pay the excessive cost of having it shipped to you in quart or gallon containers. For Crazy Water Crystals bring to your own home the precious minerals of one of the world's fine mineral waters in crystal form at a great saving in expense.

To Crazy Water Crystals absolutely nothing is added. All you do is add Crazy Water Crystals to your drinking water and you have a great mineral water which has benefited millions.

If you, or any of your friends, suffer from "rheumatic" aches or pains we suggest you investigate Crazy Water Crystals at once. Just ask any of the millions of people who have given them a full and fair trial and you will realize how beneficial they have been to so many sufferers.

The standard size box costs only $1.50 and makes enough mineral water for several weeks treatment. Crazy Water Co., Mineral Wells, Texas.

CRAZY Water Crystals

are for sale by dealers displaying the red and green Crazy Water Crystals sign. Get a box today.

ITCHING SKIN

Wherever it occurs on the body—however tender or sensitive the parts—quickly and safely relieved by

Resinol

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Restores Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling. Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. 60c and $1.00 at Druggists.

Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 60 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

KILLS ANTS

Simply sprinkle Peterman's Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. Get it at your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

Quilt Patches—Beautiful colorfast prints, florals, etc. 35c per lb. We pay postage. MARY MORGAN, 3033 Cortland, Chicago.

SORES Any Location—Any Cause. Write for Free 168 Page Book on Sores, Ulcers, Varicose Veins, Etc. Dr. Frank Hillerman, Pioneer, Ohio.

JUNE

L 919

0315

New Hair Fashions Are Versatile

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

MOST women realize or are coming to realize that as far as capitalizing personal charm and achieving a smart and distinctive appearance are concerned, there is nothing which so effectively does just that as perfect grooming. Not even a wardrobe of beautiful clothes can do for one that which a becomingly coiffed head, a cunningly arched eyebrow and a youth-giving facial can do.

In lieu of which, small wonder is it that the matter of placing one's destiny in the hands of one's favorite beautician is growing to be a fixed habit with the fair sex rather than an occasional luxury.

And so, Madam and Miss Vacationist, how about it, are you making it a matter of first importance to see to it that your hair is set in order ere you depart for seashore, or mountainside? Now that the newest method is to do it the machineless way—no wires attached—no electricity, the acquiring of a "permanent" becomes more of a pastime than a trying, tedious ordeal.

By the way, it is well to keep in mind in regard to the latest hairdress that the distinguishing feature of the smartest coiffures is hair that is partly curly and partly straight. Which means that for the first time in years the girl with straight hair has a real advantage, for she can get a permanent wave and have the waves placed where she wants them instead of having them all over her head. The girlish hairdress at the top of the group illustrates the idea. Here the hair is brushed back sleek and waveless from the forehead with curls and waves developing at the back and each side. That pretty fashion of wearing flowers in the hair has been revived. In this instance a semi-wreathlet of posies adds infinite charm.

The winsome maiden wearing the fluffy-ruffle net collar, posed below in the picture, also has a part-straight and a part-curly hairdress, and there is a suspicion of bangs surmounting her lovely brow—an adorable coiffure for youth.

Yes, we agree with you, the hair arrangement to the left in the picture is extreme and will probably interest only the type who are seekers after something "different." We appreciate the fact that it would take some time for the conservative average woman to adjust to such a radical change from prevailing fashions as this. However, it does carry the message that the newest trend is to bring curls up higher on the head off the nape of the neck, not necessarily as high as pictured, but striking a happy medium. Here you see also the coronet braid which if you haven't one grown to your head, need worry you not at all, for you can buy 'em looking as natural as your very own. And beau-catchers, that's what our grandmammas used to call them in the days of their youth, if we are not mistaken—referring to those little curly-kews over the temple and forehead.

A more conservative hairdress is presented to the left in the group. It is just such as ladies of refinement and cultured taste will covet. Not a hair is seen out of place, which is exactly what fashion demands of the new coiffures, an exquisite finesse which stands for expert grooming.

Since it is again the fashion to wear ribbons and bandeaux, we thought you might like to see the attractive way the idea has been carried out in the instance of a young modern, so we are adding it (in the circle) as a postscript. The bandeau is formed of velvet leaves which crown her pretty waves and curls in classic simplicity.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

Bridges' Part in Warfare

Structures Over Which Conquering Legions Marched, and Vanquished Fugitives Fled, Figure on Almost Every Page of History.

For a long time the River Danube, of waltz fame, had been flowing peacefully by the busy, industrial town of Linz, in upper Austria. Across the bridge there that spans its gray-green, not "blue," waters, orderly traffic daily shuttled.

Suddenly, as civil war flamed over the country, the Linz bridge changed from trade artery to battle ground. Machine-gun fire spattered from its sides as Socialists desperately tried to hold their line against government troops. On shore howitzers were wheeled into position and the big guns spoke, while rifles and machine guns raked the water.

Farther downstream, at Vienna, there was more activity on the Danube, as soldiers poured across the river against rebel suburbs, taking cover behind pillars of the bridge to avoid snipers. On another bridge, Socialist leaders stood with ammunition and guns to distribute to all who would accept. And nearby, government engineers worked hurriedly on the emergency pontoon bridge that would facilitate army transport.

Such scenes from recent uprisings in Austria remind one that bridges and rivers have known many tragedies and always play an important part in war.

"If I had had ten pontoons," wrote Napoleon in 1814, "I should have captured 10,000 wagons, beaten Prince Schwarzenberg . . . and closed the war. . . ."

Hundreds of years before Christ, the Persian King Xerxes, enraged at the storm that destroyed his boat bridge over the Hellespont, ordered the waves lashed and pontoon builders executed. Then, across another stronger bridge, he marched his powerful army against Greece.

Many old bridges, still standing, were under foot when history was made, dripping with the blood of conqueror and vanquished. The bridge of St. Angelo at Rome is one such. Over it Goths and Vandals came—and went. In its time the Coliseum crumbled.

In the Middle ages, practically all important bridges were scenes of bitter conflict. Fortified construction was the order of the day. Bridges with thick stone gateways and towers were built to withstand siege. Many had openings for crossbow men to shoot through and ledges over which hot oil could be poured on the heads of enemies.

Old London bridge, started in the Twelfth century, had such heavy stone arches and huge piers that it was dangerous to sail between them. Men used to say "London bridge was made for wise men to go over and fools to go under." But not too safe at that for wise men, as numerous struggles and disastrous fires testified. Once several thousand people were trapped on this old causeway, to burn or drown, when houses at both ends caught fire.

An every-day reminder of the death meted out to bandits and traitors, human heads were sometimes prominently displayed on this old bridge, as at many such public thoroughfares. In the tower of the Karlsbrucke bridge, at Prague, Czechoslovakia, the heads of 27 Behemian noblemen were hung in iron cages, after their defeat in the battle of White mountain in 1620.

Those days have gone forever. But people still shudder at some memories that cling to bridges. There was the Philippine insurrection that occurred on San Juan bridge, near Manila, and the fairly regular shooting by armed guards of Chinese boatmen who—inadvertently of otherwise—came too close to the Harbin bridge over the Sungari river in what was then Manchuria.

Closer home, the Indian massacre at the bridge of Deerfield, Mass., in 1703, and the encounter of Washington's Continental troops with the British at Jeffrey's ford on the Brandywine in 1777 are recalled.

Haunted bridges, like "haunted houses," are everywhere. They are part of the price man has paid for his progress from stepping stones to steel girders. And though such sinister names as "Butchers' Bridge," "The Priest's Widow," or the "Bridge of the Little Hell" remain, tradition also leaves pleasant and humorous memories, like the good friar in his old bridge chapel at Avignon, France, "healing the sick and maimed," or that frugal queen of the Middle ages who offered at the chapel of St. Mary only six and eightpence in honor of 11,000 virgins!

"Even in New England," says a writer in describing covered bridges there, "it was always considered proper to steal a kiss from a pretty girl while passing through the bridge."—Washington Post.

Point to Remember

Lawyer—It will cost you $50 to have me take hold of your case.

Client—And how much for you to let go?

STOP "just planning" . . . START GOING on a GREAT LAKES CRUISE

Nine-day Duluth-Buffalo and return Cruise $75. Seven-day Chicago-Buffalo and return cruise $60. Palatial ocean-type ships. Incomparable cuisine and entertainment. Full day for sightseeing in Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Go now! Lowest fares in history for the finest cruises in America.

Great Lakes Transit Corporation
S.S. Octorara S.S. Tionesta
S.S. Juniata

Sailing frequently between Duluth, Houghton, Sault Ste. Marie, Mackinac Island, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo. Also twice weekly sailings from Chicago and Milwaukee.

Automobiles Carried Between All Ports

For full information apply any Travel or Railroad Agent or B. J. Kennedy, 203 So. Dearborn St., cor. Adams St. (Suite 301) Chicago.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

OLD AGE PENSION INFORMATION
Send Stamp
JUDGE LEHMAN - - Humboldt, Kan.

SUMMER CLOTHES REALLY FEMININE

Clothes have become so profoundly feminine that happily one no longer feels obliged to babble about their femininity.

They are obviously created for women, not for tomboys, or baby dolls. This midseason shows the mode ascending toward a perfection of balance that has not been achieved in a long time. Exaggerated wind-blown effects have been swept away, leaving pleasant ghosts of their former selves to lend movement to the silhouette. The bust is now the most important point—yes, one can say it, the high spot—of the silhouette. Every couturier emphasizes it in some way, at least on frocks and blouses. All the other moot style boundaries fade into insignificance beside it.

Black Complex Features Midsummer Collections

Lovely, wearable, feminine clothes distinguished the Paris midseason collections. Freaks and oddities were conspicuous by their absence; no bustles, no panniers, no fish-fins, nothing zoological. They follow, in the main, the natural lines of the body, and their aim is to make women attractive.

Two leading points stood out. First, the black complex. Secondly, the persistence of the three-quarter coat.

Many collections are so black, that you might think a gigantic inkwell had been spilled over them. Black for morning, black for afternoon, black for evening. Sometimes, for evenings, very exciting fabrics make the black gowns unusual. Cellophanes, and cires, and curious crinkles and clokies.

With her blacks, whites, and unusual grays, and her fabrics suggesting widow's weeds, Schiaparelli seemed to be celebrating the funeral of the depression.

NAVY SHEER SUIT

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

This smart new and very wearable swagger suit in a heavy sheer of bemberg has a dashing windswept collar of white pique. A suit of this description is an asset to any and every summer wardrobe. Its three-quarter coat will pose stunningly over any one of your daytime prints and it looks ever so voguish worn with your white and pastel colored piques and linens. Every woman will at once see the possibilities in this suit.

Most Amazing Proof

OF EXTRA STRENGTH · SAFETY AND DEPENDABILITY

Ever Known!

THE NEW FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRE FOR 1934

Greatest Tire Firestone Has Ever Made

WORLD RECORD BROKEN

IT IS almost inconceivable that human ingenuity could build tires that would withstand the terrific punishment of the 500-mile grind at Indianapolis, May 30.

'Round and 'round the blistering track they streaked, hour after hour, under the blazing sun . . . the low moan of powerful motors rose to a terrific roar as they hit the straightaways at 150 miles or better—grinding, pulling, pounding around treacherous tire-destroying curves faster than they ever dared before. Sliding into the turns at these terrific speeds, there was nothing to hold the car to the track except the tire.

Mile after mile, lap after lap, greater and greater heat and increased centrifugal force developed to separate the tread from the body of the tire. Every conceivable force known was working to tear the tires to pieces—yet Firestone High Speed Tires, with Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords, withstood this most gruelling test.

Thirty-three demons of speed—thirty-three cars equipped with Firestone High Speed Tires—all protected by Gum-Dipped High Stretch Cords—entered the Annual Speed Classic. Every tire was bought by the driver or owner of the car.

In all the heat—in all the grinding—in all the straining and pulling—not one cotton strand loosened—not one life was endangered by tire failure—not one car was forced out of the race by tire trouble. Six of the winners finished without a tire change. What a tribute to the Extra Strength—Safety and Durability built into Firestone High Speed Tires.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

The amazing record of Firestone dependability at Indianapolis was made possible by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping. Every fibre of every cord in every ply of the tire is saturated and coated with pure liquid rubber; there are eight extra pounds of rubber to every 100 pounds of cotton cords.

There is greater adhesion between the plies of the Gum-Dipped Cord body and between the body and the tread. As a result of this patented process of Gum-Dipping Firestone engineers have been able to build a wider tread of flatter contour, with more and tougher rubber and deeper non-skid, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Don't delay! Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934. Drive with security and peace of mind. Choose the Tires that Champions Buy!

Unequaled PERFORMANCE RECORDS

FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRES

★ For fifteen consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the 500-mile Indianapolis Race.

THIS MEANS BLOWOUT PROTECTION

★ For seven consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the daring Pikes Peak climb where a slip meant death.

THIS MEANS NON-SKID SAFETY AND TRACTION

★ For three consecutive years have been on the 131 buses of the Washington (D. C.) Railway and Electric Company covering 11,337,810 bus miles without one minute's delay due to tire trouble.

THIS MEANS DEPENDABILITY AND ECONOMY

★ Were on the Neiman Motors, Ford V-8 Truck that made a new coast-to-coast record of 67 hours, 45 minutes, 30 seconds actual running time.

THIS MEANS ENDURANCE

See Firestone Air Balloon Tires made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair, Chicago

Listen to the Voice of Firestone every Monday Night over N.B.C.—WEAF Network

Firestone

MOST MILES PER DOLLAR

JUNE

L 919

U 3 1 6

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

soon. Apply to Clyde Hart. 23t3
Wanted: 75 Raspberry Pickers

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 21t5

For Sale: Rural New York seed or eating potatoes. Henry Shroyer. 24t1p.

Baber Shop, open evenings, Wednesday, Friday P. M. and Saturday all day. Geo. Milliman, Spencerville. 25t2.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3644

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Harvey Kimes, Sr., deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 6th day of July, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 6th day of June, 1934.

CLYDE G. RECTENWALL,
Administrator.

Atkinson & Husselman, Atty. 23t3

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana, Administrator of the Estate of Nancy R. Palmer, deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

RALPH E. PALMER,
Administrator.

June 14, 1934.
H. C. Crabill, Attorney. 24t3.

HUNTERTOWN FARM WOMAN PRESENTS A. A. A. PLAN TO LEADERS

Mrs. Vera Hatch, the woman whose rural education plan was received by agricultural adjustment administration in Washington, with such interest that she was called to the national capitol to supervise handling of the project, spoke Friday evening at a called meeting of farm and school leaders at Auburn court house.

Mrs. Hatch is now on a national tour conducting meetings on the rural education plan which she devised, her plan included the teaching of co-operative buying and marketing plan in use by rural organizations to pupils of rural schools of the nation.

Among those invited to attend were the city board of education, Parent-Teacher association directors, the agricultural agent and his staff, 4-H Club leaders, all township trustees and county superintendent of schools, social and educational chairmen of the Farm Bureau. Grace Dilley, Gertrude Borthwick and Josephine Kees represented Concord.

ESTHER JOHNSON TO WED–MIDSUMMER

Miss Esther Johnson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Johnson, of Bryant Avenue, Bellevue, whose marriage to Norman O. Scribner, of Washington, D. C., will be an event of the midsummer, was honor guest at a prenuptial party held Monday. Misses Sarah Ruthferford and Lucille Breeding of Fish Avenue, Avalon, were hostesses at the party, a bridge, the tallies for which were designed with pictures of the bride-elect and her fiance.

This is the second of a series of parties planned for Miss Johnson. Mrs. Neva Laughlin was the first hostess.

The bride-elect attended Butler University at Indianapolis, Ind., and was graduated from both Carnegie Institute of Technology and DePauw University. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity. Mr. Scribner attended Mercersburg Academy and is a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University and Boston University. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.—Pittsburgh Press, June 21.

LIFE PROTECTION AT COST!

$1,500 Mutual Life Protection for $7.00; approximate total cost $13.00 per year; non-medical, ages 5 to 75; all races; dues waived after 15 years. Strictly mutual, non-profit Life Protection at cost. Write for particulars.

Dept. A, FAMILY MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION, Heard Bldg., Phoenix, Arizona. 24t3

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

MAL WOODCOX AGAIN WRITES FROM C. C. CAMP

Co. 562 C. C. C.,
Camp F-155 Nowhere Creek
Coeur d' Alene, Idaho.

Mr. Fred Leighty
Editor, St. Joe News,
St. Joe, Indiana.

Dear Fred:

In a way that I think best, I'll try to thank you for sending me the paper for the last month, it sure is good to see the old home town paper every week, it's funny how a person doesn't appreciate the things he has all the time until you are taken away from them for a while, so I'll try to tell you something of the camp we are in and the country surrounding it to repay you for the kindness you have shown me in sending The News.

Since I last wrote you, we have moved from the Fort at Spokane and are now situated in a camp about 65 miles from Coeur d' Alene, Idaho. In all we moved about ninety miles in moving from the Fort to our new location. We were compelled to cross two ranges of mountains before we finally dropped down to a valley in the very heart of the Rockies, here we are surrounded by mountains on all sides, and are on the banks of a fairly large mountain stream called Nowhere Creek, whence the unusual name of the camp. It really is a very pretty location for a camp but in the way of neighbors we have none but a few more C. C. C. camps spread around over the whole of northern Idaho. The nearest town is Coeur d' Alene and as I mentioned before it is 65 miles distant.

The principal occupation of the boys here is the eradication of the blister rust on the white pine which is threatening the pine forests of the U. S. This is accomplished by the pulling up by the roots of all wild gooseberry bushes found in the woods, as the fungus which causes blister rust develops to its final stage on the leaves of the gooseberry. I have been very lucky so far in securing a job in the camp, it consists of operating the company store, and keeping the books on the same, although it gets rather tiresome at times, I still regard myself as very fortunate in having a job like this.

Altho we are away out here in Nowhere, yet we do have all the comforts of home, almost. We have a hot and cold shower, where one may take a bath at any time of day, also an electric light plant and also power with which to operate the radio. Just this week we moved into a new mess hall, the old one was just a tent, but now we have one built entirely of lumber, here we eat out of plates with regular silverware. So all in all we don't have it so bad, even if we are isolated out here in woods and mountains from the rest of the world.

Thanks again for the paper, I do appreciate it a lot, and if you are ever out in Idaho and anyone asks you where you are going, just tell them "Nowhere" and you'll be going somewhere! ! !

Yours,
Malcolm Woodcox.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Bible school attendance for last Sunday was 75, collection $2.92.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder are the proud parents of an 8 pound son, born June 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hart, of Hicksville and J. S. Shull spent Sunday at the lake.

Mrs. Chas. Curie and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee in St. Joe.

Mrs. Josephine Shuff and daughter of Niles, Mich., spent Thursday with Mrs. Inez Hadsell.

The Rural Housewife Club met June 19 with Lillian Scholes. Fourteen members and one guest, Margaret Hamilton were present. Following the business meeting Inez Hadsell conducted two contests. Club will meet on the evening of July the 4th with Pluma Hamilton, and will be family night. The hostess served home made ice cream, wafers, orange ade and coffee.

Kodak Films–At News Office.

George Hart and Wilbur Yeiser went to Ann Arbor, Michigan on Tuesday for a check up on Mr. Hart's arm.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and daughter, Maxine, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday afternoon with their son, Morgan, at the George Hart home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kimes, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Murphy, of Hicksville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mason.

Boyd Mansfield took Mrs. Harry Thomas and son Reynolds to Detroit, where they spent the week end with Mr. Thomas and son Hoyt who have employment there.

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Clyde Hart. Home made ice cream and cake were served. During July and August all aid meetings will be in the evening.

Mrs. John Cook and daughters, Marlene and Joan, of Detroit, Michigan, and Miss Ester Lake and Sherman Cook, of South Bend, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart returned home Friday from Fremont, Michigan, where they were called on Sunday, June 17, due to the illness of Mrs. Hart's mother, Mrs. Dora Coburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laub entertained the following guests Thursday evening, Miss Mabel Kneller, Miss Beatrice Sorer, Miss LaNore Laub, and Mr. Ray Laub, of Fort Wayne and Mr. Paul Hensley.

SPENCERVILLE

Rev. and Mrs. Studebaker attended the funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Benninghoff, Friday.

Miss Agnes Mausser, of Toledo, Ohio, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Woodring.

Mr .and Mrs. W. E. Erick were Sunday guests of his sister, Mrs. Libbie Hileman, of Elkhart, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pierman and son, of Auburn, were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Higgins.

W. J. Baker has increased his already large stock of merchandise by adding a nice line of drugs and hardware.

Mrs. Hazel Steward and little Jean Hatch were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ercil Steward at Butler.

Claud Woodring, who has spent the last month building boats for his fatreh, returned Tuesday to his work at Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Bernice Baker has not been quite so well the past week. Mr. Neuton Perry, of Fort Wayne spent Sunday in the Baker home.

Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer were Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Moffet, Mrs. Pauline Rhoderfer and Mrs. Mader, of Auburn.

Robert and Roseann Kimes, of Fort Wayne, returned home Saturday after having spent the past week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

A new 1934 road map is yours for the asking at News office.

Your Kodak films can be purchased at News office and you can also leave your order for prints here. Our customers are pleased and a trial will convince you

Mrs. Jennie Moffet, Mrs. Jessie Adams, Mrs. Pauline Rhodefer, Mrs. Josie Baltz and daugther, Erma, all of Auburn, and Mrs. Jessie Sommer, of Spencerville, called at the Hollis Dilley home one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mavis entertained the following guests at their country home near St. Joe Sunday, Mrs. Jennie Sechler and guest, Mrs. Mabel Pahud, Merritt Sechler, Chase Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie, daughter, Lucille and son, Frank Jr.

F. R. Bowman was chosen last week as president of the DeKalb County Tuberculosis Association, at the annual meeting. Mrs. Lora Leighty was chosen as the aownship representative. The annual report showed a very substantiat balance in ahe treasury.

C. C. Woodcox and wife took Sunday dinner with Grady Woodcox and family. Afternoon callers were George Strong and family

Lulu Woodcox, Huldah Reasoner Grace Leighty, Beatrice and Morris Woodcox and Robert Maxwell, were Ft. Wayne shoppers today, (Thursday.)

The first meeting of creditors of Frank L. Butler, of Spencerville, adjudged bankrupt on June 14, will be held at the federal building in Fort Wayne on Friday, June 29. Creditors may attend, prove their claims, examine the bankrupt, appoint a trustee and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Robert Maxwell of Auburn is spending the week with Morris Woodcox.

Miss Martha Miser will teach school at Dutchtown in east Garrett this fall.

The Ed Pflaumer family spent Sunday with their son, Ernest at Lebanon, Ohio.

Air mail postage has been reduced to 6 cents from 8 cents, taking effect July 1.

Mrs. Mabel Pahud, of Indianapolis, is here visiting Mrs. Jennie Sechler and friends.

Violet Pflaumer is attending the summer term in Wittenberg College, at Springfield, Ohio.

Winnefred Estry, of Fort Wayne, called on Leon Kees and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser and children spent a short time Sunday afternoon at Circle Park.

Albert Caskey and family, of Fostoria, Ohio, were over Saturday and Sunday guests in the John Hart home.

O. E. Ginther and L. M. Condrey attended the Hoosier Hampshire picnic near Gaston, Indiana, last week.

Mr. Oscar Toner spent Sunday with his wife at Evansville, Ind. Mr. Toner is employed at the St. Joe Flour Mill.

Mrs. Byron Woodcox and two children are spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mart Boon at Hicksville.

The Dill Pickle Nine went to Harlan Sunday and came home pretty much disheartened, the reason being a score of 5 to 15.

George Shroyer, wife and daughter, of Sidney Ohio, were over Saturday night and Sunday guests in the Henry Shroyer home.

Wheat harvest was begun last Saturday in this community, 12 days earlier than usual, due wholly to the drouth forcing the grain to mature.

Free creosote oil will be available for fighting chinch bugs soon, from the county agent, only a small handling charge being made.

W. E. Harkenrider and family and Joe West and wife, of Fort Wayne, enjoyed a lawn party and weiner roast at the editor's home Thursday night. Carl Schonig and family, of Butler, were guests on Wednesday night.

Cheer up! Birds have bills and are still singing.

Mr. John Smith and Leon Kees and family were at Ashley, Wednesday afternoon attending the Masonic funeral of Alva Snowberger a retired business man of Ashley.

Since President Roosevelt barred Henry Ford to submit bids on government car contracts, the price of cars has been advanced materially. If such is the case, who is the worst?

Mrs. Mayola Kisey spent the latter part of last week in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rosenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reinhart of Butler, visited in the Clarence Rosenberry home on the Henry Shroyer farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kees entertained Mrs. Perry Sines and son, Edward, of Garrett, Mr. C. Drake, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore and Francis Harman and son, Junior, of Ft. Waye, to six o'clock dinner Thursday eve.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds	$1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds	$1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

NOW
YOU CAN BUY A CHEVROLET FOR $465
AND UP, f. o. b. Flint, Michigan

Startling price reductions, just announced, place Chevrolet further ahead of its field than ever—in price, quality and value

NEW REDUCED PRICES

	New Reduced List Price	Amount of Reduction
STANDARD MODELS
Sport Roadster	$465	$25
Coach	495	25
Coupe	485	25
MASTER MODELS
Sport Roadster	540	35
Coach	580	35
Town Sedan	615	30
Sedan	640	35
Coupe	560	35
Sport Coupe	600	35
Sedan Delivery	600	45
COMMERCIAL CARS
Commercial Chassis	355	30
Utility Long Chassis	$515	$50
Dual Long Chassis	535	50
Utility Chassis and Cab	575	50
Dual Chassis and Cab	595	50
Utility Long Chassis and Cab	605	50
Dual Long Chassis and Cab	625	50
Commercial Panel	575	35
Special Commercial Panel	595	35
Utility Panel	750	50
Dual Cab and Stake Body	680	50
Dual Long Cab and Stake Body	740	50

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN

Above are list prices of passenger cars at Flint, Mich. With bumpers, spare tire, and tire lock, the list price of Standard Models is $10 additional; Master Models, $20 additional. List prices of commercial cars quoted are f. o. b. Flint, Mich. Special equipment extra. Prices subject to change without notice. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G.M.A.C. terms. A General Motors Value.

FURNISH MOTOR SALES, Spencerville, Indiana

JUNE

L 919

0317

SPENCERVILLE

Elizabeth Hart Sundayed at the George Hart home.

Mrs. Minnie Lantz is attending the summer term of scohol at Muncie.

Attendance at the M. E. Sunday Schol for June 24 was 78, collection $3.22.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Reasoner spent Friday evening at the Phillip Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wann, of Harlan, were recent guests for dinner at the Roy Chaney home.

Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe moved this week from Fort Wayne into the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. Minnie Tyndall has returned from a week's visit with her son and family at Fort Wayne.

Row Bowser and James Reed are re-siding and re-roofing the elevator at Hicksville this week.

Richard Shook, who has been attending college at Ann Arbor, Michigan, arrived here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes and family were Sunday guests of the Jimmie Neher home in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker purchased the Harvey Kimes tenant house and are remodeling it before moving in.

Mrs. Wal Chaney, of Louisiana and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb, of Harlan, spent Sunday at the Phillip and Roy Chaney homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay left Sunday to spend a week with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and family

The old School Reunion is being held today at the high school building. Pot luck dinner. The officers are, president, A. R. Wyatt; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Mattie Hart.

The funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Benninghoff was conducted Friday afternoon from the Methodist Church, where she was a member, Rev. Howard Brown, officiating, assisted by Rev. Homer Studabaker. Her death was sudden. Obituary will appear next week.

The C. C. Club held their last meeting for the summer Thursday afternoon. The ladies were met by the school teacher, Mrs. Golden High and each lady given a name. The last day of school was greatly enjoyed and the vacation will last until September 20.

NEWVILLE

Conine Bros. have quit work at the Hatch Garage, and Minnie Hatch has returned from Gorrett and taken over the business.

Mrs. Evelyn Cole and daughter, Mabel, are visiting relatives in Auburn.

Romeo Cole is assisting in the care of Fred Shisley, who has been ill for some time.

Mrs. Lucille Traxler and children spent several days last week in Butler with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shaffer, newlyweds, were given a belling and truck ride Thursday evening

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Perry and son, James, were here from Defiance Monday, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Webster and family were here from Edgerton, Ohio, visiting Mrs. Kate Fusselman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt, Kenneth Gaff and Mona Traxler were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Jennings.

A group meeting of the U. B. Churches will be held at the Newville U. B. Church July 5, dinner will be served in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and children, who were here during the strawberry season, marketing their crop, returned to their home in Mongo, Thursday.

C. C. Dean sold his restaurant building last week to Rhea Smith. Woodrow Stark worked for the new owner last week, and Dorothy Wasson is in charge, this week.

Sunday callers in the Guy Smith home were Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, of Hicksville, Clayton Smith, of Fort Wayne, Miss Bonnell Baker, of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith and Mrs. Venus Rex.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Friend and two children from Newark, Ohio, called on friends here Saturday. They were enroute to Three Rivers, Michigan, to visit Earl Friend and also expected to attend the Friend reunion at Auburn.

Mrs. Arline Koch has been ill with quinsy since Sunday. Mrs. Joseph Koch and son Jimmie are here doing the house work. Their son Stanley was home Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Sellon of Quincy, Mich., is here the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Strouse for the week. Mr. Sellon arrived Wednesday to do some carpenter work for his daughter.

John Draggoo and family of Reading, Mich., called at the Chas Koch home Sunday morning also at the Walter Baker home at Spencerville and on to Auburn to attend the Draggoo reunion.

L 919

U 3 1 8

JULY

JULY

L 919

U 319

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JULY 5, 1934 NUMBER 26

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Lloyd Curie, wife and daughter of Fort Wayne, are here guests in the Morris Curie home.

David Furnish and wife of Detroit, are here over the Fourth visiting among their relatives.

Wm. Glen, born Monday morning of last week to Mr. and Mrs. John Coburn at the Grant Baltz home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reidenbach and daughters were guests of relatives at Mishawaka, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox are spending a few days in Detroit in the homes of their son, Vance and daughter, Martha.

You might as well try to fatten a fan mill by running oats thru it as to buy permanent prosperity with borrowed money.

A new Ford platform truck is being operated by Willard Hurni. His work is quite heavy and demanded new equipment.

Albert Farver, Mrs Chas. Bishop and Mrs. Emmett Armstrong spent Sunday in the Ray Farver home north-west of Angola.

L. M. Condrey and wife attended the Condrey reunion at Eaton, O., the 4th and then went to Indianapolis for a few days, guests of his parents.

Mrs. James Futt, of Woodburn, Clyde Utterback, wife and daughter, of Payne, O., were Saturday evening guests in the Wm. R. Bachellor home.

Mrs. Mary Betz and Mrs. Ada Berry spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Olen Helf and family of Defiance, O. Mr. Helf was in the hospital having had an operation.

Mrs. Lena Tustison is secretary of the Blake family reunion and they will hold their annual get-together, Sunday, July 22, at the Kilpatrick Camp Ground, 1½ mile south-west of Payne, Ohio.

The excessive heat of the past week caused the cement pavement to explode in front of the Curie store. It will be remembered that at this point, the first check appeared soon after it was thrown open to traffic.

The Co-Aid class of the M. P. Sunday School met with Frances Bishop on Monday evening.

Tax paying time in Ohio has been extended to July 30, without penalty, and the commissioners have the authority to extend the time.

A birthday surprise party was given Earl Kinsey Friday night. Seven young people attended. Walter Irven was given a surprise at the Glen Wineland home on Monday night.

Game Warden Earl Grossman, of Kendallville, has received an official opinion on a question that is asked the wardens many times each year and, on which there has so far been varied opinions expressed. The question is, "If one person rowing a boat for another, who is fishing, is it necessary that the first one have a license, if he is not assisting in the fishing?" The answer, given by Philip Lutz, Jr., attorney general, is "No." He said in his opinion the act refers to the express act of catching or attempting to catch fish and was not intended to include the rowing of a boat for another who is actually engaged in such pursuit.

A MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH

Clint Lucas will read one of the hidden mysteries of the bible at 10:30 Sunday morning at the Christian Church.

First banquet feature, turkey stuffed with sage; last feature, sages stuffed with turkey.

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

ICE CREAM SOCIAL
At St. JOE

The Young People's Class of St. Joe Methodist Sunday School are planning an Ice Cream Social for

Friday Eve, July 6

to be held on the lawn, EAST of the CHURCH

In case of rain, the Church will be used. Come and give the young people your patronage.

CONES for the CHILDREN

Ice Cream, Cake, Sandwiches and Lemonade will be served.

DUMPING GROUNDS FOR THE TOWN ONLY

The present and past boards of our little town, experience about the same difficulties in trying to satisfactorily serve the people and their latest difficulty is the abuse of the public dump. Harry Kees gave permission to fill a water hole on his farm, and now trash from the country is being hauled in and dumped about, and the town is then compelled to pay out money to clean the grounds as agreed.

At their Monday night session orders were issued that the grounds were to be used for the town only, and that the public should refrain from hauling its trash in from outside the corporate limits.

Persons using the dumping ground east of the stock yards must hereafter place trash in the water hole.

Reckless driving on the streets and late at night escapades were ordered tabooed at once, and the marshal was given strict orders.

A new electric street light contract was signed up at a substantial saving over the previous ones, and a number of towns are to enjoy this same reduction by our local company. A matter of more adequate fire protection is being considered by the board and will be discussed at the next meeting of the board, July 16.

The treasury showed $1,866.79 with the June draw and the 40% payment on funds in the local bank.

GLEN WYATT TAKES HIS LIFE FRIDAY

Glenn Wyatt, aged about 38 years, died Saturday morning at 6:30 on the farm which he rented from Frank Bowman two miles north of St. Joe, from Paris green poisoning, taken Friday morning with suicidal intent. Dr. Shook was hurriedly called when it was learned what had taken place, but without avail.

The reason given for the act was despondency because of debt and chinch bugs destroying his crops.

Mr. Wyatt was conscious until midnight Friday and he suffered great pain.

He was alone at the time he took the poison. His children were picking berries.

The deceased moved on the farm where he lived in the spring of 1933. At one time he resided in Auburn, working at the Auburn Rubber corporation factory.

Glenn N. Wyatt was born in DeKalb County, Indiana, on April 23, 1896, and departed this life June 30, 1934. Age 38 years, 2 months and 7 days.

Mr. Wyatt spent most of his life in DeKalb county. Earlier in life he united with the Newville Christian Church, of which he was a member at the time of his death.

He was preceded in death by his father and two sisters, and leaves to mourn his passing, two sons, Robert at home, William at Topeka, Ind., and one daughter, Madelyn, at home. Also his mother, Rebekah Wagner, of Elkhart, Indiana, besides other relatives and friends.

The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon with burial in K. of P. Cemetery at St. Joe, conducted by Rev. C. W. Moore, of Newville. Mayola Kinsey & Son, funeral directors.

PRODUCTION LOANS

Farmers who are in need of money to buy feeders and stockers this summer and fall should plan early for needed financial aid. Already the seasonal run of native and western ewes is appearing on the markets, and many farmers are looking forward to stocking up with the money-making two-crop animals.

Money for buying stocker ewes, and for all other livestock production operations is readily available to experienced and qualified livestock farmers through their Production Credit Associations, which are units of the Farm Credit Administration, Louisville. The Albion Production Credit Association located at Albion, Ind., serves the people of DeKalb County, thru their local agency located at County Agent's office, Auburn, Ind.

However forehandedness in arranging finances is as essential to summer and fall livestock operations as planting and growing the food supply. Never before could farmers finance their production program at 5 per cent interest per year, which is the present cost of money through Production Credit Associations. Some borrowers, however, have been disappointed that the Association could not simply accept the loan application and pass the money out over the counter the same day. Borrowers should allow ten days to two weeks time for securing loans.

Plan ahead and start arranging for money in time to allow for handling necessary details, so the Production Credit Association may have the money available on the date when it is required.

YOUNG PEOPLE PICNIC IN DILTS GROVE

The DeKalb County Young People's Picnic will be held Sunday, July 8, at Dilts' Grove, one mile south and one-half mile east of St. Joe.

Sunday School and special worship services will start promptly at 9:30 o'clock, Central Standard Time. David Hogg will speak in the afternoon.

Everyone present is requested to bring sandwiches, one other dish and his own table service.

There will be special recognition of the township having the best representation. All young people, teachers and leaders are urged to attend.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING

The July meeting of the Wittenburg Brotherhood will be held in the Methodist Church at Hamilton on the second Wednesday night in July, the 11th. Plans are going forward for a big crowd and a good meeting. The supper will be served by the Ladies Aid of the church and will be served in the high school gym, followed by an address by David Hogg on the subject, "Religion in a Changing World." All men of the community are asked to come to this meeting.

OLD SCHOOL REUNION

The twenty-first reunion of the Spencerville school met Thursday, June 28, at the school house with forty old teachers and scholars, and ten of the younger ones came with greetings, surely a splendid time was enjoyed by all, and the dinner these old timers can produce is a marvel. The time was changed to the last Sunday in June, giving them a special treat of attending their old Bible School and giving the younger ones who at this time of year have so many duties to look after, a chance to enjoy a Happy Day and realize they will soon be the old timers. Old officers were retained and a second vice president appointed, Mrs. Mabel Erick.

Notes

Thomas DeVilbus won as best story teller.

The Fort Wayne folks gave us a treat in music and song.

Jane Butler was the oldest president present.

The sick ones were remembered with a fine lunch.

Special treat by Will Erick furnishing 25 gallons of ice water.

Four deaths the past year.

If anyone has a mother-in-law deceased, call Dr. A. R. Wyatt a Specialist on same.

One of our old teachers, Mrs. Carrie Kinsey Smith was not able to be present, sent her son, Prof. Keith Smith, of Evanston, Ill., and little grandson to take her place. We all enjoyed having them here and before the day was spent they made us feel they were one of the old timers.

Mattie Hart, Sec-Treas.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Jimmy Hatch has spent the past week with his grandparents, Chas. Hatch and family at Spencerville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stum, of Toledo, Ohio, spent Sunday with their old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham.

Barbara Mohney had her tonsils removed Monday at Auburn. The Mohneys are here guests of the G. A. Kinsey family a few days.

Morris Shuff stated Monday that their family had roasting ears for Sunday dinner. Yes sir, we know that's a fact, because a sample ear was brought to The News office and our family each had a taste. And was it good? Oh Boy!

John Fehr, one of the best rabbit judges in the United States, has been secured to judge the rabbit department at the fall fair this year at Auburn. The association is anxious for all breeders to enter. Entry blanks this year go to Farman Helkey of Auburn.

BANK DIVIDENDS ARE BEING PAID

Saturday a payment of the second dividend of 40% was allowed by the court and by afternoon checks were being handed the creditors, a total of 45% has now been received.

Mr. Brandon was able to make this payment through securing a government loan on the assets of the bank as security.

The money now available on notes will be used to repay the government loan before another dividend will be ordered paid. Every effort possible was made to have this money available for the payment of spring taxes, but due to the extra amount of red tape, the loan was held up until June 30th.

People are appreciating the money at this time, and are now able to straighten up some of their personal affairs.

IT'S ALL BELOGNA

Persons aspiring to become bus drivers for the Allen county public schools will be required to abstain from the use of alcoholic beverages while in the employ of the township and the use of tobacco in any form while on duty, according to the questionnaire for bus drivers approved Saturday by the Allen County Board of Education, meeting at Fort Wayne. —Well, if booze money is to be used for the education of our youth, and it is, why prohibit these men from being living examples, if they so choose to contribute of their means for this fund?

Mrs. A. E. Berry and three children, Nona, Sylvia and Kenneth are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meese. Mrs. Berry is a daughter of Mrs. Meese.

Craig Sheffer, wife and son, Basil, arrived home Friday evening from a 3,600 mile trip through the south. Tampa was the most southern point. They report Georgia as being the leader in fine crops. It's interesting to talk to Craig of the trip and he expects to make it again.

ROAD ONE TO BE IMPROVED SOON

The state highway commission will receive bids at Indianapolis until 10 A. M. July 17 for the improvement with bituminous mulch of the present graveled portion of state road 1 through DeKalb county.

The county built a stretch of road with concrete north from the Allen county line a few years ago and the state later took the highway over. The improvement of the balance is to be let in two contracts one being for 7.62 miles and the other for 7.59 miles.

The berm thru St. Joe is now in process of being repaired by the state. Small stone was applied and then given a coat of tar to hold in place. This also will eliminate the dust.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

John W. Koch had his 79 birthday, Saturday, June 30, 1934. He is staying at Waldo Rosenbury's near Butler. They baked him a birthday cake and made him some ice cream Saturday and he thot that was all of his birthday celebration, but Sunday they invited his relatives on both sides and some neighbors to give him a real surprise.

Forty-three of his relatives and neighbors met Sunday and completely surprised him. We had pot luck dinner, music on string instruments, accompaied on the piano by Ruth Anna Doll, 8 years old, which was very good and a splendid sociable time long to be remembered.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Doll, Donald Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kraft of Spencerville; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Walter, Auburn; Evelyn Morr, of Detroit; John W. Morr and wife, Robert Morr, John O. Morr and Jr. Morr, all of Albion; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Fitch and family, of Garrett; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Doll and family and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark and son, of Fort Wayne; Mayola Ginder, Butler; Reuben Koch, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shilling, Harry Kees, F. E. Johnson and wife all of St. Joe, the honor guest and the Rosenbury family.

One Who Was Present.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
OPEN EVENINGS
Before Buying-See Us About
-- YOUR --
Rope and Thrasher Belting
We Aim to have the Best
If we have it, it will cost you less
It will pay you to visit our store
We Handle Standard Binder Twine

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

St. Joe Garage
NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS
Under New Management

ALL KINDS OF TRACTOR AND AUTOMOBILE REPAIR WORK, BATTERY CHARGING, CAR GREASING AND OIL CHANGE.

THE PRICE WE CHARGE FOR OUR SERVICE IS BASED UPON PRESENT DAY CONDITIONS.

Sinclair Gas and Oil
WALTER ZONKER
Meade Baker, Manager. Rhoe Bassett, Mechanic

JULY

L 919 320

Plaques Come Back to Plague the Decorator

Under the guise of modernistic decoration, the plaque is rearing its ugly head in the American home, says the New York Sun. Can the leopard change its spots? Can the hassock, the patent rocker, the whatnot, the marble-top bureau, the tidy, the afghan, the ormolu clock, the portiere, the inside blind, the Rogers group—in short, can the furnishings of Grandfather Whoosis' house be brought back from the dust and made to live harmoniously with tubular steel chairs and right-angled bookcases? It is no more improbable than making the plaque subdue itself to the element of modernism in decoration. Everybody's aunt or great-aunt with a touch of artistic talent produced a plaque; homemade, hand-colored, it hung on a bedroom or living room wall and breathed the spirit of the age as composedly as did the still life over the sideboard in the dining room. One thing or another must happen: The essential nature of the plaque must disappear in the iron mold of modernism, or the arrival of the plaque must be the beginning of corruption in the archly modernistic.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Equally Annoying

It seems as if there are just two kinds of people—those who know and won't tell, and those who don't know and will tell.

THE EASY WAY TO IRON!

KEEP COOL
SAVE TIME
SAVE WORK
SAVE MONEY
with the

Coleman Self-Heating Iron

THIS Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100.00 washing machine! It will save your strength . . . help you do better ironing easier and quicker at less cost.

Instant Lighting . . . no heating with matches or torch . . . no waiting. The evenly-heated double pointed base irons garments with fewer strokes. Large glass-smooth base slides easier. Ironing time is reduced one-third. Heats itself . . . use it anywhere. Economical, too . . . costs only ½¢ an hour to operate. See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP AND STOVE CO.
Dept. W1936, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Toronto, Ontario, Canada

KILLS ANTS

Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

OLD AGE PENSION INFORMATION Send Stamp. JUDGE LEHMAN - - Humboldt, Kas.

Little Girl's Face Inflamed by Psoriasis

Healed by Cuticura

"My little girl's face was so inflamed that her eyes were swollen almost shut. The trouble was diagnosed as psoriasis. She scratched night and day and was not able to obtain rest. The scratching aggravated the trouble and each finger tip was red and swollen with infection. She became so emaciated that she was very pathetic looking.

"After three months' suffering I recalled the Cuticura treatment used by my mother. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and used them according to directions. The first treatment brought relief and she is now healed." (Signed) Mrs. Marie I. Johnson, 4720 Ames Ave., Omaha, Neb., March 14, 1934.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold Everywhere. One sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. B, Malden, Mass."—Adv.

KILL ALL FLIES

Used anywhere. Daisy Fly Killer stirs up and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective, neat, convenient—Cannot spill—Will not soil or injure anything. Lasts all season. 30c at all dealers. Harold Somers, Inc., 150 De Kalb Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

DAISY FLY KILLER

Lace Triumphs Anew in the Mode

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

HERETOFORE lace has generally been regarded as a thing of esthetic mein—a medium of luxury as it were, limited to evening gowns and dressup blouses and frilly furbelows and such. Which is all well enough, for when it comes to feminine fascination lace never faileth.

In this day of enlightenment and independent thinking, however, we are not allowing ourselves to be hampered by tradition or custom and so the fashion world has come out boldly this year with the message that lace can be every whit as practical and utilitarian as it can be glamorous and pictorially lovely. Now that the practicability of lace has been recognized beyond question, style creators of high degree as well as those of lesser prestige are using it without reserve for many of their smartest tailored and sports suits and dresses and blouses.

There is such a variety, too, of laces nowadays which adds greatly to the sphere of usefulness. Many of the newer types have a fabric-like quality which makes them versatile for all sorts of apparel.

The big thrill about the new cotton and linen thread laces is that as perfectly beautiful as they are, they qualify 100 per cent to the good when it comes to being practical and wearable, in that they launder wonderfully, not even requiring the painstaking ironing and pressing which is imperative with the majority of washable materials. Wherefore it is easy to see why so many women are including blouses and dresses made of serviceable laces in their week-end wardrobes.

The two blouses illustrated are typical of the practical turn lace is taking this summer. Each is designed to be worn with almost any type of suit, either tailored or afternoon, for the lace itself lends softness and charm and distinction, while the styling is simple and tailored.

One of the new "string-type" laces made in an interesting weave of heavy and fine cotton thread fashions the blouse with the ruffle-edge revers.

The other blouse is made of a more conventional lighter weight lace. Its mellow creamy color is extremely flattering. The effective simplicity of these blouses is exactly what women of discriminating taste covet for summer wear. Blouses like these are the easiest kind of garments to make, even for a non-expert. As to their coolness for hot-weather wear, that is one of their most delightsome features.

Miss 1934 will wear lace in pastel shades quite informally throughout the summer evening dine-and-dance hours. It is not enough that one have a frock of lovely lace but to satisfy fashion's demands there must be a jacket to match. The ensemble in the picture is typical of the newest trend in lace two-pieces. It is of a heavy cotton lace in pale pink. Paris has decreed trains for evening dresses and this one is no exception. Even though it boasts a slight train the gown is really quite informal, the more so in that it has tiny sleeves and is cut high in front—a low-cut back, however, for such is the way of the mode this season. The jacket is styled with utmost simplicity as are all those which are matched to the lace frocks they top. And so on and so on it goes, wherever smart youth gathers this summer, on country club porches, on cool hotel roofs, on moonlit decks—the first favorite will be lace.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

TAILORED THINGS NO LONGER DULL

Tailored things used to be dull. Dull in both color and material, but all that has changed now.

Consider Philippe et Gaston's tailored three-piece ensemble. The jacket and skirt are in black "Anophane"—which is a combination of angora and cellophane. The angora naturally gives it that softness, which we are not so accustomed to associate with a strictly tailored suit, and the cellophane produces a glint that has a hint of sequins in it.

The waistcoat, which completes the outfit, is of white albene pique, and there are cuffs of the same and a perky bow tie at the throat of the waistcoat.

Soft Ribbons and Flowers Take Away Severe Lines

In presenting summer hats the mushroom brim is important, but the sailor and brim lifted at back also find favor.

There is a marked tendency toward "pretty" colors in the trimming, as, for example, a white sailor with a cluster of flowers and an ombred taffeta ribbon in pale blue; a mushroom of brown brilliantine straw adds a pink rose over and under the brim supplemented by a twist of pink velvet ribbon around the crown.

Sheer effects are cleverly handled and very much worn.

Printed Linen in Plaids Interesting New Motif

Linen evening dresses will be seen again in printed varieties this summer. The pattern interest is varied and lively stripes and plaids again of major importance. In high style there is the linen gauze with content of silk that is available in less bold designs than earlier when Algerian stripes and plaids were the thing. Embroidery further diversifies the pattern interest.

HATS FOR TOTS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Mothers and big sisters need not feel that they are the only fortunates to wear those clever hats which are crocheted from crepe paper. Comes now the younger generation's turn. We have picked for illustration the two most fetching small-girl types that could be found. At the top is the picture see Amy's poke bonnet (inspired by "Little Women") for her dressy-up chapeau and below the merry-go-round beret for wear at play. Think of it, each will cost only fifteen cents, or the price of a fold of crepe paper. The crocheting is so easy, both hats can be made in no time—a few odd moments spent calling upon your neighbor.

Late Onions Need Careful Culture

Long Growing Season Before Hot Weather Is Found Big Advantage.

By Prof. J. E. Knott, New York State College of Agriculture.—WNU Service.

New York state leads in the production of late onions with a total crop each year that ranges from 2,500,000 to 3,500,000 bushels, and this crop is often worth about $5,000,000.

Four major muck sections produce more than nine-tenths of the crop. The remaining one-tenth of the crop comes from smaller areas scattered throughout ten counties.

One of the most important points to remember in the production of onions is that the larger the plant grows before it begins to form a bulb at the base, the larger will be the yield. The first thing that is to be considered is the time of planting. The earlier the onions are started, the longer time they have to grow before warm temperature and a long daylight period combine to start bulbing in early summer. Fall plowing helps to get an early start.

Other suggestions to increase the yield of onions on muck are: avoid the use of nitrogen on newly cleared woody muck, and plant enough seed to get a good stand, but do not crowd the plants; supply available nitrogen to onions, when four to five inches high, on muck in use ten years or more; give shallow cultivation often enough to keep the weeds under control; and control insects and diseases as much as possible.

Asparagus Harvest Time Shown by Actual Tests

Asparagus, which ranks as one of the leading truck crops of Illinois with a total value of more than half a million dollars in 1930, should not be cut severely until the second year after the plantation is set, and in some cases not until the third year, according to a seven-year experiment conducted by the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Severe cutting of asparagus is injurious both to yield and market quality. The injury increases in proportion to the severity of the cutting. A prolonged cutting season lessens the growing period of the tops and thereby restricts the food supply that is manufactured in the tops and stored in the fleshy roots. With a limited food supply there is a reduction in the yield the following season.

Comparing the yields of the experimental plots, the plot cut heavily the first year returned only 320.09 pounds of asparagus during the seven-year period, while the plot cut lightly the first season gave a total yield of 431.51 pounds.

Starting the harvest the second year proved advantageous with a total yield of 434.21 pounds for the seven years from the plot harvested rather severely, but the maximum yield of 531.53 pounds was gained from the bed cut only lightly the second year and medium the third season. The plot on which harvest was not begun until the third year gave a total of 467.86 pounds.

If an asparagus plantation has made a poor growth during the first and second years after setting, it is suggested that the first cutting be delayed until the third year, or at most that the cutting be very light the second year. Ordinarily, however, there is no need for delaying at least a partial harvest until the third season.

Uruguay Has Problems

The problems of agriculture in Uruguay are attacked in a new way. The agrarian ministry has decided to confine the production of each farmer to one crop, that for which his land is the best suited, and which he is best qualified to raise. In some cases farmers will be allowed a rotation in crops, thus assuring yearly diversified harvests, enables each agriculturist to obtain for his product higher grades of other produce.

Agricultural Notes

Foresters find that evergreen seedling trees do best in Ohio when they are three years old at planting time and once before have been transplanted.

• • •

Many of the most serious cabbage diseases can be controlled by hot water treatment of cabbage seed. Many seedsmen now treat most or all of their seed.

• • •

New York potato growers are planting 4,000 acres this year, or 2 per cent more than in 1933, according to a recent estimate.

• • •

Live stock breeders advise that calves be fed whole milk the first two weeks to assure them a good start in life.

• • •

Live stock experts say grazing on green grass is essential to the development of hogs.

• • •

Wool production in 20 northern and southern hemisphere countries which produce 80 per cent of the world total was 8 per cent less in 1933 than the record production in 1932.

• • •

While farmers on the north side of the Rio Grande are being paid to reduce their acreage, growers in the Mexican valley have put in a record crop of about 50,000 acres.

Find Happiness in Contentment

Great Philosopher Right in His Summing Up of Life's Joys.

"To think I used to complain of monotony and boredom in our suburban life! Why, my idea of heaven now would be just having things back to what they used to be!"

The woman who said that was one of a group who had little to worry about except the shortcomings of suburban life—until a series of events which began with a bank failure and a scandal touched the lives of all of them.

The turn of a week had left her father impoverished, her best friend's husband a suicide, another friend with grounds for divorce. No wonder her idea of happiness now was not something new, not more excitement, but "just having things back to what they used to be!"

"I'm getting to be like my grandmother," she added. "All she ever wanted out of life was just to go on without getting a telegram."

And many of us will agree that her grandmother had the right idea. The more we see of life and of people, the more likely we are to come to the conclusion that the nearest approach to happiness is found in peace and contentment. Those who struggle restlessly for something they have not got are usually found, on achieving that, to be just as restlessly struggling for something else again. And it is doubtful if they ever get as near to happiness, or give as much happiness, as those who are content to "pursue the even tenor of their way," liking what they have and therefore having what they like. There is a limit, of course, beyond which content may become stagnation, but as we look about us the dangers we see are usually of the other extreme, the discontent of people with what they have, the restlessness which distorts their sense of values, the fear of boredom which enslaves them to empty excitements that can give no real joy or lasting satisfaction.

The great philosopher, Shopenhauer, seems to have seen eye to eye with the grandmother who wanted merely to go on without receiving bad news. These are his words:

"The happiest lot is not to have experienced the keenest delights or the greatest pleasure, but to have brought life to a close without any very great pain."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

New Meter Shows Just How to Set Carburetor

No longer need the carburetor of your automobile be a mystery, says the Scientific American. A newly perfected meter will promptly tell you exactly how to adjust the needle valve to give the most efficient "mixture."

More accurate than the most experienced repair man, this air-fuel meter registers with scientific exactness just how much too rich or too lean the carburetor mixture is. Of course, the average automobile owner will hardly have sufficient use for such an instrument to bother about it, but operators of fleets of trucks are already finding that exact adjustment of carburetors of their motors gives them appreciable savings in their large fuel bills.

The new meter, developed in Newark, N. J., is operated by passing a portion of the exhaust gas through the meter after the motor has warmed up. When this exhaust gas reaches the analysis cell of the instrument, a pointer is deflected over a wide scale to indicate the exact nature of the mixture.

The meter operates on the Wheatstone bridge principal, comparing the thermal conductivity of the exhaust gas and the air-fuel ratio of the carburetor. The scale of the meter is calibrated directly in pounds of air per pounds of gasoline burned.

MAKES RADIO OF HUMAN BODY BY THOUGHT WAVES

People thousands of miles apart may shortly be able to communicate with one another by means of thought waves, according to Professor Callegaris, an Italian mental specialist.

He says there are three "communicating discs" in the human body—one on the right side of the neck, one between the calf and the ankle, one behind the index finger of the right hand. A search for these "discs" was first made in 1908 by the late Professor Mingazzini, but he died before he reached the stage of actual tests, and Professor Callegaris promised to continue the research.

In one of his experiments, two nurses were blindfolded and seated ten feet apart, facing each other. A small capsule of aluminum was placed on each nurse's neck at the spot where the human receiving and transmitting apparatus is supposed to be situated. One of the nurses was asked to transmit her thoughts on a subject in which both were interested, and the other to try to receive the message.

After a while, the nurse who was acting as receiver stated that she felt sharp, burning sensations on the tip of her tongue, pains on both cheeks and the left wrist, also a peculiar feeling of heaviness on top of her head and "emptiness" at the lower part of the brain. Presently she stated that she could see a network of white radiations, undulating like the waves of the sea, all round the body of the other nurse. She then said that the other nurse was telling her about one of the patients in the hospital, mentioning his name and describing his symptoms. The nurse who "transmitted" the message agreed that this was correct.

News and the Bigness Thereof

"What is your idea of big news?"

"Anything I happen to be interested in," answered Senator Sorghum, "that manages somehow to break into the headlines."

T&T ROOT BEER

at 1¾¢ A QUART — MAKES 40 PINTS — Tell Root Beer — 15¢ a Pkg. — MAKE IT AT HOME

STOP "just planning" . . . START GOING on a GREAT LAKES CRUISE

Nine-day Duluth-Buffalo and return Cruise $75. Seven-day Chicago-Buffalo and return cruise $60. Palatial ocean-type ships. Incomparable cuisine and entertainment. Full day for sightseeing in Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Go now! Lowest fares in history for the finest cruises in America.

Great Lakes Transit Corporation
S.S. Octorara S.S. Tionesta S.S. Juniata

Sailing frequently between Duluth, Houghton, Sault Ste. Marie, Mackinac Island, Detroit, Cleveland, Buffalo. Also twice weekly sailings from Chicago and Milwaukee.

Automobiles Carried Between All Ports

For full information apply any Travel or Railroad Agent or R. J. Kennedy, 203 So. Dearborn St., cor. Adams St. (Suite 301) Chicago.

Allay Pimply Skin

Help nature clear up the blotches and make your skin lovelier the safe easy way—use bland, effective

Resinol

Clean PLUGS save gas!

GET RID OF OXIDE COATING . . . STOP WASTING GAS . . . HAVE YOUR SPARK PLUGS CLEANED BY THE AC METHOD . . . 5¢ PER PLUG

Replace badly worn plugs with new AC's

AC The Quality Spark Plug

Oxide coating forms on all spark plugs—wastes 1 gallon of gas in 101. Have it thoroughly and quickly removed by the AC Spark Plug Cleaner. . . . At all Registered Dealers, Garages, and Service Stations.

Look for the "Plug-in-Tub"

Tune in: RAYMOND KNIGHT and the CUCKOOS—Saturdays, 10:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time

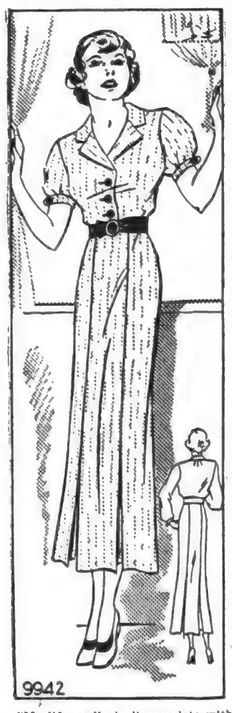
JULY

L 919

U 321

SHIRTWAIST DRESS HAS SMARTNESS AND HIGH VERSATILITY

PATTERN 9942



"My life really isn't complete without a shirtwaist dress!" says the gay girl who goes places and does interesting things. And that's really true of almost everybody. This type of frock is smartly appropriate for sports, office and street wear. It's comfortable, with its box plaits in the front and back of the skirt, and its short-sleeved well tailored blouse. Smart in pin striped or checked cottons, silks and linens, or in a plain fabric. Long sleeves are included.

Pattern 9942 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 3¼ yards 39-inch fabric.

Complete, diagrammed sew chart included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

THE RAPID PACE

"Do you think the world is growing better or worse?"

"Better," answered Senator Sorghum. "The only trouble is with our marvelous modern system of communication. There is no moment of blissful ignorance. You learn every little bit of bad news as quick as it happens."—Washington Star.

His Best

Friend—Does your husband do his best work at night or in the daytime?

Author's Wife—In the daytime. That's when he runs the lawnmower and hoes the garden patch.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Those Shallow Hats

We are not the one to say whether the man who advertised those little dicers the girls wear as "shallow hats to fit the head" had a sense of humor or hadn't.—Boston Herald.

Work for Both

Son (home for vacation)—Well, dad, I brought some books on farming for you to dig into.

Dad—Yes, and I've bought another 80 acres for you to dig into.

QUALITY GUM

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE PERFECT GUM

5¢ AND WORTH IT!

A Wyoming Claim

By CLARA DOUGLAS

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

IT WAS supper time at the Allen ranch in Wyoming.

The ranch foreman usually supped with the family, and he entered the room through one door just as Mrs. Allen and her daughter, Judith, sat down at table.

"My husband has had a telephone message from Red Spider," said Mrs. Allen to the foreman, Rex Thomas, "and so he had an early supper and started off—perhaps you saw him?"

"I did see him riding out of the gate," admitted Thomas, "just as I came in from the upper pasture." He waved his hand. "Has something come up at Red Spider?"

"Something to do with business—that is the worst of being a sheriff—sometimes I wish Jim would give up his appointment."

"I saw Bob Blake, Miss Judith," said Thomas with a humorous twinkle in his eye.

Judith flushed, and a warm look came into her lovely brown eyes.

"I suppose he was riding Schuyler's herd," she said with assumed indifference.

"Riding something—I'll be hanged if I entirely understood the situation—he was going like lightning along the old Patch trail, but I was in a hurry and he didn't seem to see me, so I didn't hail him. Looked as though he was trying to get somewhere in a big hurry."

Judith said nothing, but she looked rather worried, and Mrs. Allen carried on a desultory conversation until the meal ended. Then, while Mrs. Allen washed her silver and fine china, Chang, the Chinese cook, cleared off the table and Judith went out to the broad veranda and sat down with a book. But the girl's eyes were not on the printed page—they scanned the distant trail over which a racy black horse might come skimming—Bob Blake always came that way!

To Judith Allen, just at this time, most of the world consisted of Bob Blake's tall, active figure. Though they were not engaged, Judith's parents rather expected the tall cowpuncher to ask the fatal question any day, and Sheriff Allen had his answer all ready.

"I like you, Bob—there isn't another boy I would rather give my girl to! But you're nothing except a line rider for Old Man Schuyler—and you've got to be more than that if you want our Judith!" That is what Sheriff Allen had planned to say when Bob Blake came to see him about Judith, but he had never told anybody excepting his wife, and she, well-meaning soul if there ever was one, had confided in Judith.

So Judith Allen knew that much, anyway, and perhaps she was thinking that her father might have met Bob, and they had talked it out, as men are apt to do.

She had not seen Bob for a week, but she had not mentioned it to the family.

The casual remark of the foreman, Thomas, had roused her thoughts and made her uneasy.

Later that evening Sheriff Allen came home, and with him came Bob Blake, of all people.

"I arrested this fellow," grinned the sheriff, "for loitering on the trail coming to the Blue Bottle!"

Bob grinned sheepishly, and openly winked at Judith.

"He told me," said Bob, "that I was breaking the traffic laws by speeding!"

"Bob's made a voyage of discovery during the past week," said the sheriff, "and he is inviting the family (you, too, mother—I'll drive you in the buckboard) to start with him at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. I guess we'll be back in time for supper!"

Bob Blake remained that night at the Blue Bottle ranch and the next morning they started forth—Bob and Judith riding their horses, and the sheriff driving two rangy colts in the shafts of the buckboard in which his wife was snugly placed.

The rode for many miles across the prairie, then up into the broken hills where they never met a soul, and then at last they rounded a wooded hillock, crossed a brawling stream, and Bob told them to stop.

It was noon and the sun shone down through one broken space in the thick tree tops, and fell into the bed of the stream where it was overhung by thick masses and long, tangled roots.

"Please come here a moment, all of you," said Bob rather gravely.

They stood and watched him expectantly. "Mr. and Mrs. Allen, of course you know that I love Judith," he said flushing beneath his bronze, "and now I am going to ask you for your daughter. Of course, I am just hoping that Judith likes me well enough to—" he paused and stared rapturously at the girl who had stepped forward and slipped her slim hand in his large brown one, clinging to it firmly, "there, I guess that that proves she does like me a whole lot," he went on choking a little, "and though you folks all think I am just a line rider, I am telling you I am a whole lot more than that! I am ambitious myself, and so, if you'll just glance down there where the sun is shining right through the water onto the prettiest bit of gold deposit—well, I've been taking it out for weeks—and believe me I am a happy man! I've got a claim here, and my bank account at Cheyenne is more than ten thousand dollars—yes, sir—and if you don't mind turning your heads just a moment, I want to kiss Judith here—and then, we'll have some lunch!"

Criminal Often Helped by Laws of Extradition

Extradition law is a tricky thing to handle. At first sight it seems a simple thing. If a citizen of Ruritania flees into Cadonia because he does not wish to be dealt with by the laws of his own country, Ruritania has every right to say to Cadonia, "Hand over our citizen, so that we may investigate these charges against him."

In actual practice it is not so easy, states the Cape Argus. To begin with a refugee can only be delivered up to the officers of the law if the offense charged is also an offense under the code of the country in which he has taken refuge. But these things differ. A man can commit a deed which in Great Britain is punishable, and, by taking refuge in certain foreign countries, be free from anxiety, because it does not figure in the penal code of those countries.

A bank clerk in New York did some clever juggling with the funds under his control and went to London. Hot on his heels went a couple of New York detectives; and application for extradition was made. Unfortunately for his pursuers, his offense was described as "forgery," and in English law it is not so regarded.

Therefore, the English magistrate had no hesitation in refusing the application, and the sleuths from New York went away sorrowful.

Offenses generally regarded in international treaties as extraditable are murder, attempted murder, or manslaughter, also such crimes against the community as arson, bigamy, embezzlement, fraud, counterfeiting and kidnaping. An absconding fraudulent bankrupt may also be pursued and brought back.

But mere wounding, or doing bodily harm to a person, is not extraditable—unless permanent injury or incapacity is caused. So if you beat up your enemy and then flee to Spain or France, or somewhere handy, you are safe from the vengeance of your own country's laws.

It is well known that political offenders are safe from extradition, which is why unsuccessful revolutionaries and plotters against governments spend so much time in exile. But the police of several countries have been wily enough to try to get round this provision.

When they have wanted a political refugee they have brought a criminal charge against him, so as to get him into his own country, where he could be dealt with for his political offense.

This little dodge, though, is defeated by the laws of extradition; for, if required, the police applying for extradition are bound to show that their man is not to be charged with any infraction of the law in connection with the politics of his native country.

On one occasion the police of a certain foreign power were anxious to reclaim a political offender who had fled to London, so they unearthed a trifling robbery of which he had been guilty some years before, and tried to get him extradited on that. But his counsel was able to prove, to the satisfaction of the London magistrate, two important facts.

One was that he had paid back the stolen money, and the other was that a prosecution begun at the time had been dropped. So once again the foreign detectives had to depart without their prey.

But the person whose extradition is sought is further protected by the laws of the hospitable country in which he has sought safety. Apart entirely from politics, he cannot be tried, if extradited to his own land, for any other crime than that specifically charged in the application.

The said application must be accompanied by a warrant granted in the fugitive's own country.

There are one or two other odd points about extradition. Some countries will not deliver up their own citizens. Spain is one of these; so, as an illustration, take the case of a Spaniard who offends against our laws and bolts to his native land.

The Spanish authorities will not give him up to be brought back and tried. Spain's neighbor, Portugal, does not surrender refugees to countries where capital punishment is in force.

Other countries beside Spain who will not surrender their own nationals are Austria, Italy, Germany, Greece, Brazil and Switzerland.—Montreal Family Herald.

Australia Wages War Against Rabbit "Pets"

It is estimated that 1,000,000,000 rabbits infest the state of New South Wales alone. Millions of dollars have been spent in the war against these animals, which were first introduced as pets by early settlers. Fences have been constructed, water holes have been poisoned and professional rabbit catchers have been employed. One fence extends from Condon, on the northwest coast, 1,000 miles south of Hopetoun on the south coast, protecting the entire western portion of the state of western Australia.

Rabbits are particularly destructive in sheep-grazing sections, as they destroy not only grass, but shrubbery as well. Seven rabbits are said to eat as much grass as one sheep. The destructiveness is offset somewhat, however, by their commercial value in fur and food. Exports of rabbit products, chiefly skins, averaged $15,000,000 per year during the years immediately preceding 1929, but since that time have declined.

In the Best of 'Em

Pretty Girl—You have a pug nose.

Young Man—Yah?

Pretty Girl—Do pug noses run in your family?

Young Man—Only in cold weather.—Kansas City Star.

Housewife's Idea Box

Use Sour Cream

If your sweet cream sours, you need not throw it away. You can whip it just as you would sweet cream and use it in making a salad dressing. It is delicious added to any other dressing. Of course, you can also dilute it and use it in a cake batter by adding a little soda.

THE HOUSEWIFE.

(Copyright by Public Ledger, Inc.)

Welcome American Slang

However rude or crude are American terms, they are so expressive and impudently near the truth that it is hard to resist giving them a place in any honest lexicon, says the Montreal Herald. Such terms are "graft," "oncoever," "foolproof" and "step on the gas." This was the explanation given by President George Gordon of Magdalen college, Oxford, England, for their inclusion in the new supplementary. Among other phrases which have been introduced into the English language in the last 50 years and given a place in the dictionary are "all of a doo da," and "give it the once over."

Our World a Dynamo

Charged by the cosmic rays from the radium in the stars the world is a huge dynamo producing 200,000,000 amperes of electricity, according to Dr. Luther S. H. Gable, sole survivor of six chemical engineers who refined the first commercial radium in America.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

MEN Risked their lives, STAKED THEIR FORTUNES SMASHED WORLD RECORDS FOR

Your Safety!

SAFEST TIRE FIRESTONE EVER BUILT

THE New Firestone High Speed Tire for 1934 was built to give you the same dependable service it provided for the 33 drivers who started in the torturous 500-mile grind at Indianapolis May 30.

This new tire has a wider tread of flatter contour, deeper non-skid, more and tougher rubber, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Besides being Safety Protected on the outside it is Safety Protected on the inside. Eight additional pounds of pure rubber are absorbed by every one hundred pounds of cords. This additional rubber surrounds every cotton fiber inside every cord in every ply. This is accomplished by soaking the cords in liquid rubber by Gum-Dipping, a Firestone patented process.

Heat caused by internal friction of cotton fibers destroys tires—causes separation and blowouts.

Gum-Dipping counteracts friction and heat—provides greater adhesion and strength, assuring car owners of the greatest Safety, Protection and Economy that it is possible for human ingenuity to build into a tire.

Every one of the 33 drivers at Indianapolis chose and bought Firestone High Speed Tires. Race drivers KNOW tire construction—they will not risk their lives or chance of victory on any other than Firestone.

At terrific speeds the cars plunge into the treacherous turns—tires are braced against the scorching brick track—so hot the tires fairly smoke at times—they give—yield and stretch—every conceivable force works to tear the tire to pieces, yet Firestone High Speed Tires "come back" on the straightaways. Not once during the entire race did a tire fail.

Surely this is the most amazing proof ever known of Extra Strength, SAFETY and Dependability. Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store nearest you TODAY. Equip your car with new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934.

Unparalleled STAMINA

FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRES

★ For fifteen consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the 500-mile Indianapolis Race.
THIS MEANS BLOWOUT PROTECTION

★ For seven consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the daring Pikes Peak climb where a slip meant death.
THIS MEANS NON-SKID SAFETY AND TRACTION

★ For three consecutive years have been on the 131 buses of the Washington (D. C.) Railway and Electric Company covering 11,227,810 bus miles without one minute's delay due to tire trouble.
THIS MEANS DEPENDABILITY AND ECONOMY

★ Were on the Nelson "Motors" Ford V-8 Truck that made a new coast-to-coast record of 67 hours 45 minutes, 30 seconds actual running time.
THIS MEANS ENDURANCE

ANNOUNCING 12 MONTHS' GUARANTEE AGAINST ALL ROAD HAZARDS*

Effective today, Firestone guarantees their complete line of tires against all road hazards for 12 months*. In addition, Firestone gives the industry lifetime warranty against defects in workmanship and materials.

*When used in commercial service, these tires are guaranteed for 6 months.

Firestone

MOST MILES PER DOLLAR

JULY

L 919

U 3 2 2

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Toy Fox Terrier Puppies, pure. John H. Coburn. 26t1p.

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 25t5.

In market for Wheat Straw, first quality Alfalfa and all grades of Hay. Phone 158-329 Hicksville, Ohio, Hart & Lower. 25t2p.

Wanted: Small building suitable for wash house. Foster Gee.

Baber Shop, open evenings, Wednesday, Friday P. M. and Saturday all day. Geo. Milliman, Spencerville. 25t2.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and, splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3644

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Harvey Kimes, Sr., deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 6th day of July, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 6th day of June, 1934.

CLYDE G. RECTENWALL,
Administrator.

Atkinson & Husselman, Atty. 23t3

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana, Administrator of the Estate of Nancy R. Palmer, deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

RALPH E. PALMER,
Administrator.

June 14, 1934.
H. C. Crabill, Attorney. 24t3

CONCORD

Mrs. Clifton Draggoo went shopping Monday afternoon at Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Will Keeler spent Sunday in Bluffton in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. VanFleet, of Garrett spent Sunday afternoon in the Ira Bone home. Mr. and Mrs. Will Scott visited with them Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Forst Gerrick, of Auburn took Mr. John Timmerman, Mrs. Anna Koch and Miss Icy Krise to the World's Fair Sunday expecting to return home Wednesday.

Ford Jackson and family, Mrs. C. Jackson and Mable and Burt Jackson spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson. Carl Perkins and family were supper guests.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown entertained to Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. Ern Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bishop, of Auburn, Miss Bessie Bartlett, of Fort Wayne and gentleman friend, Mr. Sneider of Akron, O., and Mr. and Mrs. John Brown.

LIFE PROTECTION AT COST!

$1,500 Mutual Life Protection for $7.00; approximate total cost $13.00 per year; non-medical, ages 5 to 75; all races; dues waived after 15 years. Strictly mutual, non-profit Life Protection at cost. Write for particulars.

Dept. A, FAMILY MUTUAL BENEFIT ASSOCIATION, Heard Bldg., Phoenix, Arizona. 24t3

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Some think the raspberry crop will be short, due to dry weather.

Mrs. C. B. Widney was sick Sunday but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Ada Messenger called on Mrs. Hattie Draggoo Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Anna Koch spent last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Koch.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maxwell and family spent Sunday eve in the Ford Jackson home.

Clifton Draggoo comes home over the week-end, he is still working for the state, near Huntington.

Mrs. George Johnson is making some improvements in the way of a new granary and painting the barn.

SPENCERVILLE

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman is assisting in caring for Mrs. Bernice Baker.

Mrs. Emila Gloyd, of Newville, spent Sunday here with her son and family.

Melvin Arnold, of near Churubusco is visiting at the Ralph Culbertson home.

Mrs. Lou Brinker and Mr. Perry, of Fort Wayne, are also guests in the same home.

Gale Bowser and family were week-end guests of the latter's parents at Defiance.

Mrs. Ethel Badiac, of near Fort Wayne called at the R. U. Bowser home Friday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday evening, July 11, for the June meeting at High's building.

Mr. and Mts. Virgil Perry, of Kalamazoo, Mich., were Sunday guests in the Walter Baker home.

Charles Timmerman and children were Sunday afternoon guests at the Delbert Furnish home.

Miss Alice Wonn returned to her home at Harlan after spending a week with Miss Margaret Chaney.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for July 1 was 66, collection $2.59; Lutheran 60, collection $2.97.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowser and children, of St. Joe were Sunday afternoon callers at the R. U. Bowser home.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Baumgartner and son and Mrs. Merritt Barney, of Hicksville, spent Sunday at Ft. Wayne visiting friends.

Miss Ethel McNabb returned home Saturday after three weeks visit with her brothers, Dale and Bernard McNabb, of Detroit.

The Home Bureau will be entertained on Wednesday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Rally Markle, who will be assisted by Mrs. Zona Abel.

During the summer months preaching will be held at 9:00 o'clock, Standard Time, at the M. E. Church, followed by the Sabbath School.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswalt and Miss Wilda McNabb were Saturday evening supper guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb, and family.

A reception and get-to-gether meeting will be held on Thursday evening in High's building in honor of the new M. E. minister, Rev. Newcombe, and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Carteaux and children, of Fort Wayne, Miss Phyllis Parrian, of Michigan and Mr. and Mrs. Ora Smith and daughter were Sunday dinner guests of the Vaughn Allen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Place and children, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay were week-end guests of the latter's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowerman of near Angola.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and family spent Sunday with Samuel Arnold and family and Rev. and Mrs. Shryer homes of near Churubusco. Misses Edith and Alta, who have been visiting there returned home with them.

The Young Ladies Social Club met on last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. LeAnna Steward. Prizes were won by Mrs. Kathryn Dean, Mrs. Zelpha Steward, Cleo Reed and Opal Beerbower. Miss Josephine Fisher was a guest.

Junior Chaney, while swimming recently in the river near his home saw a bucket in the water, so boy like he thought he would investigate. To his surprise he found it contained several nice catfish. Rather easy way to have a fish supper, Junior says.

Mrs. Pearl Kortwright, Mrs. W. E. Bradley and daughter, Janet and Mrs. Paul Windemouth and son, Junior, of Columbia City and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and son Robert were Tuesday evening supper guests of Mrs. Zetta Wertman. It was the occasion of Mrs. Wertman's birthday anniversary.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Gleckler and son of Dickson, Ohio, Mrs. Sarah Richard, of Monroeville, Ind., Mrs. Carrie Brown, of Hicksville, Mrs. Ida Brown, of Tucson, Arizona and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Miller, of Fort Wayne were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Guthrie. Mrs. Ida Brown and Mrs Richard remained for a few days visit.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Effie Rogers, of Ft. Wayne, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ide, of Chicago, were guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith.

Remember the Group Meeting at the U. B. Church July 5, dinner served in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale McNabb and son were here from Garrett Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs Wallace Abel.

The quarantine on the L. W. Yeiser home has been lifted, no new cases of scarlet fever having developed.

Mrs. Lucille Traxler and children returned home Friday from Butler where they had been visiting her parents.

The U. B. Sunday School will give Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shaffer a shower Friday evening, July 6, at the home of Marion Webb.

Mrs. Elmer Keller is recovering from a lightning shock received during an electric storm June 26. She was under the care of a physician several days.

Mrs. Rosa Snellbaker was taken to the Garrett Hospital Saturday for treatment and possibly amputation of a foot, as gangreen has developed in two of her toes.

The Missionary Society met July 3 with Mrs. Mary Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of this place and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and two children, of Mongo, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Iro Mohart, near Hicksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler announce the marriage of their daughter, Mona F., to Mr. Kenneth Gaff, on Sunday, October 29, 1933. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Price at Butler on the 20th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

Coburn's Corners

Attendance at Bible School for July 1 was 84, collection $3.28.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull of St. Joe called on Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hart Sunday evening.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder has been named William Clyde. Both grandads are awfully puffed up.

Miss LaNore Laub, who is employed at Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laub and family.

June George, of Fort Wayne, who has been visiting with Martha Elaine Hart the past 3 weeks, returned to her home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter and Mrs. Ida Chubb and son, Ivan spent Sunday afternoon at New Haven with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Style.

Mr. Marvin Poper and family will soon move on the John Benninghoff farm. Mrs. Bailey, who home, is not so well these hot days.

Bob Klopfenstein, who is staying at the George Hart home, spent the week-end at Fort Wayne with one of his chums, Joe Close, who had the misfortune to fall from a cherry tree and break both wrists.

Mrs. Ruth Shull called on Geo. Hart and family Sunday evening.

Frances Barnhouse spent Sunday with her parents and son, Lauren.

Miss Anna McCutcheon entertained the young people's class, taught by Lehr Wilder at the home of Mrs. Garth Shull Friday evening. The young folks report a fine time. The hostess served ice cream and cake.

Mr. A. R. Zimmerman and daughter, Helen, of Grant, Michigan, Mrs. Ida E. Hose, Mrs. Imhoff, Mr. Walter Hose and children, Ralph, Harold, Grace and Hubert, Mr. and Mrs. George Cottrill and family and Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Scott and family of Butler, and Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee of St. Joe enjoyed a pot luck dinner and social afternoon Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Chas. H. Curie. Lucille Curie, accompanied by Charles Pahud, of Indianapolis, called in the afternoon.

Huber Theatre
HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Friday, Saturday
JULY 6-7
"GEO. WHITE SCANDALS"
Rudy Vallee, Alice Faye. A musical comedy with new song hits.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday
JULY 8-9-10
"STAND UP AND CHEER"
Warner Baxter, Madge Evans, Shirley Temple. The show of shows. Perhaps you will never again see such thrilling, dazzling screen play with 1,000 dazzling girls and such song hits.

Sunday shows start at 4:30, on week-days at 7:30.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds	$1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds	$1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

DRASTIC PRICE REDUCTIONS

UP TO $50 BRING CHEVROLET

to the record low price of $465

AND UP, F. O. B. FLINT, MICH.

DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

NEW REDUCED PRICES

	New Reduced List Price	Amount of Reduction
STANDARD MODELS
Sport Roadster	$465	$25
Coach	495	25
Coupe	485	25
MASTER MODELS
Sport Roadster	540	35
Coach	580	35
Town Sedan	615	30
Sedan	640	35
Coupe	560	35
Sport Coupe	600	35
Sedan Delivery	600	45
COMMERCIAL CARS
Commercial Chassis	355	30
Utility Long Chassis	515	50
Dual Long Chassis	535	50
Utility Chassis and Cab	575	50
Dual Chassis and Cab	595	50
Utility Long Chassis and Cab	605	50
Dual Long Chassis and Cab	625	50
Commercial Panel	575	35
Special Commercial Panel	595	35
Utility Panel	750	50
Dual Cab and Stake Body	680	50
Dual Long Cab and Stake Body	740	50

Above are list prices of passenger cars at Flint, Mich. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price of Standard Models is $18 additional; Master Models, $20 additional. List prices of commercial cars quoted are f.o.b. Flint, Mich. Special equipment extra. Prices subject to change without notice. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G.M.A.C. terms. A General Motors Value.

CHEVROLET With the announcement of price reductions several weeks ago, Chevrolet stepped into the most favorable price position it has enjoyed in a long time!

Reductions amounting to as much as $50—the most substantial price cuts announced in the low-price field this year—dropped Chevrolet's base price to a new low figure of $465. Just compare this price—compare any Chevrolet price—with those of other cars. Then compare what you get for what you pay! There'll be no question in your mind which car to buy.

Chevrolet offers patented Knee-Action—and others do not! The same thing applies to Fisher body, cable-controlled brakes, shock-proof steering, and valve-in-head six-cylinder engine. Chevrolet gives you far more features—far finer quality. Yet the price of the Chevrolet Standard is lower than that of any other six or any eight in the world.

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN

FURNISH MOTOR SALES, Spencerville, Indiana

JULY

L 919

4323

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX | ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JULY 12, 1934 | NUMBER 27

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Oct. 25, 1884

In all the political speeches that have been made and are yet to be made during the campaign, how many lies do you suppose have been told?

While Will Curie was out killing a beef the other day he accidently blew off one end of his moustache. Billy ought to be careful or he might lose the other end and then he wouldn't have any.

We were surprised last week to hear of the death of Miss Ella Kelso, daughter of Rev. S. Kelso, formerly pastor of the Lutheran church of this place. She died at the home of her parents in Lancaster, Illinois on Sept. 29, 1884.

SPENCERVILLE

Mr. Wade Newcombe, of Fort Wayne, was a week-end guest of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kump and Mr. and Mrs. Woods and sons, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday dinner guests at the same home.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman is spending the week with Rev. and Mrs. Bradley and family, of Columbia City, at their cottage at Lake Wawasee. She will also visit relatives at Columbia City and Fort Wayne before returning home.

The class meeting of the True Blue class of the M. E. Sunday School was most pleasantly entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Jean Miller at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson. Miss MaDonna Gibson and Mrs. Mary Miller were guests.

A number of International Harvester employees are taking a forced vacation while the plant is being prepared for the production of the new model. Those from here affected are Mr. Miller, Leroy Mann, Harry Laux, Virgil Koch, Millard Snyder and Wilbur Shroyer.

Spencerville draws quite a crowd on Saturday nights, in fact some of the streets are almost impassible due to the blockade of care. The attraction of course is the free moving pictures which the merchants provide. Besides this feature there is nearly always a home made ice cream social.

DRINKING BLAMED FOR BROKEN HOME

Excessive drinking on the part of Dewey Miller, of Newville township, caused much distress in their family, according to a divorce complaint filed in the DeKalb circuit court by Vera Miller.

He was drunk often and when in such a condition he cursed and abused her, Mrs. Miller alleges. Recently he was found guilty in an Ohio court of drunken driving and was sentenced to sixty days in jail. His wife says that Miller spent so much of his earnings on liquor that she had to work to make a living for herself and their children, Ronald Eugene, 11, and Robert Wayne, 9.

The court is asked to award the custody of the children to the plaintiff and to require the defendant to pay $5 a week for their maintenance. Her attorney is Howard S. Grimm.

HIT BY FAST B. & O. FREIGHT

Harry Harkey, who conducts the Central Grocery at Hicksville, with his automobile was knocked off of the B. & O. tracks at the Cheesetown crossing, east of St. Joe, at about 2:30 Thursday morning. The crossing is known also as the Woodcox crossing, more lately as the Lothamer crossing, and often as the Coburntown crossing.

The car was hit by a double header westbound freight, an engineer reporting the speed to Coroner Shook, of Spencerville, as about sixty miles an hour. The train crews reported the automobile as parked an the crossing with all lights out except one parking light.

The car was completely demolished, and when the train was stopped, Mr. Harkey was found between the double tracks, unconscious.

From the St. Joe target the freight crew notified oncoming passenger train No. 16 that the eastbound track was blocked with the wreckage of the automobile, and she was flagged and held up until Wilbur Yeiser auto wrecking crew from St. Joe reached the scene of the wreck and cleared it from the tracks. The car was brought to St. Joe and placed in the Meese barn.

Dr. Shook, of Spencerville, DeKalb county coroner, was also notified, and was promptly on the scene, accompanied by the Kinsey ambulance.

Mr. Harkey was given quick first aid, placed in the ambulance and started for hospital at Garrett, it not yet being known who the injured man was or where he was from. When within about 4 miles of Garrett, the injured man regained his senses for a few moments, told who he was and expressed a wish to be taken to Hicksville, relapsing again into unconsciousness.

As his injuries were not deemed critical, the coroner and ambulance turned about and arrived at the home on West Smith Street about 5:30. Dr. H. W. Cook was called and took the case in hand, allowing the DeKalb county citizens to go to their homes, and Mr. Harkey walked into the house. Flesh wounds on his arm and leg were the only evidences of his accident.

It is understood that business troubles and the accident and wrecking of his car on Sunday morning, at the Wabash railroad south of Spencerville when a tire blew out thowing the car over the grade and hurting Mrs. Harkey and Mrs. Albin, while the two men escaped, caused a gloomy view to be taken which led to a conclusion that it would be better to end the whole matter. It is also understood that Mr. Harkey, at the home about midnight, declared his intention to drive on the tracks and thus end the matter. Mrs. Harkey did not give the matter much credence when Mr. Harkey drove away, thinking that a ride would get other matters on his mind and that the gloomly ideas would thus disappear. Late reports are that he is recovering the shock.

175 PERSONS TO GET OLD AGE PENSIONS

The county commissioners entered an order for the payment of old age pensions to 175 residents of DeKalb county beginning August 1.

The pensions will range from $8 to $12 a month. The maximum under the state law is $15. The cost to the county will be approximately $1,400 a month. The checks will be mailed to the pensioners each month by County Auditor Frank E. Lyon.

A few pensions were granted for $10 a month and some married couples will receive a total of $12 a month, but most of the pensions are $8. To be eligible, an applicant must be at least seventy years of age and many of them are past eighty. All parts of the county are represented in the list in fair proportion to their population.

MORE YOUNG MEN JOIN CCC CAMPS

Eighteen DeKalb county young men are at Camp Knox, Ky., preparing themselves in regular army examinations for assignments to various CCC areas. They left Thursday for Indianapolis where they underwent preliminary examinations. C. O. Krise, postmaster of Auburn, accompanied the boys to Indianapolis.

Following is the list of the eighteen new recruits:

Auburn—Michael Myers, William Maxwell Cress and Clifford D. Berkes.

Garrett—Russell Shuck, Lawrence J. Kimmell, Lowell H. Kimple, Jesse W. Robertson and Emil H. McCully.

Butler—Willis P. Bungard, Wm. J. Rose and Ernest Lovely.

Waterloo—Wayne Johnson.

Franklin township — Kenneth Smith and Junior Culbertson.

Newville township — Marion Dermott.

Concord township—Leslie O. Inlow.

Spencer township — Henry Mansfield.

Jackson township — Robert L. Lochner.

With the assignment of these eighteen to camps the total for DeKalb county is eighty-seven.

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS SHOW SLIGHT INCREASE

The receipts for fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, were $1,387.60; for year ending June 30, 1933, $1,337.80, making a gain of $49.80.

The first six months of this calendar year shows an increase of $73.10 over the corresponding months of last year.

This report was submitted by M. E. Storer, Postmaster.

FROM ABOUT ST. JOE

Church of Christ Sunday School report, attendance 134, collection $4.95.

Mrs. Jennie Abel spent last week-end at Wallace Abel's near Newville.

Thirty bushels per acre is about the top yield reported for the new wheat crop.

E. W. Woods, of Fort Wayne, was in town last week seeking the services of a J. P.

Mrs. Lula Woodcox is spending the week with the O. E. Miller family at Defiance, Ohio.

Mrs. Nora Blue, of this place, and Bert Gee, of Cleveland, Ohio, were Sunday evening callers in the Mrs. S. D. Gee home.

Mrs. Joseph Koch, of Fort Wayne has suffered a nervous breakdown and Master Jimmy has come to St. Joe and is boss at his grandparents home.

Dr. Richard Tucker, wife, and daughter, Beverly, son, Dick and maid Genevieve, of Niagara Falls, New York, were week-end guests of Harry Kees and Leon Kees families.

Grabill has a saloon and no body can do anything about it. The business men are joined in tryig to oust it, but the New Deal in Indiana is against any community that issues a protest.

Mrs. S. D. Gee, of this place, accompanied by Harry Fuller, of Garrett, Ind., and Mrs. B. F. Wilson, of Antwerp, Ohio, visited their cousin, Mrs. Ella Boyer, of West Unity, Ohio, Sunday, who is seriously ill of cancer.

The diverting of gasoline tax money from the highway department, as was done in Indiana, is deemed unfair and unjust by the Hayden-Cartwright road bill passed by congress, and states permitting such division will not be allowed federal aid in road building.

A test of the liquor ruling, that no sale by drink is allowed, is now to be made by the retailers association. We don't want the saloon, oh no, but what will we have, when we have the sale of hard liquor by the drink? It's coming as sure as fate. The opinions handed down are only a camoflage ,and they know it.

Mrs. Portia Hough and baby, of Columbus, O., arrived Sunday for two weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. Ines Hadsell.

Frances Clark, County 4-H Club overseer with her daughter, Dorothy, of Ashley, were Monday afternoon guests of Josephine Kees.

The county agreed to pay half the cost of the material for the construction of a new bridge over Cedar Creek on Ninth St., in Auburn, not to exceed $2,500, providing the city lets the contract.

The cement plant at Stroh, Lagrange county, is running full time and 200 men are employed. The town is now lively and the happy place it once was. It has been 12 years since the plant operated.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hursey attended the Barringer reunion held at Continental, O., Sunday. This was the first gathering of the family and a permanent organization was perfected. Thirty-four relatives attended.

The Council Oak, one of the middlewest's most famous landmarks, has been shattered by lightning. It was beneath this tree that a treaty with the Indians was executed in 1679 by the French explorer, La Salle.

The Quance family reunion was held in South Bend, Sunday and relatives attending from this way were Mrs. Vina Quance, Wm. Quance and family, Fred Quance and wife, Chas. Quance and family, J. C. Hull and wife and F. B. Leighty and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hollipeter and Miss Jane Hollipeter, of Blytheville, Ark., were Monday and Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee. Mr. A. R. Zimmerman and Miss Helen Zimmerman, of Grant, Mich., and Mrs. Ida E. Hose, of Butler, were also recent guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilt and son of Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen and grandson, Wayne Funk and Tom Allen and daughter, Pasty, of Hicksville, were afternoon callers, the Fourth, at the home of Mrs. W. H. Randall. Sunday afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Neff and two sons of Fort Wayne.

Upon the application of Robert and Madelyn Wyatt, Frank R. Bowman, of St. Joe, has been appointed in the DeKalb circuit court as administrator of the estate of the late Glen Wyatt, who took his own life June 30. There is $300 in personal property and the heirs are three children, Robert and Madelyn Wyatt of Rural Route, Butler, and Wm. D. Wyatt, of Topeka, Ind. Mr. Bowman filed $600 bond, with C. H. Hull as surety.

The average daily attendance of pupils in DeKalb county schools last year was 5,234 pupils, and divided in the various units as follows: Auburn, 958, Garrett 986, Butler 290, Waterloo 311, Butler township 149, Concord 209, Fairfield 196, Franklin 207, Jackson 258, Keyser 318, Newville 96, Richland 177, Smithfield 329, Spencer 143, Stafford 86, Troy 81, Union 204 and Wilmington 236.

SPENCERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Miss Ida Reed and Guy Platter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf at South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beams were Sunday evening guests in the W. F. Rhoades home.

Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe and family spent the Fourth at Fort Wayne with friends.

Mrs. Edna Wyans and daughters are spending a few days this week in Fort Wayne.

Many from this place witnessed the fireworks at Fort Wayne and Auburn the Fourth.

Mrs. Clyde Rectenwall was a recent guest of Rev. Howard Brown and family at Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and children were Sunday evening guests at Ralph Culbertson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and daughter, of St Joe, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Hazel Steward.

Messrs John and Milton Hursh, of Auburn, called at the Fred High home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Furnish and children called at the Ralph Furnish home Sunday evening.

Licensed to wed, John H. Beltz, 25, dairyman, Hicksville, O., and Thelma Johnston, 20, Spencerville.

Sunday School attendance for July 8 was M. E. 75, collection $2.35; Lutheran 68, collection $1.77.

E. L. Saure, of Hicksville was a guest last week at the Fred High home. Mr. High spent the week-end here.

Many of the young people of both Sunday Schools attended the young people's meeting at Erick's Grove Sunday.

Mrs. William Morris and son, Marshall, of Detroit, and Bernard McNabb were week-end guests at the Glenn McNabb home.

Mrs. Henry Markle and children of Auburn spent the Fourth at this place. They also spent the week-end at the Frank Markle home.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb and family, Floyd Warner, James, William and Ruth Franklin, celebrated the Fourth at the Roy Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hal had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and Wanda Kelley. Afternoon guests were Mrs. Grace Hensley and children.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church will meet on Wednesday, July 18 in the basement of the church, at which time they will make curtains for the windows in the basement, which is being redecorated.

Sunday afternoon guests at the Delbert Furnish home were, Mr. and Mrs. Page Hathaway, of Auburn; Mrs. Stella Markins, of Garrett; Mrs. Campbell and Charles Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Pressler and children, of Fairfield Center; Mr and Mrs. Roy Hathaway and daughter of Indian Lake.

Mr and Mrs. Elmer Smith and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morr and babe were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay.

Charter No. 459

Report of the condition of Farmers and Merchants State Bank at Spencerville in the State of Indiana, at the close of its business on June 30, 1934.

BANKING ASSETS

Loans and Discounts		$ 62 738 58
Overdrafts		None
U. S. Government Bonds and Securities		100 00
Bonds and Securities Guaranteed by the U. S. Government		1 900 00
Other Bonds and Securities		15 207 65
Banking House,	$2 569 88
Furniture and Fixtures	1 246 89	3 816 77
Other Real Estate Owned		None
Cash on Hand and Balances with other Banks		43 326 23
Exchanges and Cash Items		50 00
Securities Borrowed		None
Other Assets Advanced with application to Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.		204 04
Total Banking Assets		$127 343 27

BANKING LIABILITIES

Demand Deposits—Individual	$13 193 13
Time Deposits, including Time Cert. of Deposits	63 956 06
Savings or Thrift Deposits	3 569 41
U. S. Government and Postal Savings Deposits	None
Deposits of the State and Political Subdivisions	18 639 31
Deposits of Other Banks, Cashier's and Certified Checks	None
Total Deposits		99 357 91
Bills Payable		None
Rediscounts		None
Securities Borrowed		None
Reserves for depreciation and losses		None
Other Liabilities		None
Total Banking Liabilities		99 357 91

Capital Account:
Capital Stock	* $25 000
Preferred Capital Debentures	22 500
Total Capital		$25 000 00
Surplus		2 500 00
Undivided Profits—Net		485 36
Reserves		None
Total Capital Account		27 985 36
Total Banking Liabilities and Capital Account		$127 343 27

* Includes proceeds of $15,000 of debentures sold to Reconstruction Finance Corporation and $7,500 of debentures sold to local interests, which debentures are subordinated to the rights of creditors and depositors.

Included in Loans and Discounts are Loans to Affiliated Companies	None
Included in Othed Bonds and Securities are Shares to Affiliated Companies	None
Included in Deposits are First Lien Trust Funds	4 431 86
Included in Total Deposits are Deposits Secured by Loans and or Investments	None

Loans and Investments Pledged To Secure Liabilities

U. S. Bonds and Securities	None
Other Bonds and Securities	None
Loans and Discounts (excluding rediscounts)	None
Total pledged (excluding rediscounts)	None
Pledged to Secure:
a U. S. Govt. and Postal Savings Deposits	None
b Public Deposits	None
c Other Deposits	None
d Borrowings (excluding rediscounts)	None
e Other Purposes	None
Total Pledged	None

State of Indiana
County of DeKalb, ss:

I, C. G. Rectenwall, Cashier of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank of Spencerville, Indiana, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my kowledge and belief. C. G. RECTENWALL, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of July, 1934. (Seal) William M. Allen, Notary Public.

My Commission Expires January 13, 1935.

Money to Loan

at 5%, to Farmers for Agricultural Purposes, ALBION PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION, Inquire at—

ALLEN CO. FARM OFFICE
at 301 E. Columbia St.
Ft. Wayne, Indiana
or write Main Office at ALBION, INDIANA

C. E. McCLINTOCK

Attorney at Law

City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.

Auburn, Indiana

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company

OPEN EVENINGS

Before Buying-See Us About
-- YOUR --
Rope and Thrasher Belting
We Aim to have the Best
If we have it, it will cost you less
It will pay you to visit our store
We Handle Standard Binder Twine

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service Phone 37W

JULY

L 919

L 324

TRUE HUMOR NOT OFTEN ACHIEVED BY FORCED WIT

The one great quality that a humorist must have is an insight into human nature. Some, like Mark Twain, develop it through a life of varied occupations and interests. Such writers keep themselves fresh and interesting by getting out among people of many and different kinds in different sections of the country. They are constantly restoring themselves. Perhaps a humorist, to be at his best, should be also a rolling stone. Certainly many of the best have been.

It is possible, but it may not be so easy, to acquire wit and wisdom by staying at home. But a writer with aspirations to humor can very infrequently reach a high level by racking his brains for odd similes, bright wisecracks and strained nonsense. True humor is not achieved thus, no matter how conscientiously one may try.

This is not to say that topical humor, based on the news of the day, cannot reach literary heights. It sometimes does, as witness Finley Peter Dunne's old philosopher friend, "Mr. Dooley." Mr. Dooley's comments were almost wholly confined to subjects current in the news of his day 30-odd years ago, but his shrewd sagacity and homely philosophy render his comments pertinent to events of today, which is the reason quotations from Mr. Dooley are still so often encountered.—Boston Globe.

Real Bayer Aspirin at Lowest Prices in History

A new schedule of prices for Bayer Aspirin tablets has just gone into effect. The Bayer Company introduced Bayer Aspirin in this country 35 years ago. It has since become one of the most widely used of all drug products and the price reduction will mean a saving to millions of consumers.

In announcing its new consumer price schedule, the Bayer Company issued the following statement:

"Bayer has always kept faith with its customers by giving them the finest, most uniform product that science can produce. Its decision to reduce prices is evidence of Bayer's desire to extend even further its service to its customers." The new consumer prices of Bayer Aspirin are now effective in 60,000 drug stores throughout the United States. —Adv.

Fixing Up the House

"Have you potted geraniums?"

"No, but we have some very nice chrysanthemums."

"I must have geraniums. They are for my wife."

"I'm sure she'd like these chrysanthemums."

"You don't understand. The geraniums are to replace some I promised to care for while she was in the country."—Boston Transcript.

MURINE For YOUR EYES

Quick, Safe Relief For Eyes Irritated By Exposure To Sun, Wind and Dust

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dept. W, Chicago, for Free Book

Spanish Woman Pioneer

The first woman industrial engineer in Spain is Senorita Maria Carcaga, who recently took charge of a Madrid express train.

15¢ MAKES 40 PINTS ROOT BEER FOR Children Pure!

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Restores Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling. Restores Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. 50c and $1.00 at Druggists. Hiscox Chem. Works, Inc., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORSTON SHAMPOO — Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

CUTICURA Relieves Skin Troubles

Bathe the affected parts freely with Cuticura Soap and hot water, dry gently, and anoint with Cuticura Ointment. Pure and healing, these super-creamy emollients bring quick relief and soon heal itching, burning, scaly skin affections, eczema, pimples, rashes and all forms of skin troubles.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Sample each free.

Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 20S, Malden, Mass.

CAR OWNERS, Stop oil pumping cheaply. We specialize in and guarantee the only right method. Full instructions, 25c. Riverside Motor Garage, Paris, Wis. Save address

WNU—A 1 28—36

League of Nations Palace Nears Completion

THIS is an air view of the new palace that is being erected in Geneva for the League of Nations. The buildings, now nearing completion, cover an area of approximately 18,000 yards and are about 400 yards long.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

THE SWEET SINGER OF THE DUSK

JOLLY, round, red Mr. Sun was just going to bed behind the Purple Hills, and the Black Shadows had begun to creep all through the Green Forest and out across the Green Meadows. It was the hour of the day Peter Rabbit loved best. He sat on the edge of the Green Forest watching for the first little star to twinkle high up in the sky. Peter felt at peace with all the Great World, for it was the hour of peace, the hour of rest for those who had been busy all through the shining day. Most of Peter's feathered friends had settled themselves for the coming night, the worries and cares over and forgotten. All the Great World seemed hushed.

Peter Could Barely Make Out the Sweet Singer Above His Head.

In the distance Sweetvoice the Vesper Sparrow was pouring out his evening song, for it was the hour when he dearly loved to sing. Far back in the Green Forest Whip-poor-will was calling as if his very life depended on the number of times he could say "Whip-poor-will" without taking a breath. From overhead now and then came the sharp, rather harsh cry of Boomer the Nighthawk as he hunted his supper in the air.

For a time it seemed as if these were the only feathered friends still awake, and Peter couldn't help thinking that those who went so early to bed missed the most beautiful hour in the whole day. Then, from a tree just back of him, there poured forth a song so clear, so sweet, so wonderfully suited to that peaceful hour that Peter held his breath until it was finished. He knew that singer and loved him. It was Melody the Wood Thrush.

Peter hopped over to the tree from which the song came. It was still light enough for him to see the sweet singer. He sat on a branch near the top, his head thrown back and his soft, full throat throbbing with the flute-like notes he was pouring forth. He was a little smaller than Welcome Robin. His coat was a beautiful reddish-brown, not quite so bright as that of Brownie the Thrasher. Beneath he was white with large, round, black spots thickly dotting his breast and sides. He was singing it as if he were trying to put into those beautiful notes all the joy of life. Listening to it, Peter felt steal over him a wonderful feeling of peace and pure happiness. Not for the world would he ever have interrupted it.

The Black Shadows crept far across the Green Meadows, and it became so dusky in the Green Forest that Peter could barely make out the sweet singer above his head. Still Melody sang on and the hush of eventide grew deeper as if all the Great World were holding its breath to listen. Peter felt sure that somewhere near was a nest, and that one thing which made that song so beautiful was the love Melody was trying to express to the little mate sitting on the eggs that nest must contain.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I wrote you some time ago to help me solve a "Cross-Word Puzzle." I asked you for a twelve-letter word meaning "Letter Carrier," and you said "Postman." The word "Postman" only has seven letters. Where are the other five letters?

Truly yours,
WIRDFER WORD.

Answer: The other five letters are in the postman's bag.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have always heard that living in the country is much healthier than living in the city. If this is true, why is the air so much purer in the country?

Yours truly,
C. D. SOIL.

Answer: The reason the air is so pure in the country is because the farmers keep their windows closed.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I read some statistics compiled by the prohibition authorities and they claim that "whisky" kills more people than "bullets." Is this true?

Yours truly,
JOHNNY WALKER.

Answer: Yes. But that is merely because people prefer to be full of "Whisky" than full of "Bullets."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have never traveled before, so am seeking some information. I understand that in every city there are two kinds of hotels—American and European. I know what is meant by an American hotel, but what is an European hotel?

Sincerely,
I. WILL TOUR.

Answer: You can tell a European hotel very easily. Fighting on every floor.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a minister of a church and notice my congregation on Sunday is composed mostly of women. What do you suggest to help me get the men?

Yours truly,
I. PREACH.

Answer: Put a putting green in the rear of the church and reserve the last two rows for smoking.

© the Associated Newspapers
WNU Service

Latest for Evening

Anny Blatt gives us something entirely new in this knitted evening gown of soft, rose-beige wool. It is high-necked in front and has a brown, rose and blue plaid taffeta sash and bow. From Alfred Dunhill.

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says in spite of exhibiting at the horse show, dog show and cat show, she has to go to the ribbon counter and buy her own when it comes to blue ribbons.

WNU Service

Mother's Cook Book

ICE BOX DAINTIES

FOR those who have the electric refrigeration the following recipes will be helpful and suggestive:

Refrigerator Dessert.

Allow four thin crisp cookies, plain or chocolate, for each serving. Take one-half pint of heavy cream whipped for a serving of six. Flavor and sweeten the cream, then spread a cooky, top it with another and more cream until four are used, finish the top with a bit of cream and a cherry. Let stand four hours in the ice box. Serve on chilled plates.

Frozen Peanut Butter.

Cream two cream cheese with a fork, add one-half cupful each of chopped green pepper, celery and pimientoes; one-third cupful of peanut butter, one-half teaspoonful each of paprika and salt, one tablespoonful of lemon juice and one-fourth of a cupful of mayonnaise. Mix well, then fold in one-fourth cupful of heavy cream. Put into the freezing tray and freeze until firm. Serve on lettuce with a rose of mayonnaise.

Cocoa Charlotte Russe.

Dilute four tablespoonfuls of cocoa with one-fourth cupful of boiling water, cool, add two cupfuls of heavy cream whipped until stiff, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of orange or any flavored fruit juice, one teaspoonful of vanilla. Line a mold with lady fingers, trim to fit mold, fill with the cream mixture, cover and chill three hours. Unmold on a serving dish and serve with chilled whipped cream.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

The Little Brown Schoolhouse

By ANNE CAMPBELL

AROUND those brown walls my affections entwine,
Although they are standing no more.
In my memory lingers its simple design,
The windows, the thick, oaken door.
The little square panes have admitted the light
Of many a long day for me.
As I studied the "Three Rs" at home every night,
The face of my teacher I'd see.

The desks were initialed with names that are cut
On many a tall granite shaft.
The blackboards have vanished where I used to put
Gay pictures while naughty boys laughed.
Remember the globe that revolved on the shelf?
The books that were penciled and worn?
The dunce with his tall cap, who stood by himself,
The victim of scholarly scorn?

We girls wore bright aprons of gingham and print,
And when we got home every night
Our mothers would say: "Now you must do your stint,"
For our samplers were mother's delight.
The boys did the chores after school, and arose
With the first faint approach of the sun
To help in the barn . . . On their nimble bare toes
They scurried till all tasks were done.

The little brown schoolhouse! What memories rise
Of days that will not come again!
Of orchard and garden and clear sunny skies,
Broad meadows and green, winding lane.
The school bell will ring in September to call
Our children to lessons once more,
But never again will our own shadows fall
The length of the old schoolhouse floor.

Copyright.—WNU Service.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what is minimum?"

"The last drop."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Find a Hookup

The American flamingo is looked upon by ornithologists as a perfect connecting link between the herons and the ducks. It resembles the former in the great length of its legs and the latter in having webbed feet and a duck bill.

Only Bananas for Two Years

RICHARD ALAN EELANY of East Orange, N. Y., three years old, has been suffering for two years from coeliac, an ailment of the digestive tract, and his sole diet during that time has been bananas. He has eaten about 15,000 of them, and still likes them.

Nazi Commandments

The nine commandments of the Nazi are as follows: (1) One for all: First for every one a job; then for every one his job. (2) For the German youth: Take a spade in your hand and go out on the land. (3) For German girls: Take hold of kettle, broom and pan; then you'll readily get a man. (4) For the worker: Take work of any kind, however rigorous, for that alone makes you and the nation vigorous. (5). For the professional woman: Shop and office leave alone; your real work is in the home. (6) For business leaders: A grumbler deprives of bread himself and others, an optimist conquers all business bothers. (7) For housewives: Don't steal your time away from child and husband; get help by hiring a domestic servant. (8) For the peasant: The harder a state fares, the more soil must be cultivated (Frederick the Great). (9) For servants of the state: Whoever still remains a bureaucrat does not fit in today's combat.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

He'll See Through You

How to get along with a boy is not to pretend.

DR. W. E. FITCH TALKS ON MINERAL WATER

Tells Why It Is Often Helpful for "Rheumatic" Aches and Pains

EUROPEAN SCIENTISTS CONFIRM OPINION

Recently William Edward Fitch, M. D., member of the International Society of Medical Hydrology and author of that comprehensive book "Mineral Waters of the United States and American Spas" spoke as follows on a program over the National Broadcasting System:

"Drinking a mineral water is not like drinking an ordinary water, for in addition to the virtues and therapeutic value of the water itself, the combined minerals, some of which are in such infinitesimal proportions as almost to defy man's limited power of analysis, produce systemic changes which affect disease profoundly. . . . In Europe, of course, mineral water treatment has been known for thousands of years, and is universally accepted. . . . I am happy to have contributed in a small way to the spread of knowledge of this form of treatment in our own great country, for here we have the same needs as Europe's population—the same diseases, the same suffering, the same problems—and bountiful Nature has provided the same form of treatment—natural American mineral waters sparkling and bubbling from the earth, ready and able to end serious and painful disease."

When we think of what Dr. Fitch has said of the real value of mineral waters—and then think how very few people can afford to travel to America's mineral water resorts—it is very important to know about Crazy Water Crystals, and the happiness they have brought to millions suffering from "rheumatic" aches and pains and other chronic ailments. Crazy Water Crystals are just precious minerals crystallized from a great natural mineral water—a type of mineral water that has built one of America's greatest health resorts, to which 150,000 people flock every year. You just mix Crazy Water Crystals with plain water, and make a great mineral water at home.

And Crazy Water Crystals are very economical. A standard sized package costs only $1.50 and is sufficient for several weeks treatment in your own home. Crazy Water Co., Mineral Wells, Texas.

CRAZY Water Crystals

are for sale by dealers displaying the red and green Crazy Water Crystals sign. Get a box today.

ACCOUNTS, NOTES, CLAIMS COLLECTED Everywhere. No charge unless collected. Bonded correspondents. La Porte County Collection Bureau, 719 Michigan Ave., La Porte, Ind.

GET RID OF ANTS

Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

JULY

L 919

U 325

HIGH IMPORTANCE OF LITTLE CAPES

PATTERN 9966

When you button the little capes onto the shoulders of this frock you attach to it just enough formality to make it go places very smartly. In the house, the sleeveless bodice is as cool as can be—and exceedingly chic. Which makes it a model that serves two purposes—and equally well! And when in addition you bear in mind that it does wonderfully flattering things to its wearer's figure—there doesn't seem to be much question about the wisdom of adding it to one's wardrobe.

Pattern 9966 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 4 yards 39-inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

LANGUAGE EXCHANGE

"You have to go to England to learn to speak the English language," remarked the lecturer from London.

"Perhaps," answered Miss Cayenne. "But you have to come to America to get paid merely for doing so."

Sarcasm

Old Lady (on platform)—Which platform for the Boston train?

Porter—Turn to the left and you'll be right.

Lady—Don't be impertinent, young man!

Porter—All right, then, turn to your right and you'll be left.

Waste Not, Want Not

"Did ye hear about Sandy McCulloch findin' a box of corn plasters?"

"No, did he?"

"Yes—so he went and bought a pair of tight shoes."—Sydney Bulletin.

Lights! Camera! Action!

Nurse—You are slow! Look how quickly Joan gets undressed.

Barbara—Yes, but she's practicing to be a film star.—London Humorist.

ENJOY

Love Is Like That

By HELEN M. SMELTZER

©, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

"IF I never see you again, Jack Alder, it will be too soon!" The pretty brunette sniffed back the tears—tears of indignation.

"That's O K by me," Jack returned with as much anger as she had shown. "And now perhaps you wouldn't mind going into the house?" His tone was sarcastically polite as he held the car door open for her.

Angelica Rice slammed the front door before her escort could get to the top of the porch steps. And that slam had a finality not to be denied. His ego hurt, Jack swore softly and then winced as he recalled how his fiery little sweetheart had reacted to his accusations an hour ago.

"You—you—" she had cried. "How could you ever believe that—that cat!" She grew stormier—"See here, Jack! If you can't trust me, our engagement is off, understand?"

If he had only had sense enough to keep quiet instead of urging her to say she hadn't dined with Ted.

• • •

"You are both too stubborn, Jill," Edith Mason said one day. "You know that Alice is just a jealous little cat. I heard her say once that she'd do anything to get Jack to look at her."

"Well, from reports, she's succeeded," Jill retorted. "They're together everywhere. And Jack doesn't seem to be terribly downcast when he's with her."

"He's just trying to make you jealous, old dear," Edith comforted. "But to get back to the question: you admit your attitude was wrong, even though Jack was unjust. . . ."

"Jack has admitted that he was wrong, too," Jill answered. "Oh, not to me," she put in hastily. "To everyone but me. And now that he's taken up with that trouble-maker."

• • •

"Call her up, Jack," Ted urged. "You know Alice was just stirring up trouble when she told you I took your girl to dinner. You should know I wouldn't."

"Well, if you didn't, she should have said so. If she wants to see me she can call me. I won't give in to her whims. Anyway, she probably wouldn't see me now." His resentment changed to pleading. "But what can I do, Ted? I miss her like the dickens."

"You certainly are the prize chump! Why not try getting Mary Benson's advice if you won't take mine?" Ted asked. "She's a good friend of both your families."

• • •

A good looking fellow, if rather sheepish, sat facing his mother's old friend ("Eloise, advisor to the lovelorn") next morning. The office door of the Daily Gazette was securely closed behind them.

"It's this way, Mrs. Benson," he said. "Day after tomorrow is Jill's birthday and I want to take her out. Can you help me patch things up?"

"Leave it to me, Jack," she said.

• • •

"Angelica, my dear, how are you? I called to see if you'd come down to the Gazette tomorrow. This year I want you to choose your own birthday present. You've been a slave to my matronly tastes long enough. Could you meet me at lunch time? Maybe I'll be able to get off a little early so don't be late."

Mrs. Benson was phoning when Jill entered. "I'll be right over," she said hanging up.

"What a shame, Angelica," turning to the girl. "I have to run out for about ten minutes and there isn't a soul to take my phone. Would you mind looking after it until I come back?

"You probably won't have a single call," Mrs. Benson continued, "But if you do, answer as best you can, unless you're absolutely stumped. In that case tell them to call after 1:30. Think you can manage it?" Mrs. Benson looked so concerned that Jill reassured her quickly. When the older woman was gone, Jill felt full of responsibility.

The phone bell—"This is Eloise speaking." Jill answered as she was told. "Yes, it is perfectly correct for a girl to answer a boy's friendly letter if her parents do not object to the correspondence."

Five minutes, then the phone rang again. "This is Eloise speaking. . . ." She listened to a man's voice saying, "My fiancee and I had a misunderstanding because of a meddlesome third person. We quarreled, parted and now we've found out that we both were wrong in our attitudes. But neither of us is big enough to call the other. Could you please advise me? I can truthfully say that we are still very much in love."

"The silly fools," Jill thought. Then she replied. "It is a good deal harder for a girl to call a man than the other way around. Put your silly pride aside. I'm positive your former fiancee will welcome you with open arms." Jill hesitated, and then burst out, "If you don't do this you two will be as miserable as another couple I know who are too pig-headed to realize how much they really love each other. Take it from me, I know!" Jill could not stifle the sob in her voice, and she hung up quickly.

Two minutes later she was startled as the door rushed open. "Darling!" Jack caught the teary-eyed girl in his arms. "Oh, sweet, I've been such a fool!" he whispered into her curls.

• • •

Mrs. Benson, loitering outside, closed the door softly before leaving for lunch.

"Sausage Cases" in Use for Packing Ice Cream

The difficulties of serving ice cream cheaply and conveniently may be solved by packing the perishable substance in sausage cases. Ice cream sausage has been found to save time and expense, while assuring perfect sanitary conditions. With the aid of a special filling machine the transparent cases are tightly packed with ice cream by the simple expedient of turning a crank. The sausage container may be used for all kinds of ice cream, water ices and frozen fruits. The new packing idea has been demonstrated at the Leipzig fair, proving highly successful. Instead of dishing out the ice cream, the customer buys a foot or a yard of ice cream sausage. The ice cream may be served in links of any desired thickness or length to suit the convenience of the dealer or the ultimate consumer.

Yosemite Bird Chorus

There must be thousands of birds and hundreds of varieties in Yosemite park. When they are undisturbed, as John Muir said, "the whole range, from foothill to summit, is shaken into song."

SAVE 1 GALLON OF GAS IN 10!

NEW AC METHOD COMPLETELY REMOVES THE CHIEF CAUSE OF MOTOR MIS-FIRING, HARD STARTING, SLUGGISHNESS, AND GASOLINE WASTE—FOR ONLY 5c A PLUG

REPLACE BADLY WORN PLUGS WITH NEW ACs

AC

THE QUALITY SPARK PLUG

Save money on gas—restore your car's pep—with a thorough spark plug cleaning. All better Dealers, Garages, and Service Stations are equipped with the AC Spark Plug Cleaner. Get your plugs cleaned every 4,000 miles.

Look for the "Plug-in-the-Tub"

Tune in: RAYMOND KNIGHT and the CUCKOOS Saturdays, 10:00 p. m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time

Now! Prices Reduced ON Genuine Bayer Aspirin

Tins of 12 Tablets NOW 15c

Bottles of 24 Tablets NOW 25c

Get Real BAYER Aspirin Now at Lowest Prices in History!

So as to put the safety and quick action of Genuine Bayer Aspirin within the reach of everyone, the price you pay has now been reduced. Reduced so low that nobody need ever again accept some other preparation in place of the real BAYER ASPIRIN that you've asked for. 15c now for tins of 12 tablets. 25c now for bottles of 24 tablets.

And the big, family size, 100 tablet bottles have again been reduced in price. These new low prices are now in effect throughout the United States.

So—Always say "Bayer" When You Buy

And remember, when you ask for Bayer Aspirin at these new low prices it's unnecessary now to accept any other preparation in its place.

So—never ask for it by the name "aspirin" alone when you buy, but always say B-A-Y-E-R Aspirin and see that you get it.

Remember, too, that doctors advise it, for it DOES NOT HARM THE HEART. And that scientists rate it among the fastest known safe reliefs for pain. (See illustrations below.)

Why Bayer Aspirin Works So Fast

Drop a Bayer Aspirin Tablet into a glass of water.

By the time it hits the bottom of the glass it is disintegrating.

IN 2 SECONDS BY STOP WATCH

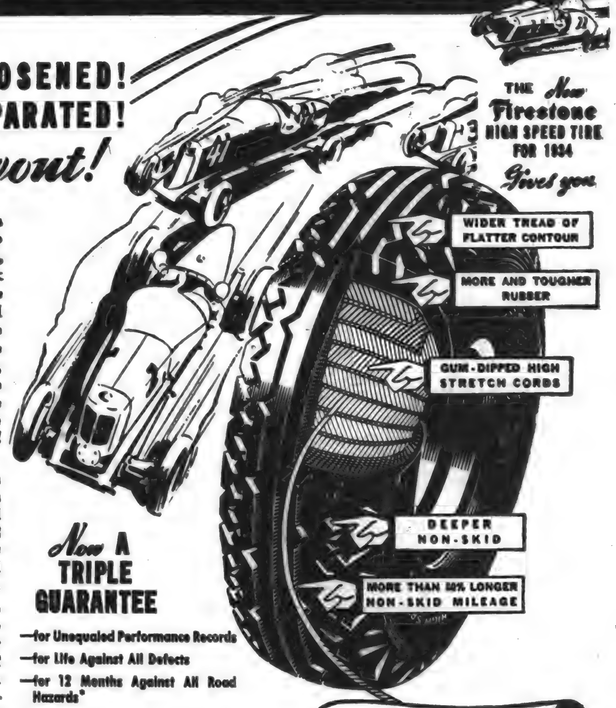
A Genuine Bayer Aspirin Tablet starts to disintegrate and go to work.

What Happens in These Glasses Happens in Your Stomach—Genuine BAYER Aspirin Tablets Start "Taking Hold" of Pain a Few Minutes after Taking.

ALWAYS SAY "BAYER ASPIRIN" NOW WHEN YOU BUY

Every Conceivable Force
WORKED TO TEAR THESE TIRES TO PIECES

But
NOT ONE CORD LOOSENED!
NOT ONE TREAD SEPARATED!
Not one Blowout!



As thirty-three speed demons careened and slid around the steep banked curves of the hot brick track, tires shrieked and smoked . . . break-neck speeds, 150 miles and more down the straightaway — tremendous centrifugal force tugging to rip the tread from the body of the Tire. In fact, every conceivable force worked to tear the tire to pieces, but not one cord loosened — not one tread separated — and not a single blowout. What amazing proof of Tire Strength—Safety—Quality and Dependability!

Every one of the thirty-three drivers at the Indianapolis 500-mile sweepstakes chose and bought Firestone High Speed Tires. The fact that not one of the 132 tires failed is your greatest guarantee of the Extra Safety — Strength — and Dependability built into Firestone Tires.

The New Firestone High Speed Tire for 1934 is Safety-Protected on the outside by a wider tread of flatter contour, deeper non-skid, more and tougher rubber, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage — Safety-Protected on the inside by eight additional pounds of pure rubber absorbed by every 100 pounds of cords. This additional rubber surrounds every cotton fiber inside every cord in every ply. This is accomplished by the Firestone patented process of Gum-Dipping.

Now A TRIPLE GUARANTEE

—for Unequaled Performance Records
—for Life Against All Defects
—for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards*

Guaranteed for six months when used in commercial service.*

Greatest Guarantee of All

Get the protection of the Firestone Triple Guarantee — for unequaled performance records — for life against all defects — for twelve months against all road hazards.

Call on the nearest Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934.

EQUIP NOW FOR YOUR HOLIDAY TRIP!

See Firestone Air Balloon Tires made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair, Chicago

Listen to the Voice of Firestone —Featuring Gladys Swarthout —Every Monday Night over N.B.C.—WEAF Network

Firestone

MOST MILES PER DOLLAR

HONOR ROLL

FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRES

★ For fifteen consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the 500-mile Indianapolis Race.
THIS MEANS BLOWOUT PROTECTION

★ For seven consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the daring Pikes Peak climb where a slip means death.
THIS MEANS NON-SKID SAFETY AND TRACTION

★ For three consecutive years have been on the 131 buses of the Washington (D. C.) Railway and Electric Company covering 11,357,810 bus miles without one minute's delay due to tire trouble.
THIS MEANS DEPENDABILITY AND ECONOMY

★ Were on the Nelson Motors' Ford V-8 Truck that made a new coast-to-coast record of 67 hours, 45 minutes, 30 seconds actual running time.
THIS MEANS ENDURANCE

JULY

L 919 326

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 25t5.

CELERY for Sale. See Wm. L. Hamilton. 27t1.

In market for Wheat Straw, first quality Alfalfa and all grades of Hay. Phone 153-329 Hicksville, Ohio, Hart & Lower. 25t2p.

Honey: 10c per section. Call Mrs. Henry Shroyer. 27t1p.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land. Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Glen Wyatt deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

FRANK R. BOWMAN,
Administrator.

July 5, 1934.
Springer & Schaab, Attys. 27t3.

MORTUARY

BENNINGHOFF

Nancy Rebecca Lake, daughter of Lucius Nelson and Margaret Lake, was born December 9, 1863 in Milan Township, Allen County and departed this life on June 19, 1934 at her home in Fort Wayne, Indiana. In 1865 she moved to a farm one mile east of Spencerville and this has been her home ever since.

On December 23, 1884 she was united in marriage to John Benninghoff, by Rev. Lineberry and as she said recently, they had been lovers forty-nine years. To this union were born three children, Nellie Lee, William and John Jr. With her husband she joined the M. P. Church at East Springfield on Feb. 12, 1892 and when this church was abandoned she transferred her membership to the Spencerville M. E. Church, under Rev. Homer Studabaker, where she was a loyal and faithful member ever since.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, William and John Jr., both of Fort Wayne, seven brothers, Nathan, Lathan, Lewis, John, Frank, William, and Charles Lake, one sister, Mrs. Charles Lyon, five grandchildren, and hosts of friends who had learned to love her for her true Christian spirit. The following poem was read at the funeral of the Father of Mr. John Benninghoff and seems particularly well suited for this occasion as well.

"A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love had given;
And though the body slumbers new,
The soul is safe in Heaven."

Funeral Friday, June 22 from Spencerville M. E. Church, Rev. Howard Brown officiating assisted by Rev. Homer Studabaker. Burial in White City Cemetery.

CONRAD

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Conrad were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Dilgard Bros. funeral home with Dr. Manfred C. Wright, pastor of the First M. E. Church officiating. Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Conrad died Thursday afternoon at Richmond, Ind., as the result of arterio sclerosis. Her death was sudden although her health had not been the best for several years.

The deceased was born on December 23, 1854, in Starke County, Ohio, and her age was 79 years, 6 months and 12 days. She was married to Albert H. Conrad, deceased, on June 16, 1872.

To Mr. and Mrs. Conrad were born four children, one of whom is deceased. Those surviving are Mrs. S. F. Davenport, of 201 No. VanBuren St., Auburn; Mrs Grace Eby, of Trenton, N. J. and Victor H. Conrad, of Oakland, Calif. There are eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Years ago, the Conrads were prominent residents of St. Joe, living over the brick business room, then located just east of The News-office. Mr. Conrad was a tinsmith by trade and operated a retail store.

BAKER

Bernice Mildred Perry, was born October 2, 1897 in Newville Township, DeKalb County, and passed away July 8, 1934 at her home in Spencerville, aged 36 years, 9 months and 6 days.

She was the oldest of the family of three children born to Newton and Alice Perry.

She was united in marriage to Walter Baker on April 12, 1915 and to this union were born three children, Ethelyn, Alice and William.

She was baptized into the St. Joe Christian Church in 1909 and kept her membership there, although a loyal worker at the M. E. Church of Spencerville, also a member of the Eastern Star Chapter at Spencerville.

She is survived by her father, Newton Perry, of Fort Wayne; two brothers, Wilbur Perry, of Fort Wayne, and Virgil Perry, of Kalamazoo, Michigan; her husband, Walter Baker; the three children, and hosts of friends who had learned to love her beautiful Christian Spirit.

The funeral was held from the M. E. Church, Tuesday afternoon Rev. Howard Brown, former pastor officiating, with burial in the K. of P. Cemetery at St. Joe. Roscoe Walter in charge.

CARD OF THANKS

The family fully appreciates the interest and kindness of friends and neighbors, during the long illness of our wife and mother, and for their kind deeds and assistance given in our bereavement.

The Family.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Wilbur Yeiser and family are all set for their vacation at Hamilton Lake starting next week. Fishing tackle is being put in shape.

A birthday surprise party was given at the Fred Ulm home on Tuesday evening for his mother, Mrs. Minnie Ulm. Friends came in with lunch.

Mrs. Adam Shilling and Miss Lucile Wiler were very pleasantly entertained Sunday at the home of the former's son, Howard Shilling and family.

Mrs. Charles Smith, of Newville and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and children, of Mongo, called on Clara McCann Tuesday afternoon.

Wilbur McCann and friend and two sons were recent guests of Mrs. Clara McCann, they brought well filled baskets and surprised her. Ice cream was also served.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Free RUBBER RINGS..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a gear-actuated Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. DEPT 735

27t14

RUPTURE

E. J. MEINHARDI

COMPANY SALESMAN OF CHICAGO HERE AGAIN

He will show you the "Meinhardi Rupture Shield" privately in his rooms at the Anthony Hotel, Fort Wayne, Ind., on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 17th and 18th, from 1:00 P. M. to 7:00 P. M. daily.

Ask the Hotel Clerk for the numbers of Mr. Meinhardi's rooms. Only men are invited.

The Meinhardi Rupture Shield retains the rupture on the average case regardless of size or location—no matter how much you exercise, lift or strain. The Meinhardi Rupture Shield is skillfully molded to each individual as a Dentist makes false teeth. (No leg straps and no cumbersome arrangements.)

It is waterproof, sanitary, practically indestructible, and may be worn while bathing or sleeping (continuously day and night) until no longer desired.

Do not neglect to see him on the above date. There is no charge to investigate. This visit is for white people only.

Chicago Office, Pure Oil Bldg.

Coburn's Corners

Mrs. Alice Hart was ill the past week of influenza.

Attendance at Bible School for July 8, was 73, collection $2.99.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place spent Sunday evening with Hattie Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Haffner called on Mattie Hart Monday morning.

Paul Stytle, of New Haven spent last week in the Paul Carpenter home.

J. S. Shull attended the soldiers reunion held at Archbold, O., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Manz, of Fort Wayne, called on George Hart Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart and Mrs. Alice Hart called on Marvin Poper's Sunday evening.

Clyde Hart and class held their class meeting in Erick's Grove Sunday following Bible School.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Conine were calling on old friends in this community Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Murphy and children, of Hicksville, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mason.

Mrs. Ruth Shull and Dale Hart spent Sunday afternoon with Eva Shull at Garrett. Mrs. Shull is suffering with rheumatism in her shoulders.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Lockwood and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Engelbrecht and Mrs. Stevens, of Fort Wayne, called on Elizabeth Hart Sunday evening.

Several from this community attended the corner stone laying of the new post office and witnessed the fireworks later in the evening, at Auburn, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alta Peters and daughter, of Hicksville, and Mrs. Stella Gilbert, of Buffalo, N. Y., visited our Bible School Sunday. These ladies are the daughters of the late Romeo Headley, a former resident of this community.

Club News

The R. H. Club members and their families were entertained at a lawn party the evening of July Fourth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton.

The attractive and beautiful lawn, which was electrically lighted, made the party very enjoyable. The evening was spent visiting and the younger folk had fireworks to display. Home made ice cream, cake and coffee were served to 55. No prizes were awarded but if there had been Abner Trostel and Claude Laub would each have deserved one for champion ice cream eaters, but when it comes to cake, Emily Hallabaugh deserves honorable mention.

Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Ida Chubb was pleasantly surprised on her birthday Sunday, when forty relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter. A bounteous pot luck dinner was served at the noon hour. A shower was held in the afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Best, who were recently married. The former a nephew of Mrs. Chubb. Ice cream and cake were served in the afternoon.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reinhart and daughter, Mabel, of Butler; Mrs. Frank Best and family, of Edon; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Best, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Leu, of Montpelier, Ohio; Mr. Earl Bechtel, of South Bend; Miss Maude Schoville, of Angola; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Craun, Lakeland, Florida; Mrs. Letitia Craun, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mrs. Lena Stytle and family, of New Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Best, of Nettle Lake and Mr. Irvin Chubb.

Miss Ida Widney called on Mrs. C. Jackson Monday afternoon.

Miss Eloise Draggoo and Miss Patricia Perry, of Kalamazoo, Mich., called on Iris Jackson Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Clifton Draggoo entertained last Thursday and Friday her aunt and great aunt and family from St. Louis, Mo.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Mona Gaff and Miss Belle Blair spent Friday in Butler.

Mrs. Letitia Craun is here from Florida visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent the evening of July 4th in Auburn.

The attendance at the Christian Sunday School July 8 was 141, offering $3.95.

C. C. Andrews was here from Detroit, Saturday looking after his farming interests.

O. K. Enzor and family are here from Indianapolis, visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Enzor.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Sunday at Ball's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins and Mr. Myers, of St Joe, spent Sunday afternoon at this place.

Garnett Washler returned home Sunday from a visit in the Max Norman home in South Bend.

Mrs. Hoffer and son, James were here from Butler, Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoffer.

The Christian Aid Society will have an ice cream social in the basement of the Christian Church Friday evening, July 13.

Mrs. Rosa Snellbaker, who was afflicted with gangreen, had a leg amputated above the knee, last week, at the Garrett Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coburn and family from St. Joe and Mr. and Mrs. Dale McNabb, of Garrett, attended services here Sunday at the Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Dam, their son and wife and Mrs. Ethel Davies and three children were here over the week-end from Chicago, vsiting Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, Clayton Smith and Miss Bonnell Baker were guests at the birthday dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, held in honor of Millard Smith's 29th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Keller and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Washler and son, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Washler and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. John Washler and daughter, Sylvia, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Reinhart were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Washler.

CONCORD

Sunday School report for July 8, attendance 49, collection $2.26.

Mrs. Ada Messenger was a caller on Mrs. Draggoo Monday eve.

Mrs. Dora Morr called on Mrs. Howard Krise Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo took dinner in Auburn with Mrs. VanZile Monday.

Mrs. Jackson and Mable spent a couple days last week with her sister, Mrs. Nannie Lysher.

Holl Jackson and wife and Mrs. C. Jackson and Mable spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ford Jackson.

Mrs. George Johnson's sister, of Cedarville is staying with Mrs. Johnson for several weeks thru harvest.

Mr. and Mrs. Don VanFleet and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bone drove to Hamilton Lake Sunday and spent the day They enjoyed the outing.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Robert Quance, of Auburn, is spending the week at the O. E. Ginther home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heckler, of Toledo, Ohio, were Sunday visitors in the J. P. Buckingham home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Turnbull, of Dayton, Ohio, were guests of their grandchildren Friday and Saturday in the Roy Koch home.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

The 4-H Club girls are rehearsing for their Achievement Day August 17, and will later present play at the County Achievement Day at Auburn, August 22. Eighteen girls enrolled and only one failed to finish course. There will also be a picnic at Eckhart Park for all leaders, members and mothers, at noon August 22.

Homer Woodcox arrived home a few days ago from California.

J. R. Shilling, a stockholder in the St. Joe Valley Bank, made a $400 payment last week on his 100 per cent stock assessment. Suit against the stockholders will probably be instituted soon. The capital of the bank was $25,000.

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Thursday, Friday, Saturday
JULY 12-13-14
"VIVA VILLA"

with Wallace Berry, Fay Wray, Fast and furious....compelling screen drama, a truly sweping and magnificent picture of Mexico.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday,
JULY 15-16-17
"TARZAN AND HIS MATE"

Johnny Weismuller and Maureen O'Sullivan. The best show on earth is here. See Tarzan battle with the man-eating crocodile, see 100 roaring lions in wild jungle attack.

Sunday shows start at 4:30, on week-days at 7:30.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Most merchants follow the practice of selling a number of articles at a lower unit price than is charged for one. They have certain fixed costs in connection with each sale which must be charged for and the customer benefits by buying in quantity.

An electric utility has certain fixed costs that are chargeable to each customer, such as reading his meter, bookkeeping for his account, interest and taxes on that part of our facilities devoted to his use. Our rates are so designed that after you have paid these charges additional electricity may be had at very low cost. By buying electricity from us for a number of household uses such as cooking, refrigeration and water heating you buy at wholesale. Consequently for each service you take from us you reduce your average rate and, in effect, you make your own electric rate.

H. S. Evarts
Vice President & General Manager

MAKE YOUR OWN ELECTRIC RATE

THE MORE ELECTRICITY YOU BUY THE LESS IT COSTS PER UNIT

JULY

L 919

U 327

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX | ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JULY 19, 1934 | NUMBER 28

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Nov. 8, 1884

Bill VanZile moved to Garrett last Wednesday.

M. T. Bishop went to Waterloo last Saturday.

Rev. E. K. Baker was at Republic, O., last week.

Burt Patterson of Hicksville was in town last week.

Our roosters don't know just exactly who to crow for.

There are 23 poles in this town, including the small ones.

Republicans were pretty scarce about last Wednesday morning.

Hereafter our address will be No. 273 Salt River. Call and see us.

Dr. Bowman and Frank Draggoo went to Fort Wayne last Friday.

S. S. Shutt made a political speech at Newville last Saturday night.

Rev. Lineberry will preach in this place on Sunday evening Nov. 16th.

It seems pretty tough but I guess we'll have to go up the creek this time.

Mervin Widney raised a piece of corn this year that averaged over 100 bushels to the acre.

Mrs. Donaldson and Mrs. Reed returned from their visit among friends in Pennsylvania last week.

Erastus and Jake White returned from Michigan last week. They killed two deer while they were gone.

The new road running north from Wash Woodcox's and connecting with the main road on the railroad land is being opened up this week.

If Cleveland gets to be president W. H. Simanton is to be appointed post-master general, and St. Joe will then be moved to Washington and made a general distributing office.

D. M. Allen, surveyor of Allen county and formerly a prominent teacher of this county, died at his home in Fort Wayne on Tuesday of last week, and was buried at Spencerville on Thursday.

The public schools of this place will open on Monday, Nov. 17, 1884. We were unable to learn who is to teach in the higher room but Miss Swineford will have charge of the primary department.

David Shull an old and respected citizen of this county, living two miles east of Spencerville, died very suddenly last Monday evening while on his way home from a rally held at the above named place.

Deputy Sheriff Jeff Boyle was in town last Saturday.

M. T. Bishop sold a bill of lumber to one man last week amounting to $118.

Charlie Shepherd, the happy insurance man of Hicksville, was in town one day last week.

Certainly every one is glad the campaign is over, and now let's all settle down to business

Mr. Bowen and family of Attica, Ohio, have moved to St. Joe, and occupy rooms with his son-in-law, H. K. Reynolds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Coder who have been visiting friends in this vicinity, returned to their home in Norvell, Michigan last week.

At a club meeting held at the hall last week J. D. Leighty resigned the position of committeeman for this precinct, and M. T. Bishop was unanimously chosen to fill the place.

Mrs. Widney has organized a prohibition party among the boys and girls of St. Joe. They raised a pole last Saturday at which time Mrs. Widney made a speech, and in the evening they had a grand street parade. Hurrah for Young America.

Why don't you go to Sunday School? You are certainly interested enough in this town to want to see the Sunday School kept up, and yet you stay away time after time and thus throw your influence against the welfare and prosperity of the best interests of the community. For who would want to live in a town where there are no churches or Sunday Schools? Certainly no one; then why not come out and aid and encourage the work by your presence. If you can not take a part in the exercises come and look on.

Some of our readers laughed because we said in our last issue that we had received another supply of black ladies' belts. They insinuated that we meant that the ladies were black and the belts were white, but its all a mistake. We want it distinctly understood that the belts are black—not the ladies. However should there be any black ladies who want a white belt why then of course the white belts would be black ladies' belts, or in other words the black ladies' belts are for white ladies and the white black ladies—oh pshaw we're getting all mixed up; we have the belts to sell though, and don't care whether its a white lady or a black lady that buys them.

We went out hunting with a promnent lumbar merchant ov St. Joe last weak. He is a grate sport an a crack shot and he sed he wood garantea us a mes ov foxx squerils if we wood go with him. So we went, he was tu du the shooting an we were tu carry the gaim. We struk fur the woods an in a short tyme cum across a larg foxx squeril an the lumbar merchant he sliped up an blazed awa. The gun went off an so did the squeril; that is the squiril went off up the tree intu a not hole. The lubar merchant sed he wus shure lumbar man sed he wus shure he hit him, but the squeril didn't cum down. Wel, we went on, bi and bi we saw another big foxx squeril and the lumbar merchant he crauled up, take ame an pulled the trigger. It wus an exciting moment, the distance frum the man to the squeril wus 20 feet moor or less; after the gun went off the squeril sat just as if nothing hed happened; he acted as tho he had seen the lumbar merchant befour an new that he cudn't hit ana thing. Finaly he flopped off tu anuther tree an went intu his hole. We then went on a short distance further an treed anuther foxx squeril, but it was no gude, we didn't git him, an so we started fur home, but I didn't have ana gaim tu carry.

Yours Without Squeril,
Barcus Q. Hippenhammer.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Leighty Orchard
—WE ARE NOW SELLING—
APPLES and VINEGAR
Our Vinegar also on Sale at ZONKER'S STORE, St. Joe; BOWSER & REED, Spencerville, and CITY MARKET, Auburn, Indiana.

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

GREATEST CIRCUS IS COMING SOON

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Organization presenting hundreds of Surprising new International features this season, including great Otari Troupe in flying trapeze sensation never before in America.

The world's mightiest amusement entourage, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus with its gigantic 1934 program of new world-wide wonders, many of which have never before appeared in America, is definitely scheduled to appear in Fort Wayne, Saturday, July 28.

The gorgeous, vastly enlarged inaugural spectacle, "The Durbar of Delhi" stupendously introduces the multitude of arenic marvels that succeed this pompous panoramic display.

The great new international congress of features presented in the 7 rings and stages, huge hippodrome track and the maze of aerial riggings includes the recently imported Otari Troupe in the most astounding mid-air feats ever witnessed. These intrepid performers fly from all points of the compass at the same time in perilous forward and reverse flights through space from their lofty aerial cross.

The Otaris with such arenic notables as Mlle. Gillette, Europe's sensation of the air, now appearing in this country for the first time and the celebrated Torence-Dolores, Merkels, Willos and Spurgat Troupes, all new to this continent, are among the 800 men and women circus stars presented by the big show this year.

The circus bears on its four trains of 100 double-length steel railroad cars more than 1600 people, 50 elephants, 1009 menagerie animals and 700 horses.

The great Con Colleano, tumbling, forward-somersaulting tight wire star has been recalled from European triumphs to join the great Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Constellation of stars. The celebrated Wallenda Troupe of high wire thrillers, the famous Loyal-Repenski family, world's greatest bareback riders, Dorothy Herbert, most daring horsewoman in history, the marvelous Yacopi, Danwills, Uyenos and Yom Kam acrobatic troupes and the famous Concellos, Harolds, Rooneys and Walters, aerial wizzards, are but few of the headliners among the better known acts.

There are 150 internationally famous clowns in the gala 1934 performances of the world's largest circus—the greatest congress of funmakers ever assembled.

OZA MAXWELL, 62, DIES AT DEKALB COUNTY FARM

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the J. R. Clark funeral home for Oza Maxwell, who died Sunday morning at 3:45 o'clock at the DeKalb county infirmary. Death was sudden, due to heart failure.

The deceased, aged 62, who had been an inmate of the infirmary for the last four years, had been as well as usual on Saturday night when he retired about 10 o'clock. He had no near relatives.

Rev. Joseph Ferguson, residing east of Auburn, officiated at the funeral and burial was made in Roselawn cemetery.

RELIEF LETTING UP

A total of 67,726 families, consisting of 270,681 persons, received direct aid in the state during May which is a decrease of 15,878 families and 79,090 persons respectively from the April totals of 83,604 families consisting of 349,721 persons. Cost of direct relief dropped from $1,085,981.13 in April to $825,047.17 in May, a decrease of $210,883.96. Resident single persons receiving direct aid showed only a slight drop, numbering 11,484 in May as against 11,550 in April, a decrease of 66. Cost of relief to these resident single persons, however, showed a decrease of $6,606.41 from the April total of $65,170.71 to $58,564.30 for May.

LADIES LITERARY CLUB ENTERTAINS IN AUBURN

Husbands and Friends Were the Guests at Dinner and Program Thursday Evening

The Ladies Literary Club held their mid-summer meeting on Thursday evening, July 12th. Invitations were issued from a secret committee requesting the ladies, accompanied by their husband or friend, to meet at the Leighty Orchard. When we arrived we found transportation awaiting to conduct us to some unknown port. Following the leader we shortly arrived at the Auburn Country Club, our destination.

The mystery was ended when we found Mrs. Frank Curie, Mrs. John R. Leighty and Mrs. Fred B. Leighty awaiting to greet us.

Mrs. Clarence Woodcox, the club president, gave the club collect at her table over which she presided as hostess and the members of the committee, in clever speeches, gave the welcomes at each of the other tables.

Gilt edged envelopes enclosing the names of the ladies whom the men escorted to dinner matched the monogramed place cards. The tables were centered with beautiful sprays made of garden flowers and the club rooms were artistically decorated with numerous clusters of seasonable flowers from the committee gardens.

A bountiful three course dinner, together with the welcome speeches, the responses of the guests and a song fest conducted by Mrs. William Staman made a very enjoyable hour preceding the business period of the club, at which time the gentlemen repaired to another one of the spacious rooms for a friendly chat, rejoining the ladies at the close of their meeting.

All seemed loathe to end such a merry party and so at a late hour good-byes were exchanged each heartily commending the "Mystery Three" for the arrangement of so splendid an evening's entertainment.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie,, Mrs. DeLora Curie, Mr. and Mrs. James Buckingham, Mrs. Inez Hadsell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. John Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Frank May, Miss Violet May, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Leighty, Mr. and Mrs. John Leighty, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woodcox, Mr. and Mrs. John Woodcox, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Shull, Mrs. Jennie Sechler, Merritt Sechler, Mrs. Lela Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Storer, Mr. and Mrs. William Staman, of St. Joe; Miss Martha Miser and James Kennedy, of Garrett, and Mrs. William Hough of Columbus, Ohio.

A Guest.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that Frank M. Brandon, as special representative of the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Indiana for the liquidation of the St. Joe Valley Bank, has filed his partial account in the DeKalb Circuit Court, to which any creditor, share-holder or other person interested may file written objection, and the said account will be heard and determined by said Court at the Court House in the city of Auburn, Indiana, on the 4th day of September, 1934.

FRANK M. BRANDON,
Special Representative.
W. D. Stump, Attorney. 28t3.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Films and developing handled at The News office.

Attendance 126 and collection $3.50 is the report for Sunday at the Christian Sunday School.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bronis were guests from Friday until Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hallabaugh, enroute to Chicago.

A near auto accident occurred Tuesday night and came near smashing into the Kinsey store front. The Strouse truck was the one cutting up the capers A glance at the tracks will reveal just how near it was.

A pleasant day was spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Abe Culbertson, when the members of the Culbertson family came in to spend the day and celebrate for a number whose birthdays occur during the month of July. A bountiful dinner was served at noon and enjoyed by the following guests:- Mr. and Mrs. Henry Culbertson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Culbertson and family, Mrs. DeEtta Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. George Baker and son, Clayton and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and baby.

Raymond Quance, of Auburn, is at the O. E. Ginther home this week assisting with the chores.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pflaumer were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hallabaugh at Logansport.

Two chair barber shop starting Saturday. Thanks for patronage. Geo. Milliman, Spencerville. 28t1p

Billy Hercules, of Fort Wayne, is spending his vacation here with his grandmother, Mrs. Frank Milliman. Sunday guests of Mrs. Milliman were Mr. and Mrs. Millard Gruber and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woods, also of Fort Wayne.

The fifth annual Chesetown school reunion is to be held on Sunday, July 29, 1934. An invitation is extended to attend and enjoy the day. Basket dinner. You are requested to bring table service. Mark Murphy, president; A. W. Trostel, secretary.

Mrs. T. E. Moran, of Garrett, called at the home of Mrs. E. R. Kinsey Saturday afternoon. Her daughter, Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey accompanied her to Garrett and remained until Sunday evening, Mr. Kinsey joined her Saturday night, returning home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lee Lane was brought home from the Garrett hospital Saturday in the Kinsey ambulance, where she has been for nearly three months, as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident. Mrs. Lane is recovering but is still confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arza Parrish, of Benton Harbor, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quance and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Quance and children of Auburn were Sunday evening guests at the J. C. Hull and F. B. Leighty homes. Mrs. Vina Quance accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Parrish home Tuesday and will visit for a short time at Benton Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor and Ray Jr. and wife, of Chicago, made their second annual pilgrimage to St. Joe last week, to visit the cemetery and renew relationships and acquaintaces about town. Ray is the grandson of James Abel. They brought lunch with them. Meeting Mrs. Jennie Abel at the cemetery, she invited them home with her where they spent the day.

Sunday visitors at the Dills grove in search of a cooler climate were Verne Monroe and family, Albert Wade and family, Hollis Dilley and wife, Ralph Sechler and family, Lela Northrup, Mary Sechler and Carl Carpenter and family. Some brought their dinners while others went at later hours and lounged about the grove. Quite a few people from away, spent the day along the river.

Declaring that he repeatedly struck her violently, Lillian Jenks of Spencer township, has brought suit in the DeKalb circuit court against Arthur Jenks for a divorce. Married December 31, 1932, the couple separated July 5, 1934. The plaintiff asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Lillian Koch. The atorneys for the plaintiff are Atkinson & Husselman. Jenks' former wife, Bessie Jenks, secured a divorce in February, 1932, together with the custody of their child.

BILLY SUNDAY AT WINONA JULY 29

"Foundation Day," now an annual event at Winona Lake almost as outstanding as "First Old Day" at Chautauqua, N. Y., will be celebrated this year on Sunday July 29. Much interest has been added to the event this year by the announcement that the Rev. W. A. (Billy) Sunday will be the main speaker. He will be heard in the great Billy Sunday Tabernacle at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon and again at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Rev. Sunday, who maintains a home at Winona, was the speaker when Winona's first "Foundation Day" was observed a number of years ago and friends of Winona began to look forward to the day as the annual appearance of the noted evangelist. During the last two seasons, it was impossible for Rev. Sunday to take part in the annual program and Rev. Melvin E. Trotter, Superintendent of the Rescue Mission at Grand Rapids, Michigan, also an old friend of Winona, took his place. Rev. Sunday's agreement to appear again this year as the "Foundation Day" speaker has just been announced by James Heaton, Executive Manager of Winona Lake Institutions and the day is expected to be a red letter day for the present season.

The annual Winona chautauqua is now in its third week with an attendance which surpasses that of all recent years. Features of this week's program are a series of lectures by Dr. J. Raymond Schutz, of Manchester College, motion pictures, a play by the MacMurray Community Players, concerts by the Winona Firemen's Band and the Mason Jubilee Singers and the final presentation of the delightful children's operetta "Lost Princess Bo Peep." The chautauqua will continue until Saturday, August 11.

CAR SKIDS IN GRAVEL

Sylvia Peckhart of Auburn was injured Sunday afternoon while going to Butler with Geo. Snyder of Concord. Their car hit loose gravel and went into a ditch, destroying 2 fence posts. She was thrown through the windshield being cut by broken glass above the right eye and across bridge of the nose, a cut on upper lip, back of head, 3 fingers on left hand and on the lower left forearm, made it necessary to take her to Souder's hospital for treatment.Snyder was bruised on left hip.

FRESH FOOT PRINTS

There are Sixty-six books in the regular Protestant Bible. The Catholic Bible contains the sixty-six books of the Protestant Bible and seven books in addition. The seven extra books are: Tobias, Judith, Wisdom, Ecclesiasticus, Baruch, First Maccabees and Second Maccabees.

In New York City kidnappers left a couple of carrier pigeons to bring them the $2,000 that they demanded.

The United States government now offers $10,000 reward for John Dillinger's capture (dead or alive) and $5,000 for information leading to his arrest.

Oranges contain vitamins A. B and C. Both oranges and lemons have a particularly high content of vitamin C which is the vitamin most likely to be deficient in the average diet. Vitamin C is easily destroyed by heat, and is not stored in the body. It should be taken in some form every day.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
OPEN EVENINGS
Before Buying-See Us About
-- YOUR --
Rope and Thrasher Belting
We Aim to have the Best
If we have it, it will cost you less
It will pay you to visit our store
We Handle Standard Binder Twine
Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

JULY

L 919

0328

Clothes That Go Out for Good Time

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

NOW that everybody's taking to biking or roller skating regardless of age, and since all the world seems to be seeking tennis or golf grounds or sunny beaches where to frolic summer hours away, creators of fashion are kept busy thinking up apparel suitable for time, place and the game.

The grand thing about play-togs, whether you are young or old or in the between years, is that in these modern times they are so entirely set free from old-time rules and restrictions. The idea nowadays is that your clothes simply must not be cumbersome. They must permit untrammeled freedom of action and they must be as chic as they are "comfy."

Which explains why the shorts outfits have become so overwhelmingly popular. In this type of costume designers have not left anything undone that should be done to work out the problems down to the minutest detail of "style," plus service and comfort.

The fact that sports clothes are so skillfully designed is not their only lure for there is another element which enters into the scheme of things that lends infinitely to the zest of sportsy attire—the materials employed. Such cottons! Such linens! They are that swagger, that colorful, that altogether intriguing, one can scarcely comprehend that they come under the humble classification of utilitarian washable weaves.

Speaking of the new cotton, there is the new pukker stripe seersucker with its brilliant bands of color alternating with multicolored hair-line stripes, and the new cabana twill which is particularly smart in string color and the candy stripe nubby yarn cotton which, seeing, you will not be able to resist and those spongy rugged herringbone cotton coatings which are so attractive the more so in that they tailor like a woolen and wash like a pocket handkerchief—cotton weaves the likes of which would not have seemed possible in years of yore.

The same is true about the marvelous linens which have come out this season.

No one can say that the shorts ensemble shown to the right in the picture is anything but a winner in the arena of fashion. As to being thoroughly practical this threesome which adds a jacket and an easy-to-take-off-and-on skirt to a shorts outfit is about the best thing that ever happened in the way of a sports costume. This model is made of Irish linen in a thrilling shade of sail red. In her hand the young lady carries a new waterproof beach kit equipped with everything which will serve as first aid to seashore beauty.

The beach shorts to the left in the group is also made of linen of the coveted uncrushable type. It is in natural color and is tailored to a nicety, has the big sailor collar which is so important this season and buttons conveniently at each side.

Just to prove that in the new cottons the new linens have a most dangerous rival in the contest now going on for highest honors, we submit to admiring eyes the goodlooking shorts centered in the group. They are made of a ripple-tex seersucker and as everybody knows there's nothing smarter in the realm of washable weaves than gay seersucker—a perfect answer to summer wardrobe needs—crisp, cool, sturdy, tubable.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

BEACH TOGS BUILT ON SAILOR LINES

Half the beach clothes in the country are built along sailor lines, so style dispatches say. But it's in accessories and trims the fad gets into its full swing.

Rope is all over the place. Instead of straps, bathing suits now use woven yarn resembling rope. Separate belts come in the same thing.

Buckles used to be just buckles, but now they're anchors. Rope belts, particularly, are hitched up garnish play suits of the more rough and ready type in the most surprising places, at the back where the straps cross, in the apex of a front V.

Matched Scarf and Glove Sets New Feature Mode

Nowadays it would never do to walk out in a pair of gloves that didn't match anything. In this day of passionate ensembling, when even your shoestrings have to match the color of your tie, or something.

Confronted with the difficulty of matching gloves to hats, as somebody timidly suggested at the beginning of the season, the cagey designers have now hit on the idea of presenting glove and scarf ensembles. And very nice they are, too.

Consider, for instance, the pictorial possibilities of a bow of sheer chiffon milanese under your chin, matched by gloves of the same gosamer fabric. Or of a frilled organdie collar on your best dark sheer frock, with matching organdie cuffed gloves.

Velvet-Ribbon Trimming

Velvet ribbons in lighter or darker colors than the frock, especially in shades of lighter blue on navy, or in bright red or green on white, make an effective trimming.

Plaid Madras Accents

Plaid madras from the West Indies, glass, string, leather and wood are strung together in fascinating array to accent summer playtime clothes for the country.

TOT'S BEACH OUTFIT

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Beach fashions for wee folks show such novel ensembles as this. The deftly pleated shorts are bright blue. The anchor trimming on the little white blouse with the new halter neck, lends no end of fascination to this cunning juvenile costume. The beach hat is a la Chinoise which shows how truly a style-conscious little lady is she who posed for this amusing and most delightful fashion picture. Sun suits for tiny tots are being made of mere scraps of material with a halter neckline and the entire back exposed to the sun's health-giving rays. Their cunning details bring a smile.

Language Enriched by Use of Americanisms

When Samuel Johnson was alive the notion prevailed in some English bookish circles that the colonists in America would develop a new language, as different from that of the motherland as Italian is from French, and that there would be little or no sale for English dictionaries here. The most recent pamphlet of the American Dialect society in some notes on "British Recognition of American Speech," quotes numerous references to the matter. American travelers in England during our Colonial period naturally used words and phrases that had their origin in the pioneer life in the New world and the English who heard them trembled lest these innovations should spread corruption among themselves.

There were even Americans during the Revolution who would have liked to see linguistic as well as political independence set up in this country. If we could not develop a new language of our own, a kind of Eighteenth century Esperanto, they would have had us change to Hebrew. We see the same spirit in Ireland today among those who wish to extirpate the English language and make Celtic the mother tongue. Of course, such a proposal came to nothing amongst us. We did, however, cling to our Americanisms, and there is no reason why supercilious Englishmen should regard them as corruptions of the pure tongue.

The hundreds of words that we adopted through our association with the Indians, many of them with a rich symbolism; the phrases that came into use through clearing the wilderness and the development of our political system were as legitimate as those with which the Elizabethans enriched the English language. They are not to be confused with the handful of barbarisms that have crept into the American vernacular—barbarisms which Punch and even an author like Galsworthy put in the mouths of Americans almost invariably wrong end to. Nor does a college professor in America, as Galsworthy would have his readers think, go to school for his English to Ring Lardner's baseball heroes. As well might an American novelist put the frightful jargon of a Suffolk small-town man into the mouth of an Oxford don. They don't speak the same language.—Boston Transcript.

Egyptian Obelisks

Only 36 of the numerous obelisks erected by the ancient Egyptians are to be accounted for today. At Karnak four are standing, and two prostrate. Nine more are prostrate at Saan. One stands at Philae. Twelve are at Rome—the largest one of them being at the Church of St. John Lateran. Florence contains two, and New York city, Paris, Arles, Constantinople, one each. In England there are four—two at the British museum, one at Alnwick castle, and the fourth at Kingston-Lacy, Dorsetshire, brought over by William Bankes, a friend of Lord Byron. The obelisk known by the name of "Cleopatra's Needle" was the companion of the one still standing at Alexandria.

Poor Daddy

"One more question, then," sighed the tired father.

"How far is it," inquired the tot, "between to and fro?"—Kansas City Star.

T&T ROOT BEER
T&T Root Beer
MAKE IT AT HOME
40 PINTS for 15¢
at 1¾¢ A QUART

DENMARK BANS HAIR DYES

Denmark's law against the sale of hair dyes containing harmful ingredients is believed to ban the use of any coloring for tresses. According to a Danish Hairdressers' union official, no means has been found to supply natural shades without the use of ingredients which are classed as harmful substances. He adds that many working women, whose hair turns gray early in life, are forced to use dyes to retain their positions.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Stamps Devoted to Sports

Bulgaria has a series of stamps devoted entirely to sports. They show an athlete vaulting a bar, a steeple-chaser making a jump, a cycle race, a fencer at the lunge, Bulgaria's Cliff Bastin making a dash for goal, and swimmer about to dive.—Pearson's Weekly.

Skin Discomfort
Eczema itching, chafing, smarting, etc., yield amazingly to the specially efficacious ingredients of Resinol

WANTED
● TWO SHOT GUNS and
● BOOKS ON SHOOTING
Would like to purchase at reasonable figure high-grade 16-gauge double shot gun, double triggers, and 12-gauge double shot gun with single trigger. Give full information as to make, boring, length of barrels, weight, drop and other stock dimensions. Must be in first-class condition. Would also purchase early American books on guns, fire arms and shooting. Pollard's "Book of the Pistol" and Sawyer's "Pistols and Revolvers" particularly desired. Please state price and whether books and binding are in first-class condition. Address
G. M. LA PIERRE
2 Hawthorne Road, Bronxville, New York

SLANDER REFUTED

The terrible child watched the visitor sipping his tea for a few minutes, and then protested.

"Mr. Smith drinks just like anybody else," he bawled. "Not like a fish at all!"

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young
Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.
—Powdered Saxolite—
Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Goodbye ANTS
Simply sprinkle Peterman's Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. Get it at your druggist's.
PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

KILL ALL FLIES

Placed anywhere, Daisy Fly Killer attracts and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective. Neat, convenient — Cannot spill — Will not soil or injure anything. Lasts all season. Sold at all dealers. Harold Soman Inc., 150 De Kalb Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.
DAISY FLY KILLER

The TIRE SENSATION of '34
THE NEW
Firestone
CENTURY PROGRESS TIRE
Beyond Comparison
IN QUALITY AND PRICE
WITH ANY FIRST QUALITY TIRE MADE

As the millions of World's Fair visitors saw tires made in the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, we asked thousands this question: "What do you value most in a tire?" Car owners from every state in the Union were interviewed—drivers of automobiles, trucks, and busses—and out of it all came one answer: "Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear, at moderate price."

Firestone engineers used every resource in developing a tire with these qualifications and selling to the public at a price in reach of every car owner. The answer is the new Firestone Century Progress Tire.

COMPARE QUALITY — CONSTRUCTION — PRICE

This new tire is in EVERY way the equal or superior of any other first quality tire built, regardless of brand — name — or by whom manufactured, or at what price offered for sale. Call on the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store and examine it. We know you will be sold on the rugged quality. You will want to equip your car with these new tires.

REMEMBER — you save money buying today, as rubber is up 442% and cotton 190%. Tire prices cannot remain at these low levels.

See how Firestone Tires are made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair

Listen to the Voice of Firestone—Featuring Gladys Swarthout — Every Monday Night over N. B. C. — WEAF Network

SPECIAL INTRODUCTORY PRICES
$5.75
4.40-21

SIZE	PRICE	SIZE	PRICE
4.50-20	$6.10	5.50-17	$8.75
4.50-21	6.30	5.50-18	9.05
4.75-19	6.70	5.50-19 HD	11.20
5.00-19	7.20	6.00-19 HD	12.45
5.25-18	8.00	6.50-19 HD	14.30
5.25-21	8.80	7.00-20 HD	17.10

Other sizes proportionately low

Why did Century of Progress select only Firestone's exhibit on scientific development of rubber in Hall of Science?

Why did Century of Progress select only Firestone among all tire manufacturers to show its millions of visitors how tires are made?

Now A TRIPLE GUARANTEE
● for Unequaled Performance Records
● for Life Against All Defects
● for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards*
*Six months in commercial service.

JULY

L 919 L 329

CAPE FLATTERING TO THE LARGER FIGURE

PATTERN 1680

According to latest fashion dictates the frock with the large cape is very popular during the warm weather season. Today's model is particularly flattering to the larger figure, for its deep, gracefully flared cape conceals a full bust and stout arms. Pointed seamings and length-giving skirt pleats achieve an illusion of slenderness. A printed silk, or one of the new sheers, would be loveliest for it. The cape may be contrasting, if desired. You'll never need worry about what to wear, when you can slip into this frock and look your smartest—for any occasion.

Pattern 1680 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 4¼ yards, 39-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York City.

Smiles

SHOW HIM OUT

"Is your young man popular with your people?"

"I should say so. Dad comes downstairs every night at twelve o'clock to see him off."—London Tit-Bits.

Bothered Brotherhood

"Wouldn't you like to travel and see the world?"

"No," answered Senator Sorghum. "I believe in the brotherhood of man. It would be no satisfaction to make a personal inspection of the same old family troubles all over the map."

Changing the Game

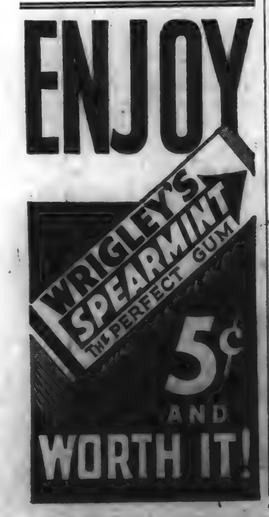
"Have you tried to regulate speculation in Crimson Gulch?"

"Once," answered Cactus Joe. "A feller from Chicago showed us a new way to play cards. We had to keep him in town over forty-eight hours so we could win back at poker what he had won at contract bridge."

Glass Arm

Golfer—There goes little Binks and Miss Munny. I thought she threw him over.

Partner—So she did. But you know how a girl throws.—New York Sun.



Good Taste Today

BY EMILY POST

Author of

"ETIQUETTE," "THE BLUE BOOK OF SOCIAL USAGE," ETC.

AVOIDING THE NAME JUNIOR

DEAR Mrs. Post: We would like to christen our baby with the same name as his father. But we hesitate because we do not want him to be called "Junior" by every one, which we have grown to dislike very much. Under these circumstances, would it be very improper to write his name with the suffix 2nd?

Answer: You cannot call him 2nd because this means nephew or cousin of a man of the same name. "Junior" is son or grandson. But if you call your boy Jack if his father is John, or Fred if his father is Frederick, or Henry if his father is called Harry, no one will call him Junior unless you begin it, or at least encourage it.

* * * * * * *

My dear Mrs. Post: Will you tell me about a christening at home? What kind of invitation is sent and what refreshments are usually served?

Answer: Taking it for granted that you have consulted your clergyman and that he is willing to christen the baby in your house, you either telephone or else write on your card, "Baby's christening, Wednesday, September 20, five o'clock r. s. v. p." Cover a small table with a white cloth or a piece of brocade and on it put the bowl that is to be used as the font—a silver one if you have it. If you haven't a silver one, use a china one, and lay flowers around it. The service is exactly the same as in church. The godmother holds the baby and the two other godparents stand next to her.

After the ceremony serve white almond cake, and caudle (a rather mild sort of eggnog with which every one is supposed to drink the baby's health).

* * * * * * *

Dear Mrs. Post: Would you say that a christening without having godparents is much the same as what you say about a wedding without the bride in the traditional white bridal veil and orange blossoms—"it is a frame with the picture left out." In the same way that a bride can be married without these trimmings, is it possible to christen a baby without having godparents?

Answer: Marriage is equally legal no matter what the bride wears. At a christening the service of some churches requires that a baby have "sponsors in baptism," that is, godparents—just as the marriage service requires that the bride be given a ring.

PROPRIETIES

DEAR Mrs. Post: The other day at the tennis club a boy who had been playing in the next court asked me very eagerly if I would play with him some day soon. Would it be improper for me to call him up?

Answer: I certainly would not telephone him, not because of any especial impropriety but because you would seem overeager to see him again. But if you see him at the club some day, there is no reason why you might not ask him casually, "Would you like to play?"

* * * * * * *

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it essential (in this day of unsettled living) to have an address on a man's visiting card? If there is no address on the card, should one be written on in pencil when necessary?

Answer: The address on a card is so convenient that it is best to have it put on, especialy as several successive addresses can be cut on the same plate. Of course, if you have no address on it and the person for whom you leave it does not know where you live, write in pencil.

* * * * * * *

My dear Mrs. Post: I am planning to be married this month and must have a very simple and small wedding. Several weeks ago a friend of mine had a shower party and invited almost every one of my friends. I feel as though I should invite to my wedding all these kind people who gave me lovely gifts, but how can I when I can't even include my own relations, outside of our immediate families? How does one draw the line in making up such a list?

Answer: I don't think that you can very well accept shower presents and then not invite the givers—let alone the friends who give the shower parties—to the wedding. You would better have said, "Thank you, Mary, but don't have a shower for me because I can't ask anyone but the family to my wedding." It is quite possible to cut your list as you please so long as you are consistent. Ask aunts and uncles and stop at first cousins. Or ask cousins you know well and omit those you never see. Ask really intimate friends, and no others.

© by Emily Post.—WNU Service.

Waterspouts

Ordinarily, waterspouts occur only in tropical waters, for the reason that the air in the tropics is always warm and moisture-laden and ready to condense upon meeting a sudden cool wind. However, waterspouts have been reported in the warm Gulf stream in Northern seas. These spouts are believed to occur when cold wintry blasts from the land pass out over the sea and meet the warm Gulf stream. Waterspouts last only a few minutes and are not dangerous to ships.

Mistake.

By ELMA KNOTTS

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

THERESE knew exactly the charming picture she made. It was, indeed, nothing new for people to gaze at her as Alice Whitley was doing now—with solemn fascination and not a little awe. The other girl moved slightly. Then, in a sudden burst, "I love to look at you, Therese! You're more than just—beautiful. There's something sort of aristocratic about you—you're different from the rest of us here. I always think of you"—earnestly—"as having descended from royalty."

Therese shrugged lightly. "Thank you, but I guess not."

"Well, even if you do seem so—so regal, you're not a bit high-hat with us small-towners. You've been visiting here only two weeks, and already you've got everybody in our crowd crazy about you! Except," quickly, "Gregg Barring, of course."

Therese narrowed her eyes amusedly. "You're quite sure of your Gregg, aren't you?"

"Oh, yes! Why, Gregg's always loved me. And—I, do I adore him!" She laughed—the happy confident laugh of a girl wildly in love.

"Sometimes," casually, "men tire of a girl, no matter how much they once cared."

"But not Gregg," stanchly.

The bell rang. Therese moved gracefully to the door. "I'll have to answer. Aunt Cora is out, and it's the maid's day off." She returned with a square purple box. Leisurely she opened it and picked up the enclosed card with only a flashing glance at the fresh, still-dewy violets within.

"Oh, what beauties!" breathed Alice. "And ordered from the city!" noting the smart silver lettering on the cover. "Well, I suppose a perfectly grand invitation goes with them?"

"A drive down to Villa Verona—that new place down the river. Dinner, of course. He's coming at six o'clock."

"Lucky you! Who's the invitation from?" with frank curiosity.

Therese hesitated, then slowly turned the card toward Alice, a tiny gleam of something like triumph in her eyes.

There was a moment of appalled silence. "Oh, not—Gregg! Not Gregg!"

"It does happen to be Gregg," evenly. "But—I won't accept."

"Oh, what difference does it make," the other cried, "whether you go or not!" Blindly she made for the door.

"Wait, Alice." The girl fell back listlessly into a chair. Therese hesitated for only a moment while she visioned again the delightful drive with Gregg last night. There had been no lovemaking, but it was impossible to ignore the flame burning between them that might all at once leap into a sweeping blaze. But if she quenched that flame now—

"You're perfectly furious with me, I suppose?" looking suddenly across at Alice.

"No—not with you. You can't help it, I guess, if—if every man in town falls for you." The girlish lips twisted into their old smile, but the blue eyes could not hide their pain.

"Well, then, prove that you do not blame me. Stay and have tea with me, won't you?"

Alice gazed at her dumbly. "If you want me to."

"I certainly do. Now," rising, "I'll bring in the things and you shall see how nicely I can brew tea!" Out in the hall, however, she sped upstairs to her aunt's room, carefully closed the door, and called Gregg Barring's number on the extension phone.

"Thanks for the flowers, Gregg, and the lovely invitation. No, I'm sorry, but I can't accept. A previous invitation. No—listen. Alice is here and knows about—about your flowers, and she saw the card. She's all broken up. Now, this is my plan: I'll keep her here until six o'clock, and then you fix it up with someone to come in your place. Think of some explanation—Alice must never know that it was really you. No, I won't have time to see you again. I'm going home tomorrow. Why so soon? Oh," in a most matter-of-fact tone, "I'm really getting tired of small-town life!"

It was not a very happy tea party, but Alice was still there when a car door slammed out in front. White and tense, she sprang to the window, partially hiding behind a drape. "Why—it's Tom, Gregg's brother!" a wild half-fearful hope in her eyes.

Therese raised her slim brows delicately. "Now, what on earth—"

"Hello, Therese! Ready?" A young man stepped into the hall and flashed her an understanding grin.

"But, Tom, it was Gregg's invitation I accepted. He wrote it on his own card."

"What?" He plunged his hand into a pocket, eyed the cards he drew forth and uttered a disgusted, "Well, of all dumbest! Gregg's cards. I must have picked up his case by mistake. Anyway, Gregg's got a girl—thinks the world of Alice!"

There was a swift flurry of feet behind them and an ecstatic, "Hello, Tom! . . . Therese, you see it was all a mistake!" She danced down the cement walk on winged feet.

To the sophisticated city girl, the whole performance had smacked of crude theatrics, but now her eyes followed Alice a little wistfully, in her heart a little pang of regret, of loss. But, too, an odd little feeling of peace.

Sanitary Handshakes

The Chinese shake their own hands rather than exchange handshakes.

Columbus Pictured as Big and Freckled Faced

Christopher Columbus was a "brave, big man with a long, red, freckled face."

Such was the description of the discoverer of America in one of the first printed accounts of his discoveries—"The New World," by Michael Herr, published at Strassburg in 1534—which has just come to light in the collection of old scientific books in the Smithsonian Institution's library. Herr's accounts are quite naive. Thus he relates the Columbus story:

"He had good hopes that he could discover before sundown several islands which would be of great pleasure and use to the people. With regard to those islands that lay in front of India, he himself expected to find costly pearls and all sorts of precious stones; also spices and much gold. The king and queen made fun of him as a man who was engaged in a foolish task and let the thing go as a good joke. At last after eight years had gone by and Christopher continued to beseech the king, the king began to take the proposition a little more to heart and undertook to find out what was back of that man and why he stuck to his proposition. Then the king commanded that a galley be outfitted, and he also supplied two swift ships with provisions and whatever else was necessary. When these ships were ready Columbus sailed from the Spanish coast on the first day of the autumn month, in the year after the birth of Christ 1492, and thus went on his long-desired journey."

After leaving the Canaries, which were infested with cannibals, Herr relates, Columbus "sailed for thirty-three days and nights steadily toward the setting sun and saw no land. At last he saw while on watch an island, and as he came closer he saw six islands, two large ones. One of these he called Hispana and the other he called Johanna. They have never been able to determine definitely whether the island Johanna was an island or not. Still as they sailed along the coast they heard many birds sing, especially nightingales, which lived in the thick forests in the winter. They also saw much fresh water there which was pleasant to drink, and many large and beautiful ports as they sailed with the northwest wind. After they had sailed 800 miles and still found no end they thought it to be a part of a continent. Therefore they considered to retrace their journey. To this the storms contributed, for the masts began to loosen. Therefore, Columbus commanded the ship to be turned in the direction of the rising sun. Thus they came soon to the island which they named Hispana and there they explored the land diligently.

"Then toward midnight as they neared a cape the large ship struck a rock so that it went apart. The boat could not sink, however, because the stone was so flat. Quickly they transshipped to another boat and saved their companions who were now half dead. But when they reached the land and saw the inhabitants, the latter fled quickly into the thick forest, just like when a dog chases a rabbit."—Smithsonian Institution Bulletin.

Relativity Theory

The Einstein theory embodies the idea of the relativity of all motion. The hypothesis in the main is that it is impossible by physical experiment to measure the absolute motion of the body through space; that there is nothing out in space in the nature of a fixed set of co-ordinates with regard to which motion can be measured. There is no such thing as absolute motion of one body with respect to another.

SAVES MORE TIME and WORK than a $100.00 WASHING MACHINE

Coleman Self-Heating Iron

No Heating with Matches or Torch . . . No Waiting . . . Lights Instantly, Like Gas

REDUCE your ironing time one-third . . . your labor one-half! The Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100 washing machine! Iron any place where you can be comfortable. No endless trips carrying iron from stove to board. Operating cost only ½¢ an hour. Helps you do better ironing, easier, quicker.

See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE COMPANY
Dept. WUSS, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; or Toronto, Ontario, Canada. [4006]

CURRENCY CHANGES

The plates for printing United States money had to be made over a few years ago when the size of the paper money was changed. Now that the currency of the United States is no longer redeemable in gold—the redemption pledge was printed on most types of paper money—the plates must again be altered.

It will probably be another year before bills with a new inscription are circulated. This inscription will read something like this: "This note is legal tender for all debts public and private, and is redeemable in lawful money at the treasury of the United States."

Substantial Festival

During Courban Bairam, the great Moslem festival, Turks in Istanbul, Turkey, slaughtered nearly 15,000 rams, most of which had been donated by their owners to the poor, while thousands of sheep were killed by charitable organizations and given away.

Cleaned PLUGS RESTORE POWER

Have Your Spark Plugs Cleaned BY THE AC METHOD only 5c a plug

When your spark plugs are oxide-coated, they mis-fire intermittently—stealing your engine's power. A thorough cleaning will restore that power, and save gas, too. Registered dealers, garages, and service stations are equipped with the AC Spark Plug Cleaner. Get your plugs cleaned—every 4,000 miles! Replace badly worn plugs with new ACs.

AC The Quality Spark Plug

Tune in: RAYMOND KNIGHT and the CUCKOOS—Saturdays, 10 p.m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

LOOK FOR THE "PLUG-IN-THE-TUB"

WNU—A 29—84

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES . . . he gets struck out!

MANY PEOPLE, of course, can drink coffee without suffering ill effects. But many others—and there are thousands of them—should never drink it. Perhaps, without realizing it, you are one of those.

The caffein in coffee may be working day and night to upset your digestion, undermine your nerves or rob you of sleep.

If, for any reason, you suspect that coffee is harming you—why not try POSTUM for 30 days? POSTUM contains nothing that can possibly harm you. It costs less than half a cent a cup and it is easy to make. It is a delicious drink . . . and may be a real help. A product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE! Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U.—30-34

Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address.

This offer expires July 1, 1935

JULY

L 919

0330

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 25t5.

For Sale: Lionel, all electric train, transformer and track complete. Good condition. Marcel Pugsley, St. Joe. 28t1.

For Sale: 20 acres of land known as the Harvey Kimes farm, good house and splendid land Would make an ideal home. If interested see Geo. W. Rakestraw, commissioner, Rt. 1, Auburn. 4tf.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Glen Wyatt deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

FRANK R. BOWMAN,
Administrator.

July 5, 1934.
Springer & Schaab, Attys. 27t3.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Mary Newcombe has been quite ill at her home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Place, of Ft. Wayne, spent Monday at the Vol Hay home.

Harry Farver, of near Angola, was a Sunday guest at the Chas. Brattian home.

Guests at the Bert Fisher home Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, of Leo.

Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe were Sunday afternoon guests at the Melvin Howey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Smith and daughter were Sunday evening guests at the Vaughn Allen home.

The M. E. Cheerful Workers class will meet on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ida Moudy, west of town.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sunday, July 15, was 81, collection $3.41; Lutheran 67, collection $2.62.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson are spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. Marion Shroyer and family of near Churubusco.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf, of South Bend, were week-end guests at the Wm. Reed home. Mr. Reed and daughters returned home with them for a week's visit.

Mrs. Hazel Steward and Jean Hatch, of Spencerville, Mrs. Ada Berry, Mrs. Mary Betz and Jimmy Hatch, of St. Joe, enjoyed Sunday afternoon at Hamilton Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswalt, of Fort Wayne and Miss Ethel McNabb were Sunday afternoon guests at the Roy Chaney home.

Improvement is reported in the condition of Mrs. Arrilla Houk, who is a patient at the Sacred Heart Hospital at Garrett following removal of a cancer from her left breast.

M. E. Church announcements: Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock, Lynn Fisher, Supt. Preaching every Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock, (Standard Time.) Rev. Newcombe, pastor.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Free RUBBER RINGS..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make... free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. BOX 738

27t14

The Young Ladies Social Club will meet on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Janice Bowser.

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edna Wyans. The ladies at this time decided to hold an ice-cream social in the near future.

Guests at the Ralph Culbertson home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and children, Ruth Arnold and Milford Peters. Ice cream was enjoyed. Miss Arnold was also a week-end guest in the home.

The Lutheran Summer School at Wawasee from July 10-15 was attended by Rev. Fabianske and wife, Harold Goldsmith and Lloyd Laux, of Spencerville, Jean Ridgway, Helen Tustison and Louise Sechler, of St. Joe.

The Ladies Aid enjoyed a very pleasant meeting at High's building on Wednesday evening. The main feature being the telling of funny events happening on their wedding day, also giving the date and year of marriage, and maiden name.

The Home Bureau was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Ralla Markle on Wednesday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed the program. Miss Gaylon Markle, Forrest Rezor, Billy Baker and Max Markle were guests. The ladies decided to have a family and guest ice cream party at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Dean on Wednesday evening, August 15.

Coburn's Corners

Dale Hart called on Fern Place Friday evening.

Clyde Hart was absent again from Bible School.

Marvin Poper's moved Monday to the Benninghoff farm.

Ella Wilmot suffered a light stroke of paralysis recently.

Mrs. J. N. Scholes fell last week and injured herself quite badly.

Attendance at Bible School for July 15 was 95, collection $4.12.

Bud Schrom, of Fort Wayne, is spending several days at the Erick farm.

Henry Schoolmaster and daughter, Lotus, of Lansing, Mich., spent Sunday with J. W. Hart.

Mrs. B. E. English, of Fort Wayne, spent Monday afternoon with Mattie Hart and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee and Mrs. Jennie Abel spent Wednesday with Mrs. Chas. Curie and children.

Mrs. Chas. Curie and children and Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee spent Thursday at Lake James with the Hollipeters.

Ted Erick and mother, of Cold Springs, and Lyle Rothenberger, of Montpelier, O., called on Geo. Hart Sunday afternoon.

Howard Dermott and Kenneth Coburn returned home Monday as they were unable to secure employment, both boys are looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers and family, Miriam Oberkiser and Frank Manz, of Fort Wayne, called on Bess and Bob Klopfenstein Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and son, Robert and Mattie Hart and daughters spent Friday with Mary V. Erick at Cold Springs. Mrs. Hart remained until Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Opal Coburn and son, Meryl and Bess Klopfenstein called Wednesday afternoon on Mrs. Newton Miller and daughter, Charlotte. Their health is about as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poe and daughter, Joan, of Jackson, Mich., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart. Mrs. Blair will spend the week with the Harts.

Mrs. Doris Stuck, of Garrett, entertained her club at supper at the Erick grove on Tuesday evening. Carol and Betty Shull with Miss Carol's pupils entertained the guests later in the evening at Mrs. Geo. Hart's home.

Lucille Curie spent Saturday night with Mrs. Chas. Curie and children. On Sunday they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Perry Jump of south of Hicksville, where a surprise birthday dinner was given for Miss Lucille Curie.

NEWVILLE

Mr. Mohr and Mr. Clark, of Auburn were in town Sunday.

Mrs. C. J. Hadsell, of Hicksville, was the week-end guest of relatives here.

Rev. H. K. Schondelmayer held baptismal services at this place Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Warner, of Hicksville were Sunday guests of the Clark family.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt spent Saturday and Sunday in South Bend, in the Max Norman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Webster and family, of Edgerton, Ohio, called Sunday afternoon on Mrs. Kate Fusselman.

The Young People's class of the

The Young People's class of the class party Friday evening, July 20 at the Kline home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Jr. and children spent Sunday afternoon with the Mohart family south of Hicksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Price, of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Snellbaker, of Butler and Don Snellbaker, of Detroit, who were called here by the death of their mother last week, have returned home.

Mrs. Rosa Snellbaker, who had a leg amputated July 3 at the Garrett Hospital, died July 11, aged 55. Funeral services were held at the Newville Christian Church Friday. Burial in Riverview Cemetery. Surviving are the husband, two sons, two daughters, the parents and one brother Richard Rupp, funeral director.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

J. R. Shilling is having a well put in at his home.

Although India is only three-fifths the size of the United States it has over twice the population.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

When additional right-of-way is acquired for the widening of existing state highways or new right-of-way is secured for new or relocated highways, the land so acquired or secured may be exempt from taxation under Indiana statutes," it was pointed out by James D. Adams, chairman of the State Highway commission.

Crawford county farmers gathered outside a Ft. Smith church to pray for rain Men, women and children knelt as the heat and drouth passed a new record of 33 consecutive dry days, Sunday. While the group was still on its knees dark clouds rolled up and spilled the precious moisture upon the town.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Curie and Miss Lillian Ernest, of Garrett, Everett Mavis and family, of Auburn; Mrs. Jennie Seehler, Mrs. Chas. Curie and family and Frank Curie and family, of this place; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook, of Hicksville, spent Sunday with Perry Jump and family, south-east of Hicksville. Miss June returned with her grandparents to spend a few days.

The second payment on the 1933 wheat control contracts to DeKalb county farmers will soon be made. The amount to be paid for 93,633 bushels at the rate of 6 cents a bushel will be $5,618. The first payment was better than $18,000 made last December and the next one of $18,000 will be made in October of this year. The corn-hog committee will complete its work within the next two or three days and contracts will be ready to check by state men who will be sent to this county this week.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. P. Church was very pleasantly entertained on last Thursday eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Derrow in Auburn with Mrs. Roy Kinsey as hostess. Thirty-four motored to their destination and enjoyed the program planned by the president and her committee and the evening spent with Mrs. Kinsey and her daughter.. Light refreshments consisted o ice tea, cup cakes and sandwiches. Mrs Charles Kinsey, Mrs. Adolph Fry, Mrs. Oscar Burnier and Mrs. Wm. Quance and daughter of Auburn were guests.

Mrs. O E. Ginther, Mr. William Hallabaugh and Mrs. Hattie Fairfield, spent Sunday with relatives in South Bend.

Margaret Hamilton is entertaining a friend, Miss Leone Beeman, student nurse, of Chicago, Ill. The girls were room mates while in the Englewood Hospital in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Case, of Wichita, Kansas, and Ernest Hallabaugh, of Logan port, were recent guests at the O. E. Ginther home. They also called on other relatives while here.

Ira Bone was in town Saturday calling on friends. Mr. Bone has been afflicted with rheumatism for several months and at this time is much better. Saturday he was about town without the aid of his crutches.

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Mr. and Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey and Earl Kinsey made a business trip to Indianapolis, Tuesday.

Mrs. John Beard and Mrs. Fred Beard, of Waterloo, called at the home of Mrs. Wm. Randall Sunday afternoon.

George Kinsey, wife and granddaughter, attended the Johnson reunion Sunday at Eckhart Park, Auburn

Miss Ruth Curie accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zoeber, of Hicksville to Peru, Sunday, where they spent the day.

World production of Chevrolet cars during the month of June totaled 98,147 units, making the company's production for the first six months of this year 525,093 units or nearly 50 per cent greater than the first half of 1933.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

KNEE-ACTION

tops a 22-year record of engineering progress that makes Chevrolet the best riding car in the low-price field

CHEVROLET Year after year, it's been the same story: Chevrolet FIRST with the NEWEST and BEST! Chevrolet leading—others following. Chevrolet out in front with the latest proved advancements. Self-starter! Sliding gear transmission! Streamlined design! It was Chevrolet aggressiveness and progressiveness that forced all low-priced cars eventually to adopt these and other major improvements. And now, this year, comes the climax of Chevrolet's engineering leadership: the Knee-Action ride! This newest of motoring sensations is a marvel of smooth, easy, gentle motion. No other ride in the world can even compare with it. It makes Chevrolet far and away the best riding car in the low-price field.

Have you noticed how America has taken to the Knee-Action ride? In the first 6 months, demand for Chevrolet cars sent production to the highest total attained by any automobile during 1934.

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.
Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value

CHEVROLET

Furnish Motor Sales

SPENCERVILLE, INDIANA

DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

FIRST in the low-price field with THE SELF STARTER

FIRST with the SLIDING GEAR TRANSMISSION

FIRST with the SAFETY GAS TANK

FIRST with MODERN DYNAMIC LINES

FIRST with NO DRAFT VENTILATION

JULY

L 919

0331

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1934 NUMBER 28

REPORT OF RED CROSS PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

In DeKalb County for the Months of May and June

During the month of May plans were made to carry on a county wide Pre-school Survey of all the children who will enter school next autumn. These plans were carried out by the Red Cross Nursing Chairmen in the cities, towns and townships, and parents were asked to brig their children to free Health Conferences to be held in different centers.

The Nurses tested the vision of all grade pupils in the schools of Garrett and Auburn. One hundred pupils needed some visual care. Some of these children were visited in their homes. Many parents are anxious to have these defects corrected.

Posters of Child Health and Maternal Care, arranged by the Coutny Mdical Association, were placed in the windows of some of the merchants at Spencerville, Auburn, Garrett, Butler, St. Joe and Waterloo.

Thirteen Pre-school Health Conferences were held during the last week of May and June. These were conducted at St. Joe Lutheran Church; Garrett Catholic Parochial School; Garrett Central and North Schools; at the Eckhart Library for the Harrison, De Soto and Riley Schools; Franklin Center School; East Keyser School; at the residence of Mrs. Carper for Jackson township; Corunna Christian Church for Richland ad Fairfield towships; Butler Public School; Butler Central School; at the office of Drs. K. E. and J. P. Showalter, and at the home of Mrs. Lynn for Wilmington.

At these conferences 135 children were examined, free of charge, by Dr. Thomson, Dr. M. E. Klinger, Dr. Reynolds, Dr. Clevenger, Drs. A. V. and D. M. Hines, Dr. Nugen, Dr. Covell, Dr. Hathaway, Dr. Weirich, and Drs. J. E. and J. P. Showalter of Waterloo. Each child was given a thorough examination and parents advised to have defects corrected this summer so that each child will enter school in a good condition of health.

The defects that need correction include 26 children with poor vision, 2 eye defects, was in ears of 6 children, defective teeth 43, tonsils infected 57, nasal trouble 30, cervical glands enlarged 45, poor nutrition 14, heart trouble 2 cases, poor posture 12, speech defects 10, circumcision needed 10, hernia 4, flat feet 4. This makes an average of 1.8 defect for each child.

One hundred and three need Toxoid for the prevention of Diphtheria, 125 vaccination for Smallpox prevention, 2 children shewed a history of Tuberculosis in the family at the present time, and one child had Tubercular glands in neck at the age of 1 year.

Practically all of these defects are serious ad need care at once. One little boy, due to infected tonsils has developed a serious heart condition; another child is suffering from aches and pains that will cause inflammatory rheumatism unless the infected tonsils are reoved. Many days of suffering, expense and loss of school days will be saved if parents will visit their family physician to have their children examined and then care for defects found.

150 FUNMAKERS WITH HUGE CIRCUS

Great Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Organization Presents largest number of Clowns ever assembled—800 World-famous men and women arenic stars on Show's thrilling 1934 program.

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Combined Circus, truly The Greatest Show on Earth, making its grand and glorius 1934 tour of the continent and definitely scheduled to exhibit in Fort Wayne, Saturday, July 28, has assembled from the four corners of the earth—and points in between—the greatest aggregation of clowns in all amusement history.

One hundred and fifty internationally-famous funmakers cavort and caper about the seven rings and stages and the huge hippodrome track this year in the most stupendous circus presentation ever offered.

Clowns have always been an important part of the circus and the amusement world was amazed and delighted when an even hundred of them were brought together for the first time by Rigling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey. But when 150 of the funniest clowns imaginable were placed on the same program in a simultaneous display this spring, the enthusiasm of circus-goers knew n o bounds.

The big show, however, has a jealously guarded reputation for doing the new and unheard-of and there is evidence of this throughout its gigantic new performances this season.

Besides the clowns, there are 800 men and women arenic stars of international eminence, many of them touring the American continent for the first time.

Several o f the producing clowns have introduced splendid ideas into this year's all new and greatly enlarged opening spectacle. The Dunbar of Delhi in which more than 2,000 people and animals take part. The Dunbar heads a list of features newly assembled that will compel the vast 1934 program to be recalled with deep pleasure for a lifetime.

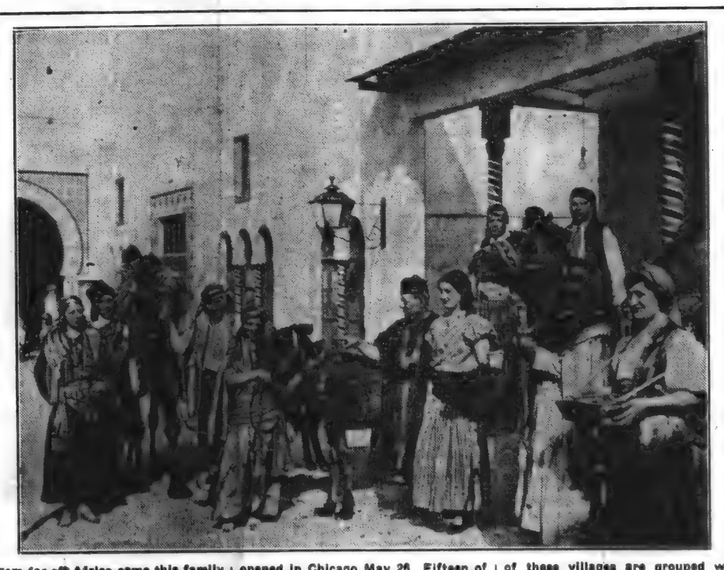
Among them is a great new congress of the world's foremost acrobatic champion leapers and somersaulters presented together in the most amazing athletic contest ever witnessed and a series of thrilling innovations including a startling new sensation presented by the Great Hugo.

The great combined circus will arrive on four long trains of 100 double-length steel railroad cars, bringing over 1,600 people, 50 elephants, 1,009 menagerie animals and 700 horses.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Kosht took Sunday dinner with Grady Woodcox and family.

Robert Rugman, Leonard Hess and Howard Best, of Auburn. were guests of Walter Ervin Friday evening.

Tunisian Family Moves to New Fair Village



From far-off Africa came this family to live in the Tunisian village on the Street of Villages which is a major feature of the new World's Fair that opened in Chicago May 26. Fifteen of these reproductions of life and scenes in far-away lands offer visitors a tour of the world in a single day. Eleven of these villages are grouped where the Midway was in 1933. Record crowds found the Fair complete and new on opening day.

Local Briefs

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Films and developing handled at The News office.

Mrs. Ethel Wineland and Neva Hursh were shopping in Fort Wayne Moday.

Ice Cream Social by Y. P Class of Christian S. S., Saturday evening, July 28, on the lawn at Meek Barber Shop. Come. 29t1

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Horn, at Kendallville.

Callers at the Wm. Hamilton home Sunday were: Dr. Price, Mrs. O. K. Shull and son, Frank, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart and Roy Shilling.

Harold Strouse, wife and two daughters, of Rome City, are here visiting the Wm. Strouse family, while he is working for the Triangle Foods.

Last Friday evening friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Grady Woodcox to help him celebrate his 63rd birthday. Ice cream and cake were enjoyed by all.

Paul Maxwell, of South Bend, was in town Monday calling on a few acquaintances. He was on his way home from Fort Wayne where he and a friend were looking for work.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Baker family, will be held in Eckhart Park, Auburn, Sunday, August 5, 1934. John Baker, president; Helen Tustison, of St. Joe, secretary, treasurer.

Dr. Walter K. Schlosser, wife and two daughters, of Plymouth, were callers here Sunday afternoon in the Bowman home, enroute home from a three weeks' trip through Maryland.

A printing contract for 50,000 melon labels was secured by The News this week, from Roy Keller. The label will be printed in red with white letters and will distinguish the St. Joe Valley Honey Rock Melons from all others on the market.

The fifth annual Chesstown school reunion is to be held on Sunday, July 29, 1934. An invitation is extended to attend and enjoy the day. Basket dinner. You are requested to bring table service. Mark Murphy, president; A. W. Trostel, secretary.

Do it now, delays are dangerous. We pass this way but once.

Sunday School report for the Church of Christ, 117, collection $4.82.

A son, David Odell, was born to Rev. and Mrs. V. O. Harrold, on Wednesday, July 19.

Grady Woodcox and family spent Sunday evening with Jack Sechler's at Orangeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reasoner and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reasoner one day last week.

Mrs. Harry Randall and daughter, Mrs. Marion Carlin, of Chicago, are here for a week's stay with Mrs. Wm. Randall.

Billy Sunday will be at Winona Sunday and weather permitting possibly a number from about will attend the assembly program.

Roy Keller has purchased a new Diamond T. truck with an enclosed body, to be used in his marketing of produce and melons to the local markets. At the peak of the melon season Roy was unable to handle his crop satisfactory, hence this new truck was added to his equipment.

As has been predicted, by a number of our citizens, that sooner or later someone would be drowned in the gravel pit, came near being a reality Sunday when three bathers were calling for help. Unless parents take this in hand the sad story will be spread across this page in large letters.

Mrs. Neva Hursh entertained friends from Auburn and St. Joe on last Friday evening at her home here. A pot luck supper and social games were featured in the evening's entertainment. Those from Auburn were Mrs. Ada White, Mrs. Georgie Ketchen and daughter, Marjorie, Mrs Mabel Kain, Mrs. Beatrice Butler, Mrs. May Kraus and Mrs. Gayle Rugman; those from St. Joe were Mrs. Ethel Wineland, Mrs. Parlia Hull and Mrs. Alice Reidenbach.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that Frank M. Brandon, as special representative of the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Indiana for the liquidation of the St. Joe Valley Bank, has filed his partial account in the DeKalb Circuit Court, to which any creditor, share-holder or other person interested may file written objection, and the said account will be heard and determined by said Court at the Court House in the city of Auburn, Indiana, on the 4th day of September, 1934.

FRANK M. BRANDON,
Special Representative.
W. D. Stump, Attorney. 28t3.

OPEN HOUSE ON THURSDAY, JULY 26

The American Legion, of Auburn, will hold open house to the public on Thursday evening, July 26. There will be a band concert and other kinds of free entertainment.

An ice cream social will be held in the basement of their new home and the public is invited to attend and inspect the home of which the boys are quite proud. The entertainment is to be held just east of the City Hall.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamilton wish to announce the marriage of their daughter, Margarette Elnor, to Mr. Cecil G. Wisler, of near South Bend, which took place on April 14, 1934. The young couple are now at home at 510 N. Detroit St., Lagrange, Ind.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Wednesday evening, Aug. 1, at Concord Church. Ice cream, cake, sandwiches, pie, lemonade, cold drinks, at 5 cents. 29t1p.

The politician has a PROMISING career.

Love grows only as wills bend and minds reflect.

A light heart makes light work; a heavy heart, heavy work.

Worrying is so bad that some folks let their creditors do all of it.

From Confucius: "National prosperity is found in righteousness."

In American hospitals the average charge for blood for blood transfusions is about $35 per pint.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bing (Radio Crooner) Crosby twin boys. The Crosbys have another son just thirteen months older.

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Nov. 22, 1884

Frank Zern has been visiting his parents for the past few days.

Jerry Andrews' barn was destroyed by fire one night last week.

J. S. Bowen is doing quite a business in buying and shipping poultry.

About what is the distance from here to the central part of Salt River?

Mr. Sheffer, of Kendallville, visited in St. Joe last week the guest of Dr. Sheffer.

Mrs. Joe Baker spent a couple of days visiting friends in Garrett last week.

Mrs. Florance Buchanan went to Columbus, O., last Thursday to visit friends.

W. H. Keeran of Auburn was in town last week repairing the black boards at the school house.

It has geen proven beyond a doubt that H. K. Reynolds was actually seen at church one week ago last Sunday evening.

Uncle John Engle says that what can't be cured must be endured, and so he will take up his residence in Salt River.

Wes Hart has two things to be happy over: one is that Cleveland is elected, and the other is they have a new boy at their house.

This paper is published regularly every other Saturday, and you are welcome to a copy if you will take the trouble to call and get it.

Nels Thomas has a boil on him (we don't like to tell where,) that is as big as a small sized cabbage head; so he says, and he ought to know.

Farmers have no reason to complain this fall about the weather not holding off until they got their corn husked and their fall work done. The weather has just been splendid.

John Knight, who sometime ago injured one of his eyes by the explosion of some powder which he had put in a glass bottle, and who has not been able to see out of that eye since, went to Ft. Wayne last week, and Dr Dills took a piece of glass from the eye ball.

At the democratic jollification meeting held at Spencerville last week Sam Shutt said that twenty years ago J. W. Dills and himself had entered into an agreement whereby neither of them were to shave until a democratic president had been elected, and that now as that long hoped for time had arrived they would proceed to have their beards cut off, providing the weather didn't get too cold.

We are glad to inform our readers that Barney Woodcox is better. It was feared by his friends that the excitement incident to the election of Cleveland had unsettled his mind, but his brain was tapped and some of the surplus drawed off, and he is thought now to be on a fair way to recovery. Barney has waited twenty-four years and we don't blame him for throwing up his old hat and hurrahing.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Leighty Orchard
—WE ARE NOW SELLING—
APPLES and VINEGAR
Our Vinegar also on Sale at ZONKER'S STORE, St. Joe; BOWSER & REED, Spencerville, and CITY MARKET, Auburn, Indiana.

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN O F REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

CANNING DAYS: MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY.
Grabill Canning Company
Custom Canning
ALL KINDS OF CANNING IN SEASON
PHONE: LEO 535
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED GRABLL, INDIANA

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
OPEN EVENINGS
Headquarters for
Picnic Supplies, Thermos Jugs and Bottles, Fishing Equipment
LADIES
Come in and see our Display of TOILET ARTICLES
Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

JULY

L 919

U 3 3 2

SEA OF GALILEE

Light on Biblical stories of the Sea of Galilee has been shed by Capt. Herbert J. Horsey, who has completed fifteen years of commercial flying. While flying in the Far East he frequently descended on that famous body of water. "Right across the sea runs a hidden reef, not far below the surface," he said on his arrival in London. "Other parts of the lake are hundreds of feet deep, and it seemed to me that this reef might account for the Bible story of the walking on the sea. Present-day weather conditions bear out the New Testament accounts of sudden storms raging on the lake. One moment it may be as smooth as a mill pond, the next, the water becomes troubled, and in a few minutes you have a rough sea, with a wind blowing at 80 miles an hour."

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

The Moving Power

After all, nothing succeeds until the intelligent and powerful men of the nation take it up.

IS CRAZY WATER EPSOM SALTS

No, says Dr. W. E. Fitch in nation-wide broadcast over N.B.C. network

NOT A MAN-MADE DRUG

Tells why natural mineral water is so often beneficial for "rheumatic" aches and pains

On a recent Sunday afternoon broadcast on the National Broadcasting network the following discussion took place between Mr. Gene Arnold and Dr. W. E. Fitch, internationally known authority on natural mineral waters.

GENE ARNOLD: "I receive letters from people saying they heard that Crazy Water Crystals are made of nothing but salts—Epsom Salts or Glauber's Salts. These people want to know if it's true you can buy some of these salts for a few cents, and get the same effect as you do with Crazy Water Crystals."

DR. FITCH: "No, it is NOT true."

GENE ARNOLD: "I'm glad to hear you say that, because I know your opinion is worth a great deal. But will you explain a little more about it? What are the true facts?"

DR. FITCH: "The facts are that it has always been hard for a few doubting Thomases and skeptics to believe that old Mother Nature knows how to prepare and compound natural mineral waters in a way that cannot be duplicated in a laboratory. In the course of my studies I have found that those same doubts were expressed Two Thousand Years Ago, in the early days of natural mineral water therapy. The truth is that natural mineral water and natural crystals from such waters are as different from synthetic or artificial salts as day from night. And that's why the medical profession has always been in favor of the Natural Waters — has always insisted that they are the one product of Nature that cannot be imitated successfully by man. People have tried for many, many years to make up synthetic concoctions to take their place but they do not have the same effect. The predominating chemical constituent of Crazy Water Crystals is sodium sulphate, but it is in its Natural State, and has a far different physiological effect than the synthetic salts made in a laboratory. When you buy salts for a few cents you get just what you pay for—a dose of salts. But when you use Crazy Water Crystals, you get undiluted minerals in their natural state, taken from natural mineral water by evaporation with nothing added."

That is why Crazy Water Crystals have proven themselves so beneficial in the treatment of "rheumatic" aches and pains. Thousands of people in all parts of the United States testify to this.

If you, or any of your friends, suffer from "rheumatic" pains we suggest you investigate Crazy Water Crystals immediately. Ask any of the millions who have used them. Then get a standard size box—it costs only $1.50 and is ample for at least three weeks treatment. Crazy Water Company, Mineral Wells, Texas.

CRAZY Water Crystals

are for sale by dealers displaying the red and green Crazy Water Crystals sign. Get a box today.

Dark Sheer Prints for Midseason

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

WITH the waning of the good old summertime when the clothes you have on hand begin to take on that sort of a "has-been" look which happens in even the best of regulated wardrobes and when it is too early to don new autumn regalia, what then? Every woman who aspires to an up-to-the-moment appearance knows the baffled feeling which comes when this nagging, disturbing-of-the-peace question comes up.

But why worry, for here's encouraging news in regard to this very problem. Briefly told, it's the good looking jacket suits of dark triple sheer print which are now showing in leading style shops and departments wherever one may turn. You can rest assured that an ensemble such as any one of the stunning models here pictured, will pilot you victoriously through that dreaded stretch of time which spans from the burning, scorching days of summer to weather bearing cool breezes which hint that autumn is on its way hitherward.

The beauty of these triple sheer costumes which are now playing so conspicuous a role on fashion's stage is that they are being given a styling so absolutely up to the instant in chic, the moment you don one you are apt to experience thrills as exultant as a mannikin at a style show as she pirouettes back and forth before the eager and admiring eyes of her audience.

Then, too, these sheers are cool when you want them to be and with their jackets they provide just the degree of comfort and protection necessary for the erratic changes of a fickle thermometer. By the way had you noticed that scarcely a one-piece dress is to be seen this season, be it day or night, without a matching or related jacket? Everything with a jacket, is the new slogan and just because the idea is so thoroughly practical the vogue is moving on of its own momentum.

Turning to our illustration we know that you will agree that the jacket dress on the standing figure is of unerring style appeal. It is fashioned of triple sheer of bemberg in the new Vionnet bowknot print. The crisp organdie jabot is worked in the two colors of the print. The slim little jacket with its voluminous and graceful cape sleeves conveys a message of high-style distinction.

Cool and comfortable for the young girl is the little jacket-frock to the left. The bright monotone print in triple sheer of bemberg employed for this winsome outfit carries an animated patterning of wee gay monotone posies—a perfect complement to youth. The link-button fastening at the waistline accents the modish slimness of this young modern. The pleated frill which collars the jacket also bespeaks a youthful note.

The insistent call of the mode for white accents on dark prints is answered in the swagger jacketed dress to the right. This model is a bit more grown-up than the one just described which should make it of special interest to the matron. As a matter of fact it is a type which tunes to most any age from teens on. This distinguished ensemble like its companion models in the picture is also made of bemberg triple sheer. It again reminds that the polka dot vogue is still going strong. The huge wide collar and flaring cuffs are of white taffeta.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

USE SAILOR COLLAR NOW EVEN ON SHOES

And now they're wearing sailor collars on shoes. Already they've put sailor collars on everything from bathing suits to nightgowns. So now you may literally be nautical from head to foot.

Your gob hat and your middy shirtwaist dress will find their reflection on the toe of your novel sports sandal, which may combine red patent leather and white linen, and undoubtedly will sport a little sailor collar design on the toe.

Shoes must match your costume nowadays not only in fabric and color, but in atmosphere. The dress trimmed with rows of stitching demands a stitched pump to set it off. The suit with pearl buttons has its matching pump, with a button instead of a buckle.

New Fabrics and Colors Shown in Summer Gloves

Chanut has used both new fabrics and colors to make some of the smartest of summer gloves. Most of them are designed to match a jabot or cravat such as the old-time dandies used to wear, intended to be worn with the same frock. Necktie silk—navy dotted with white and brown splashed with green—fashions jaunty gauntlet gloves worn with ascot cravats. Black and white and red and white checked taffeta gloves have matching scarfs finished with a great bow worn on one side of the throat.

Cellophane Embroidery

Black cellophane embroidery is a favorite trim for white organdie dresses of romantic design.

Huge Red Dots

Red pistilles of enormous size, printed on white chiffon, are replacing dot designs in importance

IT'S ORGANDIE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

According to the latest dictates of fashion sheer prints are smartest when they have dark backgrounds. Here is one of the prettiest organdie frocks brought out this season. It is black and white, which gives it a Paris look, for smart-dressed French women continue steadfast in their favor for black-and-white. Flame red shoulder flowers supply the dash of color which glorifies the whole scheme of things.

Good Taste Today

BY EMILY POST

Author of

"ETIQUETTE," "THE BLUE BOOK OF SOCIAL USAGE," ETC.

IMMUTABLE PRINCIPLES OF COURTESY

DEAR Mrs. Post: I would not think of disagreeing with your more than positive disapproval of the hostess who serves herself first, but I would very much like you to answer in your column whether you would not reconsider the strictness of your ruling under the following circumstances: Last evening at a dinner party in the house of a very distinguished lady of best social position, the dinner progressed precisely according to your approved conventions. Every dish was presented first to the guest of honor—a somewhat elderly lady, who of course sat on the right of the host. All went beautifully until after the ice cream when a layer cake was proffered to this guest of honor, who not seeing clearly without her glasses, helped herself to a slice. No one else took any because the cake swarmed with tiny red ants! But the guest of honor ate a mouthful before her neighbor at dinner warned her to eat no more. Now, dear Mrs. Post, what have you to say against the wisdom of having the hostess help herself first, after that? Do you think a rule that can permit such an unfortunate result still worth defending? Do you take dares? Will you accept mine and answer me in print?

Answer: Of course I will! I am willing to admit that the situation could hardly have been more unpleasant, but I cannot see that it presents an argument for a change in the convention of hospitality. If a hostess have untrained and unresponsible servants, who cannot be trusted to serve food decently, then she should have every dish presented to her for her careful inspection, or perhaps, better yet, have it placed in front of her on the table so that she herself may serve it.

But that this accident happened on perhaps one occasion in a hundred millions would be no excuse for the rudeness of all the millions of other hostesses in helping themselves first to dishes, which they have every reason to believe have not the slightest chance of being the playground of an ant colony. Of course, if we were all to live again in the crude days of frontier towns, then it would be proper to go back to the customs of those days. But if we take it for granted that our food is eatable, then the fundamental principle of courtesy demands that we offer to our guest of honor first choice of whatever we may have.

MISCELLANEOUS

DEAR Mrs. Post: My daughter is going away to college and it is necessary to mark all her clothes. I hate to write on all her pretty new things with indelible ink but an instruction leaflet sent me says that everything must be marked with the student's name in full and also the number of her dormitory. Do you know of any new way to avoid inkmarking?

Answer: I don't know of any new way, but I do know of the woven embroidery tapes that can be bought in every dry goods store in the United States. You can have anything put on them that you choose, in any type of lettering and in almost any color, and I am sure they are not expensive.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: I have just become engaged to a girl who has never met my family. She knows that I am American born but of foreign parents who speak practically no English and have done nothing in all their lives but work and raise children. I am the only one of the children who has so far managed to get a college education. I am not ashamed of my parents, but I would like to bring about this meeting with the least amount of embarrassment to all concerned because I am sure that the situation is going to be awkward now and at the wedding.

Answer: Although there is a rule that your parents should go to see your fiancee and her family, there are few rules which cannot be altered to fit unusual circumstances. Therefore, if you think your family would be more at ease at home, then ask your fiancee to go with you to see them. After she has met them you and she can decide on the best way to bring about a meeting between her parents and yours. Say to her exactly what you have said to me: that you are not ashamed and that you love and respect them. She will help you, I am sure, to make the meeting smooth. The engagement is always announced by the girl's family and usually the man's family has no part. Your parents will of course have to make the effort to go to the wedding, but their not being able to speak English should not matter since little more than "how do you do" and "thank you" is necessary. I wish I could answer more usefully, but I think it is something that you and your bride-to-be will have to talk over together.

© by Emily Post.—WNU Service.

"Be of Good Cheer"

"Be of Good Cheer" were spoken by Jesus to the man sick of palsy, Matt., 9:2; to the disciples when he walked on the water, Matt., 14:27, and to the disciples at the Last Supper just before the dispersion and the betrayal, John, 16:33.

Efficiency in the Kitchen

No Part of the Home Worthy of More Consideration; Comparatively Easy Matter to Provide Closet Space Where It May Be Lacking.

There is no other room in a house which so definitely indicates a rounded cycle of fashion in housing necessities as does the kitchen. Within the past few years it has become the most discussed part of a home. Its decorative schemes have undergone marvelous changes. Its uses have become complex, its furnishings distinctive, and its equipment elaborately efficient. In fact, the kitchen has again come into its own. Long years ago it was the main room in a house, being kitchen, dining room, and living room. Today it fulfills the first two of these functions. It partakes mildly of the third, although modern kitchen fittings are too mechanical and coldly technical for the old-fashioned cosiness to be present, which cosiness was almost cuddling in its hearty welcoming atmosphere.

The home builder of today who decides to feature the kitchen in her new house will do well to remember one item of the past kitchens. They had sink rooms! These little rooms were as large as up-to-date kitchenettes. The stove was not present, but the sink was prominent. Around the walls were shelves a-plenty, and every convenience for taking care of dirty dishes, pots and pans, and keeping the clean ones neatly stowed away. Of course, there was the dining-room closet, in which was stacked the best china, the sink room containing the everyday tableware together with cooking utensils. With such a room it was possible to segregate the confusion of unsightly articles from the attractive ones, and preserve a tidy kitchen even when cooking was under way. The clutter of the pots and pans, baking dishes, etc., did not disturb the serenity of a living room. The sink room is one which would relieve a modern kitchen equally well, and help to make it a more fitting dining room, which, as mentioned before, is one of its present-day uses.

Apart from this suggestion for home builders, let us speak of some of the various aids to efficiency in equipments for kitchens which are lacking in convenience. When closet room is inadequate, there are sectional closets which can be bought and put in wherever wanted. There are low closets and high closets, wide closets and narrow closets, all sizes to suit all rooms. There are vegetable bins, open or enclosed.

There are stoves which resemble closets and refrigerators which are like cold storage rooms, small and attractive. There are cleverly contrived dressers which are as adequate as tiny pantries. There are washing machines which, when needed, transform a kitchen into a laundry for a few hours as required. Most of these washing machines look merely what they are, practical modern labor-saving equipments. And these are just a few of the many qualities. When hidden they help to make it possible to have attractive kitchen-dining rooms.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

SIMPLE WAY TO KEEP CHILDREN'S TOYS IN ORDER

"This can't be where the children sleep and play?" inquired the visiting grandmother, as she looked skeptically around the unnaturally tidy room, with its small twin beds, large bare table and few closed closets.

"Haven't they any toys?" she pursued, in a pained voice.

With a dainty little kick under the bed, the proud mother revealed the explanation. It was a very flat but capacious box on rollers. Opened, it disclosed the usual pell-mell of children's toys, balls, blocks and mechanical contrivances, evidently stowed away in great haste. Not much order, but everything visible and easy to get at, because the flat box didn't permit piling one thing on top of another.

"This thing slides under the bed when not in use," the mother explained, "but it's so easy to pull out, that the children can get their toys and put them away themselves. As for books and games—well, here's a closet full."

The closet was merely an old wooden bookcase, with wooden doors and plenty of shelves. No need to pile one thing atop of another, and the wooden doors kept any disorder hidden.

"Of course, this isn't so cute as having the nursery walls lined with odd-shaped shelves, and all the dear little teddy bears, books, dolls and games exposed," admitted the young mother. "I tried that at the beginning, but found I was a slave to neatness—spent all my spare time tidying the place up, for they couldn't be trained to put each object in its own cubby hole.

"This scheme is much better. There's no struggling and fussing ever exact places for everything, and the children rather like the idea of shutting doors on their games, or rolling them under the bed out of sight."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Stamps, Like Currency, May Not Be Reproduced

The printing in any publication of an illustration of a United States postage stamp is prohibited by law, says the Washington Post. In the press, however, as well as in stamp catalogues, are found illustrations showing a small portion of a stamp, a part of a bottom or top scroll, or portion of some lettering or even figures. These, of course, do not reproduce any real part of the stamp.

Many collectors have in their possession, however, stamp catalogues of foreign publications that illustrate the United States stamps. These are purchased outside the country.

While a reproduction of a United States stamp cannot appear in any paper or catalogue, it is lawful to reproduce foreign stamps, providing that each stamp so produced in the illustration has a small white line running across the stamp. This answers a query as to why all foreign stamps that are shown in the press are "spoiled" by the white line.

The albums and stamp catalogues that are printed in Europe show the United States stamp in full illustration in scores of instances.

MURINE For YOUR EYES

A Few Drops Every Night and Morning Will Promote a Clean, Healthy Condition!

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dept. W, Chicago, for Free Book

1¢ ROOT BEER

Make It At Home—Root Beer

15¢ Pkg. for 1¢ A QUART

AT YOUR GROCERS

WANTED

• TWO SHOT GUNS and • BOOKS ON SHOOTING

Would like to purchase at reasonable figure high-grade 16-gauge double shot gun, double triggers, and 12-gauge double shot gun with single trigger. Give full information as to make, boring, length of barrels, weight, drop and other stock dimensions. Must be in first-class condition. Would also purchase early American books on guns, fire arms and shooting. Pollard's "Book of the Pistol" and Sawyer's "Pistols and Revolvers" particularly desired. Please state price and whether books and binding are in first-class condition. Address

G. M. LA PIERRE
2 Hawthorne Road, Bronxville, New York

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Removes Dandruff—Stops Hair Falling
Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair
60c and $1.00 at Druggists.
Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO — Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

Ants

Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

CUTICURA

A Pure Medicinal Soap for every member of the family

Protect your skin, as well as the tender skins of your children, by regular every-day use of a soap that does more than cleanse. Cuticura has the soothing, healing Cuticura properties, Cuticura Ointment embodied in the skin, protecting it from redness, roughness and disfiguring irritations. Best for you and baby too.

Price 25c.

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

JULY

L 919

U 333

One of the Prettiest of Frocks Designed for the Little Lady

PATTERN 9887

Of course she would adore this little frock—we "grownups" love it, too. Its pretty capelet sleeves are cut in one with the yoke, and gathers lend extra fulness to the frock. Bloomers are included with the pattern. Printed or woven cottons would be wise fabrics to use, particularly dimity, lawn, organdie or swiss. Perhaps you've never sewn before—then get to work right now, for this is an ideal beginner's pattern, and there is a complete new illustrated Sew Chart given to you with each pattern.

Pattern 9887 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 2⅝ yards 36-inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

DRUGSTORE COW

Teacher—What cow is best known for the amount of milk it gives?

Johnny—Magnesia.

Teacher—Magnesia?

Johnny—Yessum, all the drug stores sell milk of magnesia.

Hard One to Answer

Ace (relating experience)—I had flown three miles over the German lines when I found that my engine was missing.

The Girl—Mercy! How could you fly so far without any engine?

Had It on Authority

"Too bad about Tom and the girl he's engaged to. Neither one of them is good enough for the other."

"Where did you get that idea?"

"I've been talking the matter over with both families."

Nothing Like That

"Has John matriculated yet?" was the question put to Mrs. Newly-Rich, with a son at a famous public school.

"Oh, no," came the reply. "He's not at all that sort of boy."

Who's Who

By WALDO THAYER

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

THE phone bell woke me. I answered and heard Ned Kendall's voice demand:

"Say, do you go to bed with ear muffs on?"

"No," I said, "but a clear conscience brings sound sleep. You wouldn't know about that."

He gave a snort of contempt, then: "Listen, Bert—I need you. There's an English producer named Sir Wilfred Leigh-Bromley in town, visiting the studios. I'm dated to interview him at nine tonight for a feature story. How about you handling it? Only take a short while. I've got a date."

I thought over my plans. I was to meet Miriam's train at one in the morning. I'd been reminding myself of the day and hour for a week. A man has to be careful to remember when his wife's coming home.

"All right. But why don't you lay off chasing? Some day the Husbands' Protective league is going to put ants in your pants."

"Hah! Herbert Saunders, the saint. Man, how I'd love to catch you without your halo some time! Well, thanks for taking the job, anyway. Better use my name; that'll save explanations. He's at the Christine-Plaza. So long."

I hung up, swung out of bed, and started dressing. There was still some tell-tale evidence to be disposed of: bottles to be thrown out and a couple of shirts with rouge-smudged collars for the laundry. Miriam wouldn't be pleased if she found those around. Neither would I.

* * * * * * *

Our table at the Capitol club was in an alcove near the dance floor; we had a good view of the place. Sir Wilfred ordered sparkling Moselle, then said:

"Look here, Mr. Kendall—you're sure this idea isn't a bore to you?"

I said: "Not at all—a pleasure."

"I'm glad. You see, your Hollywood night clubs are quite famous with us abroad. I should hate to have left without even a look at one, and this was my last chance. Shall have to be off tomorrow."

I murmured something intended to be politely regretful.

"Yes," he pursued; "back to Elstree and the job. Hope I shall profit some by the immense lot I've learned here. Been trying for a year to manage this visit—ever since my wife came over to appear in your films. By the by, I dare say you know her: Mae Siddon?"

I did, though not as his wife. But I kept surprise from showing.

I don't know when he first saw them.

"Mr. Kendall," he said, "would you verify an impression, please? I believe that's my wife across the floor, dancing with the blond young gentleman?"

I looked and saw Mae Siddon clinging tightly against Ned Kendall. They moved a very little to the waltz music. While we watched, they exchanged a kiss. That brought a guttural sound from the Britisher.

"Yes," I told him; "guess it is."

"Rotten little cheat!" said Leigh-Bromley through shut teeth. "Do you by chance know the man, Mr. Kendall?"

I had my mouth ready with the name when I realized the man out there and I couldn't both be Ned Kendall. Then I considered explaining the substitution; but I didn't. It was Ned's mess and he could handle it. I was glad I always had sense enough to conduct my affairs discreetly.

"No," I said, finally; "never saw him before. Sorry."

Sir Wilfred rose. "Well, perhaps I can learn. Excuse me a moment."

The dance was ending as he moved away. I drank some more wine and decided that if Leigh-Bromley came back without his information, I'd spill it after all. Ned had it coming, and I had a reputation as a moralist to maintain.

The producer had been gone about ten minutes when I became aware of the headwaiter, bending over me. He said confidentially:

"Beg pardon, sir; the gentleman who was here entrusted me with a message for you. He had no time to write. He said the lady left her table long enough for him to barge over, posing as an autograph collector, and get the bounder's signature. He said you'd understand."

I nodded and asked if that were all.

"No, sir. He said he must rush off at once to look up his attorney's local agent and put the matter in his hands tonight; there'd be no time in the morning, as his boat sailed at six. He asked me to convey his humblest apologies, sir."

The mention of time reminded me to look at my watch. I jumped up; I had just half an hour to reach the depot and meet Miriam. I said:

"Okay—thanks. Wait a minute; here's something for your trouble."

I fished in my pockets, but could find only a twenty and some change. So I told him:

"Come out to the desk and I'll draw you a check."

The waiter purred a grateful phrase and followed me. I made out a check for five dollars and gave it to the man. He began a suave thanks, but it suddenly trailed off. I looked a question at him.

"Pardon me, sir," he said stiffly; "there must be some mistake. You've signed this Herbert Saunders. That was the name of the gentleman who signed your friend's book. I saw it with my own eyes, sir."

Egyptian Sphinx Merely Portrait Bust of King

The Egyptian sphinx is no longer a mystery, Dr. George S. Duncan of American university told an Archeological Institute of America meeting.

The titanic statue which has excited the wonder of the ages as to its meaning and purpose, he declared, was nothing more than a "portrait bust of an Egyptian king of the Fourth dynasty placed on the body of a lion." The builders, he said, had no hidden purpose, but proposed only an extraordinary honor to the king.

"There is nothing whatsoever mysterious about it," Doctor Duncan said. "Any such vagary, even on the part of laymen, now is inexcusable."

Doctor Duncan presented evidence of the origin of most of the institutions of the civilized world in Egypt thousands of years before the Christian era, and declared the Egyptian delta may have been inhabited by human beings as much as 200,000 years ago at the very beginning of the Ice Ages.

The great development of the human mind, Doctor Duncan said, came in Egypt about 3000 B. C., and he gave his own translations of inscriptions which, he insisted, demonstrated clearly that the Egyptians not only believed in immortality, but had established ethical tests. Some of these inscriptions might have been taken from the Bible, he said, such as: "Thou has departed that thou mightest live. Thou hast not departed that thou shouldst die."

The famous "Book of the Dead," he said, was intended as a guide book of the journey to the next world and contained a list of 42 questions which the dead man must answer satisfactorily in respect to his conduct on earth. Among the sins which would bar him was laziness.

At about the same period, he said, there grew up a strong monotheism with the sun as the sole deity. Two hymns of this period have been preserved, Doctor Duncan said, "which, if the name of Ammon Ra was changed to Jehovah, could be sung in any Christian church next Sunday without striking the congregation as unusual."

At about the same time, Doctor Duncan said, there was a great development in the medical arts, and most of the medicines employed by the Egyptian physicians are used today. Among them were cod liver oil and yeast for anemic conditions. At this time also dentistry had its first development. The king was attended by three specialists—one for the eyes, another for the teeth and another for the stomach. The royal dentist developed the difficult feat of draining tooth abcesses.

There was in effect at about this time, he pointed out, a tax system based on the varying amount of cultivatable land, which might be adopted today. The agricultural prospects of the country were dependent on the amount of the Nile overflow, which was measured by a "nileometer." If there was a good overflow the taxes were assessed over a large area. If it was slight the border lands were left unassessed, because it was obvious nothing could be raised on them.—Washington Post.

Bride's Dress in Pawn

What is to become of a wedding dress which has been in pawn 40 years, during which period the interest was paid regularly, is being discussed by pawnbrokers of London.

Suddenly the payments have ceased, and pawnbrokers have been unable to trace the owner. The shop where it first was pledged quit business many years ago, but the dress was transferred to another establishment and the interest payments continued. The woman who pawned it never returned to see it. The dress, once bright and fashionable with its trailing skirt of black, its green bodice stiffened with whalebone, and its green leg-of-mutton sleeves, has grown old and faded and now is unwanted.—London Mail.

PRECIOUS BIBLE MANUSCRIPT IN BRITISH KEEPING

The safe arrival at the British museum of the Codex Sinaiticus is cause for rejoicing among Christian scholars. It ranks with the Codex Vaticanus as one of the most important of early Bible manuscripts, of which about 114 have been brought to light. It was spared the damage wrought upon many of the treasures of the imperial Russian government when the revolution occurred. Since 1869, when it was acquired by the Imperial library, it has been held as among the most illuminating of the codices. It was found in 1844 in the monastery of St. Catherine on Mt. Sinai, and is of Fourth century origin.

Probably the attention incident to its acquisition by the British government will revive interest in its interpretation as a basis of accepted modern texts. It bears evidence of many corrections, but none dating later than the Seventh century, and its source has been traced from the letter style to at least one scribe who worked on the Codex Vaticanus. The New Testament is complete, but part of the Old is missing. It was reproduced in color by an English press about twenty-five years ago, a notation of British interest now heightened by its new home.

The sale of the manuscript by the Russian government is significant. It is one of the most precious relics of the early church. Left to themselves, the deeply religious people of Russia never would have parted with it. But the Soviets will have nothing to do with religion. Disregarding its value to the world of scholarship, they offered it for sale, asking $2,500,000. The British government eventually paid $500,000. It was delivered in London crudely wrapped and without ceremony, a gesture of aversion to its religious significance by the Soviet emissary that was promptly supplanted by an attitude of reverential respect when the British took possession.

Probably the transfer will lead to further exploration of the present resting place of other notable manuscripts of the same period. One story is that several have found their way into the vaults of American collectors. They were laboriously prepared by devout monks whose handiwork glows with religious fervor. They were written on parchment for the ages, and the British museum acquisition is described as being in perfect condition, a testimony to the integrity of the art.—Indianapolis News.

Housewife's Idea Box

To Test Eggs

Here is a good way to test eggs for freshness. Make a brine by adding two ounces of salt to a pint of water. Place your eggs, one at a time, into this brine. Good eggs will sink and bad ones will float. Those that float do so because air enters the egg as it gets older. This air compartment makes the egg float.

THE HOUSEWIFE.

Copyright by Public Ledger, Inc. WNU Service.

Household Hint

Mold chicken or meat croquettes with a little depression in the top of each. Then after they're fried the hollow may be filled with a bit of tart jelly.

Ten Million People HELPED
TO BUILD THE TIRE SENSATION of '34!

Beyond Comparison In Quality, Construction, Appearance and Price With Any First Quality Tire Made

THE way to create a TIRE SENSATION is to give the people what they want, and Firestone has done this with the new Firestone Century Progress Tire.

As millions of people visited the Firestone Factory at the World's Fair last year, we asked this question—"What do you value most in a tire?" They answered—"Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear, at a moderate price." This was a big order, but Firestone has a habit of giving car owners what they want when they want it.

We knew there was only one way to build Quality and Value into a tire at a moderate price, and that was by volume production. We built the greatest tire ever made to sell at these low prices. Car owners are profiting because we found out what they wanted and found the way to give it to them.

The new Firestone Century Progress Tire IS EQUAL OR SUPERIOR to any first quality tire built, regardless of name, brand, by whom manufactured, or at what price offered for sale.

CHECK THESE AMAZING VALUES

Come in and equip your car with this marvel of tire construction, at the lowest price we have ever been able to make on a tire of this high quality and construction, carrying a Triple Guarantee

—for Unequaled Performance Records
—for Life Against All Defects
—for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards*

* Six Months in Commercial Service

[See how Firestone Tires are Made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair] [Listen to the Voice of Firestone—Featuring Gladys Swarthout—Every Monday Night over N.B.C.-WEAF Network]

NEW REDUCED PRICES FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY — 4.40-21 $5.75

SIZE	OLD PRICE	NEW PRICE	YOU SAVE
4.40-21	$6.68	$5.75	$0.93
4.50-20	7.06	6.10	0.96
4.50-21	7.31	6.30	1.01
4.75-19	7.78	6.70	1.08
5.00-19	8.34	7.20	1.14
5.25-18	9.27	8.00	1.27
5.25-21	10.20	8.80	1.40
5.50-17	10.15	8.75	1.40
5.50-18	10.45	9.05	1.40
5.50-19 S.S.	13.03	11.20	1.83
6.00-19 S.S.	14.47	12.45	2.02
6.50-19 S.S.	16.58	14.30	2.28
7.00-20 S.S.	19.83	17.10	2.73

OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY LOW

The Best Low Priced Tire On The Market

Firestone COURIER TYPE
SIZE	PRICE
4.40-21	$4.45
4.50-21	4.90
4.75-19	5.20
30x3½	3.65
Other Sizes Proportionately Low

For those car owners who need new tire safety at a very low price the Firestone Courier Type tire has no equal at these extremely low prices.

JULY

L 919

0334

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Barn for Sale: Size 18x24. Cheap if taken soon. See W. M. Strouse. 29t1p.

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 25t5.

For Sale: Rat and Mouse Poison, guaranteed satisfactory or money refunded. W. M. Strouse. 29t1p.

Lost: 3-yr. old, black and tan, male dog, name Jack. Reward, Robert Cook, Spencerville 29t2.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Glen Wyatt deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

FRANK R. BOWMAN,
Administrator.

July 5, 1934.
Springer & Schaab, Attys. 27t3.

SPENCERVILLE

Wanda and Ernest Kelley were Sunday afternoon guests at the Ralph Culbertson home.

Miss Edith Culbertson is spending a few weeks at the Samuel Arnold home near Fort Wayne.

Miss Margaret Chaney spent several days last week the guest of Miss Alice Wonn of Harlan.

Mrs. Ethel Walter, of Fort Wayne was a recent guest at the Curt Moudy home west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Laux and daughter, Loa, and son, Morris, spent the week-end at the Chicago Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Abel were Sunday evening guests at the Roy Chaney home. Ice cream and cake were enjoyed.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for July 22 was 61, collection $2.01; Lutheran 59, collection $3.28.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman returned home last week after spending a few weeks with relatives and friends at Columbia City.

Sunday guests in the Walter Baker home were Miss Eloise Draggoo of Concord and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brinker, of Hicksville O.

Robert, Roseann and Dona May Kimes, of Fort Wayne, are spending the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford VanZile, of California, are visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Merwood Rhodes and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schlatter, of Kingsbury, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Mertin Kimes, of Ft. Wayne were recent dinner guests at the Roy Chaney home.

Rev. and Mrs. Fabianske, Dickie Jordan, Burnard and Glenn Kimes left Monday morning for two weeks outing at the Lutheran Institute at Lake Gage.

M. E. Church announcements: Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock, Lynn Fisher, Supt. Preaching every Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock, (Standard Time.) Rev. Newcombe, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs.. Howard Beams and babe spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Beams and family. Mr. George Beams is not well and Howard has been helping him through the threshing season.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Bowser and son left Saturday to spend a week at the Lloyd Wade home in Defiance.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowser and children, of St. Joe, spent Sunday afternoon at Hamilton Lake.

Mrs Emila Gloyd, of Newville, Clyde and Emerson Osborn, of Monroeville, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Harwood and family, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gloyd and daughter.

Mr. L. R. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gibson and children, of Muncie, Ind., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gibson. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and daughter, Jean, were Sunday guests in the same home.

Mrs. Nancy Rhodefer, Miss Susan Sechler, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baltz and daughter, Erma, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rhoderfer, of Auburn, and Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Adams, of Fort Wayne, were Tuesday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Markle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Walter and children, Miss Arminta Steward and Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and son, Robert, attended the Birthday Club party held on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mennewish at Fort Wayne.

On Friday morning workmen, machinery, trucks, plows, tar and gravel, with Forrest Kain in charge, arrived in our small city and began tarring the streets, hauling gravel, leveling streets to make the town dustless and mudless by giving us nice tar-bound streets. Thanks.

The Young Ladies Social Club met on Friday evening with Mrs. Bernice Wilder. Those winning prizes were: Mrs. Zelpha Steward, Mrs. LaVern Angel, Mrs. Kathryn Dean and Mrs. Opal Beerbower. The guests were the Misses Wolf, Alice Hart and Mrs. Margaret Lake, of Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The Cheerful Workers class met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ida Moudy, west of town. Mrs. Cora Steward, the president, had charge of the program. Those present besides the class were Mrs. Mina Pepe and sons, of Robinson Chapel, Mrs. Hook, Mrs. Claude Hafner and Rev. Newcombe.

Mrs. Hazel Steward entertained at dinner Sunday the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stevenson, daughter, Marilyn and son, Thomas, of Sturgis, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Ercil Steward, of Butler, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and daughter, Delores, Mrs. Mary Betz, Mrs. Ada Berry and Jimmy Hatch, of St. Joe.

This summer marks the 57th consecutive year that George Horn, aged 77, of near Spencerville, has engaged in threshing. He began when he was a youth of 20 and has never missed a summer in the wheat fields. He now owns his own thresher and bosses the gang, leaving the more arduous tasks to younger men, altho he is healthy for his age. This year his son, Jennings, runs the machine. Another son, Walter, used to work in the threshing gang with his father until he went South several years ago. A daughter, Mrs. Mary McNabb, lives in Auburn. Mr. Horn is a widower and prefers to live alone, a home having been built near the father's when the son married. Mr. Horn does not need much assistance from his family in keeping his house tidy.

Coburn's Corners

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday evening with Mrs. Della Hart.

Attendance at Bible School for July 22 was 80, collection $3.12.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Carpenter and guests spent Sunday at Hamilton Lake.

Master Harold Gee Curie has been on the sick list a few days.

Farmers were busy threshing in this community the past week.

Mattie Hart called on Berneice Wilder and babe Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place called on Hattie Walker Sunday afternoon.

Adren Shull called on his grandfather, J. S. Shull Sunday afternoon.

George Hart spent Monday at Ann Arbor, Mich., for a final check up on his arm.

Mrs. Arline Rhoads and Metta Furish of Spencerville called on Mattie Hart Thursday morning.

Mrs. Garth Shull was taken seriously ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hart Saturday evening.

Quite a good number in this vicinity attended the Southeast Market Association picnic Sunday afternoon.

The pupils in this vicinity of Darla Fusselman will assist in a recital to be given at Hicksville High School gym August 7.

Mrs. Blair, who spent the past week with Mrs. Elwood Hart, returned to her home at Jackson, Michigan, Sunday afternoon.

William Hamilton, while threshing last Monday at the Arthur Knopp farm, suffered a very light stroke of paralysis. However, we are glad to say that he is better and working again.

Mrs. Glen Hart and son, Richard, of Goshen, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart. Glen was home Sunday, returning to camp Monday morning with his Boy Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Trostel, Miss Violet May and Dale Trostel attended the Christian Sunday School at Hamilton, Sunday. They spent the remaider of the day at the lake with Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown and son, Warren, of Butler.

Mrs. J. D. Craun and son, Donald, of Lakeland, Fla., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Ida Chubb at the home of Paul Carpenter. They report the climate much warmer here at present, than it is at Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Craun formerly resided near Angola.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Willard and family, of Marshalltown, Iowa arrived Tuesday evening at the home of Wilmot Coburn. Mr. Willard and Walter Coburn returned to Iowa, Friday, while Mrs. Willard and children remained for a longer visit with relatives and friends.

Club News

The R. H. C. was very pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon, July 17, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Curie, seventeen members and four guests being present. Roll call response given was "Table Manners." Following the business meeting Gladys Hart conducted a music contest, Emily Hallabaugh and Winifred Hart proving themselves quite musical. Mrs. Curie had a guessing contest to see which lady's purse weighed the most, "believe it or not" one lady's purse tipped the scales at two pounds, "contents unseen." Master La Von Hart favored the club with two readings. The hostess served a dainty lunch consisting of ice cream, chocolate cakes and coffee. Club adjourned to meet with Troas Carpenter in two weeks.

CONCORD

Mrs. Cliftonn Draggoo and baby are staying at Auburn for a few days.

Virgil Bassett is getting his house papered and cleaned for renting.

Mrs. John Fetters was on the sick list over Sunday. Mrs. Fred Draggoo is also one among the sick.

Monday Mrs. Dell Draggoo, Mrs. Clifton Draggoo and Miss Ida Widney were shopping in Fort Wayne.

The medicine show last week was well attended. Miss Ruth Baker won the 26 pieces of Roger silverware which was a nice present.

Eloise Draggoo spent from Thursday until Monday with Ethelyn and Alice Baker at Spencerville. On Monday they went to Ft. Wayne getting Watler's house ready for rent, cleaning, varnishing and papering.

Mrs. Anna Koch spent a few days last week with her sister and family, and on Tuesday she went to stay with Mrs. Sarah B. Widney, while Miss Ida Widney and Mrs. Hattie Draggoo went to the Chicago Fair. They had a fine time. Mrs. Koch came back to Jackson's Friday afternoon, going home in the evening. This week Mrs. Koch went to Newville to keep house for Mrs. Smith.

John Timmerman was a Saturday dinner guest of his sister, Mrs. C. Jackson. She also had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Draggoo and Ford Jackson and family. Two gallons of ice cream were made and enjoyed.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Viola Harter spent Saturday in Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dean spent Sunday in Auburn.

Hugh Traxler was fishing last Wednesday at Tamarack Lake.

E. M. Hetzler, of Angola, was a business caller here Thursday.

Mrs. Mona Gaff and Dorothy Wasson spent Thursday in Fort Wayne.

Miss Maud Scoville, of Angola, visited here Thursday in the W. L. Strong home.

Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and children and Roy Abel spent Sunday at Mongo.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Schram are here from Wisconsin visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoffer.

Mrs. Jane Hatch and Mack Hatch were guests Sunday of Mrs. Sarah Bowman at Albion.

May Bros. have purchased the Central Grocery in Hicksville, taking possession Saturday.

The Home Coming at the Newville Christian Church will be August 5th.

Mrs. Hoffer was here Sunday from Butler visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoffer.

Mrs. Belle Crum is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Hatch.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, of Hicksville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith.

There are more words in a lie than in the truth.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reas was under the care of a physician Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith were here Sunday from Fort Wayne visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kinney, of McClure, Ohio, were week-end guests of Mrs. Vera Miller.

Wm. Hensinger, of Fort Garrett, spent several days here last week with his mother, Mrs. Belle Crum.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Traxler and Mrs. Lucille Traxler and children spent several days last week at Crooked Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark entertained relatives from Chicago Sunday. Mrs. Dorothy Clark returned home with them.

The U. B. Sunday School will give Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff a shower Thursday evening, July 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walker and son, of Detroit, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith. Mrs. Venus Rex, who had been visiting the Walker family, returned home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Benner and son, Verle, of Mt. Clemens, Mich., were Saturday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Fusselman. They were enroute to Peru, Ind., to visit Mr. Benner's father, who is leaving this week to make his home with a daughter in California.

The average of the United States Weather Bureau in forecasting the weather correctly is 89 per cent.

In Brazil, South America, a woman gave birth to eight daughters and two sons at one time However, all ten died at birth. The mother lived.

Pinedale, Wyoming, is 104 miles from the nearest railroad.

"The whole theory of cancer control," says the Illinois Health Messenger, "is built upon the basis of early treatment of cancerous conditions."

Everyone more than sixteen years old who hunts migratory water-fowl is required to possess one of the new $1 Federal hunting stamps. Such funds will be used to help conserve migratory water-fowl by the establishment of sanctuaries.

The Great Salt Lake continues to get saltier. The water there now is about twenty-five per cent salt.

In Spain professional bull fighters get as much as $5,000 for one afternoon's performance.

It is estimated that it costs the military departments of the United States governent $50,000 annually just to salute visiting dignitaries from other coutries.

Recent statistics show that children are less subject to contagious diseases in the city than they are in small towns and villages.

Babe Ruth has made over 700 home runs in his major-league base ball career. The 700th home run was made in Detroit and Mr. Ruth paid a boy twenty dollars to get the ball back as a memento.

The "New Deal" has brought about so many new government agenices with headquarters in Washington that there is hardly office room enough for them in the Federal buildings. The National Housing Administration, with a billion dollars to dispense to home owners, has been conducting business from a suite of rooms in a Washington hotel. More than 95,500 employees have been added to the government pay roll in the executive agencies during President Roosevelt's administration.

Recent government statistics show the wheat crop in this country to be the smallest since 1893; which is less than one-third of last year's wheat crop. However, last year's carryover is nearly twice as much as this year's crop and there will be bread available for all those who have the money to buy it.

The air temperatures which people find the most comfortable vary greatly. People residing in eastern and central states like a temperature of about seventy degrees, whereas those living near the Pacific coast are most comfortable at sixty-four degrees.

Ford sold 29 per cent of all new passenger cars in the United States during the first six months of 1934; Chevrolet sold 26 per cent of all the new cars, and Plymouth 17 per cent.

A severe drought this season, has caused a shortage of practically all food products in the world. Germany and England, as well as the United States, has been seriouly affected.

All new passenger cars and trucks registered in Michigan must be equipped throughout with safety glass. Michigan is the only state exacting such requirements.

Statistics show that during the last school year 85,000 school teachers received less than nine dollars a week and that the teachers still have about $125,000,000 due from back salaries.

A flat postage rate of six cents per ounce for air mail went into effect on July first. The old rate was eight cents for the first ounce and 13 cents for each additional ounce.

In 1933 there were 51 people acting for various American movie producers who received salaries exceeding that of the President of the United States.

"I want a warm and faithful friend,
To cheer the adverse hour;
Who ne'er to flatter will descend,
Nor bend the knee to power,—
A friend to chide me when I'm wrong,
My inmost soul to see;
And that my friendship prove as strong
For him as his for me."

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Roy Koch has razed his barn and rebuilt into a garage.

Postal inspector from Wayne called at local post office last week and found everything in good shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kinsey, of Chicago, are here this week on their vacation, being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Blue. Last week they spent at Clear Lake.

TWO SPENCERVILLE CITIZENS DIED WEDNESDAY

Wednesday morning marked the passing of two Spencerville people.

Dickie Jordan, 12, son of Mrs. Pauline Baumgartner died at 9 o'clock of convulsions, developing meningitis. Sunday he had goe to Lake Gage with Rev. Fabiaske, wife and others for a two weeks' outing. Upon arriving he was sick. Monday he continued sick and Tuesday a call was made for them to come after him, and he was returned home at 2, passing fro one convulsion to another. Wednesday morning at 9 a consultation was held by Drs. Shook and Hines when he died. Plans had been made to rush him to Fort Wayne, when the end came.

No plans can be announced today.

Mrs. Frank Butler died Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock after several months illness, her passing was unexpected although she was seriously ill. Funeral will be Friday at 2 o'clock, C. S. T.

WATCH THE BUDGETS

There is no more important season than the budget season—imimportant because it will have a iportat because it will have a bearing on the pocketbooks of every taxpayer. It is important because good government is involved. The budgets now in process of preparation will form the basis for next year's taxes. Fortunately, the taxpayers are afforded ample opportunity to complain if in their judgment any item or items in the budgets are regarded as excessive. The formulation of the budgets will be followed by publication, public hearings and filings of appeals extending from August 17 to about the middle of October.

While there is general agreement that taxes should be kept to the minimum, it is equally as important that good government be maintained. It is contended that through the elimination of wastes, extravagance and needless expenditures, sufficient funds could be obtained without imposing a heavy burden on those who must pay the bills. Indeed, with a state income tax, property taxes should be very materially reduced. Unfortunately, such will not be the case.

It is to be expected that many public officials will request larger appropriations than they need, on the theory that when the cutting is completed they will have left the amout they want. Therefore, it is imperative that the taxpayers keep an eye on the budgets and register their protests at the proper time.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Free RUBBER RINGS ..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make... free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl... a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly.

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH.

27t14

Huber Theatre
HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Friday, Saturday, JULY 27-28
"FOG OVER FRISCO"
Betty Davis, Donald Woods, Margaret Lindsay. Thrills and mystery shrouded in a Sanfrancisco fog.

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, JULY 29-30-31
"LITTLE MAN WHAT NOW"
Margaret Sullivan, Douglas Montgomery. A picture that will numb the very depths of your soul...yet will gladden your heart.

Don't miss this one.

Sunday shows start at 4:30; 6:20; 8:00; 9:45.

If it is Printing we can do it and do it right

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

L 919

0335

AUGUST

AUGUST

L 919

U336

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1934 NUMBER 30

CHEESETOWN SCHOOL REUNION HELD SUNDAY

A fair sized crowd, numbering about sixty, met at the Cheesetown school house, Sunday. The basket dinner was the attraction at the noon hour.

The president, Mark Murphy, called the meeting to order in the afternoon. "America" was sung, led by Mr. C. A. Woodcox. Several gave talks and told jokes, which years ago weren't jokes but serious facts. A talk from Mr. M. E. Leighty was enjoyed by all. His theme was "Going Back Home," which was very impressive, and as most of the folks were up in years his remarks were very fitting. An interesting letter from Evans Dermott was read. The same officers were re-elected. The president closed the meeting and all did justice to six gallons of ice cream.

Those attending away from this vicinity were: Mr and Mrs. Ed Loomis, of Hicksville; Lee Wilmot, of Avilla; Leslie Gee, of Kendallville; Mr. M. E. Leighty, of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tustison and son, Keith, of Defiance; Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Coburn and Roscoe Coburn, of Fort Wayne.

The next meeting will be the last Sunday in July, 1935.

A. W. Trostel, Secy.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

IMPRESSIVE BAPTISMAL IN LOCAL CHURCH SUNDAY

An impressive baptismal service took place at the Lutheran Church in St. Joe, Sunday morning following the Bible study hour when little Miss Mitzie Jane Williams, of Los Angeles, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams, was baptized by the pastor, Rev. A. H. Fabianske.

Mrs. F. L. Delauder, of Durand, Michigan and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham, of St. Joe, acting as sponsors for the little Miss, whose baptism took place in the same church as that of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Davidson Williams.

Relatives who attended the services besides the parents were, Mrs. F. L. Delauder, of Durand, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Purks, son and daughter, of Newark, O., and Mrs. Grant Baltz of St. Joe.

DEKALB COUNTY AUDITOR MAKES TAX DISTRIBUTION

County Auditor, Frank E. Lyon, has just made the semi-annual distribution to the school units of the county of common school revenue, congressional school fund interest and surplus dog fund.

The total amount was $3,192.62, apportioned as follows:

Auburn $518.08; Garrett $561.02; Butler city $164.88; Waterloo $107.45; Wilmington township $145.65; Union $131.37; Troy $66.59; Stafford $66.41; Spencer $92.39; Smithfield $232.38; Richland $103.24; Newville $72.25; Keyser $186.39; Jackson $161.42; Grant $56.13; Franklin $149.30; Fairfield $148.40; Concord $136.87; Butler township $92.60.

FREE CLINIC

The first Free Clinic under the direction of the County Tuberculosis Association will be held at St. Joe on Wednesday, August 8, at the K. of P. Hall. Persons in this section of county desiring a complete examination will be accorded this Free Service. Time, 10:00 o'clock, D. S. T.

CONVOY PEOPLE KILLED NORTH OF AUBURN

Mrs. Fred Polling, aged 29, of Convoy, Ohio, was instantly killed and Mrs. George Roth, aged 28, of the same place, died a few minutes after being taken to the Dr. Bonnell Souder hospital in Auburn as the result of an automobile accident at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. A Ford V-8 sedan being driven by Mr. Roth, an automobile salesman of Convoy, crashed into a south bound traction car of the Indiana Service corporation where state highway No. 27 crosses the interurban track north of Auburn. The scene of the accident is known as Dilgard's crossing. The two men and a boy, age 7, escaped serious injuries.

Mr. Roth, who was driving saw the traction car when it was about a half mile distant. He thought the interurban tracks paralleled the highway and he did not realize that the road crossed the tracks until it was too late to stop. He quickly turned his car to the left in an effort to avoid the accident. The rear end of the Ford skidded into the front end of the traction car.

AN AUBURN MAN SUGGESTS A DOG

A. L. Wimer, of Auburn writes The News last week, giving an answer to the little rhyme at the close of the "Fresh Foot Prints" column. Here it is:—

"I want a warm and faithful friend,
To cheer the adverse hour;
Who ne'er to flatter will descend,
Nor bend the knee to power,—
A friend to chide me when I'm wrong,
My inmost soul to see;
And that my friendship prove as strong
For him as his for me."

Mr. Wimer's Verse

"A friend you want, you say,
Warm, faithful and true.
Who does not look for pay
Who'll cheer you when you're blue.
Who'll be with you sun or rain,
Or heat or chill or fog.
Who'll suffer grief and pain,
Why don't you try a dog?"

FREE TICKETS FOR DEFIANCE COUNTY FAIR

All school children of Concord Township, regardless of age, can secure free, an admission ticket for the Defiance county fair at Hicksville, on Wednesday, August 22, by calling at News office any time, and this also admits to the space allotted in grandstand. Don't forget to call at News office and ask for your ticket. Parents can arrange for this if they desire, but must call for them.

29t2.

LUTHERAN CHURCH
August 5

10:30 Spencerville Worship service.

8:00 P. M., (D. S. T.,) St. Joe.

Please tell your friends of this announcement. The pastor and family plan to be away for several weeks during August. This will be the last church service until his return.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL
Newville U. B. Church

Thursday evening, August 2nd. Ice Cream and Cake, Sandwiches, Etc., Special Music. Come.

BAKE SALE

The Loyal Worker's Class of Church of Christ Sunday School, will hold a bake sale at Hurni's store, Saturday morning, beginning at 9:00 o'clock. 29t1

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Town of St. Joe will receive bids on na Truck Chassis, Bids to be given Town Clerk not later than August 18.

The Town Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Specification on file with Town Clerk.

29t2. D. B. RIDGWAY, Clerk.

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Dec. 13, 1884

Jud Gee is working for Landlord Wm. Leighty.

John Hull talks of opening up a barber shop here.

John Baker spent a couple of days in Chicago last week.

War Coburn has a little fellow at home now that calls him "papa."

The section men have recently had their wages cut down from $1.20 to $1.00.

Over ninety men were discharged from the B. & O. railroad shops at Garrett, last week.

The heavy winds last Sunday blew down the smoke stack on Wineland's handle factory.

M. T. Bishop is up in the big woods of Michigan purchasing a supply of lumber, shingles, etc.

Harper Leighty cut down the pole in front of his grandfather's residence last week. He done it with his little hatchet.

J. H. Conrad was so excited over the baby that when his wife sent him down town after some sugar he thought she meant safety pins.

The melancholy days have come,
'Tis colder than the tomb.
For politics no longer hum,
And boomlets cease to boom.

Chris Curie brought back with him from Buffalo last week, a small anvil which he says has been used by Mr. Cleveland as a paper weight.

D. P. Hale, of Sioux City, Iowa, was in town last week. Mr. Hale has just passed through a severe attack of sickness, and is on his way to California for the benefit of his health.

Santa Claus is neither a democrat or a republican, but he is a jolly good old fellow, and has got the nicest lot of "nicknacks" for the children this year you ever seen.

Thanksgiving day was observed in this place in various ways: some went hunting, some attended the supper in the evening, some attended church and others done just what they pleased.

Andrew Patterson, of Hicksville, wrote to his brother, Wid last week, and told him that if he would look in Isaiah, the ninth chapter and the first thirteen words of the sixth verse, he would find out what had occurred at their house. Now what was it?

Did you evar put up a stove? If you didn't, don't. Now mind wat I tel you, don't you evar du it. It usually talks a good deal tu malk a man angray but jest let him tri tu put up a stove onc an if he don't git fiting mad befour he gits thru, it wil bea funny; and even the ladies, thos deer tendar harted creatures that hardly evar get out of humor, you kno, evan tha git on ther ear, an rip an tare an almost sware. It is easy enuf to get the stove in place, but when it cums tu fitting the pipe tugether, that's the rubb. Fur instance you git the pipe almost tugether on one side an go tu pres it down, an up she flies on the othar side; aftar several attempts tu get it tugether, an your face and hands are all bedaubded with black, it is then so pleasant tu hav your wife make the remark "that you don't kno how to put up a stove anawa." Jist about that tym you'll begin to boil ovar. She wil probabla take hold of the pipe then tu help you, an about the tyme you hav got it neerly together agin she (in her smartness) wil give it a jerk on the wrong side an off it wil go again. Then ther wil bea musick in the air, an it is perhaps better that we draw the curten here, as thos who are married kno how it is themselves, an thos who are not wil find out soon enuf.

Yours frum Experience,
Barcus Q. Hippenhammer.

Church of Christ S. S. 106, $3.44

Newville Chautauqua, August 12 to 19.

Mrs. Hollis Dilley spent Thursday with Mrs. C. A. Patterson in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Feagler of Auburn spent Sunday evening at the Grady Woodcox home.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Colly, of Paulding, Ohio, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hart.

Rev. A. H. Fabianske and family will leave for a two weeks' vacation following his Sunday evening services, to be in the home of his parents at Alpina, Mich.

Miss Gertie Taylor and Miss Spitsenberger of VanWert, Ohio, and W. E Collins of Auburn, called on Ray Reasoner and family on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Donald Hart was at Paulding, O., Monday the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kressley. Her sister, Ethel Carpenter returned home with her for a visit.

A baby daughter, 9¾ pounds, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dorsey, Wednesday evening of last week, at the home of Mrs. Dorsey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wineland.

I. M. Woodcox and family and Ray Reasoner and wife called on W. E. Collins of near Auburn on Tuesday evening to see his 32 acre potato field, and they report them as looking fine.

Sparks from a passing train set fire to grass at rear of St. Joe Garage and it soon spread to near the Storer garage, Sunday morning. The department was called to extinguish the blaze.

A grass fire, started by a farm tractor, spread over a large area of the John Benninghoff farm last week. Tuesday a fire started on the Henderson farm along the Wabash railroad burning over a vast area.

The Hicksville Fair Association has placed a ban on the sale of beer on the fair grounds this year, a move to be commendable to the directors. 12,000 free tickets for school children will be given out for Wednesday, Aug. 22.

BUTLER

Daisy Belle Hemrick, daughter of Andrew and Catherine Hemrick, was born three miles east of Spencerville in Springfield Township, Allen County, October 11, 1877, and departed this life July 25, 1934 at her home south of Spencerville.

She was united in marriage to Frank L. Butler, March 22, 1899. She leaves her husband, Frank L. Butler; one sister, Mrs. Myrtle Fischer, Los Angeles, California; three brothers, John Hemrick, Peru, Indiana, Clyde and Frank Hemrick, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; seven nephews; seven nieces, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

Her father and mother, one sister and one brother preceded her in death. She was a member of the M. E. Church, Order of the Eastern Star and C. C. Club, all of Spencerville.

Funeral services were held from the home Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Howard Brown, with interment in White City cemetery. Roscoe Walter, director.

Legal Notices

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that Frank M. Brandon, as special representative of the Department of Financial Institutions of the State of Indiana for the liquidation of the St. Joe Valley Bank, has filed his partial account in the DeKalb Circuit Court, to which any creditor, share-holder or other person interested may file written objection, and the said account will be heard and determined by said Court at the Court House in the city of Auburn, Indiana, on the 4th day of September, 1934.

FRANK M. BRANDON,
Special Representative.
W. D. Stump, Attorney. 28t3.

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

The Board of Commissioners of DeKalb County will allow the following claims at their regular meeting August 6, 1934:

Indiana Bell Telephone Co., Telephone Service, $76.30
Carl Walter, Clerk's office expense, $5.51
Levey Printing Co., Do., $7.50
J. C. Penny Co., Clothing for Insane, $3.37
Frank E. Lyon, Auditor's office expense, $5.00
Remington Rand Inc., Treasurer's office expense, $12.12
John P. Hoff, Sheriff's mileage, $80.76
John P. Hoff, Sheriff's office expense, $3.00
John P. Hoff, Transportation of Insane, $62.46
John P Hoff, Trans. of prisoners, $175.79
John P. Hoff, Trans. of Feeble Minded, $19.00
John P. Hoff, Return of Fugative Criminals, $102.26
C. C. Kain, Surveyor's mileage, $52
Carl Stallman Co. Supt. office expense, $11.50
Typewriter Inspection Co., Do., $3.50
Ashton Staman, Do., $1.00
Benj. O Shook, Coroner's expense, $33.20
Richard W. Sharpless, Prosecutor's office expense, $31.60
R. E. Heidrich, Do., $12.50
Nora I. Brown, Probation office salary, $57.00
Nora I. Brown, Probation office expense, $24.91
Lenoir DeRae, Board of Children Guardian, $15.00
Ula Carroll, Do., $15.00
Myra Malone, Do., $10.00
Fay Blaker, Do., $15.00
Irma Bronson, Do., $15.00
Lizzie Dohner, Do., $20.00
Addie Campbell, Do., $10.00
Chloey Davis, Do., $20.00
Darnnallda Kennedy, Do., $12.00
Sylvia Marti, Do., $15.00
Clara Krick, Do., $7.50
Alice Lower, Do., $20.00
Fannie Strange, Do., $20.00
Anna Snyder, Do., $15.00
Bertha Freeze, Do., $15.00
Doris Noragon, Do., $15.00
Elizabeth Sutton, Do., $10.00
Daisy Hampshire, Do., $15.00
Sallie Ross, Do., $15.00
Josephine Donley, Do., $10.00
Ila Shilling, Do., $12.00
Anna Warstler, Do., $10.00
Jennie Frain, Do., $15.00
Violet Morgan, Do., $3.00
Flora B. Swaidner, Do., $10.00

(Continued on Page Five)

Leighty Orchard
—WE ARE NOW SELLING—
APPLES and VINEGAR
Our Vinegar also on Sale at ZONKER'S STORE, St. Joe; BOWSER & REED, Spencerville, and CITY MARKET, Auburn, Indiana.

START BOOSTING
FOR The
DEFIANCE COUNTY
FAIR
AUGUST 21-22-23-34-25
Grand Display of FIREVORKS on EACH EVENING
Plenty FREE ENTERTAINMENT
Saturday Fair
THREE NIGHTS: THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY
ADMISSION PRICES: Gate 25c. Grandstand 25c.
DAY and NIGHT.

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

CANNING DAYS: MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY.
Grabill Canning Company
Custom Canning
ALL KINDS OF CANNING IN SEASON
PHONE: LEO 535
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
GRABILL, INDIANA

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
Introducing a new line of
TOILET Articles
OUTDOOR GIRL: Powder, Rouge and Perfumes at.....10c.
TANGEE: Powder and Rouge in Shades at .....10c.
EVENGLO Nail Polish and Cleaner at .....10c.
Djer-Kiss and Mavis Lip Stick
Vaseline, 5 and 10c jars.
Our Big 10c Assortment
DENTAL CREAM: Ipana, Colgates, Iodent, Pebeco, Listerine, and Pepsodent; Ponds Face Cream; Italian Balm Hand Lotion; Boquet Powder; Shaving Soap and Cream; After Shaving Lotion; Sanilin Mouth Wash; Brilliantine; Color Shine Shoe Cleaner Wildroot Wave Set; Hydrogen of Peroxide, etc.
Rubbing Alcohol at 13c and 25c. No home can be without it.
WHY NOT BUY AT HOME—WE HAVE SAME MERCHANDISE FEATURED IN DIME STORES AND ARE ALL GOOD
Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

AUGUST

L 919

0337

LIBERTY SONG

By THAYER WALDO

©, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service.

THE man in the officer's chair lit a fresh cigar and angrily flung the match aside.

"Cockeyed, idiotic business!" he snarled.

"A whole production tied up while we sit here waiting for some wop bum to be dragged in off the streets. It's the damnedest thing I ever heard of!"

Stuart Booth eyed him contemptuously and said nothing.

Fiberg made a gesture of conciliation.

"Now listen, Nick," he begged; "be reasonable a little, couldn't you? Ain't the only chance we got worth anyhow a try?"

"Yes; I should think, Hormell," Booth put in coldly, "that after all the fuming you've done over this part, you might see how my suggestion works out before you start crabbing."

The director twisted swiftly around in the chair to face him, snapping:

"Look here, Stuart; I never agreed to this wild notion of yours, and I won't pretend to now. Here we have a scene that needs an operatic star, and you talk 'em into going after a dago banana peddler you've heard yodeling behind his pushcart. If I'm expected to enthuse over that—well, it's a laugh, that's all."

"All right; now we'll just add the rest of it: you want an Italian tenor, yet you can't afford anyone big for such a small role. There's no foreign language singer available on the lot, so where are you? Stuck. And then when I offer the one idea that may solve your problem, you beef!"

"Well," Hormell grumbled, "it simply doesn't sound sensible. If he was going into a chorus. . . . But the man's got to do a solo, and—"

"Hey, look!" Fiberg had turned toward the sound stage entrance.

"Is that him?"

The others swung around.

Just inside the door stood a little round man in baggy trousers and a gay lavender shirt.

His great mop of black curls was uncovered and the olive moon face beneath showed gentle perplexity.

Stuart Booth went forward, calling:

"Hello, Pietro! Come right over here."

The Latin's teeth gleamed in a wide slow smile.

"Ah, Signor Boot'! You send for me, si? Dey no tell me—joost say, 'You Pietro Pasquale? Come to da studio.' I don't know what ees, but here I am."

Hormell had approached and was staring critically at the Italian.

Before Booth could speak again, he said curtly:

"All right, Tony—let's hear you sing."

The small dark man gazed up with polite incomprehension and replied:

"Excuse, plees; da name she's Pietro, an' I don't know joost what you talk. Maybe you joke, si?"

"Keep still a minute," Booth said sharply to the director; "give me a chance to explain to him. . . . Listen, old timer; we're in a fix here; you can help us out and, incidentally, make yourself fifty dollars for a couple of hours' work—just singing."

The fellow made a quick little bow and said:

"Sure, sure; she's made me very happy to do somet'eengs for you."

The set across the stage, however, had caught his eye and he started to wander off toward it.

The actor grasped his arm as Hormell let out a snort of exasperation and demanded:

"Well, are we going through with the farce, or is this gentleman just a sightseer?"

"That's what I'm saying," Fiberg agreed.

"He acts like he was doing us a favor. What's the big idea?"

Pietro met the producer's scowl with grave dignity.

"Excuse, plees," he corrected; "she's only for Signor Boot' I do eet."

Fiberg gaped incredulously a moment; then:

"Say, what's the matter from you?" he yelped.

"Nobody's asking you should do anything gratis. Fifty smackers you get for just one song—even if you don't sing very good, maybe!"

Again that broad calm smile spread over the swart features.

"That ees all right, signor. I'm love to seeng, anyhows."

Once more he commenced to stroll away. Stuart Booth cried:

"But, Pietro! It has to be done this afternoon—right now!"

The Italian halted at once, a mildly shocked surprise entering his expression.

"Oh—si? Excuse, plees; I'm not understan'."

A savage groan from Hormell.

"Listen, Booth," he bawled; "either you get that spaghetti gobbler warbling in the next two minutes, or I quit. Savvy?"

The actor glared sourly at him and turned again to Pietro, explaining:

"You see, there's an Italian sequence in the picture we're making. Several of us are traveling along a mountain road and we come to a small inn. The proprietor's sitting on the piazza, carrying wood and singing some air from an opera. Now that's what we want you for! Can you do it?"

Pietro laughed—a full and carefree sound with no hint of scorn in it.

"Why, sure!" he exclaimed buoyantly.

"You mean like dees?"

Back went his head, a breath was taken, and suddenly there poured forth a rich torrent of golden melody as he began an aria from "I Pagliacci."

It rose and swelled and filled the great room with glorious music.

In a moment people from all over the stage had gathered round.

Not a note in all that song was less than perfection.

Long before he had finished, Fiberg and the director were huddled together, whispering excitedly.

Even Stuart Booth was astonished.

At last it ended and the little Italian gazed about him, a trifle startled.

Then Hormell and the producer were rushing forward in a dual fever of ingratiation.

"Say, that's the finest thing I ever gave a listen to!" Fiberg chattered.

And the director:

"Marvelous! Where have you been hiding all these years?"

In a quick aside to Booth, he breathed: "My G—d, man—why didn't you tell me about this sooner? He's the greatest find I've ever run across!"

Fiberg, an arm about the singer's shoulders, was talking rapidly:

"Now, Mr. Pasquale, here's the way I'm figuring it. You'll want to do a couple of small parts and then we star you. How about a six months' contract with options, at—well, say two hundred and fifty a week?"

The three studio men waited, their eyes upon the Latin's face.

For an instant bewilderment was there; then slowly he looked from one to the other with something very like disbelief.

"Joost a meenute," he said finally; "Maybe I'm don't understan' again. You want that I come here every day and seeng for da peectures, si?"

They nodded.

Pietro Pasquale made a queer small noise in his throat and stepped back, shaking free of the producer's embrace.

"Excuse, plees!" He spoke with a ringing firmness. "She's very kind of you—but, no!"

"You—you mean you're refusing the contract?"

"Si, signor."

Palpably he was in dead earnest.

"Listen, plees: When I am a boy een Milano, always I seeng, joost for happiness. Den one day somebody she's hear me an' say, You mus' study for da career! I am young fool, so I do eet. Five, six year I keep on, at las' get een La Scala opera an' pret' soon have da name een lights. Bravo, bravo! But all da joy she's gone when each night I have to seeng so much, so long. So now I have geeve all dat up an' come here where I can poosh da cart to make enough for Rosita an' da bambinos an' me. Seeng? Signor, I do eet for gladness, but she's not enough money een all da world to buy from Pietro a song ever again!"

Nevada Marsh Yields Rich Sodium Sulphate

Sodium sulphate, once a plentiful by-product of nitric and hydrochloric acid manufacture, has become relatively scarce in this country because of recent changes in the manufacturing processes of those acids, writes P. C. Rich in Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering. Just when it began to appear that the United States would have to depend on imports for its sodium sulphate, an isolated desert marsh began to yield this chemical in practically pure form. This strange deposit, where sodium sulphate, or a "glaubers salt" can be scooped up by steam shovel is known as Rhodes Marsh, and is located in Mineral county, Nevada.

A few years ago, P. S. Williams, a chemical engineer at one time associated with a concern producing sodium sulphate from Carrizo lake, California, came across an old report of Prof. Joseph LeConte, geology professor at the University of California, in which mention was made of an enormous deposit of glaubers salt at Rhodes. In 1928 he was able to interest a group of San Francisco men who spent considerable time prospecting the deposit, surveying the markets, and investigating processes for recovery of the sulphate. The first plant was erected in 1930. With the experience thus gained as a basis, a program of improvement was initiated late in 1932.

Rhodes Marsh is roughly circular in shape. The mineralized section is about 200 acres in area and covered with 6 inches to 2 feet of silt. On the south half of the deposit, a 15-foot layer of glaubers salt is found immediately under the overburden; in places it has been found to be present at a depth of 80 feet.

Mother at Seven

A case of a child born to a seven-year-old girl, reported by Dr. Hilda Keane, of Victoria Zenana hospital, Delhi, is mentioned in the British Medical Journal. An unmarried Mohammedan girl was admitted to hospital on March 18, 1932," says Doctor Keane. Her age, as given by her father, was seven. Her general development was good, and she had fair intelligence. Her height was only 3 feet 11 inches, and her weight only 48 pounds. She still had her milk teeth. A living female child was born weighing 4 pounds 8 ounces. Beyond suffering from fright for the first three days, the mother made a perfect recovery and was able to nurse her child for nine months.

Economy

Son—You sure are a lucky man, father.

Dad—Why so?

Son—Because you won't have to buy me any school books next year. I didn't pass.

Claims to Have Solved Determination of Sex

Sex determination, breeding male or female animals as desired, has been accomplished.

Baby rabbits, 180 out of 200 having the sex that was planned for them, so far constitute living proof of the success of the method. Several hundred births among Russian cattle and swine this summer will show whether the method has practical value for cattle breeding, as is expected by Prof. N. K. Koltzoff, the biologist who devised it.

The technique will be successful in bringing human children of the desired sex also, Professor Koltzoff claims. But the human application is minor and chiefly sentimental in his opinion. Parents should be happy whether their baby is a boy or a girl, says the professor, who himself is childless.

His chief interest is in its application to cattle breeding. In nature the sexes of animals are about equally divided. To eliminate almost half that are useless for increase—the males—and to supplant them with progeny-bearing stock spells an annual profit or growth dividend of 50 to 80 per cent.

Professor Koltzoff's method is based on the discovery of American investigators, Prof. E. B. Wilson of Columbia, Prof. E. C. McClung of the University of Pennsylvania, and the late Dr. N. M. Stevens. These investigators showed that sex in animals is determined by the fertilizing elements which are equally divided into those having male and those having female potentialities.

These elements are living cells, and Professor Koltzoff found that, like other cells, they carry an electrical charge. Accordingly he was able to separate them by passing an electric current through them, and to produce male or female rabbits, according to which electrically separated group of elements he used to impregnate the rabbit mothers.—Science Service, New York World-Telegram.

City Invites Bats

Heidelberg, Germany, is to have a bat tower which will rival the famous Flittermouse tower in Bergen. It will be constructed on a plan which will attract hosts of bats. People in the wooded valley of the Neckar are plagued by mosquitoes, gnats and other insects and it is hoped the bats will war on the pests.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

More to Silence It

Wifey—Is there any difference between a fort and a fortress?

Hubby—Oh, yes; it takes a lot more money to keep up a fortress.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

GIANT BISON FOSSILS

A species of bison three times as large as those in existence today roamed the western plains during the Pleistocene geologic period. This is the conclusion reached by Dr. C. L. Camp, director of the University of California museum of paleontology, after fossil remains of one of these giant animals found on the Jim Day ranch in Shasta county, Calif., were sent to the museum for examination. They were discovered by a thirteen-year-old boy who in attempting to pick up a rock to throw at some sheep grabbed hold of what proved to be the tip of the bison's horn which protruded a few inches above the ground.

CLEAN PLUGS WIN!

INCREASE SPEED . . . SAVE GAS . . . START EASIER . . . RUN SMOOTHER

SPARK PLUGS CLEANED by the AC METHOD, only 5c each

Removal of oxide coating, soot, and carbon with the AC Spark Plug Cleaner snaps up the speed, economy and performance of any car. Registered dealers, garages and service stations have the AC Cleaner now. Why not have your plugs cleaned? Replace badly worn plugs with new ACs.

Tune in: RAYMOND KNIGHT and the CUCKOOS—Saturdays, 10 p.m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

AC

THE QUALITY SPARK PLUG

LOOK FOR THE "PLUG-IN-THE-TUB"

WNU—A 31—34

Face "Broken Out?" First wash with pure Resinol Soap. Then relieve and improve sore pimply spots with soothing Resinol

ANTS DIE

Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

KILL ALL FLIES

Placed anywhere, Daisy Fly Killer attracts and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective. Neat, convenient. Costs little. Will not soil or stain. Lasts all season. 25c at all dealers. Harold Soucy, Inc., 150 De Kalb Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

DAISY FLY KILLER

DEAF?

Happy Thousands Now Hear with the New Bone Conduction GEM

Visit Us When You Come to The Chicago Fair!

Have a free demonstration in Gem's Chicago laboratory. Try the new Gem that brings hearing through the head bone—small, lightweight, has real clarity of tone, amplified power — improved BONE CONDUCTION Hearing Aid brings hearing without strain. The latest—AT A PRICE ALL CAN AFFORD. Also New Air Gems. Backed by 25 years' service. Write for Booklet C.S.

GEM EAR PHONE CO., Inc.
59 E. Madison St., Chicago, Ill.
(15th FLOOR)

Ten Million People HELPED BUILD THIS TIRE!

The NEW Firestone CENTURY PROGRESS TIRE

EQUAL OR SUPERIOR to ANY First Quality Tire BUILT . . . REGARDLESS OF NAME, BRAND, BY WHOM MANUFACTURED or AT WHAT PRICE OFFERED FOR SALE

THE TIRE SENSATION OF '34

Sells on Sight!

TO SEE it is to buy it! That's the way extra value stands out in the new Firestone Century Progress Tire. We found out what car owners wanted most in a tire—then we gave it to them. Out of more than ten million visitors to the Firestone Factory at the World's Fair last year, we obtained this opinion: "Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear, at a Moderate Price."

So we built the greatest tire ever made to sell at these low prices. Then the wave of buying started—car owners from Coast to Coast bought—not just one or two tires—but complete sets!

Go to the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store in your community TODAY! See the new Firestone Century Progress Tire — just look at the broad, husky shoulders, massive flat tread, deep-cut non-skid and Gum-Dipped cords. Did you ever see so much tire for so little money? No wonder it's the Tire Sensation of '34 and Sells on Sight! Why not equip your car with a complete set—while prices are still at today's low level. And remember, you get the new Firestone Triple Guarantee.

—for Unequaled Performance Records
—for Life Against All Defects
—for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards*
(*Six months in commercial service)

[See how Firestone Tires are Made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair] • [Listen to the Voice of Firestone —Featuring Gladys Swarthout —Every Monday Night over N.B.C.—WEAF Network]

4.40-21 $5.75 REDUCED PRICES FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY

SIZE	OLD PRICE	NEW PRICE	YOU SAVE ON ONE TIRE	YOU SAVE ON A SET OF 4
4.40-21	$6.65	$5.75	$ .90	$3.60
4.50-20	7.06	6.10	.96	3.84
4.50-21	7.31	6.30	1.01	4.04
4.75-19	7.78	6.70	1.08	4.32
5.00-19	8.34	7.20	1.14	4.56
5.25-18	9.27	8.00	1.27	5.08
5.25-21	10.20	8.80	1.40	5.60
5.50-17	10.15	8.75	1.40	5.60
5.50-18	10.45	9.05	1.40	5.60
5.50-19 H.D.	13.03	11.20	1.83	7.32
6.00-19 H.D.	14.47	12.45	2.02	8.08
6.50-19 H.D.	16.58	14.30	2.28	9.12
7.00-20 H.D.	19.83	17.10	2.73	10.92

OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY LOW

THE OUTSTANDING VALUE IN THE LOW-PRICED FIELD

For those car owners who need new tire safety at a very low price the Firestone Courier Type tire has no equal at these extremely low prices.

Firestone COURIER TYPE

SIZE	PRICE	SIZE	PRICE
4.40-21	$4.45	4.75-19	$5.20
4.50-21	4.90	30x3½	3.65

Other Sizes Proportionately Low

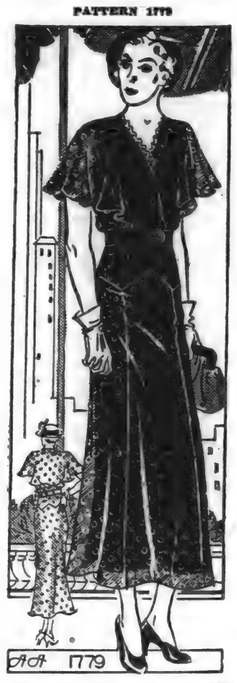
AUGUST

L 919

U 338

Slender Lines for Heavier Figures

PATTERN 1779



Of course you want a slender-looking dress if you have a somewhat heavy figure. The up and down points of the hip-line are wisely planned for this, as is the deep V-neck with its delicate touch of lace. This dress is delightful in one of the bright silk or sheer or cotton prints that are enlivening the season. Polka dots or colorful circlets on a dark ground are a nice design, too, as the picture shows. The belt may be of the material of the dress, or it may be of a contrasting or harmonizing color. You'll like yourself in this dress. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Pattern 1779 is available in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3¾ yards 39-inch fabric and ¾ yard 2½-inch lace.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York City.

Smiles

BETWEEN TWO FIRES

Old George of the antique shop was nothing if not a pessimist.

"Well, George," remarked a friend, "how's business?"

"Terrible!" was the reply. "If things are expensive people can't afford them, and if they are not expensive people don't want them."

Prepared

Mrs. Smith—And so your daughter is about to marry. Do you really feel that she is ready for the battle of life?

Mrs. Jones—She should be ready. She's been in four engagements already.

Alphabet Soup

"Johnnie," said the teacher reprovingly, "you misspelled most of the words in your composition."

"Yes'm," explained Johnnie; "I'm going to be a dialect writer."—Pathfinder.

Let's Have More of It

Teacher—Harry, can you tell me what classical music is?

Harry—Yes, ma'am. It's any kind a feller can't whistle.

ENJOY

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE PERFECT GUM

5¢ AND WORTH IT!

Call for Dark Accents on White

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

HERE'S how to give your white costume an air of topnotch swank—touch it up with a few effective dark accents. The modes illustrated offer excellent suggestions in this direction.

What could be smarter than the white topcoat in the group here pictured with hat, scarf, gloves and bag done in bright green? Gingham accessory ensembles are good looking and chic, too, and then there are the new black velvet berets which are so fashionable worn with summer white apparel. Be sure to order a velvet neckpiece or scarf with your beret to make the picture complete.

The interesting worthwhile thing to keep in mind in regard to the coat pictured is that it is made of one of those new cotton coatings which are creating such a furore in the fabric realm not only because of their handsome appearance but particularly because of the fact that they launder as successfully as a pocket handkerchief. Then, too, these most attractive coatings tailor like quality-kind woolen.

The young girl seated is also wearing an all-cotton outfit, for about the most fashionable thing one can do this summer is to wear cotton from head to foot—silk hosiery of course taken for granted. Her suit (she has thrown the jacket over the back of her chair) is of white seersucker, which is a style note to jot down for it is a new gesture, this of tailoring one's jacket suit of ordinary crinkled seersucker. Her blouse is of a new cotton sheer (plume chiffon) which is delightfully cool and wearable in the summer time. It has a diminutive polka-dot on a dark background.

The other stylishly-clad young modern is wearing a white crepe spectator sports dress with the voguish dark note interpreted via a vestee with a wide sailor collar and matching cuffs of starched brown dotted swiss. Her footwear tunes in with the color scheme in that the "nifty" white kid spectator sport pumps which she wears have brown kid tips and heels. Her white crepe hat is banded with brown.

In this dark-with-white movement it is also good style to wear a gay plaided gingham coat with one's white frock or if preferred a coat fashioned of cotton ratine in monotone navy or brown or any desired colors.

A pleasing effect is also achieved when the belt (it should be wide) gloves and bag are dark in contrast to the white of the rest of the costume.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

COTTONS APPEAR IN MANY DESIGNS

Medium pastels and white have greater consideration in the latest print showings of cottons and linens. Dark grounds, however, are more widely represented than last year, since they afford the most effective background to the very colorful designs that have gained in popularity.

Among prints the cleverest are coin spots and multicolored. The newest stripes have taken to blazer variations, and are particularly well regarded in seersuckers and piques for shirts and shorts. Plaids are wearable in multiple line variations, and have taken very strongly to multicolor. They appear in a wide variety of cottons, including sports weaves and sheers.

Candlewick Muslin Frocks Latest Thing in Fashions

Candlestick muslin evening frocks seem to be the last whisper in summer fashions. And for country or resort wear, they are impudently casual and completely effective.

Most of them come in the regulation unbleached muslin, with tufts of colored yarn in the good old candlewick fashion.

And to cap the climax, there's a candlewick "fur" coat-muslin with white tufting so thick that it looks at least a little like ermine, or something.

Supple Taffeta Popular in Variety of Designs

The vogue of taffeta is increasing daily. The old-fashioned stiff taffeta has disappeared, and the new fabrics are extremely supple and are used either for dresses or costumes.

Little tailleurs or one-piece dresses with a basque effect in front are the favorite theme for this material.

Worth sponsors taffeta costumes and ensembles not only in plain materials but in fancy designs. One of his most successful models is in black-and-white-checked taffeta with discreet gold lame threads.

Fig Leaf Is in Style

More and more are we getting back to nature in our clothes. Diamond fig leaves now trim our best coiffured hair, and carved in ivory or jade, fasten our Sunday-best pocketbook.

SMART CROCHET

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Here is a winner when it comes to a collar and bib effect of cotton crochet. It is the sort you will be wanting to duplicate the moment you see it. It is easy to make and it will bring your navy or black summer sheer gown up into the very foreground of fashion. Works miracles in freshening up most any dress. The collar and frilly bib pictured is made of soft mercerized yellow crochet cotton. The tiny buttons down the front are covered with cotton crochet. The gloves are good looking, too. With all the emphasis in sports fashions laid on knitted and crochet articles, this pair of gauntlet gloves knitted of chardonnet yarn becomes indispensable.

SHOW INCREASE IN LIFE'S SPAN

Five-Year Gain Announced by Statisticians.

You can dodge death. But you can't avoid it. Medical science has ferreted out the causes and provided treatments for most of the ailments that used to carry off children during the first ten years of life— diphtheria, infantile diarrhea, tuberculosis. And more and more of the diseases of adult life are being tracked down.

But die you must: and if you manage to get out of the path of tuberculosis, an automobile may prepare you for permanent interment. (Automobile accidents, incidentally, rank tenth in the causes of death.) Life is as precarious as ever it was.

Statisticians can figure what your chances of living are. Two mathematicians of a large insurance company, Drs. Louis I. Dublin and Alfred J. Lotka, have gotten up tables showing how long you may reasonably expect to continue inhabiting this world, and since you have managed to hold out this long, what ills will probably account for you. Here's what they've found:

A boy born today may expect to live 59 years. In one decade his lifespan has been increased five years. His brother born in 1924 may expect to live only to the age of fifty-four. A girl born today will live to be sixty-three. Her sister born ten years ago has six years less of life expectancy.

What will you die of? The chances are greatest that heart disease will account for your demise. Heart disease is today the leading cause of death. It is interesting to note that the ills of old age—heart trouble, cancer, accidental falls, diabetes—have increased as causes of death during the last few decades.

There are several reasons for this. First, medical sleuths have not been so proficient in catching the diseases of old age; second, the population as a whole is growing older, with an ever-increasing proportion of aged people; third, as the causes of death are overcome, the remaining ones take an increasingly large toll.—Scientific Progress.

Uncle's Part of It

Nephew—It cost me a great effort of will to come to you today!

Uncle—And what is it going to cost me?

MOVE TO CHECK OVERPLAYING OF INSANITY PLEAS

The American people have long been convinced that the insanity plea in criminal courts is decidedly overworked. It is gratifying and not a little surprising, therefore, says the St. Paul Dispatch, to learn that the psychiatrists, whose science has contributed most to the furthering of the insanity plea, are now making an attempt to close this loophole in the law.

At a recent annual meeting of the American Psychiatric association in New York a committee report was read advocating radical reforms in legal and penal procedure in capital cases in which a plea of insanity had been entered by the defendant. It was recommended that "the judge shall eliminate all evidence of the mental condition of the defendant except such evidence as makes the mental disease so obvious a lay jury can understand it." Time and again juries have been mystified by the clinical subterfuges and technicalities of insanity pleas in criminal trials. On too many occasions the twelve good men and true have been overwhelmed by psychological folderol and have permitted justice to be cheated.

To the ordinary run of citizens who make up jury panels there are mentally only two kinds of people, the normal and the crazy. The various grades and degrees of mental and nervous disorders which is the psychiatrist's field he comprehends not at all. When an insanity plea is entered the jury merely wants to know whether the accused is or is not responsible for his acts. Keeping such evidence in an understandable form will help the juries and put a limit on the abuse of insanity pleas.

Island Made by Beavers

The floating island in Crescent lake, Yellowstone National park, that has long been a puzzle to scientists is believed to be made up of rushes and beaver cuttings that have been bound together over a period of years by plant growth. This explanation offered itself when park rangers noticed that the lake's present beaver inhabitants were piling the surface of the island with new cuttings with the apparent intention of erecting a gigantic new home there. The animals appear to be doing their best to anchor the island solidly to the floor of the lake, but so far their efforts have not met with success.

Question Appeared to Verge on the Personal

A harassed-looking man entered a gramophone shop and inquired for some modern light music, preferably dance records.

"Very well, sir," said the assistant. "I understand perfectly. By the way, didn't you buy some records of operatic music here last week?"

"That's right," said the customer, miserably; "but my wife doesn't care for them. She wants something really snappy."

The assistant took down a number from the shelves.

"Have you had 'Seven Years With the Wrong Woman'?" he asked, naming a popular piece of music.

"No, twelve!" snapped the customer. "But, anyway, what the blazes has that got to do with you?"—London Answers.

Sarcastic

"I say, waiter, take away this egg and wring its neck. I'd rather have it broiled!"

THE EASY WAY TO IRON!

KEEP COOL
SAVE TIME
SAVE WORK
SAVE MONEY
with the

Coleman SELF-HEATING Iron

THIS Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100.00 washing machine! It will save your strength . . . help you do better ironing easier and quicker at less cost.

Instant Lighting . . . no heating with matches or torch . . . no waiting. The evenly-heated double pointed base irons garments with fewer strokes. Large glass-smooth base slides easier. Ironing time is reduced one-third. Heats itself . . . use it anywhere. Economical, too . . . costs only 1½ an hour to operate. See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP AND STOVE CO.
Dept. W1008, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Cuticura Talcum Powder

Protect your skin with a powder that is mildly antiseptic and at the same time fine, soft and smooth as silk. Fragrant, oriental balsamic essential oils comprise the medication of Cuticura Talcum. Instantly upon touching the skin these oils start their soothing, healing work and you are protected against irritation.

Price 25c.
Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES . . . the doctor blocks his plans

MANY PEOPLE, of course, can safely drink coffee. But there are thousands and thousands of others who cannot. And you may be one of these ... without realizing it!

The caffein in coffee may be working night and day to rob you of sleep, undermine your nervous system, or upset your digestion.

If, for any reason, you suspect that coffee disagrees with you ... why don't you try POSTUM for 30 days? It is a delicious drink, and may be a real help. There is nothing in POSTUM that can possibly harm you. It costs less than half a cent a cup—and it is very easy to make. A product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE! Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U. 8-6-34

Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address.
This offer expires July 1, 1935

AUGUST

L 919

U 339

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Artificial Ice for sale at all time at residence. John Coburn. 25t5.

Lost: 3-yr. old, black and tan, male dog, name Jack. Reward, Robert Cook, Spencerville 29t2.

Coburn's Corners

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm spent Sunday afternoon in the Garth Shull home.

The Abel reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder Sunday.

Sunday visitors in the Sylvester home were, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hensel of Fort Wayne.

Miss Madge Hart, of Miami, Florida and Elizabeth Hart called on Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mabel Billinghurst and son of Jackson, Mich., is here for a few visit with her parents, J. H. Sylvester and wife.

Miss Edith Sylvester, who is working at Hicksville, was home first of the week, with her parents, J. H. Sylvester and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place and Dale Hart and daughter, Martha, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Eva Shull and daughter, Doris of Garrett.

Uncle Joe Shull is getting quite young, he attended the circus at Fort Wayne Saturday, and Sunday went to Lake James. He said fishing wasn't very good but he had the fun of it.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zollar and son Victor and Bobby of Wayne, W. E. Baxter and wife of Butler, Mrs. Lavon Murphy and son Claude of Hicksville, were Sunday guests of C. E. Mason and family.

Mrs. John Cook and two daughters, of Detroit, Mich., spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lake, while Mr. and Mrs. Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hart and son, LaVon attended the Century of Progress.

NEWVILLE

V. J. Thomas, of Garrett, visited relatives here Monday evening.

Mrs. Harvey Harter was under the care of a physician last week.

The Reasoner reunion will be be held at Eckhart Park August 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Nelson were Sunday dinner guests in the H. T. Smith home.

The Traxler reunion will be held at the Montpelier, Ohio fair grounds, August 5.

Frank Bradley is here from Stroh, Ind., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Saturday in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Martha Stanley was here last week from Buffalo, N. Y., visiting the Nicholls families.

There will be an ice cream social at the Newville U. B. Church, Thursday evening, August 2.

A. R. Smith, of Hicksville, called on friends here Saturday. He was enroute to the Lake of the Woods.

The Newville School reunion will be held at the school house Wednesday, August 8. Basket dinner and afternoon program. Come.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore attended the funeral of Rev. G. H. Trinkle, at Deedsville, Ind., Saturday. Enroute home they called on friends at Peru and Warsaw.

ICE

Natural and Artificial at ALL TIMES

HURNI STORE

Free RUBBER RINGS for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make... free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl... a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. BOX 728

27t14

Mrs. Venus Rex filed suit for divorce from Paul Rex July 25. She asks for $500 alimony and the restoration of her maiden name, Venus Shultz. Her attorneys are Atkinson & Husselman.

Home Coming will be observed at the Newville Christian Church August 5. There will be union Sunday School, morning and afternoon services and basket dinner in the church basement.

The third reunion of all those who attended Cherry Valley School, formerly known as the Joslin School, but lately as the Lyons School, will be held Tuesday, August 7. There will be basket dinner and an afternoon program.

Come to the Newville Rural Free Chautauqua August 12 to 19 at the U. B. Church. Union Sunday School the first Sunday, all day services and basket dinner in church basement both Sundays, evening programs during the week.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Mary Newcombe is visiting friends in Fort Wayne this week.

Mrs. Edna Wyans is spending a few days this week with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubur Butler and Merritt Butler spent several days here last week.

Miss Irene Webb, of Auburn, is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford VanZile, of California, were Sunday night guests at the Ray Baker home.

The Home Missionary Society will meet on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Golden High.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Bowser and sons were Monday guests at the Rufus Boots home west of town.

Walter Baker and family were week-end guests of the Virgil Perry home at Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mrs. Hutson, of Hurshtown, spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Delbert Furnish, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner spent several days last week with their son, C. R Baumgartner, and wife.

Joseph Speaks, of Virginia, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Wilson Hensley, and family a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and son Robert and Miss Irene Webb attended the Boger reunion Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schlatter, of California, were Monday dinner guests at the Roy Chaney home.

Little Billy Furnish spent last week the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hutson near Hurshtown.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Allen and family enjoyed ice cream at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shockley and family recently.

Miss Eva May Culbertson and Master Donald Culbertson are visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry at Huntertown.

Mrs. Daniel Houk, of west of Spencerville is quite poorly, but with the change in the temperature, she is feeling improved.

Mrs. Minnie Tyndall left Saturday evening for a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. Ella Fisher and family at Pleasant Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Furnish and family spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson of near Hurshtown.

The Home Bureau will entertain their families on Wednesday evening, August 6, at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Dean at an ice cream party.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schlatter, of California, were Sunday night guests of Dr. and Mrs. B. O. Shook and Monday guests at the Vol Hay home.

The Y. P. of Spencerville Lutheran Church will have another Ice Cream Social, Sat. eve, Aug. 4, on lawn north of the Bank. Come and give them your patronage. 29t1.

Mr. and Mrs. Urcel Steward, of Butler, were Sunday guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Hasel Steward. They also visited in the Mrs. Cora Steward home in the afternoon.

M. E. Church announcements: Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock, Lynn Fisher, Supt. Preaching every Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock, (Standard Time.) Rev. Newcombe, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arnold and family near Fort Wayne. Miss Edith Culbertson, who had been visiting in this same home, returned with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford VanZile, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean and daughter, Eck Hursh, wife and daughter, Helen, and Virgil Koch, spent Sunday at the Alonzo VanZile home, two miles south of Hamilton, Ind.

M. E. Sunday School attendance for July 29 was 51, collection $1.-97; Lutheran attendance 66, collection $3.06.

Miss Isabelle Chapman went to Fort Wayne Sunday evening to visit Rev. and Mrs. Howard Brown. They all left Monday morning for Epworth Forrest at Webster Lake to attend the Epworth League Institute of the M. E. Churches in session at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bair and son, Fred and Russell O'Hara, of Findlay, Ohio, Rev. W. Lindstrom and wife and Mrs. Ella Fisher, of Pleasant Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and daughters, of Defiance, were among those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Butler on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brattian and family, Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay, Mr. and Mrs. Tressie Smith and family and Viola Kimes attended the Hay-Geisinger family reunion held at Eckhart Park, Auburn, Sunday. The new officers are, president, Curt Babits, of Garrett; secretary-treasurer, Miss Babits, of Fort Wayne.

Obituary

CULBERTSON

Mrs. Jenettie Herrick Culbertson was born July 15, 1866 in Concord Towship, Indiana, and departed this life on July 25, 1934, at the age of 68 years and 10 days.

On October 5, 1882 she was married to Abram Culbertson, who preceded her in death. To this union was born one daughter, Mable. When a young girl she joined the Concord Methodist Protestant Church and remained faithful to the end.

Those who remain to mourn their loss are her daughter, Mrs. Mable Baker, of St. Joe; two grandchildren; one great grandchild; four brothers, Daniel, of Auburn; Orange, of St Joe; Charlie, of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and Melvin, of Fremont, Ind., and many relatives and friends.

The funeral was held from the Concord Church Friday afternoon with burial at Auburn Mosleum, Rev. V. O. Harrold, officiating. Roscoe Walter, funeral director.

Mrs. Culbertson died suddenly at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of a heart attack while seated in front of the hotel at Cold Springs, Hamilton Lake, having gone there to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. George Baker, and had only just arrived when the end came suddenly.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their sympathy extended in the sudden death of our mother, and for the assistance in our home, and kindness represented by the floral offerings.

George Baker, Wife,
And Children,
The Brothers.

Local Briefs

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Films and developing handled at The News office.

Bert Wiler, of Waterloo, spent thee first of the week here with his sister, Lucile Wiler.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ridgway and three children spent Sunday at South Bend, Hobart, Gary and Valparaiso, as guests of relatives. They made the trip in a new Chevrolet, as a trial drive, and Floyd reports a very successful trip, both in gas consumption and pleasure.

Louis Wasson, who was working at Bucyrus, Ohio, with the Ohio Power Co., is reported out of the hospital today at Crestline, O., where he was treated for injuries. Mrs. Wasson and children will leave Friday for Forrest, where she will join her husband at the home of her parents.

The extreme hot weather of the past two weeks has served to further decrease Indiana's estimated honey yield, already far under normal, it was reported by James E. Starkey, chief apiary inspector for the Division of Entomology, Department of Conservation. Areas in which sweet clover has been the chief source of supply for bees this year, report that the abnormal heat and drought has almost eliminated that plant from the food source for bees. The southeastern area reports prospects for an increased yield of blue vine honey which is prized by many users as superior to the clover honey.

Mrs. C. H. Sailer and Mrs. Don Keller are numbered among the sick.

Mrs. Abe Mason, of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Chandler and Mrs. Olive Frye and daughter Virginia, were over Saturday night guests of the Ridgway families.

Mrs. Glen Wineland and son, Walter Ervin, and Charles Thornton, left Saturday morning for Washington, D. C., for a visit with Mrs. Mabelle Thornton and daughter, Geraldine.

The Methodist Sunday School voted in the Workers Conference Sunday, to change its hour of service to 10:00 o'clock, D. S. T., in order to give more of it's members an opportunity to attend.

Frank Curie is president and Lucille Curie, secretary of the 4th annual Curie family reunion which will be held at the home of the president on Sunday, August 19. Basket dinner at the noon hour.

The 44th annual reunion of the Sechler family will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sechler, north-east of Butler on Sunday, August 12. Leon Sechler is president and Lucille Curie, secretary.

L. M. Condrey arrived home from Chicago Saturday morning, feeling jubilant because he finally landed a job with Montgomery Ward & Co., in the engineering and draftin gdepartment. He took his wife back with him Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Hilda Koch Turnbull, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived Saturday to be a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Koch, and her two sons, Jimmy and Jack Turnbull. While here she will visit the Fair at Chicago, leaving the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Loftus and daughter and Mrs. Josephine Johnson, of Waterloo spent Sunday in the Frank Steffey home at Mongo, Ind. They report crops hard hit in that section and especially the melon crop, the one most depended upon by many in that section.

The DeKalb County Allottment board received checks Saturday covering the early payment corn and hog contracts. These will be delivered at an early date. The board received the commendation of A. G. Black, head of the corn-hog section, Washington, D. C., as being among the first to receive checks in the United States.

Who abuses himself gains a lot—but it's in the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ridgway and daughter, Jean, were Sunday guests of the Grover Curie family at eKndallville. Kathryn Bell and Helen Fay Curie returned with them for the week.

Stabilization of gravel-surfaced roads in the state system is being carried on extensively in Indiana this year several miles of such roads being treated in each of the highway districts. This method is an economical treatment which results in a smooth, dustless, semi-permanent surface.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham entertained on Friday evening, July 27th, a few friends in honor of Mrs. Cunningham's birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hasch, Mr. and Mrs. John Beltz, Jr., of Hicksville, and Inez Kinsey and H. L. Graham, of St. Joe. Home made ice cream and cake were served.

Gloria, Marilyn and Christine Zonker, Eunice Shilling, Beverly Wade, Richard Shilling and Ellen and Melvin Zimmerman will appear in a public dramatic recital given by Mrs. Darla Fusselman's pupils in the Hicksville Community building on Tuesday evening, August 10 at 8:15 o'clock. No admission charged. A welcome is extended to all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox and little son, John Mutchler, called on friends in St. Joe Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Belle Barney, of Hicksville was a guest in the J. P. Buckingham home Sunday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Roy Reidenbach, Mrs. Chas. Collins, Mrs. Wm. Curie and Mrs. Harry Hursh were Fort Wayne shoppers, Tuesday.

The date of the Defiance county fair held at Hicksville has been set forward, August 21-22-23-24-25. See ad elsewhere in this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cochran returned Friday evening from Chesterton, Ind., where they spent the past few months with Mrs. C. E. Fifield.

Mrs. Nettie Warford, of Auburn, spent last week in the Frank May home. Mrs. May and daughter, Violet, and their guest spent Saturday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. Foraker Ferrel and Mrs. Maude McQuistion, of Butler, Pa., are spending their vacation with the Frank Tustison family, having arrived here Wednesday night.

Mrs. F. L. DeLauder, of Durand, Mich., and Mrs. Carrie Williams were in town Saturday morning on business and visiting relatives. They also visited relatives at Auburn and Hicksville.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC CO.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

You would not smilingly submit to having your dinner snatched away without protest, yet strangely enough, some people actually applaud the efforts of legislators to impose added tax burdens on public utilities. Such persons do not realize that the utility's only source of revenue is from users of our service. More and more uses for electricity are being discovered and applied. The more it is used the greater the savings we can return to our customers provided that taxes do not eat up the savings.

This company has for many years supplied you with electricity at rates which have been constantly reduced. These reductions, made possible by economies and increased use of current, have brought down the average cost of household electricity to our customers, over 30% since 1927.

The possibility of future return of savings to you in the form of reduced rates is becoming extremely doubtful because the oppressive burden of taxation imposed upon us absorbs more than can be saved.

H. T. Eversole
Vice President & General Manager

Taxation . . . IS TAKING YOUR SHARE OF RATE SAVINGS

IN 1933, WE PAID FEDERAL, STATE AND MUNICIPAL TAXES IN THE AMOUNT OF $758,714.

AUGUST

L 919

340

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

P. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

PUBLIC SERVANTS NOW MASTERS

John W. Davis, the distinguished lawyer who was Democratic candidate for President in 1924, recently gave an excellent example of the plight of the taxpayer when it comes to fighting the growth of bureaucracy. There is at the latest estimate, some 644,000 federal employes, whose salaries are paid through taxation. Yet, as Mr. Davis pointed out, no person in the country has ever had an opportunity to vote for more than five of these. The only national officials whose names reach a ballot are the president, the vice president, two senators and one representative and this list, so far as practical considerations are concerned, could be reduced to four, inasmuch as the vice president's name is coupled with the president's, and he wins or loses in company with his chief.

The hundreds of thousands of civil servants who came to the positions they hold without the expressed wish of the electorate, do much to determine our destinies. They are instrumental in making laws, in prohibiting rights, in raising taxes. The same thing is true, to a somewhat lesser degree, in other units of government beside the federal. The nation is today staggering under a vastly expensive army of bureaucrats which it never asked for.

It is of course impossible to vote for every government worker. But our elected officials owe the public a serious responsibility—the responsibility of seeing that bureaucracy is kept to an absolute minimum. They owe it to those who send them to office to keep government efficient and economical—hold strictly to the business of governing, and not to venture into fields that are properly the province of the private citizen.

That ideal of public service, followed by elective officers of all kinds, would go far toward solving the tax problem—a problem that is engaging every far-sighted and thinking mind today.

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

(Continued from Page One)

Frank H. Hubbard, Court Room expense, $5.25
Wm. Stonebraker, Court House Emp. salary, $125.00
J. H. Walter, Do., $75.00
O. J. Burnier, Do., $43.55
Ella Johnson, Do., $25.00
Auburn Hardware, Court House expense, $1.09
Culbertson Hdwe. Co., Do., $5.40
Wm. Mutzfeld & Sons, Do., $14.85
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $40.60
Alpha Chemical Co. Inc., Do., $10.11
Fisher Bros. Paper Co., Do., $11.62
Sanco Prod. Co., Inc., Do., $28.10
John P. Hoff, Prisoner's board, $86.20
John P. Hoff, Prisoner's washing, $10.00
Auburn Hardware, Jail ex., $5.85
Northern Ind. Fuel & Light Co., Do., $18.90
Lige Heating & Ventilating Co., Do., $8.93
Ashton Staman, Do., $2.88
Sam C. Morr, Co. Farm Emp. salary, $83.33
Hilda Hell, Do., $20.83
Nora Rogers, Do., $20.83
Audrey Berryhill, Do., $30.00
Lena Workman, Co. Farm Expense, $2.50
Auburn Auto Top Co., Do., $11.00
Robert Bailey, Do., $14.00
Stanley Baker, Do., $15.60
Mrs. Jesse Cramer, Do., $6.00
Mike Lumm, Do, $200.06
Farm Bureau Mills, Do., $2.55
Culbertson Hdwe. Co., Do., $7.44
George Merryfield, Do., $4.60
Wimer Sales Co., Do., $2.45
Sacred Heart Hospital, Do., $56.60
John R. Clark, Do., $126.00

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Auburn Water & Light, Do., $21.44
Indiana Reformatory, Do., $24.66
Standard Oil Co., Do., $24.56
Ten Eyck & Son., Do., $2.50
E. A. Baker, Do., $69.53
The McBride Co., Do., $13.34
Ashton Staman, Do., $4.73
Henderson & Beerbower, Do. $1.78
Lige Ventilating & Heating Co., Do., $2.00
Garrett Clipper, Do., $8.74
H. C. Hoodelmier, Do., $10.80
Heinlen's Dept. Store, Do., $18.45
Arthur Grube, Comm. Ex., $11.94
Chas. G. Potter, Do., $12.54
Cleve H. Grube, Do., $12.42
Will Franks, Bd. of Review salary, $123.76
Charles Dohner, Do., $33.08
Charles Dohner, Bd. of Review expense, $20.00
T. E. Myers, 4-H Club Work, $350
Butler Record Herald, Public printing, $10.35
Waterloo Press, Do., $37.90
Garrett Clipper, Do., $37.90
Trustees David Rogers Home, Orphan Poor in Other Inst., $112.50
Children's Aid Society of Ind., Do., $447.50
White's Ind. Manual Labor Inst., Do., $498.15
Auditor of Noble Co., Change of Venue, $8.00
Kenneth D. Smith, Ditch repair, $13.50
Thelma Grosh, Do., $1.00
Ward Miller, Do., $2.40
Willis Daniels, Do., $1.20
William Goe, Do., $6.00
Monroe Bailey, Do., $7.20
Chas. DeWitt, Do., $16.80
O. B. Richmond, Do., $40.00
Earl Stiman, Do., $16.00
Fred Bleke, Do., $4.50
Joseph Wappes, Do., $4.00
Ward Bailey, Do., $11.70
John Edwards, Do., $48.60
Noah Williams, Do., $5.40
O. G. Baker, Do., $6.00
James DeWitt, Do., $16.80
Roscoe Kepler, Do., $12.60
DeKalb Farm Bureau Corp., Do., $109.48
S. O. DeVitt, Do., $10.80
Irene Byron Sanatorium, Irene Byron expense, $380.38
Knapp Abstract Co., Co. Owned Farm expense, $15.50
Gust Glawe, Do., $9.00
C. C. Kain, Gravel Road Repair, $178.30
Bruce Shanton, Do., $88.20
Theodore Hoffmeyer, Do., $14.10
Hertial Pressler, Do., $15.90
Harve Zonker, Do., $24.30
Paul Zonker, Do., $24.30
Fred Hewitt, Do., $2.40
Avery Stahl, Do., $7.20
Frank Hidy, Do., $16.20
Marlo Pressler, Do., $10.80
Clyde Willhelm, Do., $10.80
Cecil Morse, Do., $10.80
Purd High, Do., $13.65
Paul High, Do., $4.50
Jay Sutherland, Do., $18.50
Elmer Case, Do., $2.90
C. P. Martin, Do., $37.50
Arnol Burch, Do., $47.10
Roy Burtch, Do., $7.20
Earl Schlotterbach, Do., $4.80
Henry Carpenter, Do., $8.40
John Chittenden, Do., $3.00
A. T. Ober, Do., $27.00
Russel Shenk, Do., $25.35
J. P. Grimm, Do., $19.50
Loyd Tarlton, Do., $18.45
Clarence Houser, Do., $19.85
John Tarlton, Do., $7.20
C. C. Miller, Do., $4.45
Lige Weaver, Do., $36.00
E. H. Barley, Do., $87.50
Wash Pickard, Do., $19.20
E. R. Burnison, Do., $3.00
Walter Cook, Do., $7.80
Jay Bunge, Do., $88.70
Andy Love, Do., $50.70
Edward Crowel, Do., $12.00
Joe Rogers, Do., $21.60
James Crooks, Do., $24.00
Chas. Zirkle, Do., $45.60
James Zirkle, Do., $37.35
Chas Kohl, Do., $50.40
Simeon Drew, Do., $16.80
Emery Martin, Do., $32.40
Sherley Freed, Do., $25.05
Lester Rempis, Do., $30.90
Simon Kohl, Do., $21.60
Curtis Bookmiller, Do., $19.50
Noah Cline, Do., $26.40
Frank Blomeke, Do., $13.00
Winfred Bowers, Do., $13.00
John Walker, Do., $5.20
Elmer Newcomer, Do., $31.20
Ben Link, Do., $27.85
Fred Reinig, Do., $37.45
Geo. Headley, Do., $13.05
Chas. Hodges, Do., $4.60
Wayne Durst, Do., $15.40
Harold Freed, Do., $11.20
J. C. Day, Do., $2.35
Harpster Hdwe., Do., $1.25
Noah Craig, Do., $2.40
Harold Hammon, Do., $2.40
Noel Wolford, Do., $2.40
Carl Voss, Do., $2.40
Waldo Smith, Do., $2.40
Don Frazier, Do., $2.40
Abe Ball, Do., $2.40
Wm. Polston, Do., $2.40
Andrew Duncan, Do., $27.30
Wm. Keeler, Do., $89.73
Milt Spitler, Do., $12.88
J. E. Cline, Do., $2.60
Ross Bishop, Do., $6.83
Earl Lyon, Do., $7.50
Fred Elson, Do., $5.20
Sam Mumaw, Do., $19.50
Virgil Bassett, Do., $1.30
Vern Coburn, Do., $24.00
Harry Shuff, Do., $25.50
Frank Curie, Do, $6.00
Clayton Keeler, Do., $4.80
Geo. Tustison, Do., $2.40
Cecil Shilling, Do., $2.40
Hollis Akins, Do., $2.40
Harp Leighty, Do., $20.70
Joe Bice, Do., $2.40

Special Contests, Exhibits Feature Fair Farm Week

Henry Ford's Industrialized Barn, shown here, a new exhibit at the Chicago World's Fair this year, demonstrates how farmers can effect their own relief by raising and processing soy beans. Left inset: John C. Dameron, Weston, Ill., whose hog-calling championship will be a mark for farmers to shoot at during Farm Week at the Fair, Aug. 11 to 18. Right inset: Mrs. Nick Owenga, Blue Island, Ill., last year's husband-calling champion, whose title is also at stake. The milkmaid's championship and other similar titles will also be contested.

Wm. Allen, Do., $2.40
Chas. Kimes, Do., $2.40
Wm. Leach, Do., $2.40
Dell Funk, Do., $2.40
Bowser & Reed, Do., $2.20
Wm. Henley, Do., $6.00
Roy Koch, Do., $4.80
Elmer Johns, Do., $88.46
Jerome Mills & Helper, Do., $16.80
Burl Moughler, Do., $2.85
Sherm Ginder, Do., $2.40
Wm. McCann, Do., $43.20
Lester Yates, Do., $11.10
Henry Winebrenner, Do., $9.90
Frank Silberg, Do., $5.00
Chas. Frick, Do., $7.20
Floyd Hollinger, Do., $9.00
John Jones, Do., $7.20
Ira Slentz, Do., $12.00
Phillip Brown, Do., $11.70
Remis Brown, Do., $11.70
Tom Perry, Do., $9.00
Wayne Houser, Do., $6.00
Lester Copeland, Do., $3.00
Fred Healy, Do., $7.45
Harold Carpenter, Do., $1.95
Clyde Gaff, Do., $1.95
Geo. Hull, Do., $2.60
John Smith, Do., $3.25
Roscoe Kepler, Do., $9.00
Lloyd McClellan, Do., $16.70
Basil Krotz & Helper, Do., $10.80
Geo. Campbell, Do., $13.20
Ted Cluster, Do., $4.80
Scott Evans, Do., $3.30
Russell Houser, Do., $4.55
Rile Carpenter, Do., $9.13
Loren Slater, Do., $7.20
Lawrence Snyder & Helper, Do., $32.40
John Schrader, Do., $4.50
Chas. Hiner, Do., 90 cents
Mack Keller, Do., $3.67
C. C. Janke, Do., $2.60
Bracy West, Do., 80 cents
Mutzfeld & Sons, Do., $15.69
Mrs. N. O. Griffin, Do., $2.50
C. D. VanZile, Do., $80.00
M. K. Baldwin, Do., $87.50
Fred Rosenberry, Do., $87.50
Jack Johnson, Do., $87.50
Mack Hatch, Do., $80.00
Wm. Rugman, Do., $80.00
Lester Casselman, Do., $56.00
A. J. Wilson, Do., $54.95
Christ Burns, Do., $36.00
James DeWitt, Do., $7.20
Chas. DeWitt, Do., $12.00
Forrest Beaty, Do., $38.40
C. O. Baker, Do., $36.00
Frank Bowman, Do., $52.80
Harry Tomlinson, Do., $33.60
Arnold Link, Do., $9.60
Dale Kreischer, Do., $32.40
Walter Leasure, Do., $14.40
Lloyd Beckbarger, Do., $10.50
Wm. Burns, Do., $46.80
Harry Wright, Do., $31.20
Orvil Summers, Do., $33.60
Dean Miles, Do., $12.00
Wm. Graham, Do., $16.80
Wm. Kessler, Do., $18.00
Jas. Kanaley, Do., $9.60
Alvy Wyatt, Do., $9.60
Howard Daub, Do., $4.80
Richard Clink, Do., $4.80
Roy Raughbaugh, Do., $7.20
John Ball, Do., $4.80
Mitchel Salyers, Do., $7.20
Frank Fulk, Do., $4.80
Earl Webb, Do., $7.20
Wm. King, Do., $47.40
Sherman Enzor, Do., $31.20
Cecil Likes, Do., $16.50
Tom Perry, Do., $16.50
Walter Kronts, Do., $6.00
Eugene DeLucenay, Do., $10.50
Paul Heckathorn, Do., $29.40
Chas. Wilcox, Do., $5.40
Harry C. Knox, Do., $16.80
Jesse Bennett, Do., $12.35
C. F. Derrow, Do., $13.00
John Edwards, Do., $5.00
Walter Cook, Do., $7.80
Ralph Duesler, Do., $7.50
Basil Kronts, Do., $18.15
Jacob Rosenberry, Do., $93.00
Chas. Wilson, Do., $67.28
John Reever, Do., $88.15
Day & Son, Do., $68.60
Auburn Sand & Gravel Co., Do., $28.25
Russell S Hoffer, Do., $300.00
C. R. Harmon, Do., $83.58
Stonestreet & Hogue, Do., $50.00
William Goe. Do., $2.40
Willis Daniels, Do., $1.20
Lawrence Barnhart, Do., $1.20
Thelma L. Grosh, Do., $6.00
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $5.96
H. C. Hoodelmier, Do., 35 cents
Indiana Bell Tele. Co., Do., $7.40
W. K. Schaab, Do., $40.00
Grogg Radiator Rpr. Shop, Do., $1.25
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Do., $39.51
Culbertson Hdwe. Co., Do., $23.96
DeKalb Co. Farm Bureau Corp. Do., $25.44
Vern Bachtel, Do., $470.02
R. L. Holben Auto Co., Do., $5.56
Wilson Tire Shop, Do., $4.05
Cockrell Tractor Co., Do., $23.78
Frank Shoudell, Do., $14.95
Gillett Auto Service, Do., $1.74
Electric Welding Works, Do., $18.45
Auburn Machine Works, Do., $18.55
Frank Darling, Do., $14.50
Rohm Chevrolet Inc., Do., $1.00
Hoosier Truck Parts Co., Do., $1.88
Goodall Lumber Co., Do., $83.42
Ft. Wayne Sanitary Wipers Co., Do., $19.24
Korte Bros. Inc., Do., $9.03
Allied Piston Ring Co., Do., $15.53
Wayne Cylinder Grinding Co., Do., $38.44
Wayne Welding & Supply Co., Do., $18.75
Standard Oil Co., Do., $857.21

COURT ALLOWANCES a

Messenger Corporation, Court Reporters supplies, $19.00
Herrick's Restaurant, Meals for Jurors, $5.20

BANKERS ADVISE ADVERTISING

Merchants are Invited to Read the Following from the American Bankers' Magazine

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned every week.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertiser.

"The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and his town. The man who insists on sharing of business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live wide-awake, and liberal advertising business men."

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Rosslawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

POSTAL MONEY ORDER FEE ADDED

Charge to be Doubled if Order is Transferred from Office on Which it is Drawn

Unless postal money orders are cashed at the office on which they are drawn, the government henceforth will charge an extra fee for them.

The fee will be equal to that paid when the order was issued. For instance: A money order for $12.00 is issued at Washington and drawn on the Chicago office. If it is forwarded from Chicago to Kansas City, the person cashing the order at Kansas City will have to pay 13 cents. If cashed in Chicago there will be no fee charged.

PURELY PERSONAL

Ethelmae Freeburn was in town Tuesday for the day.

Carl Carpenter has developed a case of typhoid fever, but today he is reported as better. Last week he went to his doctor but he was unable to make the drive.

Wittenberg Brotherhood will be entertained at Jerusalem church, 4 miles north of Butler, August 8, Frank Nichols of Auburn speaks on the autobiography of a nut.

Wayne Ordway and wife are at the Chas. Bishop home assisting with the farm work. Mr. Bishop injured his arm several weeks ago, and it gives him considerable trouble.

Workmen will probably start this week on road one, by the Butler contractors. A distance of 15 miles was sold at a cost of near $30,000. The improvement of this road to Steuben county line will be of value to this section of the state.

Transfers of real estate in St. Joe of recent date are as follows: Mayola Kinsey to Chas F. Kinsey, lot 3, block 4, O. P., $600; Chas. F. and Sophia Kinsey to Mayola Kinsey, same description, $1; Sherman Rickett to Anna Rickett, lots 8 and 9, Curie's add., $1.

Manufacture of thousands of cotton mattresses for distribution to needy families in Indiana will be started in 13 relief centers next month, the state relief commission announced. Factories, which will be operated by men and women on relief lists, will be located in Gary, East Chicago, Hammond, South Bend, Fort Wayne, Kokomo, Terre Haute, Evansville, New Albany, Vincennes, Lafayette, Richmond and Indianapolis. Much opposition is being manifest due to private factories are without orders and unable to run, and if the idea is for relief, it is believed that the work should be done in plants already established and there use this relief labor.

FRESH FOOT PRINTS

Knowledge is power—keep posted.

Each day a child spends in school, according to Government statistics, is worth nine dollars to the child because of the added earning power it brings.

Bread is much cheaper in foreign countries than in the United States. In many countries, even after the wheat or flour has been imported, the bread sells much cheaper than in this country. In England a farmer can sell two pounds of wheat for enough to buy one pound of bread.

188 banks quit the Federal Deposit Fund on July first, making a total number of 1,500 in the United States operating without the Federal deposit insurance.

A recent survey by the Department of Commerce shows that 75% of our city homes have either bathtubs or showers.

Five-year-old Shirley Temple, baby movie star, has a new movie contract with the Fox Film Corp. which pays her $1,250 per week. This makes her salary considerable better than that of President Roosevelt.

Most automobile owners exaggerate the number of miles obtained from a gallon of gasoline. Very few automobiles will actually average more than fifteen miles per gallon of gas.

John Dillinger came to an end typical of all gangsters—broke and an untimely death.

The United States Post Office Department is showing a profit for the first time since 1919.

The average amount spent daily by each World's Fair visitor at Chicago this year has been figured to be exactly $1.19.

The Federal government has announced a $75,000,000 experiment in climate control. The plan is to plant 100 parallel strips of trees running from the Canadian border down through the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma to the Texas Panhandle. The experiment is intended to give this district a permanent cure of the drought.

After traveling some in the Middle-West and making considerable inquiry from reliable sources we find that the farm crops and gardens are practically a failure and that the prospects are that this winter will be a very hard one on both man and beast.

In the United States the life span is such that a woman is expected to live to age 62 and the men age 59.

The new post office in Washington, D. C., is the finest in the world. It is 100 per cent modern and complete, including shower baths for the clerks and carriers.

Information at hand shows both the major political parties lining up for battle this fall. At the present time neither party has conceded anything favorable to the other. Since either party is sure to practice "The Spoils System" it is not so much the general welfare of the country that gives the incentive for battle as it is the prospects of getting a political plum.

Mrs. Myrtle Lattimer, of Seneca, Kansas, is in jail charged with concealing the dead body of her mother for two years in order to continue to collect the mother's Civil War pension.

Added to the long list of strikes is the one at Benton, Illinois, of the county relief workers for a minimum of $55 for two weeks work.

The late Fatty Arbuckle, who formerly made $1,000 per day in the movies and who at one time owned the highest priced $(25,000) automobile in the world, left an estate of less than $400.

At Garfield, N. J., Conrad Davok fell over dead while trying to win a wager that he could drink ten 12-ounce glasses of beer in rapid succession. He passed away while attempting the eighth glass. The minister who preached the funeral undoubtedly found it difficult to console Mrs. Davok and the seven children.

William Storms, a 45-year-old disappointed New Jersey lover, shot his three horses, burned $2,400 in currency and the deed to his farm; then set fire to his barn.

Our printing deserves attention. Give us a chance to prove it.

AUGUST

L 919

J 341

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 8, 1934 — NUMBER 31

IN BUSINESS FOR FIFTY YEARS

J. C. Hull bears the distinction of being in business the longest of any other person in town. Fifty years ago August 1st., he started in the barber business in St. Joe with Joe Baker. With the exception of only a few months, those years were spent in St. Joe, and he continues to operate his shop daily.

He has been one of the loyal supporters of every good thing this community has ever sponsored, and continues to take an active part in its affairs still. He has passed thru the many trying times of the business man in the past, and still clings to the belief that things will again right themselves. If he can pull thru with a "close shave" he will not retrench.

TEACHERS INSTITUTE

The DeKalb County Teachers Institute will be held in the court house auditorium, August 28, 29 and 30, County Superintendent, Carl F. Stallman announces. Earl E. Harper, president of Evansville college, Evansville, and Professor Ross F. Lockridge of Indiana University, Bloomington, will speak on August 28; Dr. W. Henry McLean of Huntington, will appear on August 29 and Dr. William H. Beachler of Gratis, O., on August 30. The last day of the institute will be devoted almost entirely to organization talks and meetings.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

FRANK BOWMAN ON TAX ADJUSTMENT BOARD

Frank R. Bowman, of St. Joe, will again represent the county council on the county tax adjustment board, having been selected by the other members of the council.

The board includes seven members and six were recently appointed by Judge Endicott. They are S. O. Devitt of Wilmington township, John Zimmerman and Mayor Warren Lige of Auburn, Elmer D. Case of Fairfield township, and Dr. J. A. Clevenger and C. H. Heinzerling of Garrett.

The board will convene September 17 to review the budgets and levies of all the taxing units of the county. The officers of the units are now putting their finishing touches on their budgets and will give notice to the taxpayers by publication this month.

SUING STOCKHOLDERS OF LOCAL BANK

Six complaints against stockholders of the St. Joe Valley bank, based on their alleged liability under the law, were filed Saturday in the DeKalb circuit court.

The defendants, the amount of stock their names and the judgments asked against them follow:

Frank W. Silberg, 75 shares, $7,500.

John R. Leighty, 70 shares, $7,000.

John Wineland, 5 shares, $500.

Frank R. Bowman, 5 shares, $500.

Russel R. Reidenour, 5 shares, $500.

Ray Reasoner, 5 shares, $500.

The total of the demands is $16,500.

Frank M. Brandon, special representative of the state department of financial institutions, had the complaints prepared and filed by Attorney W. D. Stump.

The allegation in the complaints is that the liabilities exceed the assets of the bank by $21,075.83.

Leighty Orchard
—WE ARE NOW SELLING—
APPLES and VINEGAR
Our Vinegar also on Sale at ZONKER'S STORE, St. Joe; BOWSER & REED, Spencerville, and CITY MARKET, Auburn, Indiana.

START BOOSTING
FOR The
DEFIANCE COUNTY
FAIR
AUGUST 21-22-23-24-25
Grand Display of FIREVORKS on EACH EVENING
Plenty FREE ENTERTAINMENT
Saturday Fair
THREE NIGHTS: THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY
ADMISSION PRICES: Gate 25c. Grandstand 25c.
DAY and NIGHT.

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN O F REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

FREE TICKETS FOR DEFIANCE COUNTY FAIR

All school children of Concord Township, regardless of age, can secure free, an admission ticket for the Defiance county fair at Hicksville, on Wednesday, August 22, by calling at News office any time, and this also admits to the space allotted in grandstand. Don't forget to call at News office and ask for your ticket. Parents can arrange for this if they desire, but must call for them.

29t2.

MAXWELL—FICHLIE

A very pleasant wedding occurred Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock, when Miss Ruth Fichlie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Fichlie, of Covington, Ky., became the bride of Mr. Willard Maxwell, son of Mrs. Cora Mexwell of St. Joe.

The couple was accompanied to Hamilton Lake by the groom's mother and Mr. Dale Trostel, where they were married by Rev. J. N. Scholes, at his cottage. After three weeks' wedding tour through northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, they will go to house keeping in Cincinnati, where Mr. Maxwell is employed in the U. S. Postal Service.

The young people are highly respected and the best wishes of the community are extended to them.

FROM ABOUT ST. JOE

Bob Ridlen, of Auburn, spent a few days last week in the G. A. Kinsey home.

Inez Kinsey spent from Friday afternoon until Sunday at Blue Lake with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Philley, of Huntington, were guests of St. Joe relatives last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Guthrie and H. M. Guthrie attended the Bartholemew reunion at Colon, Mich., Sunday, returning Monday.

Mr. Monroe Foltz, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived Sunday for an indefinite visit in the J. P. Buckingham and J. E. Foltz homes.

This is reunion month and if you haven't had yours yet, you'll have to hurry. With the opening of school, we have no time for reunions.

Morris Woodcox spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Billy Woodcox, who is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox.

Socials were prevalent last week and among them, Concord seemed to draw its share of the crowds. Visitors for many miles around were there.

Mr. and Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey attended a birthday dinner Thursday evening at the Garrett Hotel, given in honor of Mrs. Kinsey's mother, Mrs. T. E. Moran.

Theo. Kline, 87, died Wednesday forenoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stephen Brown, 1½ miles west of St. Joe. Funeral services Friday at 2 o'clock at Spencerville Lutheran church.

Hazel Storer and Eloise Bowman, who have been working at Fort Wayne, are home for a rest before school starts. Beatrice Storer was also home over Sunday.

Mrs. Ora Baker and daughter, Violet, of Bluffton, were guests of relatives in this vicinity last week. Mr. Baker joined them here Saturday evening for over Sunday.

Juanita Gorrell, of Phoenix, Arizona, was an over Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kees. She came to the World's Fair and also visited relatives about Harlan last week.

Frank Curie is president and Lucille Curie, secretary of the 4th annual Curie family reunion which will be held at the home of the president on Sunday, August 26. Basket dinner at the noon hour.

Donald Green, wife and son, of Geneva, N. Y., formerly Pauline Wasson, after spending their week's vacation in this vicinity, left Friday afternoon for home, being in the Miles Oberlin home for dinner.

Mrs. Ralph McClellan and son, Philip, of Davenport, Iowa, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kees Thursday. They are spending a vacation at their lake cottage north of Goshen. Mr. McClellan is assistant manager of Standard Oil Co.

S. M. Roan, 73, Bryan, Ohio, spent last Thursday in the J. R. Shilling, 83, home, renewing acquaintances made 58 years ago at Massillon, Ohio, where they met at the Dan Shilling home. They spent the day chatting and really enjoyed themselves.

Kendallville fair is dated for August 13-17.

Church of Christ Sunday School report, 97, $3.67.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. P. Martindale, of Greenfield, Ind., have been visiting in the Ralph Sechler home.

Mrs. Stella Hughes, of Fort Wayne, spent Monday afternoon and evening with Mrs. I. M. Woodcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Wilson and children, of Fort Wayne, called at the W. R. Bachellor home Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reasoner and Charley Reasoner visited Mrs. Reasoner's father and sister at Auburn, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Woodcox and daughter, Beatrice, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller at Newville.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church will meet Thursday evening with Mrs. Marshall Andress, at 8 o'clock, (D. S. T.)

Attendance at the State parks and memorials for the week ending July 29 was: Clifty Falls, 2,372; Lanier Home, 562; Spring Mill, 2,536; Pokagon, 1,083; Turkey Run, 4,452; McCormicks Creek, 1,432; Corydon, 68; Dunes, 11,273; Shakamak, 2,192; Brown County, 1,917 and the Mounds, 543. One of the features of the attendance record being established at the parks this year is the number of visitors from other states. This influx of tourists from other states has been particularly noticed at the park inns.

FIRST FREE CLINIC HELD AT ST. JOE

As we go to press, the first free tuberculosis clinic is being held in St. Joe, sponsored by the county association, with Dr. H. L. Murdock, of Fort Wayne, who is a member of the Irene Byron Sanitorium medical staff, assisted by a trained nurse, Miss Hyde, of Garrett, Mrs. Mabel Browand, Executive Secy. of DeKalb county, and Mrs. G. Browand, clerk, of Auburn. The K. of P. lodge rooms were used and it afforded a most excellent place, and the visitors were highly pleased with the plans made by the local committee.

Quite a large group of people from this section were in for examination, which showed wisdom on their part in taking advantage of this clinic.

Persons who are suspected of having this dreaded disease feel no humiliation in being able to obtain the advise of a specialist, free of charge, and really appreciate the service of the county association. This work comes under the regular year's work of the association, this year one extra free clinic has been added to the program, making six in all to be held, the next one will be held on the second Wednesday in October in Auburn.

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Dec. 13, 1884

Wes Hart's have named their new boy Grover Cleveland.

Alex Filley don't purpose to burn wet wood any longer and so he has built a woodshed.

Chris Curie went to Buffalo last week. He will probably call on Cleveland is he happens to be at home.

Mrs. C F. Mosier, of Bristol, Ind., was in town last week, visiting friends.

George Wade is building a barn for Moses Asheiman.

J. W. Dills and family are visiting in Argos this week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McClaran.

Have you noticed a man running around the streets this week with a piece of stove pipe under his arm? That was Ruff McDonald; he has been trying to put up a stove but he can't get the pipe together.

We received the following pass through the mail this week:

Pass Mort Olds from St. Joe to Salt River by Salt River Picket Co., Steamer Jas. G. Blaine, chartered by the G. O. P. from and after Nov. 4th. (No stop over checks allowed.) Connected by annex boat J. A. Logan with Star Route Little Rock and Ft. Scott R. R. Beware of forgeries as you are not expected to return. Checks will be issued for unlimited baggage. You can have my bunk; it is No. 219 on the top tier.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

The undersigned, Executor of the Last Will of Margaret A. Rhoads, deceased, hereby gives notice that by virtue of an order of the DeKalb Circuit Court of Indiana, he will at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. on the 6th day of September, 1934, at his residence in Spencer Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, and from day to day thereafter until sold, offer for sale at private sale, all the interest of said decedent in and to the following described real estate situate in DeKalb County, Indiana, to-wit:

A parcel of land described as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of the east half (½) of the Northeast Quarter (¼) of Section Thirty-three (33,) Township Thirty-three (33) North, Range Fourteen (14) east in DeKalb County, Indiana, thence south on the section line Eighty (80) rods; thence west thirty-two and .2 (32.2) rods; thence north eighty (80) rods; on the section line; thence east to the place of beginning.

Said sale will be made subject to the approval of said Court, for not less than the appraised value, and upon the following terms and conditions:

At least one third of the purchase money cash in hand, the balance in two equal installments, payable in six months and twelve months after date, evidenced by notes of the purchaser, bearing six per cent per annum, waiving relief and providing for attorneys fees and secured by a mortgage on the real estate sold.

The executor reserves any and all growing crops.

W. F. RHOADS,
Executor.

31t3.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Town of St. Joe will receive bids on a Truck Chassis, Bids to be given Town Clerk not later than August 18.

The Town Council reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Specification on file with Town Clerk.

29t2. D. B. RIDGWAY, Clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stone were Sunday evening callers with his mother, Mrs. John Schultz at Auburn.

Montgomery & Ward initiated a new policy last week, by delivering by truck their annual distribution of catalogues to the local postoffice. In advance of their shipment, the stamps were purchased in each postoffice, and cancellation was also made by the local official. This is an advance step in modern buisness.

Anyone can find the price of admission to the World'ss Fair during the week of August 11-18, farm week, when a schedule of exchange of farm produce will be honored for admission. No matter what you raise in grain, vegetables and live stock, it will be honored. If ye editor can find a chance to ride up with someone he might take along a few gold fish and make a swap, and what have you.

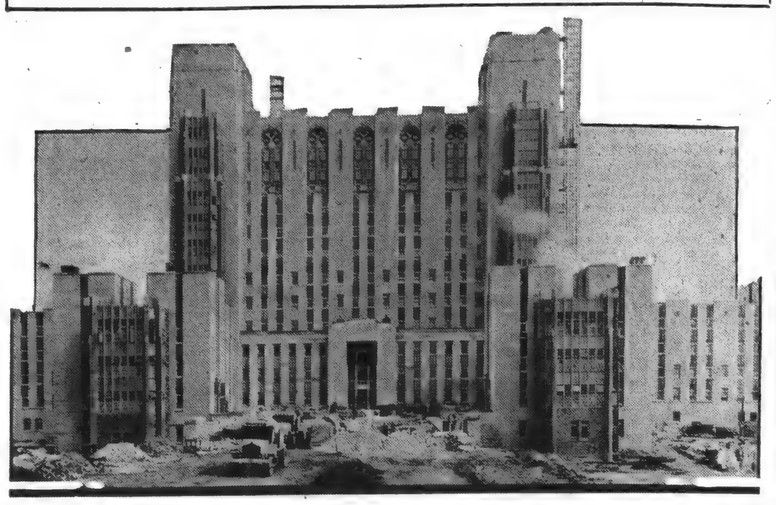
Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
Introducing a new line of
TOILET Articles
OUTDOOR GIRL: Powder, Rouge and Perfumes at.....10c.
TANGEE: Powder and Rouge in Shades at .....10c.
EVENGLO Nail Polish and Cleaner at .....10c.
Djer-Kiss and Mavis Lip Stick
Vaseline, 5 and 10c jars.
Our Big 10c Assortment
DENTAL CREAM: Ipana, Colgates, Iodent, Pebeco, Listerine, and Pepsodent; Ponds Face Cream; Italian Balm Hand Lotion; Boquet Powder; Shaving Soap and Cream; After Shaving Lotion; Sanilin Mouth Wash; Brilliantine; Color Shine Shoe Cleaner Wildroot Wave Set; Hydrogen of Peroxide, etc.
Rubbing Alcohol at 13c and 25c. No home can be without it.
WHY NOT BUY AT HOME—WE HAVE SAME MERCHANDISE FEATURED IN DIME STORES AND ARE ALL GOOD

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

AUGUST

L 919 U342

Naval Hospital Completed With PWA Funds



THIS handsome building, the new naval hospital in Philadelphia, is almost ready for occupancy. For its completion the Public Works administration allotted $2,350,000.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

CHEWINK IS GRATEFUL

FROM his perch in the top of a little tree in a thicket on the edge of the Green Forest, Chewink the Towhee watched Reddy Fox out of sight, then called softly: "To-whee! To-whee! Chewink! Chewink! All is safe now Peter Rabbit. Come out and talk with me and let me tell you how grateful I am to you for saving my life."

Chewink flew down to the ground and Peter Rabbit crept out of the Chewink the Towhee Watched Reddy Fox Out of Sight.

bramble-tangle where he had been hiding. "It wasn't anything," declared Peter. "I saw Reddy and I knew you didn't, so of course I gave the alarm. You would have done the same thing for me. Do you know, Chewink, I've wondered a great deal about you."

"What have you wondered about me?" asked Chewink.

"I've wondered what family you belong to," replied Peter.

Chewink chuckled. "I belong to a big family," said he. "I belong to the biggest family among the birds. It is the Finch and Sparrow family. There are a lot of us and a good many of us don't know that Rosebreast the Grosbeak and Glory the Cardinal are members of my family."

"I didn't know it," replied Peter, "but if you say it is so I suppose it must be so. It is easier to believe that than that you are related to the Sparrows."

"Nevertheless I am," retorted Chewink.

"What were you scratching for when I first saw you?" asked Peter.

"Oh, worms and bugs that hide under the leaves," replied Chewink carelessly. "You have no idea how many of them hide under dead leaves."

"Do you eat anything else?" asked Peter.

"Berries and wild fruits in season," replied Chewink. "I'm very fond of them. They make a variety in the bill of fare."

"I've noticed that I seldom see you in a tree-top," remarked Peter.

"I like the ground better," replied Chewink. "I spend more of my time on the ground than anywhere else."

"I suppose that means that you nest on the ground," ventured Peter.

Chewink nodded. "Of course," said he. "As a matter of fact I've got a nest in this very thicket. Mrs. Towhee is on it right now, and I suspect she is worrying and anxious to know what happened over here when you warned me about Reddy Fox. I think I must go over and set her mind at rest."

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN... The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Is it true that the average weight of a woman's clothing when she is dressed to go out in the evening weighs 14 ounces?

Yours truly,
N. CREDIBLE.

Answer: Yes. But that is only temporary, as a manufacturer has just announced an invention which makes shoes much lighter.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have been ill and my doctor advises "chicken livers." Do you think they are healthy?

Yours truly,
EIFELE ALLIN.

Answer: I never heard of a chicken complaining of its liver.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am very fond of flowers and have just planted an entire bed of "Saliva Bulbs" for next summer. I should like to plant another kind of flower that would make a pretty border for my "Saliva" blooms. What do you suggest?

Sincerely,
ANN ASTOR.

Answer: Inasmuch as you have an entire bed of "Saliva" why not surround it with a border of "Spittoonias?"

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a married man, have been married only three months. I am a good hardworking man, give my wife everything she asks for, lots of spending money, lots of clothes, in fact, everything. Here's what I want to know: Last night I arrived home and found my wife in another man's arms. As I give my wife everything, how do you account for me finding her kissing another man?

Yours truly,
I. M. MADD.

Answer: Inasmuch as you do so much for your wife, the only way I can account for you discovering your wife in another man's arms is that you came home sooner than she expected.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have been in ill health for some time. The doctor told me to take some IRON. Do you think he advised me correctly?

Yours truly,
DELA WARE.

Answer—Your doctor's advice is very good, if taken properly. I knew a man once who was sick and his doctor told him to take some IRON. He took a stove and was arrested.

© by the Associated Newspapers
WNU Service.

The Solitaire Bird

The solitaire (Pezophaps solitaria) was a bird allied to the dodo and formerly inhabiting Rodrigues. It became extinct about 1761. The male stood about 2 feet 9 inches high and was brownish gray in color, the female being brown with a whitish breast. The male bore a knob of bone on each wing and used this as a weapon. The solitaire was flightless. Its food consisted of seeds and leaves, and a single egg was laid in a heap of palm leaves and incubated by both parents.

Do YOU Know—

That wooden Indians first were introduced to the job of cigar store guardians by a man named Chichester about 1850. The sculptor was Tom Millard. They were made of white pine and considerable skill was required in the carving.

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
WNU Service

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says that in England they call it a ladder and in this country they call it a run, but in either country it means a new pair of stockings.

WNU Service

Mother's Cook Book

THE FAMILY PICNIC

UNTIL the snow flies and the chill winds of winter drive us under the shelter of roofs and to the warmth of fires we will roam abroad with the picnic basket, enjoying the woods and streams. The advantage of sandwich filling that will keep several days is that it can be prepared in quantity and kept in the ice chest. The filling can be taken in glass jars and used for salads if so desired. Serve on lettuce.

Nippy Cheese Sandwich.

Add two tablespoonfuls of quick cooking tapioca to two cupfuls of canned tomato, strained and heated. Cook fifteen minutes until the tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add two and one-half cupfuls of grated cheese, stir until melted, add one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, one-fourth teaspoonful of mustard and one-fourth teaspoonful of worcestershire sauce. Remove from the fire and add one and one-half cupfuls of finely ground dried beef. Cool well before spreading. This makes nearly three cupfuls of filling.

Egg Salad Sandwich.

Add one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper, one cupful of milk and three tablespoonfuls of tapioca, cook until clear, stirring frequently. Cool. Combine four tablespoonfuls of chopped celery, four hard cooked eggs finely chopped, two tablespoonfuls each of sweet pickles chopped and liquid from the pickles, one teaspoonful of worcestershire sauce and the tapioca mixture. Cool before spreading.

Sirup for Drinks.

Take one gallon of boiling water and twelve pounds of sugar. Stir until thoroughly dissolved. Keep in sterilized bottles. Add to any fruit drink as it sweetens quickly and makes a more agreeable drink than with the use of sugar. Use one and one-half tablespoonfuls of lemon juice and the same of the sirup to a glass of cracked ice, for an individual serving.

© Western Newspaper Union.

MOTHER PLAYS BRIDGE

By ANNE CAMPBELL

SHE would be a better player
If she could just leave behind
All the dear domestic problems
That perplex her loving mind.
If she could forget the children
And the naughty things they did—
But that's just what she remembers!
She forgets the no-trump bid!

If she didn't have her mind on
Mrs. Johnson's lovely gown;
If she wouldn't bother listing
All the things she'll buy in town,
She would be a better player!
Now she's making up her face,
And she's sort of absent-minded
As she trumps her partner's ace!

She would be a better player!
She describes each dress that's worn!
The refreshments? She could make 'em,
And her husband laughs in scorn,
Though there's humor in his laughter
As he hears his bonny lass
When he bids "Two hearts!" say:
"Partner! You'll excuse me! . . .
I'll just pass!"

If she'd concentrate five minutes,
What a player she would be,
But she must describe her diet,
And the show she went to see.
She would be a better player,
Dad opines (and he is human!)
If she'd keep her mind on contract
And forget she is a woman!

(Copyright.)—WNU Service.

"Four years at college," says Ironic Irene, "fits our young generation for anything—but work."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Balloon Found Inside Cod

Fishermen found inside a cod caught in the North sea a toy balloon sent up from Hendon, England.

Old Point Comfort Has Its Monster

RESORTERS at Old Point Comfort beach on the Virginia coast got a real thrill when a sea monster like the one at Loch Ness, Scotland, made its appearance. But it was only a practical joke devised by Mrs. Richard Bonn and Mrs. John M. Lewis, who are seen above with their pet.

New Invention Eliminates Changing Dials on Radio to Hear Various Programs

A robot radio which tunes itself on and off different stations, according to a pre-selected schedule, starting and stopping and changing programs automatically over a twelve-hour period, has been perfected by A. Atwater Kent, radio engineer and manufacturer.

Once set, the robot or tunematic radio provides any combination of programs desired, and after turning itself off at night will go back on again in the morning and serve as an alarm clock. It looks like any other large all-wave radio except for an electric clock set into the front panel. While the mechanism is described as a complicated problem in radio engineering achievement, the operation is simple.

A series of small holes around the edge of the clock's face mark the quarter hour periods and serve as connecting channels between the time clock arrangement and the tuning mechanism. The latter has sixteen outlets in the form of miniature telephone switchboard cords, two to each of seven stations and providing for fourteen different program periods, with two extra cords for intermission periods. The cords are plugged into the holes at the desired program periods, and the radio then operates automatically, shifting from station to station and program to program, stopping itself and starting again exactly as scheduled. If the self-tuning mechanism is not turned on, it operates like any other radio.

Inventions to Forward Period of Prosperity

The stage is set for the noblest prosperity in all history, says a writer in an eastern magazine. Thousands of inventions await us. A queer new tube is ready to displace tens of millions of dollars' worth of electrical equipment and cut in half the cost of transmitting power. Sugar added to cement more than doubles its strength; thus tomorrow's buildings will rise more cheaply and better.

Strange alloys are on hand for reducing the weight of trains, autos and airplanes. Automotive engineers say that, if the producers wished, they could double the lives of their cars at a slight increase of cost. The list of precious improvements on hand but still unused is almost endless—and infuriating.

The reason they are not available now is that nobody can be sure that people stand ready to foot the bill.

The art of making things has been perfected, chiefly through advances in physics and chemistry. Its techniques are those of the engineer. But the art of analysing people's wishes and then influencing them to use things is still on the level of the camp-meeting evangelist. Its exponents employ the sawdust trail, ballyhoo and incantations.

Imperishable Records

Indestructible records of picturesque and historic places in England are being preserved for future generations by printing etchings on clay, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. After the clay is fired and glazed, the etchings are printed on the tiles, each of which is 6½ inches by 5½ inches. A new method makes possible the production of strong line and delicate color.

As Always, Dan Cupid Laughs at Locksmiths

Cupid did a better business in June than in the bride's month of a year ago, reports the Associated Press, which supports its statement with statistics gathered over a wide area. Will all the newly married couples "live happily ever after"? The question is pertinent because there seems to be a difference of opinion among persons supposed to know what sort of mate the man or woman should choose.

"Marriage of an educated man to an ignorant woman will succeed, whereas the marital ties between an educated woman and a man inferior to her mentally ultimately will be severed by divorce," says Dr. D. P. Wilson, consulting psychologist of the Los Angeles bureau of family relations. Dr. Elsa B. Grove, lecturer at Teachers college, Columbia university, suggested that the cleanliness of a man's bathtub and the neatness of his wardrobe were good indices of character.

Neither rime nor reason ever have had much to do with love and marriage—as little, perhaps, as they have had to do with divorce. The march to the altar will proceed without much looking at the road.—Literary Digest.

Select the Right Way

The easiest way out is hardly ever the best way.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Removes Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling. Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. 60c and $1.00 at Druggists.

Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

KILLS ANTS

Simply sprinkle Peterman's Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. Get it at your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

False Teeth Repaired Like New. (Vulcanite) $1.10. Broken teeth replaced 25c each additional. Prompt service. Nail Plate Repair Co., 2006 Irving Pk. Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

WNU—A 32—34

MRS. WILLIAMS GAINS RELIEF FROM "RHEUMATIC" PAINS

Dr. W. E. Fitch Explains why Natural Mineral Water Often Helpful In Chronic Ailments

Mrs. H. Williams, 16 Princeton Street, Clifton, New Jersey, writes: "I suffered very badly with rheumatism but after taking Crazy Water Crystals I am a different person. They are wonderful. I would not be without them, they did me so much good."

Why is it that a fine natural mineral water, made at home from Crazy Water Crystals has benefited so many thousands suffering from "rheumatic" pains and other chronic ailments?

Dr. W. E. Fitch, noted medical authority on mineral water, in a recent radio talk over the National Broadcasting System stated:

"For many years, it has been a mystery even to the medical world just how natural mineral waters produced the amazing results that have made them so popular. Scientific and medical discoveries and research in the last few years, however, are penetrating these secrets of Nature, so that now medical men have a new understanding of the reasons for the power of natural mineral water to relieve suffering. One of these reasons is what is known as secondary mineralization, by which is meant that not only the predominating chemical constituents of a mineral water are of aid but also what are known as the secondary minerals—those present in infinitesimal quantities. The very fact of their being present in this way causes them to have a much more powerful systemic effect than if they were there in larger quantities. Let me recommend wholeheartedly to sufferers from chronic diseases the use of a suitable natural mineral water as a powerful adjuvant."

If you are suffering from "rheumatic" pains, we suggest you investigate Crazy Water Crystals immediately. Ask any of the millions who have used them.

William Edward Fitch, M. D.

Crazy Water Crystals are just minerals crystallized from a great natural mineral water flowing at Mineral Wells, Texas, and Thorndale, Texas, a type of mineral water that has built one of the world's greatest health resorts. Nothing is added to the minerals, and by dissolving them in plain water you make a fine mineral water at home at a cost of only a few cents a gallon.

A standard sized package, sufficient for three weeks mineral water treatment in your own home costs only $1.50. Get one today. Crazy Water Co., Mineral Wells, Texas.

Crazy Water Crystals

are for sale in many drug stores. In the larger cities there are exclusive Crazy Water Crystal stores. See your telephone book.

AUGUST

L 919

0343

DESIGNED FOR VACATION DAYS

PATTERN 9059

Bother! Vacation around the corner and not enough frocks! Never mind, here is an easy way out. Select three fabrics you like in your most becoming colors. A pretty print, an ecru organdie, and a china blue crepe de chine—would that be good for you? But first, of course, order the pattern! Make the organdie with frills of ecru lace on the shoulders and use a brown ribbon for your belt. Wouldn't he like you in that of an evening? The print could be quite plain and the crepe de chine like the sketch at the left with frills of self fabric.

Pattern 9059 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3¼ yards 36-inch fabric.

Complete, diagrammed sew chart included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER AND SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

SNOW SUMMER THOUGHT

"There's a great deal of gossip floating around."

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "and some that doesn't float, but is aimed to smash in and hurt somebody. Gossip is like the snow that would vanish harmlessly enough if some one didn't mold it into a missile with a rock inside."

A Bustling Burg

Visitor—I should think by the look of things nothing ever happens here.

Native—Oh, it be a pretty lively place for its size. Why, last summer we had an eclipse of the sun here—Boston Transcript.

Sure, They Live Together

Woman (to tramp)—Go away, or I'll call my husband.

Tramp—Oh, I know 'm. 'E's the little fellow who told me to clear out yesterday or 'e'd call 'is wife!—Humorist.

ENJOY

The Hunch

By PHYLLIS M. GALLAGHER

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
WNU Service.

FOR three hours now Marjorie's roadster had been parked around the corner from Engine House No. 20, not close enough to see the men in the shadows of the ponderous engines but close enough to hear the bell announcing fires.

Donald had said: "Listen, honey! I've been looking for a job ever since I graduated two years ago. Who knows when this depression is going to end? I'm fed up with being the loafing son of rich parents. This is a job; I'm going to take it; be proud of it!"

"But Don! Father offered . . . ."

His sensitive, stubborn mouth had hardened. He wouldn't, he had informed her, spend his life relying on her father, pretending that his position as law clerk paid the freight.

"Donald! Must we wait forever?" Tears had sprung to her eyes. They had waited so long, already.

'Marjorie, your father patronizes me!" Don had once said.

It wasn't true! Her father, sizing him up, had seemed cold and impenetrable behind the set lines of his face. But he wanted Don in his office because he believed in his ability.

Suddenly the hush of the lethargic day was broken by a clamor of bells. The long red engines swinging from No. 20 into the boulevard, sirens clearing their path, were not difficult to follow. When they turned into Lafayette square, Marjorie observed a group of people at the curb waving frantically. From their excited gesticulations, she surmised that the alarm was in the very heart of the city's largest public park.

Donald, his expression studiedly indifferent, for he had seen Marjorie slide from her roadster, was hauling the massive hose from the engine, several blue-coated firemen helping. The crowd was thickening, squinting their eyes against the sun, inquiring: "Where's the fire? A false alarm?"

Marjorie dug her hands deep in the pockets of her tweed swagger coat as Donald's glance swept over her ignoringly. But his face, deepening to the crimson paint-job of the engines snorting at the curb, betrayed him. She knew that he was suffering beneath her tongue-in-the-cheek attitude. For, indeed, that was how she felt. She was waiting for Don to do his stuff, as he had phrased it; to perform some of the feats that had inspired him, the night before, to say: "Why, Marjorie! Firemen are heroes, actually!"

She had bristled with anger under his smug content. "Don! I'm not belittling the fire department! I am criticizing you! You're taking that job from some man who really needs it!"

"Who needs a job worse than I!"

"But you have a chance in dad's office, to follow your own profession. You'd be hot if a fireman took a law partnership you wanted!"

Donald was threading the hose through the thick shrubbery of the park now, other firemen following close behind. When they reached the scene of the trouble, they all stood back, startled, mouths agape. A crowd had gathered around a man who was obviously too terrorized to scream, his eyes dilated above a luxuriously bearded face, his hands clutching wildly at the air. "A lunatic!" some one screamed.

Then a youth rushed to Donald and began excitedly. "That guy was asleep on the bench, mister, 'n' a swarm of bees got in his beard! Give him the works!"

With that the crowd fell back and Donald, manning the hose, aimed at the victim. But Donald wasn't a fireman, really, and the powerful stream of water sent the man sprawling into a blossoming bed of tulips. Donald, excited, accidentally increased the flow and the hose, like an alive reptile, writhed out of his hands. The crowd scrambled futilely for safety behind trees, water streaming after them, soaking them to their skins; and Marjorie, taking a horrified step to Donald's assistance, was drenched with the rest.

"Splendid!" she said, brightly. "It's a good thing it was only bees in his beard!"

She came close, slight against his sturdiness, and tiny, for her dripping thatch scarcely reached his shoulder.

"God! What an ass I made of myself!"

"Like a fireman trying a case at court!" she agreed lightly. Then, "Oh! Don!" and there was a sob in her voice. "If you persist in this, I . . . I won't wait!"

So swiftly that it seemed all in one motion, he crushed her hands in his own and leaned his dark face to hers. "You win!" he said, "Tell your father! It's not a permanent arrangement, though. When I can get something else. . . ."

And presently only Marjorie and the bearded man remained.

"Wasn't this worth more to you than twenty bucks, Miss Warfield?" the man began. "I mean, I only agreed on the bees and calling out the fire department. . . ."

Marjorie offered the old trouper her hand and another bill. He squeesed both so avariciously that the little instrument in his palm went off, mechanically, sounding very like a drove of bees in a luxurious beard! After all, a jobless actor, he had earned the money for this act, plenty!

Then, he said, "How did you know, Miss Warfield, that things would pan out the way they did?"

"I didn't," she said. "I just had a hunch!"

Up-to-Date Ideas for Decorating Rough Wall

In the summertime persons who delight in having living quarters totally different from those occupied during the winter, often prefer to have their cottages unplastered. And there are other families who find the cost of the plain board walls so much less than plastered, that for economical reasons the walls are left in this unfinished state. But in neither instance does it mean that the walls are left bare. It simply signifies that the treatment is in accord with the scheme of the interior finish.

The spaces between beams offer excellent opportunities for wall hangings of a crude type. There are fascinating Mexican fiber and grass pieces of charming crudeness, yet with genuine artistic feeling which are well suited to some homes of the kind described. Also there are hangings of homespun linen, heavy, and coarse, on which designs are done in coarse cotton, and braid and tape are also introduced for latticed flower pots, baskets, etc., from which the broadly worked stalks, foliage, and flowers are growing or standing out gaily. Burlap in natural color could be used for the foundation, should the home decorator decide to make such a wall hanging.

Play bills, and travel posters are often sufficiently artistic to be attractive decoration for unplastered beamed walls. These travel posters may be from a collection made during trips abroad or across the country, or they may be from some tourists' agency. For seashore cottages, posters of huge ocean liners plowing their way through the waves are appropriate and, with the bright colors in which they are portrayed, they make brilliant spots of color on dull wood walls.

Persons who have a fondness for the theater can sometimes get hold of theatrical posters, or play bills, as they are termed. Some of these are artistic, some are merely striking, but all give a flavor of the stage to the simple shack.

Shelves fitted in between the upright beams of an unfinished wall supply places for books and ornaments. If these latter are well chosen to suit the cottage idea they give a cozy look, while books always are inviting and welcoming. Old china and pottery have a peculiar charm for these interiors, which should be kept simple but which should also be livened up by the wall schemes.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Scientific Analysis of Heat Values of Wood

Although wood is only 60 per cent as efficient as coal, certain woods have high heating values which are not fully recognized by many people, according to T. E. Shaw, extension forester of Purdue university. Assuming 90 cubic feet of solid wood in a standard cord, 4 feet high, 4 feet wide and 8 feet long, he points out that a cord of seasoned hickory will give out as much heat as a ton of average coal. Oak will produce almost as much heat as hickory, those of the white oak group being most efficient. Other good fuel woods are hard maple, beech, elm, hackberry and ash.

Dogwood is very desirable for use in open fireplaces on account of its attractive blue flame, and it is also high in heating value, ranking with the white oaks as fuel.

Split wood has a lower moisture content than pieces in the round, and therefore has a higher heating value. Part of the aversion to wood as fuel has resulted from the fact that many people use wood which is not thoroughly seasoned. Green wood may be from 5 to 20 per cent less valuable for fuel than air dry wood.—Indiana Farmer's Guide.

JACQUES CARTIER NAME THAT WILL LIVE IN HISTORY

Nineteen hundred and thirty-four should not be too busy to look back 400 years and pay honor to a persistent pioneer who found his task tough and discouraging, but who kept at it. He was Jacques Cartier, hardy mariner of St. Malo, who in 1534, discovered the St. Lawrence. Like most explorers of his time he thought he was entering the back door to China. Instead he found only a cold river flowing past mighty mountains and bordered by a wilderness in which gold, jewels and spices were distressingly absent.

But he did establish his fame as first to reach Canada: It is probable that other skippers of Brittany, unknown to fame, had landed on the shores of the St. Lawrence estuary before him. The cod fisheries in that region had long been a flourishing industry. But Cartier bore a king's warrant. Francis I was peeved because Spain and Portugal were operating the exploring business with what would now be called a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

So he looked to Cartier to break up the monopoly. For three or four years Cartier in successive trips explored the St. Lawrence and the Saguenay, tried to establish a colony and accomplished a considerable amount of amazingly accurate charting.

But like many another pioneer he was too far ahead of his time. The kings of France had European wars on their hands. They came to look upon Canada as a cold annoyance. Cartier led, but for a long time there were few to follow. It was half a century or more before Champlain, La Salle, Marquette and others came who were to carve New France from the wilderness.

In the estimate of his generation Cartier was a failure. But a noble river and a thriving dominion is his everlasting monument.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Belief Not a Burden

We all believe in evolution, but we don't let it bother us.

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

Quick, Safe Relief For Eyes Irritated By Exposure To Sun, Wind and Dust

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dept. W, Chicago, for Free Book

Pimples on Face Never Could Shave

Healed by Cuticura

"Three years ago my face and arms broke out with a skin eruption that was followed by large, red pimples. They festered and went all over my face and arms. They itched and burned and I could never shave. I lost much rest at night with them.

"Nothing I tried helped very much. Then I saw an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased them. I used about four cakes of Cuticura Soap and one and a half boxes of Cuticura Ointment and now I feel like a new man. I am completely healed." (Signed) Harry R. Hall, 3058 14th Ave., Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 26, 1934.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold Everywhere. One sample each free. Address: "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. R, Malden, Mass."—Adv.

Millions NOW WANT THE NEW Firestone CENTURY PROGRESS TIRE

THAT TEN MILLION PEOPLE HELPED TO BUILD

EQUAL OR SUPERIOR TO ANY FIRST QUALITY TIRE BUILT ••• REGARDLESS OF NAME, BRAND, BY WHOM MANUFACTURED OR AT WHAT PRICE OFFERED FOR SALE

THE immediate and enthusiastic acceptance of the new Firestone Century Progress Tire started a tremendous wave of buying that is keeping the Firestone factories running twenty-four hours a day to meet this huge demand.

We knew that car owners would replace their thin-worn, dangerous tires if they could get what they wanted in a tire at the price they wanted to pay. We found the answer through ten million visitors to the Firestone Factory at the World's Fair last year. We asked them—"What do you value most in a tire?"—and their answer was—"Give us Blowout Protection, Non-Skid Safety, and Long Wear, at a moderate price."

Drive in to the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store today! Equip your car with these new Firestone Century Progress Tires, with the massive flat tread, deep-cut non-skid, broad husky shoulders, and Gum-Dipped cords. Tire prices probably never again will be as low as they are today. At these unusually low prices for first grade tires, we make it easy for you to buy not only one tire, but a complete set.

And Remember — with every tire you are protected by the new Firestone Triple Guarantee

—for Unequaled Performance Records
—for Life Against All Defects
—for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards*
(*Six Months in Commercial Service)

See how Firestone Tires are made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair

Listen to the Voice of Firestone—Featuring Gladys Swarthout—Every Monday Night over N. B. C.—W E A F Network

THE TIRE SENSATION of '34 Sells on Sight!

4.40-21 $5.75 REDUCED PRICES FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY!

SIZE	OLD PRICE	NEW PRICE	YOU SAVE ON ONE TIRE	YOU SAVE ON A SET OF 4
4.40-21	$6.65	$5.75	$ .90	$3.60
4.50-20	7.0[illegible]	6.10	.96	3.84
4.50-21	7.3[illegible]	6.30	1.01	4.04
4.75-19	7.[illegible]	6.70	1.08	4.32
5.00-19	[illegible]	7.20	1.14	4.56
5.25-18	[illegible]7	8.00	1.27	5.08
5.25-21	10.20	8.80	1.40	5.60
5.50-17	10.[illegible]5	8.75	1.40	5.60
5.50-18	1[illegible]5	9.05	1.40	5.60
5.50-19 n.s.	13.0[illegible]	11.20	1.83	7.32
6.00-19 n.s.	14.4[illegible]	12.45	2.02	8.08
7.00-20 n.s.	19.85	17.10	2.73	10.92

OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY LOW

THE OUTSTANDING VALUE IN THE LOW-PRICED FIELD

For those car owners who need new tire safety at a very low price the Firestone Courier Type tire has no equal at these extremely low prices.

Firestone COURIER TYPE

SIZE	PRICE
4.40-21	$4.45
4.50-21	4.90
4.75-19	5.20
30x3½	3.05

Other Sizes Proportionately Low

AUGUST

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

For Sale: 300 White Leghorn pullets. Carl Carpenter. 31t1

For Sale: Blind Brown mare. Weight 1400. Cheap. 263 Spencerville. Good worker. 31t1p.

Agents Wanted: Highest cash paid weekly; part expenses to part and full time workers. Experience unnecessary. Outfit free. Hook up with a going concern. The Hawks Nursery Co., Wauwatosa, Wis. 31t4.

SPENCERVILLE

Philip Chaney was quite ill several days last week.

Mrs. Marjorie Rezor was a recent guest of the Philip Chaney home.

George Horn spent Sunday afternoon the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Abel.

Ed Woodring and family moved last week into the Henry Walter residence.

Mrs. Mabel Furnish was taken last week to the Lutheran Hospital at Fort Wayne.

The roads of our little town are being given the second coat of tar beginning Monday morning.

Miss Isabelle Chapman returned home after spending a week at Epworth Forest, Lake Webster.

Miss Ethel McNabb spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Jo Oswalt, of Fort Wayne.

Miss Margaret Walter is spending a few days with Mrs. Marjorie Jones, of Battle Creek, Mich.

Roy Bowser, wife and children, of St. Joe, were Sunday evening guests at the R. U. Bowser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Markle and daughters were Sunday dinner guests at the Frank Markle home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser spent Sunday at Blue Lake guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rapp and family.

Sunday afternoon guests at the Vol Hay home were Mr. and Mrs. Herbie Webb and Mrs. Virgil Kimes.

Mrs. Edna Wyans and daughter, who have been visiting relatives in Fort Wayne, came home Saturday.

Mrs. Audra Wade and daughter, Mary, of Defiance, were Sunday evening guests of relatives at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, of Battle Creek, Mich., were week end guests at the J. S. Hallabaugh home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Schlatter, of California, were Saturday evening supper guests at the Roy Chaney home.

Mark Tyndall is here this week staying at the Cora Steward home while Maurice Hallabaugh is on his vacation.

Donald Culbertson returned home from Fort Wayne Saturday, where he had been visiting at the Samuel Culbertson home.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for August 5, was 66, collection $2.66; Lutheran attendance 74, collection $9.71.

The Lutheran Young People held an ice cream social Saturday evening on the postoffice lawn. A nice sum was realized.

Miss Dorothy Burns, of south of town, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Vaughn Allen, and family.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Fabianske and children are enjoying their vacation at Alpina, Mich., where they will spend two weeks with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Romary and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schulpheis, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday afternoon guests at the Cora Steward home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ort Wearley and family, of Toledo, Ohio, came Saturday to remind the former's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Wearley, of her birthday. A fine supper was enjoyed by all.

The Young Ladies Social Club was pleasantly entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Janice Bowser. Prizes were won by Mrs. Opal Beerbower, Mrs. Le-Anna Steward, Mrs. Kathryn Dean and Gaylon Markle.

Free RUBBER RINGS for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. 27t14

Mrs. Lucy Beams underwent a minor operation at the Lutheran Hosiptal Saturday morning.

Mrs. Rilla Hauk died Sunday morning at her home, west of town, of cancer. She leaves two children, Grace and Peter, both at home and three grand children, of near Newville.

M. E. Church announcements: Sunday School at 9:45 o'clock, Lynn Fisher, Supt. Preaching every Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock, (Standard Time.) Rev. Newcombe, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Romick and daughter, Ilene, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arnold and family, of near Fort Wayne, were Saturday evening guests at the Ralph Culbertson home south of town.

Mr. Wm. Reed and daughters, Misses Ida and Vera, who have spent the past three weeks in the Chester Wolf home in South Bend, returned to their home here Saturday. The family, with Mr. and Mrs. Wolf, took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Reed.

NEWVILLE

Kill the crows, the worst pest of all.

Wm. Hoy, of Garrett, called on friends here Sunday.

V. J. Thomas, of Garrett, spent Monday at this place.

Mrs. Garcia Cook was numbered among the sick last week.

Kenneth Gaff and George Baron spent Saturday at Ball Lake.

Quarterly meeting was held Monday evening at the U. B. Church.

A black-top coating was given River Street, in Newville, last week.

A surprise party, in honor of Aileen Gaff, was held at her home Friday evening.

The hail storm Thursday evening did considerable damage to corn, melons and other vegetation.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Norman and family, of South Bend, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt.

A seven pound daughter was born July 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Shull. She is named Carma Lou.

Mrs. Hattie Dittmer is here from Milwaukee, visiting the B. E. Enzor and W. F. Benninghoff families.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff, Dorothy Wasson and Mrs. Ina Traxler spent Monday afternoon in Auburn.

Clayton Smith, of Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, of Hicksville and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith.

Come to the Chautauqua at the Newville U. B. Church Sunday, August 12. All day services. Union Sunday School and basket dinner in the church basement.

"Believe it or Not"—Charles Smith says all his chickens have blistered feet caused by walking on the hot sand during the scorching weather of the past weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ramsey and children and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ifgriff, of Frankfort, Ind., were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore. In the afternoon the three families called on Rev. Blackburn, in Butler.

CONCORD

The social at Concord last week was a grand success.

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo and Mrs. Fern Draggoo were Monday afternoon shoppers at Hicksville

Mrs. Ira Bone was called back to Auburn Monday, on account of the illness of Mrs. James Wyatt.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Chas. Jackson and Mable spent Monday and Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Nan Lysher, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D Young, of Hicksville, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ford Jackson.

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo and Mrs. Diadem Bone attended the Bailey reunion Sunday a t Hopewell school house.

Miss Wilma Reinhart has returned home after spending the last three weeks with her sister, Mrs. Walter Morr.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goldsmith and father, moved to Concord last week from St. Joe occupying the Virgil Bassett property.

Mrs. Dora Reinhart, Mrs. Edna Morr and the Misses Gladys and Wilma Reinhart, attended the Reasoner reunion Sunday at Auburn.

Mrs. George Johnson entertained her brother and family from Sturgis, Mich., a few days last week. Sunday they all attended at Hull reunion at Cedarville.

Mrs. Catherine Pollard, of Los-Angeles, Calif., and Miss Mona Preston, of near Hicksville, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Littlefield and family, they being Mrs. Littlefield's cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil VanZile, of Auburn, spent Sunday with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo. Clifton went back to his work Monday morning after being off sick for a week, he is better but doesn't feel any too good as yet.

On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Jackson and daughter, Iris, Mrs. Chas. Jackson and daughter, Mable and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins and daughter Shirley Jean, all greatly enjoyed a potluck dinner at the home of Bert Jackson in St. Joe The host also enjoyed the day very much and insists that they come again.

Coburn's Corners

Mrs. Lehr Wilder is on the sick list.

Uncle Joe Shull visited with Mrs. May Shull Sunday.

Attendance at Bible School August 5 was 70, collection $2.34.

Elizabeth Hart is caring for Mrs. Garth Shull at the George Hart home.

The threshing season closed last week with a better harvest than was looked for.

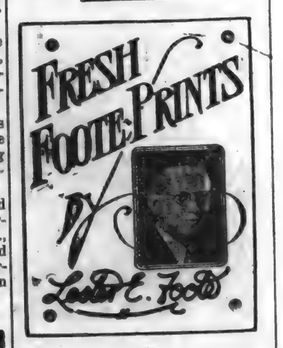
Mrs. Mary Bailey, who is being cared for in the Marvin Poper home, is not so well.

Merwin Place and wife called on Mrs. Garth Shull Sunday eve. She can have only a few visitors and only a few minutes allowed.

Mr. Ed Kinsey, of Los Angeles, Calif., and Orla Brabrook, of Harlan, visited Saturday morning with Mr. and Mrs. Kell Hart. The Kinseys and Harts were neighbors 44 years ago.

The Ladies Aid met Wednesday evening with Harriett Coburn. There was also a miscellaneous shower given for Mr. Red Thomas and bride, the former Mary Ayers, who were recently wedded.

The Rural Housewife Club met Tuesday afternoon with Troas Carpenter. Fifteen members and three guests were present. Marie Trostel had charge of the contests. The hostess served a dainty lunch of home made ice cream (all you could eat,) wafers and orange-ade. All returned to their homes thanking the hostess for a most pleasant afternoon.



Presidents Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Jackson, Fillmore, Benjamin Harrison, Wilson and Harding married widows.

"Light is the task when many share the toil."

"It's the squeaky wheel that gets the grease," says Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace.

Elephant teeth weigh as much as 20 pounds each.

There are about 60,000 births and about 40,000 deaths in the world each day.

"I believe in the saloon," says Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney, "because I think if properly regulated and restricted it is the poor man's club."

Over twenty-five per cent of the wheat crop in the United States is raised in Kansas.

Catholic, Protestant and Jewish church organizationas are declaring war on indecent motion-pictures.

There is a rapidly growing movement on foot in the United States for goverment doctors or some form of health insurance for the family. The general public seems highly in favor of such action but the American Medical Association has taken a firm stand against it.

It took Magellan's expedition 1,083 days to sail around the world.

It should be very easy for bachelors and widowers in this country to pick up a housekeeper because our government statistics show that for each 31 widowers there are 69 widows.

If the trucks succeed in driving the railroads out of business in the country there will be about 7,000,000 more men out of work.

In Austria there is very little work done on Sunday. No Sunday newspaper nor Sunday railroad service there.

About two-thirds of the original timber supply in the United States has been cut.

Age three is the most fatal to children having diphtheria.

"Man," says a Kansas editor, "is the only animal that will suffer want when there is plenty at hand."

"Don't grumble, don't bluster,
Don't dream and don't shirk;
Don't think of your worries
But think of your work.
The worries will vanish,
The work will be done;
No one sees his shadow
Who faces the sun."

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

It doesn't take big causes to make big quarrels and big wars.

George Hart is confined to his bed with an infection in his right leg.

"Wasn't the depression terrible?" says New York newspaper. We answer: "It is."

A new Ford truck has been sold to George Hart for the delivery of his melons, by the Cities Sales Inc. of Hicksville.

World Fair visitors may see the Chicago Zoological Society's new 133 acre zoo, recently opened at Brookfield, fifteen miles southwest of Chicago. This cost the Illinois taxpayers about $3,000,000.

"At no time under prohibition," says Today, a weekly magazine edited by Professor Raymond Moley, "were so many Federal agents at work, and at no time under prohibition wert bootleggers so happy and prosperous."

Films and developing handled at The News office.

Mrs. Ruth Davis and children were week-end guests of relatives in Chicago.

Lee Tustison, son, Keith, of Defiance, Earl Tustison, of Hicksville and James Hamilton spent from Saturday until Monday morning at Hamilton Lake, fishing.

John Stafford, liivng first house east of Newville Center, died suddenly Monday night. He worked hard al lday in a ditch, at supper he took a pain in back of head, and died before midnight.

Mr. A. E. Barrows, 81, father of Mrs. Howard Shilling, died at his home Thursday noon, following an illness of about eight months. Burial was made in the cemetery at Farmer Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mohr and two sons, of Elkhart, were Sunday and Monday guests in the Grant Baltz and John Coburn homes. They all attended the Henly reunion at Hicksville fair grounds Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Furnish is in the Lutheran Hospital at Ft. Wayne, where she underwent an operation Saturday for appendicitis ad gall stones. She had not been well for the past year, following her sickness of typhoid. She is getting along fine at last report.

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Mr. C. M. Pinchon, of Minneapolis, Minn., is here for a few days visiting his sister, Mrs. Wm. Randall. Monday they visited relatives at Fremont, Pleasant Lake and Waterloo. Mr. Pinchon has not visited his sister for some time.

All persons over 16 years of age who shoot migratory waterfowls must pay fee of $1.00 to federal government, by asking for the new hunting stamp, available at the postoffices in towns of 2,500 or more population. The stamps remain valid from July 1 to June 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reasoner, Mr. Chas. Reasoner and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hull attended the Reasoner reunion held in Eckhart Park, Auburn, Sunday. The new officers are; Ray Reasoner, president; Orson Reasoner, vice president, and Nevada Wyatt, secretary and treasurer.

W. F. Rhoads, executor of the will of the late Margaret A. Rhoads, has been authorized by Judge Endicott to sell land in Spencer township in order to meet liabilities. The property was appraised by W. W. Ketcham and A. F. Roe at $1,500 and the executor filed $4,000 additional bond, with F. E Rhodes as surety.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:

HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
BRAN, per 100 pounds	$1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds	$1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds	$1.50

Call and see our lint. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC CO.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Food and electricity have this in common – they are both a part of the cost of living and they are both lower in cost now than they were before the depression.

Food has declined since 1927 so that to-day it is 32% less than it was in that year. The government is doing its best to raise prices above the 1927 level. Other items in our family budgets, such as rent and clothing, have not declined as much as food. The cost of all items in the family budget is 27% below the 1927 cost.

The average cost of electricity to domestic customers in this community is also much below the 1927 level – $1.00 buys what then took $1.42. It has actually declined more than the cost of living. We have done our part by voluntarily reducing rates.

H. P. Sparks
Vice President & General Manager

YOUR ELECTRICITY IS CHEAP. . . . . .

TODAY THE AVERAGE ELECTRICAL DOLLAR YOU SPEND BUYS A QUANTITY OF ELECTRICITY THAT WOULD HAVE COST $1.42 IN 1927.

AUGUST

L 919

345

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1934 — NUMBER 32

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Dec. 13, 1884

John P. Widney, of Bellville, O., visited friends in this vicinity last week.

Howard Northrup celebrated his tin wedding on Friday of last week.

Joe Baker feeds his cow sawdust in the place of bran. He says the cow don't know the difference.

Up Salt River

Way up along the old Salt Rivar,
Up neer the end;
Thers whare the republikans wil shiver,
Thers whare tha've got us pened.

After weaks ov panefool anxiety the electshun is ovar, an what is stil moor panefool tu us is that we got left. It is tru, we didn't get beet bad, but ther isn't much consolashun in that when we cum tu realize the fact that we hav awl got through tickets up Salt Rivar. The mane reson I think, whi we got beet was becaws we hadn't enuf voats to eleck our man. Howevar, we hav fot a gude fite, we hav finished our wurk, hensforth ther is a place prepared fur us cauled Salt Rivar.

Yours (fur four years only.)
Barcus Q. Hippenhammer.

G. B. Wen we git ther we'll rite and let you know what the country looks lik.

Where and How Some of Our Citizens Spent Christmas

Will Curie took his girl out sleigh riding.

J. H. Conrad had to take care of the new baby.

Charlie Meese and Laura Curie got married.

S. J. Bowen went back to Attica to see somebody else's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Florance Buchanan took turkey at Auburn.

It took Jud Gee all afternoon to black his boots.

Bill Leighty smoked something less than two dozen cigars.

Miss Ollie Oberholtzer spent the day at Spencerville.

Miss Lizzie Evans spent the day with friends at Garrett.

Charlie Grubb grubbed around and didn't go any where.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruff McDonald enjoyed the hospitality of Newville friends.

The small boys had a big time throwing down everybody they met.

Burt Patterson took dinner with one of his girls at Hicksville.

Mell Bishop didn't do any hunting, except to hunt for his dinners

Burt Donaldson gave a Christmas dinner to a number of his young friends.

The young people had a very pleasant party in the evening at the residence of Mack Leighty.

Alex. Filley and Josh Lounsberry with their families ate turkey with friends at Newville.

Uncle John Engle had a big turkey roast, to which a number of his friends and relatives were invited.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Leighty entertained a large number of their friends, including several Fort Wayne people.

H. K. Reynolds the happy railroad agent at this place, attended to his business just the same as any other day.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Leighty Orchard

On account of the hot dry weather you probably did not can as much small fruit as you wanted.

You will not miss the small fruit if you put up plenty of sauce from WEALTHY APPLES. They are best for canning, and are now selling.

Pure cider vinegar two years old. New Honey.

START BOOSTING
FOR The
DEFIANCE COUNTY
FAIR
AUGUST 21-22-23-24-25

Grand Display of FIREVORKS on EACH EVENING
Plenty FREE ENTERTAINMENT
Saturday Fair
THREE NIGHTS: THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY
ADMISSION PRICES: Gate 25c. Grandstand 25c.
DAY and NIGHT.

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS OF TAX LEVIES

In the Matter of determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by Newville Township, DeKalb County, Indiana.

Before the Township Advisory Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Newville Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

Budget Classification
Township Fund

Salary of Trustee, $450.00.
Office Rent, $60.00.
Trustee's Expense, $100.00.
Records and Adv., $250.00.
Pay of Adv. Board, $15.00.
Exam. Records, $60.00.
Miscellaneous, $75.00.
Total Township Fund, $1,010.00.

Poor Fund
To Reimburse County, $473.00.

Tuition Fund
Pay of Teachers, $2,400.00.
School Transfers, $2,000.00
Total Tuition Fund, $4,400.00.

Special School Fund
Repair of Building and Ground, $75.00.
Repair of Equipment, $100.00.
School Furn. and Equip., $100.00.
School Supplies, $75.00.
Janitor Supplies, $20.00.
Fuel for Schools, $160.00.
Teachers Institute, $60.00.
Janitor Service, $40.00.
Transportation of Children, $300.
Miscellaneous, $90.00.
Total Spec. School Fund, $1,020.

Estimate of Township Funds To Be Raised

Funds Required for Expenses to December 31st of Incoming Year:

Total Budget Estimate for incoming year: Township Fund, $1,010.00; Sp. School Fund, $1,020; Tuition Fund, $4,400.00; Poor Fund, $473.00.

Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year: Township Fund, $450.00; Special School Fund, $300.00; Tuition Fund, $1,200.00.

Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year: Tuition Fund, $50.00.

Total Funds Required: Township Fund, $1,460.00; Sp. School Fund, $1,320.00; Tuition Fund, $5,650.00; Poor Fund, $473.00.

Actual Balance, July 31st of present year: Township Fund, $956.00; Sp. School Fund, $1,993; Tuition Fund, $2,776.00.

Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement:) Township Fund, $560.00; Special School Fund, $410.00; Tuition Fund, $1,237.00.

Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of Township Trustee:)

a. Special Taxes (see Schedule) Special School Fund, $180.00; Tuition Fund, $1,590.00.

Total Funds: Township Fund, $1,516.00; Sp. School Fund, $2,583.00; Tuition Fund, $5,603.00.

Net Amount To Be Raised For Expenses To Dec. 31st of Incoming Year: Tuition Fund, $47.00.

Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period:) Township Fund, $592.00; Sp. School Fund, $300.00; Tuition Fund, $1,200.00.

Amount To Be Raised By Tax Levy: Township Fund, $592.00; Sp. School Fund, $300.00; Tuition Fund, $1,247.00; Poor Fund, $473.00.

Proposed Levies

Net Taxable Property, $592,020.00.
Number of Taxable Polls, 78.

Township Fund: Levy on Property, 10 cents; Amount to be raised, $592.00.

Tuition Fund: Levy on Polls, 50 cents; Levy on Property, 10 cents; Amount to be Raised, $630.

Special School Fund: Levy on Polls, 50 cents; Amount to be Raised, $39.00.

Poor Fund: Levy on Property, 8 cents; Amount to be Raised, $473.00.

Total: Levy on Polls, $1.00; Levy on Property, 28 cents; Amount to be Raised, $1,784.00.

Comparative Statement of Taxes Collected and To Be Collected

Township Fund: Collected 1932 Levy, $954.00; Collected 1933 Levy, $835.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $866.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $592.00.

Tuition Fund: Collected 1932 Levy, $3,525.00; Collected 1933 Levy, $2,985.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $2,475.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $630.00.

Special School Fund: Collected 1932 Levy, $1,255.00; Collected 1933 Levy, $90.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $618.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $39.00.

Poor Fund: Collected 1934 Levy, $123.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $473.00.

Total: Collected 1932 Levy, $5,734.00; Colected 1933 Levy, $3,810.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $4,071.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $1,734.00.

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

Dated August 10, 1934.
SHERMAN T. MEEK, Trustee.

SPENCERVILLE TEACHERS ARE ALL CONTRACTED

Trustee, F. E. Rhodes, has his teaching force practically all under contract for the new term of school. They are as follows:

Principal, Mr. Passchion; others in high school, Kenneth McCrory, Ida Reed and Hazel Storer.

The grade teachers: Mrs. Bina Glawe, Mrs. Minnie Lants, Helen Stage, Hillsdale, Mich., and Doris Beams a music instructor.

Local Briefs

Kodak Films—At News Office.

The McCullough reunion was held Sunday at Lake Wawasee and Mr. and Mrs. Don Keller and two sons attended.

Dr. G. N. Lake and family, of Pleasant Lake, and Nathan and Siddie Lake, were guests of Mrs. Russell Wade and family, Friday.

Picnic and fair officials in the Middle-West, this year, are making elaborate plans for successful celebrations without fear of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sailer spent Thursday and Friday at Hamilton Lake, enjoying an outing of fishing. They caught all they cared for.

Mrs. F. A. Pio, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Bachelor, and Milton F. Bachelor, all of Payne, O., were guests in the Wm. Bachelor home last Thursday.

Fifty members of the Wilmington township Home Brueau and 4-H Club members spent last Wednesday at the Wm. Glawe home in an all day meeting.

The tenth meeting of the Steward family will be held this year at Eckhart Park, Auburn, on Sunday, August 26. Basket dinner. Arminta Steward, president, Cleo Reed, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hiser and son, James, of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miser, of South Bend, were Saturday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox entertained Sunday Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crance, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughes and Mrs. Emerick, of Adrian, Mich., Mrs. Crance remaining for a week visiting here and at Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kirk, of Clear Water, Kansas, were here last week as guests in the Kinsey homes, also at Auburn and Fort Wayne. Mr. Kirk's mother was a sister of Mrs. August Kinsey, who will be remembered by our older readers as Mary Kirk.

The 37th annual reunion of the Oberholtzer family will be held at the home of Mrs. Matilda Oberholtzer on Sunday, August 19. Friends are invited to come with well filled baskets and enjoy the day. The officers are, Henry Horn, president and Gaylon Markle, secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Staman and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cole left Monday for a two weeks trip into Minnesota. Mr. Staman has nieces at Minneapolis, while the Coles will visit cousins at Duluth. Hollis Dilley and family will live at the Staman farm home during their absence.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

The undersigned, Executor of the Last Will of Margaret A. Rhoads, deceased, hereby gives notice that by virtue of an order of the DeKalb Circuit Court of Indiana, he will at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. on the 6th day of September, 1934, at his residence in Spencer Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, and from day to day thereafter until sold, offer for sale at private sale, all the interest of said decedent in and to the following described real estate situate in DeKalb County, Indiana, to-wit:

A parcel of land described as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of the east half (½) of the Northeast Quarter (¼) of Section Thirty-three (33,) Township Thirty-three (33) North, Range Fourteen (14) east in DeKalb County, Indiana, thence south on the section line Eighty (80) rods; thence west thirty-two and .2 (32.2) rods; thence north eighty (80) rods; on the section line; thence east to the place of beginning.

Said sale will be made subject to the approval of said Court, for not less than the appraised value, and upon the following terms and conditions:

At least one third of the purchase money cash in hand, the balance in two equal installments, payable in six months and twelve months after date, evidenced by notes of the purchaser, bearing six per cent per annum, waiving relief and providing for attorneys fees and secured by a mortgage on the real estate sold.

The executor reserves any and all growing crops.

W. F. RHOADS,
31t3. Executor.

Mrs. Roy Kissey was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kinsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brown and family, of Elkhart, spent Sunday here in the John Hart home.

Miss Susan Sechler is home again after spending several weeks with relatives and friends at Auburn and Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Armstrong attended the Wilson-Armstrong reunion at Riverside Park at Antwerp, Sunday, August 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran and Mrs. M. H. Andress attended the funeral of Mrs. James Wyatt at Auburn Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Russell Kain and daughter, of Fort Wayne, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Yeiser, north of St. Joe, and attending the Chautauqua being held at Newville this week.

Mrs. Fannie Saylor and son, Fred, celebrated Doyt Collins' thirty-second birthday, Sunday, at "Saylor's Cabin Camp" on State Road 20. The neighbors were entertained with four gallons of ice cream, home made candy and a large chocolate cake decorated with his name and thirty-two candles.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
Introducing a new line of
TOILET Articles

OUTDOOR GIRL: Powder, Rouge and Perfumes at.....10c.
TANGEE: Powder and Rouge in Shades at .....10c.
EVENGLO Nail Polish and Cleaner at .....10c.
Djer-Kiss and Mavis Lip Stick
Vaseline, 5 and 10c jars.

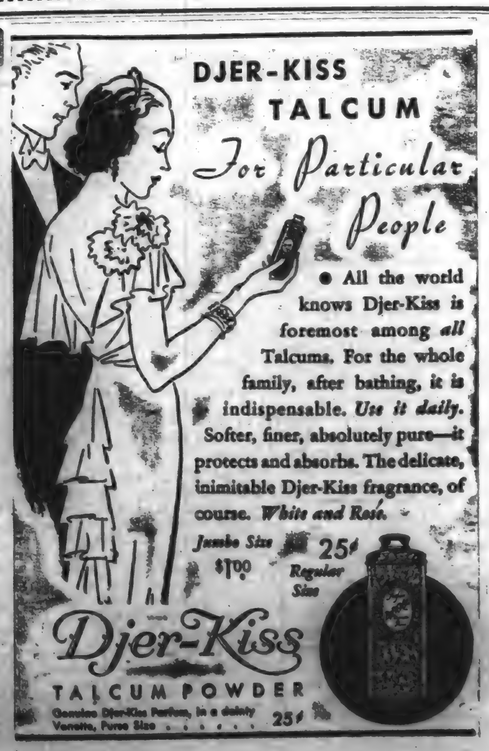
Our Big 10c Assortment

DENTAL CREAM: Ipana, Colgates, Iodent, Pebeco, Listerine, and Pepsodent; Ponds Face Cream; Italian Balm Hand Lotion; Boquet Powder; Shaving Soap and Cream; After Shaving Lotion; Sanilin Mouth Wash; Brilliantine; Color Shine Shoe Cleaner Wildroot Wave Set; Hydrogen of Peroxide, etc.

Rubbing Alcohol at 13c and 25c. No home can be without it.

WHY NOT BUY AT HOME—WE HAVE SAME MERCHANDISE FEATURED IN DIME STORES AND ARE ALL GOOD

Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W



AUGUST

L 919

346

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

SCHOOL FACULTY IS REVAMPED BY BENDER

(From Community Progress)

Several changes in the faculty of the Cedar Creek township school at Leo for next fall were announced recently by Harry W. Bender, township trustee.

Dorothea Conrad will replace Thelma Schlatter as teacher of the second grade; Helen McIntosh will take the place of Helen Stuckey in the third grade; Blanche Rinehold will teach the fourth grade instead of Bertha Chausse, and Irene Lake will replace Mabel DeLagrange in the fifth grade. In the high school, Janet Woods will be replaced by Mildred Akey.

The rest of the teaching staff remains unchanged Mr. Bender stated. It is as follows: Ida Spencer, grade one; Bernice Thimlar, six; Herbert Ort, seven; Ruth E. Moss, eight, and Homer Deventer, rural Schumacker school.

The high school faculty includes H. T. Slaton, principal and teacher of history and government; Hubert Davis, school sciences, biology, health, coach; Burton Handy, mathematics, physics, geopraphy; Loma Warner, English and Latin. Miss Akey will teach commercial subjects.

The bids for school bus drivers in Cedar Creek township have been received and the eight routes will be served by the following: route 1, Argyl VanZile; route 2, Clyde Kryder; route 3, Nelson Klopfenstein; route 4, Emanuel Beck; route 5, Ernest Warner; route 6, Albert Stuckey; route 7, John S. Leichty, Jr., and route 8, Nathan Neuenschwander.

SECHLER REUNION

The 44th annual reunion of the Sechler family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sechler, north of Butler, Ind., on Sunday, August 12, 1934, at which there were seventy-five of the "Sechler descendants." After all had filled their stomacchs "to the capacity," a short business session was held, presided by Leon Sechler, president. The meeting was opened by all repeating the Lord's prayer led by Byron Widney. The secretary report of 1933 was read and accepted. The reunion will be held next year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Blue at St. Joe. Officers elected were Nora Blue, president; Frank Baltz vice president; Lucille Curie, secretary, and Sam Mumaw, treasurer.

A motion was made by Merritt Sechler that in 1937 the reunion should be held at the Sechler homestead near Newville, which at that time marks a century since the Sechler family moved to this part of the country and built the brick house which still stands. Frank Baltz was elected historian for that year.

We were pleased to have with us Jake Sechler and grandson, Harold Bond, of Kempton, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miller, of Butler, Ind. The meeting was dismissed by all singing, "God be with You Till We Meet Again," and a prayer by Rollie Moffett.

The rest of the afternoon was spent in visiting (as all folks do at a reunion.) At a late hour folks left for their various homes, all expressing their appreciation to the host and hostess for the good time that they had.

Quincy, Illinois, is sixty miles farther west than St. Louis, Missouri, and fifty miles farther west than Clinton, Iowa.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PURELY PERSONAL

Mrs. Jennie Lang, of Elkhart, an aunt of Curtis Hursey, visited in his home Thursday and Friday.

Jacob Sechler and grandson, Harold Bond, of Kempton, Pa., are spending the week here with the Sechler families.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Reasoner and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smile and daughter, of Detroit, visited over Saturday and Sunday with Ray Reasoner's.

Dictator Adolph Hitler, Germany, has certainly sowed enough wild oats; it is hoped that this ambitious bachelor will get married and settle down.

Wm. Pepple suffered a slight heart attack Monday on the street and was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mayola Kinsey, but is now about as usual.

"If you have kind words to say,
Say them now.
Tomorrow may not come your way
Do a kindness while you may,
Loved ones will not always stay;
Say them now."

Jasper Malone and family, of Climax, Mich., Miss Boyd, of Auburn and Dallas Cook and three children, took dinner Saturday at the home of Mr and Mrs. Jacob Krabill, north of St. Joe.

In the city election at Kansas City, Missouri, last spring, according to the report of the Civic Research Institute, there were 21 precincts which had more votes cast than there were registered voters in the precincts.

Mrs. Curtis Hursey, Mrs. Ada Mann, Leroy Man, wife and two sons, were Saturday and Sunday guests of W. S. Wadsworth and wife at Peebles, Ohio, also visited W. S. Boggess and family at West Unity, Ohio.

Hoddie Steward, wife and daughter, of Estherville, Iowa, and Mulford Steward, of Oakland, Calif., are here guests of relatives and friends. They will attend the Steward reunion on the 26th.

The county commissioners at their August session, appointed Chester J. Hodge of Auburn, as justice of the peace of Union township, succeeding the late James L. Griffin. Mr. Hodge filed the only application.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Coburn, son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keesler, Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser and three children, Mrs. Jane Coburn and sons, Lester and John Coburn attended the Coburn reunion at Alton grove Sunday.

Mrs. Frank May and daughter, Violet, Mrs. Lela Northrup, Mrs. Nettie Warford and Frances Bishop, drove to Castalia Springs, O., yesterday and also visited such other places of interest as the Blue Hole and the Caves.

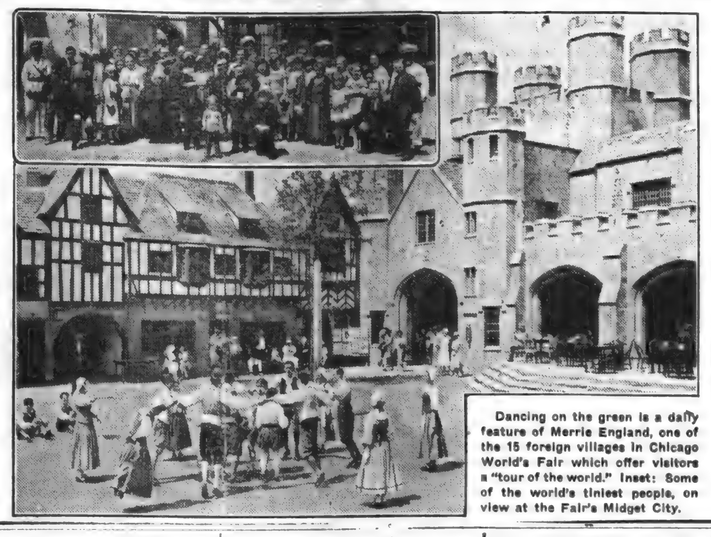
George Berry called on his mother, Mrs. Ada Berry and aunt, Mrs. Mary Betz Sunday morning, while home for the day from Richmond, Ind., where he is working in a broadcasting station. They all took dinner with Mrs. Hazel Steward. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and daughter, Delores, of St. Joe were also guests.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price, accompanied by I. G. Kilpatrick and daughter, Margaret, attended the Dill reunion at Richmond, Ind., Sunday. The pleasure of the day was marred by the near drowning of Margaret, although she is a good swimmer. Stepping into a ten foot hole, she became frightened and was unable to help herself.

Mrs. Stella Goldsmith, of Spencerville and Mrs. Gertrude Borthwick spent Tuesday at Lake Gage at the Farm Bureau young people's school, enjoying the program, a picnic supper, and camp fire. They returned home Wednesday morning. Mr. Maurice Cline, of Newville township, Troas Carpenter, of Spencer, Cleota Morr and Mrs. Grace Dilley, of Concord are spending the week at the school, representing Tri-Township and the Social and Educational Department of the Farm Bureau.

The Butler town board has passed an ordinance regulating the sale of alcoholic beverages. Places serving such drinks are to be closed at 12 o'clock each night and not reopen until 6 o'clock the following morning. On Sunday they are to remain closed until 12 o'clock noon. Violation of the ordinance may be fined not to exceed $50 to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 30 days. The ordinance was passed by Bert Moughler, Claud Tyson and O. S. Fisher, trustees of the town of Butler.

Midgets Hobnob With Lofty Towers at Fair



Dancing on the green is a daily feature of Merrie England, one of the 15 foreign villages in Chicago World's Fair which offer visitors a "tour of the world." Inset: Some of the world's tiniest people, on view at the Fair's Midget City.

Church of Christ Sunday School report, 100, $3.49.

Mr. Abe Mason moved a barn and garage for A. W. Trostel last week.

Merritt Sechler and guest, Harold Bond, spent Tuesday at the World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch spent Sunday afternoon and evening in the John Geisinger home at Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and son and Miss Rosella Mendelsohn returned home Sunday after spending the past seven weeks at Hamilton with their sister, Mrs. L. D. Birch. Mr. Smith is now working at Tilon, Ill.

Fish and Game Club Information

A request for an open season on ducks and other migratory birds starting Thursday, October 4, and continuing on Thursday, Friday and Saturday for ten consecutive weeks, closing Saturday, December 8, has been filed with the U. S. Biological Survey by the Department of Conservation. It is expected that formal authorization of those dates for Indiana will be received within the next few days together with information on hours for hunting and bag limits.

Dates coinciding with those requested for Indiana have been asked by Ohio while Illinois has asked for Saturday and Sunday duck hunting. Each state is being given a 30-day hunting period this year. The three-day hunting period for ten weeks was requested for Indiana hunters as providing the best opportunity for the greatest number to enjoy the sport.

This year every hunter of migratory birds must carry on his person one of the special stamps authorized during the last session of Congress. These stamps are procured at postoffices at a cost of $1 each and are to be attached to the state hunting license or to a certificate issued by the postmaster to applicants not required to have a state hunting license. Possession of the federal stamp does not free the holder from having a state license, both of which must be carried on the hunter's person and exhibited upon the request of proper authorities.

Indiana game wardens will work in cooperation with federal game protectors in the enforcement of laws governing the hunting of migratory birds and the federal officers will assist in checking on violations of the state hunting laws. Funds raised by the sale of the special stamp are to be used by the federal government in the establishment of refuges for migratory birds in an effort to replenish the dwindling supply.

ECTATES APPRAISED BY THE COUNTY ASSESSOR, CHAS. E. MISER

Delilah Garrison Estate: Eugene Garrison, Adm. Personal property, $2,499.21; real estate, $4,200.00; total estate, $6,699.21.

Hester A. Turner Estate: O. S. Fisher, Adm. Personal property, $7,179.53; real estate, $1,420.00; total estate, $8,599.53.

Seeley Baum Estate: U. S. Conn, Adm. Personal property, $36,309.00; real estate, $2,000.00; total estate, $38,309.00.

Cora Norton Estate: J. E. Showalter, Adm. Personal property, $5,914.31; real estate, $800.00; total estate, $6,714.31.

Coburn's Corners

Bible School attendance for last Sunday 99—$3.71.

Mrs. Lehr Wilder is greatly improved at this writing.

Bess Klopfenstein is spending the week with her son, Robert at the Erick farm.

Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon and children, of Edgerton, called on Mrs. Garth Shull Thursday morning.

J. S. Shull and Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hart, of Hicksville, spent Saturday and Sunday at Hamilton Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Shaffer and family, of Princeton, Ind., spent Sunday with Wilmot Coburn and family.

The new orchestra made the first appearance at Bible School Sunday and was greatly appreciated.

A miscellaneous shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Willard Maxwell Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Trostel.

Mrs. Garth Shull, who was taken suddenly ill three weeks ago at the George Hart home, was able to be taken to her home Sunday evening.

Mr. Adrian Hart and family, of Hicksville, brought a fine dinner and spent a pleasant evening on his mother's birthday, Mrs. Alice Hart, who was 83.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Coburn, of Detroit, Mich., spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart and also attended the Coburn reunion held at Alton Grove Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Shull, daughter and little grandson, of Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Dio Dermott, of Coldwater, Mich., called on George Hart Friday afternoon.

Elgin Coburn, of Fremont, Mich., came Saturday to attend the reunion and returned home Sunday evening. Elgin is one of the city mail carriers and had to be on duty Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ulm, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm and daughters, Virginia and Jean and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hallabaugh attended the Tustison reunion held at the Hicksville fair grounds, Sunday.

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Roselawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

MORTUARY

KLINE

Theodore Kline, son of Henry and Maria Kline, was born in Stark County, Ohio, September 15, 1847, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stephen Brown, west of St. Joe, on August 7, 1934, at the age of 86 years, 10 months and 22 days.

They moved to Indiana many years ago. On July 4, 1874 he was married to Sarah Gill by the Rev. Henry Johnson, and to this union were born four daughters, Della, Rossie, Ada and Inez.

He leaves to mourn his departure four daughters, Mrs. Della Brown and Mrs. Rossie Watt, of St. Joe, Ind., Mrs. Ada Shull, of Tiro, Ohio, and Mrs. Inez, Dermott, of Constantine, Mich; ten grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; three brothers and one sister. One brother, Harry preceded him in death. He leaves many friends and neighbors who will miss him. He was the last Civil War veteran in the community. Most of his latter years were spent at Fort Wayne.

The funeral services were held from the Spencerville Lutheran Church, Friday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. K. Mumma, of Harlan, with burial in White City cemetery. Mrs. Mayola Kinsey & Son were in charge.

HOUK

Arvilla Agusta (Kneer) Houk was born in Wilmington Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, March 14, 1863, and departed this life at her home in Jackson Township. Age 71 years, 4 months and 21 days. Her father died when she was a young girl and it fell to her lot to help care for the younger members of the family. She was permitted to live to pass the three score and ten mark, a privilege not permitted to any other member of her immediate family. She being the last surviving member of the family.

During her illness kind neighbors, relatives and friends came with willing hands to assist the family in caring for her and offered their assistance in many ways and made the family feel that back of the clouds the sun was still shining. It was always a great pleasure to her when her physicians and nurses told her she could leave the hospital and go to her home, where she enjoyed to be.

She was united in marriage to Daniel Houk of Spencerville November 22, 1883. To this union were born three children, Ray C., Grace M., and Lester Marion, who died in 1919. The husband and father died in 1908. She leaves to mourn their loss, the son, Roy C., and daughter, Grace M., living at home, and three grandchildren, all living near Hicksville, Ohio.

The funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock, C. S. T. by the Rev. Newcomb, pastor of the Spencerville M. E. church, Tuesday afternoon, August 7, at the late residence. Burial was made in the White City cemetery by Roscoe Walter, director.

Mother's work on earth is o'er
No more heartache and pain,
Her spirit is resting peacefully
On Canaan's Happy Plain.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish in this manner to express our heartfelt thanks to our kind neighbors, relatives and to our friends for their assistance and sympathy, during the illness and death of our beloved mother and grandmother.

The Children and Grandchildren.

She was a great lover of poetry and on Friday before her death, after she had gone into a coma, she received some beautiul poems from a niece in Florida, which was thought appropriate by the children, to be read at her funeral.

Somebody Cares

"Somebody cares! What a world of woe
Lifts from our hearts when we really know
That somebody really and truly cares,
That we're in somebodys thoughts and prayers.
I want you to know, and feel that you do,
That somebody always is caring for you."

Light

Just when the road is roughest
We find a helping hand,
Just where the burden's hardest
Kind friends beside us stand.
Just when the hours are dreary
A song of joy rings true,
Just when the days are darkest
The sunshine filters through.

Death

Leaves have their time to fall
And flowers to wither at the north wind breath,
And stars to set, but all
Thou hast all seasons for thy Own, O Death.

WYATT

The death of Mrs. James Wyatt, of Auburn, took place at 5:10 o'clock Friday afternoon after an illness of two years, during which time she had been unable to leave the house except twice. Asthma and pneumonia were the contributing causes of her demise.

The deceased was a native of DeKalb county and was born January 31, 1860, near Concord, the daughter of David and Phoebe Monroe and her age was 74 years, 6 months and 9 days. She was united in marriage with Mr. Wyatt 32 years ago at Spencerville. They moved to Auburn on March 11, 1911 and have resided on Center Street for twenty-one years.

Besides the husband, three children survive, Mrs. Bertha Boren and Mrs. Geo. Anderson of Auburn and Ray Hennessey of Garrett. One sister, Mrs. Ira Bone, of Concord, survives, besides eight grandchildren and five great grandchildren. The late Mrs. Mattie James of Auburn, was a sister. A half sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wasson and a half brother, James Valentine preceded her in death.

Mrs. Wyatt was a member of the Auburn First M. E. Church and of the Woman's Relief Corps. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence with Dr. Manford C. Wright, pastor of the church, officiating. Burial was made in Roselawn cemetery, Auburn.

SOMEBODY BLUNDERED

Study of the statistics reveals that a majority of the 756,500 automobile accidents in the United States in 1933 occurred on straight, dry roads in clear weather, and involved cars in good condition driven by persons with a year or more of experience. Over 75 per cent of these drivers were persons of mature age—from 25 to 64. The majority of the 30,000 deaths and 850,000 injuries must be attributed to blunders.

A recent analysis by the National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters shows what the blunders were. There are eight in all.

1. Drove too fast for conditions—this accouted for approximately three-fourths of all mishaps in 1933 assigned to driving blunders.
2. Failed to slow down at intersections.
3. Failed to keep to the right.
4. Tried to pass another car going in the same direction when view was obstructed.
5. Failed to slow down on approaching pedestrians.
6. Passed on the right of a preceding vehicle.
7. Ignored important traffic control devices.
8. Parked at dangerous spots.

If drivers will obey the eight common sense rules suggested by these violations, the annual accident record can be reduced to a negligible figure.

Our printing draws attention. Give us a chance to prove it

AUGUST

L 910

347

Notice to Taxpayers of Tax Levies

In the matter of determining the tax rates for certain purposes by Concord township, DeKalb County Indiana.

Before the Township Advisory Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Concord Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September 1934, will consider the following budget:

Budget Classification

Township Fund

Salary of Trustee, $600.00.
Office Rent, $60.00.
Trustee's Expenses, $125.00.
Records and Advertising, $100.00.
Pay of Advisory Board, $15.00.
Pay of Interest, $25.00.
Examination of Records, $40.00.
Miscellaneous, $35.00.
Total Township Funds, $1,000.

Poor Fund
To Reimburse County, $1,500.00

Tuition Fund
Pay of Teachers, $7,960.00
School Transfers, $60.00
Total Tuition Fund, $8,020.00

Library Fund
Library Tax, $70.00

Special School Fund
Repair of Buildings and Care of Grounds, $100.00
Repair of Equipment, $100.00
School Furniture and Equip., $50
School Supplies, $100.00
Janitor Supplies, $100.00
Fuel for Schools, $900.00
Loans, Interest and Insur., $500.00
Janitor Service, $480.00
Trasportation of Children, $2,500
Light and Power, $350.00
Miscellaneous, $20.00
Total Special Sch. Fund., $5,200

Bond Fund
Bonds, $2,500.00
Interest, $900.00
Total Bond Fund, $3,400.00

NEWVILLE

C. W. Smith has purchased a new truck.

Charles Harter and family spent Saturday in Butler.

Wm. Hoy was here Sunday from Garrett, visiting friends.

Hugh Traxler and Kenneth Gaff were fishing Saturday at Cedar Lake.

Mrs. Ina Traxler and Mrs. Mona Gaff were Fort Wayne visitors Saturday.

C. C. Andrews and Albert Winter, of Detroit, spent Saturday at the Andrews farm south of town.

Frank Colesmith and Mr. Truesdale, of Delphos, Ohio, were Sunday afternoon callers in the H. T. Smith home.

Rev. D. W. Kurtz, of Chicago, Sunday speaker at the Chautauqua, was entertained in the W. H. Moore home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Washler and daughter, Sylvia, were called to Butler Sunday by the critical illness of Mrs. Ames.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fales, of Peoria, Ill., spent the past week here with Mrs. Bethel Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Miller.

Clayton Smith, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Bonnell Baker, of Auburn, were Sunday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith.

Rev. and Mrs. Cornelius, who have charge of the music at the Chautauqua, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reas.

Mr and Mrs. H. E. Richer, of Peru, were supper guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reas and all night guests of Miss Mae Nicholls.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris, Mrs. Callie Heiber, Willis Heiber and Wilbur Heiber, of Antwerp, called on relatives here Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Richmond and sons, Argyl and LaVon left Saturday for Missouri, being called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Richmond's father.

Mrs. Ella Emerson and Charles Freeburn, of Gladbrook, Iowa, and Mrs. Eva Hendershott, of this place, were Wednesday evening callers in the H. T. Smith home.

Mrs. J. L. Davis and children from Lafayette, Ind., and Miss Minnie Fickle from Indianapolis, spent Saturday and Sunday here with Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore. Miss Dorothy Davis remained for an indefinite stay.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS ATTENTION

The County Adult Superintendent is planning for an Adult Workers Conference Friday afternoon, Sept. 28, to be held in Auburn. Dr. A. H. Backus, of Indianapolis will be the speaker. The meeting is open to everyone but all adult workers are urged to be present.

Sunday afternoon, Oct. 14, is the date set for the fall County Council meeting. Please keep this date in mind so you can be there.

September will be school visitation month. Watch the papers for further announcements.

RAFT THROWS JOE FOLTZ INTO RIVER

The launching of the private fishing yacht at the Buckingham farm near Spencerville, was not such a success as predicted by Joe Foltz, on last Saturday resulting in Joe taking a bath, fully dressed and without warning.

The idea struck Joe and his brother, Monroe, and J. P. Buckingham, that if they would make a raft they could do some fishing. Two barrels were used and a platform built. Joe proceeded to guide the ship into the river, and seeing that it would float, and more, he piled onto the platform and it capsized without a moment's warning. The other boys became excited, knowing that Joe was subject to heart attacks, but he held onto the raft and was rescued. He rushed home in his car to tell his wife what had happened and he came near getting trounced. Joe plead with his wife not to scold and not to go and spoil their boat. When he changed his clothes, he returned to the river to change up the raft, so it would be safe.

The other boys had it all figured out what was wrong and they all proceeded to put on two wings and now it is as safe as an ocean steamer.

CONCORD

Mrs. Clifton Draggoo and baby were at Auburn a couple of days recently with her parents.

Mrs. Geneva Person and daughter, Nona, of Scipio, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harris, of Carey, Ohio, called on Mr. and Mrs. Ray Littlefield Monday afternoon.

A farewell dinner for Rev. and Mrs. Harrold was held Sunday at the church. All enjoyed the day.

Iris Jackson spent from Tuesday until Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins and daughter, and from Saturday until Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson.

Mrs. Rosa Camp, of Edon, O., entertained at Sunday dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fetters and Mrs. John Fetters, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fetters and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Warstler and Mr. Elza Jones.

A SHOWER

The people from the Coburn's Corners Church and the Cheesetown community gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A W. Trostel, Sunday evening and gave Mr. and Mrs. Willard Maxwell a shower. All enjoyed the sacred music by the Harmony Boys, and the visiting.

Others who attended were Miss Willard from Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Miller and sons of Spencerville; Mrs. Chas. Coburn from Fremont, Mich., and those from St. Joe were: Mrs. Lela Northrup, Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker and the Misses Frances Bishop, Violet May and Iris Wilmot.

The couple received many nice gifts and Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell served the crowd to all the ice cream they could eat.

4-H CLUB PROGRAM

The following program will be rendered at a 4-H Club meeting to be held August 17, from 3 to 5 P. M.:

Welcome .....Nelda Kees
4-H's—Marcella Wiers, Clara Wiers, Eloise Coburn, Christine Zonker
Reading .....Minta Davis
Piano Solo .....Estella Hart
Reading .....Eunice Shilling
Tap Dancing..Carma Jean Wilcox
Piano Solo .....Leila Hurni
Reading .....Christine Zonker
Goodbye Songs .....All Girls

The girls will be judged and prizes awarded by the Home Bureau ladies that so kindly sponsored the club this year. Mothers and members invited.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Films and developing handled at The News office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hamilton were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. N. Scholes at Hamilton Lake a couple days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hough, of Scott, Ohio, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Guilford last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Viena Rude and two children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Rude, east of Newville.

The Ladies Aid of the M. P. Church will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn on Saturday evening, August 25. The public is invited to attend. Pie, Sandwiches and Coffee will also be served.

Master Jimmy Koch, of Fort Wayne, came to St. Joe yesterday and entertained his grandfather, Chas. Koch a few hours.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Alice Wann, of Harlan, spent Wednesday with Miss Margaret Chaney.

Kenneth McNabb was a Sunday afternoon guest of Kenneth Klopfenstein of near Grabill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Howey attended the Agler family reunion held near Defiance, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wann, of Harlan were Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chaney.

The Misses Wilda and Ethel McNabb, of Fort Wayne were Sunday guests of their sister, Mrs. Roy Chaney, and family.

Miss Ethelyn Baker is on the sick list.

Mrs. Cora Steward, who has been quite ill, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Golden High went to Fort Wayne Sunday evening to spend a few days.

Lloyd Wade and family were week-end guests at the Frank Butler home.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid met in the church basement Wednesday afternoon.

Gale Bowser and family were Sunday evening guests at the Bine Boots home.

Miss Edith Culbertson spent several days last week with Miss Elsie Neland.

Miss Alice Wann, of Harlan, was a guest the past week of Miss Edith Culbertson.

Methodist Sunday School attendance 64, collection $2.29; Lutheran 73, $3.18.

Mr. and Mrs. George Beams attended their family reunion at South Bend, Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Reed and daughters were Sunday afternoon callers at the Rufus Boots home.

Mr. and Mrs. Delta McKinley were Friday guests in the Lum Brinker home at Hicksville.

Miss Erma Baltz, of Auburn, spent the past week as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peck and family, of Anderson, Ind., are visiting the Frank Beams home.

Miss Doris Rhoades will entertain the Young Ladies Social Club at her home on Friday evening.

Miss Virginia Goldsmith underwent an operation at the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne Saturday morning.

Mrs. W. J. Fyders and children, of Cincinnati, O., are visiting the lady's aunt and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rhoades, and daughter.

On Sunday, August 19, at the Methodist Church, Sunday School at 9:00 A. M., Lynn Fisher, superintendent. Preaching at 7:30 P. M., Rev. Newcombe, pastor.

Mrs. Roscoe Walter and children and Mrs. Ethel Walter and daughter, of Fort Wayne are spending the week at Cold Springs Resort, Hamilton Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitacre and daughter, of Highland, Ind., came Sunday evening to the R. U. Bowser home. Mrs. Whitacre and daughter remained for a week's visit.

Dr. and Mrs. Hall, of Garrett, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Baumgartner. On Sunday all left for the veterinary convention which is being held this week at New York.

The Butler Family reunion was held on Sunday at the old David Butler farm home south of town, on Sunday. The new officers are Frank Butler, president; Mrs. Audra Wade, secretary and treasurer. The family will meet next year at Lake Wawasee. There were about 80 members present.

Ray and Grace Houk, Muriel Goldsmith, of Fort Wayne, and Ruth Houk, of near Hicksville, attended the golden anniversary of Tri-State College at Angola Sunday and heard Rev. Scoville preach at the assembly at Lake James. They also called on Mr. Jay Bunge and family at Waterloo on the way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tustison and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade, of Defiance, Ohio, also Mr. and Mrs. John Goldsmith and daughters, Muriel and Margaret, of Fort Wayne, attended the funeral of Mrs. Tustison's and Mrs. Goldsmith's aunt, Arrilla Houk, last Tuesday afternoon held from the late home in Jackson township.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes and daughter, Lavern and granddaughter, Patsy Angel, Miss Loretta Funk, Mrs. Golden High, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kraft, Alice and Ethelyn Baker, Mrs. Hazel Steward, Mrs. William Schultz, Miss Erma Baltz and Mrs. W. A. Sommer attended the social at Mount Pleasant, Wednesday evening. They report a very large crowd and fine eats.

The True Blue class of the M. E. Sunday School held a weiner and marshmallow roast at the Ralph Culbertson home on last Thursday evening in honor of Donald Culbertson's 12th birthday. Those present beside the class and teacher, Mrs. R. U. Bowser were: Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, Mrs. Paul Furnish and daughter, Roselin, Misses Elsie Neland and Alice Wann, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and children, Ernest Kelley and Miss Ethelyn Baker.

ESTIMATE OF FUNDS TO BE RAISED

FUNDS REQUIRED FOR EXPENSES TO DECEMBER 31st OF INCOMING YEAR:	Township Fund	Sp. Sch. Fund	Tuition Fund	Library Fund	Poor Fund	Bond Fund
1. Total Budget Estimate for incoming year.	$1 000 00	$5 200 00	$ 8 020 00	$ 70 00	$1 500 00	$3 400 00
2. Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year	500 00	2 300 00	3 500 00	85		1 300 00
3. Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year			500 00
4. Outstanding temporary loans to be paid before Dec. 31st of present year—not included in lines 2 or 3						200 00
5. Total Funds required,(add lines 1,2,3,4)..	$1 500 00	$7 500 00	$12 020 00	$155 00	$1 500 00	$4 900 00
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
6. Actual Balance, July 31st of present year.	$ 285 76	$1 595 12	$ 6 129 22	$ 85 49		$ 707 49
7. Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement)	600 00	2 650 00	650 00	40 00		1 700 00
8. Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug. 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of County Auditor):
a. Special Taxes (see Schedule)			4 400 00
b. All other Revenue (see Schedule)		500 00	1 000 00			2 407 00
9. Total Funds (Add lines 6, 7, 8a)	885 00	4 745 00	12 179 00	125 00
10. NET AMOUNT TO BE RAISED FOR EXPENSES TO DEC. 31st OF INCOMING YEAR (deduct line 9 from line 5)	615 55	2 755 00		30 00		2 493 00
11. Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period)	500 00	2 300 00	1 500 00	30 00		1 700 00
12. AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAX LEVY (Add lines 10 and 11)	$1 115 00	$5 055 00	$ 1 500 00	$ 60 00	$1 500 00	$4 193 00

PROPOSED LEVIES

Net Taxable Property $1,315,500
Number of Taxable Polls 139

FUNDS	Levy on Polls	Levy on Property	Amt. to be Collect.
Township		$ 08½	$1 115 00
Tuition	$1 00	11½	1 500 00
Special School	1 00	39	5 055 00
Library		½	60 00
Bond		32	4 193 00
Poor		11½	1 500 00
Total	$2 00	$1 03	$13 423 00

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF TAXES COLLECTED AND TO BE COLLECTED

FUNDS	Collected 1933 Levy	Collected 1934 Levy	To Be Collected 1935 Levy
Township	$ 900 00	$ 1 200 00	$1 115 00
Tuition	3 500 00	1 400 00	1 500 00
Special School	4 250 00	5 400 00	5 055 00
Library	80 00	50 00	60 00
Bond	3 450 00	3 450 00	4 193 00
Poor	400 00	1 700 00	1 500 00
Total	$12 580 00	$13 200 00	$13 423 00

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

Dated August 15, 1934.

O. K. SHULL, Trustee of Concord Township.

A laugh is the best of medicine—Take a dose

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES" A Very Unfortunate Phrasing, Al — By Pop Momand

AUGUST

L 919

348

FOR SALE!

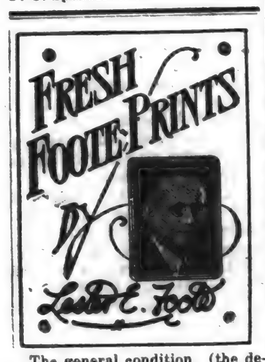
OR TRADE COLUMN

For Sale: Fresh cow with calf by side. See Inez Hadsell. 32t1.

Agents Wanted: Highest cash paid weekly; part expenses to part and full time workers. Experience unnecessary. Outfit free. Hook up with a going concern. The Hawks Nursery Co., Wauwatosa, Wis. 31t4.

For Sale: A Gray Horse. See Jacob Krabill. 32t1p.

For Sale: Shorthorn Cows with Calves. Also one milk cow. Will buy twenty head of good Ewes. Monte F. Ychacoll, Leo phone 294, P. O. Spencerville. 32t2p.



The general condition (the depression) in this contury is nothing in the mid-west agricultural districts compared to the hardships now being faced due to the drought, hail, heat, and chinch bugs.

The agricultural surplus and general carry-over will soon be exhausted. And says Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, "There will be a shortage of hay, oats, and bran for feed during the winter." Government reports show that hundreds of thousands of cattle and hogs have died from the heat and lack of food and water.

Mississippi is the only state out of the forty-eight that has a bumper crop of the various kinds of vegetables and general agricultural crops. This state is a real oasis, this year, in desert United States.

The World's Fair at Chicago is divided as follows: Articles of human interest 33%; Science and Education, 30%; Entertainment, 25%; Household and Fashions, 12%.

The human hair grows more raipdly in the summer. The hair of animals grows more rapidly in winter.

The Repeal has not brought the revenue to the Government and the stimulus to the grain market that had been predicted. Even the profits derived from the wholesaling and retailing of liquor and beer have been disappointing to the dealers. Licensed dispensaries find it difficult to compete with the bootleggers.

New York City has more Negroes than any other city in the world; more Italians than any city in Italy and more Irish than any city in Ireland.

During the World War our government purchased 945,000 saddles for 104.000 cavalry horses.

The use of buttermilk is highly recommended for nervousness and insomnia.

Time sure passes rapidly now with so many mortgages and notes coming due. If time is dragging for you just borrow some money for 60 days and see how quickly the time rolls around.

The automobile traffic on state roads is said to be the heaviest about 5:30 on Sunday afternoons.

"Life would be a perpetual flea hunt," Henry Ward Beecher once said, "if a man were obliged to run down all the insinuations and misrepresentations which are uttered against him."

Only one country in the world (England) has higher taxes per capita than the United States.

Free RUBBER RINGS ...for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator, any size or make, free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use" the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl ... a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth MFG. CO. PORT HURON, MICH. U.S.A.

37t14

Airplane builders are the highest paid craftsmen in the United States.

"The biggest reason why boys and girls go wrong," says a Salvation Army officer, "is malnutrition when they are young,"—not enough to eat or an improper diet.

The majority of criminals and delinquents in this country are between the ages of seventeen and twenty-one.

RECORD CROWD SEES NEW FAIR

Street of Villages Gets Big Play; Lights All New.

Chicago.—More than 235,000 persons saw the new World's Fair here on its first week-end. A record opening day crowd of 154,663 Saturday, May 26, surpassed last year's opening day figure by 34,088. The following day's crowd of 81,241 was greater by 28,557 than the same day in 1933.

President Roosevelt, through the medium of a motion picture shown at several points on the grounds, officially opened the Exposition. As he closed an electric switch the new lights blazed forth for the first time.

Visitors were surprised to find the Fair complete, and fully up to the promises made that it would be new.

Lights Trace Sky Ride.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, first lady of the land, inaugurated the outstanding new feature, the world's largest fountain. Like the President, she appeared in a motion picture. At a magical wave of her hand, the giant waterspouts rose from the north lagoon, livened by a play of colored light.

Lighting, the most talked-of thing about the 1933 Fair, revealed wonders never approached on the 1934 opening night. Co-ordination of lighting and color were more in evidence. Under the lights the new Century of Progress purple-red, theme color of the new Exposition, presented a glowing beauty that was different. Buildings, grouped with respect to color in light as well as color in paint, revealed a new harmony.

The Sky Ride, almost lost to vision at night formerly, greeted visitors with all its catenary system traced against the sky in electric light. Bright red neon tubes outlined the observation platforms 628 feet above the Fair. Farther south, from the rotunda of the Ford building, a pillar of blue light, 200 feet thick and more than a mile high, pierced the clouds overhead. The lighting load of this 900-feet-long building is more than one-third the total load of the entire Fair of last year.

Foreign Villages Popular.

New lights in the lagoon and a new "Aurora Borealis" of searchlights at the north end of the grounds, complementing that at the south end, completed the major changes in the night time illumination.

Mecca for the opening day throngs was the new Street of Villages. The "tour of the world in a single day" offered by the fifteen reproductions of far-away lands in the new Fair proved to be an idea that "clicked."

Eleven of the foreign villages are grouped together where the Midway was in 1933. Here are an Irish village, with the atmosphere that was known by the ancient chieftains who met in Tara Hall; the Spanish village, largest ever built for any Fair; Tunisia, the "Land of the Bedouins"; the Italian village, with its leaning tower and time-worn Roman ruins.

Free Entertainment.

Visitors saw the Tower of London and watched Shakespeare's plays presented in a reproduction of Shakespeare's original Globe theater in the English village; saw ice-skating under the summer sun in the German Black Forest Village; saw Old North Church, Mount Vernon, and the home of Paul Revere in the American Colonial village; relaxed in the luxury of a North African desert village in the Oasis; thrilled to the charm of native folk dances in the lovely Belgian village, and entered the gaiety of Montmartre in the Streets of Paris.

Elsewhere on the grounds they found a Dutch village, a Mexican village, a Swiss village, and the Streets of Shanghai.

Free entertainment projects caught big crowds. Among them were the concerts on the Swift bridge, the spectacular lion and tiger show in the Standard Oil amphitheater, the circuses of the Lagoon theater, the seeming miracles performed in the Science theater and the many shows presented by exhibitors in the various exhibit buildings.

Fair Better Host.

Opening day throngs found that no exhibits remaining from last year were unchanged. Animation has been added everywhere. The Ford "exposition," altogether new, is a world of motion, showing the manufacture of virtually every part that goes into a motor car. Armour and compan; and Wilson and company, packers, have done much the same with their exhibits; so have the Continenti Baking company, Hiram Walker, the Brook Hill Dairy farm and others new to A Century of Progress.

Perhaps most importan' of all, visitors found the new Fair a better host. Eighty per cent of the toilets are free, transportation and restaurant prices are lower and there are more free resting places for the weary, most of them where free entertainment is in progress.

Notice to Taxpayers of Tax Levies

In the Matter of Determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by DeKalb County, Indiana. Before the County Council and Board of Couty Commissioners.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

BUDGET CLASSIFICATION FOR COUNTIES

CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT
Services Personal.....$3,050.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 870.00
Current Charges..... 300.00

COUNTY AUDITOR
Services Personal.....$3,610.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 1,060.00
Properties 40.00

COUNTY TREASURER
Services Personal.....$4,360.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 700.00

COUNTY RECORDER
Services Personal.....$2,180.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 272.00

COUNTY SHERIFF
Services Personal.....$4,350.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 3,606.00

COUNTY SURVEYOR
Services Personal.....$2,975.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 680.00
Properties 65.00

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT
Services Personal.....$2,500.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 375.00
Current Charges..... 75.00
Properties 45.00

COUNTY CORONER
Services Personal .....$ 655.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 102.00

COUNTY ASSESSOR
Services Personal.....$1,160.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 170.00

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
Services Personal.....$2,000.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 225.00

CIRCUIT COURT
Services Personal.....$6,650.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 320.00
Current Charges.....11,470.00
Properties 400.00

COUNTY COURT HOUSE
Services Personal.....$4,100.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 3,950.00
Current Charges..... 600.00

COUNTY JAIL
Services Personal.....$ 40.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 1,470.00

COUNTY INFIRMARY
Services Personal.....$2,650.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 4,320.00
Current Charges..... 500.00
Properties 1,700.00

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
Services Personal.....$ 7,360.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 40,345.00
Current Charges..... 93,992.00
Current Obligations.... 6,000.00
Properties 7,500.00
TOTAL GENERAL FUND $229,092.00

COUNTY UNIT ROAD BONDS
Prin. to Be Paid.....$ 34,500.00
Int. to Be Paid..... 7,663.36
TOTAL CO. U. R. B. $ 42,163.36

FREE GRAVEL ROAD REPAIR FUND
Services Personal.....$ 36,860.00
All Other Op. Expense 18,755.00
Materlal 36,600.00
Current Charges..... 15,000.00
Properties 8,900.00
TOTAL F. G. R. R...$101,615.00

ESTIMATE OF COUNTY FUNDS TO BE RAISED

FUNDS REQUIRED FOR EXPENSES TO DECEMBER 31st of INCOMING YEAR	General Fund	Co. Unit Rd. Bonds
1. Total Budget Estimate for incoming year..	229,092.00	$42,163.36
2. Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year.....	75,000.00
3. Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year	6,000.00
4. Outstanding temporary loans to be paid before Dec. 31st of present year—not included in lines 2 or 3	.....
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
5. Total Funds required,(add lines 1,2,3,4)..	310,092.00
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
6. Actual Balance, July 31st of present year.	36,000.00
7. Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement).....	52,355.00
8. Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug. 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of County Auditor):
a. Special Taxes (see Schedule)	122,536.00
9. Total Funds (Add lines 6, 7, 8a)	210,891.00
10. NET AMOUNT TO BE RAISED FOR EXPENSES TO DEC. 31st OF INCOMING YEAR (deduct line 9 from line 5)	99,201.00
11. Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period)	50,000.00
12. AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAX LEVY (Add lines 10 and 11)	149,201.00	42,163.36

PROPOSED LEVIES

Net Taxable Property $26,000,000.00

FUNDS	Levy on Property	Amount to be Raised
County Revenue .....$	.57	$149,201.00
County Unit Road Bonds	.17	42,163.36
TOTAL	.74	$191,364.36

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF TAXES COLLECTED AND TO BE COLLECTED

Name of Fund	Collected 1932 Levy	Collected 1933 Levy	Collected 1934 Levy	To Be Collected 1935 Levy
County Revenue ..	$130,585.28	$117,085.68	$151,377.05	$149,201.00
Co. Unit Road Bds.	56,112.84	46,744.85	46,497.19	42,163.36
TOTAL	$186,698.12	$163,830.53	$197,864.24	$191,364.36

TOWNSHIPS FREE GRAVEL ROAD BOND FUNDS

Name of Township	Passed Due and Current Prin. to Be Paid	Passed Due and Current Int. to Be Paid	Tot Prin. and Int. to Be Paid
Butler Township	$ 4,030.00	$ 478.19	$ 4,508.19
Concord Township	5,164.00	713.09	5,877.09
Fairfield Township	5,245.00	696.02	5,941.02
Franklin Township	4,342.00	613.05	4,955.05
Grant Township	4,628.40	611.38	5,239.78
Jackson Township	8,418.00	1,079.72	9,497.72
Keyser Township	4,246.00	449.84	4,695.84
Newville Township	2,700.00	365.66	3,065.66
Richland Township	5,972.00	679.78	6,651.78
Smithfield Township	5,220.00	733.99	5,953.99
Stafford Township	2,530.00	477.13	3,007.23
Troy Township	2,155.40	235.13	2,390.53
Union Township	7,518.00	1,098.51	8,616.51
Wilmington Township	$12,721.10	$1,443.02	$14,164.12

ESTIMATE OF FUNDS TO BE RAISED

Name of Township	Tot. Prin. and Int. to be Paid	Overdrafts (Add)	Bal. (Ded)	Amt. Necess to be raised
Butler Township .....$	4,508.19	$ 430.90		$ 4,939.19
Concord Township	5,877.09	521.57		6,398.66
Fairfield Township	5,941.02			5,941.02
Franklin Township	4,955.05			4,955.05
Grant Township	5,239.78			5,239.78
Jackson Township	9,497.72	2,132.56		11,630.28
Keyser Township	4,695.84	961.00		5,656.84
Newville Township	3,065.66	646.55		3,712.21
Richland Township	6,651.78		1,500.00	5,151.78
Smithfield Township	5,953.99			5,953.99
Stafford Township	3,007.23			3,007.23
Troy Township	2,390.53			2,390.53
Union Township	8,616.51		1,000.00	7,616.51
Wilmington Township ...	14,164.12	360.00		14,524.12

PROPOSED LEVIES

Name of Township	Assessed Valuation	Levy	Amount to be Raised
Butler Township .....$	871 440	$ .57	$ 4 939 09
Fairfield Township	1 023 020	.60	5 941 02
Franklin Township	920 140	.54	4 955 05
Jackson Township	1 850 990	.63	11 630 28
Newville Township	592 020	.63	3 712 21
Stafford Township	808 310	.38	3 007 23
Troy Township	521 010	.45	2 390 53
Grant Township	1 468 690	.26	5 239 78
Waterloo Town	804 550	.19
Richland Township	1 479 760	.33	5 151 78
Corunna Town	185 790	.23
Smithfield Township	1 174 660	.47	5 953 99
Ashley Town	149 400	.47
Union Township	1 028 530	.19	7 616 51
Auburn City	4 459 560	.12
Concord Township	1 079 280	.50	6 398 66
St. Joe Town	236 220	.50
Keyser Township	1 514 340	.27	5 656 84
Altona Town	141 250	.08
Garrett City	2 421 590	.08
Wilmington Township	2 053 222	.46	14 524 12
Butler Town	1 210 500	.40

Taxpayers appearing shall have the right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday in September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

FRANK E. LYON, Auditor of DeKalb County.

Dated August 10, 1934.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dressel moved Saturday into the C. E. Mason property.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Teh George Milliman family are now located on the Northrup farm east of Spencerville.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

John Tabor, of Hopkinsville, Ky., arrived Monday to work at the flour mill and will be recognized as the head miller.

Misses Murial Goldsmith, of Ft. Wayne and Ruth Houk, of near Hicksville, were guests of Miss Grace Houk of Spencerville a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hercules and son, Billy, of Fort Wayne, were here Sunday night and Monday visiting their mother, Mrs. Frank Milliman. Mr. Hercules is enjoying his vacation this week.

Mrs. Marjorie Ramsey is at Piggot, Arizona, where her husband and son have been located. She expects to remain there and defend herself against any attempt on his part to obtain a legal separation.

All rabbit breeders are asked to meet at the County Agent's office on the evening of September 4, to make final plans, entries and arrangements for the fall fair. Eighty premiums will be awarded in this department this year.

The Knisely reunion was held at the Hicksville fair grounds August the 12th. 135 attended. J. C. Knisely was elected president for his fifth term and Della Christman was elected secretary and treasurer. A bountiful dinner was served at noon and an enjoyable program was given in the afternoon. Mrs. J. R. Knisely and daughter and grandson of St. Joe attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Ridgway and daughter, Jean, spent Saturday and Sunday at Hobart with Mr. and Mrs. Vet Chandler and Mrs. Olive Frye. Miss Jean is spending the week there.

Everett Mavis and family, of Auburn and Mrs. Jennie Sechler left Saturday morning for a ten days trip through the East and visiting Pennsylvania relatives. They spent their first night with Rev. J. H. Stall at Evans City, Pa.

The heavy rain Friday night was a blessing to the community. A large tree near the Chas. Smith farm was blown down, blockading the road. It took the most of Saturday for the road gang to remove the tree.

Lewis Wasson and family returned home Monday from Forrest, Ohio, where he spent a few days after being released from Crestline Hospital, where he received treatments for electric burns, some weeks ago.

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mountz.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer Warren Arnold.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

Dundon Red Ash BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

WE HAVE IT AT THE RIGHT PRICE:
HOMINY HEARTS, per 100 pounds $1.55
BRAN, per 100 pounds $1.40
MIDDLINGS, per 100 pounds $1.50
CORN and OATS CHOP, per 100 pounds $1.50
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Kessler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

AUGUST

L 919

0349

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1934 NUMBER 33

Legal Notices

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS OF TAX LEVIES

In the Matter of Determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by the Civil Town of St. Joe, County of DeKalb, Indiana.

Before the Town Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of the Civil Town of St. Joe, DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

Budget Classification

For street lighting, $826.77.
Corporation, including salaries, town hall expense, fire equipment, etc., $118.11.
Polls, $78.00.
Estimate of gas tax for 1935, (Street Fund,) $336.00.
Total Eestimate, $1,358.88.

Proposed Levies

Net Taxable Property, $236,220.00.
Number of taxable polls, 52.

For street lighting, levy on property, 35 cents, amount to be raised, $826.77.

For corporation, levy on property 5 cents, amount to be raised, $118.11.

52 Polls, at $1.50, amount to be raised, $78.00.

Total, levy on property, 40 cents, levy on polls, $1.50; amount to be raised, $1,022.88.

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

D. B. RIDGWAY, Clerk.
Dated Aug. 20, 1934.

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

NOTICE OF EXECUTOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

The undersigned, Executor of the Last Will of Margaret A. Rhoads, deceased, hereby gives notice that by virtue of an order of the DeKalb Circuit Court of Indiana, he will at the hour of 9 o'clock A. M. on the 6th day of September, 1934, at his residence in Spencer Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, and from day to day thereafter until sold, offer for sale at private sale, all the interest of said decedent in and to the following described real estate situate in DeKalb County, Indiana, to-wit:

A parcel of land described as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of the east half (½) of the Northeast Quarter (¼) of Section Thirty-three (33,) Township Thirty-three (33) North, Range Fourteen (14) east in DeKalb County, Indiana, thence south on the section line Eighty (80) rods; thence west thirty-two and .2 (32.2) rods; thence north eighty (80) rods; on the section line; thence east to the place of beginning.

Said sale will be made subject to the approval of said Court, for not less than the appraised value, and upon the following terms and conditions:

At least one third of the purchase money cash in hand, the balance in two equal installments, payable in six months and twelve months after date, evidenced by notes of the purchaser, bearing six per cent per annum, waiving relief and providing for attorneys fees and secured by a mortgage on the real estate sold.

The executor reserves any and all growing crops.

W. F. RHOADS,
31t3. Executor.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS OF TAX LEVIES

In the Matter of determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by Newville Township, DeKalb County, Indiana.

Before the Township Advisory Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Newville Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

Budget Classification
Township Fund

Salary of Trustee, $450.00.
Office Rent, $60.00.
Trustee's Expense, $100.00.
Records and Adv., $250.00.
Pay of Adv. Board, $15.00.
Exam. Records, $60.00.
Miscellaneous, $75.00.
Total Township Fund, $1,010.00.

Poor Fund

To Reimburse County, $473.00.

Tuition Fund

Pay of Teachers, $2,400.00.
School Transfers, $2,000.00
Total Tuition Fund, $4,400.00.

Special School Fund

Repair of Building and Ground, $75.00.
Repair of Equipment, $100.00.
School Furn. and Equip., $100.00.
School Supplies, $75.00.
Janitor Supplies, $20.00.
Fuel for Schools, $160.00.
Teachers Institute, $60.00.
Janitor Service, $40.00.
Transportation of Children, $300.
Miscellaneous, $90.00.
Total Spec. School Fund, $1,020.

Estimate of Township Funds To Be Raised

Funds Required for Expenses to December 31st of Incoming Year:

Total Budget Estimate for incoming year: Township Fund, $1,010.00; Sp. School Fund, $1,020; Tuition Fund, $4,400.00; Poor Fund, $473.00.

Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year: Township Fund, $450.00; Special School Fund, $300.00; Tuition Fund, $1,200.00.

Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year: Tuition Fund, $50.00.

Total Funds Required: Township Fund, $1,460.00; Sp. School Fund, $1,320.00; Tuition Fund, $5,650.00; Poor Fund, $473.00.

Actual Balance, July 31st of present year: Township Fund, $956.00; Sp. School Fund, $1,998; Tuition Fund, $2,776.00.

Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement:) Township Fund, $560.00; Special School Fund, $410.00; Tuition Fund, $1,237.00.

Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of Township Trustee:)

a. Special Taxes (see Schedule) Special School Fund, $180.00; Tuition Fund, $1,590.00.

Total Funds: Township Fund, $1,516.00; Sp. School Fund, $2,583.00; Tuition Fund, $5,603.00.

Net Amount To Be Raised For Expenses To Dec. 31st of Incoming Year: Tuition Fund, $47.00.

Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period:) Township Fund, $592.00; Sp. School Fund, $300.00; Tuition Fund, $1,200.00.

Amount To Be Raised By Tax Levy: Township Fund, $592.00; Sp. School Fund, $300.00; Tuition Fund, $1,247.00; Poor Fund, $473.00.

Proposed Levies

Net Taxable Property, $592,020.00.
Number of Taxable Polls, 78.

Township Fund: Levy on Property, 10 cents; Amount to be raised, $592.00.

Tuition Fund: Levy on Polls, 50 cents; Levy on Property, 10 cents; Amount to be Raised, $630.

Special School Fund: Levy on Polls, 50 cents; Amount to be Raised, $39.00.

Poor Fund: Levy on Property, 8 cents; Amount to be Raised, $473.00.

Total: Levy on Polls, $1.00; Levy on Property, 28 cents; Amount to be Raised, $1,734.00.

Comparative Statement of Taxes Collected and To Be Collected

Township Fund: Collected 1932 Levy, $954.00; Collected 1933 Levy, $335.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $366.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $592.00.

Tuition Fund: Collected 1932 Levy, $3,525.00; Collected 1933 Levy, $2,985.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $2,475.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $630.00.

Special School Fund: Collected 1932 Levy, $1,255.00; Collected 1933 Levy, $90.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $618.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $39.00.

Poor Fund: Collected 1934 Levy, $123.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $473.00.

Total: Collected 1932 Levy, $5,734.00; Colected 1933 Levy, $3,810.00; Collected 1934 Levy, $4,071.00; To Be Collected 1935 Levy, $1,734.00.

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

Dated August 10, 1934.
SHERMAN T. MEEK, Trustee.

IRENE A. WENTE BECOMES BRIDE OF L. PFLAUMER

Miss Elizabeth Spees arranged a program of bridal music preceding the wedding of Miss Irene Wente, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wente, Newark, Ohio, and Lawrence A. Pflaumer, of Spencerville, Ind., which was solemnized Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock in the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

As the guests assembled Miss Spees played the Mendelssohn "Spring Song," "Prelude," by Chopin; "The Lonesome Whistler," by Guion, and "Arabesque," by DeBussy. The conventional Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bridal party took their places before the altar, which was banked with ferns and palms. Tall cathedral candles were used effectively. The marriage service was read by Rev. Bruce Kreis, a college mate of both the bride and bridegroom. The double-ring ceremony was solemnized. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Harry Wente, and her only attendant was her sister, Miss Ethel Wente, as maid of honor. LaVerne Pflaumer, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Floyd Pflaumer acted as usher.

Chalk-white crepe fashioned the wedding gown, which was made on the molded silhouette, with a flared skirt at the hemline. The gown had a jacket trimmed in white net and the bride wore a bonnet of lace, embroidered with seed pearls and orange blossoms, to which was attached a veil of net and lace. She wore white lace mittens and white satin slippers and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

The maid of honor wore a gown of green crepe, made with a cape trimmed in ostrich feathers. Green and silver accessories were effective and she carried an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served in the Wente home to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pflaumer, LaVerne Pflaumer, Russell Pflaumer and Miss Violet Pflaumer, all of Spencerville, Ind.; Miss Louise Weber and Miss Irene Spees, of Toledo; Floyd Pflaumer, of Urbana, O.; Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Schenk, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Spees, Miss Elizabeth Spees, Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Kreis, of Roseville, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wente Miss Ethel Wente, Miss Bessie Lingafelter, Miss Marie Moorhead, of Findlay.

The bride is a graduate of Newark high school and of Wittenberg College. She attended Ohio State University and has been teaching in the Osborn high school in Osborn.

Mr. Pflaumer was graduated from Spencerville high school and from Wittenbery College. He formerly attended Ohio State University and is principal of the Olive Branch high school in New Carlisle.

Following the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Pflaumer left on a wedding trip to Virginia. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown shadow crepe with brown accessories. They will live in New Carlisle.—Newark, O., Advocate, Aug. 17, 1934.

GOODWIN—JOHNSON

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Johnson, of Stockwell, Ind., announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Mary, to David Goebel Godwin, of Cambridge City, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Goodwin, of St. Joe. The ceremony took place at Crown Point, Ind., Sept. 2, 1933, with the Rev. Edward W. Strecker, pastor of the Methodist Church of Crown Point, reading the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Goodwin is a graduate of the Stockwell high school and attended Purdue University. Mr. Goodwin is a graduate of the St. Joe high school and also attended Purdue University, where he was a member of the Delta Alpha Pi fraternity. He is employed by the State Highway Commission and is located at Cambridge City where they will reside.

MID-MORNING CEREMONY IN BELLEVUE RESIDENCE

At a home ceremony yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Esther Johnson, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Johnson, of North Bryant Street, Bellevue, became the bride of the Rev. Norman O. Scribner, of Washington, D. C., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Scribner, of Baltimore. Her father performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a navy blue semi-tailleur frock, with hat to match, and a corsage of gardenias. Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Johnson, of Lynn, Mass. Her brother, the Rev. Robert Johnson was the best man.

Following the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast and the young couple left later for a wedding trip in the east. They will make their home in Washington, D. C., where the bridegroom is pastor of the Gorsuch Methodist Episcopal Church.

Among the guests from out of town, who attended the wedding were Mrs. G. M. Barney, of Hicksville, O.; E. C. Johnson, of Indianapolis, Ind., uncle of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ayers, of Detroit, Mich.

The bride is a graduate of De Pauw University and Carnegie Institute of Technology. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, national sorority.

Mr. Scribner graduated from Ohio Wesleyan and the Boston University School of Theology.—Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Aug. 15, 1934.

THE ST. JOE RIVER VALLEY

Emerson says "that if you make a better mouse trap than any one else, the world will wear a beaten path to your door," but it certainly is not true if the world does not know you make mouse traps or is not interested in mouse traps.

To make the mouse trap story hang together people must want mouse traps or think they do, and must know where to get them. The art of creating the desire and letting people know where it may be satisfied is called advertising, or propaganda, but in some form or other is as old as civilization, perhaps older.

The St. Joe River Valley, in the vicinity of St Joe, produces as good a quality of fruit and vegetables as any place in the world. The soil and climate combines to make the finest flavor and body to the products. Some localities produce more highly colored, some larger specimans, but no where are all the essential qualities better combined.

The county seat sponsors a Fall Fair and has a street parade, witnessed by four or five thousand people and gives us a chance to let outsiders know what we are doing. Why not take advantage of it and put on a "St Joe Valley" section of the parade this year.

All Stoves at Large Discount.
33t1. Curie Hardware.

A. M. Baker is nursing a sore leg as a result of a bumping, and later followed by an infection.

Thursday guests at the E. B. Smith home were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stutman, of Chicago and Miss Evelyn Mae Brannan, of Edon, Ohio.

ATTENTION!
Special Low Prices
Watch Our Windows--New Goods!
Laundry Stoves Wood Heaters
Hot Blast Heaters
Complete lines
Stove Pipe and all Accessories
Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company
Kinsey Funeral Home
Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant
Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

Leighty Orchard
On account of the hot dry weather you probably did not can as much small fruit as you wanted.
You will not miss the small fruit if you put up plenty of sauce from WEALTHY APPLES. They are best for canning, and are now selling.
Pure cider vinegar two years old. New Honey.

ANNOUNCING
—The Eighty-Second—
INDIANA STATE FAIR
SEPTEMBER 1-2-3-4-5-6-7
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

Immaculate young womanhood finds in Mavis Talcum Powder exactly the deliciously cool comfort and silken smoothness which is indispensable for a well kept body. Daintily fragrant, impalpably fine, it deodorizes and absorbs perspiration as it soothes. Mavis guards against summer heat.
Use Mavis Talcum ALL OVER from the shoulders down. Mavis Face Powder for Face and Throat.
by VIVAUDOU
25¢ 50¢ $1.00
MAVIS TALCUM POWDER

AUGUST

L 919 ... 350

Notice to Taxpayers of Tax Levies

The Advisory Board will at this meeting consider the following appropriations:—$470.00 to Special School Fund; $950.00 to Tuition Fund; $100.00 to Library Fund.

In the Matter of determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by Spencer Township DeKalb County, Indiana. Before the Township Advisory Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Spencer Township, De Kalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

BUDGET CIASSIFICATION FOR TOWNSHIPS

Township Fund

Salary of Trustee, $600.00.
Office Rent, $60.00.
Trustee's Expense, traveling $125.
Records and Adv., $170.00.
Pay of Adv. Board, $15.00.
Exam. Records, $40.00.
Miscellaneous, $110.00.
Total Township Fund, $1,120.00

Poor Fund

To Reimburse County, $456.59

Tuition Fund

Pay of Teachers, $8,330.00.
Total Tuition Fund, $8,330.00.

Library Fund,

Library Tax, $87.03.

Special School Fund

Repair of Building and Ground, $175.00.
Repair of Equipment, $100.00.
School Furn. and Equip., $200.00.
Schol Supplies, $150.00.
Janitor Supplies, $50.00.
Fuel for Schools, $600.00.
Loans, Int. and Insurance., $275.
Teachers Institute, $180.00.
Janitor Service, $560.00.
Transportation of Children, $1,720.00.
Light and Power, $180.00.
Miscellaneous, $300.00.
Total Spec. School Fund, $4,490.

Bond Fund

Bonds, $2,250.00.
Interest, $734.07.
Total Bond Fund, $2,984.07.

ESTIMATE OF TOWNSHIP FUNDS TO BE RAISED

FUNDS REQUIRED FOR EXPENSES TO DECEMBER 31st OF INCOMING YEAR:	Township Fund	Sp. School Fund	Tuition Fund	Poor Fund	Bond Fund
1 Total Budget Estimate for incoming year	$1 120 00	$4 490 00	$ 8 330 00	$456 59	$2 984 07
2 Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year	665 00	1 697 82	3 223 81
3 Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year		470 00	950 00
4 Outstanding temporary loans to be paid before Dec. 31st of present year—not included in lines 2 or 3
5 Total Funds Required (Add lines 1, 2, 3 and 4)	$1 785 00	$6 657 82	$12 503 81	$456 59	$2 984 07
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
6 Actual Balance, July 31st of present year	825 08	2 683 72	8 646 44
7 Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement)	477 62	864 02	1 102 13		1 387 82
8 Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug. 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of Township Trustee)
a. Special Taxes (See Schedule)		290 00	2 945 00
b. All other Revenue (See Schedule			295 00
9 Total Funds (Add lines 6, 7, 8a and 8b)	$1 302 70	$3 837 74	$12 988 57		$1 387 82
10 NET AMOUNT TO BE RAISED FOR EXPENSES TO DEC. 1st OF INCOMING YEAR (Deduct line 9 from line 5)	482 30	2 820 08			1 596 25
11 Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period)	637 70	1 619 92	2 031 74
12 AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAX LEVY (add lines 10, 11)	$1 120 00	$4 440 00	$ 2 031 74	$456 59	$2 984 07

PROPOSED LEVIES

Net Taxable Property $870,340.00
Number of Taxable Polls 117

FUNDS	Levy on Polls	Levy on Property	Amount to Be Raised
Township		13	$ 1 131 44
Tuition	1 00	22	2 031 74
Special School	50	50	4 410 20
Library		01	87 03
Bond		35	3 046 19
Poor		06	522 20
TOTAL	$1 50	$1 27	$11 228 80

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF TAXES COLLECTED AND TO BE COLLECTED

FUNDS	Collected 1932 Levy	Collected 1933 Levy	Collected 1934 Levy	To Be Collected 1935 Levy
Township	$ 1 350 00	$ 1 300 00	$1 120 00	$ 1 131 44
Tuition	7 157 00	5 097 47	2 335 80	2 031 74
Special School	3 831 07	4 830 00	1 918 40	4 410 20
Library				87 08
Bond	3 275 00	3 173 75	3 072 46	3 046 19
Poor		306 79	727 90	522 20
TOTAL	$18 388 07	$14 708 01	$9 074 56	$11 228 80

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

Dated August 14, 1934.

F. E. RHODES, Trustee Spencer Township.

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

TOWN COUNCIL PURCHASES TRUCK CHASSIS

In order to better meet the needs and demands of the local fire company, it was deemed advisable to make the purchase of a 1½ ton truck chassis, so the council advertised for bids and the opening Monday revealed the following:

Ford V-8—1½ Ton
J. B. Dawson, Auburn, $522.00.
A. O. Kempp, Topeka, $495.00.
Cities Sales, Hicksville, $499.68.

Chevrolet 1½ Ton
Maxton Sales, Butler, $519.75
Furnish Sales, $505.87.
Joe Koch, Ft. Wayne, $531.40.
Stanley Koch, Ft. Wayne, $500.00.

Dodge Truck, 1½ Ton
Kendallville Sales, $648.00.

International Truck
McCormick-Deering, Kendallville, Model C35, 1½ to 2 ton, $770.00.
Model B3, 1½ ton, $620.00.

After carefully perusing the bids submitted, on Tuesday evening, the contract was let to Stanley Koch, for complete standard equipment chassis. While the bids were all close, the only difference being in the windshield as a part of the standard equipment in all bids except the Fords.

NEW PASTOR COMING

Rev. William D. Koehnlein, was made pastor of St. Joe and Concord M. P. Church, together with Harlan and Milan Center, Monday, by the announcement of the stationing committee at the annual conference in session at the camp grounds at Marion, all last week. The new pastor is young, and will move here with his new bride in a few weeks. A joint meeting was held at Harlan Wednesday evening to make plans and a shower will be given them next Wednesday evening by the four churches.

CONCORD

Mrs. Clifton Draggoo is spending a few days at Auburn with her parents.

Master Walter Fetters, accompanied Miss Violet Baker to her home at Bluffton, Sunday morning to spend a week.

Mrs. George Johnson and family entertained to Sunday dinner Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Maurer, of Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Murphy and daughter, Vivian, spent one day last week with their daughter, Mrs. Chas. Quance, and family at Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo, Mrs. Geo. Johnson and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo enjoyed their trip to annual conference at the camp grounds near Marion, Thursday and Friday. Frank May and daughter, Violet, made the same trip on Friday.

Mr. Will Scott, of Hicksville, came to this place Sunday and took Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bone to his home where they spent the day.

Will Goldsmith called one afternoon last week on his daughter, Virginia, who is in the hospital at Fort Wayne, and found her improving slowly. She expects to be home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Goldsmith and father went to their farm at Hurshtown Sunday, taking their dinner and eating in the old home. They also enjoyed the famous Keller melons.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maxwell and two children, spent a short time Saturday evening in the Ford Jackson home. Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson were callers also in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hull, Mrs. Lloyd Draggoo and son, James, spent Saturday on the World's Fair grounds, returning home in the evening. They report having had a fine time.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Viena Rude and two children attended the Farner reunion Sunday at Eckhart Park, Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, of Auburn, called at the home of Mrs. Wm. Randall Tuesday evening.

Burl Jr. and Mary Ellen Rude are spending the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rude, east of Newville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sims, daughter and niece, of Union City, Ind., visited in the Frank Curie home Tuesday afternoon. They were enroute to Hamilton Lake. Mr. Sims is still teaching at Union City, where he went on leaving St. Joe. They also called on other friends while here.

Mrs. Harold Furnish returned home Tuesday evening in the Howard Beams ambulance. She is very much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie, of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Curie and Miss Lillian Ernest, of Garrett, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Taylor, of Jackson, Mich. The afternoon was spent sight seeing and visiting places of interest.

Frank Curie, Jr., is spending a couple of days at Hicksville with his sister, Mrs. Roger Brown and attending the fair.

An ice creeam social at the M. P church, St. Joe, and you are welcome—Saturday night. Rain or fair weather it will be on.

Mr. and Mrs Glen Wineland returned home from Kansas City, Mo., Tuesday night, after a 4 days visit with their daughter, Mrs. Patrice Phelps, and family and three days at the Century of Progress.

A wise man mentions seven things that one never forgets. He covers too much ground to be practical. Moreover, seven rules are too many to carry in mind. For this week, why not select one? Destroy the letter written in anger.

A farewell party was given DuWayne Kinsey and wife by the Co-Aid class of the M. P. S. S. with Jos. Koch and wife, as host and hostess, at the Chas. Koch home Tuesday evening. The young couple will leave next week for Indianapolis, where DuWayne will attend a mortician college.

Despite reports to the contrary existing at the statehouse, Gov. Paul V. McNutt indicated that Warden Louis E. Kunkel of the state prison would not be replaced, and of course, that is good news to the inmates of Michigan City prison. A change in wardens would indicate the Governor erred in judgment in making the appointment, and that will not be acknowledged.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT DAY, FRIDAY, AUGUST 31

On Friday, August 31, DaKelb County Schols will observe Enrollment and Organization Day. There will be a forenoon session for pupils. The School Bus Drivers will make the initial trip for the year planning to arrive atthe school at 9:30 Central Standard Time. Enrollment data will be procured, book lists distributed, and important announcements made pertaining to this year's school work. Classroom work will start at 8:30 Central Standard Time on Tuesday, September 4th. Hence August 31st counts as the first day of school.

Directory

J. B. Munn, Principal, History and Latin.

Priscilla Borthwick Simanton, English and Mathematics.

R. G. Noffsinger, Science and Physical Education.

Bruce Gerdes, Commerce and English.

Janalyce, Rouls, Vocational Home Economics.

C. A. Woodcox, Vocal and Instrumental Music.

Cleota Moor, Fifth and Sixth Grades.

Grades 3 and 4 to be supplied.

Violet May, First and Second Grades.

School Bus Drivers and Routes

Charles Cochran, Saylor and Wilmington Township; Donald Keller, Newville and Newville Township; H. K. Schondelmayer, Orangeville and Springbrook; H. E. Smith, Concord and Jackson Township; Roy Koch, Extra.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

St. Joe Methodist Church Lawn

Saturday Evening August 25, 1934

Home Made Ice Cream, Cake, Sandwiches, Coffee, Pie,

Keller's Famous Honey Rock Melons will be served, with or without.

"REASONABLE RATES" . . .

The Law says we may not charge more—

SINCE 1927, WE HAVE MADE A NUMBER OF VOLUNTARY RATE REDUCTIONS WHICH HAVE RESULTED IN SAVINGS TO OUR CUSTOMERS OF OVER $3,024,000.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC CO.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

The State will not allow public utilities to earn more than a reasonable return on the fair value of their properties used in the public service. This is the most that such concerns are permitted to earn and is ONLY available if under honest and efficient management the utility can secure it.

THERE IS NO GUARANTEE OF PUBLIC UTILITY EARNINGS BY THE STATE. The State Law says that utilities cannot earn more than is fair and reasonable — economic law generally compels them to accept less.

H. T. Ernest
Vice President & General Manager

AUGUST

L 91
351

Notice to Taxpayers of Tax Levies

In the matter of determining the tax rates for certain purposes by Concord township, DeKalb County Indiana.

Before the Township Advisory Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Concord Township, DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September 1934, will consider the following budget:

Budget Classification

Township Fund

Salary of Trustee, $600.00.
Office Rent, $60.00.
Trustee's Expenses, $125.00.
Records and Advertising, $100.00.
Pay of Advisory Board, $15.00.
Pay of Interest, $25.00.
Examination of Records, $40.00.
Miscellaneous, $35.00.
Total Township Funds, $1,000.

Poor Fund

To Reimburse County, $1,500.00

Tuition Fund

Pay of Teachers, $7,960.00
School Transfers, $60.00
Total Tuition Fund, $8,020.00

Library Fund

Library Tax, $70.00

Special School Fund

Repair of Buildings and Care of Grounds, $100.00
Repair of Equipment, $100.00
School Furniture and Equip., $50
School Supplies, $100.00
Janitor Supplies, $100.00
Fuel for Schools, $900.00
Loans, Interest and Insur., $500.00
Janitor Service, $480.00
Trasportation of Children, $2,500
Light and Power, $350.00
Miscellaneous, $20.00
Total Special Sch. Fund., $5,200

Bond Fund

Bonds, $2,500.00
Interest, $900.00
Total Bond Fund, $3,400.00

ESTIMATE OF FUNDS TO BE RAISED

FUNDS REQUIRED FOR EXPENSES TO DECEMBER 31st OF INCOMING YEAR:	Township Fund	Sp. Sch. Fund	Tuition Fund	Library Fund	Poor Fund	Bond Fund
1. Total Budget Estimate for incoming year.	$1 000 00	$5 200 00	$ 8 020 00	$ 70 00	$1 500 00	$3 400 00
2. Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year	500 00	2 300 00	3 500 00	85		1 300 00
3. Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year			500 00
4. Outstanding temporary loans to be paid before Dec. 31st of present year—not included in lines 2 or 3						200 00
5. Total Funds required,(add lines 1,2,3,4)	$1 500 00	$7 500 00	$12 020 00	$155 00	$1 500 00	$4 900 00
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
6. Actual Balance, July 31st of present year.	$ 285 76	$1 595 12	$ 6 129 22	$ 85 49		$ 707 49
7. Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement)	600 00	2 650 00	650 00	40 00		1 700 00
8. Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug. 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of County Auditor):
a. Special Taxes (see Schedule)			4 400 00
b. All other Revenue (see Schedule)		500 00	1 000 00
9. Total Funds (Add lines 6, 7, 8a)	885 00	4 745 00	12 179 00	125 00		2 407 00
10. NET AMOUNT TO BE RAISED FOR EXPENSES TO DEC. 31st OF INCOMING YEAR (deduct line 9 from line 5)	615 55	2 755 00		30 00		2 493 00
11. Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period)	500 00	2 300 00	1 500 00	30 00		1 700 00
12. AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAX LEVY (Add lines 10 and 11)	$1 115 00	$5 055 00	$ 1 500 00	$ 60 00	$1 500 00	$4 193 00

PROPOSED LEVIES

Net Taxable Property $1,315,500
Number of Taxable Polls 139

FUNDS	Levy on Polls	Levy on Property	Amt. to be Collect.
Township		$ 08½	$1 115 00
Tuition	$1 00	11½	1 500 00
Special School	1 00	39	5 055 00
Library		½	60 00
Bond		32	4 193 00
Poor		7½	1 000 00
Total	$2 00	$ 99	$12 923 00

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF TAXES COLLECTED AND TO BE COLLECTED

FUNDS	Collected 1933 Levy	Collected 1934 Levy	To Be Collected 1935 Levy
Township	$ 900 00	$ 1 200 00	$1 115 00
Tuition	3 500 00	1 400 00	1 500 00
Special School	4 250 00	5 400 00	5 055 00
Library	80 00	50 00	60 00
Bond	3 450 00	3 450 00	4 193 00
Poor	400 00	1 700 00	1 000 00
Total	$12 580 00	$13 200 00	$12 923 00

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.
Dated August 15, 1934.

O. K. SHULL, Trustee of Concord Township.

HOUK REUNION

An unusual family reunion was held by the Houk descendants Saturday, Aug. 18, 1934, at Franke Park, Fort Wayne, Ind.

It being the eighteenth annual reunion. It was planned last year that a feature of this reunion was to be an exhibit of relics and heirlooms of the Houk family households. Dr. W. W. Carey was to be in charge of the exhibit. It was a great success and about 50 were present to enjoy the occasion from Fort Wayne, Decatur, Monroeville, Defiance, St. Joe, Spencerville and Harlan. The Spencerville group being the largest present. Aunt Belle Goldsmith, 85 years old of Spencerville being the oldest and A. N. Houk, 77, of Fort Wayne, next.

Among the relics brought were: ox hobble by Frank Pervines, old album, lantern, bed spread, family tree history made by Mrs. W. W. Carey, and many relics furnished by Dr. Carey, Fort Wayne. Pictures, etc., by Pearl Goldsmith, hand made dress made by Grandma Houk of Spencerville about 40 years ago, owned by Mrs. Millie Shull, a gold ring made from the mine property of Ann Kity Miller, sister of George Houk, handed down and owned by Mrs. Lee Tustison; pictures and dishes by Mrs. Will Hamilton; dresses and baby clothes worn by Grace, Ray and Lester Houk; school books and a stuffed elephant, representing the G. O. P., which Joy Goldsmith declared was modern and not a relic, but the democrat members were suited to call a relic, brought by Grace Houk, and an ancient gun, and many other interesting relics.

The family tree dated back to 1733 when Houk was spelled Hauckh. One death was recorded, Mrs. Arrilla Houk, Spencerville, who died Aug. 5, 1934, and several births. Those not attending missed a rare treat. The dinner was sumptuous and many complained of pains afterwards.

In the afternoon business session was held and Lee Tustison was again chosen president and Virginia Shull secretary. The rest of the day was spent visiting, talking history, politics, etc. Mrs. W. W. Carey wished more money for a history and some thought not so much spent for history and some for ice cream. So a collection was taken and found Houks pretty well off financially and they could have ice cream and history both next year. Mrs. Joy Goldsmith thot the Houks could well set aside one day out of 365 to meet with their relatives and hope to have a larger attendance next year as there wil be free ice cream and many things no one will want to miss.

Lloyd Goldsmith was the most portly of the Houk family and John Houk, Decatur or Lee Tustison, close seconds. Finally reunion broke up and politics, taxes, and codes, etc., were forgotten and all went home feeling it had been a day well spent.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Margaret Chaney spent Saturday at Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Cora Steward, who has been quite ill, is slowly improving.

Miss Doris Beams is home from Muncie where she has been in school for a short time.

Mrs. Clauda Hafner and son, Robert spent several days last week at the World's Fair.

James Reed and wife spent Sunday and Monday in South Bend with Chester Wolf and wife.

Methodist Sunday School attendance for Aug 19 was, 51, collection $1.51; Lutheran 58, $2.02.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and family were Sunday evening callers at the Ralph Culbertson home.

Miss Gaylon Markle has accepted a position at Auburn as assistant to Clyde Hart for several weeks in the corn and hog work.

William Reed and wife, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday afternoon guests of the former's uncle, Wm. Reed, and daughters.

Mrs. John McNabb and children, Kenneth and Ethel, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oswalt, of Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beams and daughter, of Fremont, were guests last week of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Beams.

Mrs. Jennie Walter and children and Miss Josephine Fisher and Miss Jean Hatch, who have been at Hamilton Lake, returned home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Horn and two children, of Louisianna, spent last week with his father, George Horn and other relatives, returning home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitacre and daughter, Yvonne, of Highland, Ind., who have been visiting the R. U. Bowser home the past week, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Koch, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Mann and sons, attended the Koch reunion which was held at Eckhart Park Sunday. Mr. John Koch was elected president for the coming year.

Vaughn Allen and family moved on Friday and Saturday into the Hobaugh property which they recently purchased. Mrs. Mary Calloway and children, of Muncie, will move into the property the Allens vacated.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church will be entertained on Wednesday evening, Aug. 29, at the home of Mrs. R. U. Bowser. She will be assisted by Mrs. Louie Beam, Mrs. Edna Wyans and Mrs. Grace Baker.

Roscoe Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steward and children, Mrs. Lillie Shull, Miss Loretta Funk, Mrs. Hazel Steward, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and baby and Miss Jean Hatch, were among those who attended the Birthday Club dinner at Hamilton Lake, Sunday.

The Young Ladies Social Club was pleasantly entertained last Friday evening by Miss Doris Rhoades. The guests were Misses Doris and Garnet Beams and Mrs. Ada Whitacre, who also won the prize. Other prizes were won by Mesdames Janice Bowser, Opal Beerbower, Troas Carpenter and Miss Gaylon Markle.

110 members of the Oberholtzer family attended the annual reunion held at the Matilda Oberholtzer home near Harlan. Only one death, that of Mrs. Maude Oberholtzer, has occurred during the year. The officers are president, Henry Horn, of Fort Wayne; vice president, Eck Hursh, Hurshtown; secretary-treasurer, Gaylon Markle; Miss Helen Hursh, entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser, Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Gale Bowser, wife and children, Mrs. Emila Gloyd, Clarence Gloyd and Gerry Gloyd, wife and daughter were among those that attended the Gloyd reunion held Sunday in the park at Kendallville, Ind. 85 members of the family were present. The reunion will be held next year at the community hall with Clarence Gloyd as host. The new officers are: president, Clarence Gloyd; vice president, Otis Gloyd; secretary, Miss Ioline Gloyd, of near Huntertown; treasurer, R. U. Bowser.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS ATTENTION

The County Adult Superintendent is planning for an Adult Workers Conference Friday afternoon, Sept. 28, to be held in Auburn. Dr. A. H. Backus, of Indianapolis will be the speaker. The meeting is open to everyone but all adult workers are urged to be present.

Sunday afternoon, Oct. 14, is the date set for the fall County Council meeting. Please keep this date in mind so you can be there.

September will be school visitation month. Watch the papers for further announcements.

4-H-S ENTERTAIN

Friday from three to five at the Community Gym the 4-H Club, their mothers and the forty members of the Home Bureau, were entertained by the 4-H Club girls, and served refreshments of club cookies and lime ade. The exhibit was displayed.

The girls winning 4-H Club silver spoons, presented by Home Bureau which sponsored the club this year, were Myra Keesler, first year, first prize; Estella Hart, first year, second prize; Minta Davis, first and second year, first prize; Betty Kees, second year, second prize; Marcella Wiers, third year, first prize; Eloise Coburn, fifth year, first prize; Clara Wiers, fifth year, second prize.

These girls represent Concord township at Auburn at the County Achievement Day, Wednesday. Josephine Kees, adult leader.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

On Wednesday evening, Aug. 15, neighbors and friends numbering 24 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran and gave Mrs. Cochran the surprise of her life. It being her 60th birthday and was planned by her husband and Mrs. Harry Hursh.

Those present were, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shilling, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Leighty, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Blue, Mrs. Alice Copp, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Andress, Mr. Bert Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keeler and son, Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hursh, Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Ridgway, Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Monroe and three children, James, Billy and Nancy.

It was also the birthday of Mrs. Alice Copp, how old we are not saying, Ha, Ha., also the 9th birthday of Dale Keeler. To say all had a good time is putting it mild, and at a late hour all departed for their homes wishing Mrs. Cochran many more happy birthdays. She was presented with a beautiful table lamp by her husband.

Local Briefs

Wilbur Yeiser was at Cincinnati, Monday.

Regardless of the weather, M. P. Social Saturday night.

Films and developing handled at The News office.

Attend the Social Saturday nite at M. P. Church. Lots to eat.

Mr. J. B. Munn, of Angola, transacted business here Friday.

A good time, plenty to eat, visit your friends at M. P. Social Saturday night.

For Sale: Slab Wood at reasonable price. Spencerville Saw Mill. Phone 1820. 33t3p

Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey spent the first of the week at Garrett with her parents.

Harvey Hull, Joe Woodcox and Harry Hursh accompanied the Legion band to the Kendallville fair last Friday.

Mrs. Mayola Kinsey spent from Thursday until Sunday in Fort Wayne the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Quinn.

Harry Thomas, of Detroit, was home over Saturday and Sunday. They attended a family reunion at Snow Lake, Sunday.

Mrs. Mabel Refner, of Auburn, and Mrs. Florence Wood are here the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wid Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller, of Detroit, are here guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Andress, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ridgway and two sons were at the World's Fair Saturday. Beverly remained with her grandparents in the Armstrong home.

Miss Helen Ditmars and Miss Olive Diehl, called on friends in St. Joe Friday afternoon. Miss Ditmars will be located at Hebron this school year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clum, of Thornville, O., were guests in the Wm. Miller home from Saturday until Monday, and on Sunday they all went to New Haven, as guests of Lee Burgett and family.

In almost every section of the state squirrels have been reported as plentiful since the opening of the season on August 1. There is a bag limit of five on squirrels. The red or piney species is not protected.

The Ladies Aid of the M. P. Church will hold an ice cream social on the church lawn on Saturevening, August 25. The public is invited to attend. Pie, Sandwiches and Coffee will also be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strouse and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strouse drove to Churubusco last week end to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Gump, whose son, Woodrow had suffered a hemorrhage of the brain, while working in an onion field. He was quite sick for several days, but at this time he is able to be up and around again. The grandmother, Mrs. Mary Gump was also on the sick list. While in the city they also called on friends, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Hawk.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

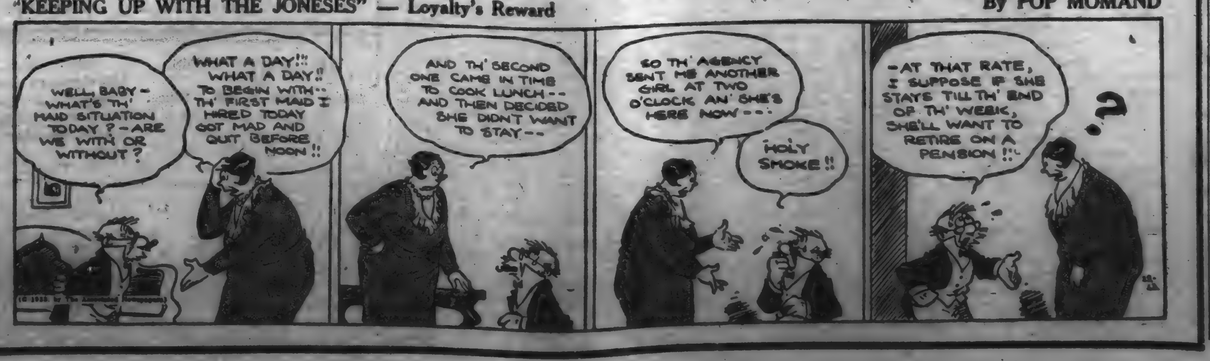
Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Rosclawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

A laugh is the best of medicine--Take a dose

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES" — Loyalty's Reward — By POP MOMAND



AUGUST

L 919

L 352

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Clover Seed Bunchers, $6.00.
33t1. Curie Hardware.

Agents Wanted: Highest cash paid weekly; part expenses to part and full time workers. Experience unnecessary. Outfit free. Hook up with a going concern. The Hawks Nursery Co., Wauwatosa, Wis. 31t4.

For Sale: Timothy Seed. W. L. Hamilton, St. Joe. 33t1p.

For Sale: Shorthorn Cows with Calves. Also one milk cow. Will buy twenty head of good Ewes. Monte F. Ychacoll, Leo phone 294, P. O. Spencerville. 32t2p.

AUBURN CIDER MILL

Open every day except Sunday. Will be ready to grind Cane any day now. Block north of Ice Plant. Graham & Hanson.
33t4p.

Coburn's Corners

Attendance at Bible School Aug. 19 was 55, collection $2.30.

Mrs. Garth Shull is improving. She was brought home last week.

Elizabeth Hart called on Berniece Wilder Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Doris Stuck, of Garrett, spent Sunday evening with Mrs. George Hart.

Dr. G. N. Lake, of Pleasant Lake, called on George Hart Friday morning.

The melon crop is much larger than was looked for and prices have been good.

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday eve with Troas Carpenter. Ice cream and cake were served.

Henry Walter and family ate supper Wednesday evening with Martin Koch and family.

Miss Carol Shull will present her music class in recital September 2, after Bible School.

John Hart, Jr., wife and baby, of Fort Wayne, visited in Cal Hart's home Sunday eve.

Mrs. Vina Quance attended Bible School Sunday and took dinner in the Fred Hart home.

Lynn Shilling is spending his vacation with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Beaber.

Quite a number in this community attended the Hootman reunion held at the Hicksville fair grounds Thursday.

Troas Carpenter spent the past week at Lake Gage, where she was in attendance at the Farm Bureau young people's school.

J. Sherman Hart and wife ate Sunday dinner with her father, J. Shull. In the afternoon they visited the O. K. Shull home.

Master Billy Wilder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder returned to his home Thursday, after a two weeks vacation, spent with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hart.

Mrs. Thurman Shull, who fell and injured her hip last winter, was able to be moved to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Mercer, of Butler, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Coburn returned to their home of Birmingham, Mich., Thursday after spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. Fred Hart, and other relatives in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Will Meyers and children, Irene and Boyd and Mrs. Lizzie Shull, of Decatur, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McCutcheon and children, of Edgerton, Ohio, called on Mrs. Garth Shull Sunday afternoon.

Last Thursday evening about thirty guests, including Ashland county and Edgerton, Ohio, relatives were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder. Melons and home made ice cream were served.

Robert Klopfenstein left on Thursday morning for his home, preparatory to going to Camp Miniwanca at Shelby, Mich., for two weeks special training in leadership. This camp is operated by the Boys Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., Robert and Charles Mackris, of Central High are going as representatives of the Kiwanis Club of Fort Wayne, who are paying all their expenses.

Free RUBBER RINGS for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. U.S.A.

27t14-

NEWVILLE

The Chautauqua officers for 1934 were re-elected for 1935.

A daughter was born August 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Stark.

Mardell McDaniel, of Fort Wayne, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Della Dove, of Butler, was the guest of her daughter, here, Thursday.

Mrs. Lucile Traxler and children are in Butler this week visiting her parents.

Mrs. Sada Washler spent Thursday and Friday in Butler with Mrs. Bird Ames.

Wm. Hoy and David Keesbury, were here Sunday from Garrett, calling on friends.

Mrs. Minnie Tarney, of Fort Wayne, was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. A. Benner.

Mrs. Belle Crum and Mrs. Minnie Hatch are visiting Mrs. Crum's son, Wm. Hensinger in Garrett.

John Bremer, of Fort Wayne, spent several days here last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Green, of Geneva, N. Y., spent the past week here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wasson. Kenneth Wasson accompanied them home.

Mrs. Ethel Davies was here from Chicago from Friday till Sunday evening visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark. Her two children, who have been here the past two months, returned home with her.

CAMPING ACCOMMODATIONS AT STATE FAIR

Visitors to the Indiana State Fair, September 1st to 7th will have an opportunity to spend several days in the Tented City, which is a part of the fairgrounds, for very little cost. The privileges of the Tented City are free to those who have their own camping equipment. For those who do not have equipment, the State Fair Board has arranged to rent tents, blankets, cots and anything necessary for the comfort of the campers for a nominal sum.

The Tented City consists of a plot of ground, lighted by electric lights, containing sanitary facilities and guarded at all hours by a watchman. An agent will be on hand to furnish equipment to those who want it and special tickets to the State Fair will be issued to the residents of the Tented City, which will permit them to go back and forth as often as they please. This plot is across the street from the Fairgrounds, but in the quietest part.

BUTLER DRUGGIST DIES OF HEART ATTACK

George W. Geddis, 71, oldest established pharmacist in DeKalb county, died at his home in Butler Sunday afternoon following an illness of ten days. Death was due to heart disease. Mr. Geddis was born near Butler and became a registered pharmacist when 16 years of age. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ona Clay Geddis. His first wife, Margaret McPherson, and his daughter, Leta, preceded him in death. Mr. Geddis was a member of the Knights of Pythias, F. & A. M., and the M. E. Church. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Johnson funeral home in Butler and burial followed in the Butler cemetery.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Kidnappers have started work in Canada. No one wishes the Dominion any hard luck, but the circumstances mentioned may work to the good of the United States. English administration of justice operates with a speed and dispatch that sometimes is lacking in this country. It will be well to note how Canada handles her new difficulty. She may have something to teach us.

According to one authority, there are ten million persons out of work, whereas another authority of equal respectability, namely the Department of Labor, places the figure at seven million. Food prices are advancing and are expected to go higher. Cold weather will add another factor to the problem. Although there is no cause for dismay, there is plenty of ground for sober thought. During the war, we used to sing that there was "a long, long trail a-winding." The war is over, but we are not simply taking a stroll. We are still upon a long trail. The trail leads somewhere. None but the confirmed pessimist thinks that the end of the trail will be national collapse. Not even the merry optimist should suggest that the end will come into view tomorrow.

Notice to Taxpayers of Tax Levies

In the Matter of Determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by DeKalb County, Indiana. Before the County Council and Board of Couty Commissioners.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

BUDGET CLASSIFICATION FOR COUNTIES

CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT
Services Personal.....$3,050.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 870.00
Current Charges..... 300.00

COUNTY AUDITOR
Services Personal.....$3,610.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 1,060.00
Properties 40.00

COUNTY TREASURER
Services Personal.....$4,360.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 700.00

COUNTY RECORDER
Services Personal.....$2,180.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 272.00

COUNTY SHERIFF
Services Personal.....$4,350.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 3,606.00

COUNTY SURVEYOR
Services Personal.....$2,975.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 680.00
Properties 65.00

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT
Services Personal.....$2,500.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 375.00
Current Charges..... 75.00
Properties 45.00

COUNTY CORONER
Services Personal .....$ 655.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 102.00

COUNTY ASSESSOR
Services Personal.....$1,160.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 170.00

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
Services Personal.....$2,000.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 225.00

CIRCUIT COURT
Services Personal.....$6,650.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 320.00
Current Charges.....11,470.00
Properties 400.00

COUNTY COURT HOUSE
Services Personal.....$4,100.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 3,950.00
Current Charges..... 600.00

COUNTY JAIL
Services Personal.....$ 40.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 1,470.00

COUNTY INFIRMARY
Services Personal.....$2,650.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 4,320.00
Current Charges..... 500.00
Properties 1,700.00

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS
Services Personal.....$ 7,360.00
All Other Op. Expense.. 40,345.00
Current Charges..... 93,992.00
Current Obligations.... 6,000.00
Properties 7,500.00
TOTAL GENERAL FUND $229,092.00

COUNTY UNIT ROAD BONDS
Prin. to Be Paid.....$ 34,500.00
Int. to Be Paid..... 7,663.36
TOTAL CO. U. R. B. $ 42,163.36

FREE GRAVEL ROAD REPAIR FUND
Services Personal.....$ 36,860.00
All Other Op. Expense 18,755.00
Material 36,600.00
Current Charges..... 15,000.00
Properties 8,900.00
TOTAL F. G. R. R...$101,615.00

ESTIMATE OF COUNTY FUNDS TO BE RAISED

FUNDS REQUIRED FOR EXPENSES TO DECEMBER 31st of INCOMING YEAR	General Fund	Co. Unit Rd. Bonds
1. Total Budget Estimate for incoming year.	229,092.00	$42,163.36
2. Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year	75,000.00
3. Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year	6,000.00
4. Outstanding temporary loans to be paid before Dec. 31st of present year—not included in lines 2 or 3
5. Total Funds required,(add lines 1,2,3,4)..	310,092.00
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
6. Actual Balance, July 31st of present year.	36,000.00
7. Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement)	52,355.00
8. Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug. 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of County Auditor):
a. Special Taxes (see Schedule)	122,536.00
b. All other Revenue (see Schedule)	210,891.00
9. Total Funds (Add lines 6, 7, 8a)
10. NET AMOUNT TO BE RAISED FOR EXPENSES TO DEC. 31st OF INCOMING YEAR (deduct line 9 from line 5)	99,201.00
11. Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period)	50,000.00
12. AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAX LEVY (Add lines 10 and 11)	149,201.00	42,163.36

PROPOSED LEVIES

Net Taxable Property $26,000,000.00

FUNDS	Levy on Property	Amount to be Raised
County Revenue	$ .57	$149,201.00
County Unit Road Bonds	.17	42,163.36
TOTAL	.74	$191,364.36

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF TAXES COLLECTED AND TO BE COLLECTED

Name of Fund	Collected 1932 Levy	Collected 1933 Levy	Collected 1934 Levy	To Be Collected 1935 Levy
County Revenue	$130,585.28	$117,085.68	$151,377.05	$149,201.00
Co. Unit Road Bds.	56,112.84	46,744.85	46,497.19	42,163.36
TOTAL	$186,698.12	$163,830.53	$197,864.24	$191,364.36

TOWNSHIPS FREE GRAVEL ROAD BOND FUNDS

Name of Township	Passed Due and Current Prin. to Be Paid	Passed Due and Current Int. to Be Paid	Tot Prin. and Int. to Be Paid
Butler Township	$ 4,030.00	$ 478.19	$ 4,508.19
Concord Township	5,164.00	713.09	5,877.09
Fairfield Township	5,245.00	696.02	5,941.02
Franklin Township	4,342.00	613.05	4,955.05
Grant Township	4,628.40	611.38	5,239.78
Jackson Township	8,418.00	1,079.72	9,497.72
Keyser Township	4,246.00	449.84	4,695.84
Newville Township	2,700.00	365.66	3,065.66
Richland Township	5,972.00	679.78	6,651.78
Smithfield Township	5,220.00	733.99	5,953.99
Stafford Township	2,530.00	477.13	3,007.23
Troy Township	2,155.40	235.13	2,390.53
Union Township	7,518.00	1,098.51	8,616.51
Wilmington Township	$12,721.10	$1,443.02	$14,164.12

ESTIMATE OF FUNDS TO BE RAISED

Name of Township	Tot. Prin. and Int. to be Paid	Overdrafts (Add)	Bal. (Ded)	Amt. Necess to be raised
Butler Township	$ 4,508.19	$ 430.90		$ 4,939.19
Concord Township	5,877.09	521.57		6,398.66
Fairfield Township	5,941.02			5,941.02
Franklin Township	4,955.05			4,955.05
Grant Township	5,239.78			5,239.78
Jackson Township	9,497.72	2,132.56		11,630.28
Keyser Township	4,695.84	961.00		5,656.84
Newville Township	3,065.66	646.55		3,712.21
Richland Township	6,651.78		1,500.00	5,151.78
Smithfield Township	5,953.99			5,953.99
Stafford Township	3,007.23			3,007.23
Troy Township	2,390.53			2,390.53
Union Township	8,616.51		1,000.00	7,616.51
Wilmington Township	14,164.12	360.00		14,524.12

PROPOSED LEVIES

Name of Township	Assessed Valuation	Levy	Amount to be Raised
Butler Township	$ 871 440	$ .57	$ 4 939 09
Fairfield Township	1 023 020	.60	5 941 02
Franklin Township	920 140	.54	4 955 05
Jackson Township	1 850 990	.63	11 630 28
Newville Township	592 020	.63	3 712 21
Stafford Township	808 310	.38	3 007 23
Troy Township	521 010	.45	2 390 53
Grant Township	1 468 690	.26	5 239 78
Waterloo Town	804 550	.19
Richland Township	1 479 760	.33	5 151 78
Corunna Town	185 790	.23
Smithfield Township	1 174 660	.47	5 953 99
Ashley Town	149 400	.47
Union Township	1 028 530	.19	7 616 51
Auburn City	4 459 560	.12
Concord Township	1 079 280	.50	6 398 66
St. Joe Town	236 220	.50
Keyser Township	1 514 340	.27	5 656 84
Altona Town	141 250	.08
Garrett City	2 421 590	.08
Wilmington Township	2 053 222	.46	14 524 12
Butler Town	1 210 500	.40

Taxpayers appearing shall have the right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday in September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

FRANK E. LYON, Auditor of DeKalb County.

Dated August 10, 1934.

PUBLIC SALE!

The undersigned will sell at Public Sale at his residence, located 2 miles north and ¼ mile west of St. Joe, also 1 mile north and 1½ miles east of Concord, on

Tuesday, August 28, 1934

At 10:00 o'clock, the following property towit:

3 Head Of Cattle 3

One Jersey Cow, 3 years old, due to freshen in March; One Jersey cow, 3 years old, due to freshen in October; One Jersey calf five months old.

About 80 BROWN LEGHORN HENS

Tools and Machinery

Two-horse wagon; Moline disc; Steel frame spike tooth drag; 2-horse corn cultivator; 5-tooth cultivator; Two single buggies; Single buggy harness; Double brass mounted heavy work harness; No. 2 Bryan plow; 12 and 16-foot ladder; No. 12 De Laval cream separator; 400 egg Queen incubator; 150 egg incubator; 2 good brooder stoves; 150-ft. inch poultry wire; Forks; Scythe; Shovel, and other articles.

TERMS: CASH.

FILLMORE SHULL

A. A. McNamara, Auctioneer.

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Goodwin and children, Jack and Helen, visited relatives at Lima, Ohio, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gerdes are here a few days preparatory to moving into the Grover Curie residence.

All rabbit breeders are asked to meet at the County Agent's office on the evening of September 4, to make final plans, entries and arrangements for the fall fair. Eighty premiums will be awarded in this department this year.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

The Frank Ginnivan Co., is appearing at Butler all this week and are drawing their usual good crowds. Complete new shows and specialties feature the nightly performances. The name Ginnivan guarantees their guests complete satisfaction when it comes to an evening of entertainment, and many of their friends here will witness these productions during the week.

AUGUST

L 919

353

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, AUGUST 30, 1934 — NUMBER 34

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS OF TAX LEVIES

In the Matter of Determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by the Civil Town of St. Joe, County of DeKalb, Indiana.

Before the Town Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of the Civil Town of St. Joe, DeKalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

Budget Classification

For street lighting, $826.77.

Corporation, including salaries, town hall expense, fire equipment, etc., $118.11.

Polls, $78.00.

Estimate of gas tax for 1935, (Street Fund,) $336.00.

Total Estimate, $1,358.88.

Proposed Levies

Net Taxable Property, $236,220.00.

Number of taxable polls, 52.

For street lighting, levy on property, 35 cents, amount to be raised, $826.77.

For corporation, levy on property 5 cents, amount to be raised, $118.11.

52 Polls, at $1.50, amount to be raised, $78.00.

Total, levy on property, 40 cents, levy on polls, $1.50; amount to be raised, $1,022.88.

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

D. B. RIDGWAY, Clerk.

Dated Aug. 20, 1934.

WILLIS COX LANDS GOVERNMENT JOB

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Willis B. Cox, to a government position, known as storekeeper gauger or in more modern terms as Federal Internal Revenue Officer, and that he is now stationed at Lawrenceburg, Ind., temporarily. The news of his appointment arrived Aug. 20, and he left immediately.

The examination was taken by 26,000 applicants in this district, comprising Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, and out of this number only 270 were certified as eligible, and called in for personal interview, and of those 90 were selected and appointed for this federal district.

The News is pleased over this appointment, as it carries a better salary than most high school work can pay at present.

His family will join him as soon as living quarters can be secured.

POSTOFFICE TO MOVE

At the close of the business hours Saturday evening, the local postoffice will be moved into the room owned by the I. O. O. F. Lodge, between the Hull barber shop and Hurni's store. The announcement was made by postmaster, M. E. Storer, Tuesday.

COMPILES REPORT ON SCHOOL EXPENSE

Butler township had the distinction of the lowest costs per lower grade pupil of any of the district schools of the county last year, the annual financial and statistical report of County Superintendent, Carl F. Stallman to the state superintendent of public instruction discloses.

The per pupil expense ranged from $38.49 in Butler township to $70.14 in Troy township. The figures for the other townships follow: Concord, $47.74; Fairfield, $52.29; Franklin, $45.38; Jackson, $43.64; Keyser, $40.44; Newville, $42.63; Richmond, $68.60; Smithfield, $53.54; Spencer, $54.97; Stafford, $50; Union, $44.69, and Wilmington, $42.35.

For grades 7 to 12, Smithfield township had a per pupil cost of $71.61; Concord, $84, and Spencer, township, $122.53.

The total outlay for the operation of the township schools during the year was $170,655.14. The receipts were $288,993.03, the cash balance on hand Aug. 1, 1934, being $118,337.89. The receipts during the year follow: local taxation, $115,429.36; common school fund revenue, $4,208.18; congressional township fund interest, $561.66; depository interest, $693.08; civil township fund, $400; county dog fund, $209.50; state vocational allotment, $2,586.73; state tuition support, $31,748.80; excise tax, $6,056.90; intangibles tax, $4,551.94; miscellaneous reveune, $354.84; sale of property, $1,160.60; insurance adjustments, $22.23; temporary loans, $1,251.51; transfer tuition, $11,337.91.

Where Money Went

The townships spent $4,120 for principals' salaries, $460.80 for supervisors' salaries, $67,895.65 for teachers' salaries, $790 for teachers' institute pay, $1,415.56 for instructional suppiles, $36.75 for other instructional expense, $2,602 for janitors, $5,451.87 for fuel, $1,405.07 for janitorial supplies, $783.96 for water, light and power, $17,225.53 for operation of school hacks and buses, $27.10 for telephone, $3,576 for upkeep of buildings and grounds, $238.22 for upkeep of building equipment, $559.90 for maintenance of hacks and busses, $250 for rents, $1,768.22 for insurance, $3,361.01 for interest on bonded debt, $735.84 for interest on temporary loans, $762.48 for school libraries, $6 for health service, $44,961.18 for transfer tuition, $6,625 for payment on bonds, $3,424.97 for payment on temporary loans, $99.22 for new building equipment, $250 for new instruction equipment and $1,017 for new school hacks and busses.

The value of the land used for school purposes by the townships was appraised at $7,150; buildings, $340,700; equipment, $20,505. Cash on hand in school funds totalled $118,337.89. The assets aggregated $487,573.55. Liabilities were $91,593.88, leaving a net worth of $395,979.67.

Fairfield, Jackson, Newville, Richland, Union and Wilmington townships reported no liabilities for school purposes. The liabilities of the other townships follow: Butler, $35.34; Concord, $27,340; Franklin, $4,839.40; Keyser, $2,598.11; Smithfield, $36,100; Spencer, $18,000; Stafford, $1,243.03, and Troy, $1,438.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Glen Hough, of Auburn, spent the past week in the Art Guilford home.

Ruth Curie is spending the week with her brother, Herbert Curie, and wife at Garrett.

Chas. Cochran and M. C. Blue, accompanied by their wives, attended the fair at Hicksville, Friday.

Mrs. E. R. Kinsey and son, Earl and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kinsey, of Auburn, spent from Saturday until Tuesday at Crooked Lake.

Laura Jane Horn, of Kendallville, spent from Thursday until Monday with her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham, and husband.

The Fillmore Shull sale, Tuesday was well attended and things sold well, as reported by the clerk. Mr. Shull has to vacate the Johnson farm, but does not know where he will move.

Miss Thelma Bachellor was taken to the Irene Byron Sanatorium Tuesday afternoon in the Kinsey ambulance for an X-ray of her lungs. F. R. Bowman accompanied her, as chairman of the county association, which has her case in charge.

The St. Joe Valley bank has sued Nancy Lee and Lee R. Hindman in the DeKalb circuit court on a note for $4,000 executed Oct. 15, 1932, and payable in twelve months. The demand is for $4,775. Capt W. D. Stump is the plaintiff's attorney.

Whooping cough seenms to hold first place in Indiana, with 52 cases; scarlet fever a second with 21; typhoid 18; diphtheria 11 and the other minor diseases ranging from one case to five, and not one of these is reported from DeKalb county. This is the report as recorded by the local health officer.

The salting station, near the elevator is indeed a busy place. The plant is now owned by Ralph Sechler and is being operated by Jack Sechler of Orangeville. The rains of the past weeks are making pickles rapidly and the record, to date, for delivery in one day is six tons. They are of exceptional quality.

L. L. C.

The Ladies Literary Club met at the home of Cora Curie on Wednesday evening to give a farewell party for Miss Helen Ditmars, who has been a valued member of the club for several years and whose work as teacher takes her from the community. She is leaving this week for Hebron, Ind., to take a position in the high school. A fine lunch was served and the ladies enjoyed a good social time. Besides the members of the club Mrs. Minnie Gee and Miss Cleota Morr were guests.

Miss Ditmars goes from us with the best wishes of the club and retains her honorary membership with the L. L. C.

SCHEDULE OF THE COMING EVENTS OF THE DEKALB COUNTY COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Friday, Sept. 28

Adult Workers Conference at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Auburn. Rev. A. H. Backus, of Indianapolis to be the speaker. Both an afternoon and evening session. Open to all, but a special urge that all Adult Workers be present.

Month of September is school visitation month. Sunday, Sept. 9, the following schools and the visitor:

Fairfield and Smithfield Twp.

St. John's Reformed, Hellen Manrow.

M. E. Ashley, Vern Sparks.

Evangelical County Line, Wilbur Meyers.

Christian Ashley, Ward Jackman.

Pleasant Chapel, Fred Leighty.

Barker's Chapel, Fred Knott.

Cedar Lake Christian, Lyle Leas.

Grant Township

M. E. Waterloo, Gertrude Borthwick.

U. B. Waterloo, Stanley Means.

Evangelical Waterloo, Henry Funk.

Richland Township

Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren, Rose Smith.

Maple Grove U. B., W. C. McBride.

Showers Corners, Thelma Grosch.

M. E. Corunna, Frank Dosch.

Christian Corunna, Ines Dosch.

U. B. Corunna, Wilma Weaver.

Richland Center Lutheran, George Beugnot.

Sunday, September 16 the following schools and the visitor:

Keyser Township

Christian Union, Rose Smith.

Baptist, Arthur Friend.

Christian, Ward Jackman.

M. E., Fred Leighty.

Presbyterian, Hellen Manrow.

Butler Township

Cedar Chapel, Ruth Hawk.

Butler Center, Lowell Peck.

Cedar Church of the Brethren, Wilbur Meyers.

Union Township

Church of the Brethren, Thelma Grosch.

Christian, Gertrude Borthwick.

Nazarene, W. C. McBride.

German Lutheran, George Bengnot.

Saints, J. N. George.

Church of God, Stanley Means.

Baptist, Lysle Leas.

Lutheran, Wilma Weaver.

M. E., Fred Knott.

Norris Chapel, Henry Funk.

Union Chapel, Frank Dosch.

Presbyterian, Vern Sparks.

Sunday, September 23, the following schools and the visitor:

Newville Township

U. B. Newville, Lowell Peck.

Christian, Henry Funk.

Spencer Township

Lutheran, W. C. McBride.

M. E., Vern Sparks.

Christian, Gertrude Borthwick.

Concord Township

Concord M. P., Rose Smith.

St. Joe M. P., Arthur Friend.

Lutheran, Ward Jackmon.

Christian, Stanley Means.

Jackson Township

Hopewell, Wilma Weaver.

Meese Chapel, Wilbur Meyers

Rehobeth, Lysle Leas.

Sunday, September 30, the following schools and the visitor:

Wilmington Township

Mt. Pleasant, Gertrude Borthwick.

Church of God, Wilbur Meyers.

Christian, Fred Leighty.

M. E., Vern Sparks.

U. B., Arthur Friend.

Lutheran, Ward Jackman.

Franklin Township

Jerusalem, Rose Smith.

West Zion, Henry Funk.

Wittenberg Lutheran, Lowell Peck

Troy Township

East Zion, Henry Funk.

Stafford Township

Big Run, Stanley Means.

Sunday, October 14. Fall County Council meeting held in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Auburn, at 1:45 P. M. Miss Pauline Roth, of Fort Wayne, will be the speaker, her subject, "Running Away From Life."

The dates of the following are not definitely set but will be by time of the County Council meeting, October 14.

November: Educational and Administrative Workers Conference.

December: Young People's Leaders and Teachers Workers Conferences.

January: Children's Division Conference.

February 7 and 8, County Convention.

A Standard B Training Course will be sponsored also, plans announced later.

A RECORD SOUTH BEND IS PROUD OF

South Bend, with 108 per cent more arrests for drunken driving and 80 per cent more automobile accidents, led the principal cities of Indiana in traffic hazard increases the first six months of 1934, following repeal of prohibition, as compared with the same period in 1933. In the 6 months' survey, there was an increase of 79 per cent in arrests for intoxication in Fort Wayne and 80 per cent for drunken driving; 173 and 20 in Muncie, and 33 per cent for intoxication in Indianapolis with a 30 per cent increase in automobile traffic fatalities.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

Sunday evening, Aug. 26, a five o'clock surprise dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wineland, honoring Mrs. Wineland's birthday. Those present were Mr. John Scott, father of Mrs. Wineland, and Mrs. Gale Rugman, a sister, both of Auburn, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Andress, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Blue, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. Whistler, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wyatt, of Fort Wayne, Mrs. Pauline Miller, of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hursh, Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Ridgway and Mrs. Lela Northrup.

After all had partaken of a bounteous supper they departed for their homes wishing the hostess many such happy birthdays.

One Who Was There.

All Stoves at Large Discount.
33t1. Curie Hardware.

J. N. Scholes delivered the sermon Sunday evening at the union services at the Auburn Baptist Church. Next Sunday evening will conclude the union services for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Storer and daughter, Hazel spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday at Dayton and Clayton, Ohio, visiting relatives and attending the Storer reunion at the latter place.

If the people do not obtain substantial reductions in tax rates that will soon be adopted for the coming year, they will have only themselves to blame. An allowance should be made for the state revenue such as the excise taxes on beer and other alcoholic liquors, the gross income and intangibles tax. Should the local unit fail to pass a satisfactory levy the matter can then be taken before the county board.

JURORS DRAWN FOR NEW COURT SESSION

The jury drawing held in the office of County Clerk Carl Walter Monday by Jury Commissioners Herman L. Brown and Clyde Hart in preparation for the opening of the September term of the DeKalb circuit court next Monday resulted as follows:

GRAND JURY

Clyde Baumgartner, Spencer.
John F. Hess, Union.
Gale Bowser, Spencer.
Mrs. Frank Saltsman, Union.
A. V. Rosenberry, Wilmington.
Ernest E. Jennings, Stafford.

PETIT JURY

Pearl Barton, Keyser.
Jerry Pepple, Keyser.
Wm. Beachat, Fairfield.
Wm. Goings, Union.
Karl Kutzner, Grant.
Mark Murphy, Newville.
Orla W. Fee, Franklin.
Clyde Husselman, Grant.
Daniel Ellert, Franklin.
Lawrence Richter, Smithfield.
Harry E. Smith, Concord.
John E. Frick, Fairfield.

TALESMEN

Lathuer Miller, Franklin.
Arthur Knop, Spencer.
Pliny Smurr, Wilmington.
H. E. Holman, Richland.
Wm. Rugman, Keyser.
Carl Dilgard, Grant.
Philip Cool, Jackson.
H. L. Kemerer, Fairfield.
Fred Durst, Smithfield.
John E. Brown, Union.
Clelland K. Brown, Franklin.
Jacob C. Sherrick, Richland.

Entertainment For Young and Old at State Fair

The F. E. Gooding Amusement Co. of Columbus, Ohio, will present to the amusement seeking public of the Indiana State Fair, September 1st to 7th, the latest forms of rides and shows that ingenuity can devise to thrill both young and old. There will be over a dozen shows and more than 30 rides. All rides will be inspected for safety and the public may rest assured that they will be in no danger. The rides and shows will be in their regular places on the Fairgrounds and will be running every day and night of the fair.

Leighty Orchard

On account of the hot dry weather you probably did not can as much small fruit as you wanted.

You will not miss the small fruit if you put up plenty of sauce from WEALTHY APPLES. They are best for canning, and are now selling.

Pure cider vinegar two years old. New Honey.

INDIANA STATE FAIR

SEPTEMBER 1-2-3-4-5-6-7

$95,550.44 in Premiums and Purses.

America's Greatest Horse Show.

"A Century of Progress in Indiana Education."

Grand Circuit Racing.

WLS Barn Dance, Saturday, September 1st.

Most Complete Livestock Exhibit in the World.

Lieut. Gov. M. Clifford Townsend, Commissioner of Agriculture, Indianapolis.

F. J. Claypool, President, Muncie.

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

THIS WAGON GIVEN AWAY

on Saturday Night

OCTOBER 13.

Call at our store for Full and Free Information concerning this wonderful gift. We have it on display here.

Kinsey Hardware & Furn. Co.

ST. JOE, INDIANA

WE UNDERSELL

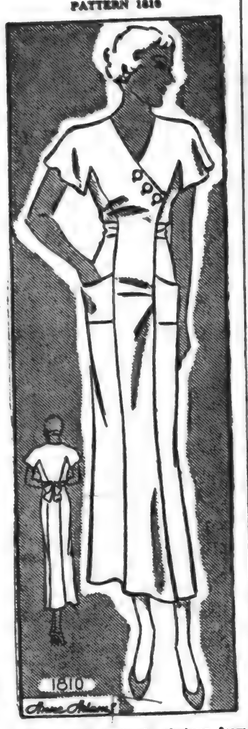
AUGUST

L 919

L 354

REAL COMFORT IN COAT DRESS

PATTERN 1810



Since it is perfectly obvious from the sketch how smart this house frock is, we are going to begin by calling your attention to how nice it is to slip into a coat dress the first thing in the morning or when one comes in from outdoors and wishes to get into "working clothes" as quickly as possible. One throws it around her—ties the sash—and that is that, so far as putting it on is concerned. But the enjoying of it has just begun. It is such a satisfaction to know that one is looking pretty and well dressed as one goes about doing this little thing and that—everything seems easier!

Pattern 1810 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 16 takes 4½ yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth street, New York City.

Smiles

UNSEEN SPIRIT

"Didn't you put up the money for that big musical show?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Dustin Stax. "But your name isn't mentioned on the program."

"Of course not. I'm the ghost underwriter."

Had Proof of It

She was very proud of her son's prowess.

"He must be a very fast runner," she said, showing a paper to a friend. "It says here that he fairly burned up the track under his record-breaking speed, and it's true because I saw it this morning, and the track was nothing but cinders."

Truly Hard Boiled

"I say, old chap," said one free-lance writer to another, "does the editor of the Paragon accept much of your stuff?"

"Him? Accept anything?" the second writer replied. "Good heavens—that man, believe me, wouldn't accept the inevitable!"

ENJOY

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT THE PERFECT GUM

5¢

AND WORTH IT!

Latorra Family Probably Holds the Record

MIKE LATORRA and his wife (at right of line) with their nineteen children, of Chicago, were honored by officials of A Century of Progress as the largest recorded living family of Italian parentage in the United States. Mike is especially proud of the fact that they have gone through the depression on their own power, with not a cent of charity.

Bedtime Story for Children

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

ANOTHER MEMBER OF A BIG FAMILY

PETER RABBIT was just about to ask if he might go along with Chewink and see his nest when a new voice broke in. "What are you fellows talking about?" it demanded, and there flitted just in front of Peter a little bird the size of a sparrow, but lovelier than any sparrow of Peter's acquaintance. At first glance he seemed to be all blue, and such a lovely bright blue! But as he paused for an instant Peter saw that his wings and tail were mostly black, and that the lovely blue was brightest on his head and back. It was Indigo the Bunting.

"You Ought to Be Thankful, Peter Rabbit, That You Haven't a Coat Like His."

"We were talking about our family," replied Chewink. "I was telling Peter that we belong to the largest family among the birds."

"But you didn't say anything about Indigo," interrupted Peter. "Do you mean to say that he belongs to the same family?"

"I surely do," replied Indigo. "I'm rather closely related to the Sparrow branch. Don't I look like a Sparrow?"

Peter looked at Indigo closely. "In size and shape you do," he confessed, "but just the same I should never in the world have thought of connecting you with the Sparrows."

"How about me?" asked another voice, and a little brown bird flew up beside Indigo, twitching her tail nervously. She looked very sparrow-like, indeed, so much so that had not Peter seen her with her handsome mate, for she was Mrs. Indigo, he certainly would have taken her for a sparrow. Only on her wings and tail was there any of the blue which made Indigo's coat so beautiful, and this was only a faint tinge.

"I'll have to confess that so far as you are concerned it isn't hard to think of you as related to the Sparrows," declared Peter. "Don't you sometimes wish you were as handsome as Indigo?"

Mrs. Indigo shook her head in the most decided way. "Never," she declared. "I have worries enough raising a family as it is, but if I had a coat like his I wouldn't have a moment of peace. You have no idea how I worry about him sometimes. You ought to be thankful, Peter Rabbit, that you haven't a coat like his. It attracts altogether too much attention."

Peter tried to picture himself in a bright blue coat and laughed right out at the mere thought and the others joined with him. Then Indigo flew to the top of a tall tree and began to sing. It was a lively song and Peter enjoyed it thoroughly. Mrs. Indigo took this opportunity to slip away unobserved, and when Peter looked around for Chewink, he, too, had disappeared. He had gone to tell Mrs. Chewink that he was quite safe and that she had nothing to worry about.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says it's amazing how many more mothballs it takes to store away a toboggan suit than a bathing suit.

WNU Service

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a boy eight years old, and am in the fourth grade at school. My teacher has offered a prize for the boy who can write a sentence with the two words "Peaches" and "Gruesome" in the same sentence. Can you help me out?

Yours truly,
A. TRUANT.

Answer: Sure I can help you. Here is a sentence with both words you mention in it: "The man planted an orchard full of trees and "gruesome" peaches."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

What is meant when they say: "A man died standing up"?

Truly yours,
M. BALMER.

Answer: When a man dies standing up it means his feet are so large he can't fall over.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

My father and I like to go to the theater. We are both very fond of all kinds of shows. But after every show we disagree as to its merits. He insists the shows today are not like the shows when he was my age. If there is any difference will you kindly tell me about it?

Truly yours,
I. G. PLAYS.

Answer: The only difference I notice is that it has changed from the "ears" to the "eyes." What I mean is, years ago we used to go to the theaters to hear "new ditties," now we go to the theater to see "nudities."

© the Associated Newspapers WNU Service.

Do YOU Know—

That the pen knife had its origin in the days when people wrote with quill pens. The quills wore or broke and it became necessary at unexpected moments to sharpen or reshape them. Convenience decreed a handy knife which could be carried in the pocket, hence the "pen knife."

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

"The first thing a stenographer has to learn," says typing Tillie, "is that a typewriter isn't one of those things that goes on working while you sleep."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

SEASONABLE GOODIES

FOR a sandwich bread, or to serve as fresh sliced bread, the following recipe is excellent:

Orange Bread.

Take three cups of flour, six level teaspoons of baking powder, one-half teaspoon of salt, one well-beaten egg, one and one-half cups of milk, one-fourth cup of sugar, one-half cup of candied orange peel finely chopped. Mix and sift the dry ingredients, add the beaten egg and milk and beat all well. Pour into a bread pan and let stand for 15 minutes, then bake 50 minutes in a moderate oven.

Peach Cake Dessert.

Bake a sponge cake and cut into rounds about the size of half a peach. Cover with a frosting prepared as follows: Cream two tablespoons of butter, add the beaten egg yolks, then gradually one-half cup of confectioner's sugar; flavor with a few drops of orange extract. If necessary the frosting may be thinned with some of the peach sirup. Drain halves of peaches in a sieve. Spread the frosting on the top and sides of the cakes and roll in tinted coconut. On the top place a halved peach, cut side down. Serve as dessert.

Apricot Henri.

Take one can of apricots (No. 2 can), put through a sieve, add one and one-half cups of orange juice, one-fourth cup of lemon juice, a pinch of salt and one cup of sugar. Add the sirup from the can and the other ingredients to the apricot puree and freeze. Let stand an hour or two to ripen. Serve topped with a spoon of whipped cream.

Graham Cracker Dessert.

Roll a half-pound or more of graham crackers until fine crumbs, add enough melted butter to moisten. Place a layer in a baking dish, cover with lemon seasoned apple sauce, add another layer of cracker crumbs and sauce until the dish is filled. Bake in a moderate oven three-fourths of an hour. Coll and place in the ice chest. Turn out and serve with whipped cream the next day.

© by Western Newspaper Union.

Wins Highest Rumanian Honor

HENRY C. WOLFE (left) of Coshocton, Ohio, writer and lecturer on international affairs, receiving the highest award given by the Rumanian government, the Order of the Crown, from George Anagnostache, vice consul in Cleveland. The award, which carries the rank of officer, is seldom given to foreigners and was presented by King Carol II. The brevet cites Wolfe's fair interpretation of the viewpoint of Rumania to the American public as reason for the honor.

THE NIGHT BEFORE YOUR BIRTHDAY

By ANNE CAMPBELL

THIS spent year will not come again,
A happy year of childhood done,
When every path was broad and plain,
And there was never dearth of sun.

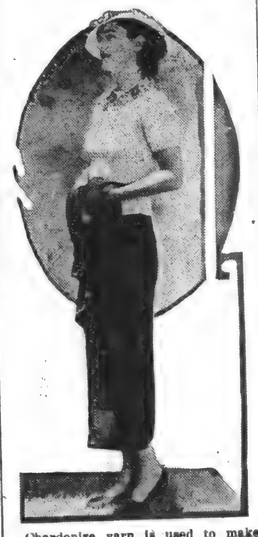
You may not call its magic back,
Although Time gives you wisdom's gold;
And often you will feel the lack
Of its allure when you are old.

A careless, happy, sunny year
Has slipped into the evening skies.
For you the future has no fear.
It climbs on straight to Paradise.

Upon each birthday eve, dear child,
May you with the same trustful gaze,
Look backward on hours undefiled,
And forward to enchanting days!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

For Country Use



Chardonize yarn is used to make this three-piece suit in dark blue and white. It looks like boucle, but is inexpensive and won't stretch. The straight skirt has a swagger jacket to match and the fitted white blouse is trimmed at the round neck with applique in navy. For country use, and even in town, this suit will see you through the summer and into the early days of fall.

Parry Sound

Parry sound is an inlet of Georgian bay, in Canada, 70 miles northeast of Collingwood. It is also the name of a district of Ontario, and of a port of entry in Ontario, which is the capital of the district.

TRACES DESCENT OF BIRDS FROM FLYING REPTILES

All birds descended from flying reptiles with teeth, according to Dr. Alexander Wetmore, assistant secretary of the Smithsonian institution. He has traced the family history of the birds back to the grotesque archeopteryx and archeornis, nature's first attempts at bird making. At the top of the scale of evolution are the songbirds, while the most primitive birds living today are the ostrich and the penguin.

The story of the Wright brothers is well known. But how did the first flying reptile manage to "take off?" There were few airports at that time and those were not equipped with modern safety devices. None of the animals or reptiles had made a trans-Atlantic flight or a journey to the stratosphere and there were no birds to soar and glide gracefully through the air. Flying existed only in the mind's eye of the lowly though imaginative reptile, and while it had a good set of teeth, it could not use them in such an undertaking.

This happened about 150,000,000 years ago, and we are frequently reminded that evolution can accomplish wonders in millions of years. But it cannot be rushed. The copperheads, rattlesnakes, water moccasins, and black snakes of the Ozarks have never sprouted wings, nor has any one of them ever been heard to sing like a mocking bird. Their offspring always lack both the ambition and the ability to fly. But that does not mean they will always remain as they are, unless, indeed, evolution sometimes runs into a blind alley, a possibility suggested by Doctor Wetmore himself.

He ventures the opinion that birds may have reached the end of the evolutionary road, because he says, civilized man is disturbing the natural conditions of the earth. And if birds will never become reptiles, perhaps reptiles will never become birds.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Not Quite Sure

"Congratulations, professor! I hear your wife has presented you with twins! Boys or girls?"

"I believve one is a boy and one a girl, but it may be the other way round."

SAVES MORE TIME and WORK than a $100.00 WASHING MACHINE

Coleman SELF HEATING Iron

No Heating with Matches or Torch . . . No Waiting . . . Lights Instantly, Like Gas

REDUCE your ironing time one-third . . . your labor one-half! The Coleman Self-Heating Iron will save you more time and work than a $100 washing machine! Iron any place where you can be comfortable. No endless trips carrying iron from stove to board. Operating cost only ½¢ an hour. Helps you do better ironing, easier, quicker.

See your hardware or housefurnishing dealer. If local dealer doesn't handle, write us.

THE COLEMAN LAMP & STOVE COMPANY
Dept. WUM, Wichita, Kans.; Chicago, Ill.; Los Angeles, Calif.; Philadelphia, Pa.; or Toronto, Ontario, Canada. [606]

ITCHING IRRITATION

Even in persistent cases where parts are sore and tender—comfort follows the soothing touch of

Resinol

DEAF?

Happy Thousands Now Hear with the New Bone Conduction GEM

Visit Us When You Come to The Chicago Fair!

Have a free demonstration in Gem's Chicago laboratory. Try the new Gem that brings hearing through the head bone—small, lightweight, has real clarity of tone, amplified power — improved BONE CONDUCTION Hearing Aid brings hearing without strain. The latest—AT A PRICE ALL CAN AFFORD. Also New Air Gems. Backed by 25 years' service. Write for Booklet C.S.

GEM EAR PHONE CO., Inc.
59 E. Madison St., Chicago, Ill.
(15th FLOOR)

FEEDER LAMBS—HEREFORD CALVES. For sale. October delivery. Write RUTLEDGE ..... Hettinger, N. D.

BEAUTY OPERATORS WANTED—Big demand for beauty operators. New complete home course of Beauty Culture. Pay while learning. Capitol Publishing Co., Hadley, N.Y.

KILL ALL FLIES

Flood anywhere. Daisy Fly Killer attracts and kills flies. Guaranteed, effective, neat, convenient. Cannot spill. Will not soil or injure anything. Lasts all season. 30c at all dealers. Parcel Post, 25c. 150 De Kalb Ave., Brklyn, N.Y.

DAISY FLY KILLER

KILLS ANTS

Sprinkle Ant Food along window sills, doors and openings through which ants come and go. Guaranteed to rid quickly. Used in a million homes. Inexpensive. At your druggist's.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD

AUGUST

L 919

U 355

It's High Style to Shine in Satin

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

AS TO the most outstanding immediate fabric news, it's satin! In all the annals of its history this bright and shining costume medium has never more dramatically illumined the pathway of midseason and early fall styles, than at the present moment.

If anyone thinks that the newer satins "tell the same old story," all we can say is that a most happy surprise awaits each and every so unimaginative a skeptic. Fact is the early arrivals on fashion's stage are delivering a message so refreshingly new and inspirational the moment you glimpse the advance models you will feel the urge to wear satin.

The resplendent evening gowns of gleaming satin in such beguiling tones and tints as mint green, ice blue and that new and illusive dusky pink which is so lovely, the smartly finished daytime suits with their amazingly wide-buckled belts and their primly starched broad white turn-back collars that remind of the picturesque garb of our honored Puritan forefathers, the handsome dressier afternoon satins with their dainty feminine details, and the swagger tailored sports dresses with their many buttons and tricky gadgets, all of which are now on style parade, simply hold one spellbound.

It is just such stunning costumes as the trio pictured which are causing seekers of chic and timely apparel for immediate wear to "catch the vision" of satin. These particular models were carefully selected for illustration in these columns from among scores of strikingly original styles shown at a recent pre-view of fall fashions by the Chicago Wholesale Market council.

The detail that instantaneously strikes the eye as the spotlight centers on the smartly satin-clad woman pictured to the left in this group is the very wide belt and enormous buckle which distinguishes the suit she is wearing. This model is the sort which will start you touring the stores which carry foremost fashions with a determination to acquire a facsimile for your very own. The new finger-tip length coat (a trifle shorter than three-quarter), the roomy graceful sleeves, the straight skirt with just enough of a kick pleat to ease it a bit, these are style details each of which is prophetic of the future.

The fetching satin jacket suit to the right in the picture is warranted to capture the heart of most any style-aspiring young modern. The white satin which fashions the blouse with its scallop-edge sailor collar and down-the-front jabot is metal threaded in a crossbar patterning. One of the big features of the newer materials is that they are all more or less agleam with interweavings of gold and silver.

It is almost needless to say that black satin fashions the suits just described, for undoubtedly black is first choice by a large majority, for street wear. However, any number of smart street models are being tailored of satins in rich autumn browns or greens (green is much talked of for fall) while a satin costume in the newly featured beetroot red or dark blue is considered a last word in chic.

As to the exquisite satin evening gown here shown, imagine it in any delectable pastel you may happen to fancy, or glistening white if you prefer. The cape sleeves and ruched neckline are important style points also the semi-fitted princess lines sans belt are typically new.

©, Western Newspaper Union.

Frogs Reveal the Earth's Past

From Them Scientist Has Learned of Lost Continents and Vanished Seas; Furnish Information of a Long-Ago Ultra Far West.

When the frogs croak you can well imagine, with scientific backing, that you hear the nature songs of lost continents and vanished seas of the past 175,000,000 years.

For, in a new kind of frog geography, the records of these lost places have been found in living frogs by Maynard M. Metcalf of the National museum. His studies are an almost unique method of reading the earth's past. He has published the first report in the official journal, Science.

The frog map shows the possible existence of a great continent in the Pacific, in Triassic times, 175,000,000 years ago. This was Gondwandaland, some evidences of which scientists have found previously by other methods. Gondwandaland probably connected with South America.

Another lost frog continent was Lemuria. It likewise was about 175,000,000 years back, but in the Indian ocean. It appears to have connected Africa, Madagascar, Ceylon, southernmost India, the islands of southwest Maylasia and probably some of the southwestern Malay archipelago islands.

Then the frogs show an ultra-Far West. This was a strip of land west of the present Pacific coast of the United States. It ran from Siberia, down past Alaska, Central America, and perhaps even for a time, Maynard finds, to Ecuador and Chile. Its heyday was 50,000,000 to 100,000,000 years ago.

In this same cretaceous times, there probably wasn't much Texas. Instead the frogs indicate an arm of the sea there, running up from the western Gulf of Mexico all the way into the Arctic ocean.

Finally, 100,000,000 years ago Byrd apparently might have walked to Little America from South America, Australia or Africa, as he chose. Seemingly then there was an extended Antarctica, connecting with all three continents.

The usual method of reconstructing the past is through skeletons of animals, but the frogs left too few bones. Maynard gets his frog map from the "commensals" of these animals.

A commensal is "one who dines at the same board with another or others."

In human society some commensals are honored positions, but in frogs they are just plain parasites. These studied by Mr. Metcalf are the intestinal commensals, the family opalinidae. A remarkable family, too. It has developed 150 species in the frog.

These species are the clews to the frog's geographical migrations. He couldn't swim the oceans. There had to be land to account for all the places he has gone. The commensals show where these places were, by the changes they underwent and evolved while dining with the frogs.

Learning to Sleep

In Stuttgart, Germany, there is a sleep clinic, run by a German physiologist and physician, for the sole purpose of helping those suffering from insomnia. The patients spend only the nights there. In the morning they leave the hospital, and are free to go to work or do whatever they wish.

Rockets Guide Airplanes

The London airdrome sends up rockets to guide airplanes to the landing field in foggy weather; the rockets penetrate the fog and explode brilliantly in the clear sky above.

POETIC PHRASES EVOLVED BY MEN IN PRISON CELLS

If the talk of a gangster and the words of a poet were scrambled, it is hard to say which would yield the larger number of poetic phrases. Does this sound as though written in jest? A list of slang terms used in prison, published in American Speech, offers many a gem for collectors of poetic figures; diamonds in the rough, they might be called. Leaving aside the question whether these are genuine specimens of prison slang—and some of them sound as though they may not be found outside the covers of a crime novel—it is instructive to observe how faithful to the muse of poetry is much that the pickpocket, the swindler or the bank robber says in the course of his trade.

One of the examples compiled by J. Louis Kuetha, of Johns Hopkins University library, is the word "tears" for pearls. There is as much poetry in this as in such an image from Shakespeare as "Those are pearls that were his eyes." Another term from the cells is "sunshine," meaning gold. The phrase "last brightening" is defined in the criminal's thesaurus as "yesterday morning." It might have come from Shelley. A gangster is "hot" when he is wanted by the police. Shakespeare wrote "how like a winter my absence has been." Here we see merely a reversal in seasons. The criminal who says "vine" for a suit of clothes is no less poetic than Campion was when he wrote "There is a garden in her face." When contemporary poetry of the school of T. S. Eliot has wearied of the search for phrases among old Australian ballads or among the verses of medieval Spanish poets it may turn with profit to the cell blocks at Sing Sing and Great Meadow.—New York Sun.

There Somewhere

Every circumstance you meet contains something for you.

Cleaned PLUGS SAVE YOU money!

STOP THE WASTE OF 1 GALLON OF GAS IN 10 . . . HAVE YOUR SPARK PLUGS CLEANED IN THE AC SPARK PLUG CLEANER

only 5c a plug

When your spark plugs are oxide-coated, they mis-fire intermittently. This wastes as much as 1 gallon of gas in 10. Ask any Registered AC Dealer, Garage or Service Station to stop this loss of money—by cleaning your spark plugs with the AC Cleaner. Replace badly worn plugs with New ACs.

Look for the "Plug-in-the-Tak"

AC

THE QUALITY SPARK PLUG

Tune in: RAYMOND KNIGHT and the CUCKOOS—Saturdays, 10:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

FIND TUNIC BLOUSE IN MANY VARIETIES

That blouses will remain a big fashion is generally conceded, but in what forms is a matter of discussion. Very few couturiers have thought seriously, as yet, of models for autumn, and those who have show suits mostly with hip-length jackets and waist-length blouses of the butcher boy type.

The rumor about Russian suit styles has been heard here. Lucile Paray has one suit with a tunic blouse which might come under this designation, and Heim has another, in velveteen with fur bordered coat.

Silk Still Holds First Place for Undergarments

The increasing favor for lingerie neckwear, for cotton frocks and linen suits has brought speculation as to a change in undergarment styles, but so far investigation has failed to reveal any real revival of "lingerie" lingerie. Here and there, one finds a linen nightdress, as at Helen Yrande or one of the Paris lingerie specialists but such a model is an exception; and even at Worth, the prime sponsor of sheer cotton stuffs and frilly touches, as well as petticoat foundations for evening gowns, the answer is that only a few batiste gowns are shown.

Large Parisian Compacts in Brown Simulate Wood

New compacts from Paris are huge affairs made of a brown composition material that looks like wood. They are loose, single pacts, a trifle expensive, but a knockout to look at. To make accessories harmonize, there are bracelets and clips, trimmed in gold, of the same substance, and necklaces in which synthetic wooden links alternate with colored stones.

New Cape Style

A gown of bright flame red satin is cut with a deep square front decollete, accompanied by an ermine cape mounted on a square back yoke.

Square Finger Rings

The expression "round like a ring" doesn't mean anything any more, for there are new finger rings that are square.

VERY SHEER BLACK

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

A message of vital importance concerns the vogue for dine, dance and other gowns of more or less formality which are created of black nets or tulles or wispy laces of finest diaphanous texture. When fashioned of daintiest sheer net there is almost sure to be a lavish use of pleated ruche effects. The gown pictured shows a wide ruche trimming outlining the pointed-back-and-front decolletage. A similar ruche trimming heads the deep flounce on the skirt. The silhouette which stresses a slim fitted hipline contrasted by a pronounced and sudden deep flare is typical of the later style trends.

Tricky Earrings

Earrings—once more back on the fashion map—are novel in cut. Many are designed to follow the lobe of the ear instead of standing out, button effect, in front.

Where a slip means death!

MOST AMAZING PROOF EVER KNOWN OF EXTRA TRACTION AND NON-SKID SAFETY

UP . . . UP . . . UP . . . to 14,000 feet above sea-level! Skirting yawning chasms, tearing around 181 treacherous turns at breath-taking speeds, daredevil drivers fight their way up, grinding, pounding, swaying! In the annual Pike's Peak Race, where a slip means death, Firestone High Speed Tires were on the winning car. Surely this is the most amazing proof ever known of Extra Traction—Non-Skid Safety—and Dependability!

The new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934 have the toughest, longest wearing tread Firestone has ever made. They have a wider tread of flatter contour, deeper non-skid, more and tougher rubber, giving you more than 50% longer non-skid mileage.

Every cotton fiber inside every cord is soaked and coated with Extra Rubber—eight additional pounds absorbed by every 100 pounds of cotton cords. This is Gum-Dipping, the Firestone patented process that provides extra Blowout Protection.

50% LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE

Remember—with every Firestone Tire you get the Triple Guarantee
—for unequaled Performance Records
—for Life Against All Defects
—for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards* (*Six Months in Commercial Service)

Call on the nearest Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store today and equip your car with the new Firestone High Speed Tires for 1934.

FIRESTONE CENTURY PROGRESS TIRE REDUCED PRICES for LIMITED TIME ONLY $5.75 4.40-21

SIZE	OLD PRICE	NEW PRICE	YOU SAVE ON ONE TIRE	YOU SAVE ON A SET OF 4
4.40-21....	$6.65	$5.75	$ .90	$3.60
4.50-21....	7.31	6.30	1.01	4.04
4.75-19....	7.78	6.70	1.08	4.32
5.00-19....	8.34	7.20	1.14	4.56
5.25-18....	9.27	8.00	1.27	5.08
5.50-17....	10.15	8.75	1.40	5.60
6.00-19 H.D.	14.47	12.45	2.02	8.08

OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY LOW

THE OUTSTANDING VALUE IN THE LOW-PRICED FIELD

Firestone COURIER TYPE

SIZE	PRICE
4.40-21	$4.45
4.50-21	4.60
4.75-19	5.30
30x3½	3.45

OTHER SIZES PROPORTIONATELY LOW

Firestone

MOST MILES PER DOLLAR

HONOR ROLL

FIRESTONE HIGH SPEED TIRES

★ For seven consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the daring Pike's Peak climb where a slip meant death.
THIS MEANS NON-SKID SAFETY AND TRACTION

★ For fifteen consecutive years have been on the winning cars in the 500-mile Indianapolis Race.
THIS MEANS BLOWOUT PROTECTION

★ For three consecutive years have been on the 131 buses of the Washington (D.C.) Railway and Electric Company covering 11,357,810 bus miles without one minute's delay due to tire trouble.
THIS MEANS DEPENDABILITY AND ECONOMY

★ Were on the Neiman Motors' Ford V-8 Truck that made a new coast-to-coast record of 67 hours, 45 minutes, 30 seconds actual running time.
THIS MEANS ENDURANCE

See how Firestone Tires are Made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair

Listen to the Voice of Firestone—Featuring Gladys Swarthout — Every Monday Night over N. B. C. — WEAF Network

AUGUST

L 919 U356

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

For Sale: Grapes in any quantity. Ed Lindley. 34t1p.

Wanted: Corn to cut for fodder. Geo. Milliman, Spencerville. 34t1.

Agents Wanted: Highest cash paid weekly; part expenses to part and full time workers. Experience unnecessary. Outfit free. Hook up with a going concern. The Hawks Nursery Co., Wauwatosa, Wis. 31t4.

For Sale: Good Full-blooded Shroshire Rams. A. Neuenschwander, Grabill, Ind. 34t1.

AUBURN CIDER MILL

Open every day except Sunday. Will be ready to grind Cane any day now. Block north of Ice Plant. Graham & Hanson. 33t4p.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF APPOINT-MENT OF EXECUTRIX

State of Indiana, DeKalb County, ss:

I, Carl Walter, Clerk of the Circuit Court, for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana, do hereby certify that Grace M. Houk has been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of Arrilla A. Houk, late of DeKalb County who died testate, and the said Grace M. Houk having qualified and given bond as such Executrix is duly authorized to take upon herself the execution of said will.

Witness my hand and seal of said Court, this 25th day of August, 1934.

CARL WALTER,
Clerk of DeKalb Circuit Court.
W. D. Stump, Atty. 34t3.

Coburn's Corners

Mrs. Vina Quance attended our Bible School Sunday.

O. K. Shull and family spent Sunday afternoon with J. S. Shull.

Attendance at Bible School for Aug. 26 was 85, collection $3.26.

The Shull reunion is to be held at the home of Uucle Joe Shull next Sunday.

Frances Barnhouse left Sunday for Detroit, Mich., where she has secured employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place and Mattie Hart called on Hattie Walker Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil George and children, of Fort Wayne, called on Mattie Hart Sunday afternoon.

Alice Virginia Hart and Chas. Washler spent last week at Lake James attending the Bible Institute.

Mrs. Esther Lake and son, of South Bend, are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lake.

Walter Coburn and Wallace Willard, of Marshalltown, Iowa, arrived at the Wilmot Coburn home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hart are leaving this week to attend the Century of Progress, and a trip thro Northern Michigan.

Quite a few in this community attended the yearly meeting of the DeKalb county Christian Churches held Sunday at Newville.

Mrs. George Hart and children, George and Martha and little Geraldine Shull spent Friday with Lee Mercer and family, of Butler.

Mrs Hattie Walker called on Mrs. Garth Shull Saturday afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm and daughters called Sunday afternoon.

Fredrick and LaNore Laub, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Laub. Mrs. Otis Laub, of Hicksville, was a dinner guest in the same home.

The R. H. C. met with Mrs. Nellie Perry. Three guests, Mrs. C. M. Coburn, Mrs. J. J. Hart and Miss LaNor Laub were present besides the ten memebers. "Special" entertainment by Plums Hamilton. Refreshments were served consisting of fruit salad, cake and coffee.

Free RUBBER RINGS.. for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a greaseless Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. U.S.A.

27t14

NEWVILLE

The Richmond reunion will be held at Peru, Ind., Sept. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler spent Saturday at Bryan, Ohio.

The Wyatt reunion was held Sunday at Eckhart Park, Auburn.

The Cotrill reunion will be held at Circle Park, Hamilton Lake, September 2nd.

Gilbert Everetts and son and Mr. Robinett, of Butler, were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billman and son, of Hicksville spent Sunday evening at this place.

Rev. and Mrs. Moore and family will attend the U. B. Conference at Winona next week.

Mrs. Custer, three sons and grandson; from south of Auburn, called on friends here Sunday.

Chicago, visited here over the Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore, Friweek-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale McNabb and son were here from Garrett, Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Abel.

Mrs. Eugene Praul, delegate, and Mrs. Hiram Ginder, alternate, will attend the U. B. Conference next week at Winona.

Mrs. Jessie Fusselman and Miss Joyce Fusselman are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Benner at Mt. Clemens, Mich, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Angell, of Hicksville, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith of this place, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith at Mongo.

Rev. Basil Holt, of Angola, was the speaker at the services Sunday at the Christian Church. Nearly all the surrounding towns were represented.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and children, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fickle and Miss Dorothy Davis attended a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of Eugene Praul, at his home near Mt. Pleasant.

The Young Married People's class of the Mt. Pleasant U. B. Sunday School will hold their annual class social at the home of Rev. and Mrs C. W. Moore, Friday evening, August 31.

CONCORD

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo and Mrs. Ada Messenger made apple butter Tuesday. Sounds like olden times.

Mr. Bert Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perkins and daughter, Shirley Jean, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson.

L. G. Fetters and family went to Bluffton Sunday after their son, Walter, who has been visiting for the past week in the Ora Baker home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maxwell and daughter, Patricia, spent Friday evening in the Ford Jackson home. Patricia remained until Sunday.

Mrs. Ford Jackson and Mrs. C. Jackson called on Mrs. Mike Wagner Monday afternoon. They also called on Mrs. Sarah Widney on Tuesday.

Etheyln, Alice and Billy Baker, of Spencerville and Eloise and James Draggoo went to Kalamazoo, Mich., Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Perry and family for a few days.

Mr. Thomas Reidhard, of Reidhard Department Store, Miss Lucille Woodard and Mr. Beady Berlistkee, all of Garrett, called on Mr. and Mrs. Fred Draggoo, Sunday evening.

Mrs. Fern Draggoo took Mrs. Sarah Widney and daughter, Ida to Auburn to do some shopping before going back south for the winter. They will leave for the south in a week or so.

All rabbit breeders are asked to meet at the County Agent's office on the evening of September 4, to make final plans, entries and arrangements for the fall fair. Eighty premiums will be awarded in this department this year.

HOME BUREAU

The Concord Township Home Bureau met at the home of Helen Ulm, Aug. 17th. Meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Krise. Opening songs led by Gertrude Borthwick, after which Club Creed was read by all. Twenty-five members responded to roll call with their favorite poem. A discussion of poems and their authors was led by Cora Curie with several poems read by members of the club. Contests were conducted by Katie Storer, Daisy Keeler and Carrie Wade. The committee gave a short playlet after which they served home made ice cream and wafers.

The club then went to the school gymnasium where the 4-H girls gave a short program. Mrs. Borthwick then presented a gift to the winners of each group, after which the club served limeade and cookies.

The Home Burau met for an all day meeting July 20, at the home of Mrs. Emily Hollabaugh. Twenty-four members, four visitors and four children enjoyed a bountiful dinner. After the noon hour the meeting was called to order by the president. Opening songs led by Laura Washler. The Home Economics Creed was read by all. Secretary report read and approved. Members responded to roll call with "Something Snappy." A motion was made and supported that bills be allowed for expenses of the June breakfast. Project work was given by Emily Hollabaugh.

Reading ..... Catherine Jump
Flag Dont's ..... Carrie Morr
Reading ..... Bud Nicholls
Reading ..... Myrtle Pugsley

Joepshine Kees, leader of the 4-H girls gave several remarks on her work. A motion was made and carried to pay Mrs. Kees for her work, also to buy prizes for each group of 4-H Club winners.

Press Corresponding.

HAGENBECK-WALLACE CIRCUS COMING SOON

The Great Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, one of the two largest shows in America, will exhibit in Fort Wayne, on Monday, September 3. A two mile long street parade at 11 A. M. will be the inaugural event of the day,—the first real old-fashioned circus parade since 1926.

The huge circus traveling on three all-steel trains of double-length circus cars, will, this year, offer more thrilling features than ever before. Every displav on the lengthy program is of gigantic proportions, and scores of them new to circus patrons.

Clyde Beatty, world famous wild animal trainer, will again thrill the vast audiences with his daring in the all-steel arena with forty wild and ferocious lions and tigers. The most awe-inspiring display of the kind in the whole world.

Other stellar features from among the 600 men and women arenic stars, will include the famous Cristiani Troupe of equestrians, direct from Europe; the world famous Flying Codonas, with Alfredo, greatest aerialist of all time; Bombayo, the Man from India, — sensational star of the bounding-rope, and over 100 other ring, track, and stage displays on the mighty 1934 Hagenbeck Wallace program.

The performance will open with a stupendous spectacle, "Persia," featuring nearly 2,000 people and animals, and an elaborate pyrotechnical display, while, for the youngsters, seventy-five of the world's best known clowns will be on hand to furnish laughter throughout the length of the two hour program.

The big double-menagerie, the largest on tour in the world, is, this year, augmented by five great herds of performing elephants—40 in number, 30 camels, and 20 zebras. Performances will be given at 2 and 8 P. M., with the main gate opening one hour earlier.

Education Exhibit at the Indiana State Fair, 1934, Sept. 1 to 7

A School House of a Century Ago

The construction of the two buildings which will make up an educational village at the Indiana State Fair is getting rapidly and efficiently under way. This exhibit, located back of the Poultry Building, across the street to the west from the Red Cross Building, and across the street to the north of the Manufacturers' Building, will be visited daily by thousands during the Fair.

The modern building in every way embodies the latest and finest features of school construction. Built of brick, it will present a front spread of sixty feet, the left wing of which will be completed into a perfect one-room plant. Space for three more rooms is being planned, so that the structure will eventually grow into a complete four-room unit where every type of modern educational practice can be shown. This year a primary room, fully equipped, has been chosen for the exhibit, and under the competent direction of Mr. T. D. Weir, Assistant Superintendent of Indianapolis Schools, pupils and teacher will be present in the room, demonstrating a modern primary room, with the interesting special technique required. Mr. Herbert Foltz drew the plans for this modern building. Mr. Leighton Bowers, State Superintendent, is supervising the construction.

On the corner lot, full of charm for those who are interested in the beginnings of the Hoosier State, will be a little, primitive cabin, built of round logs, completely constructed with the rude tools used by the pioneers. With much research and painstaking work, Mr. G. H. Richter, Mr. A. V. Bailey, and others of the Conservation Department, have built an authentic old time log cabin, roof of "shakes and weight-poles", latch string and all. . . a tiny cradle of modern educational practice. Greenfield High School, Marion County Schools, and Technical High School will furnish pupils and teacher garbed in the old time way, to recall the days when "the word with the bark on" was often heard.

These, with the Hobby Tent, showing fine work made by Hoosier boys and girls and the Parade of Champions, comprise the Special Schools Exhibit, 1934.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Charles Widney and daughter, Ida, of Concord, called on Mrs. Ada Berry and Mrs. Mary Betz Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemmie Crisman and son, Leonard, of Gary, were Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran, Mrs. M. H. Andress, Mrs. Neva Hursh and Mrs. Pauline Miller, were visitors at the Hicksville fair Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Betz, Mrs. Ada Berry and Jimmy and Jeanne Hatch attended the Betz reunion Sunday held at the home of Lester Boger east of Auburn.

Mrs. Wm. Randall has a sunflower in her garden 10 ft. and 10 inches high and has a beautiful blossom. That's the record so far. What have you?

Miss Jennie Leininger, of Weatherby, Pa., is spending a few days with relatives in this community. She is a relative of the Sechler families.

Mrs. John Wineland, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Ridgway attended the Walter family reunion held at Trier's Park, Fort Wayne, Sunday.

Mr. Frank Walter, of Spokane, Wash., formerly a St. Joe resident for many years, has suffered a stroke of paralysis, and is in a serious condition in a Spokane hospital.

Miss June Elizabeth Jump is a guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie while her parents are taking a ten days' camping and fishing trip in Northern, Mich.

Mrs. Pearl White, of Fort Wayne, spent the past few days with her sister, Mrs. Harry Thomas, east of St. Joe. Mrs. Vina Quance spent Sunday in the same home.

"News from Nowhere" is the name of a little camp paper sent us by Malcom Woodcox, who is in the Idaho C. C. Camp. It contains much news of interest and among the items is that Mal plays 1st base on the ball team and that their team won over Blister Rust Camp No. 19 by a score of 9-2. If you care to see this paper, drop in The News office and look it over.

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith, of Portsmouth, Ohio, Mrs. Elma Flynn, of Chicago and Mr. Lee and Miss Sallie Thompson, of Kansas City, have been guests in the Hattie Widney-Stone home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shilling and son, Richard and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Peters, of Hicksville spent the first of the week at the World's Fair. Mrs. Cal Laux looked after the home while they were away and cared for the baby.

A wise man mentions seven things that one never forgets. He covers too much ground to be practical. Moreover, seven rules are too many to carry in mind. For this week, why not select one? Destroy the letter written in anger.

Mrs. Belle Barney, Dr. and Mrs. DeMuth, of Hicksville, Dr. and Mrs. Baumgartner, of Spencerville, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Tombow and son and Mr. and Mrs. Gengnagle and daughters, of Butler, were visitors in the J. P. Buckingham home Sunday afternoon.

Fred Hart drove off the grade north of the Hadsell bridge, Tuesday night as he was headed south and passing a car. The headlights of the other car blinded him. The wrecker of Wilbur Yeiser was called and with a number of men, the car was again placed in the road.

Jack, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Lochner, of Jackson township, who was severely burned last Thursday when he stepped into burning muck on the farm of of P. P. Lochner, south of Auburn, shows but little improvement. He was burned from his hips down.

The following guests spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch: Mr. and Mrs. Levi Shrock, of Wooster, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henderson, Grant, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Klopfenstein, Grabill, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beams, Spencerville and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Koch and son, Jimmy, of Fort Wayne.

Dean J. H. Skinner Says State Fair Is Great Educational Institution

Dean J. H. Skinner

The Indiana State Fair, to be held September 1 to 7 this year, has been proven to be one of the great educational institutions for the agricultural and industrial people of the middle west and Indiana especially, according to Dean J. H. Skinner of Purdue University and an ex-officio member of the Indiana Board of Agriculture.

Dean Skinner says, "In fact, the Indiana State Fair is the great middle west exposition in which all kinds of manufactured products, crops, livestock, poultry, farm products, and even boys and girls are shown to the public in the most attractive way possible.

"The agricultural exhibits in the Purdue University Building will throw light on the solution of many of your agricultural problems. These exhibits and demonstrations will be intensely practical and of great value to those who are interested in more efficient methods, lower costs of production, and better quality products.

"This year, with 'A Century of Progress in Indiana Education,' there will be an even more diversified group of exhibits at the State Fair than ever before.

Many manufacturers are taking advantage of the State Fair to exhibit their products to the public in such a way that the greatest possible number will have opportunity to see the latest improvements and designs of all kinds of appliances and products.

"Every man, woman, and child, whether living on the farm or in the city, may be greatly benefited by attending the Indiana State Fair for one or more days."

BUY
Bran and Middlings
—AT THE—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

A European trade expert says that a boom for the United States is near. He spoke kindly, and his words will be accepted in the sense in which they were uttered. Judging, however, by the lack of interest manifested by Europe in the matter of paying her bills, a good many on that continent would like to see Uncle Sam treated to the kind of "boom" that is followed by debris and flying fragments.

About ninety per cent of the German voters support Mr. Hitler at the polls, in what may be regarded as a test vote, and today he holds more power than any king or emperor of the earth. The vote may have been a test of German opinion, but it was not a test of Mr. Hitler. That will come later. The world will watch to see wheather he measures up to the maxim of our friend Shakespeare: 'Tis excellent to have a giant's strength, but it is tyrannous to use it like a giant.

A New York infant thrust its head between the bars of a crib and had to be sawed free by the police. The child will find itself gripped and trapped many times before it dies. The youngster simply made an early start, that is all.

County Tickets

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mountz.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer Warren Arnold.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Sunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

AUGUST

L 919

0357

Notice to Taxpayers of Tax Levies

The Advisory Board will at this meeting consider the following appropriations:—$470.00 to Special School Fund; $950.00 to Tuition Fund; $100.00 to Library Fund.

In the Matter of determining the Tax Rates for Certain Purposes by Spencer Township DeKalb County, Indiana. Before the Township Advisory Board.

Notice is hereby given the taxpayers of Spencer Township, De Kalb County, Indiana, that the proper legal officers of said municipality at their regular meeting place, on the 4th day of September, 1934, will consider the following budget:

BUDGET CIASSIFICATION FOR TOWNSHIPS

Township Fund

Salary of Trustee, $600.00.
Office Rent, $60.00.
Trustee's Expense, traveling $125.
Records and Adv., $170.00.
Pay of Adv. Board, $15.00.
Exam. Records, $40.00.
Miscellaneous, $110.00.
Total Township Fund, $1,120.00

Poor Fund

To Reimburse County, $456.59

Tuition Fund

Pay of Teachers, $8,330.00.
Total Tuition Fund, $8,330.00.

Library Fund.

Library Tax, $87.03.

Special School Fund

Repair of Building and Ground, $175.00.
Repair of Equipment, $100.00.
School Furn. and Equip., $200.00.
Schol Supplies, $150.00.
Janitor Supplies, $50.00.
Fuel for Schools, $600.00.
Loans, Int. and Insurance., $275.
Teachers Institute, $180.00.
Janitor Service, $560.00.
Transportation of Children, $1,720.00.
Light and Power, $180.00.
Miscellaneous, $300.00.
Total Spec. School Fund, $4,490.

Bond Fund

Bonds, $2,250.00.
Interest, $734.07.
Total Bond Fund, $2,984.07.

ESTIMATE OF TOWNSH IP FUNDS TO BE RAISED

FUNDS REQUIRED FOR EXPENSES TO DECEMBER 31st OF INCOMING YEAR:	Township Fund	Sp. School Fund	Tuition Fund	Poor Fund	Bond Fund
1 Total Budget Estimate for incoming year	$1 120 00	$4 490 00	$ 8 330 00	$456 59	$2 984 07
2 Necessary expenditures to be made from appropriations unexpended July 31st of present year	665 00	1 697 82	3 223 81
3 Additional appropriations necessary to be made August 1st to December 31st of present year		470 00	950 00
4 Outstanding temporary loans to be paid before Dec. 31st of present year—not included in lines 2 or 3
5 Total Funds Required (Add lines 1, 2, 3 and 4)	$1 785 00	$6 657 82	$12 503 81	$456 59	$2 984 07
FUNDS ON HAND AND TO BE RECEIVED FROM SOURCES OTHER THAN PROPOSED TAX LEVY:
6 Actual Balance, July 31st of present year	825 08	2 683 72	8 646 44
7 Taxes to be collected, present year (December settlement)	477 62	864 02	1 102 13		1 387 82
8 Miscellaneous Revenue to be received Aug. 1st of present year to Dec. 31st of incoming year (Schedule on file in office of Township Trustee)
a. Special Taxes (See Schedule)		290 00	2 945 00
b. All other Revenue (See Schedule			295 00
9 Total Funds (Add lines 6, 7, 8a and 8b)	$1 302 70	$3 837 74	$12 988 57		$1 387 82
10 NET AMOUNT TO .BE RAISED FOR .EXPENSES TO DEC. 1st OF INCOMING YEAR (Deduct line 9 from line 5)	482 30	2 820 08			1 596 25
11 Operating Balance (not in excess of expense Jan. 1st to June 30, less Misc. Revenue for same period)	637 70	1 619 92	2 031 74
12 AMOUNT TO BE RAISED BY TAX LEVY (add lines 10, 11)..	$1 120 00	$4 440 00	$ 2 031 74	$456 59	$2 984 07

PROPOSED LEVIES

Net Taxable Property $870,340.00
Number of Taxable Polls 117

FUNDS	Levy on Polls	Levy on Property	Amount to Be Raised
Township		13	$ 1 131 44
Tuition	1 00	22	2 031 74
Special School	50	50	4 410 20
Library		01	87 03
Bond		35	3 046 19
Poor		06	522 20
TOTAL	$1 50	$1 27	$11 228 80

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF TAXES COLLECTED AND TO BE COLLECTED

FUNDS	Collected 1932 Levy	Collected 1933 Levy	Collected 1934 Levy	To Be Collected 1935 Levy
Township	$ 1 350 00	$ 1 300 00	$1 120 00	$ 1 131 44
Tuition	7 157 00	5 097 47	2 335 80	2 031 74
Special School	3 831 07	4 830 00	1 918 40	4 410 20
Library				87 03
Bond	3 275 00	3 173 75	3 072 46	3 046 19
Poor		306 79	727 90	522 20
TOTAL	$18 388 07	$14 708 01	$9 074 56	$11 228 80

Taxpayers appearing shall have a right to be heard thereon. After the tax levies have been determined, ten or more taxpayers feeling themselves aggrieved by such levies, may appeal to the State Board of Tax Commissioners for further and final action thereon, by filing a petition therefor with the County Auditor not later than the fourth Monday of September, and the State Board will fix a date of hearing in this county.

Dated August 14, 1934.

F. E. RHODES, Trustee Spencer Township.

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

SPENCERVILLE

Chas. Butler, a Spencerville young man, was taken into custody at noon Friday by Sheriff John P. Hoff on a charge of drunken driving. Butler was on his way to Auburn when his truck upset at the side of the St. Joe road six miles southeast of Auburn. He was placed in the county jail pending arraignment.

Mrs. Clyde Rectenwall and Mrs. Frances Chapman were guests recently of their cousin and husband, Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Lindstrom, at Pleasant Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser and Mr. and Mrs. Roy I. Bowser and children, of St. Joe, were Sunday afternoon guests at the Harold Bowser home near Fort Wayne.

Gale Bowser and family and Frank Butler spent several days last week at Defiance, O., in the L. O. Wade home. Mr. Butler purchased some buildings at that place and is trucking them home.

Many from this place attended the Steward reunion held at Eckhart Park Sunday. There were 45 members present. Miss Ida Reed is the new president; Frank Steward, vice president, and William Steward, secretary - treasurer. They will meet next year at the Wm. Reed home.

Miss Loretta Funk attended the Funk-Estry family reunion held in Eckhart Park, Sunday. 140 were in attendance. Next year the family will gather on Sunday, June 23 at the same place. Officers as follows: president, James Larne, of Lagrange, Ind.; secretary-treasurer, Paul Holton, of Auburn.

Miss Ida Reed and Mrs. Cleo Reed spent Monday in Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. Golden High is visiting at the Benninghoff home in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Jennie Walter was a Sunday guest of her mother, Mrs. Cora Steward.

Miss Sylvia Perry, of Churubusco, is visiting in the Ralph Culbertson home.

Attendance at the M. E. Sunday School for Aug. 26 was 58, collection $2.21; Lutheran 76—$2.70.

The Webb family reunion was held on Sunday at the home of Marion Webb of Newville Center.

Mrs. Wal Chaney, of Atlanta, Georgia, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chaney.

Many from this place attended the Hicksville fair on Wednesday because of its being children's day.

Richard Fuller, of Pleasant Lake, is spending a few days visiting his uncle, Bert Fisher, and family.

Mrs. Delbert Furnish and children spent Friday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hutson, of near Hurshtown.

Mrs. Mary Callaway and children moved here from Muncie Monday into the Willian Allen property and will teach at Coletown.

Mrs. Louis Beam was seriously hurt on Thursday evening, when she fell down the cement steps at the post office building.

Next Sunday morning, Sunday School at 9 o'clock, Lynn Fisher, superintendent; preaching services at 7:30 in the evening. Rev. Newcombe, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes, Mrs. LaVern Angel and daughter, Pat, were among the guests attending the Wyatt reunion, held in Eckhart Park, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walter, Sr., son, Walter, and daughter, Fern, and Roscoe Walter and children, attended the Walter reunion at Trier's Park, Fort Wayne, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay and Wilson Hensley, wife and children were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowerman and family of near Angola, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hollopeter and little son, of Dayton, O., left Wednesday after spending the past three weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hollopeter.

The True Blue class of the M. E. Sunday School will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ethel Bowser. They will begin a contest next Sunday which will continue for the next four months.

Mrs. Zetta Wortman left Saturday for the Maurice Hallabaugh home to care for the young children while Mr. and Mrs. Hallabaugh visit the World's Fair. They will also visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones at Battle Creek, Mich., while away.

Miss Margaret Chaney assisted in the musical recital given by the pupils of Grace Finzer at Leo last week. Miss Margaret Elnore and Junior Chaney also assisted in the recital given on Tuesday afternoon at Hicksville, Ohio, by pupils of Mrs. Finzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson attended the Scarlett reunion held at Blue Lake, Sunday. About 50 members were present. The officers are, president, Mrs. Gladys Kelley, Fort Wayne; secretary - treasurer, Miss Geraldine Bassom, of Churubusco.

The Kirst family reunion was held on Sunday at the home of Rebecca Kirst. There were 70 members present. Little Erma Jean Griffin, 4-months old, was the youngest member present and Mrs. Rebecca Kirst, 84 years old was the eldest one present. The reunion will be held next year the second Sunday in August. New officers elected are, president, Walter McDaniel, Garrett; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Pearl Beatty of Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fisher and children entertained the following guests at their home Sunday for dinner: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sharp, Dr. Guy Sharp, wife and sister, of Hamilton, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Sharp and Miss Hosler, of Leo, Mrs. Erma Sunday and daughter, Janette, of Chicago.

The McNabb family reunion was held on Sunday at the Eckhart Park, Auburn. Those attending from here were, Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and family. There were 70 members present. The reunion will be held next year at the park on the fourth Sunday in August. The new officers are, president, John McNabb; secretary - treasurer, Mrs. Cliston Swartz, of Leo.

CURIE REUNION

The fourth annual reunion of the Christian Curie family was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie at St. Joe, Ind., on August 26, 1934, at which there were forty-five present. At the noon hour all did justice to the bountiful pot luck dinner, after which a short business session was held, presided over by Frank Curie, president. The officers elected for 1935 were, Mrs. Maude Beams, president, and Doris Beams, secretary and treasurer

The reunion will be held next year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Beams at Spencerville, Ind.

The program was in charge of Mrs. DeLora Curie and Maude Beams, and was opened by singing several old songs led by Doris Beams. A brief history of the Curie family was given by Emma Curie Skilling, of Baltimore, Md., which was very interesting. An article on the life of the late Madame Curie, was read by Mildred Curie. The meeting was adjourned by all repeating the Mizpah benediction. The rest of the afternoon was spent in visiting and renewing acquaintances. At a late hour folks left for their various homes, all wishing that reunions could be held more than once a year.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Skilling, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Henderson, Grant, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Klopfenstein, Grabill, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koch and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hanour and son and Stanley Koch, all of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Peck and family, Anderson, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beams and family, Spencerville; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Curie and Miss Lily Ernest, Garrett, Ind.; Paul Curie, Jr., Waterloo, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook and Miss June Jump, all of Hicksville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch, Mrs. Wm. Curie and sons, Elgin and Paul, Enid Curie and Mrs. Chas. Curie and family, all of St. Joe.

GOES TO SCHOOL

A farewell was tendered Mr. and Mrs. DuWayne Kinsey, Monday evening at the Meethodist Church. A pot luck lunch and a general good time was had and a good attendance enjoyed. The young people leave this week for Indianapolis, where DuWayne will attend a mortician school until June.

SUFFERING HEART ATTACK

J. P. Buckingham suffered a heart attack Monday and has been seriously ill since that time, although he shows signs of improving today. S. C. Tussing and wife of Findlay; Mrs. Nora Reusler, a sister of Mr. Buckingham, of Carey, Ohio, and Mrs. John Rose, a sister of Mrs. Buckingham, of Findlay, Ohio, arrived Tuesday night and spent Wednesday at his bedside.

Fred Steward and Warren Rectenwall spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Ort Wearley and family at Toledo, Ohio.

Fair Visitors to Explore 'Lost River'

Visitors to the new World's Fair which opens in Chicago May 26 will float, in a boat pushed by a prehistoric man, down the "Lost River" through the world of a million years ago in this new exposition feature located on the new Beach Midway. This is one of all the new, startling features offered to Fair visitors this summer, at low cost. The prehistoric monsters reproduced will be animated, in some cases by as many as sixteen motors. They will move, hiss and roar. There are ample tourist accommodations and parking space adjacent to the Fair.

FRESH FOOT PRINTS

"Experience is the best of school masters, only the school fees are so heavy."

We have all learned many good lessons from the present depression but, gee it has been expensive. However, the saddest thing about it is the lessons learned recently about investments and savings are coming too late to do the other people any good. Probably only a few past the age of fifty will ever be able to recuperate their fortunes.

Benjamin Franklin once said that the old adage about saving for a rainy day was all wrong. He said: "Save and the rainy day will not come." But ccording to the Country Gentleman even many of Franklin's theories are now obsolete. You will remember that he said: "Early to bed and early to rise will make a man healthy, wealthy and wise." The Country Gentleman said the modern version of this is:

"Late to bed and early to rise,
Work like hell and economize."

At Carthage, Illinois, five-year-old Mary Runyon played the accompaniment on the piano while her father led the group singing at the meeting of 500 Hancock county teachers at institute.

Farmers can borrow money to pay for seed and forage crops to feed their stock. The Government will furnish it on promissory notes without mortgage.

The First National Bank of Englewood (Chicago) ran an advertisement offering a brand new Parker pencil to each of the depositors of the bank who had deposit of $100 or less to close their accounts. To this bank accounts of $100 are undesirable.

The $315,000 yearly salary paid Will Rogers is just a part of his earnings. Besides the movies Mr. Rogers has his newspaper features and radio contracts.

Information from the United States Department of Education shows that this year's cost of going to any one of 11,462 United States colleges will average $630 for nine months instruction. This will include tuition, fees, room, board, etc., but will not include the expense of traveling from home to college, down-town shows, public dances, or beer parties.

Eighteen-year-old Harold Olsen, of St. Charles, Illinois, while working at his trade of clam digging, in the Fox River, found a 32 grain button pearl which is said to be worth at least $1,000.

You are no poorer than the majority of the folks. Ninety-five per cent of the people that die leave estates of less than one thousand dollars.

Why pay more for cane sugar? Chemical tests show that when completely refined there is no difference in the sweetness, strength or preserving qualities of cane and sugar beet sugar.

We have been reading a lot of optomistic agriculture reports in regard to the 1934 crop report. Since recent rains most of the newspapers report about an 80 per cent yeild of corn in sight. However, after traveling considerable through the corn belt our estimate is that there is only a 40 per cent normal crop and that of mostly poor quality.

About fifteen per cent of the people bitten by rattle snakes die.

Two young bandits received a surprise when they were searching the patrons in a Chicago beer tavern and found that the third or fourth victim was their father.

At Daytona Beach, Florida, 28-year-old Alfred Lastinger started for Spain in a ten-foot sail boat. However, Lastinger only made 20 miles of the trip before he had to be rescued.

The we-always-get-our-man Canadian police are being put to a test in the John S. Labitt kidnapping case in Ontario, Canada.

The water shortage in many districts is really serious. At some places in Oklahoma gasoline was selling at 17 cents per gallon and water at 25 cents per gallon.

WANTED: PERMANENT BOARD AND ROOMS FOR TWO. ADDRESS, BOARDERS. CARE NEWS OFFICE. 34t2p.

+ Immaculate young womanhood finds in Mavis Talcum Powder exactly the deliciously cool comfort and silken smoothness which is indispensable for a well kept body. Daintily fragrant, impalpably fine, it deodorizes and absorbs perspiration as it soothes. Mavis guards against summer heat.

by VIVAUDOU

25¢ 50¢ $1.00

Use Mavis Talcum ALL OVER from the shoulders down. Mavis Face Powder for Face and Throat.

MAVIS TALCUM POWDER

L 919

U 358

SEPTEMBER

SEPTEMBER

L 919

359

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, SEPT. 6, 1934 NUMBER 35

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

School opened on Tuesday with a large enrollment of pupils. Particularly is this true in the senior high school grades (10-11-12) since a number of students who had previously attended other high schools have transferred to our school. At the present time there are 20 enrolled in the twelfth year; twenty-seven in the eleventh year; thirty-seven in the tenth year. To accommodate the increased enrollment additional desks for the study hall and some chairs for the recitation rooms must be provied. Fifty-nine pupils have been enrolled in the junior high school grades. Seventeen pupils enrolled in the first grade on last Friday. About one hundred pupils are enrolled in grades two to six inclusive.

Newville Township is transferring 21 pupils to our school; Wilmington Township sends 15; Jackson Township has 8 enrolled; and two come from Stafford Township. This makes a total of 46 transfer students to the high school.

This year physical education is offered to all pupils from the seventh grade up. There is a state requirement that one credit be earned in physical education and another credit in health education before graduation.

Chorus classes and the school band were organized on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. A number of the patrons would like to see full time work given to the music instructor, Mr. C. A. Woodcox.

Mrs. Ed Miser and daughter, Miss Martha, of Garrett, were in town Saturday.

Preaching services following the Sunday School hour, Sept. 9, with communion, at the Methodist Church. Rev. William Koehnlein, pastor.

FARMERS HAVING FLOUR DUE THEM MAY CALL FOR IT AT THEIR CONVENIENCE.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

FLOUR MILL IS GREATLY ENLARGED

Reviewing the years that have past, we can say, that the local flour mill has perhaps been as beneficial to the local community as any one business, and yet it had its times of prosprity and depression, while under private and co-operative ownership, and at times it stood idle for months.

About two years ago its operations were renewed and about a year ago H. F. Gauntt took charge of the mill, completely rebuilt it and run at full production until he could arrive at a conclusion as to the possibilities of the local field.

The product of the mill met with great success whenever sold, so in order to meet the demands of the trade the old grinders were replaced with larger ones, the mill completely revamped, making it a possible 125 barrel mill per day.

Many weeks have been spent in making this change, and soon operations will be in full swing, furnishing a local wheat consuming market for all the wheat available, and at a good price.

The flour is called "Burco" because of the Bursley Grocery Co., taking the entire output of the mill, above local consumption. Feeds of all kinds will be manufactured here that constitute wheat offals, besides some cereals and pancake flours, for which special machinery has been installed.

Besides Mr. Gauntt, there will be two millers and a number of helpers to take care of the mill, all of which means much to our local community.

Mr. John Tabor, of Hopkinsville, Ky., who has been here for weeks, during the revamping of the mill, will be the head miller.

Mr. A. B. Jackson, Fort Wayne, a professional mill wright, who has worked for Mr. Gauntt for many years, had charge of the construction work.

ST. JOE LUTHERAN CHURCH

September 9th

The Fifteenth Suday after Trinity: Worship at 10 o'clock, D. S. T., 9 o'clock, Standard Time. The pastor's sermon subject, "The Unsearchable Riches of Christ."

ST. JOE RIVER VALLEY

Monday a truck from Richmond, Indiana, drove into the Leighty Orchard looking for apples. Arrangements were made for regular weekly calls for apples, cider and honey.

In conversation it came out that they were wholesale and retail dealers in fruits and vegetables and when they were told what the Valley produced, they went out and picked up cantaloupes and tomatoes to put with their part load of apples, and arranged to came back Thursday for another mixed load.

What has this to do with the interest of the Valley as a whole. Nothing except that on a trip from Michigan to Richmond two years ago they stopped at Auburn for supper and saw the Leighty Orchard exhibit and remembered it. The result will be several hundred dollars brought into the Valley from the outside and all from one exhibit at the fair.

You may say this is a special case largely accident. Maybe it is but if we in the Valley make such accidents possible why quibble about what to call it. One trouble with advertising in general is that the direct tangible results are hard to trace, but it pays.

A few of the producers of specialties in the Valley have been asked to meet at the town hall, St. Joe on next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, D. S. T., to make arrangements for a Valley section of the Street Parade at the Auburn Fall Fair.

Post card invitations have been sent out but if you are interested and did not get a card it was an oversight and you are expected to come.

This meeting is not confined to those whose postoffice address is St. Joe but for the interest of all who produce specialties in the St. Joe River Valley for the general market. There was a number of people also who distribute what others produce and they also are interested in telling the public what they are doing and should attend.

WITTENBERG BROTHERHOOD CHANGE MEETING PLACE

Due to the fact that the Spencerville Lutheran Church is redecorating the interior of the church auditorium it was found necessary to change the meeting place of the Wittenberg Brotherhood to the U. B. Church at Newville, Sept. 12. Prof. Price, of Butler, will speak.

WYATT REUNION

The annual reunion of the Wyatt relatives, was held August 26th at Eckhart Park, Auburn Ind., at which time more than 100 were present. A bountiful dinner was served and all greatly enjoyed the social hour.

At this meeting the first steps were taken, looking toward the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the settlement of the Wyatt family in DeKalb county, which will occur in 1937. By special request, the meeting will be held at the Apple Orchard home of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Leighty at St. Joe, Ind. The red rose was adopted as a family flower. Dr. A. R. Wyatt was re-elected president and Mrs. Celesta Warner, secretary-treasurer.

Cabinet Heaters bargain at $8. 35t1. Curie Hardware.

Harry Randall, of Chicago came Saturday to help his mother, Mrs. Wm. Randall, celebrate her birthday. He remained until Tuesday.

Mrs. Jennie Ashbaugh and grandson, Earl, of Mantpelier, Ind., wisited last week with her sister, Mrs. Lula Woodcox, and family.

A number of our citizens attended the big parades at Fort Wayne Monday. Several remained for the circus in the afternoon and evening.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Woodcox entertained relatives and friends from Toledo, Defiance, Adrian, Grand Rapids, Angola and Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and sons, Ronald and Melvin and daughter, Gladys, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, visited over the week end and Labor Day with Grady Woodcox and family.

The postoffice made its move to the I. O. O. F. building and everything is being fixed up nicely, and postmaster Storer is getting accustomed to the smaller quarters, and will soon be able to find things.

Bob Curie, of Waterloo, was struck by an automobile while riding his bicycle Wednesday afternoon. He suffered a scalp wound that required several stitches and was quite bruised up but is improving nicely.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bishop and daughter were Roy Warstler and family. Afternoon guests were Glen Warstler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Orange Herrick and Fred Ulm and family.

Two good home-made fly repellants are made as follows: 2 quarts of fish oil mixed with 1 quart of oil of tar, to which is added three-fifths ounce of crude carbolic acid; or 1 pint oil of tar added to 1 gallon of old crankcase oil.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Armstrong accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bennett, of Auburn, on a three days trip to Indian River, Mich., and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Armstrong, who have been spending the past two weeks at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Ridgway and daughter, Jean, were guests from last Wednesday until Sunday at Hobart with the former's sisters, Mrs. Olive Frye and Mrs. Eva Chandler, and husband. They visited the World's Fair also while away.

A republican lawn party will be held at the home of ye editor and wife Friday evening, with a pot luck supper at 6 o'clock, to which republicans and their wives are invited. David Hogg, of Fort Wayne will be present and address the gathering. The county candidates will be present. County chairman, H. C. Springer will have charge of the speakers program. Plan to come. Bring sandwiches and one dish and your own table service. Coffee furnished.

A HARD ONE TO ANSWER

The editor of the Wilder, Idaho, Herald says: "The point that is worrying ye editor is why our government should want to enter into any more business ventures at the expense of the taxpayers.

"We believe that if our lawmakers would exert more effort in reducing taxes and less in meddling with legitimate business, we would all profit thereby."

THE DEKALB COUNTY ADULT WORKERS PLAN AN ADULT RALLY

Plans have been completed for the on-coming County Adult Rally to be held in Auburn Friday, September 28th, afternoon and evening, sessions at the St. Mark's Lutheran Church. Dr. A. H. Packus of Indianapolis will be the speaker.

In the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock D. S. T., there will be held a workers conference, open to all, but especially the adult leaders are urged to attend. They are also urged to bring their adult problems to be discussed as we know of no one better qualified than Dr. Backus to help you.

DR. A. H. BACKUS

In the evening the devotions will be led by Rev. George L. McKinley, of Garrett. We will also have with us a male quartet, DeKalb County's best, don't fail to hear their inspiring messages in song.

Last but not least the speaker of the evening, Dr. A. H. Backus and his address, "Adult Education."

Your time will be well spent, so come and be with us in these services. We again urge you to bring your friends and let's make this the largest Adult Rally ever in DeKalb County. We are expecting you.

Arthur M. Friend,
County Adult Supt.

CELEBRATING SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

The 75th anniversary of the founding of the Minerva Club, of New Harmony, the first woman's club in Indiana, will be celebrated in that town on Sept. 20, 1934. The affair is sponsored by the India Federation of Clubs, which owns the Old Fountleroy Home, in which the club was organized.

On the evening of Sept. 19, a dinner is planned at the Tavern in New Harmony at which Prof. Ross Lockridge, of Indiana University will be the speaker. A boat ride on the Wabash will follow. The accommodations for the night may be secured in the town. A short program at the auditorium will follow, a sightseeing trip on the morning of the 20th. A pageant of the Old Fountleroy Home, entitled the "House of Dreams," now being written by Bess V. Ehrmann, of Rockport, Ind., will be given in the auditorium in the afternoon. Mrs. Ehrmann, who has had wide experience in pageantry, will direct this pageant herself and New Harmony people will take part in it. The celebration will close with a birthday tea party on the lovely grounds of the Old Fountleroy Home.

This celebration is attracting the attention of many men and women interested in Indiana's early history. Notable people have indicated their intention of attending. Among them is Mr. John Duss of the "Great House" of Ambridge, Pa. He is the only living Rappite.

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—
M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Jan. 3, 1885

Ben Hoyt will move to Kansas in the spring.

Don't forget to write it eighteen eighty-five.

Jud Gee's moustache is growing backwards.

Al Bair of Syracuse was in town last Monday.

Lem Bair, of Fort Wayne, was in town Thursday.

Frank Scholes was in St. Joe one day this week.

O. J. Powell, editor of the Garrett Herald, was in town Tuesday.

Ask Will Curie what was in the little box he got off of the Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Davis, of Fort Wayne, are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis, of tertained a number of their friends on New Year's Day.

The boys had a jolly time snowballing last Monday. Aaron Thomas seemed to get the worst of it.

A select party was held at Ben Leighty's on New Year's evening. Several persons from Garrett were present.

David Filley, living near Antwerp, O., spent several days in this place last week, visiting his big uncle Alex.

Last Thursday was the day when people swear off from swearing, chewing tobacco, smoking, washing their feet, &c.

Mrs. Cole who has been visiting with friends in this vicinity for the past few weeks, returned to her home in Kansas last Friday.

Burt Donaldson went back to Fremont last Monday. He says he came to see his mother, but we're rather inclined to think that some of our nice looking girls had something to do with it.

A representative of the Auburn Republican was around collecting money for that paper this week. What in the world does a newspaper man need money for any how? They havn't any more use for money than a preacher.

The most of our readers no doubt remember the fire that occurred over east of here two or three weeks ago, early in the evening, at which time the barn of Mr. Countryman was burned. On that evening W. H. Simanton and Samuel Hineman, living at Orangeville, in their anxiety to get to the fire, did not want to take the time and trouble to go round by the bridge, so they both got a straddle of a horse and forded the river. Supposing the men would have fell off, what would have become of the poor horse?

Everything has its own peculiar usefulness, but we were at a loss to know, until Christmas evening, what use could be made of these high crown hats that the ladies wear. Our mind was set at rest on that evening, by the discovery that the ladies used the second story of them for a sort of closet or cloak-room. They take their cloak or shawl, their mittens, a vail, a pair of over-shoes and such other articles as they may want to take off, put them in the top of their hats and put their hats back on their heads, and then when the services are over they know right where to find them. Oh, its real handy.

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Leighty Orchard

On account of the hot dry weather you probably did not can as much small fruit as you wanted.

You will not miss the small fruit if you put up plenty of sauce from WEALTHY APPLES. They are best for canning, and are now selling.

Pure cider vinegar two years old. New Honey.

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

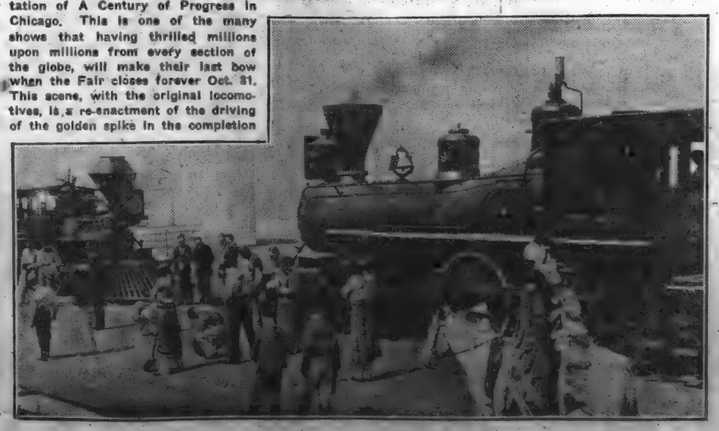
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

Historic Pageant Approaches Close at World's Fair

Only a few more performances remain for these one-time giants of the steel rails in their roles in "Wings of a Century," famed pageant of transportation of A Century of Progress in Chicago. This is one of the many shows that having thrilled millions upon millions from every section of the globe, will make their last bow when the Fair closes forever Oct. 31. This scene, with the original locomotives, is a re-enactment of the driving of the golden spike in the completion of the Union Pacific railroad, the first spanning of the American continent by steel rails. The Fair will remain intact until closing date.



MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 360

BELL'S PART IN HUMAN HISTORY

In All Ages Has Had Power to Stir the Heart.

It is strange to think of the large part bells have played, and still play, in life. Birth, death, peace, war, marriage, victory—all are announced by the voice of the bell, even in these days of telephones and wireless. From ancient times man has used a bell to express the sentiments of his own soul, and its voice still has the power to stir the heart.

Church bells were probably introduced into the Christian church about 400 A. D. by Paulinus, bishop of Nola. But bells were certainly used before that time, because the Romans announced death by ringing them, and they have been familiar to the Chinese and Hindoos for countless ages.

Camel bells and horse bells were probably first used to scare away evil spirits who might attack the animals to spite their masters. The old Passing Bell was rung for the dying, to scare away demons who were waiting to pounce upon the soul when it left the body, and the same bell was sounded to disperse storms and pestilence and to quench fire. Even in 1852 the bishop of Malta ordered the church bells to ring an hour to lay a violent storm at sea.

Small gold and silver bells were presented to the winners of horse races up to the time of Charles II. Many English taverns were called "The Bell" in allusion to this custom, for the bell was, in other words, the prize. And the prize bell, given to the horse, must have been a relic of the belief that it would protect the animal.

Bells have been almost universally used to proclaim war as well as victory. When the tocsin was rung in France in 1914 it stirred the souls of the people as no telegram stuck in a postoffice window ever could do. There were thousands of people who never had heard the alarming voice of the war bell, but they recognized it immediately and required no further call. The sound of the tocsin had heardly faded away before a stream of men, horses and carts set out from the distant farms for the nearest village, bringing with them what they could in response to that call.

No sound is more terrible than the alarming, warning cry of the tocsin, and those who have once heard it can only hope devoutly never to hear it again.

Old Habit

Magistrate—What on earth has that plumber returned to the dock for?

Clerk—He's forgotten his sentence, sir!

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Right and Gone

"Doris thinks no man is good enough for her—she may be right."

"Uh—and she may be left."

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

Quick, Safe Relief For Eyes Irritated By Exposure To Sun, Wind and Dust

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dpt. W, Chicago, for Free Book

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Removes Dandruff—Stops Hair Falling. Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. 60c and $1.00 at Druggists.

Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N. Y.

PHOTOSTAMPS $5 beautiful photos made from your picture or part of picture 10c postpaid. JOHN EBERLE, 2306 N. 1MB, Milwaukee, Wis.

RADIO TREASURE FINDER! Tricks exposed by original builder and what to do about them. Send TEN CENTS SILVER. C. O. MAHER - - - - - Baton Rouge, La.

SORES AND LEGS—Fly Speedily Write for Free 100 Page Book Dr. Bord Williams, Hudson, Wisc.

TRUE DETECTIVE STORY

by Vance Wynn © Public Ledger

The Great Express Company Robbery

IT WAS in the early eighties that one of the cleverest crooks in the country stood outside of the wired enclosure of an Adams express office and looked longingly at a package of banknotes on a shelf beyond his reach.

It was near the noon hour and most of the clerks were preparing to go out for lunch.

The crook noticed that some of them wore linen dusters and that when they left the enclosure they doffed these office coats and tossed them to one side.

It did not take this gentleman long to come to his determination.

The door leading to the enclosure was partly opened.

He slipped inside and, tossing his hat into a corner, hastily put on an ink-smeared linen duster that had been discarded.

He stuck a pen behind his ear and in that guise readily resembled one of the regular clerks.

He was in the enclosure less than a minute, and when he departed he carried with him a package of bonds which was estimated to be worth $10,000.

A few days after this it was reported that a man entered one of the oldest and wealthiest banks in the city of Philadelphia, and by means of a sharpened umbrella pulled out a package of money from behind one of the grilled windows and made his escape with it.

The sum was placed at $1,000, but that was the least part of it.

The audacity of the theft was what caused consternation in the financial district.

If such things were possible, then no institution would be safe.

These two cases were much talked about, and they were especially interesting to Francis Kelly, the famous bank detective who patroled the financial district in Philadelphia and whose beat included the custom house, the sub-treasury and the famous banking house of Drexel & Co., the Philadelphia branch of Drexel, Morgan & Co.

Kelly was not only a keen student of human nature, but he knew the ways of the get-rich-quick members of the criminal fraternity.

He discussed the matter with one of his associates.

"I'd be willing to stake my reputation on the fact that both of these jobs were done by Chauncey Johnson," he said. "I know his methods like a book and I don't know another man in the United States who could have pulled them off as neatly as Johnson."

Kelly had been in the United States secret service and had also been chief of detectives in Philadelphia, but at that time was in the employ of the houses in the financial district.

He acted, as he often said, as a "preventive."

The bank crooks knew that he was on the job there, and as a consequence they gave that section a pretty wide berth.

But the moth will hover around the flame, and one morning Kelly noticed a rather striking-looking man in the neighborhood of the Drexel bank.

The detective watched him for some moments, and presently the man entered the portals of the bank. Kelly walked up to him and touched him on the shoulder.

"Good-morning, Chauncey," he said familiarly, "what are you doing here?"

"I don't know you," was the gruff reply, "and that's not my name."

"Why," was the cheerful reply, "everybody knows Chauncey Johnson, and I'm somebody."

It was impossible to brazen it out any longer, and the famous bank robber admitted his identity.

He insisted, however, that he had no evil intentions on this particular bank and had walked in for the purpose of looking at the large oil painting of the founder of the house.

The explanation was accepted, but the man was taken into custody and lodged in the city hall.

Later he was escorted to New York, where it was said that he was wanted for the Adams Express company robbery.

The moral is that it is dangerous to take too many chances—even if you are at the head of your profession.

WNU Service.

Science Witnesses Evolution

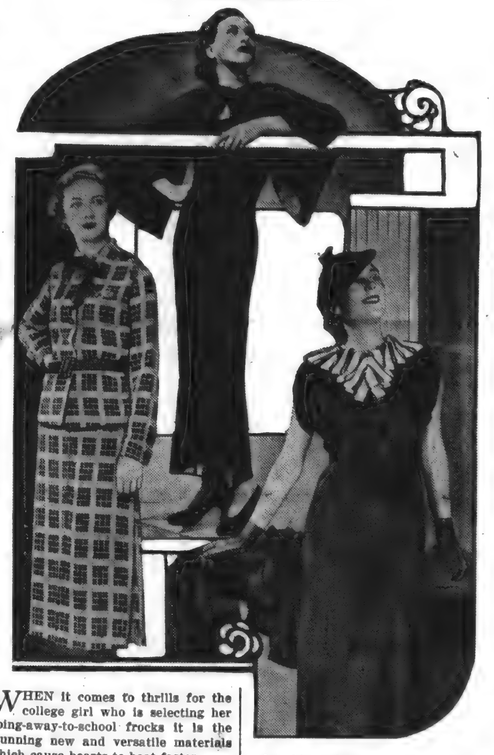
Scientists are now permitted to see evolution in actual progress because of the discovery of red quail on a southern game preserve. This brick red specimen of the ordinary bobwhite is exactly like the rest of the family except as to color. This subspecies breeds true to color even when mated with the usual brown and white birds. It is the first time that natural evolution has ever been witnessed and consequently scientists are keeping a close watch on the birds.—Pathfinder Magazine.

New Sleeping Luxury

Ceiba fiber, the product of a tropical tree already widely used for insulating purposes, now bids fair to replace wool and down in the manufacture of bed quilts and comforters. Tests have proven it to be 22 per cent more efficient than wool for this purpose and as light in weight as the softest down. In addition this material is said to be naturally moth-proof and resistant to odors and does not have a tendency to "ball up" in the cleaning process as do ordinary comfortable fillers.

Frocks for College-Going Girls

By CHERIE NICHOLAS



WHEN it comes to thrills for the college girl who is selecting her going-away-to-school frocks it is the stunning new and versatile materials which cause hearts to beat faster.

To be sure there is everything imaginable to be had in the way of super-hue buttons, and other clever gadgets together with most beguiling neck wear fantasies to help out when occasion demands, but in the main it's the garment which speaks in terms of handsome material along lines of studied simplicity which wins the highest number of credits.

There is that about the woolens and silks and velvets and synthetic weaves as shown this season which is so intrinsically decorative and satisfying to the eye, little or no frills or furbelows seem to be required to accent the costumes they fashion. Which, no doubt, is the reason why advance fashions indicate that the college girl's wardrobe will, for the most part, be styled on the same smartly simple tailored lines favored by chic business women.

The model to the left in the picture is a dress of this type. The plaid chulla crepe which fashions it is in itself so attractive and self-sufficient, fussy dressmaker detail would detract from its "classy" simplicity. For service, for looks and for real joy in the wearing a crepe of this sort is ideal, and listen to this, ye coeds who needs must watch your budget with an eagle eye, these all-rayon crepe prints are easily washable and iron out smooth and lovely as if by magic—the problem of going back and forth to be dry cleaned is entirely done away with. This plaid (brown, egg-shell and rust is its color scheme) two-piece is cut on the now-so-voguish shirtmaker lines with a neat grosgrain belt, bow tie and grosgrain-covered buttons (button links on the double cuffs) to set it off.

Speaking of unusual materials, the dress centered in the group, so sophisticated in its simplicity, is made of, guess what!—sports tulle. This fabric is so perfectly new it's the "last word." The claim to fame of this novel and very good-looking sports-tulle is based on the delightsome sheerness of its weave which together with the fact that it lends itself perfectly to simple lines and classic tailoring assures its prestige as a medium admirably adapted to wear at teas and bridge parties and other smart daytime gatherings. In this model, so simple yet so distinctive in its cut, Alix, who created it of sports-tulle in a black and white mixed effect, has certainly contrived to give the college girl or any young woman of fashion for that matter, the ideal all year-round afternoon dress.

A frock of satin and a frock of velvet should by all means be included in an up-and-going-places college girl's wardrobe. The new daytime satins are as practical as they are stunning in appearance, and so wonderfully slenderizing, fashioned as many of them are with sleek-fitting skirts slit at the hemline in order to give ease of movement. The model pictured to the right in the group is styled along girlish lines and with its jacket becomes a many-purpose costume which can be tuned at will to street or indoor afternoon wear. The treatment of the neckline is interesting, the collar being formed of loops of white velvet ribbon edged with black.

In regard to velvet the big news is smart trimming suits with narrow skirts and neat-fitting jackets, the sort college girls simply adore.

© Western Newspaper Union.

HIGH-STYLE ITEMS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Women who delight in veils can wear them to their heart's content, for they are decidedly in the fashion picture. Worn with just the right air, veils can be coquettish and glamorous and the newer veils have that way about them. The pointed contour of the veil pictured is a recent accent which will especially delight the young girl who takes delight in an air of sophistication. Lace slippers for evening match the lace frock. Padova, who created this exquisite type of footwear, has combined black lace and black satin in this model, with white satin under the lace to bring out the delicate patterning. A great vogue is in promise for this type of luxury footwear, this coming fall and winter.

FALL BRIDAL GOWN HAS HEAVY TRAIN

The trains on the new fall wedding gowns mean a heavy day's work for some bridal attendants. Nine or ten feet of shimmering satin will slither down the aisle behind the bride.

To dress the bride will be no small task, too, if she has chosen Germaine Monteil's favorite wedding robe.

This designer has a penchant for trains, surpassed only by her love for frills and bows. This fall she gives women a chance to wear stiff white jabots that protrude four inches from severe black frocks. And "fish-tail" trains. She still likes them, although many designers have chopped them off. A pert little train for evening and a deep skirt slash in front.

Two-Piece Frock Is Due for Popularity This Fall

Many of the daytime frocks beginning to appear just now contain more than a hint of the sartorial picture for the autumn.

Two-piece tunic frocks appear at the smartest places, many of them in silk, making it easy to visualize this fashion in woolens.

A typical advanced style frock is a two-piece tunic town model in beige silk.

The line is fairly severe but is softened by an enormous ruffled jabot cut from the dress fabric and pulled through a ring at the side of the neckline for fastening.

Long Sashes, Wide Belts

Wide belts are used on the new fall sports clothes. And long, flowing sashes, tied in front, are shown on street and afternoon dresses.

Tortoise Shell Clips

Tortoise shell or crystal hemispheres rimmed and centered with gold make smart clips designed for winter frocks.

Fat and Forty

By ELIZABETH ALDEN

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

DONNIE hadn't been himself for days. He'd sit back of the stove and whittle and let the boys wisecrack all around him without ever rising to the bait.

Donnie's an especial favorite of mine—he's so darned good-lookin'—and the first time he come in when I was alone I asked him right out what the matter was.

"How would you feel, Mis' Harris, if the girl you was practically engaged to got crazy about a married man?"

"I s'pose you mean Idella," I said. "But who's the man?"

"Joe Lawrence."

"Heavenly day! Is that old bumblebee still buzzin' around? Why, he was one of life's dangers when I was eighteen. He must be—"

"Sure, he's old enough to be Idella's father. But he's lived in Boston all these years and he's smooth. He's got all the girls running around in circles, but Della's the one he's after. Just happens to be driving by and brings her home, and then they talk and talk. And they dance together a lot—"

"Well, you aren't going to set still and let him get away with it, are you?"

"But, Mis' Marris, what can I do?"

I considered while I put up Old Man Wilson's order. "If you could make him look ridiculous—"

"Fat chance with that big sports model and all those snappy clothes!"

"Or you could go to his wife, but that's kind of mean. Let me see. You tried paying attention to some other girl?"

"I don't want any other girl."

"Try it anyway," I advised him. "You'd be surprised how often the old gag works."

A few days later Donnie come in and hung around till we was alone.

"How're things coming?" I asked, seeing he wanted an opening.

"Not so hot. She's meeting him up by the Point. I happened to be coming home through the wods the other night—"lines stood out along his jaw —"and I saw him kiss her."

"Well, one kiss from a married man won't ruin her life, but many of those meetings will go a good ways towards ruinin' her reputation."

"I'd like to choke him!"

"Yes.. And spank her."

Amos Benson come in just then for some nails, and I didn't get a chance to ask Donnie if he'd dated up any other girl. But I could see this latest development had him set so high he wasn't capable of much finessing. So I decided to take a hand myself in this little game.

I got out the good old law of averages and figured that since Idella waited in the store for the night mail five days out of six, and Joe almost always went by from the mill while she was there, it was fairly apt to so happen on any given date.

Then I wrote a letter to Milly Barlow, an old crony of mine who lives in Wauhoxit. Milly's still slim and wears smart clothes, and the fact that she's a Vance Falls girl who's made good as a radio singer puts her ace-high with the young crowd.

Wednesday afternon Idella and Annie White sat on cracker boxes, giggling as usual, when Milly's car drove up. She come along in and we stood gossiping till the whistle blew and the weavers began stragglin' by.

Milly leaned to get a better view of one figure. "My heavens, is that Joe Lawrence? Why, Maud, he's got a paunch!"

"'Fat and forty,'" I quoted, "only he's a good ripe forty, wouldn't you say?"

"Oh, he was years older than we were! Well, well," Milly couldn't seem to get over it, "Joe Lawrence fat. Perhaps that's recompense for all the girls he made fools of. Wouldn't Hattie Allen love to see him now?"

"Poor Hattie—he did that just to break up her affair with Chet, didn't he? And she never did get another beau. But Joe couldn't resist turning the head of any silly girl he ran across, with that charm that didn't mean a thing."

Milly laughed. "The world's boy friend. But I should say there wasn't much chance of his charming a nigger doll now."

Idella had taken it all in, though she pretended to be deep in gabble with Annie. Her face was plenty red, and the different emotions on it would have given Hepburn lessons.

And then fate co-operated and I witnessed a little scene I hadn't expected. I was on my way home when I spied a couple on the fence under the courtin' willows. A couple that I should have taken for one person if it hadn't been for the voices.

"—flattered me," protested one voice, "I didn't really care anything about him. Why, Donnie, he's middle-aged and fat!"

"Okay," replied the other voice, "we'll let it pass. But from now on—"

I didn't see Donnie for several days, then one night he was back in his old place, swapping wisecracks with Bill and Charlie.

"Women," I heard him declare, "are a lot like bees. Apt to swarm and sting and make it hot for a fellow; but, boy, will they produce honey if you know how to handle 'em!"

Operation of 2,000 Years Ago

A skull on exhibition in the London museum contains evidence of an operation performed 2,000 years ago. In the center of the skull appears a neat round hole, drilled, according to the experts, to let out the evil one inside the patient, who was probably suffering from epilepsy.

Housewife's Idea Box

Selection of Shortening

Some care must be used in selecting the proper shortening for frying purposes. To fry properly, the shortening must be raised to a high temperature. Some fats smoke before they reach this temperature. These fats are not good. As soon as fat smokes it begins to change chemically and quickly becomes rancid.

THE HOUSEWIFE.

© Public Ledger, Inc.—WNU Service.

Mayan Carved Altars Masterpieces of Art

Two great carved altars, masterpieces of prehistoric American art, have been discovered at the ruins of Quirigua, Guatemala, by Earl H. Morris, archeologist of the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

The stone altars date back to a very early period of Mayan history. On each altar block an unknown Indian Phidias sculptured the large form of a human being in distorted posture, elaborately clad and wearing a large and complicated headdress with face mask. The remaining surface of the slab was used to record a long and delicately wrought inscription in Mayan hieroglyphs, with serpent motifs around the margin. Both altars are very large, one being 11 feet by 12½ and almost two feet thick.

The backwash of the Montagua river, nearby, had deposited thick mud over the lower portions of the city ruins, covering the altars and preserving them from centuries of weathering—Science Service of the New York World-Telegram.

Court of Last Resort

Every woman is a judge and jury unto her own husband.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM NEURITIS?

American and European Scientists Agree That Mineral Water Is Beneficial

TRY THIS NATURAL WAY

People spend hundreds of millions of dollars every year going to the great mineral water health resorts of Europe and America.

Many of these people have to travel thousands of miles. Many of them were suffering untold pain from "rheumatic" aches, from arthritis, from neuritis, from gout. Others suffered from certain stomach ailments or excess acid or sluggishness or a general rundown condition.

The scientific and medical records of Europe and America show that a very large percentage of these people gained blessed relief and help by these natural mineral water treatments.

Today, however, you do not have to travel long distances to partake of the healthful qualities of fine natural mineral water. You do not even have to pay the excessive cost of having it shipped to you in quart or gallon containers. For Crazy Water Crystals bring to your own home the precious minerals of one of the world's fine mineral waters in crystal form at a great saving in expense.

To Crazy Water Crystals absolutely nothing is added. All you do is add Crazy Water Crystals to your drinking water and you have a great mineral water which has benefited millions.

If you, or any of your friends, suffer from "rheumatic" aches or pains we suggest you investigate Crazy Water Crystals at once. Just ask any of the millions of people who have given them a full and fair trial and you will realize how beneficial they have been to so many sufferers.

The standard size box costs only $1.50 and makes enough mineral water for several weeks treatment. Crazy Water Co., Mineral Wells, Texas.

CRAZY Water Crystals

are for sale by dealers displaying the red and green Crazy Water Crystals sign. Get a box today.

. For .

Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Red, Rough Hands

Cuticura Ointment

Is soothing and healing. A box should be at hand in every household.

Price 25c and 50c.

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

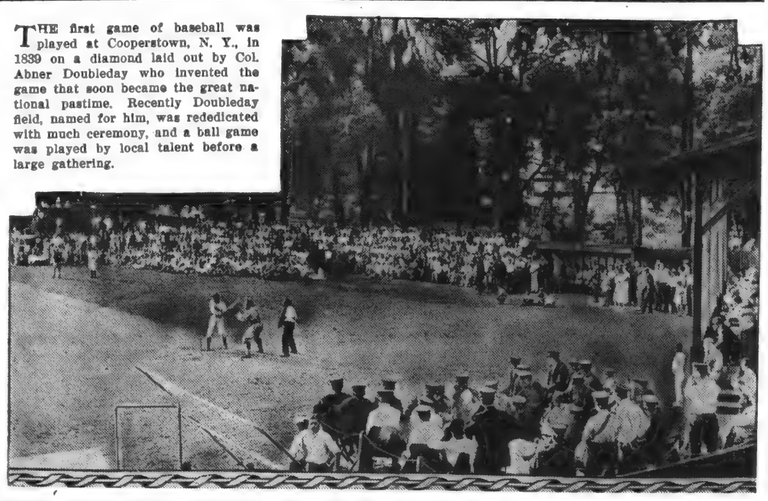
SEPTEMBER

L 919

0361

Baseball Is Revived at Its Birthplace

THE first game of baseball was played at Cooperstown, N. Y., in 1839 on a diamond laid out by Col. Abner Doubleday who invented the game that soon became the great national pastime. Recently Doubleday field, named for him, was rededicated with much ceremony, and a ball game was played by local talent before a large gathering.



Bedtime Story for Children

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

HANDSOME, HAPPY CHICOREE

"DID you ever see a happier fellow than my cousin, Chicoree?" demanded Linnet the Purple Finch of Peter Rabbit, as they watched Chicoree coming toward them. "I'll venture to say that he has been having such a good time that he hasn't even thought of building a nest, and here half the people in the Old Orchard have grown families. I've got a nest and eggs myself, but that madcap is just roaming about having a good time. Isn't that so, Chicoree?"

"Isn't what so?" demanded Chicoree, perching very near to where Linnet was sitting.

"Isn't it true that you haven't even begun thinking about a nest?" demanded Linnet.

"Quite true, but what of it?" said Chicoree. "There's time enough to think about nest-building and household cares later. Meanwhile Mrs. Goldfinch and I are making the most of this beautiful season to roam about and have a good time. For one thing, we like thistledown to line our nests,

"Quite True, but What of It?" Said Chicoree.

and there isn't any thistledown yet. Then there is no sense in raising a family until there is plenty of the right kind of food, and you know we Goldfinches live mostly on seed. Just as soon as the children are big enough to hunt their own food they need seeds, so there is no sense in trying to raise a family until they can find plenty of seeds when needed. How do you like my summer suit, Peter?"

"It's beautiful," cried Peter. "That black cap certainly is very smart and becoming."

Chicoree cocked his head on one side the better to show off that black cap. The rest of his head and his whole body were bright yellow. His wings were black with two white bars on each. His tail also was black with some white on it. In size he was a trifle smaller than Linnet and altogether one of the smartest dressed of all the little people who wear feathers. It was a joy just to look at him. If Peter had known anything about canaries, which of coure he didn't, because canaries are always kept in cages, he would have understood how Chicoree is often called the Wild Canary.

"I suppose," said Peter, "it sounds foolish of me to ask if you are a member of the same family as Linnet."

"Very foolish, Peter, very foolish," laughed Chicoree. "We belong to the same family, and a mighty fine family it is. Now I must go over to the Old Pasture to see how the thistles are coming on."

Away he flew, calling "Chic-o-ree, per-chic-o-ree, chic-o-ree!" As he flew he rose and fell in the air in much the same way Yellow-Wing the Flicker does.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

UNUSUAL DISHES

WE ALL like to serve occasionally something a bit different and out of the ordinary, but for the daily diet the common foods simply served we enjoy the best.

Golden Coconut Shortcake.

Allow two slices of sponge cake for each serving. Prepare orange sauce by using one cupful of orange juice thickened with corn starch, adding a bit of sugar and butter. Cover each slice of the cake with the sauce in sandwich fashion, cover with thinly sliced oranges and top with freshly grated and sweetened coconut.

Stuffed Tomato Salad.

Scoop out the centers of six ripe even sized tomatoes. Chop the centers and add one cupful of cooked rice, one-half cupful of diced celery, four tablespoonfuls of cheese grated, one hard cooked egg, two tablespoonfuls of pimiento and one small onion, all minced; season with salt, a little lemon juice and any other desired seasoning. Fill the tomato cups and chill. Serve on lettuce with salad dressing.

Pot of Gold Dessert.

Mix one-half cupful of sugar with one-fourth cupful of cornstarch, add a bit of salt and a cupful of rich milk, one cupful of orange juice and when cooked until smooth and thick in a double boiler add two tablespoonfuls of butter and the well beaten yolks of two eggs. Let cook until smooth. Serve molded in individual molds, with whipped cream.

Maple Junket.

Dissolve one junket tablet in a tablespoonful of cold water, add to a pint of lukewarm milk, a little almond flavoring and a half cupful of maple sirup. Serve with the top of the sherbet glasses sprinkled with grated maple sugar or sprinkled with finely shredded almonds.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Do YOU Know—

That pie, according to recent report, is the supreme national dessert of America—with the apple predominant. It is estimated that the American people consume 1,500,000 pies a day.

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I met a friend of mine today I haven't seen in years. He told me his father died on the "scaffold." He didn't seem ashamed to tell me about it, that's what got my goat. Can you account for a fellow who will go around and say a thing like that about his father, without blushing?

Sincerely,
I. D. CLAIRE.

Answer: Because your friend told you his father died on the "scaffold" it doesn't necessarily mean he was hanged for murder. He might have been a bricklayer and, if so, probably fell.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am secretary of a little social club. We needed some money, so we decided to raffle off a piano. We had 2,000 tickets printed to sell at a dollar apiece. A day after they were all sold, our club rooms caught fire and the piano was burned to ashes. We are in a quandary what to do. What can you suggest?

Sincerely,
C. SHARP.

Answer: Very simple. Hold the raffle just as you had intended and instead of finding out who won the piano, you'll find out who lost the piano.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Do you believe in the old saying: "It's the deeds that count, not words"?

Yours truly,
ROSIE CHEEKS.

Answer: Not when I'm sending a telegram.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have not been well and don't feel strong enough to work. In fact, I haven't worked a day in the past six months. Can you advise me what to do that will make it possible for me to work?

Sincerely,
M. PLOYMENT.

Answer: Ginger ale is very good for your strength, but you must take it right away. Go to any drug store and take six bottles of ginger ale, run out of the place without paying for them and let a policeman catch you. When the policeman tells the Judge that you took six bottles of ginger ale without paying for them, I guarantee that you will work hard, very hard, for the next six months.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

An uncle of mine told me his daughter, who is seven years of age, has a pet "clam" with which she plays. He even tried to make me believe that the "clam" would get in bed at night and cuddle up along side of his daughter's neck and sleep. It sounds silly to me. Do you believe it?

Sincerely,
C. FOOD.

Answer: Of course, I believe it. In the first place the girl is seven years of age. That means she is quite small, being small she must have a tiny neck. The reason the clam cuddles by her neck is very plain. It probably is a "Little Neck Clam."

© by the Associated Newspapers WNU Service.

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says picking out her speed boat for next season was easy in comparison with the ordeal in store—picking out her first spring hat.

WNU Service.

Sometimes I Wake—

By ANNE CAMPBELL

SOMETIMES I wake and tremble in the dark,
Thinking of you, across the miles of night.
Your lamp of life burns with a feeble spark.
I do not know when on a winged flight
You will be through with living's sweet delight.

But this I know: when in the distant blue,
Your soul shines out, a new and lovely star,
On such a night as this my thoughts of you
Will come and linger near you where you are.
The light of your pure spirit will reach far,

Just as it finds me now, to lay a hand
Upon my consciousness with you apart;
Speaking of love while midnight angels stand—
Dark sentinels who, with their woeful art,
Lay bands of black foreboding on my heart.

Copyright.—WNU Service.

For Early Fall

With a slight cowl at the throat, six gold buttons and a hammered gold belt, this distinctive street frock of celanese jersey will be ideal for the first cool days of autumn.

Perfume Quiets Nerves

In Asia, perfume is widely used to quiet the nerves and aid digestion. Many Oriental peoples rest after each meal, inhaling their favorite scent, in the belief that the mental state thus created induces a relaxation and contentment beneficial to assimilation.—Collier's Weekly.

Kidnaped Pup Back, Ransom Paid

MRS. FRANCES RUDGINSKY of Winthrop, Mass., shown with her pet terrier, "Kid Boots Ace," with whom she was reunited after she had paid ransom money to Chicago crooks who kidnaped the dog last February. Maybe "Kid Boots Ace" wasn't glad to be home again, too!

Scraps of Humor

BELIEVE IT, OR NOT

A dear old lady was shocked at the lurid language of two electricians who were working in her house, and complained to the company. In due course the two men were sent for and asked for an explanation.

"Well, sir," said one, "it was like this. I was up the ladder and I let the hot lead fall on Bill. It went down his neck. And Bill, he said to me, 'You really will have to be more careful, Jack.'"

Dining to Discord

"Society," said Miss Cayenne, "reminds me of a minstrel show."

"Where they say 'Gentlemen, be seated'?"

"Yes. Only they say, 'Ladies, be seated.' And then the 'music' starts!"

Contract Casualty

Two men were getting ready for a dip in a swimming pool.

"Your shins are in pretty bad shape," remarked one. "Hockey player?"

"Oh, no," was the reply. "I just led back my wife's weak suit."

Immune to 'Em Now

"Your daughter is very modern, isn't she?" remarked the visitor.

"Yes," sighed the mother; "I have reached the point now where I doubt if I could even be shocked by a live wire, no matter what the voltage was."

Doubtful

Film Star (newly married)—And is this your home?

Bridegroom—It is, precious.

"Say, it looks mightily familiar. Are you sure I haven't married you before?"—London Tit-Bits.

Another Side

"That fellow is highly educated. He must be smart."

"Oh, he may be," responded the man in the street. "But he worries over things that I never heard of."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

NO HURRY

"I could teach you to swim in three lessons."

"But I don't want to learn that fast. We're going to be here for a couple of months."

Hopeless Case

Blinks—I hear Jim's gone plumb goofey.

Jinks—Yes, the poor chap's mind has become as unbalanced as the national budget.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Maybe So

Fred—Mother, was there hair-oil in this old bottle?

Mother—Why no. That was glue.

Fred—Maybe that's why I can't get my hat off.

Tears Not in Order

"My husband has run off with another women. Oh, I just c-can't control myself!"

"You mustn't try, dearie. You'll feel better after a good laugh."

Sarcastic

"I try to be always in accord with nature."

"So I observe. When nature doffs her garb in the fall, you begin to put more on."—Boston Transcript.

Sonny's Error

Plumber—I've come to fix the old tub in the kitchen.

Son—Mamma, here's the doctor to see the cook.

For Morning or Afternoon Wear

Pattern 1795

Here's the latest in feminine chic for morning or afternoon wear. Ruffles to accent the smart line of the yoke are irresistibly flattering, and the sleeves have puffed-up charm. A white yoke to top a sprightly silk or cotton print would be ever so lovely. The cost of pattern and fabric is so nominal that you could make this frock without imposing on your budget. A perfect model, too, for the beginner because of its utter simplicity—the front and back are without waistline seams and the yoke is just no trouble at all to set in place. The sleeves may be omitted.

Pattern 1795 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3¼ yards 36-inch fabric and five-eighth yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York.

SCORE ONE FOR HUBBY

Young Wife (looking in the window of a jeweler's)—George I'd love that bracelet.

The Husband—I can't afford to buy it for you, dear.

"But if you could, you would, wouldn't you?"

"I'm afraid not."

"Why?"

"It isn't good enough, dear."

"Oh, you darling."

Third Ingredient

Prof. Albert Einstein gave recently what he considered the best formula for success in life. I should say the formula is a equals x plus y plus z, x being work and y being play."

"And what is z?" inquired the interviewer.

"That," he answered, "is keeping your mouth shut."

Just a Vacuum

Frosh (knocking at senior's door)—You told me to call you in time for your first class, but I didn't wake up myself. It's ten o'clock now, your class is over, and you can sleep as long as you want.

Just Practicing

"But I've been told that you have proposed to three other girls quite recently," said the maid.

"Oh, mere rehearsals in view of proposing to you, dear," said the man.

Just So

Uncle—My boy, you must never bite the hand that feeds you.

Boston Boy—Certainly not, uncle. It would be a hazardous undertaking. The hand is almost certain to be covered with deadly bacteria.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

J 362

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Cider making, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, all season. 35tf. Widney Orchards.

FOUND: Keys at News Office.

For Sale: 9 Breeding Ewes and Buck. J. H. Leighty. 35t1p.

For Sale: Apples, cider, vinegar. Prices reasonable. Widney Orchards. 35tf.

5 and 6 gallon Jars at 60c. 35t1. Curie Hardware.

Sprayed grapes, Concord, large, sweet, 60c bushel. Widney Orchards, St. Joe. 35tf.

All Stoves at Large Discount. 34t2. Curie Hardware.

AUBURN CIDER MILL

Open every day except Sunday. Will be ready to grind Cane any day now. Block north of Ice Plant. Graham & Hanson. 33t4p.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTRIX

State of Indiana,
DeKalb County, ss:

I, Carl Walter, Clerk of the Circuit Court, for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana, do hereby certify that Grace M. Houk has been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of Arrilla A. Houk, late of DeKalb County who died testate, and the said Grace M. Houk having qualified and given bond as such Executrix is duly authorized to take upon herself the execution of said will.

Witness my hand and seal of said Court, this 25th day of August, 1934.

CARL WALTER,
Clerk of DeKalb Circuit Court.
W. D. Stump, Atty. 34t3.

NEWVILLE

Harry Fuller and family were here Sunday from Garrett.

Dewey Miller was a business caller in Auburn, Monday.

Al Funk was here Sunday from Ney, Ohio, visiting friends.

The Missionary Society met Sept. 4 with Mrs. Flotilla Reas.

Dogs killed 6 sheep for Frederick Gengnagel, and 12 for A. J. Cole last Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and two children went to Winona Monday to attend the U. B. Conference.

School began Sept. 4 with Ross Abel teacher. He has 8 grades under his instruction—4 primary grades and 4 advanced grades.

About 50 members of the Mt. Pleasant Sunday School were entertained by Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore Friday evening at the U. B. parsonage.

The Wittenberg Brotherhood will hold their monthly meeting at the Newville U. B. Church. Supper will be served by the Ladies Aid Society.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Venus Rex, Mrs. Ina Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Saturday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, Clayton Smith, Miss Bonnell Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith and Mrs. Venus Rex spent Sunday at Walbridge Park, Toledo.

CONCORD

Walter Moore and Lester Baker, accompanied by their wives, have returned after two weeks trip in northern Michigan.

Frank Jones and wife, of Battle Creek, Mich., and Francis Hefley, of Findley, O., were guests in the Wm. Goldsmith home last week.

Allie Maurer and wife, of near Garrett, were guests Sunday in the Mrs. George Johnson home. Mrs. Johnson has been quite poorly for the past week.

The shower Wednesday evening of last week at Harlan, for the new pastor was attened by 103 from the four churches. A fine time was had. Ice cream was served.

A farewell was given Mrs. Chas. Widney and daughter, Ida, Tuesday night, at their home, as they left for Oberlin, La., on Wednesday, where Ida will teach school. Lunch was served and a good time enjoyed by all.

Coburn's Corners

The Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon with Elizabeth Hart.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for Sept. 2, was 86, collection $3.99.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Laub spent several days the past week at A Century of Progress.

Miss Winifred Waters, a teacher in the Indianapolis school, spent several days with Mrs. Alice Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Willard and family and Walter Coburn returned Tuesday to Marshalltown, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hart and Mrs. Alice Hart attended the Hart reunion held near Van Wert, Ohio, Sunday.

Mrs. Zetta Wortman and Mrs. Claudia Hafner, of Spencerville, spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Kell Hart.

Bess Klopfenstein returned to her home Monday to take up her school duties, she is the 6A teacher in the Miner School.

Mary Lou is the name of the little girl who arrived at the Merwin Place home Monday at eleven o'clock. Merwin has a big smile.

Mrs. Esther Lake and son and Miss Esther Lake, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Lake returned to their home at South Bend, Sunday.

Warren Coburn, of Ft. Wayne, was a Saturday night guest of Fred Hart's and attended the Milliman reunion on Sunday at Cheesetown community center.

Carol Shull presented her piano pupils in a recital at Coburn's Corners Sunday morning, Sept. 2. Everyone enjoyed the capable way in which Miss Carol handled the program.

Mrs. Minnie Ulm, Mrs. Helen Ulm, Mrs. Violet Moore, Mrs. Mattie Hart, Mrs. Hattie Walker, Bess Klopfenstein and Ruth Shull and children called the past week on Mrs. Garth Shull.

Mrs. Hattie Walker had a happy surprise for her birthday on Wednesday, when her brother and wife from Michigan, and her daughter and husband, Merwin Place, came to eat dinner and spend the day with her.

111 members of the Shull family held their reunion with Uncle Joe Shull on Sunday, Sept. 2. It was an ideal day and an ideal place for the gathering. The bounteous picnic dinner was followed by a short program and election of officers. It was voted to come to Uncle Joe's next year.

All rabbit breeders are asked to meet at the County Agent's office on evening of September 25, to make final plans, entries and arrangements for the fall fair. Eighty premiums will be awarded in this department this year.

SPENCERVILLE

Ed Spitler visited Philip Chaney on Sunday.

Gust Hafner opened up a restaurant in High's building last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Howey, of Connersville, Ind., spent several days here this week.

The Home Missionary Society will meet on Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. U. Bowser.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf, of South Bend, spent Sunday and Monday in the Wm. Reed home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vallieu, of Dayton, Ohio, were week end guests at the Gale Bowser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Markle, of near Harlan, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mrs. Zetta Wertman.

Miss Catherine Petty, of Fort Wayne, was a Sunday guest of Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe and family.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sept. 2 was 69, collection $3.00; Lutheran 65, collection $7.25

Margaret Chaney and Kenneth McNabb are spending several days at the Century of Progress in Chicago this week.

Miss Garnet Beams left Tuesday morning for Washington Courthouse, Ohio, where she will teach school this winter.

Wade Newcombe, of Indianapolis, spent several days last week here with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rectenwall and son, Warren, and Mrs. Frances Chapman left Saturday to spend a few days with realatives at Canton, Ohio.

Robert and Rose Ann Kimes returned to their home in Fort Wayne, after spending the past several weeks in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

Walter Kimes returned to his work at Dearborn, Mich., after spending the past week with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hollabaugh returned home Saturday after visiting the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones at Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Kimes, of Fort Wayne, were recent guests in the home of his brother, Harvey, and wife.

Dale McNabb, wife and children and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McNabb, of Detroit, Mich., returned home Monday after spending several days visiting relatives here.

The Young Ladies Social Club met on Friday evening with Mrs. Opal Beerbower, south of town. Prizes were won by Miss Gaylon Markle, Miss Doris Rhoades, Mrs. Cleo Reed and Mrs. LaVern Angel. The guests were Misses Garnet and Doris Beams.

Harvey Kimes and wife entertained at Sunday dinner their son, Walter, of Dearborn, Mich., and Miss Steiner, of near Leo, and Mr. and Mrs. Mordie Widdifield of near Auburn. Walter and Miss Steiner spent Sunday evening in the Verna Wilmot home in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reed left Saturday night for the World's Fair at Chicago. They spent Saturday at the home of Mr. Reed's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf at South Bend. They will also visit the C. L. Whitacre home at Highland, Ind., before returning home.

The True Blue class of the M. E. Sunday School met on Saturday afternoon at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Ethel Bowser. The guests were Miss April Dawn Bowser, of St. Joe, Miss Mildred Newcombe and Mrs. Cleo Reed. The young people enjoyed cookies, grapes and roasted marshmallows.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church was pleasantly entertained on Wednesday afternoon. Several readings were enjoyed, and a piano solo by Miss April Dawn Bowser, of St. Joe. A discussion was enjoyed on new fruits and vegetables and new ways to cook them. Miss Helena Fairfield was elected secretary upon the resignation of Mrs. Esther Gloyd. The ladies decided to hold guest day on September 26 at the church.

About twenty-five young people gathered at the Methodist Church on Sunday evening and with the help of Rev. Newcombe reorganized the Epworth League with officers as follows: President, Ethelyn Baker; first vice president, Kent McCrory; second vice president, Edith Culbertson; third vice president, Mary Newcombe; fourth vice president, Isabelle Chapman; secretary, Warren Rectenwall; treasurer, Forrest Brattian. The League will meet every two weeks.

SPENCERVILLE LUTHERAN CHURCH

The Fifteenth Sunday After Trinity, Sept. 9

Morning Worship at 10 o'clock, Standard Time. Sermon by the pastor on the subject "The Unsearchable Riches of Christ."

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

J. E. Sturgis, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was a Saturday caller on St. Joe friends.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Tod Kosht, left early Sunday morning for Chicago to visit A Century of Progress. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson, daughter, Rena and son, Wilmer, of Gladwin, Mich., spent last Tuesday with Mrs. Watson's sister, Mrs. Chas. Morr, and family.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Jesse Copp and two daughters, of New Haven, were over Sunday guests of Mrs. Alice Copp and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran. Miss Vernell will remain for a couple weeks longer.

Geraldine Thornton is home for a few days, but expects to return to Washington and enter business college. Charles will go to school here this year and live with Mrs. Inez Hadsell, where he spent the summer.

Sunday dinner guests of the Chas. Morr home were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Getts, daughters, Josephine and Mildred and son, Billy, of Hamilton, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Showalter, of Waterloo and Mr. Raymond Crick of Fart Wayne.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Mr. and Mrs J. C. Hull spent Monday in Fort Wayne and Auburn.

The state fair is being held this week and DeKalb county will be well represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Peterson, of Mishawake, Ind., were Sunday guests in the Roy Reidenbach home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hough and son of Columbus, Ohio, spent over Sunday and Labor Day with Mrs. Inez Hadsell.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Monroe and daughter at West Unity, Ohio.

If your apples didn't color up this fall try some pruning this winter. It will put blushes on their cheeks next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Stout, of Fort Wayne, spent a short time with their mother, Mrs. Alice Copp Monday evening.

Edith Steward and Clara Wiers spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peters in Jackson township.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hadsell and family, of Muncie, Ind., enjoyed their vacation last week with their mother, Mrs. Inez Hadsell.

Earl Kinsey accompanied his brother, DuWayne Kinsey and wife, to Indianapolis Saturday, by truck, taking some of their housekeeping needs. Earl returned Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Davis and Mr. Arthur Flynn, of Chicago and Mr. Ray Davis and daughters, Roseann and Gloria, of Auburn, were Sunday afternoon visitors in the Hattie Widney-Stone home.

Mrs. O. E. Ginther and daughter, Miss Virginia, and Robert Eichenmeyer, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday and Monday in Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Condrey, also visiting A Century of Progress while in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Cox, of Helmer, Mrs. Jennie Clinesmith, of Angola and F. B. Leighty and wife took Sunday dinner with Mrs. Willis Cox at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Mutchler, at Brighton, Ind. Mrs. Cox and two sons left Tuesday morning for Lawrenceburg, Ind., to join her husband who is employed in that city.

Mr. J. P. Buckingham, who has been seriously ill the past ten days with heart trouble is slightly improved. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buckingham, of Marion, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Foltz, of Miller City, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Scofield, of Napoleon, O., Mr. and Mrs. David Garno, of Detroit, and Mrs. Viola Rose, of Findlay, have been here recently. Mrs. Rose is assisting in caring for Mr. Buckingham.

SCHEDULE OF THE COMING EVENTS OF THE DEKALB COUNTY COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Friday, Sept. 28

Adult Workers Conference at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Auburn. Rev. A. H. Backus, of Indianapolis to be the speaker. Both an afternoon and evening session. Open to all, but a special urge that all Adult Workers be present.

Month of September is school visitation month. Sunday, Sept. 9, the following schools and the visitor:

Fairfield and Smithfield Twp.
St. John's Reformed, Hellen Manrow.
M. E. Ashley, Vern Sparks.
Evangelical County Line, Wilbur Meyers.
Christian Ashley, Ward Jackman.
Pleasant Chapel, Fred Leighty.
Barker's Chapel, Fred Knott.
Cedar Lake Christian, Lyle Leas.

Grant Township
M. E. Waterloo, Gertrude Borthwick.
U. B. Waterloo, Stanley Means.
Evangelical Waterloo, Henry Funk.

Richland Township
Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren, Rose Smith.
Maple Grove U. B., W. C. McBride.
Showers Corners, Thelma Grosch.
M. E. Corunna, Frank Dosch.
Christian Corunna, Inez Dosch.
U. B. Corunna, Wilma Weaver.
Richland Center Lutheran, George Beugnot.

Sunday, October 14. Fall County Council meeting held in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Auburn, at 1:45 P. M. Miss Pauline Roth, of Fort Wayne, will be the speaker, her subject, "Running Away From Life."

The dates of the following are not definitely set but will be by time of the County Council meeting, October 14.

November: Educational and Administrative Workers Conference.

December: Young People's Leaders and Teachers Workers Conference.

January: Children's Division Conference.

February 7 and 8, County Convention.

A Standard B Training Course will be sponsored also, plans announced later.

FRESH FOOT PRINTS

A tap dancing craze is raging the country among the girls ranging in age from six to fourteen.

Commodity and real estate prices will continue to rise rapidly.

New regulations from the Department of Commerce will permit the flying of single-motored planes only during daylight hours.

Last week while driving in Missouri we visited with a man who claimed it to be an absolute fact that there was a man in that town who traded his old automobile on a new one on the basis of code-book price.

Included in the list of 50,000 articles in the new Sears, Roebuck and Co. catalogue is Automobile and Life Insurance.

Workers and carvers on tomb stones get as high as $18 per day. Due to the hazards connected with the sandblasting of a monument the life expectancy of a sandblaster is only forty-five years.

Many of our American magazines and newspapers could not exist were it not for the advertising done by the cigarette and liquor manufacturers. While this condition exists there will be but little propaganda in our various periodicals against the liquor and tobacco habits.

T. E. Reid, United States Weather Bureau, expects a mild winter on account of the summer's drought and unusual heat.

When the trucks succeed in driving the raidroads out of business there will be about 7,000,000 more men out of work.

Each country has its own tax problems for raising the necessary money for paying the public expenses. In Japan even the employment of a house-maid requires a tax.

Next to recklessness at the top of a boom, the most foolish thing in the world is discouragement at the bottom of a slump.—Roger Babson.

Recent statistics show that children are less subject to the various contagious diseases in the cities than they are in small towns and villages.

"It is me," is now approved as being good English.

Over eighty per cent of all cases of diphtheria in the United States occur between the ages of one and five.

And now, after a hundred years of research, a vaccine has been discovered for immunization against infantile paralysis.

"When Noah sailed the waters blue,
He had his troubles same as you.
For forty days he drove the Ark
Before he found a place to park."

"He who has a thousand friends
Has not a friend to spare,
But he who has an enemy
Will meet him everywhere."

Abraham Lincoln once said, "No man has good enough memory to make a successful liar.

Maybe we are around that proverbial prosperity corner. Produce prices are better and farm lands are selling well. More farms have changed hands during the last few days than during the past two or three years.

The Peoria police force is rereported to be showing economy by the purchase of an old hearse which is being remodeled for a patrol wagon.

News dispatches show General of New York City is getting re-$9,000 advance in salary.

One-seventh of the population of New York City is geting relief aid.

If a camel is wounded the skin never heals over the sore.

At some points the Mississippi river is so low that ferry boats can not operate.

Free RUBBER RINGS for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make ... free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl, a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. 27t14

"Man proposes—God disposes," says the old proverb. It proves a fact that has the Department of Agriculture and high Government officials giddy and dismayed.

Main Administration program for the farmer has been crop and acreage reduction. Working on the theory that unless drastic action were taken, the American market would be glutted with agricultural surpluses for many years to come, thus keeping prices at bankrupt levels, steps were taken to kill pigs, plow under wheat and cotton, and otherwise attempt to adjust demand and supply. The government paid out checks totaling millions to farmers in order to recompense them for crops thus destroyed.

Everything went along well—until the power of God appeared, in the form of the worst drought in generations. The wheat and cotton crops of whole states were literally burned to dust—cattle died of thirst and starvation—high winds whirled away seed and top-soil, making a desert of what had been the finest and richest farm land in the country.

Outside of the afflicted areas, the American people had little idea of what the result of this would be. They read the headlines, felt pity for the farmers whose year's income had vanished, agreed that the Government should administer relief. What they did not realize was that the drought, following upon the man-made campaign to destroy produce, had turned the crop surplus into a crop deficit. And that means but one thing: Soaring food prices to the consumer. Private crop experts say that it will take five or six years to make up for the crops we have lost. Every one of these experts is of the belief that during the coming winter food prices will be higher than for many years past—and that, coming at a time when the national income is still heavily depressed and millions of families are earning just enough to get by on, contains the fruits of potential tragedy.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Wallace and others have said that all the power of government will be used to prevent profiteering, that the consumer will be protected. But no law exists which can keep farmers from hanging onto what crops they have left in the hope of higher prices—no power has yet been called into play that can prevent speculation all along the line, from the farm to the grocery store.

Washington is worried and uncertain—and in the meantime the Government is in the odd position of forcing crop reduction on one hand, while administering relief to crop sufferers on the other.

County Tickets

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mountz.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer Warren Arnold.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 363

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, SEPT. 13, 1934 — NUMBER 36

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Byron Woodcox and family moved to Fort Wayne, Wednesday where he has work.

Mrs. Helen Wade will move from the Methodist parsonage into the Shroyer property, better known as the Rhodenbaugh home.

David Hogg will speak at the Jackson township Sunday School convention next Sunday afternoon, Sept. 16, at 1:30 o'clock. Arthur Friend is chairman of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard and son, Bobby, of Auburn; Mrs. Mary C. Richman, of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pincheon, of Fremont, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mrs. Wm. Randall.

Arthur Davis left Friday to attend Broadview Academy at La Grange, Illinois. He expects to take a Bible course along with his regular academic course. The students are taught the value of work and are expected to work part or all of their way through school.

All of the DeKalb county pastors in the United Brethren Church were returned for another year at the annual conference of the church which closed at Winona Lake Sunday. Rev. C. W. Moore returns to Newville, Rev. C. W. Price to Butler, Rev. R. H. Blackburn to the Butler circuit and Rev. Ernest Lewellen to Waterloo.

A letter received from DuWayne Kinsey and wife at 448½ Riley Ave., Indianapolis, a few days ago, stated that they were located, and ready for their friends to call on them. He started his school classes on Thursday, and rides his bicycle to and from school and the funeral home, a distance of 65 blocks. The young couple have the best wishes of their many friends here, and time will soon rush around when they will be back to St. Joe taking their place in the community.

FARMERS HAVING FLOUR DUE THEM MAY CALL FOR IT AT THEIR CONVENIENCE.
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Kodak Films—At News Office.

John Dilley left Saturday for Terre Haute, Ind., for school.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull called at the Wm. Hull home near Ashley, Sunday afternoon.

Read and use the classified column. It is the best paying advertising you ever did.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Stanley Means and mother were Sunday dinner guests in the M. E. Hursh home at Auburn.

Fred Reeder and family, of near Auburn, were Sunday guests in the Jesse Loftus home.

Montpelier, O., fair is on this week and many from this community are regular attendants.

Mrs. Mary Betz and Mrs. Ada Berry spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Sadie Bruce, of Auburn.

VALLEY GROWERS MEET

The fact that the St. Joe Valley does produce the best in her line was again revealed at the south side market fair at Fort Wayne last week, when nine out of fourteen of the prizes were awarded to Valley growers.

At a meeting Tuesday night of The Valley Growers a temporary committee was chosen composing John Leighty, Clyde Hart, George Hart and Guy Platter, to head arrangements for a Valley section for the Fall Fair Parade at Auburn on Oct. 6, and much enthusiasm is manifested for this feature. All growers are asked to report to this committ their reaction to such a move.

George Hart has received his papers giving him a herd of 20 pure bred Jerseys as being fully accredited by the United States Department of Agriculture. This certificate is good for one year from Aug. 31, 1934.

More than 3,000 Peru taxpayers and school patrons have signed a petition demanding reinstatement of G. W. Youngblood, suspended superintendent of the public schools in that city. Mr. Youngblood was formerly superintendent of the Auburn schools. Politics demands that he resign.

REPUBLICAN LAWN PARTY

Last Friday evening about sixty Republican men and women met at the home of Fred B. Leighty for what was to have been a lawn party. Of course, the fact that the Weather Bureau is now under Democratic control may not be the reason for the rain all day and on into the night, but it looked mighty suspicious since they are in full control of everything that happens nowadays.

The rain made no difference except that the party was held in the house and was not as large as it would have been in good weather. The ladies brought food and a fine buffet supper was enjoyed.

The Republican county chairman and all the county and township candidates were there and were brought out one at a time and introduced but refused to make speeches. Hon. David Hogg, former Congressman and candidate for re-election was introduced and consented to talk for a few minutes.

Mr. Hogg's remarks were very brief but he called attention to the broken campaign promises of the present administration, particularly in regard to economy in administration expenses, where instead of reducing the cost of running the government they have increased the number of government employees nearly two hundred thousand and have added more than fifty new bureaus and departments for spending public money.

He said that of every ten dollars spent for "relief" only one dollar got to the spot to be relieved. He also called attention to the fact that land was being taken out of production, but for every acre taken out four were being brought in by the various new dams for electricity and irrigation and reclamation projects of different kinds.

Mr. Hogg said that while the present administration was curtailing production of many kinds of food products we were importing from other countries much of the same kind. Our importations of food and agricultural products are enough to keep most of the idle land in use which he thought was a better plan.

Of course the trouble with Mr. Hogg's suggestion is that the wheat farmer who now does all his work in less than six weeks a year would have to raise something else and wory longer, and the cotton farmer would have to change his ways. Then again the Federal Treasury could not be used so easily to keep the wheat and cotton states in the political line.

Mr. Hogg pledged himself to make every effort to stop taking money from our counties and spending it in other states.

Judge Endicott also made a short talk in which he outlined the work of his court and gave credit to his predecessors for making it possible for him to do some of the things he has been able to accomplish. Spectacular things like criminal trials and divorce proceedings are the ones we hear most about but are really a small part of the work of the court. Handling the settlement of estates, guardianships of minors and incompetent adults and the juvenile court takes a very large part of the court's attention and most of us never hear of them unless we are directly interested.

Last year eighty-five cases from other counties were heard here. This happens when either party to certain kinds of litigation feels that for some reason he can not get justice in his local court and asks to have his case tried somewhere else. The local court then sends the case to a court agreeable to both parties. It must be that Judge Endicott has made a reputation for fairness to have so many cases sent to his court since only thirty were sent in his first years as judge. The county from which the case comes pays this county all the court costs which means a substantial revenue and relieves DeKalb county of that much expense. The records show that Judge Endicott tried more civil cases than all three of the Allen County judges.

Only five to ten cases are taken out of the county each year and they are mostly drunken drivers or other similar cases in which Judge Endicott has a reputation of being rather severe. One of the things most of us do not know much about is the dependent children under the care of the juvenile court. There are about a hundred of these and under Judge Endicott's administration three fourths of them are in their mother's care instead of in public institutions. Any mother can see how much better that is than to commit them to the institutions. Of course if the mother is not competant then she does not get the child.

It seems to us that Judge Endicott deserves the opportunity to keep on with the work he has put upon such a high level.

After listening to these short talks and having a chance to meet the candidates, it left the definite impression that the lawn party was a success even if the weather made a house party of it. Rep.

FIRST BURGLARY AT BETZ RESTAURANT

Three persons gained entrance to the restaurant owned and operated by Mrs. Mary Betz Thursday evening, by prying the west window open, and their presence in the restaurant was discovered by Mrs. Betz when she returned to the restaurant at about 11 o'clock to turn on the Frigidaire, which she had turned off during the day and had forgotten to turn on before closing.

As she approached the place, she heard a commotion inside, and later a rush out the back door.

In front of the Kinsey hardware sat Leon Kees and Frank Loftus and Mrs. Betz was assisted by them in making the investigation, finding that tobacco, candy, pop, chilly bars, and Dixie cups were taken. Besides three quart buckets of cream were packed ready to go, but in their haste, was left on the counter. A quantity of the cream had also been eaten.

Cabinet Heaters bargain at $58. 35t1. Curie Hardware.

A twin convention will be a feature at the Auburn fair on Saturday, Oct. 6th.

WINELAND REUNION

The Wineland family reunion was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wineland. Forty-nine were present and they are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cole and daughter, Fairie and son George, of Garrett; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pontius and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wineland, of Elkhart; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Hendricks and three children, Mrs. Laura Baker and Mrs. Sarah Hendricks, of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bishop, of Cleveland, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steward and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hallabaugh and two children, of Spencerville; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Freeburn and family and Mrs. Nettie Baker, of Fort Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Derwood Ridgway and family, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wineland and son, Walter, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dorsey and daughter, Mr. Virgil Dorsey and Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson, of Hicksville, and Mr. Wilbur Rochelle, of New Haven.

The next reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cole of Garrett.

BOARD STUDIES BUDGET FOR 1935

Prospects that some of the township tax levies would be reduced from their budget level appeared Monday afternoon after the county tax adjustment board had been in session at the court house for a few hours. Some of the trustees provided for balances to pay their transfer tuition accounts, but the board deemed this action unnecessary.

The first township budgets reviewed were those of Stafford, Troy, Concord, Jackson, Franklin, Newville and Wilmington. No definite action was taken, but the budgets were carefully studied with a view of making whatever cuts appeared to be possible.

The study of budgets continued Tuesday, with a likelihood that the board will be in session several days.

50 Years Ago

Taken from the files of the St. Joe News, 50 years ago—M. E. Olds, Editor

Saturday, Jan. 3, 1885

P. A. Shirts and family are visiting friends in the northern part of Michigan.

The coat was a very bad fitting one in the back.

"That'll never do," said the customer, "it looks like a shirt on a bean pole."

"Dot coat, mein frient," replied the merchant, "is a very stylish garment. Mein gracious it is most luffly, beautiful puffing—der latest style and don't you forget it. It was made on Fifth Avenue. It is the Fadder Hubbard style and is worth so much as five tollar more on dot cut." Five minutes later the delighted customer left the store with his Fadder Hubbard coat.

Mervin Widney and John Simanton are canvassing this township for the books entitled "Lives of Cleveland & Hendricks" and "Lives of Blaine & Logan." The first two gentlemen are alive and alright, but in a political sense, the last two persons mentioned, have died and gone up Salt River. The boys don't care a snap however about that, just so they sell their books. They say that John Simanton called on an old republican over east of here last week and wanted to sell him a Blaine & Logan book. John gave the old gentleman a lengthy description of the work including the usual amount of taffy and wound up his speech by saying, "I tell you Mr. H——, they've scooped us this time, but we'll lick them in 1888, and don't you forget it." The old man says "you bet" bought a book, and John went on to tell the next man what a good democrat he was.

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Leighty Orchard

ST. JOE, INDIANA

WEALTHY APPLES for canning winter sauce, combining with GRAPES for JELLY, APPLE BUTTER and immediate use, ARE NOW BEING SOLD.
IT IS TIME TO BEGIN THINKING ABOUT your WINTER APPLES, CIDER, VINEGAR, and HONEY.
NO SALES ON SUNDAY

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

One ride is worth a thousand words

WHAT you hear and what you read about a car is important—but one ride is worth a thousand words. Test Chevrolet's Knee-Action on a bumpy road, where you can see for yourself what a big difference Knee-Action makes in riding comfort. This test will also acquaint you with the smooth, economical, valve-in-head engine, the positive, cable-controlled brakes, the bodies by Fisher, and the comfort of Fisher Ventilation. Go to your nearest Chevrolet dealer and make the Ownership Test. Chevrolet is satisfied to let you and the ride decide which car is the best for you.

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.
Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value

Try the ownership test

Knee Action

CHEVROLET

DEALER ADVERTISEMENT

FURNISH MOTOR SALES, Spencerville, Ind.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U364

The Heroine

By LARRY ALLAN

©, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
WNU Service.

INTO the little hamlet of Hartwell that day came walking and riding, living cross-sections of the human countryside, all intent on getting as close to the shrouded monument as the crowd of earlier arrivals in the public square would permit.

All Hartwell, all Hart county, all that section of Georgia, were there on that day to take part in the celebration incident to the unveiling of a beautiful monument to Nancy Hart, Georgia's Joan of Arc, the brave American woman who had killed her share of Redcoats in the Revolution and had inspired her men folks to go and do likewise.

The little town of Hartwell and Hart county had been named after her; there was a Hart street; and now a monument erected to her everlasting memory with funds voted by congress was to be unveiled with all the pomp and ceremony befitting such an occasion.

The governor made a long and well-gestured speech extolling Nancy Hart and her brave deeds. The lady representing the Daughters of the American Revolution read the paper on "Revolutionary Heroines" she had so carefully prepared. Several patriotic songs were sung. Mrs. Juanita Floyd, a great-great-granddaughter of Nancy Hart, sat among the guests of honor on the platform facing the shrouded monument, nervously awaiting the moment when she would jerk the rope to loosen the canvas covering and let the monument stand out in all its beauty.

The governor's speech extolled Nancy Hart's heroism in resounding words and grandiose phrases in a typical patriotic display of verbal pyrotechnics, but sitting next to me was a tobacco-chewing Cracker who told me in words of one syllable the story of Mistress Nancy's heroic gesture.

* * *

Nancy was born in North Carolina some twenty years or more before the outbreak of the Revolution, and eventually married a husky young mountaineer named Benjamin Hart. Some time before the Boston Tea Party they felt that that section of North Carolina was getting over-populated and migrated to the wilder mountain regions of Georgia.

When the Colonies rose in revolt Georgia called on her sons. Among the first to respond was Benjamin Hart.

One rainy, muddy day when the small handful of patriots left behind to protect homes and families were out on a scouting expedition, and Nancy and her small daughter were industriously preparing the day's food for the men, five Redcoats suddenly rode up and surrounded the home.

A quick search by them revealed that there were no male rebels on the premises, but instead of going on their way the Redcoats, smelling the fragrance of Nancy's cooking, demanded that she serve them. Now Nancy was just a poor lone woman in the wilderness, but all of those pioneer women were spunky. She hated Redcoats and, being an extremely finicky housekeeper, she was as mad as a hornet at the Redcoats for tracking up her kitchen with their muddy boots.

And so Nancy laid the table and busied herself about the fireplace without a word of protest. It was while she was going to the bin for more cornmeal the thought suddenly came to her that the patriots might return while the Redcoats were there. Not realizing their danger, they were quite likely to walk right into trouble. With that thought uppermost in her mind she gazed around seeking some method of escape, and it was then that she noticed that the Redcoats, their vigilance lessened, had stacked their guns in a corner of the cabin.

Without exciting their suspicion Nancy walked toward a table near that corner of the room and reached down as if for the jug of molasses she kept there. Suddenly she whirled, seized the nearest rifle and fired point-blank at the unfortunate Redcoat who had just gotten up from the bed. The four others jumped to their feet, but even as they did so Nancy had seized a second gun and stood aiming it at them.

"I killed one!" she cried fiercely, "and if you make a move I'll kill you!"

Then she sent little Nancy scurrying out to give the alarm. It so happened that the little group of scouts had heard the gunshot and had turned toward the cabin.

The four King George's men, each fearful that he would be sent to his death if he made a move, stood there helpless until Benjamin and the Continentals arrived on the scene.

"And there's the story just as it really happened," the old Cracker explained.

Just then the lady pulled the cord, the canvas parted, and amid the applause of the gathered Georgians the monument to Nancy Hart was revealed. I was disappointed. It was an obelisk, and not a statue of the Redcoat-killing Nancy.

"Why didn't they have a statue of Nancy so we could see what the great heroine looked like?" I asked.

"Well, you see," my local historian explained, "it was on account of Nancy herself. The citizens thought it might look kinda funny. Did yuh ever see this movie fellah, Ben Turpin? Well, Nancy Hart was just as cross-eyed! That's why she was able to bluff them Redcoats, each one thought she was aiming straight at him!"

Above All Riches of Earth

Writer's Fine Tribute to "Pal" Recalls Shakespeare's Admonition, "Grapple Thy Friend to Thy Soul With Hooks of Steel."

A great writer has said that after the word "mother" the most endearing is that of "friend." A contributor to our columns, of high position in the newspaper world, evidently is of that opinion. Employing the more affectionate word "pal" she says:

"My Pal!

"They are the simple, most primitive words in the Anglo-Saxon lexicon, yet—

"How pregnant they are with meaning. How they play upon the heart-strings! How they stir up the bottommost depths of tender sentiment and emotion, engulfing us in up-welling waves till the heart fills, the throat catches and words fail us.

"Purists will sniff and quizz. Why 'pal'? Why not 'friend'? Why not 'companion' and the like?

"Exactly so.

"For I have many friends. And I have a few companions. But I am favored beyond the wildest dreams of Croesus, fortunate outside the compass of Midas and Monte Cristo, happier than the lark that singing wings its way through stellar ether.

"For I have what is more precious than all the world's gold—a pal!

"My pal—unfortunately one can have but one pal—is mostly what I am not.

"As for me, I am a cross sort of person, terribly fault-finding, tempestuously temperamental.

"And my pal is a contrast to me, a foil, if you please, eternally good-natured, forever understanding, smilingly indulgent; so that she becomes a reproach to me, albeit an unintended reproach, time and again. And when I fume, and rage, and toss and stamp—my pal calmly awaits the lull of the cyclone—and says with a laugh—'All right, just as you say!'

"And then my arms fly around and about her! And I cry out what a beast I am! And I promise I will never offend again! And I do not. No! Not until the next time!

"But I wanted to tell you about my pal, not about myself.

"My pal is unselfish.

"She is like a little flower giving out sweet fragrance in a shady nook.

"She is like the music of tinkling bells, like the music of myth and legend that melted the rock, soothing and restful as a song at twilight.

"She is like the cool, grateful pillow, ever ready to receive the hot, tired head.

"She is always on the verge of a laugh that is never at my expense; always anxious to share my cares and irritations, to smooth away grief and trouble with her genial cheer; to help with my burdens when they press too heavily upon me; to join me in frolic if such be my mood.

"And perhaps this is the wonderful part of her—the God-given part of her—that she is always ready to enter my moods—and to understand—and perhaps that is why my pal is incomparable.

"I have just looked up the origin of 'pal.'

"My tattered Webster tells me its beginnings are shrouded in obscurity, have become uncertain in the dim passages of the centuries—and in its various ramifications it has taken on the senses of match, equal, love.

"Now I see! Now I know the secret that makes her the most wonderful pal that ever was—it is this:

"My pal is capable of a great love—she 'seeketh not herself, exalteth not herself,' and—

"Let me ask you—

"Are you somebody's pal."

©, Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Horror of Horrors

Determined to make a good job of it, the prophets of gloom are now reviving the rumor that the bustle is coming back.—Springfield Union.

SWITZERLAND MILITANT

The distinction of having the largest army in proportion to its population, belongs to Switzerland, whose citizens strangely enjoy the reputation of being the most peace-loving of the civilized peoples of the world, thereby seemingly refuting the theory that large armaments are the breeders of wars, observes G. R. Turner in the Kansas City Times. In this tiny Alpine republic almost every able-bodied male inhabitant is a trained and efficient soldier. With a total population approximately equivalent to that of the single American city of Chicago, Switzerland supports an army (inclusive of regular and reserve troops) more than one and one-half greater than the combined active and reserve military forces of the United States.

Costly Road Material

Stone from surrounding mountains which has been used for some time on roads in three villages near Miskolcz, Hungary, has been declared by experts to be high-grade black marble.

Buy Firestone

SAFEST TIRES IN THE WORLD!
PRICES REMARKABLY LOW!

Here's PROOF OF SAFETY

TWO BREATH-TAKING ENDURANCE RUNS ON SAME TRACK—A DRAMATIC COMPARISON OF SAFETY! READ BOTH LETTERS BELOW!

THE proof of leadership is performance! Many claim it, but Firestone proves it. Never before have tires withstood such severe, continuous, grinding torture, breaking 77 records for 3,000 consecutive miles at 127.2 miles an hour. Not a Gum-Dipped cord loosened, not a tread separated, not one blowout.

Hour after hour, on through the scorching heat of the day and inky blackness of the night, with temperatures as high as 120 degrees—breaking record after record for speed, strength, safety and blowout protection—all in a stupendous demonstration of safety performance for the car owners of America.

This remarkable achievement was made possible by Gum-Dipping, the Firestone patented process which saturates and coats every fiber within the cords with liquid rubber—counteracting friction and heat and preventing the tire from heating up and blowing out.

Have the Firestone Service Dealer or Service Store equip your car with Firestone Tires, Spark Plugs, Battery and Aquapruf Brake Lining. Protect your life and the lives of your family with the safest tires in the world. Buy them this week before prices go higher.

REDUCED PRICES $5.75 4.40-21
FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY
FIRESTONE CENTURY PROGRESS TIRES

SIZE	OLD PRICE	NEW PRICE	YOU SAVE ON ONE TIRE	YOU SAVE ON A SET OF 4
4.40-21	$6.65	$5.75	$ .90	$3.60
4.50-21	7.1	6.30	1.01	4.04
4.75-19	7.8	6.70	1.08	4.32
5.00-19	8.34	7.20	1.14	4.56
5.25-18	9.27	8.00	1.27	5.08
5.50-17	10.15	8.75	1.40	5.60
6.00-19	14.47	12.45	2.02	8.08
7.00-20	19.85	17.10	2.73	10.92

Other Sizes Proportionately Low

THE OUTSTANDING VALUE IN THE LOW-PRICED FIELD
Firestone COURIER TYPE

SIZE	PRICE
4.40-21	$4.45
4.50-21	4.90
4.75-19	5.20
30x3½	3.65

And remember, every Firestone Tire carries the Triple Guarantee
—for Unequaled Performance Records
—for Life Against All Defects
—for 12 Months Against All Road Hazards (Six months in commercial service)

See how Firestone Tires are Made at the Firestone Factory and Exhibition Building, World's Fair

Listen to the VOICE OF FIRESTONE—featuring GLADYS SWARTHOUT—every Monday Night over N.B.C.—WEAF Network

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 365

HAS SMARTNESS AND SIMPLICITY

PATTERN 1811

Daytime is the "Big Time" of sunny days—days that are crowded with activity from morn 'til sunset. You'll need many crisp cotton frocks—and now's the time to plan and make them! If it's smartness plus simplicity you're looking for, this model fills the bill with both! The wide neckline and the raglan-like sleeves with a bit of self-ruffling trim are new, and just no trouble at all to set in place. Large, handsome colored buttons lend an eye-catching interest. Make your frock of a novelty cotton—and you'll be up to the minute. Beginners will find the new Sewing Instructor a guide that is very easy to follow.

Pattern 1811 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 takes 3⅛ yards 36 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth street, New York.

BARRING THE PROBS

Tramp—Madam, I have seen better days.

Madam—That may be, but I have no time to discuss the weather with strangers.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Receptacles

"You complain of so many bureaus in the government."

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "and I may add that I do not approve of the way some of the file cases are managed."—Washington Star.

Knows From Experience

Basil—What on earth will your father say when he knows we're engaged?

Barbara—Oh, he'll be delighted. He always is.

And the Kibitzers

Blinks—What do you think of eliminating the dummy from bridge?

Jinks—I'm more in favor of eliminating the dumb-bells who try to play it.

FRESH FLAVOR

P-11N

Solving School Clothes Problems

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

WHAT to wear "first day of school" and the day after the day after and for months to come in the class room—an ever important problem which the month of September never fails to present as it sings the swan-song of happy vacation time.

To doting mothers and others whose responsibility it is to see that the children of the household go suitably and modishly appareled to school, the message in regard to juvenile fashions according to early fall showings is sure to prove nothing less than inspirational. That designers are giving so much of their best efforts to create attractive, at the same time practical styles for little folks ought to be a very encouraging sign for future costuming.

The trio of cunning models pictured tell a fascinating story of early fall juvenile style trends. These charming fashions were selected for illustration from among a host of equally as attractive outfits for youngsters as displayed in recent style shows held by the Chicago Wholesale Market council. The young miss standing to the left in the picture shows how really style-wise a little girl of this day and generation can be in that she is wearing a frock of green wool crepe, and green as the color card tells us is a leader this season, especially dark mossy greens. Then, too, interest in crepe weaves is very apparent in the fabric realm. Being jumper style this dress is ideal for school wear, for the little maiden can enjoy a fresh blouse each day if she so chooses.

Again brother and sister outfits are proving of tremendous appeal and in this connection it is interesting to note that the two-sister theme is also being advanced, in which cosumes showing duplication of color and pattern are sized to fit little girls of different ages. In the instance of the brother and sister outfits pictured, plaid in a gay new cotton weave will go off to school in a manner to delight every eye that beholds this adorable two-some. The contrast of plain with print is effectively emphasized.

Speaking generally of style items stressed at these recent previews of children's fashions one is impressed with the radical color departure in little folks' costumes. Instead of the dainty childish colors usually associated with the juvenile world, little girls are now adopting the greens, browns and reds of their older sisters with of course a continued use of dark blue.

Also it is noted that plaids identify an increasing number of frocks this fall, taking from the formerly favored floral prints considerable of their glory. One clever frock in the style parade looks like a genuine Scotch costume with its red plaid pleated skirt and navy bolero over a white blouse. Frocks of unusual interest also feature the use of three and even four colors.

As to important fabrics it is significant that woolens are proving a strong factor. Wool crepes and novelties lead, while even the cottons take on a wool-like texture.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Masters of Slang Who Have Enriched Language

Wilfred J. Funk knows words. He ought to, because he publishes dictionaries and writes poetry—highly dissimilar occupations, but both dealing in words. So he may properly qualify as an expert on slang.

One feels that he is a bit too exclusive, however, in crowning only ten Americans as the fathers of modern slang, or the argot of contemporary Americana, if you must give your slang a highbrow label.

This is said in no disparagement of the magnificent audacity with which the ten he mentions have committed mayhem on innocent English. The ten—Sime Silverman, H. L. Mencken, T. A. Dorgan, Walter Winchell, Bugs Baer, Ring Lardner, Damon Runyon, Gelett Burgess, George Ade and Gene Buck—are leaders, no doubt, in the creation of the new and startling jargon. But their task is shared by thousands of others, mostly anonymous, who daily are coining new language and putting it into circulation.

The chances are that the most popular and enduring examples of slang, should they be traced to their birth by a careful scholar, could not be given a definite paternity. Like Topsy, they just grew.

Not a few of them grew on the sport pages of American newspapers.

Witness the verb to Merkle, or to pull a Merkle, which arose from an unfortunate but spectacular incident in a certain world series of 20 years ago.

And long before the modern American sport page bloomed to its present flower of lingual license, slang was being built in the same manner. Artemus Ward, Orpheus C. Kerr and Petroleum V. Nasby were doing it half a century or more ago. And before them were other generations of slang founders. Some of them attained a bit of fame in their day. Most of them are forgotten.

Long ago the wise began to recognize that slang is good English in the making. They poo poohed the strictures of the purists and hair-splitters. Much ex-slang is now in the dictionaries, frequently without the patronizing label of "colloquial."

Happily all slang does not make the grade of good, or accepted English. Frequently it is not apt and falls of its own weight. Good slang (and we maintain that the definition is valid) should be direct, illuminating, a detour to greater clarity along the sometimes tedious highways of language. As such it merits a permanent place in the language and if it is good enough it will attain it.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Old-Time School Book

A homemade arithmetic, written in 1804 by a Virginia school teacher, is owned by Charles Bright, of Blytheville, Ark., a descendant of its author.

The interesting old volume is well preserved, although written 129 years ago.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

—Powdered Saxolite—

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

If you feel low-

don't be discouraged—remember, loss of strength... sleeplessness... nervousness... paleness... lack of appetite... and general run-down condition quite often may be traced directly to low blood strength—that is, the red corpuscles and vital oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin of the blood are below normal.

S.S.S. is the great, scientifically-tested medicine for restoring this blood content. Its benefits are progressive... accumulative... and enduring. By all means try it for better health and more happiness. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon enjoy again the satisfaction of appetizing food... sound sleep... and renewed strength.

Do not be blinded by the efforts of a few unethical dealers who may suggest substitutes. You have a right to insist that S.S.S. be supplied you on request. Its long years of preference is your guarantee of satisfaction.

S.S.S. the world's great blood medicine

FOOT IRRITATIONS

Blisters, cracked skin, itching or burning soon relieved and healing promoted with soothing

Resinol

All cleaned up, and Rarin' to go..

CLEANED SPARK PLUGS GIVE MOTORS THE SPARK OF LIFE... SAVE GAS... SNAP UP PERFORMANCE

only 5c a plug

Removing spark plug oxide coating gets rid of the chief cause of sluggishness, hard starting, loss of power. All Registered AC Cleaning Stations are ready—NOW—to clean your spark plugs. It costs so little—means so much! Replace badly worn plugs with new ACs.

Look for the "Plug-in-the-Tub"

AC THE QUALITY SPARK PLUG

Tune in: Raymond Knight and the CUCKOOS—Saturdays, 10 p. m. Eastern Daylight Saving Time

SORES AND LUMPS—My Specialty Write for Free 140 Page Book Dr. Boyd Williams, Madison, Wisc.

ADVERTISING

... is as essential to business as is rain to growing crops. It is the keystone in the arch of successful merchandising. Let us show you how to apply it to your business.

WNU—A 37—34

SMARTLY SIMPLE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

This frock of navy and white coin-dot print in a chulia crepe weave is a good example of the new vogue which is being so enthusiastically acclaimed for simplicity in one's daytime apparel. It is just such a type as the well-dressed school girl will wear, as it will be equally at home in the classroom or at an informal dormitory tea, just as good form in the office, for that matter. Note that it is styled without pleated or ruffled elaboration, fancy lingerie touches or any other detail that would be difficult to handle in laundering, for as most women have found out to their joy and satisfaction these all-rayon crepes wash perfectly.

Rings Over Gloves

Signet rings are being worn over gloves by engaged girls of London.

HAT TRENDS FOLLOW THREE DIRECTIONS

Three trends are the outstanding hat news. The first is the rule "over the face," for virtually every hat pitches forward over the right eyebrow and curls up in the back. The second is double brims with one piece of felt swooping down from the crown, turning under and looping back into the head band. The third is the use of such 1910 fabrics as panne velvet, beaver, soft drape felts and feathers.

Feathers are everywhere. Black birds of paradise swoop forward from under the wide curved-up brim of a black panne velvet. A white bird, wings outspread, hangs head down from the back of a black felt. Five little rose birds lie flattened on the crown of another black felt.

Muffs Assume New Shapes for Fall and New Furs

Muffs for fall are assuming new shapes and new furs.

There's just enough room in them for your two hands, and after all, that's all the room a muff needs, when you consider the situation impartially.

These are shown in sleek, flat furs, for wear with furless coats and suits, and they're the last whisper from the last boat from Paris.

Practically the same effect is gained by the new muff gloves shown in recent displays of advance winter styles.

These are of Angora knit, with a long cuff which may be pulled down over each hand. Place the hands together in the approved fashion for muff-holding, and lo!—you have a muff.

Satin Blouses

Satin in peculiarly becoming off-shades made with drapey necklines and fulled elbow sleeves is first choice in the thorough line-up of luxurious blouses which the shops are showing for fall.

Plaid Crepes

Mossy crepes in plaid patterns will be shown in jacket suits, scarfs and blouses for early fall.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES . . . the landlord forecloses on him!

MANY PEOPLE, of course, can safely drink coffee. But there are thousands and thousands who cannot. And you may be one of these—without realizing it!

If for any reason you suspect that the drug caffein in coffee is robbing you of sleep, upsetting your digestion, or undermining your nerves, why don't you switch to POSTUM for 30 days? You'll find it a delicious drink—and it may be a real help. It is economical and easy to prepare. There is nothing in POSTUM that can possibly harm you. A product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE! Simply mail the coupon.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U.—9-12-34

Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address. This offer expires July 1, 1935

SEPTEMBER

L 919 U366

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Cider making, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, all season. 35tf. Widney Orchards.

FOUND: Keys at News Office.

Trailer for Sale: Inquire of C. W. Watson, Spencerville, Box 65. 36t2.

For Sale: Apples, cider, vinegar. Prices reasonable. Widney Orchards. 35tf.

House for Rent. Inquire at News Office. 36t1p.

Sprayed grapes, Concord, large, sweet, 60c bushel. Widney Orchards, St. Joe. 35tf.

WANTED: PERMANENT BOARD AND ROOMS FOR TWO. ADDRESS, BOARDERS. CARE NEWS OFFICE. 34t2p.

AUBURN CIDER MILL

Open every day except Sunday. Will be ready to grind Cane any day now. Block north of Ice Plant. Graham & Hanson. 33t4p.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTRIX

State of Indiana,
DeKalb County, ss:

I, Carl Walter, Clerk of the Circuit Court, for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana, do hereby certify that Grace M. Houk has been appointed executrix of the last will and testament of Arrilla A. Houk, late of DeKalb County who died testate, and the said Grace M. Houk having qualified and given bond as such Executrix is duly authorized to take upon herself the execution of said will.

Witness my hand and seal of said Court, this 25th day of August, 1934.

CARL WALTER,
Clerk of DeKalb Circuit Court.
W. D. Stump, Atty. 34t3.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Mr. Munn and Mr. Gerdes attended a meting of principals and public speaking teachers held at the county superintendent's office after school on last Friday afternoon. In our congressional district one of the school activities will be "one act play" contests. Each high school is invited to enter the county contest and the winning school in the county contest will represent the county in the district contest. The purpose of this contest is to arouse interest in public speaking or dramatic art work. Ashley, Spencerville and the local school have already decided to take up this activity and will no doubt arrange to have the three schools present their three "one act plays" in each community—Ashley, Spencerville, and St. Joe.

Classes Organize

Durin gthe final period of last During the final period of last ior and senior high school classes met with a faculty sponsor and elected officers for this school year.

The seniors chose Eloise Draggoo as president, Robert George as vice president, John Kaellner as secretary-treasurer. Mr. Munn will be the senior class sponsor. This class nominated Merlin Simanton and Keith Davis as its representatives on the local school's Athletic Council.

Mr. Gerdes wil be sponsor for the junior class this year. The juniors elected officers as follows: president, Romy McSorley; vice-president, Frank Richmond; secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Dermott. Nominees for the Athletic Council were Charles Thornton and Ruth Curie.

The sophomores will have Mr. Noffsinger as sponsor. Officers elected for this school year are Kathryn Young president; Frank Monroe, vice-president; Leonard Curie, secretary; Carl Goodwin, treasurer. For the Athletic Council, Anna Richards and Ronald Borthwick were nominated.

Mrs. Simanton will be the freshman class sponsor. This class elected Walter Ervin, president; Harriett Yeiser, vice-president; Junior Zonker, secretary; Jack Richmond, treasurer. Nominations for the Athletic Council were Lavern Reas and Harold Baker.

Eighth grade class officers are Hilma Bleeks, president; Gwenevere Jenkins, vice-persident; Wayne Nicholle, secretary-treasurer.

Seventh grade officers: Iris Jackson, president; Burl Rude, vice-president, and Norma Ayers, secretary-treasurer.

SPENCERVILLE

Mrs. Edna Wyans is visiting a few days in Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Rebecca Kirst spent Friday with Miss Ruth Beerbower.

Fred Steman started last week to the Fort Wayne business college.

William Reed and daughters were Sunday dinner guests at the James Reed home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and family were Sunday guests in the Wilson Hensley home.

The Young Ladies Social Club will meet on Friday evening with Mrs. Catharine Dean.

Mrs. Ethel Bowser entertained the Methodist Home Missionary Society Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Vallieu and granddaughter, of Dayton, O., called on friends here Sunday.

Mrs. Cora Steward and Mrs. Louie Beam are both slowly improving from their recent illness and fall.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sept. 9 was 58, collection $2.21; Lutehran 77, collection $4.81.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Place and children, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay.

The Home Bureau will meet on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Zona Abel. There will be election of officers.

Chas. Scarlette and Miss Hazel Smith, of Churubusco, Ind., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and family.

Miss Doris and Ralph Beams and Rollie Gent, of Fort Wayne, were entertained at the home of Miss Doris Rhoades Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowser and children, of St. Joe and Gale Bowser and family were callers in the R. U. Bowser home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Waverly King will make her home with Mrs. Hazel Steward this winter and attend high school, while her parents spend the winter in the south.

Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe attended the funeral of Mr. Adrian Miller at Scipio, Sunday. Mr. Miller was a brother-in-law to Miss Mame Bair and Ross Bair.

Harry Peterson, who formerly resided at this place, visited old friends here Friday. Mr. Peterson now resides in Michigan and is a member of the Detroit Police Force.

Mrs. Minnie Walker Lantz took very ill while at Fort Wayne Saturday. She was brought to her home at this place and is confined to her bed. Mrs. Lantz is a teacher in the grade school.

Miss Ida Reed attended the farewell supper given Miss Lenore Laub at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laub on Thursday evening. Miss Laub is attending the Muncie college.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoddie Steward and daughter, who have spent the past month visiting relatives in and near Spencerville, returned to their home at Estherville, Iowa, Friday. Mulford Steward, a brother, who made the trip with them, also returned to his home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Corma Kelley and two children were recent guests of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zimmerman, and other relatives. Mr. Kelley purchased a new Chevrolet Coach from Mr. Zimmerman, a salesman for the Furnish Motor Sales, to return to to his home in Indianapolis.

Coburn's Corners

Elizabeth Hart called on Hattie Walker Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVon Murphy of Hicksville, are the parents of a new baby boy.

Edvar Coburn and George Hart, Jr., spent Sunday with Paul and James Crothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart are at Cold Springs for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder attended the funeral Sunday afternoon at Scipio of Mr. Adrian Miller, who died suddenly Thursday of a heart attack.

The Ladies Aid was very pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Elizabeth Hart. The president, Mrs. Edna Jenkins, opening the meeting. Song, Blest be the tie that binds, followed with prayer by Mrs. Hart. Scripture reading by the president; roll call responses were favorite bible characters. Business was taken care of after which the hostess served a cafeteria lunch to eight members and two guests. The next meeting is to be held with Mrs. Elwood Hart.

The Coburn's Corners orchestra has employed John Woodcox as musical director.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for September 9 was 88, collection $3.38.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Shull are the proud parents of a 9 pound baby boy, born September 9th.

Mrs. Eva Shull, who has been staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lee Mercer the past three weeks, was brought to the home of Mrs. Geo. Hart, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Hamm and Doris Stuck, of Garrett, called on Mrs. Garth Shull Thursday afternoon. Miss Anna McCutcheon and friend, of Edgerton, O., were Saturday evening callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place, Mary Lou Wise, Luella Beth Platter, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart, and Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Fabianske and children called on Mrs. Kell Hart Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart ate dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Poper and family. Grandma Bailey, who is being cared for at the Poper home, is quite miserable at this writing.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Kate Richmond and family visited over the wek-end at Peru, Ind.

Dr. Reynolds and wife and Dan Bechtol and family were here Sunday from Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins were here from St. Joe, Sunday afternoon calling on relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Saturday at Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben King and family were here Sunday from Fort Wayne visiting Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fusselman and Mrs. Kate Fusselman visited the Hart nursery near Spencerville, Sunday afternoon.

Relatives and friends remembered Mrs. Kate Fusselman on her 80th birthday Sept. 9, by gifts of fruit, flowers, birthday cake and numerous other gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, of this place and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, of Fort Wayne, attended the funeral of Adrian Miller, Sunday at Scipio.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harrison Enzor, aged 79, who died Sept. 4, were held at the Christian Church Sept. 6 by Rev. H. K. Schondelmayer. Burial at Hicksville. Sh is survived by two sons and two daughters.

All rabbit breeders are asked to meet at the County Agent's office on evening of September 25, to make final plans, entries and arrangements for the fall fair. Eighty premiums will be awarded in this department this year.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Eloise Bowman left Sunday for Bloomington, to complete her college course.

Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson have purchased the Geo. Wade property in the west end, of Sherman Rickett.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bishop, of Cleveland, have been visiting relatives and friends at Auburn and Butler.

Miss Susan Sechler will spend a few days at the Leon Sechler home north of Butler the last of this week.

Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Mary Sechler were, Mrs. Lulu Reichelderfer of Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dilley, Miss Susan Sechler, Mr. and Mrs. William Staman, Ralph Sechler, wife and son, Franklin and Verne Monroe and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Breitigam, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Beard and daughter, Earline, and Mr. Earl Breitigam, of Vanlue, spent Sunday in the Buckingham home. Their father, grandfather and great grandfather is improving slowly.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Free RUBBER RINGS for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth MFG. CO. PORT HURON, MICH. U.S.A.

27t14

Fish and Game Club Information

REGULATIONS FOR HUNTING CHANGED

Instructions regulating the time when migratory birds may be shot this fall are as follows: The open season will be from Thursday, October 4 to Saturday, December 8. Waterfowl hunting will be permitted only on three days of each of the ten weeks, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays

Hunting previously permitted during the half hour before sunrise has been made illegal and the former restriction on shooting before noon on the opening day of the season has been removed. This means that in Indiana migratory birds may be taken from sunrise to sunset on the specified three days of each week for the ten-week period and that on the opening day of the Indiana season, hunting will be legal after sunrise

Bag and possession limits on species of ducks which are especially imperiled have been reduced. The species on which the bag limits have been reduced from eight to five and the possession limits from sixteen to ten include: Canvasback, redhead, eiter duck, greater scaup, lesser scaup, lesser scaup ringneck, blue-wing teal, cinnamon teal, shoveller and gadwall.

Hunters are advised to read up on the hunting law this fall because of the changes and thus avoid getting in trouble with game wardens. Hoosier hunters this year must remember to secure a federal duck stamp at postoffices. A fee of $1 is charged. The law requiring the purchase of these stamps was passed at the last session of congress as a means of preventing the disappearance of many species of wild bird life. Failure to comply with the provisions of the law will subject the offender to severe penalties.

STATE HATCHERIES DISTRIBUTING FISH

Distribution of large and small mouth bass and bluegills from the state fish hatcheries was started Monday on a schedule which will require six weeks to complete. The planting of the fish in streams and lakes will be in charge of local conservation clubs with the cooperation of representatives of the Department of Conservation.

A result of the later distribution from the hatcheries is the increased size of the fish available for planting this year. The holding of the fish at the hatcheries longer than in the past has worked out very successfully and starts the fish placed in streams and lakes with a better chance of surviving natural enemies.

The local Game Club has been responsible for the planting of fish in the local streams each year.

HUGHES

Elsie May Hursey, daughter of Daniel and Lydia Hursey, was born near Fostoria, Ohio, July 17, 1882, passed away at her home near St. Joe, Indiana, September 7, 1934, aged 52 years, 1 month and 21 days.

She was united in marriage to Jesse Hughes, October 9, 1904. To this union was born two children, Oral, of St. Joe, and Goldie Vallieu, who passed away eight years ago. She leaves to mourn, a son, one grandson and one granddaughter, Jean Louise Vallieu, of Dayton, Ohio; one brother, Curtis Hursey, of St. Joe, Indiana; one sister, Bertha Majors, of Antwerp, Ohio; one aunt, Mrs. Jennie Long, of Elkhart, Indiana, and one uncle, William Barringer, of Continental, Ohio. The husband having preceded her in death twenty-five years ago.

She died trusting in the Great Master, who doeth all things well.

The funeral was held from the home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. Chas. D. Moore of the First U. B. Church of Hicksville, Ohio, officating. Burial was made at Fostoria, beside her father and mother. Roscoe Walter, funeral director.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mrs. Julia Hughes, the grandmother, Mr. William Barringer, Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor and daughter, Estel Ruth, Albert Hughes, Mrs Howard Shalters, Mrs. B. E. Waterson, all of Continental, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barringer of Fostoria, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Vallieu and granddaughter, Jean Louise Vallieu, of Dayton, Ohio.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

CONCORD

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo came home Saturday morning and returned to Auburn in the afternoon. Mrs. Draggoo and baby will remain in Auburn this week. Mr. Draggoo has returned to his work at Huntington.

Mrs. Hattie Draggoo and Mrs. Will Goldsfith attended thee funeral of Mrs. Ella Hughes Sunday afternoon.

L. G. Fetters and wife entertained at Sunday dinner Mrs. Rosa Camp and Mr. Elza Jones, of Edon, Ohio, Mrs. Ora Baker, of Bluffton and Mrs. John Fetters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Jackson and daughter, Iris, and Mrs. C. Jackson and Mable, took Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson, also visited Mrs. Nan Lysher and Roy Maxwell homes.

Jeremiah Douglas, 83, died at the home of his son, Lloyd in Franklin township Monday morning of carcinoma of the liver, after ailing for the past year. His funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at Concord and burial was wade in Jenkine cemetery. Rev. Koehnlein officiating with Mrs. Mayola Kinsey in charge.

Marion Shearer, of Andernson, came Sunday evening to spend a few days in the Dell Dragoo home.

Mrs. George Johnson and family entertained Sunday Mrs. Hull and son and granddaughter, of Cedarville, Mr. and Mrs. Burdell Hull and family, of Sturgis, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Maurer, of near Garrett.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

The members of the tax adjustment board are John Zimmerman, of Auburn, chairman, Mayor Warren Lige, of Auburn, C. H. Heinzerling and Dr. J. A. Clevenger, of Garrett, Elmer D. Case, of Fairfield township, S. O. Devitt, of Wilmington township and Frank R. Bowman, of St. Joe. The board began its work Monday morning.

Adrian Miller, 69, of the Coletown neighborhood died suddenly Thursday afternoon of heart attack, as he was sitting in a chair. He is survived by his wife; two sons, Wellington, Chicago, and Harold at home; and three brothers, Will, Kendallville, Ind., and Holly and Grover, Hicksville. Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Scipio M. E. Church. Burial in Scipio cemetery.

There is no lead in a lead pencil

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

Most people believe that some form of lead is used in making lead pencils. Since their invention over 300 years ago they have been made from graphite, a form of carbon. The popular belief that they contain lead is just another example of misstatement winning belief.

Misstatements about our industry put forward by self-seeking agitators are common. Hence these letters giving you facts about our business.

On any fair method of valuation our securities are supported dollar for dollar by property values used in the public service. 2,700 persons own our preferred stock. Almost all of them are our customers. Our bonds and the equities behind our common stock are held largely by insurance companies, savings banks, and other institutions; so that your own savings or the reserves for your insurance policy may be supported by our securities.

H. T. Epsicl

Vice President & General Manager

IN 1933 THE INVESTMENT OF LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES IN PUBLIC UTILITY STOCKS AND BONDS AMOUNTED TO $1,800,000,000

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 367

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, SEPT. 20, 1934 — NUMBER 37

SCHOOL AHEAD— SLOW DOWN

During the summer months those warnings you see on country roads and in city streets, "School Ahead—slow Down!" or "School Ahead — Watch Out!" mean little to you. You know the buildings are closed and the youngsters scattered to all points of the compass, and you continue your speed without slackening.

Now, however, those signs have a grave significance. Throughout the country, thirty million children have again picked up their textbooks and readers and are busy at their schoolwork The signs are a vital warning to all motorists to watch out for the youngsters.

In spite of the efforts of school authorities and safety workers, automobile casualties still account for more child fatalities than any other accidental cause. Last year 4,100 boys and girls of school age were killed in such mishaps, and many thousands more were injured.

The evidence underlying the statistics appears to place the blame heavily on motorists, for the youngsters have shown a remarkable ability to watch out for themselves by observing safety rules and principles. I n five years, for example, while motor vehicle accidents involving adults have increased 34 per cent, those involving children have decreased 20 per cent.

It has been said that the achievement in the schools is the brightest spot in the entire safety movement. Children can be taught to respect and obey the rules of governing their own conduct in traffic, but they are helpless if careless motorists refuse to cooperate.

Motorists, take care for school children. The sign: "School Ahead—Slow Down!" is a driving commandment.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Kenneth Richmond of Newville entered school last week. The sophomores now number 38.

Teachers institute will be held in Auburn on Saturday, September 29th. The theme for this institute will be "Teaching Pupils How to Study."

Richard and Minta Davis withdrew from school last week. Their new home is in LaGrange, Illinois.

The commercial department now has a new Remington typewriter which has replaced in use one of the older machines.

The trustee has ordered ten new seats and desks to care for the increased enrollment in the senior high school this year.

Miss Rouls attended a conference of Vocational Home Economics teachers held at Huntington on last Friday afternoon and Saturday.

Pupils have been preparing work for entrance at the Auburn Fall Fair. School work will be displayed in the assembly room of the court house.

The P. T. A. is sponsoring a "canning day" at the school building today (Thursday) in the interest of the hot lunch service. Patrons and pupils have donated many vegetables and the P. T. A. ladies are very grateful for this response.

Athletic Association Reorganizes

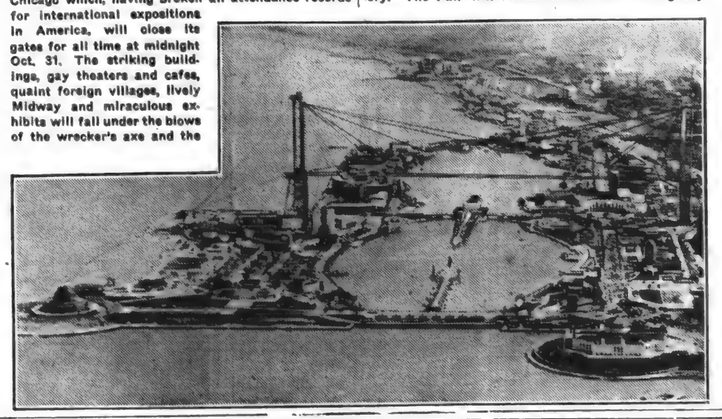
Eighty pupils of the junior and senior high schools expressed themselves as willing to become members of the athletic association this year and loyally back inter-school athletic relations. At 2:45 on last Friday afternoon these eighty pupils were assembled to conduct the regular election of officers and to approve class nominations for the Athletic Council.

Merlin Simanton was chosen president; Charles Thornton, vice president; John Kaellner secretary, and Eloise Draggoo is treasurer. Representatives on the Athletic Council are Keith Davis and Keith Wilmot of the senior class; Anna Richards and Ronald Borthwick of the sophomores; Harriett Yeiser and Harold Baker of the freshman class; Ruth Curie and Henry Snyder of the juniors.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

A Century of Progress Closes Forever Oct. 31

This is the airman's view of the World's Fair in Chicago which, having broken all attendance records for international expositions in America, will close its gates for all time at midnight Oct. 31. The striking buildings, gay theaters and cafes, quaint foreign villages, lively Midway and miraculous exhibits will fall under the blows of the wrecker's axe and the most spectacular of all Fairs will live only in memory. The Fair will remain intact until closing day.



NEW MANAGER AT TELEPHONE OFFICE

With the resignation of Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham as manager of the local telephone office, Miss Inez Kinsey took charge on Tuesday, with Josephine Bechtol as relief operator.

The past four years Mrs. Cunningham has served the patrons of St. Joe line excellently, rendering the quickest service possible. For seven years she has worked at this business.

They will be located at Hicksville for the present.

Local Briefs

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Craig Sheffer made a trip to Angola a few days ago for medical examination at the hospital.

Gross Income blanks now available at News office for filing your next returns, for individual, corporation or partnership.

George Bartlett, of Fort Wayne, spent several days the past week in the Harry Kees home, and while he was unable to walk about, he did see a number of his old friends, and it gave him a new lease on life.

Floyd Ridgway and wife took in the Fair at Chicago Saturday. Roy Reidenbach and family with relatives of Mishwaka, were there Saturday and Sunday, and so were O. K. Shull and wife, and perhaps others from round about this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Staman took Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sechler for a ride Sunday afternoon and as they were turning south out of Waterloo, a Ford car crashed into them at the point where 27 turns right or west, and turned them over into the ditch on the east side of the road. Bill intended to go south on the gravel road to inspect the crops. The women were bruised up considerable although not injured seriously. A tire, one wheel and fender were badly damaged.

One Cabinet Heater at $49. 37t1. Curie Hardware.

Roy Koch and family and Mrs. Alice Copp were at Bluffton Sunday, visiting in the Ora Baker home.

Sunday guests in the Harry Kees home were Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Graham, of Gas City, Ind., a Standard Oil Agent and particular friends of the Kees'; a Mr. Graham and wife and Mrs. Marlott, Van Buren, Ind.; Bessie Bartlett and J. C. Schneidler, of Fort Wayne.

Now that the campaign is under way and election day is approaching, AAA has begun widespread distribution of corn-hog checks. Pretty clever, considering AAA is reputedly a non-political organization. A check received in the fall has more political effect than one delivered in July.

Mrs. Alice Hart, of Coburn's Corners was a guest of Mrs. Jennie Abel from Tuesday of last week until Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Abel and Mrs. Jessie Benjamin, of Montpelier, O., were Tuesday supper guests, Mrs. S. D. Gee and Miss Lucille Gee were Wednesday supper guests, Mrs. Laney Gee and Mrs. B. S. Sheffer were Thursday dinner guests, the latter remaining for supper.

Upon the application of Goldie Shutt, Delbert Draggoo of R. R. 2, Auburn, has been appointed by Judge Endicott as administrator of the estate of the late Martin L. Hull, who died at Spencerville last April 5, leaving $150 in personal property and $1,000 in real estate. The heirs are three children, Goldie Shutt, of Spencerville, Ed U. Hull of Palm Springs, Calif., and C. Marie Palemr, of Monroeville. Mr. Draggoo filed $300 bond, with Goldie Shutt and Frank E. Draggoo as sureties. Notice of appointment appears elsewhere in this issue.

A surprise party was given in honor of Jean Ridgway's fifteenth birthday Monday evening, Sept. 17. Games were played, refreshments of apples, candy and pop corn were served. Those present were Jean Ridgway, Vernell Copp, Eloise Coburn, Effiebell Freeburn, Ersa Reidenbach, Mary Steward, Edythe Stewart, Louise Sechler, Helen Tustison, Clara Wiers, Harriett Yeiser, Kathryn Young, Leonard Curie, Walter Ervin, Ronald Borthwick, Carl Goodwin, Earl Kinsey, Romy McSorley, Charles Thornton, Wayne Storer, George Walter, DeVere Woodcox and Wilbur Swander.

Roofing, Heavy Asphalt, Green Slate at Curie Hardware. 37t1.

F. G. Gauntt transacted business in Fort Wayne, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brannan and daughter, Shirley Mae spent Friday in the E. B. Smith home.

The Mesdames Wm. Randall and Frank Tustison took dinner Wednesday at the Geo. Tustison home, east of town.

Mrs. E. B. Smith and son, William, spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crane at Tilton, Ill., where Mr. Smith is employed by the Wabash Co.

The City National bank of Auburn, has sued Joe E. Wyatt and Wm. M. Long in the DeKalb circuit court on a note for $57 executed last April 17 and due in sixty days. The demand is for $100. Russel R. Ridenour is the plaintiff's attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee received word Wednesday morning that Mrs. A. R. Zimmerman who resides at Grant, Mich., was in the hospital at Fremont, Mich., where she underwent an operation last week. She is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mr. W. W. Hollipeter and Mr. Rush Hollipeter, of Blytheville, Ark., Mrs. Clara Greenawald and brother, Mr. Jerry Garber, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott and Miss Nadine Scott, of Alliance, Ohio, and Harold and Joan Curie were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee.

IN MEMORIAM

William H. Randall

In loving remembrance of my dear husband, who passed away September 17, 1933.

There is one who misses you sadly
And finds the time long since you went:
There is one who thinks of you always
And tries to be brave and content.
Wife.

R. H. C.

Mrs. Fred Hart very pleasantly entertained the R. H. C. at Cold Springs on last Tuesday. She was assisted by Mrs. Pluma Hamilton.

After the business and social hour the guests were invited outside where a fine fire was burning ready for us to roast weiners. We were then served coffee, doughnuts, pickles and melon.

Those present were Mesdames Mildred Curie, Minnie Gee, Leone Mason, Inez Hadsell, Hazel Washler, Dora Wilder, Gladys Hart, Grace Laub, Bernice Wilder, Elenora Crothers, Marie Trostel, Lillian Scholes, Edna Jenkins and Troas Carpenter.

Everyone left expressing thanks to our hostess for a good time. If you want to know about the fire works ask Fred Hart and Will Hamilton and if you want fish see John Crothers.

One who was there.

METHODIST PROTESTANT

There will be church services at the M. P. Church neyt Sunday evening at 8:30 D. S. T. The sermon subject will be "Christianity and Evolution, or Men, Monkeys, and The Missing Link." All young people are given a special invitation to attend. Rev. Koehnlein, pastor.

BIRTH

Sally Ann Shuff, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shuff, Friday morning. Sally Ann is the ninth child in the family.

FARMERS HAVING FLOUR DUE THEM MAY CALL FOR IT AT THEIR CONVENIENCE.
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Leighty Orchard
ST. JOE, INDIANA
Make Apple Butter in your own kitchen and you will know what is in ia.
Make Jelly from the juice of any fruit combined with apples and it will always "JELL." When you open a you open a can of fruit this winter make jelly with the extra juice. Don't waste it.
CIDER VINEGAR HONEY
NO SALES ON SUNDAY

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN O F REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE Us REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

Huber Theatre
HICKSVILLE, OHIO
Friday, Saturday, September 21-22
"ONE MORE RIVER"
—WITH—
Diana Wynyard – Frank Lawton
The dramatic story of a woman who married the wrong man.
Also added Attractions
Sunday and Monday September 23-24
"MAN OF TWO FACES"
Edward G. Robison – Mary Astor
Special Added Attraction
"Look- -Silver Lining"
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday September 25-26-27
"The GIRL of the LIMBERLOST"
Ralph Morgon – Marion Marsh
Louise Dresser
It will be enjoyed by millions who have read the book.
Other Added Attractions

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

ANNIVERSARY SALE
Commemorating the THIRD ANNIVERSARY of the CENTRAL GROCERY, SPENCERVILLE, INDIANA, for ONE WEEK
—BEGINNING—
September 19 - 26 Inclusive

Special Items for the Week:

10 lb SUGAR, 54c; 25 lb for $1.38
WHITE STAR FLOUR, per sack 87c
FAMO PANCAKE FLOUR, 5 pound bag at 23c
Boscul Coffee, 2 pounds for - 57c
CENTRAL BLEND COFFEE, per pound 19c
Monarch Cake Flour - - 23c
BAKING POWDER, glass jars 12c
POST TOASTIES, per box 10c
BULK COCOANUT, per pound 23c
PERFECT PEARS, No. 2½ can, 2 for only 39c
Pork and Beans and Red Kidney Beans, 6 cans for 25c
PINK SALMON, 2 cans for 25c
MUSTARD, 44 ounce jar for 23c
Monarch Jello, 3 packages - 13c
MASON FRUIT JARS, Pint 68c Doz; Quart at 78c
Fruit Jar Rings, 6 packages - 23c
ARGO GLOSS STARCH, 3 pound for 23c
KIRK'S Hardwater Castile Soap, 6 bars for 25c
CRYSTAL WHITE Laundry Soap, 6 bars for 19c
SUPER SUDS, 3 packages for 23c
All 10c Toilet Articles 2 for - - 17c
TOWLING, 5 yards for 43c
DRESS PRINTS, 5 yards for only 68c
OUTING FLANNEL, 5 yards for 72c
CANVAS GLOVES, 3 pairs for 25c
GENTS WORK SOCKS, 2 pairs for 25c

Central Grocery, Spencerville.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 368

TRUE DETECTIVE STORY by Vance Wynn © Public Ledger

The Case of Hannah Brown

THIS is a tragedy which began with the finding of the trunk of a body in Paddington, London, on the day after Christmas, 1836.

That ghastly thing meant nothing, and in those days there was no organized or specialized police force to run down crime.

Constable Haines went on the job, however, with all of the enthusiasm characteristic of a Nineteenth-century Sherlock Holmes.

On the following day he found a human head in the Regent's canal. Next a pair of legs were discovered and finally two arms.

All of these parts, it was found, belonged to the same person, and that person a woman.

The head was placed in alcohol, in a glass case, for purposes of identification.

It had been on exhibition for many weeks when a workman named John Gay strolled into the impromptu morgue.

His sister, Hannah Brown, had disappeared the day before Christmas, and had not been seen since.

This typical cockney took a look at the head preserved in alcohol, and then exclaimed, with true lower-class British stolidity:

"Well, I'm blowed if it ain't Hannah!"

Constable Haines then busied himself in running down the life story of Hannah Brown.

He found a man named Harry Davis who recalled the woman.

Davis said Hannah had called on him on the day before Christmas and told him that she was engaged to marry James Greenacra, who lived near Kensington.

That was a good enough clew for Haines.

He started for that neighborhood at once, and eventually located Greenacre on the Surrey side of the Thames in the parish of Camberwell.

He was living with a woman named Sarah Gale, who had a young daughter. Greenacre stoutly denied any knowledge of Hannah Brown.

He said he had never met the woman, much less promised to marry her.

But while Haines was talking to Greenacre he noticed a significant glance pass between the suspect and the woman.

He saw something else.

It was a dress the child was wearing.

The material of which this was made corresponded with the stuff they had found wrapped around the trunk of Hannah Brown when it was discovered in Paddington.

Being a very conscientious as well as a very direct person, Constable Haines arrested James Greenacre and Sarah Gale, and left the matter of their guilt to be decided by the coroner's inquest.

The coroner turned the case over to the court and the trial took place in the Old Bailey, adjoining the annex to Newgate prison.

It is interesting to note that Chief Justice Coleridge presided.

A witness appeared who testified that he had seen Greenacre going into the house of Sarah Gale with a woman on the day before Christmas.

This woman was tall and in every particular resembled Hannah Brown.

He also swore that some time afterward Greenacre left the house carrying a bulky and heavy bundle in a large, blue merino bag.

Two other witnesses testified that they had heard a quarrel going on in the house during the time Hannah Brown was there.

There was a scuffling and much noise, and finally a sound of some one dropping to the floor.

It was proved that Sarah Gale was seen scrubbing the floor immediately after Greenacre left, and detectives completed the capstone of evidence by testifying that brimstone had been used in the house for the purpose of fumigation.

Two motives were assigned for the crime.

First, jealousy on the part of Sarah Gale, and secondly, robbery, because Hannah Brown had not only been killed but robbed.

The jury convicted Greenacre, and before he was executed he confessed his guilt.

There was doubt about Sarah Gale, and she was merely transported for life.

WNU Service.

"Myrrh"

"Myrrh" is a perennial branching herb some two feet in height with finely divided pubescent leaves and small white flowers arranged in umbels. The fruit is like a large caraway seed about an inch long; smooth but strongly ribbed. The fruit and other parts of the plant have a sweet aromatic odor that has given it the name "Myrrh." It is not the true myrrh of perfumes which is the gum of a tropical tree, Balsamedendron myrrha.

Finland Wet Land

Finland lies between continental Russia and peninsular Scandinavia. The land is not considered rich from the agricultural standpoint, 60 to 65 per cent of it being wet, poorly drained land, lakes and peat bogs. It was through the wet land that the French name, Suomi, meaning swamp, was applied to the country. It has been adopted as a national name by the Finns.

Whale Harpooned and Shot Off Long Island

THIS fourteen-foot whale was harpooned and then shot, by five fishermen who encountered the huge mammal ten miles off Fire Island inlet, Long Island. After destroying the monster the fishermen hauled their great catch into Lindenhurst.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

A LOVING MATE BUT POOR HOUSEKEEPER

"IT'S TIME for my dust bath," said Mourner the Dove to Peter Rabbit, as the latter sat thinking over what Mourner had just told him about eating gravel as an aid to digestion. "There is a dusty spot over in the Long Lane where I take a dust bath every day," continued Mourner.

"If you don't mind," said Peter, "I'll go with you."

Mourner said he didn't mind, so Peter followed him over to the dusty place in the Long Lane. There Mourner was joined by Mrs. Mourner, who was dressed very much like him save that she did not have as beautiful a neck. While they thoroughly dusted themselves they chatted with Peter.

"I see you on the ground so much that I've often wondered if you build your nest on the ground," said Peter.

"No," replied Mourner, "Mrs. Dove builds in a tree, but usually not far above the ground. Now, if you'll excuse us we must get back home. Mrs. Dove has two eggs to sit on, and while

"Now, if You Will Excuse Us, We Must Be Getting Back Home."

she is sitting, I like to be close at hand to keep her company and make love to her."

The Doves shook the loose dust from their feathers and flew away. Peter watched to see where they went, but lost sight of them behind some trees, so decided to run up to the Old Orchard. There he found Jenny and Mr. Wren as busy as ever feeding that growing family of theirs. Jenny wouldn't stop an instant to gossip. Peter was so brim full of what he had found out about Mr. and Mrs. Dove that he just had to tell some one. He heard Kitty the Catbird among the bushes along the Old Stone Wall, so hurried over to look for him. As soon as he found him, Peter began to tell what he had learned about Mourner the Dove.

"That's no news, Peter," interrupted Kitty. "I know all about Mourner and his wife. They are very nice people, though I must say that Mrs. Dove is one of the poorest housekeepers I know of. I take it you never have seen her nest."

Peter shook his head. "No," said he, "I haven't. What is it like?"

Kitty the Catbird laughed. "It's about the poorest apology for a nest I know of," said he. "It is made of little sticks and mighty few of them. How they hold together is more than I can understand. I guess it is a good thing that Mrs. Dove doesn't lay more than two eggs, and it's a wonder to me that those two stay in the nest. Listen! There's Mourner's voice now. For one happy he certainly does have the mournfulest sounding voice. To hear him you'd think he was sorrowful instead of happy. It always makes me feel sad to hear him."

"That's true," replied Peter, "but I like to hear him just the same. Hello! Who's that?"

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

NOW IS THE TIME

NOW is the time when each fruit comes into the market to have at hand a few of the delectable recipes which have waited for them. While the fresh berries are plentiful prepare them for the winter when jellies, jams and preserves of all kinds are so much enjoyed.

Spiced Rhubarb.

Put into the preserving kettle six cupfuls of rhubarb peeled and cut into small pieces, one cupful of seeded raisins, one cupful of apple vinegar, four cupfuls of sugar, one teaspoonful of cinnamon and one-half teaspoonful of clove. Bring slowly to the boiling point and let simmer until of the consistency of marmalade. Put into glasses and seal with paraffin. If the vinegar is very strong dilute it with water.

English Gooseberry Pie.

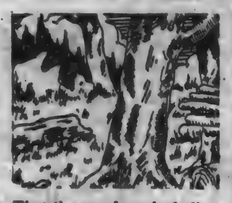
Line the side only of a deep pie dish with rich paste. Fill with one quart of ripe gooseberries which have been stemmed and cleaned, pour boiling water over the berries and drain and cool. Add one and one-half tablespoonfuls of butter and one-third cupful of currant jelly. Moisten the edge of the pie with cold water and spread a top crust with a few perforations in the center. Flute the rim and bake forty minutes. Serve turned upside down on a platter. Serve with hard sauce.

Baked Peaches.

Select large ripe peaches for baking. Peel, cut into halves and remove stones from the peaches. In the cavity place a seeded raisin, one teaspoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of butter and a sprinkle of mace. Bake slowly in a moderate oven until the peaches are soft. Serve on rounds of sponge cake with sweetened cream.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Do YOU Know—



That the wood not including wood fuel used annually by the United States, if nailed together, would make an Atlantic City boardwalk reaching from the earth to the moon. In lumberman's language, this would total about 53,000,000,000 feet (square feet one inch thick).

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN... The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I read in the newspaper that a well-known shoemaker was arrested for bigamy. He has two wives. The verdict is that he must give one some money, and live with the other. Which wife do you think he'll live with, his first or second wife?

Yours truly,
MARY WONGE.

Answer: If he is a shoemaker, as you say, and if he is a good shoemaker, he will stick to his last.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

The other day I was laid flat on my back by an attack of "peritonitis." Now I am unable to work. What shall I do?

Sincerely,
N. VALID.

Answer: Report to the government at once that you have been attacked by "peritonitis." Something should be done to teach a lesson to these foreigners.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I live in a little town in which is situated the state insane asylum. They have a tower on the main building with a large clock in it, but the clock is always one or two hours too early or too late. Do you think it is proper to have a clock that isn't right in a state institution?

Yours truly,
I. M. KNUTTY.

Answer: It is perfectly proper in the case you mention. The reason they have that clock in the insane asylum is because it is not right.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I hear that Mussolini has insured the thumb on his right hand for $100,000. How can his right thumb be so valuable?

Yours truly,
I. TALIAN.

Answer: It is probably the thumb he keeps the people under.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a girl eighteen years of age and a boy the same age is going to call on me tomorrow night. I guess I'm a little too old-fashioned for these modern boys. What I want to know is this: If he kisses me shall I scream for my family?

Yours truly,
HOPE HEESGOOD.

Answer: Not unless you want him to kiss them, too.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

My uncle, a man about forty years of age, has a habit I cannot understand. Every night just before he gets into his bed he puts some money under his pillow. Can you tell me why?

Sincerely,
AL E. GATOR.

Answer: That is very simple. He puts money under his pillow so he feels that he has something to fall back on.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Can you tell me what became of the little fellow who used to sell papers at Forty-second and Broadway? I mean the little fellow with one eye named Cherley.

Truly yours,
FULLER PRUNES.

Answer: Tell me the name of his other eye and I will try to find him for you.

© the Associated Newspapers WNU Service.

Thank God for a Friend Like You

By ANNE CAMPBELL

THANK God for a friend like you
In bitter days!
Your handclasp is firm and true,
And staunch your ways.

Though shadows are bleak upon
The morning skies,
I glimpse the first hint of dawn
Deep in your eyes.

Thank God for a friend like you!
In joy or pain,
A bird soars into the blue!
I dream again!

Hope arches a rainbow high
In the day's design!
Thank God, as Time marches by,
You're a friend of mine!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Gingham for School

Gingham seems to be the thing for young misses to wear to school this year. Carmencita Johnson, a featured young player of the screen, is seen wearing a charming gingham dress which she wears during the four hours she must attend school daily while working on a picture.

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says the world would be better off if autograph hunters were as persistent as all that in a better cause.

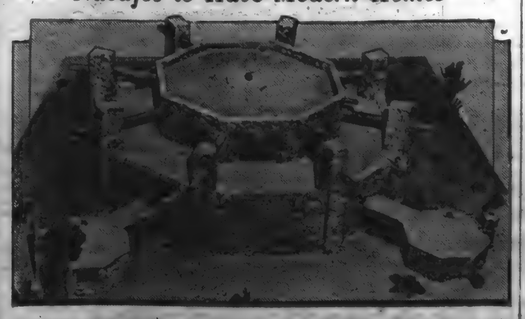
WNU Service.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what is sentiment?"
"Damp sponge."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Navajos to Have Modern Homes



ADOBE buildings with steam heating, watertight roofing and steel window frames in the modern manner will be features of the new capital on the Navajo Indian reservation in Arizona. The building of the Navajo capital is being financed by a Public Works administration allotment of $960,000. The photograph shows what one of the dwelling units will look like when finished.

BRAINIEST ANIMAL

Association with man evidently does not help an animal to increase its intelligence, according to reports. In a controversy regarding the intelligence of the animal world, the claims of the cat, dog and horse were summarily dismissed on the ground that they learn their feats and tricks by the trial and error method, much as man learns to ride a bicycle without applying any brain power. A well-known psychologist championed the chimpanzee as his animal intellectual. Then an official of an animal institution drew attention to the beaver's ingenuity. But neither of these animals, according to a group of German psychologists, possesses the mentality of the elephant. And what of the ant?

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Similar in Character

So many of our sorrows are psychological; and aren't our joys?

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

A Few Drops Every Night and Morning Will Promote a Clean, Healthy Condition!

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dpt. W, Chicago, for Free Book

Send in a PICTURE

Win $3.00

We Will Pay $3.00 for Each Picture Accepted by Us and Used

Send in Photographs of:

[1] Modern small town business district on a busy day.
[2] Modern interior of independent store.
[3] Picture of a modern window display.
[4] Pictures of residential section—homes.
[5] Farm scenes and farm homes.

Unaccepted pictures will be returned if accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

JAMES A. BOYD
210 S. Desplaines St. CHICAGO

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Restores Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair 60c and $1.00 at Druggists.

Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO — Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

Eruptions on Scalp Itched and Burned

Healed by Cuticura

"My sister's skin became itchy and, before long, sore eruptions began to appear on her face and scalp. They were red and soon began to weep. We thought she would have to have her hair cut and be bald. Her scalp itched and burned, causing her to irritate it by scratching.

"She began to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment. The first week the eruptions became fewer and in two weeks she was healed and no sign of her trouble can be seen." (Signed) Mrs. Emma Youska, 706 Monterey St., McKeesport, Pa., April 12, 1934.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25c and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corp., Malden, Mass.—Adv.

320 Acres, Deal Corn, Alfalfa Land, 4 houses, 3 barns, $30 per acre, terms 5½%. 270 cultivated. Crops good. 2½ miles high school, railroad town Southeast Missouri. Milder climate, greater variety crops. Average annual rainfall 47 inches well distributed. Formerly $100 land. Selling cheap settle receivership. Such lands bringing $8 to $10 rents. Other farms cheap. CALEB SMITH, 5619 Enright, St. Louis, Mo.

SORES AND LUMPS—My Secret Book Write for Free 100 Page Book Dr. Boyd Williams, Madison, Wisc.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

L 369

EMILY'S LIZARD

By R. H. WILKINSON

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

MRS. EMILY METCALF is a gushy sort of person.

She also coos very well.

Last month I met her on Tremont street.

I say "met." Perhaps I should say "ambushed."

Having observed her when some distance away I shamelessly stepped into a doorway to avoid meeting her.

Unfortunately the door was locked, and whereas I suddenly became intensely interested in the vague printing on its soiled glass, I was trapped.

Mrs. Metcalf espied me.

I should have known better than to attempt escaping her.

"How do you do! My dear, it's ages—ages since I've seen you. You've grown thinner? I do think you have. And younger looking. Much. . . . Such a becoming tie! . . . Now, if I were a bit younger . . . But there, what would your wife say if she heard me talking like this . . ."

That's how she is.

Always trying to say the right thing; nearly always failing.

She's one of those persons who excite your wonder.

You wonder if she's serious, you wonder if about everything she says isn't superficial.

She pretends to be well read, to have broad intelligence about any matter that might be under discussion.

She has social aspirations.

She caters to people who have family backing, wealth or social prominence.

• • •

Three days after my chance meeting with Mrs. Metcalf I met her again, at a party held by some mutual friends.

The party was given in honor of one Miguel Rosalia de Villareal. Miguel, I learned, was a descendant of Spanish nobility, a cousin of a one-time president of Mexico, a son of a wealthy Mexican rancher.

In fact, Miguel was quite a guy. He was tall and dark and slender and intelligent looking.

It wasn't surprising to find, upon being introduced to Miguel, that Mrs. Emily Metcalf had already had that honor and that she had claimed him for the evening. (Mrs. Metcalf, it must be explained, is a widow of five years standing.)

But it was genuinely surprising when toward the end of the evening I discovered that Miguel had not succeeded in ridding himself of the gushy Emily.

In fact, he seemed quite attentive to her, quite pleased with her company.

This was puzzling, as the Mex looked to me like a pretty bright chap.

• • •

Miguel remained in Newton for a period of two months. And during that time he was a frequent caller at the home of Mrs. Emily Metcalf. But never again did he appear with her in public.

For a time the thing was a mystery, for Miguel was honored during his brief visit to our city at dozens of public functions, and still more private affairs.

Yet, somehow, Mrs. Metcalf was never included in the private affairs and seemed unaware of the public events until after they were over.

The mystery remained a mystery until the very day of Miguel's departure. And then it was explained only to my satisfaction.

However, I will set down here the happenings as they occurred up to the date of Miguel's departure.

On the day following that first party at which Mrs. Metcalf had been presented to the descendant of Spanish nobility, Miguel was seen to approach the door of Mrs. Metcalf's home. He was admitted by the lady herself.

Five minutes later he departed.

• • •

Ten minutes after that, Mrs. Metcalf scurried across the street to Mrs. Hodgson's house, her face fairly beaming with excitement.

"Whatever do you suppose has happened? Imagine!"

Mrs. Hodgson compressed her lips. "I can't guess. What?"

"Miguel, the dear boy, has given me a present!"

"A present? What kind of a present?"

"A lizard!"

Mrs. Hodgson blinked her eyes.

"A lizard!"

Emily nodded.

"Isn't it just too thrilling? He says it's a very rare lizard which he brought up from Mexico. He says if I take good care of it, it will do strange things."

Two days later Miguel again called on Mrs. Metcalf, and after his departure the widow flew across the street to Mrs. Hodgson's.

"Imagine what has happened! Just imagine!"

"I can't," said Mrs. Hodgson. "What?"

"It's the lizard. He's twice as big as he was yesterday. Think of it! Twice as big in a day's time!"

Mrs. Hodgson was as perplexed as the rest of us about this lizard business, but she reported faithfully all that happened.

Miguel called on Mrs. Metcalf on an average of once every two days.

Twice she saw him approach the house after dark when Mrs. Metcalf was away, hence we were reasonably sure that none of his visits were prearranged.

• • •

And each day Mrs. Metcalf came across the street to report the tremendous strides in the growth of her lizard.

Twice Mrs. Hodgson went over to look at the strange beast.

On the last occasion she fled in mortal terror. For the lizard had grown, in two weeks' time, into a full-sized crocodile, and was chained up in a pen in Mrs. Metcalf's cellar.

Mrs. Metcalf's delight was something to wonder at.

"And to think," she'd say, "only two weeks ago he was a little bit of a fellow that you could hold in the palm of your hand."

It was all very puzzling.

We didn't know whether the woman had gone insane or not.

But facts were facts. There was a lizard. Mrs. Hodgson had seen it. And Miguel didn't deny that he was the donor. But, on the other hand, lizards don't grow into man-eating crocodiles in two weeks' time.

We agreed it was a very rare species.

Suddenly a change came over Mrs. Metcalf.

For more than a week Mrs. Hodgson saw nothing of her, although Miguel was seen making his usual calls at the house.

After two more days had passed, Mrs. Hodgson decided to run over and see if things were all right. It was, I am inclined to believe, curiosity as much as concern, that prompted the act.

Mrs. Hodgson found Emily in a state of utter despair. There were deep rings under her eyes, a haggard look about her face. Questioned, she replied it was the lizard. Mrs. Hodgson was aghast.

"The lizard? What's happened to the lizard?"

"He's growing smaller. Every day he reduces in size, quite as fast as he increased."

• • •

Mrs. Hodgson became alarmed. She wondered whether or not it were best to summon a doctor.

But upon being shown the lizard she was forced to agree that its size had shrunk. It was no longer a crocodile. In fact, it was nothing more than a fair-sized lizard.

Thereafter Mrs. Hodgson made daily trips across the street. And each day she reported that the lizard was growing smaller and smaller.

It was truly a remarkable thing.

It was alarming, too, because with each passing day Emily became more haggard looking. She had lost her gushy and cooing ways. She grew morose and taciturn.

And then, one day Mrs. Hodgson came over and discovered Emily on the floor in a dead faint. Quite concerned with the widow's plight, Mrs. Hodgson did what she could and at last revived the victim.

Immediately upon regaining consciousness, Emily burst into a fit of weeping.

After considerable questioning she announced that the lizard had become so small as to be scarcely discernible, and then had vanished altogether. She admitted, also, that Miguel was angry and had said he would not come to see her any more.

• • •

Miguel remained in town two weeks longer. He had become tremendously popular and was discovered to be quite a fun-loving and social sort of person.

On the last day of his stay I dropped in at his apartment to say farewell and was surprised to find the place filled with a number of boxes in sizes varying from one an inch square to another ten feet high. Miguel was industriously pounding slats over the top of the largest.

He grinned at me and winked.

"I've been so darned busy it's just now I've found time to send these things back."

"What things?" I asked.

He beckoned to me and I looked in one of the boxes. At sight of a great crocodile reposing inside I drew away in some alarm.

Miguel and I stared at each other for some time. Finally he said: "Down in Mexico we go to great extents to have our fun."

He grinned, and I extended my hand. "Friend," I said, "come visit us again."

Jiu-Jitsu Rough Sport

The jiu-jitsu bout of Japan is the roughest two-man sport. All kinds of fouls are permitted and broken necks and ankles, dislocated hips and shoulders and torn tendons are not uncommon. When a combatant is in a painful grip and about to receive a disabling injury, he is supposed to give in and end the round. Rather than face this humiliation, however, he sometimes allows himself to be punished to the point of insensibility.—Collier's Weekly.

A Well of Grease

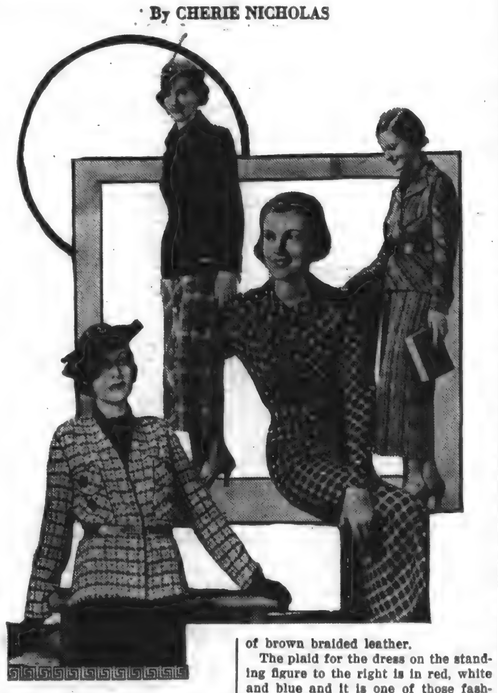
For a number of years a freak oil well near Lamar, Okla., has produced grease at an average rate of 350 barrels daily. It is thought to be the only well of its kind in the world and has made its owner a fortune. The well is 3,170 feet deep. All other wells drilled in the neighborhood have turned out to be "dusters." When it reaches the surface the grease is a dark green, but turns to a brilliant golden yellow when struck by outside air.

Cause of Rain and Snow

All the rain and snow that falls is present in the atmosphere because the heat of the sun, plus the lower heat of the earth, causes water to evaporate and turn from its liquid form into water vapor. Anything which lowers the temperature cuts down this rate of evaporation. Thus in winter the moisture content of the air is generally less than in the summer as measured by the humidity.

Plaid for Style-Wise College Girl

By CHERIE NICHOLAS



PLAIDS to the right, plaids to the left, plaids everywhere in the autumn style pageant, did one ever see so many plaids as are flaunting their gay colors and bold patternings throughout fashion's realm this season? Plaids in alluring lightweight woolens, in smart rayon weaves, stunning taffeta plaids and knitted plaids, too, they are all among "those present" in the early fall collections with very special emphasis given them in the much-featured showings of campus fashions.

Evidently, according to the fall style program, the college girl is supposed to dine, to dance, to play golf and tennis, to motor, to study and even to sleep in plaids. Not fiction but fact, this about sleeping in plaids, for one of the smartest items to enroll in a college wardrobe is a sleeping and lounging pajama outfit of gay plaid. The most practical are made of smart cotton prints which are styled with cunningly designed tunics which are made delightfully feminine, with such dainty details as collar and cuffs of scalloped white organdie piped with the plaid, together with a wide sash of the plaid material which ties gypsy fashion in a big romantic bow at one side.

A leading question put up to the college girl is as to whether she will have her frock, suit or ensemble of all-plaid "alone by itself" or shall it be partly of plaid and partly of a weave in solid color. Either or both is the answer, for the advance showings present as convincing arguments in favor of one as the other. An outstanding fashion is the dress which is tailored of all-plaid with not a frill or furbelow to mar its sophisticated simplicity. You see the idea illustrated to the right in the picture. The girl seated is also wearing a frock of this type, in brown and light beige, made in shirtwaist fashion. The buttons are of brown braided leather.

The plaid for the dress on the standing figure to the right is in red, white and blue and it is one of those fashionable thin woolen weaves which is delightsomely lightweight and therefore pleasing to wear in the classroom. A bright blue belt and scarf enter attractively into the color scheme. As a matter of fact the two-piece dress tailored of plaid is not only a college girl favorite, for whether you go to school, to office or saunter about town during the shopping hours a plaid frock's the thing this season which interprets chic at its smartest.

Tremendously clever things are being done with plaid plus plain. Such as the topping of a black velveteen skirt with a striking plaid jacket such as is shown in the foreground of the group. The plaid wool jacket is in black, green and white with black calf belt. The modish beret is of green duvetyn and of course, in answer to the demand of present-day millinery fashion, it needs must sport a dashing little feather. The blouse, which you cannot see in the picture, is of matching green duvetyn. An ascot scarf of black velveteen adds the finishing touch to this ensemble.

In the charming autumn costume pictured to the left above the order is reversed in that the skirt is plaid and the jacket is in the solid color. Here a dark brown cut-velvet jacket surmounts a skirt in plaided brown, green and beige. The turtle-neck blouse is of green jersey. The color combination for this costume is noteworthy since it is typical of the newest trends. There is a disposition on the part of designers to combine any number of rich autumn colors working out effects which flavor of the picturesque Alpine costumes even to the soft felt hats with their audacious little quills and feathers.

And have you seen the perfectly stunning velveteen and corduroy prints done in bold plaids and checks? No college girl once glimpsing them, will not be able to resist this temptation.

© Western Newspaper Union.

AUTUMN CHIC

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The new tweeds are simply stunning both as to color and novelty in texture and weave. The latest suit models styled of tweed have both a jacket and a long topcoat. Unless you have already proved it to your own satisfaction you have no idea how really useful and practical these three-piece suits are. The model pictured is in a very swagger-looking brown, beige and red checked tweed. The long mannish topcoat can be worn as a separate fall wrap. The square patch pockets on the jacket are distinctive.

"BUTCHER BOY BACK" IS MUCH IN FAVOR

Possibly you have never thought of your butcher as a very stylish person. Now we have Mainbocher's "the butcher boy back." It's a loose back gathered from a shallow shoulder yoke. The front of this jacket or tunic, whichever it happens to be, is belted. Belted front and unbelted backs are regarded with favor by all who have seen this new arrangement. It adds an extra fillip to the two-piece costume, which is, as you know, one of the season's latest pets. Since so many women find difficulty in wearing belts well, the partially belted idea is a life saver.

Tunics have a long way to go before they catch up to their reputation. We've been hearing about tunics consistently, but that's as far as one can truthfully say the idea has gone. With the two-piece idea having the endorsement of the haute couture, there is every reason to see the tunic coming in vogue at last.

Collars This Fall to Be Worn Close to the Throat

Fall collars are something to watch. Most of them snug fairly close to the throat, big pilgrim collars, high roll collars and wide revers all being seen. Sleeves on the straighter coats are often large at the top, while those on the looser, shorter designs generally display fullness near the wrist. Belts are in again, since coats are lapping well in front, and many a late mid-season model is snugged about the figure by a narrow belt hardly an inch wide.

Hosiery Shades

Hosiery colors that will be most important for street wear this fall are dusky browns, taupe tones, smoke and gunmetal shades. For formal evening wear either skin tones or very dark shades in gossamer sheer will be worn.

Yesterday's Song

By THAYER WALDO

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

"MY DEAR!" Hortense came swiftly forward to greet Lavinia, hands outstretched. "How lovely you look! You know, I'm perfectly thrilled at giving this announcement party for you. Everyone's going to consider it a brilliant match, I know. Besides, you'll make so many women envious and disappoint so many men."

Lavinia's smile seemed a trifle forced.

"Thank you," she said; "you're sweet to have thought of it. Have you—that is, do the others know?"

Hortense laughed lightly.

"Certainly not, darling! I wouldn't dream of spoiling such a dramatic surprise. I've planned to keep it until after luncheon. Do you mind?"

"Oh, no!"

Chattily Hortense went on: "I made this an affair just for women because I couldn't bear to think of all the males in Hollywood overcome by despair right here in my house. I really don't believe you know, Vin, how you've captured hearts in these last six months. Why, you've become such a radiantly different person. Is it your success in pictures, or Felix?"

"I don't know. Perhaps it's just that I've grown into the habit of acting and carry it on away from the studio, too."

After a quick glance at her, Hortense casually remarked:

"Well, whatever's the answer, you've blossomed marvelously. I remember when I first met you, how forlorn and unhappy you seemed. I realized later that was because you'd just separated from Raoul. But time heals all wounds, doesn't it?"

"Yes, I suppose it does."

"By the way," the hostess pursued, "have you ever heard from him since?"

Lavinia's golden head shook a slow negative.

"Not directly. I heard that he gave up his job to come here when I stayed, but I've never seen him; he didn't even appear at the divorce hearing."

Beyond the French windows, upon the broad lawn, were spaced a dozen or more daintily appointed tables. Soft music sounded faintly.

"Oh, how delightful!" Lavinia cried. "An orchestra, too?"

"Yes," Hortense said, leading her onto the terrace; "I thought it might be nice, and it's patriotic. They're a little group from the artists' bureau of the unemployment relief agency. Ah, there's Mrs. Fiberg; excuse me a moment, will you?"

Lavinia wasn't conscious of her going, nor of anything else in that thronged scene save the one figure she had suddenly glimpsed. There beneath the acacia tree he stood, brown hair windblown, baton moving deftly in his long fingers as he led the musicians. Raoul! Silently her lips formed the name, as a brief wave of mixed feeling swept her. Then Hortense was beside her once more, introducing someone. . . .

For the next quarter hour she had no chance even to glance in his direction. But, moving among the guests to exchange social amenities, her thoughts were constantly of him.

At last Hortense guided her to the table where they would have luncheon. It was within a few yards of Raoul and his men. She had been seated but a moment when from behind her burst forth the rich, wild strains of "Dark Eyes" played upon a violin. Her heart missed a beat, only to resume with a furious pounding that drove the hot blood into her throat and temples. He had seen her, then, for this was their love song—the one he had played that first night they spoke of love.

"Why, dear girl!" Hortense was leaning anxiously toward her. "You've scarcely eaten a morsel. Don't tell me I've been stupid enough to have things you dislike!"

Lavinia smiled, murmured something in denial, and mechanically picked up a fork. An instant more and Raoul's instrument was still.

Hortense finally suggested they go indoors for demi-tasse and liqueurs. Lavinia rose resolutely, and without a look behind started across the grass. She had heard the quiet clatter and rustle of departure among the musicians; shortly they would be gone and this fantastic interlude but a memory. Soon Raoul would be out of her life again and everyone would hear of her engagement to Felix Aaronson, the brilliant young producer. . . .

She reached the portico last; the others had all gone in. An insistent impulse gripped her and she turned. Alone by the acacia's sleek trunk was Raoul, violin yet in hand. A mask of infinite sad bitterness was upon his face. The deep gray eyes gazed toward her, brooding.

Lavinia's sob was barely audible. Over the close-trimmed turf she ran swiftly to the man beneath the tree.

• • •

Miss Prout found Hortense seated by herself in a far corner of the music room, sipping chartreuse and smoking.

"Oh, I've been looking for you!" rattled Miss Prout. "Here's the announcement you asked me to type. Will you want to read it now?"

"No," replied Hortense, smiling just a bit; "no, I shan't, Georgia. You may as well tear it up. The lady it concerns was unexpectedly called away because of—of some music—some music I took the liberty to arrange for her. She may be detained—well, indefinitely."

FROCK THAT HAS DOUBLE PURPOSE

PATTERN 9929

This frock—cut in large sizes—makes a point of creating a slim silhouette for the mature or "not-too-slender" figure. The unbelted waistline and surplice bodice do the trick perfectly. The sleeves are flared and most comfortable, and the large rever is smart fashioned of contrast. Appropriate for mornings or afternoons, according to the fabrics you choose—tubbable cottons for the mornings and printed silks for afternoons. You'll enjoy making this frock with the new Sew Chart, it is so concise and easy to follow.

Pattern 9929 may be ordered only in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards 36-inch fabric and ⅝ yard contrasting.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

UNHAPPY HOMES

"Would you marry a man for money?"

"No," said Miss Cayenne. "I've seen too many homes spoiled by husbands who were perpetually worrying about their income tax."

Grim Persiflage

"Did the drouth strike Crimson Gulch?"

"Hard," answered Cactus Joe. "The neighbors used to sing 'There's No Place Like Home.' Now they say 'There Ain't No Such Place as Home.'"

Phlegmatic "Mewel"

Lady—That language you are using to that mule is perfectly shocking.

Driver—Yes, it seems to get a rise out of everybody exceptin' the mule. You're about the twentieth person who has objected to it.

Hard Study

"Are you still studying political economy?"

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum. "But politics is politics and you can't make economy do the work of liberal campaign expenditures."

SEPTEMBER

L 919

0370

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

CABBAGE for sale. 37t2p. Tom Brunson.

Cider making, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, all season. 35tf. Widney Orchards.

5 and 6 gallon Jars at 12c per gallon. Curie Hardware. 37t1.

FOUND: Keys at News Office.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

Trailer for Sale: Inquire of C. W. Watson, Spencerville, Box 65. 36t2.

For Sale: Range Cook Stove. Cheap. Byron Welch. Spencerville. 37t1.

For Sale: Apples, cider, vinegar. Prices reasonable. Widney Orchards. 35tf.

House for Rent. Inquire at News Office. 36t1p.

For Sale: Pure Bred Shropshire Rams. J. C. Maryman, 1 mi. north on road 1, ½ mi. west and ½ mile north and west of Butler, Indiana. 37t2.

Sprayed grapes, Concord, large, sweet, 60c bushel. Widney Orchards, St. Joe. 35tf.

For Sale: Potatoes, Tomatoes, and Alfalfa Hay. A. D. Goodwin. 37t1p.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

State of Indiana,
County of DeKalb, ...ss:

In the DeKalb Circuit Court

Salome Green
vs.
Hannah E. Bishop,
M. Wilbur Bishop, husband of Hannah E. Bishop;
Herman L. Green.

The undersigned commissioner, by virtue of an order and decree duly made and entered in the DeKalb Circuit Corut in the above entitled cause, hereby gives notice that at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. on the 1st day of October, 1934, and continuing from day to day thereafter until sold, at the law offices of C. E. McClintock, 105 West Eighth Street, Auburn, Indiana, he will offer for sale at Private Sale, the following described real estate situate in the County of DeKalb, in the State of Indiana, to-wit:

A part of the northwest quarter of Section twelve (12) in township thirty-three (33) north of range thirteen (13) east, and bounded as follows, to-wit: Commencing at the southwest corner of said northwest quarter and running thence East seventeen (17) chains and fifty-six (56) links; thence north to the south boundary line of the Right of Way of the Baltimore and Ohio and Chicago Railroad, thence in a westerly direction along said south boundary line to a point sixty-one (61) rods east of the west boundary line of said northwest quarter; thence north to the center of the Auburn and Spencerville road; thence in a westerly course along the center of said road to the west line of said quarter section; thence south to the place of beginning, except that part of the above described premises owned and occupied by said Baltimore and Ohio and Chicago Railroad Company.

Also,

A part of the northeast quarter of Section eleven (11) in township thirty-three (33) north of range thirteen (13) east, beginning at the southeast corner of the east one-half of the northeast quarter of said Section eleven (11,) and running thence north along the east side of said section line to the center of the Auburn and Spencerville Road; thence westerly along the center of said highway far enough to make and include twenty (20) acres of land; thence south to the south line of said northeast quarter; thence east to the place of beginning, excepting a strip or parcel of land one hundred feet wide, running across said twenty acres, being owned and occupied by the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago Railway Company, said exception containing 77-100ths of an acre.

Said sale will be made subject to the approval of the DeKalb Circuit Court, for not less than the appraised value, and upon the following terms and conditions: At least one-third of purchase price cash in hand on day of sale; balance in two equal installments due six and twelve months after date respectively, represented by notes bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, waiving relief from valuation and appraisement laws, providing for attorneys fees, and secured by first mortgage upon the real estate sold. The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all cash on day of sale.

For further particulars inquire of the undersigned.

JOHN R. CLARK,
Commissioner.

C. E. McClintock, Attorney. 37t1.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Martin L. Hull deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

DELBERT DRAGGOO,
Administrator.

September 17, 1934.
John C. Armstrong, Atty. 37t3.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. Kate Fusselman transacted business in Butler, Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, of Hicksville, called on friends here Monday.

Frank Hootman, of Edgerton, Ohio, called on friends here Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill spent Sunday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Saturday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hill, of New York came Thursday for a week's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Della Dove, Melvin Dove and Bert Farner were here Sunday afternoon visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Thomas were here Thursday from Garrett, being dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Traxler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith attended the Century of Progress at Chicago, Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. Hoy and housekeeper, of Garrett, called on friends here Sunday afternoon. They were enroute home from Deleware Bend.

C. C. Andrews, of Detroit, spent Saturday at his farm south of town. He went from here to Fort Wayne, where he was joined by his sister, Catherine Mahoney, both going to Chicago to remain a week at the Century of Progress.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Merle Coburn spent Sunday with Roy Shilling.

Walter Coburn returned from Iowa Saturday morning.

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Thelma Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart called on Ed Pflaumer Sunday afternon.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for Sept. 16 was 65, collection, $2.75.

Uncle Joe Shull is spending a few days at A Century of Progress.

Mrs. Alva Perry, who has been so very ill the past week, is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder and babe ate dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hart and family.

Mr and Mrs. Harold Blair and Mr. and Mrs. Benton Jacokes, of Jackson, Mich., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hurley, of Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coburn and little daughter called on Mrs. Eva Shull at the George B. Hart home Sunday afternoon.

Hart's Nursery was visited by forty visitors Sunday afternoon. Everyone who loves flowers should put forth every effort to visit the Nursery soon, as the flowers are a picture at this writing. Seeing the flowers in bloom now will give people an idea of what bulbs they will want for the coming season. Visitors are always welcome.

Visitors in the Garth Shull home the past week to see the new boy which has been named Jon Lowell were, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Hylbert, Mrs. Roy Marlowe, of Hicksville; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. McCutcheon and seven children of Edon, O.; Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Corbett and daughter, Ina, of Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Ulm, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart, Mildred Curie and Ines Hadsell.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull were at Fort Wayne Tuesday.

Mrs. John Beard, of Waterloo, spent Monday with Mrs. Wm. Randall.

Stanley Hallabaugh purchased a new Chevrolet truck through Furnish Sales at Spencerville.

Carleton Shull and family moved from their farm east of town, into the John Koch home, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hamilton and son, James, enjoyed a fish dinner Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Lela Northrup and son.

Mrs. Mary Shuff and Mrs. Lizzie Milliman are visiting relatives in Fort Wayne.

Carma Jean Wilcox spent Saturday and Sunday at Pleasant Lake with friends.

Wm. A. Randall, of Hicksville, was a recent guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Wm. H. Randall.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Helf, of Defiance, Ohio, spent Friday with their sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Betz.

Mr. Kirtland Blakesly and Lawrence Grandaman, wife and baby, of New London, Ohio, spent from Thursday until Saturday in the John Hart home.

7,000 bushels of pickles are now salted down at the local station operated by Ralph Sechler. The quailty is extra good but the season has abruptly closed with today.

Harry Benner and wife, of Butler are now residents of the community, moving into the Perkins property west of HK Tower. Mr. Benner is the Wabash section foreman.

Eloise Coburn fell while roller skating Sunday and broke a bone in the left wrist, and now she carries her arm in a sling. Eloise Draggoo had the same experience earlier in the summer.

Hershel Garton, daughter, Zora and granddaughter, of Coldwater Lake, were callers in St Joe Friday morning, enroute to Harlan and then to Fort Wayne to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law.

Mrs. Ruth Davis and children have gone to Lagrange, Ill., where they will live indefinitely, and where she has work, and will also be near her parents. Arthur is attending school there also in the Broadview Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wistler, Mrs. Lela Northrup and James Hamilton enjoyed Sunday at Hamilton Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton, who spent the past week at the lake. They returned home in the evening with their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie and daughter, Ruth, were at Auburn Saturday. On Sunday Miss Ruth accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mavis and daughter, Betty, Mrs. Barbara Mavis and Fern Bailey to the World's Fair, returning home Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wilson and two sons, of Fort Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, of Ossian, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mrs. Wm. Randall. Mrs. Forrest Wilson will be remembered as Miss Hazel Miller, a former resident of St. Joe.

The largest August production for five years, totaling 74,437 units for all plants, is reported by the Chevrolet Motor Company. For the first eight months of 1934 Chevrolet production totals 692,477, and exceeds by 66,200 the 1933 twelve months' total, which was passed early last month.

Mrs. Mildred Curie entertained at her home in honor of Mrs. Cora Curie, Laney Gee, Perry Jump and Carleton Curie, whose birthdays are in September. At noon all did justice to a bounteous carry-in dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jump and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook of Hicksville, H. D. Curie of Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee, Mrs. Jennie Sechler and son Merritt, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie and family of St. Joe.

The State Farm Bureau young people are organizing into a Young People's Study Club. The DeKalb County unit is to be organized at 7:30 D. S. T. Monday evening, Sept. 24, at the Court House. All young people are urged to attend this meeting and enjoy the program and social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haverstack, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Warstler and children, Ronald Gene and Lucy Ellen, dined with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ordway and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bishop, Sunday. Other callers of the day were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Warstler and children, Martha Jane and Earl Wm. and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and children, Howard, Dale and Richard.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you e v e r used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Free RUBBER RINGS ..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a gear-cased Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. 27t14

WORLD FAIR ENDS OCT. 31, THIS YEAR

Many Unusual Gala Events Planned for Last Two Months.

Chicago (Special).—With the announcement that Chicago's new World's Fair, A Century of Progress Exposition, closes its gates forever on October 31st, and the advent of cool September weather, attendance figures at the exposition are steadily soaring to make new records for all American fairs. More than 9,000,000 persons have paid admissions this year, which brings the total for the two years showing to date in excess of 31,000,000.

The management of the Fair has accomplished the purpose desired by President Roosevelt when he requested that the fair operate a second year so that those who could not come last year would be given an opportunity to see it in 1934. This over and with two months of operation left, all activity is being directed to the staging of spectacular special events and shows which will close the exposition in a blaze of glory.

With all indications pointing to the probability that the attendance in September and October will outstrip the combined totals of the first three months of the Fair, exhibitors, concessionaires and the exposition itself are extending every effort to amuse and entertain the huge throngs that daily fill the magic streets of the fair, to an extent even greater than before.

Fair to Close Oct. 31.

In making the announcement that the Fair will have accomplished its aim by closing date, and therefore would not reopen, President Rufus C. Dawes said:

"A Century of Progress in its present form will not be in existence next year. If the Fair or any part of it is to be maintained it would have to be by outside sources. The Fair is under contract to the Chicago park board to demolish all buildings the board names, and the board also has the right to name any buildings which it wishes to retain and maintain.

"If you want to see Chicago's great Century of Progress Exposition you must come this summer or fall. It will not be here next year. Come and we shall do our best to make your visit pleasant, interesting and profitable."

With the closing, wreckers will come in and the enchanted city whose streets transported visitors into the mysterious realms of scientific research, art, music, industry, light, color, entertainment, education and commerce will come down. Officials, however, carefully pointed out that demolition will not begin until after the closing on October 31st. All exhibits and concessions will remain intact until that time.

Big Times for Two Months.

The fantastic buildings will be leveled. The Street of Villages with its fifteen perfect reproductions of as many foreign lands will be no more. The largest and most beautiful fountain will no longer throw its scintillating spray skyward. The gay cafes will not echo the laughter of happy people. The famed Avenue of Flags will be stripped and the greatest and most beautiful of all major expositions will be history.

It has been currently rumored that the Fair would remain as a permanent Chicago attraction; that each year henceforth it would reopen on the lake front. Now that people have realized that this is their last opportunity to see it, attendance totals have increased by leaps and bounds. The great free attractions are constantly choked with people. The twin symphony orchestras, the huge lagoon theater with its water carnivals and circus, the cage of fury, the roads of the world and the multitude of other free shows are playing to capacity crowds.

The final two months of the Fair will see the greatest collection of talent, spectacles and amusements ever seen anywhere. All existing entertainment will be expanded and new attractions added to the daily programs. Events appealing to every class of person have been scheduled at a cost of thousands of dollars. Railroads and bus lines have agreed to maintain the same low travel rates while Chicago hotels and tourist camps will accommodate travelers to Chicago in comfort and ease at the fixed low prices now prevailing.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Vera Reed was a Sunday evening guest of the Delbert Furnish home.

Wm. Reed and daughters were Saturday guests of the former's brother, at Auburn.

Miss Alice Wanz, of Harlan, was a Thursday evening guest of Miss Edith Culbertson.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and family.

The entire high school and teachers attended the freshman's initiation party given on Friday evening at the school building. There are 26 members this year. The class was required to wear green on Friday.

Mrs. R. U. Bowser was a Friday afternoon guest of her son, Roy Bowser, and family at St. Joe.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church will be entertained at the parsonage by Mrs. Fabianske.

Mrs. Clauda Hafner and Mrs. Zetta Wertman called at the Chas. Gibbons home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chaney and Forrest Rezor were Sunday guests at the Philip Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and Miss Wanda Kelley were Sunday dinner guests at the Vol Hay home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Abel were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elery Brace and family of near Scipio.

The Cheerful Workers class of the Methodist Church will meet on Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ethel Bowser.

Mrs. Kimes, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Maude Orr, of Hudson, Ind., returned home last week.

Henry Walter, Jr., wife and children and Miss Lillian Koch, were Thursday evening guests at Roy Chaney's.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church will hold their guest day at the church on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 27.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sept. 16 was 54, collection, $5.77; Lutheran, 67, collection, $2.46.

The C. C. Club will meet on Thursday afternoon after their summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Kathryn Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goldsmith spent from Friday evening until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton at Hamilton Lake.

The Past Matrons of the Eastern Star Lodge motored to Waterloo Friday and were entertained by the Past Matrons of that Chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oswalt, of Fort Wayne, Miss Ethel McNabb and Milford Peters, were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy Chaney home.

Mrs. Ralph Furnish and daughter, Bernice, Mrs Helen Laux and daughters, were Sunday afternoon guests at the Delbert Furnish home.

Gale Bowser and family were week-end guests in the Lloyd Wade home at Defiance, O. On Sunday they motored to Toledo and spent the day..

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Hensley and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hallabaugh were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones at Battle Creek, Mich.

Miss Irene Webb, nurse at the Souders Hospntal in Auburn, has resigned her position and is now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Hafner and family.

Mrs. Minnie Walker-Lantz, who was taken suddenly ill recently, was taken to the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne last week. She was brought home Friday and is much improved. Mrs. Anna Koch, of St. Joe, is assisting in caring for her.

Mrs. Matilda Oberholtzer and Miss Cozy Oberholtzer, of near Harlan, were Sunday dinner guests of the Frank Markle home. The afternoon guests were Mrs. John Warner and son, Anson Warner and wife, of Huntertown and Mrs. Hursh, of Hurshtown.

The body of Mrs. Fox, of Fort Wayne, was brought to the Roscoe Walter funeral home and the funeral was held on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Cedarville Community Church, the Rev. Tripeer, of Fort Wayne, officiating. Interment in the Bowers cemetery near Fort Wayne.

The Young Ladies Social Club was pleasantly entertained on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Dean. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Ruby Kraft, Mrs. Cleo Reed and Mrs. Opal Beerbower. The guests were Miss Helen Hursh and Miss Ethelyn Baker. Miss Baker won the guest prize.

Mr. Nathan Lake, of Belding, Michigan, age 78 years, died very suddenly at the Golden Benninghoff home in Fort Wayne on Friday, where he had been visiting. William and Frank Lake are brothers. The body was brought to the Roscoe Walter funeral home, where a short service was held, the Rev. James Newcombe officiating. The body was taken to Belden, Mich., where the funeral was held on Monday afternoon.

CLASS ORGANIZATION SPENCERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Seventh Grade

President, Roy Laub; vice president, Berniece Furnish; secretary-treasurer, Robert Hafner; sponsor, Miss Doris Beams. Enrollment, 11.

Eighth Grade

President, Fara Lee Walter; vice president, Merton Allen; secretary-treasurer, Donna Koeppe; sponsor, Miss Dorothy Craft. Enrollment, 9.

Ninth Grade, Freshman Class

President, Rob McInturf; vice president, Wayne Shook; secretary, W. King; treasurer, V. Poper; sponsor, Dale Kenton McCrory. Enrollment, 26.

Tenth, Sophomore Class

President, Billy Erick; vice president, Alice Hart; secretary-treasurer, Loren Laub; sponsor, Miss Hazel Storer. Enrollment, 20.

Eleventh, Junior Class

President, Margaret Walter; vice president, Fred Steward; secretary-treasurer, Warren Rectenwall; sponsor, Miss Ida Reed. Enrollment, 19.

Twelfth, Senior Class

President, Paul Hensley; vice president, Geo. Blondell; secretary, Dorothy Markle; sponsor, Mr. Everett Paschen. Enrollment, 17.

COMPARATIVE ENROLLMENT OF LOCAL SCHOOLS

The public schools in Cedar Creek and Springfield townships opened Tuesday morning, Sept. 5, with an increase in enrollment over previous years.

The number of pupils enrolled are:

Grade School	Leo	Harlan
Grade 1	31	17
Grade 2	37	21
Grade 3	36	26
Grade 4	42	23
Grade 5	45	21
Grade 6	47	19
Grade 7	48	12
Grade 8	53	36
Total	339	175
High School
1st year	41	36
2nd year	26	29
3rd year	35	26
4th year	24	32
Post Graduate	1
Total	126	124
Schmucker School,	27
Killian School	39
Egypt School	32

The total number of pupils enrolled in the grades and high school in Cedar Creek township is 492 and the total number enrolled in Springfield Township is 370 at the opening of the fall term.

The commercial course offered for the first time at Leo high school is being accepted with much interest and enthusiasm by many pupils. 26 pupils have chosen to study typing, 30 short hand, and 25 commercial law, it was reported by H. T. Slaton, principal of the school.

Watch the next issues of this paper for more news items, to be prepared by the pupils, concerning the activities of the Leo and Harlan schools, during the coming school months.

SCHEDULE OF THE COMING EVENTS OF THE DEKALB COUNTY COUNCIL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Sunday, September 23, the following schools and the visitor:

Newville Township
U. B. Newville, Lowell Peck.
Christian, Henry Funk.

Spencer Township
Lutheran, W. C. McBride.
M. E., Vern Sparks.
Christian, Gertrude Borthwick.

Concord Township
Concord M. P., Rose Smith.
St. Joe M. P., Arthur Friend.
Lutheran, Ward Jackmon.
Christian, Stanley Means.

Jackson Township
Hopewell, Wilma Weaver.
Meese Chapel, Wilbur Meyers
Rehobeth, Lysle Leas.

Friday, Sept. 28

Adult Workers Conference at St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Auburn. Rev. A. H. Backus, of Indianapolis to be the speaker. Both an afternoon and evening session. Open to all, but a special urge that all Adult Workers be present.

County Tickets

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mountz.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer Warren Arnold.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

0371

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, SEPT. 27, 1934 NUMBER 38

LOCAL F. E. R. A. PROJECT APPROVED

About ten days ago, the town board and ye editor, made a trip to Auburn, and there filed an application with Glen Talbert, local F. E. R. A. officer, for work to be carried on in St. Joe.

This week we were notified that the project had passed the Indianapolis office, and Mr. Talbert came to St. Joe Wednesday morning to certify the men who were eligible for the work, seven in number.

The project calls for grading of streets and alleys, drainage, dump and repair of sidewalks. An estimate of 5,400 hours was made at a cash outlay of $1,890 for labor and $250 for materials to be furnished by the citizens and town.

Where sidewalks are to be repaired the property owner is to supply the gravel and cement and the labor will be furnished.

This particular work will be known as Project 17-B225 and will be in readiness to operate Friday morning.

The project calls for 15 men at 35 cents per hour, one truck and one team part time to be furnished by local funds. Harry Kees was chosen by the town board to supervise the work.

SCHOOL ENROLLMENT

The total enrollment of the rural schools of DeKalb county, exclusive of Auburn, Garrett, Waterloo and Butler, at the end of the third week of the fall term was 2,231. The enrollment is divided as follows: Butler township, 113; Concord twonship, high school 142 and grades 112; Fairfield township, 120; Franklin township, 161; Jackson township, 180; Keyser township, 253; Newville township, 70; Richland township 136; Smithfield township, Ashley high school 219, and grades 177; Spencer township, high school 102 and grades 81; Stafford township 61; Troy township, 46; Union township, 84; Wilmington township, 174.

Ellsworth Morr resumed his studies this week at the International Business College at Fort Wayne, after spending the summer at home.

CANNING FACTORY A BUSY PLACE

It is with a great deal of satisfaction and pride, that we can point to the success of our one and only small enterprise, and that is the Custom Canning Kitchen, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guilford, and located in the southwest part of St. Joe.

Last year they moved to their own property and now they are equipped with a very comfortable outlay. While their quarters are hampered at times, yet they can serve their customers well until such time as they will be able to add to their present plant.

Customers from far and near are coming to St. Joe daily, with all kinds of vegetables for canning and this is evidence that the class of work turned out by these two canning experts is meeting with much satisfaction.

In order that they can promptly care for their customers, most every night the plant runs to a late hour. A number of local men and women are furnished part time employment.

The canning of fruits and vegetables is an art of its own and the Guilfords have been awarded the "Blue" ribbon with all its attending honors, by every patron of their plant.

IS RE-APPOINTED

Milton E. Storer is the new permanent postmaster at St. Joe, the Postoffice Department announced last week.

The St. Joe postmastership became vacant by reason of relegation of the postoffice.

Mr. Storer automatically lost his job when the St. Joe postoffice relegated from the third to the fourth class because of declining revenues. Having certified his willingness to accept reduced compensation, Mr. Storer has been reappointed for the postmastership.

APPRAISEMENTS MADE

Reports on appraisements of estates have been filed in the DeKalb circuit court by County Assessor Chas. E. Miser as follows: Glen Wyatt estate, $289.50 in personal property; Wm. S. Tyndall estate, $230 in personal property and $1,500 in real estate, and the Amos A. Steffe's estate, $466.35 in personal property.

FIRE COMPANY ORGANIZES FOR DUTY

With the completion of the new fire fighting equipment for St. Joe, a newly named company will take charge of the outfit.

At the organization meeting at the town hall Monday evening the following were chosen for special duties:

Chief, Roy Wade.
Assistant, Roy Reidenbach.
Secretary, F. R. Bowman.
Treasurer, Willard Hurni.
Truck Drivers, W. D. Yeiser, Wm. Keeler and Vern Coburn.
Ladder Men, Derwood Ridgway and Roy Reidenbach.
Hose Men, Chas. Cochran and Wm. Keeler, with Frank Curie and Willard Hurni as assistants.
Chemical Agitators, Frank Bowman and Vern Coburn.

When the truck leaves the hall to answer a call, no one will be allowed to ride other than the men of the department.

A chemical outfit mounted on a trailer will always be on hand to answer calls should the truck be out of town. Some member of the company will always be left at the department for an emergency.

RED CROSS TO CONDUCT A NURSERY DURING AUBURN FAIR

A Nursery will be conducted by the DeKalb County Red Cross Nursing Committee at the City Hall of Auburn during the week of the County Fair, October 3rd to 6th inclusive.

In order that all mothers may have an opportunity to visit the exhibits, babies under one year of age may be left in the Nursery for a limited time between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M.; 1 to 4, and 7 to 9 P. M.

Graduate nurses will be in charge, and will be assisted by members of the Nursing Committee. One member of which has been chosen from each town and township in the county.

Mayor Lige has provided the use of a room in the City Hall for that purpose.

Each mother must register her babe, and provide her own blanket or coverlet.

Mrs. R. S Wiley, Chairman,
DeKalb Co. Committee Red Cross Nursing.

CELEBRATES HIS 92nd BIRTHDAY

Wm. L. Hallabaugh celebrated his ninety-second birthday Saturday at the Ed Pflaumer home, south of town, in company with a number of his children.

Ernest Hallabaugh, of Logansport, was present, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Weaver, and husband, of Washington, D. C., who engaged in celebrating her father's birthday on Friday at Logansport.

Uncle "Billie" as he is known about town, is a remarkable man for his age. Has a keen mind, is physically well, does considerable work about his home and farm, is exceptionally spry and takes a great interest in affairs of the day.

He makes his frequent trips to town and enjoys chatting with his old time friends.

May he live to celebrate many more such pleasant birthdays.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowser entertained at Sunday dinner, in honor of the latter's father's birthday, the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Willett and family, of Hicksville, O.; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kinsey and daughters, Beverly and Joncquil, of Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kinsey and daughter, Inez. Evening callers in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kinsey and Mrs. Mayola Kinsey.

COBURN'S CORNERS HOME COMING

Dear Friends: You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Home-Coming of the Coburn Corners Church of Christ, Sunday, October 7th. Sunday School and sermon by pastor in forenoon. Basket dinner in the basement.

State Senator Larry Brandon will speak in the afternoon. Music by Colored Quartette. Come and enjoy the day with us.

FRED E. HART,
Chairman.

All persons above 65 years of age will have photo taken free of charge by the News-Sentinel staff photographer.

300 large mouth bass were released Mondty in the river near Hoisington bridge by Wilbur Yeiser, being sent to the local club by the conservation department from the Wawasee hatchery.

CHURCH OFFICERS CHOSEN

At the business meeting Thursday evening at the Methodist Church the following officers were elected:

Trustees: Mrs. Chas. Koch, one year; Howard Shilling, two years, and J. C. Hull, three years.

Parsonage Trustee, Roy Reidenbach.

Stewards: Mrs. Maude Jenkins, Mrs. DeLora Curie, Mrs. Alice Reidenbach.

Treasurer, J. C. Hull.

TO MAKE CAMPAIGN PLANS

Mrs. Carrie P. Weaver, of Auburn, and Clyde Rectenwall, of Spencerville, have been named as the DeKalb county representatives on a fourth district republican advisory committee, by Ralph F. Gates, of Columbia City, the district chairman. The committee will assist Mr. Gates in plans for the remainder of this fall's campaign.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Orville Miller, of near Newville, who was placed in the DeKalb county jail following a collision with a car driven by Paul Koch, Sept. 17, entered a plea of not guilty when he was arraigned before Judge Endicott Saturday on a charge of drunken driving. He was released on $500 cash bond and his trial was set for Nov. 1. C. E. McClintock is his attorney. The accident took place at the B. E. Widney corners on Road 1.

HOME BUREAU

The Concord Township Home Bureau met at the home of Katie Storer, Friday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Krise. The Club Creed was read by all, followed by two songs, after which was the election of officers for 1935 which resulted as follows:

President, Gertrude Borthwick.
Vice Pres., Harriett Draggoo.
Secretary, Doris Yeiser.
Assistant, Laura Washler.
Treasurer, Harriett Johnson.
Pianist, Cora Curie.
Assistant, Iva Yeiser.
Chorister, Mary Krise.
Assistant, Laura Washler.

Secretary's report was read and approved after which twenty-five members responded to roll call with a Bible quotation. Leaflets were given out on the project work on dyeing and sizing of rugs. Iva Yeiser gave a talk on "What can I do as a Mother to make our schools better." A round table discussion was led by Bird Nicholls on "What can I do as a Citizen to make our schools better." "The Toy Shop," a game was in charge of Cora Fetters.

The hostess with her committee of Helen Wade, Bird Nicholls and Fern Draggoo served pumpkin pie with ice cream, sandwiches and a fruit drink.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Morr and Mr. and Mrs. Gerdes were at the Century of Progress last week end.

Superintendent Stallman was a caller on two days of last week. Other visitors were Helen Like

The primary room reported the

The primar yroom reported the best attendance for last week. James Hart was the only pupil in that room who did not have a perfect attendance for the week.

The Juniors held a class party at the home of their president, Romy McSorley, on last Friday evening. Mr. Noffsinger attended this party as the faculty sponsor.

To finance the expense of grade, junior and senior high school exhibits at the Auburn Fair the class officers are conducting a candy bar sale. One of the local merchants is furnishing the bars at wholesale price.

The P. T. A. laides met at the school building on last Thursday for "canning day" in the interest of the hot lunch service. The trustee authorized some of the vegetables to be taken to the canning factory and prepared there. As it now stands the hot lunch service has a good supply of tomatoes, corn, string beans, and some beets, swiss chard and a few other canned vegetables.

Mr. Munn attended an Auburn Fair meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms on last Thursday evening. Plans for the fair were discussed. Friday, October 5, will be school day at the fair. In the afternoon there will be a school parade with certain novelty features connected. Those pupils entering the "soap box derby" should have their cars in this parade. Pupils are expected to carry along their pets and hobbies as well—rabbits, dogs, dolls, coaster wagons, tricycles, bicycles, ponies will all help to make an interesting parade.

The 9 and 10th Home Ec Class had great pleasure preparing a two course guest breakfast last week, as it was part of their course this year in school. The first course consisted of: Contaloupe and watermelon; second course: Cream of wheat with raisins, cinnamon toast and cocoa. The color scheme was carried out in delightful autumn colors of orange, brown, red, yellow and green. A place card in shape of leaves was used at each cover. Mrs. Gerdes was the guest of honor.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Hazel Miller, of Auburn, called at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Krabill, Tuesday afternoon.

Robert and Cleota Morr, Miss Freida Wyatt, of Auburn and Raymond Crick, of Fort Wayne, spent the week end in Chicago, attending the Century of Progress on Sunday.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

W. L. Hamilton and wife and Lee O. Tustison and wife, of Defiance, spent Sunday at Fremont, O., visiting President Hays' memorial and at Castalia, Ohio, visiting the Blue Hole.

Carrol Beth, born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Buren Ulm, at the Herman Kessler home. Mr. Ulm works at the Higley Printing office at Butler and his family will be returned to Butler in a few weeks.

J. P. Buckingham is recovering from his severe heart attack. He is about the home.

Receipt of quarterly Indiana gross income tax return forms for use during the taxpaying period extending from October 1 to 15, are now in the hands of The St. Joe News and can be secured here free of charge.

Programs for the two ladies clubs of St. Joe have been printed and delivered to the officers by the News Printing Co. The L. L. C. opened their club year last week on Wdnesday evening and the Culture Club will have its first meeting in two weeks on Wednesday evening.

Weeds can be made to drink in enough poison to kill them by dipping the tips of their leaves in poisonous solutions and the method is particularly effective in the eradication of objectionable plants with extensive root systems, such as the wild morning glory, a California experiment station reported.

Sunday dinner guests in the L. W. Yeiser home were: Mr. and Mrs. U. C. Brouse, Mr. and Mrs. George Tyler, Mrs. Inez Dickens, Mrs. Carire Black and son, Morsis, and George and Paul Humpshire from Kendallville; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kain and daughtaer, Helen, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Lenora Yeiser, of Avilla, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser and family, of St. Joe. Evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. John Hursh, of Garrett and Mrs. Edna Shanline, of Avilla.

The DeKalb County Ministerial association had its first fall meeting Monday morning at the Y. M. C. A. Rev. C. C. Cripe, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, is the presiding officer, Rev. F. W. Crabill, of Church of God, Auburn, is vice president and Rev. Charles Jennings, of Waterloo, is secretary. It was decided to hold meetings, upon invitation, in various communities of the county. Rev. J. N. Scholes, of St. Joe, Rev. O. B. Noren, and Rev. M. C. Wright, of Auburn, were appointed a committee to arrange the program for the year.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Consider Your Winters Fuel
cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Leighty Orchard
ST. JOE, INDIANA
Don't let the family go without plenty of fruit this winter, just because there was a drought this summer. Fresh Apples, Apple Butter, Jelly and Canned Cider will keep them well and happy. Apples for present use now selling--Sales of winter apples will begin about the first week in October.
CIDER VINEGAR HONEY
NO SALES ON SUNDAY

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

MR and MRS FARMER!
Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

FREE FALL FAIR
ON THE STREETS OF AUBURN
October 3-4-5-6

Your great opportunity to see the best that DeKalb County produces in Farm Products, Prize Cattle, Horses, Colt Club, Saddle Horse Show, Poultry, Rabbits, Industrial Exhibit, Art and Needlework, 4-H Club and School Displays, Dairy Products, Baking and Canning, Farm and Motorized Machinery, Display of the department of Conservation. See 3 Great Free Acts, Shows, Rides, Amusements. Hear Band Concerts and Band Contests. Don't miss the SoapBox Derby, Twin Reunion, the Great Live Stock Parade. Something doing every minute, day and night.

WEDNESDAY–Merchants' Displays and Special Sales...Concert by Ft. Wayne News-Sentinel Band.
THURSDAY–Political Day. Concert Butler K. of P. Band
HORSE SHOW. This Show is free.
FRIDAY–School Day. Children's Parade. Horse Pulling contest. Soap Box Derby.
SATURDAY–Old Settlers' Day and Home Coming. Parade of Live Stock. Look for the St. Joe Valley Section of Parade. Twins Reunion.
SATURDAY NIGHT–Concert by prize winning band. Giving away of the $935 Auburn Automobile and $100 Bed Room Suite donated by Gerig Furniture Corporation.
FREE ACTS–Rita & Dunn, World's Premier Aerialists, D'Arcy Girls, the Aristocrats of the Air who toy with death. Radke Sisters, acrobatic balancing and gymnast act on a platform.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U372

Modeled to Give Slender Effects

Pattern 9990

A woman is as slim as she looks, and by that same token, whatever she weighs, every woman who wears this frock is slender. It is that kind of a frock! It takes pounds off one's weight and years off one's age—and demands very little of one's time in the making. This white magic is all a matter of clever design embodied in a long graceful cape collar caught under the belt front and back, and a carefully proportioned yoke on the skirt, pointed here and there where points will do the most good. The tucked details afford just the right amount of ease where you need it.

Pattern 9990 may be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3⅞ yards 39-inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER AND SIZE.

Complete, diagrammed sew chart included.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth street, New York, N. Y.

UNRULY SOUP

A little girl who had been left to watch the soup was presently heard to sing out:

"Oh, mother, come quick, the soup is getting bigger than the pot."

You Know the Kind

"There's a decided uniformity in the contents of my post this morning, Julia."

"How do you mean?"

"All my letters begin with the same word—'Unless'."

Not So Good

"I told you that was a used car when you bought it," declared the salesman.

"Yeh, I know," retorted the victim, "but you forgot to add 'up' after 'used.'"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The Idea

Father—Jane, that young idiot Simpson's affairs couldn't be in worse shape than they are.

Daughter (indignantly)—You forget that I am to marry him, Papa.

Isn't It the Truth?

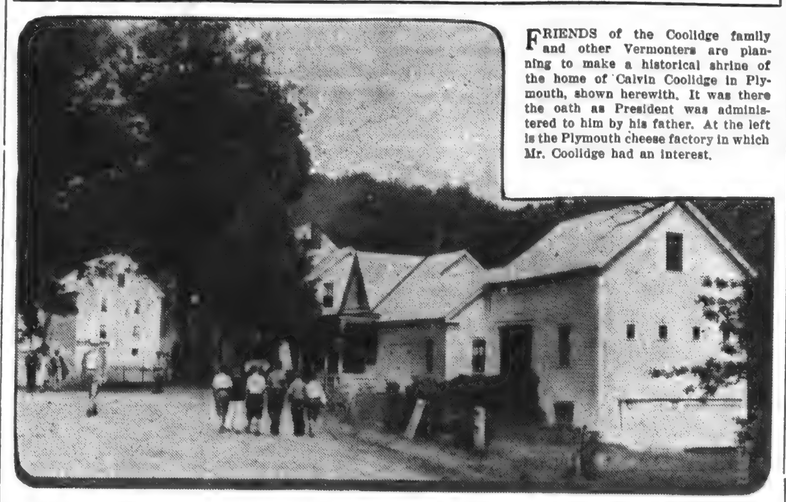
He—You are always wishing for what you haven't got.

She—Well, what else can one wish for?

FRESH FLAVOR

D-1703

Coolidge Home to Become a National Shrine



FRIENDS of the Coolidge family and other Vermonters are planning to make a historical shrine of the home of Calvin Coolidge in Plymouth, shown herewith. It was there the oath as President was administered to him by his father. At the left is the Plymouth cheese factory in which Mr. Coolidge had an interest.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

AN UNDESERVED BAD NAME

FROM somewhere in the Old Orchard sounded a clear, "Kow-kow-kow-kow-kow-kow." It was quite unlike any verse Peter had heard that spring and he exclaimed, "Who's that?"

"That's Cuckoo," said Kitty the Catbird. "Do you mean to say you don't know Cuckoo?"

"Of course I know him," retorted Peter. "I had forgotten the sound of his voice, that's all. Tell me, is it true that Mrs. Cuckoo is no better than Sally Sly the Cowbird, and lays her eggs in the nests of other birds? I've heard that said of her."

"There isn't a word of truth in it," declared Kitty emphatically. "She builds her nest, such as it is, and she looks after her own children. The Cuckoos have been given a bad name because of some good-for-nothing cousins of theirs who live across the ocean where Bully the English Sparrow belongs, and who, if all reports are true, really are no better than Sally Sly. It's funny how a bad name sticks. The Cuckoos have been accused of stealing the eggs of other birds, but I've never known them to do it, and I've lived neighbor to them for a long time. As a matter of fact they are mighty useful birds. Farmer Brown ought to be tickled to death that Mr. and Mrs. Cuckoo have come back to the Old Orchard this year. Do you see that cob-webby nest with all those hairy caterpillars on it and around it up in that tree?"

Cuckoo Made No Sound, but Began to Pick Off the Hairy Caterpillars.

Peter replied that he did, and that he had seen a great many nests just like it and had noticed how the caterpillars ate all the leaves near them.

"I'll venture to say that you won't see many leaves eaten around that nest," replied Kitty. "Those are called tent caterpillars and they do an awful lot of damage. I can't bear them myself because they are so hairy. Very few birds will touch them. But Cuckoo likes them. There he comes now; just watch him."

A long slim, dove-like appearing bird alighted close to the caterpillars' nest. Above he was brownish gray with just a little greenish tinge. Beneath he was white. His wings were reddish brown. His tail was a little longer than that of Mourner the Dove. The outer feathers were black tipped with white, while the middle feathers were the color of his back. The upper half of his bill was black, but the under half was yellow and from this he was called the Yellow-billed Cuckoo. He has a cousin with an all black bill who is called the Black-billed Cuckoo.

Cuckoo made no sound, but began to pick off the hairy caterpillars and swallow them. When he had eaten all those outside, he tore open the nest and picked out those inside, then he flew off as silently as he had come.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

GOOD THINGS NEW AND OLD

THE following is a recipe which will appeal to the busy housewife because it is easy to prepare and is different:

Noodle Jelly Charlotte.

Cook one and one half cupfuls of half-inch wide noodles in salted water ten minutes. Drain and add butter, using two tablespoonfuls. Beat two eggs thoroughly, add two tablespoonfuls of water and add to the noodles. Place in a buttered baking dish and bake in a hot oven. Serve with jelly. Served with chicken or lamb it takes the place of potatoes.

Steamed Apricot Pudding.

Cream two tablespoonfuls of butter and a tablespoonful of sugar, add one beaten egg. Sift two cupfuls of flour with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Add the dry ingredients alternately with one cupful of milk. Grease one pound baking powder cans and fill two-thirds full with alternate layers of the batter and apricot jam. Place on rack in a kettle with boiling water and steam tightly covered two and one-half hours. Serve hot with a lemon sauce.

Dried Apricot Jam.

Take two pounds of dried apricots, let soak over night. Simmer well covered a half hour. Drain the fruit, crush thoroughly and mix with three pounds of sugar, or seven cupfuls. Put to boil and when at full boil continue one minute, remove from the fire and add one bottle of pectin, stir and let stand a moment and skim. Then pour into glasses and cover with paraffin.

Cherry Jelly From Canned Cherries.

Take two cupfuls of juice from canned cherries; if rich add water to make the two cupfuls; add four cupfuls of sugar and bring to a boil; add one-half bottle of pectin, stirring constantly and bring again to a full boil, then remove from the fire. Skim, pour into glasses and cover with a thin layer of paraffin. When cold add more hot paraffin to make a heavy seal.

Mashed banana put through a sieve, added to orange juice, sugar and cream, makes a most delightful frozen dish.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Do YOU Know—

That plaster of paris is derived from a mineral called gypsum. It is found in many parts of the world, but as a large part of Paris, France, happens to be built over whole beds of gypsum that city was the first to discover its use. Therefore small statuettes modeled from it were spoken of as being made of plaster of paris.

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN... The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

What has happened to most of the veterinaries since Automobiles have replaced horses?

Yours truly,
MANNA WORE.

Answer: They work in gun factories mending "Colt's."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have just secured a job as chauffeur. I'm to start two weeks from today and am supposed to sleep over the garage. I want the job, all right, but I cannot sleep in a strange bed. What shall I do?

Yours truly,
X. AUST.

Answer: As you don't begin for two weeks, ask your boss to let you sleep in the new bed for a few nights before you start working, then when you get your job you'll be used to the bed.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Who started the idea that "13" was an unlucky number?

Sincerely,
SUE PERSTITION.

Answer: In 1903 a man was arrested for killing a woman. He was tried and convicted and given life. He blamed it on the jury and the judge. That's how it started. He figured 12 men on the jury and 1 judge made "13."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I read an article in the newspaper which said that a baby in Bridgeport, Conn., feeding on elephant milk, had gained forty-two pounds in one week. Do you believe that?

Sincerely,
I. X. PECKWON.

Answer: Of course I believe it. It was a baby elephant.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am about to take lessons in roller skating. My instructor told me to buy three skates. Why should I buy three skates when I have only two feet?

Yours truly,
JIM NASIUM.

Answer: As you are just learning, the professor figures you will not always be on your feet.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I understand that every musical show has its own press agent. Can you tell me what he gets the name "press agent" from?

Truly yours,
I. M. SILLY.

Answer: He gets his name from squeezing chorus girls.

© the Associated Newspapers WNU Service.

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says instead of counting sheep a way of inducing sleep is to figure up the different shades of fingernail polish seen during the day.

WNU Service.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what is graft?"
"Lemon juice."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

AFTER A VACATION

By ANNE CAMPBELL

HOW lovely is our little world
When we have been away!
The grass at dawn with dew is pearl'd,
The hollyhocks are gay.
No porch is half so welcoming
As ours when evening comes.
We missed the happy blossoming
Of blue delphiniums.

Our world seems much more glamorous
Since we came back again.
Outside we hear our clamorous
And saucy friend, the wren.
Our little pear tree grew, we know,
And where the shadows fall,
There is a splash of golden-glow
Against the garden wall.

The world of home is loveliest
When we come back once more
To find that love has stood the test
And waits beside the door.
There was no beauty quite like this
Although we traveled far;
A kindly hand, a welcome kiss,
And home's familiar star!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Afternoon Suit

Here is a stylish afternoon suit with a black velveteen skirt and scarf. The plaid wool jacket is black, green and white, with a black calf belt.

Edison Disliked Decorations

Upon Thomas Edison's second trip to Europe the French Telephone company offered him a decoration which required that he wear a long sash. But the Ohioan flatly refused with the assertion that he couldn't "stand for that." Persuaded by his wife, he did however consent to wear the little red button of the League of Honor. But whenever he saw any American approaching he would slip the button into his pocket for fear, as he said, "they might think I am trying to show off."

Missionaries Learn First-Aid Methods

ON THE eve of going to missions in far distant lands, Catholic priests and nuns in New York received instructions in the latest first-aid methods from Red Cross members. They then received certificates of proficiency.

Furnace Heat Leaves "Old Sol" Far Behind

A new kind of electrical furnace which produces hot spots hundreds of thousands of degrees, tremendously exceeding anything known on the surface of the sun, was announced at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

This furnace is a small glass vacuum tube, and the hot spots within it provide a new source of protons, or heavy particles of electricity, for bombarding the nuclei of atoms. They yield nine-fold more protons than any method previously devised.

The heating element of the tube is three electrodes. Its fuel for making protons is hydrogen gas, at low pressure. Between two of the electrodes a flaming arc forms in the gas. There is, however, nothing extraordinary about this arc, which resembles any ordinary flame of the kind.

But placed around the arc is the third electrode and its boosting action produces the hot points in the gas. The excessive temperatures are confined to these points, the gas around them remaining comparatively cool. The points of heat are too small to be read with ordinary instruments. But their existence and temperatures are revealed by the streams of protons shooting out from them.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

Many Birds to Acre

A farmer living near Bethesda, Md., who had done as much as he could to make his property attractive to bird life, decided to take a bird census of his land. He found that 59 pairs of birds had young or eggs on a single acre.—Detroit News.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

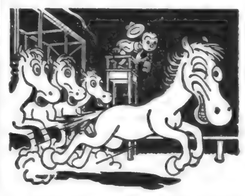
Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Giant Camera

The United States coast and geodetic survey has completed a giant camera weighing 14 tons and capable of taking a picture 50 by 50 inches in size, in reproducing the nation's nautical charts and airway maps.



QUICK STARTING with cleaned SPARK PLUGS

Remove Oxide Coating with the AC Spark Plug Cleaner—and Your Motor Starts Instantly only 5c a plug

No spark plug can escape oxide coating—the chief cause of hard starting. But a thorough cleaning—by a Registered AC Cleaning Station—is a "sure-fire" remedy. Have your plugs cleaned every 4,000 miles. Replace badly worn plugs with New ACs.

AC THE QUALITY SPARK PLUG

Look for the "Plug-in-the-Tub"

Protect Your Skin By Using Cuticura Soap every-day

Made of the purest ingredients, selected for their emollient and cleansing qualities, and containing the delicate Cuticura medication, it soothes, heals and protects against skin troubles. Cuticura Soap should be kept in every household for the daily use of all the family.

Write for special folder on the care of the skin.

Address: "Cuticura," Dept. 21S, Malden, Mass.

DEATH SHOT kills all insects. Dilute 1 bottle 40 times. BEST-UV-ALL PRODUCTS, 306 Dyal-Upchurch Bldg., Jacksonville, Fla.

SORES AND ULCERS—My Specialty. Write for Free 140 Page Book. Dr. Reed Sanitarium, Shreveport, La.

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U373

Hand-Knit or Crochet's the Thing!

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

ARE we knitting and crocheting these days? Well, now, are we? It's a veritable knitting and crochet marathon the fair sex is staging.

For proof positive that fashion's followers are knitting and crocheting like mad in their leisure hours, just try to sidestep the hanks of bright yarn and the balls of gay crochet cotton which pop out at most any time and place from within the depths of the capacious "knitting bag" which most every woman carries along nowadays wheresoever she goes.

Of course there's a reason for this increasing enthusiasm among those who hand knit and crochet, and it's this—the news is going out from style centers everywhere that the vogue for things hand-knit or crocheted is extending not only into the fall but it promises to become even more exciting and fascinating as winter draws nigh.

You can see for yourself from this group illustration that the newer ideas are nothing less than inspiring. Wouldn't you just love to have an ensemble like the one pictured, two views of which are here given? This adorable model is a Hermes creation, comes from the Paris collection of this famous designer of hand-made fashions. The three pieces, jacket, skirt and blouse, are worked of knitting and crochet cotton, a heavy thread which comes in exquisite colors and will wash like new. It is practicable for early fall wear. Notice the cord fastenings, the draped cowl at the back of the jacket and the crochet-covered buttons—style details which fairly tingle with individualized chic. You can get this crochet cotton at most any fancywork department, and it is not at all expensive.

The lines of the handsome suit shown to the left are severely simple but literally packed with smartness. This model also comes from a celebrated Parisian creator who excels in hand-knit modes. The classic tailored appearance of this patrician two-piece gives it surpassing distinction. It is knitted, as is also the roll-brim hat, of knitting and crochet cotton, the kind that is dependably washable and wearable. New notes are offered for the knitter in its high, round neck, clever hipline which savors of a peplum effect and the unusual trimming detail on the front of the blouse in the form of simulated pockets together with vertical markings which tend to slenderize.

Also from a recent Paris collection comes the high-style blouse pictured in the foreground. The diagonal stitch which is of unusual interest gives slimming lines and there is a nicety about every detail which makes appeal to discriminating taste. The collar with its frilly jabot and the turned-back cuffs are dramatic touches which greatly enhance. The belt is neatly worked in a tight firm stitch—altogether a model which glorifies the art of crochet.

Speaking of the popularity of hand-knit costumes it is not at all unusual for women to knit not one but several suits and dresses. They are doing it right along this season. Besides the many alluring and novel details which beautify the newer modes, an outstanding play is being made on color. Just now fashion-informed women are choosing rich mossy greens, forest green being a favorite. Wear velvet accessories in matching green including scarf, beret bag and belt and you will be delighted with results. Rust color and allied copperish browns play a close second to the voguish green. Be sure to monogram your sports-knitted and crocheted togs, thus adding a final touch of distinction.

© Western Newspaper Union.

EVENING CHARM

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Very flattering are the alluring short capelets of tulle, fluted, flounced or frilled which many of the smartest women are wearing under glimmering evening lights. The model pictured is a Paris creation. Maggy Rouff designs it, using a bright red tulle for the capelet and white chiffon for the frock. Fan-shaped pleating beginning at the waistline falls the length of the dress to the floor, joining the deep-pleated flounce. The silhouette that drops narrow pleatings from waistline to hemline is a new departure.

DOTTED SWISS AS POPULAR AS EVER

Dear old dotted swiss is with us again. Dear Dotty is never far away, although she retires demurely to the country, from whence she first migrated. She was at Lady D's ball, too, her background white and her dots blue. Her hem had a four-inch ruffle all the way around and was shorter than the majority of her companions. She was accompanied by a cape fitted to the shoulders, tied at the neck with a small bow and buttoned down the front with tiny white linen shirt buttons. The cape was cut square in front and back and edged with ruffles of the same width as that on the skirt. Pale pink satin sandals peeped out from beneath the hem of the skirt.

Long-Handled Bags Back in Limelight of Fashion

Long-handled bags recalling those the belles of the '90s and 1900s carried are being seen again. Though their conception is modern, their inspiration is as old fashioned as a Quaker bonnet. They come in the form of calf-skin or pigskin pouches, sometimes with plain, sometimes with pleated bodies, finished with a double handle whose top comes eight or ten inches above the bag. Black ottoman pouches are being seen in the afternoon and evening.

Novel Earrings

Earrings worn on the tops of the ears are the latest novelty in costume jewelry. They take the form of tiny gold wings.

Coolie Hats Popular

Coolie type hats for women are popular in London.

A Pressing Matter

By EMELINE BOYER

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

"STAY where you are, Joie, and keep your hands in sight." Detective Big Jim Dunn halted the young man's nervous pacing. "We were anxious to see you," he went on in the same even voice; "so we got a pass-key from the janitor and came in."

Keeping a close watch on his host, Big Jim motioned to the two policemen behind him. While the one held a drawn revolver, the other ran his hands over Joie Ray's clothing. "No rod," he reported.

"We want you to come down to headquarters," said the detective.

"What for?" asked Joie insolently. "You've got nothin' on me."

"Too bad about Sol Moses," observed Big Jim. "He worked hard all his life, lived in two little rooms above his store, didn't even get glasses when he needed them. And now, when he'd put his boy through college and was gonna retire to the country, he gets bumped off on his way to the bank tonight." He paused, but Joie offered no comment. "Somebody was after his money, I guess," Big Jim continued, "but left without taking it, or his gun either. Maybe he was afraid that his shot had attracted too much attention."

"Whaddya tryin' to feed me?" asked Joie derisively. "The banks close at noon on Saturday."

"But the night depository doesn't," answered the detective.

Joie was unimpressed. "What do I care about Sol Moses and his chicken-feed?" he asked airily.

Big Jim's reply was a question. "What have you been living on since Louie was sent up the river?"

"Oh, I have an income," replied Joie, grandly.

"You wouldn't think an old fellow like Sol would put up a fight," remarked the detective.

If he expected a reply, he was disappointed. With a yawn that looked real, Joie observed, "Well, drop in again sometime—any time. I'm going to bed now."

"Since when do you go to bed at half past ten?" asked Big Jim.

"Is that what you wanted me to come down to headquarters to find out?" Joie inquired sweetly.

"No," said the detective. "We wanted to ask you where you were this evening."

"Right here," declared Joie flatly.

"Reading and smoking?" asked Big Jim.

"Reading," answered Joie; "but I've cut out smoking." His glance strayed over the empty ash trays.

The detective's eyes followed his.

"I thought you might like to see this," he said, taking from his pocket a piece of cloth—cheap, shoddy suit material. "It was in Sol's hand," he explained. "Somebody in the crowd said it matched a suit you've been wearing."

Big Jim did not need to take the word of some one in the crowd. The material matched the suit that Joie had on.

But Joie's smile remained idyllic. "I don't feel any draft," he remarked, "but pr'aps you'd like to take a look." He rose and insolently turned about.

"Look it over, boys," Big Jim ordered. The policemen did, thoroughly.

"Well, I guess we've drawn a blank," he observed. "But we'll take a look around before we go."

At the end of an hour, everything had been subjected to a close scrutiny, without result. But Big Jim was not through. "You boys stay here and keep your eye on Joie," he ordered. "I'll be back soon."

In less than ten minutes, Big Jim returned. "Too bad," he told Joie, "that the new janitor didn't keep the incinerator going. I found another pair of pants down there just like yours; only the other pair has a piece torn out."

Joie's calm was apparently unbroken. "So what?" he asked, rising and moving aimlessly toward Big Jim. But with a sudden motion his aimlessness disappeared. He leaped for the door.

The detective was too quick for him. With a flying tackle that would seem impossible for one his size, he brought Joie to the floor.

• • •

"Lucky there was a new janitor up there," observed one of the policemen to Big Jim, after Joie had signed a confession.

"Yes," replied Big Jim. "Joie wouldn't have believed me if I had told him that an old hand had forgotten the incinerator."

"Did the piece in Sol's hand just fit the hole in the pants?" asked the policeman.

"I don't know," was the reply.

"Didn't you try it?" The policeman was obviously shocked.

Big Jim reached in his pocket and pulled out a handful of twisted buttons.

"Here's what I found in the incinerator," he explained. "The janitor was right on the job."

"So it was a bluff," said the policeman admiringly. "But what made you think of a two-pants suit?"

"When Joie stood up for us to look him over," explained Big Jim, "I noticed that his pants were pressed, but that his coat was wrinkled. Just before I came on duty at six o'clock," he confessed, grinning, "my wife made me take off my coat and let her press it, because I looked the same way.

"I guess that's why they pay us only $160 a month on this job," he observed; "so that we have to buy two-pants suits."

Good Carver Must Know "Tricks of the Trade"

To gain the skill acquired by a good carver, the person has to know how to cut meat to stress tenderness. Also there are certain other knacks or tricks, which a good carver learns, which are appreciated by those who are served, although they may not realize why their portions seem so well suited to their tastes. Points on poultry and bird carving are given today.

The position of a bird is, in itself, important. The legs should be at the right, the neck at the left. The fork is thrust through the breast, one prong each side of the breast bone. In this position the bird is held firmly and the knife most readily finds its way to sever the first and second joints and wings. The former are cut off together and then the leg (the first joint) is severed from the second joint. Then the wings are cut off, after which the breast is cut in thin slices.

Each portion should consist of some white and some dark meat, for no longer is it considered correct to ask which kind a person prefers. To get enough dark meat, which is the richer, to go with the white, which is the more delicate, it is necessary to cut the dark meat of the joints into pieces. One such piece, with a slice of breast, forms a good serving. It is only when meat is carved in the kitchen and passed for each person to help himself, that taking preferred portions is permissible. Then the entire bird is jointed and cut without such apportionments. The breast is not sliced but is separated from the carcass in portions right for individual servings.

When there is stuffing, the carver slits the stitches of the sewing, and spoons out the tasty, well-seasoned crumbs, giving one spoonful, or its equivalent, with each serving. When the bird is served jointed and cut, the dressing is apt to form a center, of many portions, with the meat about it. Roast birds are apt to be carved at the table, or the portions be on the plates put before those dining when this course is served.

The term bird is used to include chicken, fowl, turkey and the usual kinds of birds which are not so small that they are served whole, or in halves, as individual portions.

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Nature's Plan for the Restocking of Forests

Aspen trees, once neglected by foresters and lumbermen, are on the upward trend in the Lake States region, says the United States forest service. While aspens or "popple," as they are often collectively termed, are considered as rather soft, weak members of the forest family, they now are recognized as Nature's first gesture to quickly restock after a fire, and when the stand is not too dense, the popples become the nursery crop for growths of white and Norway pine.

Before the north woods was cut and burned, aspens were inconspicuous and all of the enormous area of aspens in the Lake states have followed fires. In Michigan there are 5,000,000 acres alone of popple. While of prime value for game birds and deer, aspens do have commercial use as well. The wood is odorless and serves best for food containers, enters in match-making and is used for excelsior, while the better grades may be used for interior finishing of homes.

The seeds of the aspens are so light that it takes two or three million to make a pound. Consequently they are carried long distances by the wind, and germinate almost immediately if they fall on moist ground. Aspens are rapid-growing and short-lived. Few reach the age of one hundred years.

NO PERFECT VACUUM

Completely empty space probably does not exist anywhere in the universe, according to studies made at Mt. Wilson observatory. These studies showed that the region between the stars is an excellent but not a perfect vacuum, there is about one atom of matter in every cubic inch of space. A single drop of water, containing about one thousand billion atoms, would furnish enough matter to fill three and three quarter million cubic miles of space to that density.—Literary Digest.

If you feel low-

don't be discouraged—remember, loss of strength... sleeplessness... nervousness... paleness... lack of appetite... and general run-down condition quite often may be traced directly to low blood strength—that is, the red corpuscles and vital oxygen-carrying hemo-glo-bin of the blood are below normal.

S.S.S. is the great, scientifically-tested medicine for restoring this blood content. Its benefits are progressive... accumulative... and enduring. By all means try it for better health and more happiness. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon enjoy again the satisfaction of appetising food... sound sleep... and renewed strength.

Do not be blinded by the efforts of a few unethical dealers who may suggest substitutes. You have a right to insist that S.S.S. be supplied you on request. Its long years of preference is your guarantee of satisfaction.

S.S.S. the world's great blood medicine

MEN WITH CAR. Cover stores. Your county. New deal with old firm. No selling. Five year contract. Responsible parties. Write Factory Box 43, Florin, Penna.

COLDS Creomulsion

Your own druggist is authorized to cheerfully refund your money on the spot if you are not relieved by Creomulsion.

POOR COMPLEXIONS

Clogged pores, pimples improved in a few days by Resinol Soap and the effective medication of Resinol

...It is the DOLLARS

... that circulate among ourselves, in our own community, that in the end build our schools and churches, pave our streets, lay our sidewalks, increase our farm values, attract more people to this section. Buying our merchandise in our local stores means keeping our dollars at home to work for all of us.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES ... the boss outwits him!

TO BE SURE, many people find that coffee does not disagree with them. But many others cannot and should not drink it. You may be one of these ... without realizing it. The caffein in coffee may be working night and day to rob you of sleep, upset your digestion, or undermine your nerves.

If, for any reason, you suspect that coffee doesn't agree with you ... try POSTUM instead for at least 30 days. There is nothing in POSTUM that can possibly harm you. It is a delicious drink ... and may be a real help. It costs less than one-half cent a cup ... and is very easy to prepare. POSTUM is a product of General Foods.

FREE—Let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—FREE! Fill in and mail the coupon below.

General Foods, Battle Creek, Mich. W.N.U. 9-27-34

Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address.

This offer expires July 1, 1935

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 374

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

CABBAGE for sale.
37t2p. Tom Brunson.

For Sale or Trade: A Good Shropshire Buck Lamb. Victor Dermott, St. Joe, R. R. 1. 38t1p.

Cider making, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, all season.
35tf. Widney Orchards.

For Sale: Pie Pumpkin, Squash and Sweet Potatoes.
38t1. A. D. Goodwin.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

For Sale: 18 acres land, good buildings, fruit, 2 wells, 2 cisterns, an ideal farm. See Geo. Lochner, Spencerville. Former Lucas farm. 38t2p.

For Sale: Apples, cider, vinegar. Prices reasonable. Widney Orchards. 35tf.

For Sale: 75 Barred Rock Pullets, past 6-months old. Geo. Lochner, opposite Spencerville school house. 38t1p.

House for Rent. Inquire at News Office. 36t1p.

For Sale: Pure Bred Shropshire Rams. J. C. Maryman, 1 mi. north on road 1, ½ mi. west and ½ mile north and west of Butler, Indiana. 37t2.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN. That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Martin L. Hull deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

DELBERT DRAGGOO,
Administrator.

September 17, 1934.
John C. Armstrong, Atty. 37t3.

A child's sorrow is as intense as it is brief.

NEWVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Thomas, of Garrett, visited relatives here Sunday.

County Assessor Miser, of Auburn, called on friends here Monday.

The U. B. Aid Society met Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 25, at the U. B. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins, of St. Joe, spent Sunday afternoon here with Mrs. Kate Fusselman.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, of Fort Wayne, were supper guests of his parents, Mr and Mrs. H. T. Smith.

C. C. Andrews, of Detroit, and sister, Catherine Mahoney, of Ft. Wayne, visited friends here on Thursday.

The Young People's class of the U. B. Sunday School will be entertained Friday evening by Miss Mary Moore.

Miss Belle Blair was under the care of a physician the first of the week, having an attack of heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chapman at Woodburn, Ind.

C. C. Andrews, who was here last week looking after his farming interests south of town, left Monday for Detroit, where he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Hill, who were here last week visiting relatives, left Saturday for their home in New York City. Mrs. Hill is a sister of George Cotrill.

A Missionary Institute will be held at the U. B. Church, Oct. 9. Miss Alice Bell, daughter of Bishop Bell, of Dayton, Ohio, will speak in the morning, afternoon and evening.

SPENCERVILLE

Mrs. Elima Gloyd, of Newville, spent Friday at this place.

George Henderson, of Auburn, was a visitor here Monday.

Roy Chaney had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse Sunday.

Leland Calaway, of Muncie, Ind., spent Sunday with his family at this place.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church was pleasantly entertained on last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fabianske.

The Young Ladies Social Club will meet on Friday evening with Mrs. Bina Gloyd.

Philip Carper and wife were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Abel south of town.

The guest day of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church was held on Thursday afternoon at the church.

Miss Wilda McNabb, of Fort Wayne, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Billman and Mrs. Sarah Betz of south of town.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sept. 23, was 71, collection, $2.87; Lutheran 65, collection, $2.69.

Mrs. Esther Gloyd and daughter, Beverly, were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hahn of east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Edwards, of Auburn and Mrs. Geoerge Metcalf of Garrett, spent Friday at the John McNabb and Roy Chaney homes.

Mrs. Jane Butler, who has spent several years with her sister, Mrs. Bine Boots and her brothers, west of town, is now at the home of her son, Frank Butler, south of town.

Mrs. Ethel Bowser entertained the Cheerful Workers class of the Methodist Sunday School at her home on Friday afternoon. Miss Vera Reed and Mrs. Cleo Reed were guests.

The C. C. Club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Kathryn Dean. Three guests were present, Mrs. Winnie Shook, Peggy Smith and Baby Butler. The contest was won by Mrs. Ruth Butler.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Mrs. Eva Shull spent Thursday with her son, Garth, and family.

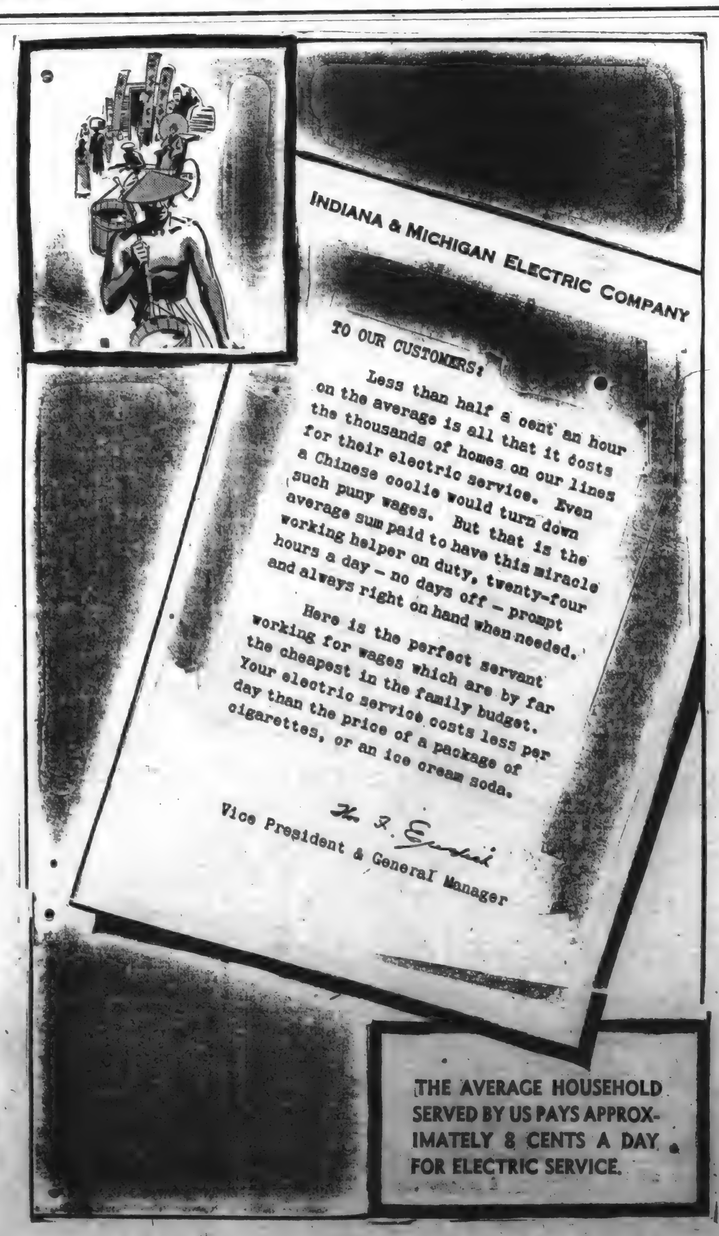
Uncle Joe Shull has been on the sick list a few days the past week.

Mrs. Gertrude Borthwich of St. Joe visited our Bible School Sunday.

Attendance at Coburn's Corners for Sept. 23 was 81, collection, $2.87.

Anna Mae Leavell is living in the Walter Coburn home at the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart called on Eva Shull Sunday and gave her a lovely bouquet of dahlias.



Sam Snyder, of Fort Wayne, spent several days the past week with his sister, Mrs. Hattie Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Higgins and Bess and Bob Klopfenstein, of Ft. Wayne, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kell Hart.

Mrs. Ruth Shull and children, of Hicksville and Lee Mercer and family visited with Mrs. Eva Shull and family Sunday afternoon.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Chas. Cochran has been confined to her bed several days with heart trouble.

A new garage is being built at the Shroyer property now occupied by Mrs. Russel Wade.

Mrs. L. D. Young, of Hicksville, O., spent last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Zay Sailer.

April Dawn Bowser took supper with Mary Louise Woodcox on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Margaret Ames, of Fort Wayne, was a Sunday visitor in the J. P. Buckingham home.

Miss Vernell Copp was a Monday evening supper guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Alice Copp.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shroyer were Sunday guests in the Jacob Duvall home on the County Line.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

The J. C. Hull residence has been painted the past week. Chas. Quance, of Fort Wayne assisted in the work.

Mrs. Fred Becker and Miss Mary Ross of near Kendallville spent Friday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Kinsey.

The potato crop will be a surprise when harvested. A sample is on display at News office, furnished by Forter Gee.

Mr. Carl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Brace and Mrs. Conine were Sunday dinner guests in the Mrs. Adam Shilling home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran and Miss Vernell Copp spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Copp at New Haven.

The stove ad and the grape ad run in the classified column sure did the business puick and were brdered cancelled at once, sold out

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bauserman, of Harlan and Mrs. Robert Nicholls, of Orangeville, were Friday guests of Mrs. Wm. Randall.

DuWayne Kinsey was home from Indianapolis Saturday for a short time. He drove his car back. He is getting along fine with his school work.

Mrs. Mary Betz and Mrs. Ada Berry and grandchildren, Jimmy and Jeanne Hatch, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Spencer and family at Fort Wayne.

A. K. Schondelmayer, wife and three sons were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. D. C. McCann. Wilbur McCann and friend from Butler were afternoon callers.

A lovely bouquet of pansies was presented to ye editor and wife last week, sent from John Coburn. They were of the large variety and beautiful colors. Thanks a lot.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Kilpatrick of Fort Wayne were Thursday guests in the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price. Sunday and Monday Mr. and Mrs. Price visited at Ft. Wayne in the Kilpatrick and Dill homes.

Commodore P. Hamman, 69, a former surveyor of DeKalb county, died at his Waterloo home Sunday morning. Edgar Atkinson, attorney of Auburn, delivered the funeral oration Wednesday afternoon, assisted by Rev. Ernest Lewellan, U. B. pastor.

The Tri-Township Farm Bureau will meet next Tuesday at the Gym. Butler township is preparing a play, and will present it. There will be other educational and entertaining numbers on the program. All Farm Bureau members and interested friends are invited.

The new Methodist pastor, now occupies the parsonage, moving in last Friday and the first of the week. Rev. Koehnlein and wife are ready and willing to help any one wanting their assistance and the parsonage is open to the charges. Telephone No. 70 will reach them.

Mixing alcohol with automobile driving was responsible for at least two of the accidents that claimed no less than ten lives in Indiana over the weekend, authorities held. And yet our officials say that booze will help bring back prosperity. Sure it will to the fellow who sells the stuff, the doctor and the undertaker.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Iona and Clarence Woodcox and their families were over Sunday guests in the home of Don Burley and family at Princeville Ill. The party was happily surprised when Mr. and Mrs. John Scrivo, of Detroit, joined them at the Burley home. The ladies remained a few days to accompany Mrs. Burley who had planned a trip to St. Joe.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and family spent the week-end with their parents, Mrs. Geo. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bishop. On Sunday the Johnson family and Mrs. Bishop attended Rehoboth Sunday School their attendance being 126 and offering $4.60. After Sunday School they took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Armstrong and Charles Armstrong and family.

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

The DeKalb County Commissioners will allow the following claims at their regular meeting October 1, 1934:

Indiana Bell Telephone Co., Telephone service, $70.88
Carl Walter, Clerk's office expense, $10.08
Levey Printing Co., Do., $136.94
Auburn Printing Co., Auditor's office expense, $77.04
Levey Printing Co., Do., $44.50
Levey Printing Co., Recorder's office expense, $38.33
John P. Hoff, Sheriff's mileage, $85.92
John P. Hoff, Sheriff's office expense, $3.00
Levey Printing Co., Do., $6.80
John P. Hoff, Transportation of criminals, $110.39
John P. Hoff, Trans., of insane, $62.46
John P. Hoff, Return of fugative criminals, $65.55
Carl F. Stallman, Co. Sup't. expense, $35.10
Dr. B. O. Shook, Coroner's expense, $95.95
Chas. E Miser, Assessor's office expense, $9.60
Nora I. Brown, Probation officer's salary, $57.00
Nora I. Brown, Probation officer's expense, $22.35
Myra Malone, Board of Children's Gdn., $10.00
Fay Blaker, Do., $15.00
Irma Brunson, Do., $15.00
Lizzie Dohner, Do., $20.00
Addie Campbell, Do., $10.00
Chloey Davis, Do., $20.00
Lenore DeRae, Do., $15.00
Josephine Donley, Do., $10.00
Sallie Ross, Do., $15.00
Violet Morgan, Do., $3.00
Ila Shilling, Do., $12.00
Anna Warstler, Do., $12.00
Flora Swaidner, Do., $10.00
Lucile Bearss, Do., $6.00
Goldie Johnson, Do., $7.50
Darnalda Kennedy, Do., $12.00
Sylvia Marti, Do., $15.00
Clara Krick, Do., $7.50
Alice Lower, Do., $20.00
Fannie Strange, Do., $20 00
Anna Snyder, Do., $15.00
Bertha Freeze, Do., $15.00
Geraldine Stirling, Do., $7.50
Ula Carroll, Do, $15.00
Jennie Frain, Do., $15.00
Elizabeth Sutton, Do, $10.00
Daisy Hampshire, Do., $15.00
Doris Noragon, Do., $15.00
Wm. Stonebraker, Court House Emp. salary, $125.00
J. H. Walter, Do., $75.00
Evan Link, Do., $75.00
Ella Johnson, Do., $25.00
Orville Summers, Repair of buildings and care grounds, $25.00
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Court House expense, $2.72
Fisher Bros. Paper Co., Do., $11.63
Fort Wayne Pipe & Supply Co., Do., $1.58
Auburn Dispatch, Do., $5.38
Auburn Courier, Do., $5.38
Ashton Staman, Do., 75 cents
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $123.94
Maurice O. Klingler, Jail physician, $10.00
John P. Hoff, Prisoner's board, $73.20
John P. Hoff, Pris. washing, $9.00
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Jail ex., $8.91
Ashton Staman, Do., $2.50
Sanco Prod. Co., Inc., Do., $68.59
Northern Ind. Fuel & Light, Do., $19.60
Sam C. Morr, Co Farm Emp. salary, $83.33
Mrs. Hilda Heil, Do., $41.66
Mrs. Lena Workman, Do., $30.00
Lizzie Workman, Co. Farm expense, $15.00
Emery Bowman, Do., $12.50
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $21.36
E. A. Baker, Do., $39.27
DeKalb Co. Farm Bureau, Do., $49.38
Howard Hinklin, Do., $57.00
Maurice O. Klingler, Do., $37.50
Culbertson Hdwe. Co., Do., $5.62
William Dursh, Do., $118.00
The McBride Co., Do., $6.96
C. H. Heinzerling, Do., $6.68
Ashton Staman, Do., $6.69
Mike Lumm, Do., $25.98
Gillett Canning Kitchen, Do., $52.71
Auburn Cider Mill, Do., $12.15
Northern Ind. Fuel & Light, Do., $10.00
Standard Oil Co., Do., $64.49
Arthur Grube, Commissioner's expense, $14.46
Chas. G. Potter, Do., $14.10
Cleve H. Grube, Do., $14.64
Dr. W. W. Swarts, Health Comm. salary, $93.41
Dr. W. W. Swartz, Health Comm. expense, $18.92
W. W. Sharpless, Co. Attorney's salary, $100.00
Auburn Courier, Public printing, $7.49
The Auburn Dispatch, Do., $7.49
Auburn Courier, Do., $77.28
Fred B. Leighty, Do., $74.88
The Waterloo Press, Do., $39.10
Henry E. Johnson, Soldier's burial, $75.00
John L. Weaver, Jackson Twp. Poor, $313.58
Geo. E. Baysinger, Keyser Twp. Poor, $66.77
S. E. Shutt, Do., $2790.70
Rue W. Murray, Union Twp. Poor, $2121.67
Charles Hosler, Butler Twp. Poor, $498.80
J. W. Camp, Smithfield Twp. Poor, $933.02
O. M. Foote, Richland Twp. Poor. $366.88
J. B. McClellan, Troy Twp. Poor, $4.50
Frank E. Rhodes, Spencer Twp. Poor, $100.90
W. C. Miller, Stafford Twp. Poor, $181.89
Sacred Heart Hospital, Do., $30.36
Sherman T. Meek, Newville Twp. Poor, $110.76
Harry Imhoff, Grant Twp. Poor, $1499.69
Ora E. Rowe, Fairfield Twp. Poor, $339.13
John W. Duncan, Franklin Twp. Poor, $125.53
O. K. Shull, Concord Twp. Poor, $319.70
S. O. DeVitt, Wilmington Twp. Poor, $1588.67
The Julia E. Work Training School, Orphan Poor in other Inst., $69.00
White's Manual Labor Inst., Do., $507.00
David Rogers' Orphan Home, Do., $116.25
Thelma L. Grosh, Drain ex., $1.00
Kenneth D. Smith, Do., $9.48
DeKalb Co. Farm Bureau, Do., $80
John Moore, Do., $1.20
Cloy Beree, Do., $24.50
Noah Williams, Do., $2.35
Sherman Meek, Do., $11.92
John Edwards, Do., $48.00
Irene Byron Sanatorium, Irene Byron expense, $400.57
City of Auburn, Bridge ex., $611.38
Gust Glawe, Co. Owned farm expense, $6.00
C. C. Kain, Gravel road repair, $149.70
Bruce Shanton, Do., $95.44
Fred Hewet, Do., $24.00
William Huet, Do., $24.00
Paul Zonker, Do. $31.50
Avery Stahl, Do., $26.40
Elias Stahl, Do., $31.20
Hertial Pressler, Do., $16.80
Theodore Hoffmeyer, Do., $31.80
Harve Zonker, Do., $31.50
Clyde Willhelm, Do., $39.00
Walter Kammerer, Do., $27.00
Jay Sootherland, Do., $6.30
Bob Dunkin, Do., $4.20
Amos Wiltrout, Do., $14.40
Abert Pancop, Do., $21.60
Charles Boyton, Do., $7.20
Phil Martz, Do., $8.40
Lovie Stahl, Do., $16.00
Art Zimmerman, Do., $40.80
Earl McCarty, Do., $5.20
C. C. Neidig, Do., $20.05
J. B. Lindsey, Do., $9.60
J. C. Snider, Do., $21.60
C. P. Martin, Do., $94.50
Lige Weaver, Do., $55.80
J. P. Grimm, Do., $19.50
Edward Shenk, Do., $29.25
Arnol Burtch, Do., $53.10
Loyd Tarlton, Do., $51.00
John Tarlton, Do., $28.80
Frank Hovarter, Do., $18.70
John Chittenden, Do., $4.00
C. U. Bowers, Do., $10.75
McLaughlin Garage, Do., $2.19
Garrett Lumber Co., Do., $2.71
Little's Hardware, Do., $8.04
Kenneth Martin, Do., $6.30
Henry Carpenter, Do., $6.00
E. H. Barley, Do, $94.50
E. R. Brunison, Do., $9.45
T. A. Worman, Do., $8.35
Jay Bunge, Do., $95.24
Andy Love, Do., $11.55
Waldo Smith, Do., $8.55
James Crooks, Do., $8.55
Clark Roberts, Do., $4.80
John Walker, Do., $18.20
Bert Kepler, Do., $2.60
Chester Shults, Do., $6.60
Ben Link, Do., $16.65
Curtis Henderson, Do., $6.50
Wayne Durst, Do., $4.00
J. C. Day, Do., $2.13
Geo. Headley, Do., $2.00
Fred Reinig, Do., $34.80
Olus Everhart, Do., $12.50
Wm. Keeler, Do., $97.20
Russell Lyons, Do., $20.15
Lloyd Monroe, Do., $14.30
Fred Elson, Do., $4.00
John Timmerman, Do., $2.50
Harp Leighty, Do., $28.80
Frank Bechtel, Do., $28.80
Vern Coburn, Do., $19.20
Cecil Shilling, Do., $19.50
Frank Meese, Do., $19.50
Ward Woodcox, Do., $11.10
Harry Shuff, Do., $8.70
Johnnie Cook, Do., $20.40
Donald Ayers, Do., $20.40
Wm. Henley, Do., $6.00

(Continued on Supplement)

free RUBBER RINGS for your Separator for a Limited Time
YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make... free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl... a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly.
Anker-Holth POINT RICHMOND, CALIF.
27t14

SEPTEMBER

L 919

L 375

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

(Continued from Page 4)

Elmer Johns, Do., $95.08
Wm. McCann, Do., $42.00
Geo. Campbell, Do., $18.00
Theron Little & Helper, Do., $10.50
Grover Klinkle, Do., $2.40
Sherm Ginder, Do., $16.80
Delbert Jenks, Do., $7.20
Basil Krontz, Do., $10.20
Paul Nichols, Do., $4.80
Lester Copeland & Helper, Do., $13.20
Russell Houser, Do., $4.55
Ralph Krontz, Do., $7.20
Phillip Brown, Do., $9.00
Orla Griffin, Do., $9.75
Robt. Swinehart, Do., $21.90
Ezra Weicht, Do., $6.60
Kenneth Enzor, Do., $3.00
Rile Carpenter, Do., $14.90
Mrs. N. O. Griffin, Do., $2.50
Butler Lumber Co., Do., $16.71
C. D. VanZile, Do., $86.40
M. K. Baldwin, Do., $94.50
Fred Rosenberry, Do., $94.50
Jack Johnson, Do., $94.50
Mack Hatch, Do., $86.40
Wm. Rugman, Do., $76.80
Lester Casselman, Do., $70.70
A. J. Wilson, Do., $31.50
Harry Tomlinson, Do., $24.00
Frank Bowman, Do, $43.80
Dale Kreischer, Do., $39.60
C. O. Baker, Do., $24.00
Carlyn Axtel, Do., $12.00
Raymond Guilford, Do., $7.20
Frank Fulk, Do., $2.40
Chas. Mottinger, Do., $7.20
Mitchel Salyers, Do., $16.80
Richard Klink, Do., $19.20
Wm. Kessler, Do., $24.00
Frank Hidy Do., $19.20
Tom Cochran, Do., $12.00
D. Parker, Do., $4.80
John Wilson, Do., $14.40
Robt. Cool, Do., $16.80
Geo. Rosenberry, Do, $36.00
Alvin Camp, Do., $12.00
Joe Everetts, Do., $28.80
Forrest Harrison, Do., $42.60
Eugene Whitman, Do., $36.00
G. B. Everetts, Do., $12.00
Edw. Daub, Do., $12.00
E. Webb, Do., $19.20
Arnold Link, Do., $9.60
Wilbur Good, Do., $19.20
Hollis Farrington, Do., $12.00
Dean Miles, Do., $4.80
Jas. Kanala, Do., $12.00
Christ Burns, Do., $24.00
Jas. DeWitt, Do., $19.20
Chas. DeWitt, Do., $21.60
Forrest Beaty, Do., $24.00
Mike Cochran, Do., $4.80
John Ball, Do., $9.60
Orvil Summers, Do., $4.80
Louis LaFever, Do., $4.80
Harry Wright, Do., $9.60
Merritt Hanson, Do., $7.20
John Helmer, Do., $12.00
Jim Dorsey, Do., $4.80
Chas. Tuttle, Do., $7.20
Alvie Wyatt, Do., $2.40
Lloyd Carper, Do., $9.60
Robt Widdecomb, Do, $6.90
Millard Rosenberry, Do., $7.20
L. E. Brunkhart, Do., $9.60
Wm. King, Do., $42.00
Wm. Burns, Do., $42.90
Henry Zitsman, Do., $46.50
Lamon Aldrich, Do., $62.00
Thelma L. Grosh, Do., $5.00
Ted Everts, Do., $7.50
Chas. Dickerhoff, Do., $5.00
Erwin Nelson, Do., $13.20
E. M. Kain, Do., $4.80
Lyman Bidlack, Do., $21.30
Justin Glawe, Do., $6.60
Clyde DePew, Do., $3.00
Jack Coffey, Do., $25.80
John H. Johnson, Do., $18.60
William Markle, Do., $40.50
Samuel Wasson, Do., $40.50
Ralph Duesler, Do., $10.50
John Cupp, Do., $26.00
Cleo Sherwood, Do., $9.90
D. J. Grogg, Do., $15.90
Ralph Bohler, Do., $6.00
Henry Teves, Do., $13.80
Levi Rowe, Do., $7.20
Shuyler Hetrick, Do., $40.00
Elmer E. Cook, Do., $11.70
Tom Perry, Do., $12.00
Tom Perry, Do., $10.50
John Moore, Do., $2.40
William Goe, Do., $1.20
Rosenberry & Carper, Do., $506.50
Chas. Wilson, Do., $230.55
Earl McCarty, Do., $52.00
Auburn Sand & Gravel Co., Do., $201.25
C. C. Kain. Do., $6.00
Auburn Machine Works, Do., $40.46
Auburn Hdwe. Co., Do., $80.05
DeKalb Co. Farm Bureau, Do., $3.40
George Merrifield, Do., $8.00
Indiana Bell Telephone Co., Do., $6.85
Indian Refining Co., Do., $17.00
W. K. Schaab, Do., $40.00
Wayne Cylinder Grinding Co., Do., $5.67
Goodall Lumber Co., Do., $50.25
McComb Ignition Co., Do., $8.25
Korte Bros. Inc., Do., $25.08
W. Q. O'Nealle Co., Do., $429.16
Wilson Tire Co., Do., $5.30
Culbertson Hdwe. Co., Do., $6.14
Beidler's Variety Store, Do., $22.00
Grogg Radiator Repair Shop, Do., $1.00
Corbin Auto Parts, Do., $27.40
Central Motors Parts Co., Do., $37.95
Cockrell Tractor Co., Do, $1.75
Auburn Automobile Co., Do., $10.85
Wayne Welding & Supply Co., Do., $8.51
Maxton Chevrolet Corp., Do., $45.63
Hoosier Truck Part Co., Do., $3.00
Swan-Finch Oil Corp., Do., $40.80
The Brooks Oil Co., Do., $35.49

SEPTEMBER

L 919

U 3 7 6

COMMISSIONERS CLAIMS

National Mill Supply Co., Do., $25.98
General Motors Truck Co., Do., $36.88
Auburn Water & Light, Do., $2.75
Russell Richards, Do., $21.00
Clarence Houser, Do., $15.10
Sherman Enzor, Do., $33.60
John Edwards, Do., $32.40
Jacob Rosenberry, Do., $135.75
Sam & Noble Carnahan, Do., $19.20
Gust Glawe, Do., $57.00
Chas. Mortorff, Do., $8.83
Foster Gee, Do., $7.80
Harvey Loucks, Do., $6.75
Harley Like, Do., $6.15
Harry Shuff, Do., $6.15
Auburn Buick Sales, Do., $18.80
Standard Oil Co., Do., $781.12

COURT ALLOWANCES

Herrick's Restaurant, Meals for Jurors, $5.85
A. E. Stein, Law and Library Books, $16.00
Auburn Printing Co, Printing Bar Docket, $46.60

FRANK E. LYON, Auditor.

TIME CHANGES

..With Saturday at midnight the reign of D. S. Time comes to an end and all discussion will have to be turned to politics...All of our people will again be operating on Standard time. only...Don't. forget to turn up your time piece and be at that appointment on time.

If strikes really do mean prosperity, America is rolling in wealth.

Postmaster General Farley refers to all critics of the administration as obstructionists. On that basis he was quite an obstructionist himself back in 1932.

With hogs at the highest price since 1931, just think how all those slaughtered little pigs could have done their part toward farm relief!

In the old days is was just the chain stores that used to worry the corner grocery. Now, with the government raising the H. C. L. and engaging in the food business, the groceryman is learning something about cutthroat competition.

Force-Feed World's Fair Snake

Frank Buck (in white suit), shown as he helped to feed the giant python in his Jungle Camp at A Century of Progress. Twelve men were required to make the snake eat his forty pounds of beef. The Jungle Camp, with the rest of the expoeition, closes forever Oct. 31.

L 919

U377

OCTOBER

OCTOBER

L 919

U 378

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1934 — NUMBER 39

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Last week ended the first month of school. The attendance records show an enrollment of 143 in the upper grades; an average daily attendance of 137; per cent attendance of 97.1; and 93 who have been neither tardy nor absent.

Enrollment in the primary room was 37; average daily attendance, 35.8; per cent attendance, 98; and 30 neither absent nor tardy; third and fourth grade enrollment, 40; average daily attendance, 37; per cent attendance, 95.7; fifth and sixth grade enrollment, 40; average daily attendance, 38; per cent attendance, 98; number neither tardy nor absent was 27.

Report cards will be issued in the lower six grades this week. In the upper six grades the grading periods will be five and six week periods in each semester. Hence grade cards for grades seven to twelve will be issued next week. Parents are requested to inspect these reports carefully and cooperate whenever they find unsatisfactory grades.

There will be no school on Friday of this week. DeKalb County schools will attend the Auburn Free Fall Fair on that day. The Concord Township junior and senior high school booth will be found on the stage of the assembly room in the court house. Pupils and teachers will appreciate your visitation of the booth.

Absentees during the past week have been Coral Platter, Wilmer and Glenis Osmun, Mary Stewart, Beulah Storer, Louise Sechler, Kathryn Young, Ronald Borthwick, Mable Glawe, James Souder, Ray and Betty Littlefield.

Basketball practice started this week. Medical examinations required by the state athletic association were given on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Pupils are permitted to play basketball upon the written consent of their parents and a physician's approval of their health condition.

The sophomore class held a party in the school gymnasium on last Friday evening. Mr. Noffsinger and Mr. Gerdes were faculty guests. Other guests were Ethebel Freeburn, of Fort Wayne and Kent Curie, of Kendallville.

Luella Strouse entered school in the fifth grade last week. She had been confined to her home with a broken arm.

MUSICAL PROGRAM FOR OLD SETTLERS' MEETING

"Wagner's Old Time Fiddler's," of Waterloo, under direction of Mr. John Wagner, will give a program of musical stunts with violins.

The Auburn High School Girls Double Quartette, under direction of Miss Clarice McKinney, musical director of Auburn schools, will give several songs appropriate to the occasion.

Prof. William Melton, of Auburn, will present violin solos and duets and also a "brass" quartette.

"Herr" Noah Yoder, the musical director, will present his famous "Little German Band," with several of their most "touching" selections.

If the weather on Saturday afternoon happens to be rainy or unusually chilly, the "old settlers' " meeting will be held in the lobby of the court house, where everybody will be comfortable.

Every citizen of DeKalb County, whether old or young, should take advantaeg of this home-coming day to meet and greet old-time friends.

Beside the musical program arranged for the Old Settlers' meeting, the many amusements and attractions of the Free Fall Fair will make this one of the fullest days of your lives—a day you can't afford to miss.

A RULING ON FARMER INCOMES

Money received from the Federal government or its agencies as crop allotment payments or from similar plans or cantracts affecting the production of corps, is taxable under the Indiana Gross Income Tax law at one per cent, according to a regulation issued by the legal department of the state Gross Income Tax division. The present taxpaying period extends from October 1 to 15, with blanks now available at St. Joe News office.

Money received by farmers thru contracts under which they agree not to produce crops on a certain portion of their land, it was explained, is considered payment as rent. Rental money received from the Federal government is not exempt under the gross income tax law, which provides only for exemption of "proceeds from the sale to, or emoluments paid by, the United States government," the regulation held. Rental payment was held to be neither a sale nor an emolument.

Money received from the Federal government or its agencies on account of livestock contracts, however, is exempt from gross income tax, the regulation said. Receipts from livestock contracts are considered benefit payments as the sales price of livestock and therefore exempt as a sale to the government.

PAY ASSESSMENTS IN CLOSING OF BANK

Entries were made in the DeKalb circuit court Friday for judgments against John R. Leighty, Ray Reasoner and Frank R. Bowman for their stockholders' liability in the liquidation of the St. Joe Valley bank.

The judgments follows: Mr. Leighty, $7,157.50, payable 10 pen cent monthly beginning Nov. 1; Mr. Reasoner, $411.25, payable $51.40 Jan. 1, 1935, and the balance in similar installments monthly; and Mr. Bowman, $511.-25, payable 10 per cent monthly beginning Nov. 1. Deferred payments bear 6 per cent interest.

The decree stipulates that the judgments are to be paid in the extent necessary to liquidate the bank's indebtedness.

Capt. W. D. Stump is attorney for Frank M. Brandon, special representative of the state department of financial institutions in the liquidation of the bank; while former Judge Dan M. Link is counsel for the three stockholders. The judgments were entered by agreement.

Picks Raspberries

Mrs. Addie Koch holds the record as a gardener. She canned about 23 quarts of raspberries in their season off only a few garden bushes and now she is picking them by the handful for table use and they are not of the ever-bearing type. The refreshing rains are supposed to be responsible. Call her if you wish to engage your supply.

New School Janitor

Frank Curie was relieved of his labors as janitor at the school house on Monday morning, by trustee O. K. Shull, when Carlton Shull was ordered to take up the work.

Frank Curie had held the place for seven years.

Band Elects Officers

At the annual business meeting of members of the Grabill Concert Band recently officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Abner F. Gerig, director; Don Fryback, assistant director; Maurice Klopfenstein, secretary, and Noah G. Witmer, business manager.

Asks for Commissioner

Elgin Curie, administrator of the Wm. Curie estate, has petitioned the DeKalb circuit court for appointment of a commissioner to convey to Rolla R. and Franc Wiers real estate at St. Joe that had been sold to the latter on a contract by the late Wm. Curie and his wife. Attorney H. C. Springer represents the estate.

Check Fee In Operation

Due to bank fee of 4 cents for cashing foreign checks, the I. & M. Electric Co., has issued orders to all collection agents to refrain from cashing checks. Your personal check will be accepted for the correct amount of your bill or the cash.

Lose Vinegar

A loss of 2,000 gallons of vinegar was suffered at the Leighty Orchard Sunday night, when some prowler left the tank spicket open. It was discovered Monday morning by Ray Reasoned when he arrivel for work. The loss approximates $600. This will injure the spring sale of vinegar at the orchard as this was in the making for next spring sales.

Visiting Grandparents

Master Jimmie Koch, of Fort Wayne, is here for a few days visit with his grandparents For the past two weeks he has been very busy driving taxi at Fort Wayne and was unable to look after his grandparents He persuded Joseph to look after business while he came to St. Joe.

VIVIAN BURNIER, AUBURN, TO WED OCT. 21

Announcement of the coming marriage of Miss Vivian Burnier, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Burnier, of 901 South Indiana avenue, was made Friday evening at a party at the Burnier residence. Miss Burnier will wed Ted Einkopf of Garrett on Oct. 21.

A luncheon consisting of combination salad, wafers, sandwiches, orangeade and pickles was served at a table decorated with a pink crepe cover. Pink and green ribbon streamers were laid to each plate from a centerpiece, which was a miniature dairy truck containing cards on which were written, "Vivian and Ted," October 21. The prospective groom is employed by the Haynes dairy at Garrett.

SQUIRREL SEASON TO CLOSE ON OCTOBER 15

Hoosier hunters who have been enjoying real sport during the squirrel season which opened on August 1, must put their guns away after Monday, October 15, the closing date of the open season. Reports from game wardens over the state have indicated that squirrels were plentiful in most sections and that many sportsmen have had more than their usual success.

The closing of the open season on squirrels leaves the hunter looking forward to the open season on quail which begins Saturday, November 10, and to the opening of the rabbit season which will start on Monday, November 12. The rabbit season opens on November 11 but will be delayed a day this year as the 11th falls on Sunday when hunting is prohibited by law.

COBURN'S CORNERS HOME COMING

Dear Friends: You are cordially invited to attend the Annual Home-Coming of the Coburn Corners Church of Christ, Sunday, October 7th. Sunday School and sermon by pastor in forenoon. Basket dinner in the basement.

State Senator Larry Brandon will speak in the afternoon. Music by Colored Quartette. Come and enjoy the day with us.

FRED E. HART,
Chairman.

All persons above 65 years of age will have photo taken free of charge by the News-Sentinel staff photographer.

VANDALISM IS ON A RAMPAGE

Each winter there seems to be more or less vandalism committed in St. Joe, but the officials report more already, than ever known for a single winter before. The meddling with the town pump causes them much expense and worry; destroying of all kinds of property; committing of wastes on the street; noise-making autos running the streets late at night; intruders on property at night and the ransacking of truck patches in search of a living without working, all of which adds to the exaspiration of local officers and a drive will soon be inaugurated to bring some of the offenders to justice.

PLEASANT SURPRISE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee was the scene of a pleasant gathering for Sunday dinner, in honor of their daughter, Mildred. Mrs. Frank Curie and Mrs. Gee were the hostesses. Each family contributing toward the dinner.

Mildred's mother invited her and children over to dinner as a pre-birthday affair. She was quite surprised on arrival to find that the dinner party numbered about twenty-four.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Curie and Miss Lily Ernest, of Garrett; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Mavis and Betty and Everett, Jr., of Auburn; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Jump, Miss June Jump, and Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook, of Hicksville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie and Misses Lucille and Ruth and Master Frank Curie, Mrs. Jennie Abel, Mrs. Chas. H. Curie and children, Harold, Joan and Carlton and Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee, of St. Joe.

Anniversary Party

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins and sons, Hollis and Carl entertained a merry group of friends and relatives Sunday. A bounteous dinner was served. The centerpiece was a beautiful bouquet of dahlias, grown by Mrs. Kate Fusselman, an aunt of Mr. Akins. The occasion being the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Akins and son, Hollis and the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Akins. The following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cotrill and daughters, Alice and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Don Blair and grandson, Carman Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Blair and daughter, Joyce Ann, of Butler, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fusselman, Edgerton, Ohio; Mr. M. E. Foltz, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Inez Chapman, Angola; Mrs. Kate Fusselman, Butler; L. C. Greist, Hicksville, O.; Rev. and Mrs. J. O. Scholes, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham, Mr. Harley Graham and Marie, Frank, Hollis and Carl Akins, St. Joe, Ind.

Pleasant Gathering

Mrs. Matilda Oberholtzer was entertained by her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren at a pot luck supper at her home recently. Those present were: Mrs. Rally Markle and family, Mr. Paul Dean and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Markle, of Spencerville; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Oberholtzer, of Three Rivers, Mich.; Mr. Eck Hursh and family, of Hurshtown; Mrs. Minnie Oberholtzer and family, and Mr. Merritt Oberholtzer, of Harlan; Mr. William Oberholtzer and family, of Lakehurst, N. J., and Mr. Geo. Doll and family, of Fort Wayne.

At the Bluffton Fair

Quite a number from here attended the Bluffton street fair last week including Jean Goodwin, Eloise Draggoo, Harriett Yeiser, Bob Storer, Walter Erwin, Carl Goodwin, and Earl Kinsey, who went on Friday; Lloyd Shrader, Marshall Morr, Carrol Platter, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. John Engle, who went on Saturday. They all made their headquarters at the Ora Baker home.

WALLACE SPEAKS AT ANGOLA OCTOBER 9

Hon. Henry A. Wallace, United States Secretary of Agriculture, is to be the headliner attraction and only speaker at the annual farmers' picnic and 4-H fair to be held on the fair grounds at Angola on Tuesday, Oct. 9th. Secretary Wallace will speak in the early afternoon. The forenoon of the day will be given over to a parade and display of 4-H exhibits. The schools of the county will close. The American Legion drum corps will head a parade of club live stock.

The fair is held under the auspices of the Steuben County Farm Bureau and the Steuben County Chamber of Commerce, and all farm organizations and Four-H clubs in Northeastern Indiana are invited to attend.

Clinic Next Week

The second T. B. Clinic of the year will be held Wednesday, Oct. 10, in the Auburn City Hall from 10 A. M to 4 P. M. There are free to persons wishing examination.

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Leighty Orchard

ST. JOE, INDIANA

APPLES are maturing very slowly this season so our farm sales will not begin until OCTOBER 15th.

If you have ordered in advance you will be notified when to come for them.

CIDER VINEGAR HONEY

NO SALES ON SUNDAY

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

C. E. McCLINTOCK

Attorney at Law

City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.

Auburn, Indiana

Huber Theatre

HICKSVILLE, OHIO

Thursday, Friday, Saturday
OCTOBER 4-5-6
"HANDY ANDY"
Will Rogers. Fun and Laughter.
See Bill Rogers

Sunday and Monday
OCTOBER 7-8
"THE GIRL FROM MISSOURI"
Jean Harlow — Lionel Barrymore
Also Special Attraction
"Donnie Quintuplets"
Secured from the Canadian govern ment. The one and only Quintuplets in the world. See them.
Show starting at 4:30; 6:30; and 8:30 p. m. on Sunday.

WE PAY

Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange

Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

FALL NEEDS

Just a REMINDER of a few things you need. If your roof is leaking, you need repairs. For this we have Roll Roofing, and if not too bad we have Roof Paint, good heavy Asbestos filled.

You may need a Heating Stove, some Stove Pipe, Stove Board, then we still hove only a few of those real PERFECTION OIL STOVES AT A GREAT REDUCTION—

Never any more at this price....

We have JARS for Kraut

Axes, Saws, Sledges, Forks, Lanterns, Aladdin Lamps, Tools of almost any kind.Brooms, Tubs, Boilers, Clothes Baskets and Hampers, Corn Baskets, Husking Pegs, Binder Twine, Buck Saws, Milk Pails, Flash Lights, Alarm Clocks, Clothes Lines, Clothes Pins, Electric Irons, Electric Toasters, Electric Light Bulbs, a fine lot of Aluminum and Enamel Ware.

Don't forget our Paint Department--A great Assortment

In our Furniture Department we have Mirrors, Lamps, Rugs, Mattresses, Occasional Tables, End Tables, Breakfast Sets, Kitchen Cabinets, Dining Room Sets, Bedroom Sets, A fine line of ZENITH RADIOS priced to suit all buyers and many other things you need. Always remember if we have it, it is a LITTLE CHEAPER HERE.

Kinsey Hardware & Furniture Company

Kinsey Funeral Home

Economical and Dependable Service
Licensed Embalmer Attendant

Ambulance Service. Phone 37W

OCTOBER

L 919

U 379

HERE IS PATTERN FOR THAT FROCK

PATTERN 9929

If you know you must have a new frock but are undecided as to just what it should be, this pattern will make up your mind for you. It is the kind of a frock everybody always likes and looks well in—even if she does weigh an ounce or two more than she should. That long rever is a wonder-worker—it slims at the same time it gives smartness—and the V front and back just below the beltless waistline is another flattering detail. You will probably want to make this frock of a sheer cotton.

Pattern 9929 may be ordered only in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards 36 inch fabric, and ⅝ yard contrast.

Complete, diagrammed sew chart included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

REDUCING

"My doctor says I'll have to reduce," said Mr. Dustin Stax.

"You don't look overweight."

"I refer to my business doctor. He says I must reduce dividends."

Royal Repose

"I'm sorry to keep grumbling, Mrs. Higgin," said the boarder, "but really I cannot sleep in that bed another night."

"I'd have you know," was the landlady's haughty rejoinder, "that that bed is fit for the prince of Wales."

"Ah," replied the other, "that explains why it has only three feathers."—London Humorist.

Rightly Named

Waller—Baker calls his farm the "Crazy Quilt."

Wacker—Why?

Waller—It contains an onion patch, watermelon patch, also potato and cabbage patches.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Gentle Hint?

"What do you call that thing with a rim around it?"

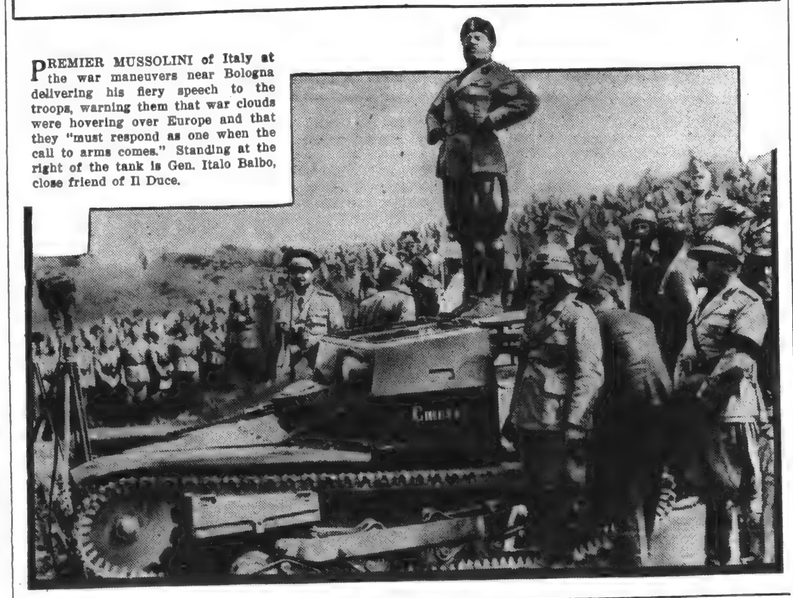
"Do you by any chance refer to a ring?"

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

THE KEY TO QUALITY GUM

Il Duce Tells of "War Clouds Over Europe"

PREMIER MUSSOLINI of Italy at the war maneuvers near Bologna delivering his fiery speech to the troops, warning them that war clouds were hovering over Europe and that they "must respond as one when the call to arms comes." Standing at the right of the tank is Gen. Italo Balbo, close friend of Il Duce.



BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

PETER DISCOVERS SOMETHING STARTLING

NOT far from the Old Orchard grew a thorn-tree which Peter often passed. He never had paid particular attention to it. One morning he stopped to rest under it. Happening to look up, he saw a most astonishing and startling sight. Fastened on the sharp thorns of one of the branches were three big grasshoppers, a big moth, two big caterpillars, a lizard, a small mouse, and a young English sparrow.

Do you wonder that Peter thought he must be dreaming? He couldn't imagine how those creatures could have become fastened on those long, sharp thorns. It was a dreadful sight. Somehow it gave him an uncomfortable feeling. He didn't want to stay around there, yet it was hard to tear himself away. However, finally he did and hurried over to the Old Orchard, bubbling over with desire to tell someone of the strange and dreadful thing he had seen in the thorn-tree and to try to find out what it meant.

"You're wrong, Johnny Chuck. You are altogether wrong."

Sitting on his doorstep under the big apple tree in the far corner of the Old Orchard he found Johnny Chuck and at once hurried to tell him the strange news. Johnny didn't interrupt once. When Peter had finished his story, Johnny quite frankly told him that never had he heard of such a thing, and that he thought Peter must have been dreaming and didn't know it.

Now, Peter knew that he hadn't been dreaming. He knew that he had seen with his very own eyes that dreadful sight in the thorn-tree and he grew quite indignant with Johnny Chuck for doubting him. But Johnny persisted in refusing to believe and repeated that he was certain Peter must have dreamed it.

"You're wrong, Johnny Chuck. You are altogether wrong. Peter hasn't been dreaming at all," said Skimmer the Swallow, who lives in a hole in the tree just above Johnny Chuck's house and had been sitting where he overheard everything.

"Well, if you know so much about it, please explain," said Johnny Chuck rather crossly.

"It's simple enough," replied Skimmer. "Peter just happened to find the storehouse of Butcher the Shrike. It isn't a very pleasant sight, I must admit, but one must give Butcher credit for being smart enough to lay up a store of food when it was plentiful. When you come to think about it, I don't know why one who eats that kind of food shouldn't store it up the same as some others store up other kinds of foods. Of course, those things won't keep long, but they will keep from one meal to another, and probably that is all Butcher wants."

"Who is Butcher the Shrike," demanded Peter. "He's new to me."

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Do YOU Know—

That the first wearer of a top hat was John Hetherington, who strutted the streets of London in 1797, and created such excitement that he was arrested for disturbing the peace. The summons accused him "of wearing in a public thoroughfare a tall structure of shiny lustre, calculated to frighten timid folks."

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN... The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

A friend of mine told me he knew a married woman 58 years of age who sleeps in the same room with cats. Do you believe this?

Truly yours,
X. ACKTING.

Answer: Sure, I believe it. Your friend probably is referring to Mrs. Kats.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I live in a town and to go to work I must take a ferry over the river. Why doesn't the city government build a bridge?

Yours truly,
MRS. SIPPE.

Answer: They're afraid it will make the people cross.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am eight years old and am in the fourth grade in school. I have to write a story about a "Southern Planter." What does the teacher mean by a "Southern Planter."

Yours truly,
I. PUPIL.

Answer: A "Southern Planter," my child, is an undertaker who operates only in the South.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

There is so much talk about "Society" changing in the last twenty-five years. If this is true, can you describe the change?

Yours truly,
I. M. A. CLIMBER.

Answer: Twenty-five years ago you married into "Society." Today you divorce into it.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

On my recent trip through the West the train stopped at a little town in Arizona. The conductor of our train pointed to a rough looking man on the platform and told me that the man he was pointing at had killed twenty men. Do you think cowboys are really as bad as that?

Truly yours,
O. PINSPACES.

Answer: No, I don't. In fact the fellow you saw in Arizona was not a cowboy but a taxi driver from the East who was in Arizona on his vacation.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I gave my son, who is twelve years of age, a job to break a big rock which was in our back yard. He hammered away at it for four hours without any result. I took the hammer and broke the rock with the first blow. What is the present generation coming to?

Sincerely,
AMASSA STONE.

Answer: It was easy for you to break it after your son made it soft for you.

© the Associated Newspapers. WNU Service.

Dress for Morning

This dress of soft green wool striped in a lighter shade and trimmed with matching silk duvetyne revers, belt and scarf, is an excellent choice for mornings in town.

Population Increase Centers

In the last few years three-fourths of the total population increase in this country occurred in or within thirty miles of our ninety-five cities of over 100,000 population.

Seeks to Regain His Throne

THE Panchen Lama, who was driven out of Tibet by the Dalai Lama in 1924 and exiled to China, presiding at a religious ceremony in the Forbidden City of Peiping before starting the long journey back in an effort to regain his throne.

YOU AWAY?

By ANNE CAMPBELL

YOU'VE gone away? Ah, no, you are still here
In every room that treasures your sweet grace.
I linger in your chair and feel you near,
Your mirror seems to miss your absent face.
The curtains meet the breeze, their creamy lace
Waving like phantom arms to bid you come.
Your loved books wait in their accustomed place.
Outside there is the town's familiar hum.

You've gone away? Ah, no, you could not go
Beyond my heart's pavilion. You are there
With the bright lamp of friendliness aglow,
Sending its beams to light me up life's stair.
You will be with me whether joy or care
Is my companion in the days to be.
Absent or present, you are everywhere!
You are away, perhaps, but not from me!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

THE VERSATILE BANANA

AS the banana is a fruit always on the market, it is a constant source of comfort in time of emergency when a hurry-up dish is necessary.

Banana Whip.

Cook three mashed bananas in a double boiler with one-third of a cupful of sugar and one tablespoonful of lemon juice until scalded. Add a few drops of vanilla, a pinch of salt, and cool. Whip one cupful of heavy cream until firm, then add the banana mixture gradually. Set aside to chill. Serve piled high in sherbet glasses with chopped pistachio nuts for garnish.

Banana Tapioca Cream.

Peel and scrape three bananas and cut into slices. Prepare a custard by scalding two cupfuls of milk with three tablespoonfuls of tapioca and cook until the tapioca is clear. Add two egg yolks mixed with three tablespoonfuls of sugar, one-third of a teaspoonful of salt. Cook for two minutes, cool and add a few drops of vanilla. Beat the egg whites until stiff, adding three tablespoonfuls of sugar and a tablespoonful of lemon juice. Pour one-third of the custard into the serving dish, cover with bananas, add more custard and more bananas. Pour the remaining custard over the remaining egg whites and top the dish. Garnish with banana slices.

Boston Banana Cream Pie.

Break a[illegible] egg into a measuring cup, add softened butter (two tablespoonfuls), fill the cup with milk. Turn into a mixing bowl, and beat with one and one-half cups of flour sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake in two layer pans. Whip a cupful of cream, sweeten to taste, flavor with almond, and spread over the layers, cover with sliced bananas. Top the upper layer with cream sprinkled with chopped nuts.

Banana Pancakes.

Mix and sift three-fourths of a cupful of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Beat one egg, add one cupful of banana pulp, one-half cupful of milk and two tablespoonfuls of butter. Beat until smooth. Cook on a hot griddle. Serve with currant jelly.

© Western Newspaper Union.

VALUABLE LOUSE

The cochineal louse is once more in high favor in the Canary islands, we are told by a writer in Atlantis, Berlin. At Las Palmas in these islands the prosperity of the village is based on this louse, which was imported from Mexico about a century ago. Its cultivation resulted in a scarlet dye that was exported in large quantities. When artificial aniline scarlet was invented, it was discovered to be much cheaper to produce than the cochineal, which was almost completely replaced by the new dyestuffs. Many plantations were abandoned, but a few planters held to theirs believing that one day a need for their dye would come back. When a harmless coloring for rouge and lipstick was sought some one remembered the old cochineal louse and now those who kept their stock and plantations in the Canaries are reaping a reward, as the cochineal is extensively used in the cosmetic industry and is restoring prosperity to Las Palmas.

FREE BOOKLET OF HEALTH BUILDING MENUS

Read the Kelp-a-Malt ad in another column of this paper. It offers free a 50 page booklet of body building menus and other useful information.—Adv.

Always a Supply

"Fools rush in," but there are plenty left.

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hasel and use daily as face lotion.

Works Both Ways

The quick to promise are usually quick to forget.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the right dose of a properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a more natural movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It gently helps the average person's constipated bowels until nature restores their regularity.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store, ready for use.

Try Looking Wise

Don't grin when you are photographed. It is more distinguished.

CREOMULSION

Your own druggist is authorized to cheerfully refund your money on the spot if you are not relieved by Creomulsion.

BRONCHIAL TROUBLES

Rheumatic Pain Stopped by Lemon Juice Recipe

Try this. If it doesn't relieve you, make you feel better and younger and happier, your druggist will refund your money. Get a package of the REV PRESCRIPTION. Mix it with a quart of water, add the juice of 4 lemons and take a tablespoonful two times a day. In 48 hours, usually, the pain is gone, joints limber up, wonderful glorious relief is felt. Equally good for rheumatism, or neuritis pain. Costs only a few cents a day. For sale, recommended and guaranteed by all leading druggists. Any druggist will get the REV PRESCRIPTION if you ask him to do so.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Removes Dandruff—Stops Hair Falling
Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair
60c and $1.00 at Druggists.
Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N.Y.

OCTOBER

L 919

380

UNCLE NESBIT

By R. H. WILKINSON

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

WE KNEW very little about Uncle Nesbit. And by the same token we knew all about him.

You see, it was like this: Uncle Nesbit ran away when he was a boy. I believe his aspirations were along the cowboy line. His father and mother tried to find him, but were unsuccessful. Nesbit was an only child, and his disappearance broke them all up.

About a year after Nesbit went away, his father died. And six months later his mother died, too. Folks said it was from a broken heart.

It so happened that I was the nearest living relative, and by the time I had grown up and married Molly, Uncle Nesbit was only a legend. My memory of him was nil. All the facts concerning his disappearance were told to me by my own mother and father, now both dead. For I was naught but a babe in arms when Uncle Nesbit decamped for the western plains.

It was, therefore, more of a surprise than you can imagine, when one day a letter arrived from El Paso, Texas, signed by Uncle Nesbit. It was a lengthy epistle, and from its contents we learned the following facts: Uncle Nesbit had but recently learned of the death of his father and mother. Since coming West he had served in a variety of capacities—stable boy, barroom helper, cowboy, horse wrangler and a dozen others which have no bearing on his present circumstances. Some 12 years ago he had turned prospector. (Here there was a gap in the detailed account of his experiences.) Suffice it to say that Uncle Nesbit had, to quote his own phraseology, "Struck it rich."

* * * * * * *

He was now, we gleaned, a retired rancher, a man of no small wealth. Investigation had revealed that we were his only living relatives. In fact, he seemed to be in possession of all the facts concerning the departure of our family from this earth, and of my own dire financial circumstances resulting from the nation-wide economic conditions.

He expressed a desire to return once more to the land of his nativity, to spend his declining years with his only blood relatives now existing. Delicately he touched upon the condition of our finances, the facts about which he seemed only too well aware, and advised that he was crediting to our account at the bank a sum of money, which was to be used at our discretion and for whatever purpose we saw fit. In conclusion, Uncle Nesbit stated that he would arrive about the first of the following month, and trusted that his advent would not inconvenience us.

Directly following the reading of this letter I called my bank, and was staggered by the amount of money which Uncle Nesbit had credited to my balance.

* * * * * *

For a time Molly and I were undecided. We discussed the thing from many angles and at length decided that the least we could do was to prepare a hearty welcome for the old man. His munificence had startled us. We hardly knew whether the money was to be used for our own needs, or for the purpose of preparing an elaborate homecoming.

The more we thought and talked about the proposed visit of Uncle Nesbit, the more delighted we became with the prospect. He was our only living relative, a fact which had, until the present time, been more or less a source of annoyance. Those young married couples with whom we most always associated were forever dwelling upon the achievements of their relatives, near and distant; were forever pointing with pride toward some accomplishment which would reflect glory on the family history.

We therefore made haste to apprise our friends of Uncle Nesbit's planned visit, and covered our confusion nobly when asked why we had kept secret our knowledge of his existence. We pictured him as a tall, powerful man; a suntanned and virile-looking westerner; a man of fabulous wealth, a man of distinction and bearing. We exaggerated and elaborated and secretly prayed that Uncle Nesbit would be, in appearance at any rate, everything that we had portrayed. It was our first opportunity to join the circle of boasters, and I am inclined to think we took advantage of the privilege.

* * * * * * *

Molly had written to Uncle Nesbit that we would be delighted to have him visit us, to make his home with us as long as he liked. And then we went about the business of preparing a welcome. We drew unstintingly on the money he had deposited to our credit. We added a new wing to the house, which was fixed up into an attractive suite for Uncle Nesbit's own use. We remodeled the interior of our own home and purchased new furniture.

Our friends were thus convinced of Uncle Nesbit's existence. They promised to be on hand to add their welcome to the distinguished guest upon the day of his arrival. They were as pleased as we with the prospect, and aided us no end in painting Uncle Nesbit as the distinguished personage we thought him to be.

In fact, ere a fortnight had passed we had come to visualize Uncle Nesbit in no other role than that of the tall, distinguished westerner of story book fiction.

* * * * * * *

A letter arrived from Uncle Nesbit a week before the day of his expected arrival. He would, he said, be delayed a week or more because of business reasons. He thanked us for our eagerness to have him with us, and declared he was looking forward to the day when once more he would be united with the last surviving members of his family. The letter contained a check of no small amount which he directed us to use for our personal needs.

We welcomed this delay in his arrival, for it gave us further time to complete preparation. Moreover, the postponement and the check served to increase our mental picture of the man who, it appeared, was to become our benefactor.

Thereafter, for a month's time, we heard no further word from Uncle Nesbit. And when another week had passed we began to despair of his coming. His tardiness was annoying. Our friends began to talk and wonder and suggest among themselves that our Uncle Nesbit was "mythical" after all. Molly wrote again, but received no answer. And as the weeks dragged by we spoke of Uncle Nesbit less often when folks were about, for fear of hearing a snicker in some remote corner of the room.

* * * * * * *

It was nearly fall when next we heard of Uncle Nesbit. A knock sounded on our door one evening, and upon opening it, I discovered there a small man with a gray beard. The beard was stained with tobacco juice. The face of him was wizened and leathery looking. His eyes were red and watery. He seemed shrunken and bent and dried up. I would have closed the door on him had he not thrust himself inside and said he had word for us from Uncle Nesbit.

There was a dirtiness about the little man that provoked our disgust, though we listened to his tale and then sent him away.

He told us that he came from Uncle Nesbit to deliver a message, which message he presented me in a rather bulky envelope. As we talked, the watery eyes of him darted about the room, and I saw on his face a look which would have aroused in me a feeling of pity had it been a less despicable countenance.

The little man departed at last, having told us but vaguely about Uncle Nesbit, confirming only the facts about him we already knew.

As soon as he had gone we opened the package and found it to contain the last will and testament of our dear old uncle. He had bequeathed us his entire fortune, which was greater than we had at first supposed. A brief note accompanied the testament, written in Uncle Nesbit's curious hand, stating that he had been suddenly stricken and was at death's door. He had learned, he said, of our plans for his reception and of the picture we had conjured in our minds of his personal appearance. He hoped we would carry that memory with us always.

* * * * * * *

On the day following, the body of a man was recovered from the river below the Statler mill. The man was small and bearded and dirty looking. No papers of identification were on his person, though we recognized him as our visitor of the night previous. And in memory of our distinguished uncle we saw that the poor chap had a proper burial.

And that was the last we ever heard of Uncle Nesbit.

Soviet Workers Uncover Old Moscow Water System

Parts of an ancient water system laid in the streets of Moscow almost 400 years ago, during the reign just before that of the infamous tsar, Ivan the Terrible, and probably as a result of "modern" ideas introduced by Ivan's grandmother, the Greek Princess Sophia from Constantinople, have turned up to plague the diggers of the subway being constructed in that city by Soviet workers and engineers.

A short time ago construction gangs digging a deep trench in which this subway will run encountered and cut what looked like some kind of ancient conduit, reports the Baltimore Sun. The subway excavation promptly was flooded by a large stream of water. Pumping failed to control the flow. Tons of concrete dumped on top of the mysterious water pipe also proved a failure.

Finally, the engineers in charge sent for historians and archeologists of the Moscow Cultural academy. Tracing the length of the troublesome pipe, these experts presently discovered an ancient stone room or vault, also filled with water and to which other pipes and conduits were connected.

Objects found in connection with the work indicate that what has been found is part of a complicated system of underground springs, pipes, settling and distributing basins, and so on built in 1534 by Greek or Italian engineers to provide the palace of the increasingly powerful tsars of Moscow with the luxury of pure water.

What's Sauce for the Goose—

A bank teller of Milwaukee is in the habit of patronizing a certain tavern which once each week advertises "Fried chicken, 25 cents." Recently, he ordered chicken and got three wings and a piece of the neck. The teller said nothing, picked the bones as best he could and departed, according to the Milwaukee Journal. A few days later the tavern owner entered the bank, asked the teller for a miscellaneous assortment of change for a $5 bill and was given 495 pennies and a nickel. He protested. "I want quarters, halves, dimes and nickels, not pennies," he said. "And I want part of the breast and perhaps a drumstick when I order chicken in your tavern," the teller retorted. He gets it now.

Tailored Ensemble Is Ultra Chic

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

SUITS are the foremost message for fall. The keynote to the suit mode is sounded in two words, variety and fabric. Which is to say that every type of suit or ensemble is represented that fancy may picture with emphasis placed on the handsomeness and novelty of the materials employed.

The new suit and tailored ensembles are that varied they include styles in every mood and tempo featuring coats and jackets all the way from seven-eighth to waistlength. As to silhouette they go from one extreme to another, from loose swagger styles to the neat and trim flared front basques which Schiaparelli creates so successfully, to which add all the variations between that key to individual preference. As to modish suit skirts they are straight and narrow, often slit at the hemline.

Speaking of materials, the tailored ensembles in the picture tell a story of high-style, quality-kind fabrics most eloquently. For street, campus or general daytime wear throughout autumn, these plaided and checked tailleurs are correct and smart to the Nth degree. So far as their rich vibrant color schemes are concerned they blend into the autumn landscape superbly.

Each of these models is fashioned of a soft-textured lightweight rabbit, woolen fabric, which while it looks the part of luxury is in reality quite moderately priced. The fine fur woven into these suitings gives extra warmth for chilly days, which together with their attractive appearance make these weaves of pronounced appeal to fashion-wise seekers of superior materials.

At the right, in the picture, one of the new monotone shadow plaids in carioca red is used on the diagonal for the skirt of the one-piece frock and on vertical lines for the three-quarter coat. The bias sleeves correspond to the skirt treatment. A full scarf of brown velveteen lined with crepe in the red shade of the suit together with a belt in the same brown velvet lends smart contrast.

At the left, a coat cut with mannish lapels is made of a broken-checked rabbit woolen in old gold and brown, the same topping a gown of the identical material. The frock has a high turn-down collar and a knotted tie of self-fabric. The rather wide belt is in brown leather with large decorative buckle.

One of the interesting highlights in the street and sports realm is what is referred to as the "purpose" suit. The idea is to assemble all of the same material, a jacket suit plus a full-length topcoat sometimes adding a fourth piece, perhaps one of the new jacket blouses or a shirtwaist effect with buttons down the front. Herein is constituted an entire wardrobe for daytime wear.

A vogue which is much in evidence this fall is the gay novelty-plaided or checked skirt which is worn with a dark solid colored top. The brown and yellow check which fashions the costume to the left would make up strikingly in one of the very new narrow, slim and slit-at-the-hemline skirts. Top this with a swanky brown velveteen or corduroy jacket-blouse (newer than a tuck-in) and this twosome will rank among the smartest of the season.

© Western Newspaper Union.

WIDE BELTS

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Belts are growing wider and wider. The broad suede belt fastening with a composition arrow which graces this good-looking dress is typical of the new trend toward wide, wider, widest belted effects. This classically simple but very new campus frock is made of a lightweight two-tone rabbit woolen fabric. The high, wide-extending from side-to-side youthful and flattering neckline is the Alix idea.

Frogskin Shoes

Shoes of frogskin are the latest craze in Paris, and the feminine followers of fashion are taking to them.

MODISTES TAKE TO SCHOOLGIRL STYLES

"That simple little shirtwaist dress" may appear this season in anything from satin to sequins.

The knowing designers have discovered that it's highly amusing to present innocent, schoolgirlish styles in the most sophisticated and luxurious fabrics.

And women have discovered that their vampire voltage goes up at least 100 per cent when they wear seemingly ingenuous frocks in wicked materials.

It's the old principle of the excessively feminine girl who knows that her dimpled charms are heightened to the masculine eye by severely tailored lines. She is completely aware that her attempt at mannish clothes merely makes the obtuse male chuckle.

Satin With Feather Capes Will Be Worn This Autumn

Satin with feather capes will again be worn this autumn by the very smartest women, for they consider this fashion both chic and flattering, as well as allowing for lovely color contrasts.

Thus a frock of deep purplish-blue satin appears under a cape of soft green feathers and a pink satin frock allies itself with a cape of cornflower blue feathers. Another dress of pale satin is worn with a cape made of smoky gray feathers.

A black satin dress, cut on sheath lines is worn with a collar-like capelet of matching black satin edged with black heron feathers. All signs point to this fashion continuing for some time longer, until the really heavy formal evening wraps of velvet, lame and fine fur are seen.

Flexible Handbags

Bags for fall are soft, flexible things, many of them made without rigid frames. They are all shapes and sizes, from Schiaparelli's novel five-sided bag with inverted plaits to Molyneux's oblong, underarm model.

GET VAST SUMS FROM GULLIBLE

Gambling Rackets' "Loot" Is in the Billions.

Lotteries, "numbers" games and various other gambling rackets mulct millions from the American public annually, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The sum is conservatively put at $4,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000. This is divided two ways. Over $1,000,000,000, it is estimated, is taken out of the country by legitimately operated foreign lotteries. The rest is taken by local gaming rackets.

A lottery scheme unearthed by federal officials in New England netted its operators more than $8,000,000 monthly.

Lotteries run from great national sweepstakes, fostered by governments and involving millions, down to local "pools" and "policy" games centered in villages and the corner drug and cigar stores of cities. These small pools—baseball, football and racing—are fed by the nickels and dimes of working men and low-salaried clerks. Even school children have been known to gamble their lunch money on these games. Recent investigation in an eastern city disclosed 90 per cent of its citizenship playing these games. Except for the great legitimate government operated and controlled lotteries the majority of those existing are frauds. All kinds of robbery schemes are worked. False tickets are sold. Recently government authorities confiscated 42,000,000 counterfeit Canadian lottery tickets. These were for sale in the United States at $1 apiece.

Dummy organizations help this crookedness. Dummy organizations with dummy officers. The dummy organization is to fool the law; the dummy officers to fool the lottery-minded public. The game is pure swindle. You buy a share in a newly organized company for a dollar, with the share you get the privilege of voting for the officer-set-up of the company. The president, of course, draws a fine salary; so do other officers of the company. You might even get elected a "salesman." Then the company fails or sells out. The president and other officials were mere dummies.

Doubtful Dad

"Now," said the college man to his dad at the football game, "you'll see more excitement for two dollars than you ever saw before."

"I don't know," replied the old gent, "that's what I paid for my marriage license."—Kansas City Star.

ROYAL RELATIONS

King Edward VII of England was married to Alexandra, daughter of King Christian IX of Denmark. Her sister Dagmar was the wife of Alexander III of Russia. Their son, the murdered Czar Nicholas II, was a second cousin to the present English King George V. The resemblance between the two cousins was remarkable.

Ornithological Study

Naturalists in England have started a two-year investigation into the secrets of the woodcock. They will count the nests and try to watch one of the deepest of the bird's secrets—how it carries its chicks from the wood where they are born to the open fields where they feed.

ASK YOUR DOCTOR FIRST, MOTHER

Before You Give Your Child an Unknown Remedy to Take

Every day, unthinkingly, mothers take the advice of unqualified persons — instead of their doctor's — on remedies for their child.

If they knew what the scientists know, they would never take this chance.

Doctors Say PHILLIPS' For Your Child

When it comes to the frequently-used "milk of magnesia," doctors, for over 50 years, have said "PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia — the safe remedy for your child."

Remember this — And Always Say "Phillips'" When You Buy. Your child deserves it; for your own peace of mind, see that you get it — Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

Also in Tablet Form:

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at all drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

MURINE For YOUR EYES

Quick, Safe Relief For Eyes Irritated By Exposure To Sun, Wind and Dust

At All Drug Stores

Write Murine Co., Dept. W, Chicago, for Free Book

Better Snapshots. Guaranteed permanent finish: 8 prints, 2 enlargements 25c. Northwestern Kodak Finishers, La Crosse, Wis.

WANTED—Representative; sell Geographical Globes to teachers, students, libraries. Profits $20 to $50 weekly. Prouty-Branch Co., 360 W. Randolph St., Chicago.

POPCORN MACHINE. Like new. Bargain. Terms. Pay-for-self plan. Famous "French-Fried" method. Lunch equipment. Star Mfg. Co., 105 North Wacker, Chicago, Ill.

SORES AND LUMPS—By Specialty Write for Free 144 Page Book Drs. Bond Hillman, Hillman, Miss.

DEATH SHOT kills all insects. Dilute $1 bottle 40 times. BEST-UV-ALL PRODUCTS, 306 Dyal-Upchurch Bldg., Jacksonville, Fla.

NATURALLY SKINNY FOLKS

2 WAYS IN 1 TO ADD WEIGHT Quick!

5 lbs. in 1 Week or No Cost!

Hosts of thin, pale, rundown folks—and even "Naturally Skinny" men and women—are amazed at this new easy way to put on healthy needed pounds quickly. Gains of 10 to 20 lbs.—in one month—5 lbs. in a week—are reported regularly.

Kelp-a-Malt, the new mineral concentrate from the sea, gets right down to the cause of thin, underweight conditions and adds weight, through a "2 ways in one" natural process.

First, its rich supply of easily assimilable minerals nourish the digestive glands which produce the juices that alone enable you to digest the fats and starches . . . the weight-making elements in your daily diet. Second, Kelp-a-Malt's natural FOOD IODINE regulates and nourishes the internal glands which control assimilation—the process of converting digested food into firm flesh, new strength and energy. Three Kelp-a-Malt tablets contain more iron and copper than a pound of spinach or 7½ pounds of fresh tomatoes; more calcium than 6 eggs; more phosphorus than 1½ lbs. carrots; more FOOD IODINE than 1600 lbs. of beef.

Try Kelp-a-Malt for a single week and notice the difference—how much better you feel. If you don't gain at least 5 lbs. of good, firm flesh in 1 week the trial is free. Kelp-a-Malt costs but little at all good drug stores. If your dealer has not yet received his supply, send $1 for special introductory size bottle of 67 tablets to the address below.

SPECIAL FREE OFFER

Write today for fascinating instructive 48-page book on "How to Add Weight Quickly," Mineral Contents of Food and their effects on the human body. New facts about FOOD IODINE. Standard weight and measurement charts. Daily menus for weight building. Absolutely free. No obligation. Kelp-A-Malt Co., Dept. Chi, 25 W. 45th St., New York City

KELP-A-MALT Tablets

RELIEVES SKIN IRRITATIONS

quickly and easily

Sufferers from itching, burning affections, eczema, pimples, rashes, red, rough skin, sore, itching, burning feet, chafings, chappings, cuts, burns and all forms of disfiguring blotches, may find prompt relief by anointing with Cuticura Ointment. It quickly soothes and soon heals.

Price 25c and 50c.

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

OCTOBER

L 919

U 381

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Cider making, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, all season. 35tf. Widney Orchards.

Green Slate Asphalt Roofing, $1.95 per roll. Curie Hardware. 39t1.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

For Sale: 18 acres land, good buildings, fruit, 2 wells, 2 cisterns, an ideal farm. See Geo. Lochner, Spencerville. Former Lucas farm. 38t2p.

For Sale: Apples, cider, vinegar. Prices reasonable. Widney Orchards. 35tf.

House for Rent. Inquire at News Office. 36t1p.

Wanted: Hard and Soft Maple and ash logs. Hardwood Lumber Co., Butler, Ind. Phone 210L. 39t4p.

For Sale: One 17-22 inch hay press, in good shape; two used farm wagons; one No. 15 electric DeLaval Separator. Warner's Hardware, Leo. 39t1p.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Martin L. Hull deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

DELBERT DRAGGOO,
Administrator.

September 17, 1934.
John C. Armstrong, Atty. 3713.

SPENCERVILLE

The free moving pictures were discontinued on last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Lilla Shull spent Sunday with her son, Wellington Shull, and wife, of near Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb and Ethel McNabb spent Saturday at Fort Wayne.

Teachers Institute at Auburn was attended by all the teachers in this vicinity.

The C. C. Club will meet Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Butler.

Mrs. Minnie Lantz resumed her work as teacher in the school Monday after her illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wann, of Harlan were recent dinner guests of the Philip Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spitler were Sunday dinner guests at the Ed Wann home in Harlan.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sept. 30, was 59, Lutheran 69, collection $2.77.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and daughters, of Defiance, O., were Sunday guests of the Gale Bowser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Place and family of Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tyndall and family, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday afternoon guests in the Delbert Furnish home.

Mr. Shockley and family moved on Saturday from the Wm. Reed property into the Edward Cupp residence on Auburn St.

Communion services will be held on next Sunday morning in charge of the pastor, Rev. James Newcombe at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser were week end guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Whitacre and daughter at Highland, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswald, and Miss Wilma McNabb, of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday the guests of the John McNabb and Roy Chaney homes.

Mrs. Bina Glawe verv pleasantly entertained the Young Ladies Social Club at her home on Friday evening. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Ruby Kraft, Mrs. Ellen Hart, Miss Doris Rhoades and Miss Opal Beerbower.

About 65 ladies attended the guest day program planned by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church on Thursday afternoon. The program, which included two plays, music and readings, was greatly enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

Seven members of the class of 1922 of the Spencerville High School were entertained in an all day meeting Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hart, Goshen, Ind. Pot luck dinner and supper were enjoyed. Those present were Miss Ida Reed, Mr. and Mrs. James Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Aubur Butler and son, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hart and son, Mrs. Lavern Angel and daughter, LaVern Pflaumer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm and two daughters and the host and his family.

NEWVILLE

Gladys Keener has been ill for some time with intestinal flu.

A son was born Sept. 28 to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bock. Dr. Klingler, of Garrett, attending physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Saturday and Sunday at Crooked Lake.

Clarence Baron has purchased the Hazel Miller property, formerly known as the David Griest property.

Carl Clark was here from Chicago Saturday, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark.

Rev. C. W. Moore attended a class party Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Trenary, at Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Swan, of Hicksville, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith at Mongo.

Mrs. Vera Miller was granted a divorce from Dewey Miller Sept. 29. He is to pay $3.00 per week for the support of the two sons.

Mrs. Forest Clark, Thomas Clark and Fred Gengnagel went to Chicago Sunday to spend a week at A Century of Progress.

Ed Rickerd has applied to DeKalb circuit court for commitment of his son, Waldo to the James Whitcomb Riley Hospital for children at Indianapolis.

Members of the Mt. Pleasant Church and Sunday School held a reception and dinner in the basement of the church, Sunday, for Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore.

Reign Schondelmayer, Helen Washler, Garnet Washler, Aileen Gaff and Mrs. Laura Washler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Max Norman in South Bend over the week-end.

Come to the Missionary Institute, Oct. 9, at the Newville U. B. Church. Miss Alice Bell, daughter of Bishop Bell, of Dayton, Ohio, will be the speaker, morning, afternoon and evening.

CONCORD

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Helen Goodwin visited with Iris Jackson from Friday until Monday.

Mrs. Vera Jackson and Mrs. C. Jackson were in Fort Wayne Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Draggoo spent from Friday evening until Sunday at Bluffton attending the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Krise entertained the Ford salesmen, of Auburn, to a chicken dinner recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Friece are the proud parents of a 7½ pound boy. Name, Francis Ray. All are doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quance and children, of Ft. Wayne, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murphy and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Goldsmith entertained Sunday afternoon Mr. John Zimmerman and wife from Harlan and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goldsmith, of Fort Wayne.

Mrs. C. Jackson and Mable spent from Tuesday until Thursday eve. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holl Jackson. The St. Joe and Concord relatives all came in with a pot luck to help celebrate the 68th birthday of Hollis Jackson. A duck and turkey graced the table at the evening meal and they all enjoyed themselves. D. R. Kosht and wife, near neighbors, were also present.

COBURN'S CORNERS

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday afternoon with Marie Trostel.

Mrs. Laney Gee was absent from Bible School, due to illness.

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Sept. 30, was 83, collection, $3.48.

Everybody is invited to attend the Coburn Corners Home-Coming next Sunday. Tell your friends.

Martha Elaine Hart spent Sunday afternoon with little Mary Lou Wise at the home of Merwin Place.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. Lizzie Shull, who has spent the last six months at Decatur, Ind., is visiting old friends and neighbors in this vicinity.

Mrs. Bailey, who has been at the home of Marvin Poper the past six months was taken to the home of Mrs. George Watson, Sunday.

Olen Dermott called on James Wesley Hart Sunday afternoon, who is seriously ill with infection in his foot. Mr. Hart will be 88 years old the 20th of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hart, of Goshen, Ind., entertained the Spencerville high school graduating class of 1921-22 at their home Sunday. Several from this vicinity were present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knight and daughter, Evelyn and Mrs. Eva Sheffer, of St. Joe, and Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Shull and babe called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garth Shull, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart and Roy Shilling spent Sunday at Hamilton Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton and son, James, who spent the week end at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hart and daughter, Alyce, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilder, Mrs. Alice Hart, and Mr. and Mrs. Gretchen and daughter of Fort Wayne.

R. H. C.

The R. H. C. was very pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ines Hadsell. Roll call response answered by 12 members, was to name some time-saving method. Mrs. Laney Gee put on the special number which was laughable and enjoyable. The hostess served a dainty lunch consisting of Waldorf salad, chocolate cake, tea and watermelon. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Gladys Hart.

Gets Warden Commission

John Crothers, of St. Joe, recommended for a deputy game warden in DeKalb county by Wm. F. Brown, DeKalb county representative of the state conservation department, received his commission from the state Friday.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders
400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH ALL WORK GUARANTEED

Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Jars and Kegs at Curie Hardware. 39t1.

Floyd Weikel is planning on building a garage soon.

Mrs. Don Burley is here for a couple weeks, visiting her mother Mrs. G. W. Woodcox.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

A 4½ pound turnip is on display in our window, raised on the Curie farm by Henry Mansfield.

Mrs. Lenora Yeiser, of Avilla, spent from Friday evening until Sunday in the Wilbur Yeiser home.

Mrs. Walter Keesler has received word of the death of her father, Mr. Geo. King, of Bellwood, Ala.

Frank Curie, Jr., attended A Century of Progress recently, accompanying his uncle, Merritt Sechler.

Ruth Curie was the week end guest of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook of Hicksville.

Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser received word Tuesday morning that she was the winner of a 32-piece breakfast set from the McKenzie Milling Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Andress and Miss Vernell Copp spent Saturday and Sunday at Lakeville guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miser.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Yeiser, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keesler, and Mrs. Lenora Yeiser, of Avilla, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser.

George Berry, of Richmond, Ind., Mrs. Hazel Steward, Miss Wavoline King and Jeanne Hatch, of Spencerville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Betz and Mrs. Ada Berry.

Mrs. Frank McLaughlin and son, Edward, Nelson Rhoeder and Mrs. M. J. Mull, of Adrian, Mich., spent Wednesday in the Earl Smith home.

Miss Susan Sechler spent from Friday until Sunday with the Leon Sechler family, north of Butler. Miss Sechler will visit with relatives at Auburn this week and next.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch and son, Stanley spent Sunday at the World's Fair. F. B. Leighty and wife and Wm. Quance, wife and two sons were there Saturday and Sunday.

It was reported over the air that Mrs. Frank Milliman, of St. Joe, was awarded an Estate Heatrola last week, as a succsful contestant. This is a gift anyone would appreciate.

Lumber for the repair of hog house on the Henry Moudy farm south of Spencerville, was delivered by the local lumber firm Monday, proving again that this is the place to buy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hull, Mrs. Vina Quance and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quance and little Miss Mary Ann Quance accompanied Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Graham to Navada Mills, in Steuben county, Sunday.

Walter Gruesbeck, of Milford, a former HK tower operator here for years, accompanied by his brother, Frank, and wife, spent Sunday with Mrs. D. C. McCann. They brought her a lovely bouquet.

McKinley Moore was ordered by Judge W. P. Endicott Monday to be taken back to the state hospital for war veterans at Marion, Ind. He was taken into custody last week by Deputy Sheriff Herbert N. Grimm after he had wandered into DeKalb county and was observed acting peculiarly east of St. Joe.

Apple harvest is somewhat delayed this year, due to the extreme heat of the past summer. The apples are now making a wonderful growth and will be of very good quality in spite of the season. Persons who have made it a practice of buying their supply of winter apples in the St. Joe Valley will not be disappointed this year.

The stock of goods owned by H. G. Hursh was sold Tuesday morning to J. Igolka & Co., of Chicago. and by afternoon the stock was packed and gone.

Merritt Sechler, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Hollis Dilley and Louise Sechler left Saturday morning to visit over Sunday in the following places: Mrs. Dilley and Louise with John Dilley, a student at Terre Haute; Mrs. Sechler with Mrs. Mable Pahud at Indianapolis, and Merritt with Mr. and Mrs. John Provines at Rockport.

A gentleman who writes a letter to the editor of an eastern daily says that the ship of state is still at sea, swapping horses in the middle of the stream. A horse-trading ship certainly is something weird. Located at sea and at the same time doing business in the bed of a river, it is a fearsome spectacle. Let it be hoped that the country is not so badly muddled as the correspondent intimates.

Church Notes

ST. JOE M. P. CHURCH
William D Koehnlein, Pastor

Sunday School

Sunday School at 9:30. We are not here to rob any one from any other Sunday School, but if there are some in our community who are not in any Sunday School, we extend to you a most hearty invitation to come to the Methodist Sunday School next Sunday.

Church Service

Every Sunday evening at 7:30 P. M. Have you a church home? The Bible says of the disciples that they continued in fellowship. Do you have fellowship with a Christian group somewhere at regular intervals? Perhaps you have traveled along life's journey up till this time without taking any thought for your spiritual welfare. We don't always know what life holds for us. Think how quickly the pleasure ship, Morro Castle, was changed into a horrible grave for many of her passengers! We don't always know really how short our span of life may be. The wise will be a diligent student of the Scriptures. The wise will be a lover of God's House and the message that is preached from the Christian pulpit. "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom," says the Bible. Let us love the true God and the place where His honor dwelleth.

The pastor and members of the St. Joe Methodist Protestant Church extend a cordial invitation to citizens of the community to join in worship of the Savior.

A Gentle Reminder

The members and friends of the church are to meet at the parsonage Thursday evening for a general social gathering. The Official Board will meet with the pastor at that time to make out a program for the year.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

St. Joe, Communion at 9:00.
Spencerville, Communion at 10:30.

Free RUBBER RINGS ..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make... free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Run," the only separator made in America with a gear-casted Self-Balancing Bowl... a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper. Full details will be sent promptly.

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. 27t14

BETTER HOUSING MEETING

Assembly Room, Court House
AUBURN
Monday, October 8, at 8 p. m.

R. Earl Peters,

Associate Director for Indiana of the Federal Housing Administration, will tell us all about the Better Homes Program.

This is not a political meeting, but is a meeting of all the citizens of the county to launch the Better Housing campaign. It is for home owners, building supply dealers, bankers, contractors, real estate men, professional men; laborers--EVERYONE.

And everyone should lend support by attending and learning first hand from Mr. Peters, what it is all about.

DeKalb County Housing Administration
E. O. Little, General Chairman

OCTOBER

L 919

U 382

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1934 — NUMBER 40

38 ENTER PARADE AT AUBURN SATURDAY

A spirit of satisfaction dwells within when one honestly does his part in putting across any project, and those of the St. Joe Valley can well be proud of their Valley inheritances, as demonstrated by the heartly participation of Valley producers in the parade Saturday morning at the Auburn Fall Fair.

Possibly no parade or any section of the fair parade in years, caused so much favorable comment, as did this section and while there were thirty-eight entries from the Valley section, it was only a smattering of what could be shown as produced in this most wonderful section of north-eastern Indiana.

The Valley section of the parade was announced by the D. W. Yeiser truck bearing a large sign "St. Joe Valley Producers."

The lower Valley section was given first place and was represented by Walter Baker, the store at your door, or in other words the huckster man; Lewis Washler, melons and small fruits, and then Hart's Nursery. A float covered with beautiful dahlias from the Hart Nursery was much admired. The Hart Nursery grew four acres of nursery stock, twenty-one acres of berries and eight acres of garden truck this season.

Roy Keller made a real spectacular display using his large melon truck for his first entry, on the top of which was seated the Hart's Girl Band from Hicksville, this giving the vast crowd a thrill; the next truck was loaded with large melons and the third was the new Keller Diamond T truck for speedy delivery to the markets served by him. An inventory revealed that Roy had raised 80 acres of melons, supply 8,000 bushels of muskmelons, 12,000 watermelons, 20,000 quarts of strawberries and 10,000 dozen of sweet corn for the summer of 1934.

O. E. Ginther, the Valley prize Hampshire breeder, was the next entrant, where he displayed his champion sow and his entrants in the hog department pulled down the following ribbons, all displayed on a board on this truck:

Boar under six months, first and second; sow one year and under 2, first; sow under six months, first, second and third; sow and litter, first, also champion boar and champion sow.

The champion was well groomed, weighing 500 pounds, extra good type, showing that her owner demonstrated good judgment in breeding stock.

St. Joe Canning Kitchen flung its name before the public with a well prepared banner on the side of the truck. This institution is one of the growing industries of the Valley, doing eight times more canning this year than any previous year, showing conclusive evidence of a Valley satisfaction in vegetable canning.

The town of St. Joe was represented by the new Chevrolet fire truck, which will afford Valley protection from fire.

Ralph Sechler, producer of St. Joe Valley brands, wholesaling pickle products. This was a colorful entry with pickle kegs, each containing a small child dressed to represent a pickle and labeled as "sweet pickles." Billy Baker and Max Markle of Spencerville, represented the "dill pickle" family, while a barrel of all nationality of children represented "mixed pickles." A very clever entry.

The Leighty Orchards had 12 entries, each telling a story of the development and growth of a great industry at St. Joe. The man operating the apple grader was Arthur Wilmot, who, in his 20 years with the Leighty Orchards has put 400,000 bushels of apples through the sorter. Ray Reasoner is another employe who has been with the Leightys a long time. He is the manager and has had 21 years of service at the orchard. There are women who have been employed by the Leightys from 15 to 18 years and salesmen as long as 12 years. The Leighty display showed the apple industry from the orchards to the market baskets and barrels of cider.

Eugene Webster, of Newville, had an entry. He produced 6,000 bushels of canteloupes and 5,000 watermelons the past season and does a big garden truck business.

Guy Platter gathered 2,000 bushels of canteloupes, 4,000 watermelons and has 18 acres of potatoes, besides being interested in horses.

The St. Joe News, of which F. B. Leighty has been the owner for the past 28 years, was represented by the entry of his automobile bearing a sign "St. Joe News, 50 years" showing that it was possibly the oldest public servant in line, in which all these years it had endeavored to create a Valley pride, sharing in its joys and sorrows for a half century.

Merriwold Farms, George B. Hart, manager, a typical melon growing farm with a crop estimated at 7,000 bushels of canteloupes, 5,000 watermelons and 3,000 bushels of potatoes, besides his pure blood Jersey herd and general farming.

The Kinsey Hardware, Furniture & Undertaking, with Mrs. Kinsey driving a beautifully decorated car in white with orange rosettes had an entry much admired.

The Kees peony garden had a nicely decroated car and on the fender was a small child with a bouquet in its arms.

The Triangle Foods, represented by four decorated trucks. On the hood of each car sat a child holding a gallon of their products and the display window in one of the trucks contained bottles and cans showing the products handled by this growing Valley concern. The territory now served is within a radius of 125 miles of St. Joe.

Willard Hurni came next with his cream truck and second truck with a Geo. Freece & Sons butter display, which was an attractive entry.

The Standard Oil, Roy Reidenbach standard products, showing that he was a necessity in order that the Valley producers might have the right kind of oil and fuel to do their work.

The Widney Orchards, representing 30 acres of apples in addition to small fruits and garden truck all made a showing that was truly typical of the progressiveness of the St. Joe Valley section of DeKalb county.

Judges Award Prizes

Ralph Sechler, of St. Joe, was awarded first prize in the parade, $15 in cash, Hart's nursery second, $10 and the Fairfield township Farm Bureau third, $5 for their floats. The Kinsey Hardware, Furniture and Undertaking float was given fourth place and the Dr. Bonnell Souder hospital of Auburn, fifth. The judges were Prof. W. F. Graham of Purdue University, David MacNaughton, of Auburn and Lloyd Yeiser former DeKalb county commissioner.

Spotted Poland Winner

Carl Carpenter takes a clean sweep in the Spotted Poland class with the following:

Boar one year and under 2, first; sow two years and older, first; sow one year and under 2, first; sow under six months, first, second and third; sow and litter, first.

Poland China

Martin Wagner of west of St. Joe captured the following in the Poland China class:

Boar one year and under 2, first; boar six months and under a year, second; sow under six months, second and third; champion boar also.

Every Department Entered

The St. Joe Valley rightly deserves credit for the success of the fair, as there was not a department but what one or more entrants were made, in the industrial, fancy work, culinary and live stock in all classes.

The school exhibit was visited by thousands and there you saw the Spencerville art and health display; for Concord township ship a miniature stage setting showing a living room, art and health.

Jersey Cattle

George Hart won 6 first and 2 second ribbons on his Jerseys and the senior and grand champion.

Master Jimmy Kees won third on his collection of stamps.

M. C. Blue took the sweepstakes on his shetland pony and in the rabbit department Kenneth Cunningham and Chas. Coburn had splendid entrants.

At the horse show on Thursday night in the local class, Dr. Baumgartner, Spencerville, won first on Dorothy Johnson; third was won by Alice Baker on Willis. In the three-gated open, Dr. Baumgartner won fourth; Model saddle class, Alice Baker, third; Paul Krise, fourth. Jimmy Casson, of Jackson, Mich., won every first at the show. Dr. C. R. Baumgartner was awarded the J. I. Farley silver trophy in the local class.

Team Pulling Contest

The team of mules owned by Floyd Wickel, of St. Joe, pulled two tons, eliminating teams owned by Harold Wise, of Auburn and Delbert Draggoo, of Concord.

Mr. Wickel's team weighed 2,525 pounds, Mr. Wise's 2,650 and Mr. Draggoo's 2,500 pounds. Mr. Draggoo was eliminated at 3,250 pounds pull. After winning at 4,000 pounds Mr. Wickel gave an exhibition for the benefit of the crowd, finally pulling a load of two and one-fourth tons.

Jess Hettrick, of Auburn, with his span of big black Belgian horses received the grand champion ribbon in the horse pulling contest Friday morning. The team, weight 3,390 pounds, won the contest by pulling 4,500 pounds and then to show the crowd what his horse could do Mr. Hettrick had them pull 500 more pounds for a total dead load of 5,000 pounds including the stone boat.

Martin Wagner figured in his share of the ribbons in the Shropshire display, and Wm. Watson, of Spencerville had a display of his prize winning Rambouillets.

Mrs. Alice Peckhart, of Auburn, a former St. Joe girl, had a single exhibit of 40 cans of fruit in the culinary display, winning first and the grand champion.

Old Settler Officers

The officers elected Saturday for the 1935 Old Settlers meeting were: President, Miles Baxter; vice president, H. C. Willis, and secretary, Mrs. Flora Green. Mr. Willis is from Waterloo and the others from Auburn.

Nearly 1,000 registered during the day and Samuel Miller, of Butler, 90, was given honors as being the oldest man present and Mrs. Harriett Putt, of Ashley, 88, the oldest lady.

J. R. Leighty presented the gifts to the ones holding this distinctive honor.

Heirloom Display

In the tent on 6th street was a display from the Houk farm in Jackson township that took considerable time and work in planning, including many heirlooms of the Houk family such as dresses, old newspapers and magazines.

Twins Convention

Eighty-two pairs of twins took part in the twins'convention Saturday and prizes were awarded the oldest twins, Mrs. Henrietta Jones, Garrett, and Mrs. Marietta Nichols, Richland township, aged eighty years; youngest girl twins, Bonnie Lou and Bettie Sue Furnish, of Spencerville, aged five months; youngest boy twins, Gene Alan and Glen Alvin Bohner, Auburn, aged fifteen months.

Two Valley Exhibits

One of the attractive exhibits on Midway in front of Schaab's Store was that of the Leighty Orchards. Ben Davis, Black Twig, Jonathan, Grimes, Banana, Belle Flower, Winesap and Baldwin apples were shown. Honey, apple butter, apple sause, fruit jellies combined with apple juice were also shown in this exhibit. At the Leighty farm 100 acres are in apple trees. The average crop is 18,000 bushels, although in the peak year 46,000 bushels were raised. This yield resulted in the employment of 175 people to pick, grade and load two cars a day for twenty-six consecutive days. The crop this year will run about 12,000 bushels which is below normal.

Hart's Nursery, 2 miles east of Spencerville, with their attractive display of rockery and plants drew a large crowd continually due to the fact that the water falls were in continual operation which everyone admired. Many orders for shrubs and bulbs were taken daily, and a string quartet furnished music for the guests.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

P. T. A. Meets Next Monday

The first regular meeting of the local Parent-Teachers Association will met at the school auditorium at seven-thirty on next Monday evening. The speaker on this occasion will be Dr. Louis A. Warren, of Fort Wayne, who is the director of the Lincoln National Life Foundation. Dr Warren will speak on some phase of the former president's career. Illness prevented Dr. Warren from filling this engagement last April. Other numbers will be presented on this program. All patrons are invited to attend this meeting and become active members in the P. T. A. this year.

This school and community was well represented at the Auburn Fair on both Friday and Saturday. Several pupils who exhibited 4-H projects report that they received ribbons. The third and fourth grades won first premium on their display exhibit. Several pupils won ribbons on individual work exhibited but as yet we do not have all of their names and can not make personal mention of the winners.

Robert Jennings entered the seventh grade on Monday of this week. Robert has attended the Lyons School in Stafford Township until reecntly.

The primary room reports only one day of absence for last week.

The Northeastern Indiana Teachers Association will convene in Fort Wayne on Thursday and Friday, October 18 and 19. DeKalb County teachers are required to attend.

FINAL APPROVAL OF DEKALB CORN-HOG CONTRACTS

Word was received Monday by the DeKalb county corn-hog allotment board of the acceptance of 1,056 contracts. Payment will be made upon two-fifths hog and one-half corn contracts amounting to $96,787.30.

These checks will follow within a few days. Notices will be sent to each producer or landlord informing them when they may receive their checks. It will be impossible to pay all of the checks in one day, therefore the board will call in farmers from each township.

Wheat compliance papers also have been accepted by the wheat section for the second payment on the 1933 wheat crop. Payments will amount to approximately $16,000 and the checks will be here within a week or ten days. The first payment on the 1934 wheat crop will follow shortly.

ROBINSON TO BE AT AUBURN TONIGHT

Indiana Senator to be Headliner at Republican Rally to be Held in Courthouse

Arrangements are now completed for a republican campaign rally to be held at the DeKalb county court house Thursday night, Oct. 11, when the principal speaker will be United States Senator Arthur R. Robinson.

An adrdess also will be delivered by Mrs. Frank Donner of Greencastle, former president of the Indiana State Federation of Clubs.

County Chairman H. C. Springer announces that the DeKalb county American Legion band will play preceding the meeting. Capt. Springer will act as chairman.

Many from this section will attend this important rally.

Rally at St. Joe

For this section of DeKalb county, chairman Springer makes the announcement today that on Friday evening, Oct. 19, Hon David Hogg and Judge George Leonard, of Fort Wayne, will be at St. Joe at the Gym for a rally. Everybody will be asked to attend regardless of party affiliations. Remember the date.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver are home after two weeks visit at the World's Fair, and at Marcellus, Mich., visiting his sister.

W. S. Wadsworth, of Peebles, Ohio, spent last Tuesday night with Curtis Hursey's and on Wednesday they ate dinner with Jay Hart's.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Stoner & Sherwood
Shoe Rebuilders
GARRETT, INDIANA

Work Called for and Delivered at these Prices

Men's Leather Half Soles	75c to $1.00
Panco Soles	$1.00
Leather Heels	50c
Rubber Heels	40c
Women's Leather Half Soles	65c to 75c
Rubber Heels	35c
Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
SHOES DYED BLACK OR BROWN	25c

But 25c worth of Shine Tickets must be purchased with each dye job at 3 for 25c.
MONDAY — WEDNESDAY — FRIDAY DELIVERIES

LEON KEES, Local Agent
We also have the agency for Garrett Laundry and Dry Cleaning

WE ARE PROUD
THAT WE LOCATED IN THE
ST. JOE VALLEY
AND THE WONDERFUL DEMONSTRATION ON LAST SATURDAY AT THE AUBURN FALL FAIR BY WAY OF THE VALLEY PARADE, GOES TO SHOW JUST WHAT CAN BE DONE WHEN A UNITED EFFORT IS PUT BEHIND ANY OF THE MANY ST. JOE VALLEY INTERESTS. WE MUST AT ALL TIMES WORK UNITEDLY AND BY SO DOING EVERY CITIZEN WILL RECEIVE HIS SHARE OF THE COMMUNITY BENEFITS.

OUR CANNING FACTORY IS RUNNING NIGHT AND DAY TO RENDER TO OUR VALLEY CUSTOMERS THE SERVICE THAT WE FEEL THEY ARE ENTITLED TO.

—LET US DO YOUR NEXT CANNING—

Custom Canning Kitchen
MR. and MRS. ARTHUR GUILFORD, Owners.

REPUBLICAN RALLY

Assembly Room of Court House, AUBURN
Thurs. Eve., Oct. 11
8:00 P. M.

Sen. Arthur Robinson
--AND--
Mrs. Frank Donner
of Greencastle, will speak on national and state issues. Music by DeKalb County American Legion Band.

The Public is Invited

OCTOBER

L 919

383

RUFFLE EFFECTS SET OFF FROCK

PATTERN 9677

If you choose your frocks with an eye to flattery you'll be sure to like the feminine details of this one. The front bodice panel brings to mind a "tucker," in the way it is stitched on top of the skirt. Ruffles outline the panels front and back, and the sleeves in ruffle effect are gracefully flared in keeping with the mood. A frock that is really slenderizing and a gem for those many informal affairs of the season. It is lovely fashioned of a dainty voile, dimity, lawn or swiss, or one of the gay, new silk prints.

Pattern 9677 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 16 requires 3¼ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York, N. Y.

Smiles

CALLING THE DOCTOR

"Do you approve of doctors in politics?"

"Sometimes," answered Miss Cayenne. "They always tell you not to worry. And to soothe your nerves they even tell you which way to vote in order to avoid anxiety."

Trouble

Flatfoot—My son might have been President of the United States.

Yesman—What happened to prevent it?

Flatfoot—He got married and his wife wouldn't let him go into politics. —Pathfinder Magazine.

Common Opinion

Dubb—I believe I shall have to give up amateur theatricals. They always make me feel I am making a fool of myself.

Chubb—I know; everybody feels the same way.—Pathfinder Magazine.

Obstacle Race

"Is your son still pursuing his studies at college?"

"Yes, but he doesn't seem able to catch up with them."

Kind of Beautiful

By MARION P. JOHNSON

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service.

"PLANNING one of these public weddings is one thing," declared A. H. Hinkler, chairman of the arrangements committee of the Bayview Charity circus, "but putting the fool thing over seems to be an entirely different proposition!"

"Too proud!" exploded Josephus Braun. "After all that bunch of prizes we've offered!"

"Surely," suggested Adolphus Weeks, "we shall find a couple somewhere who will agree to be married—"

A. H. Hinkler waved his arms wildly. "Somewhere!" he shouted. "But where? Do you realize, man, that the wedding is advertised for tonight?"

"And that we've practically crawled all over that platform on our hands and knees at every performance begging—literally begging—some young couple—any young couple—to please step forward and be married so that we can give them fifty dollars in cash and other junk!" added Josephus Braun quite at the top of his lungs.

"Well," said little Mr. Weeks, softly, placatingly, "it isn't our fault if we receive no response. We have the prizes ready. We have, as you say, pleaded. Surely—"

"Surely," mocked A. H. Hinkler, "they won't expect a wedding when we've placarded the whole city with promises that there will be one! Oh, no!"

"Well," growled Josephus Braun, "we can keep trying, I suppose."

One by one, the committee had taken turns pleading, offering prizes, and beaming hopefully at the vast throng attending the circus. Sometimes there would be a nibble, but never a real bite! Messrs. Hinkler, Braun and Weeks had struggled, perspired, cursed and raged.

Josephus Braun, chosen by the committee to make the final plea because of his deep booming voice, stood that evening and beamed. He began by enumerating the prizes. He dwelt, touchingly, on the interest all these people would take in the young couple to be married here. It was just like a big happy family, he said. Still no response. The crowd sat like a great silent, breathing mass, waiting. Josephus Braun left the ring and consulted his brother committeemen.

"Now, listen, ladies and gentlemen," he beamed upon his return. "The committee will double—ab-so-lute-ly double—the cash prize if a couple will walk up here within the next three minutes and allow themselves to be married. Just three minutes, ladies and gentlemen!" He took out his elaborate watch and marked the time.

Halfway around the auditorium a young couple rose, hesitatingly, whispering. The girl sank into her seat again, but not before Josephus Braun had spotted her.

"Come right along!" he invited cordially, waving the watch. "Right this way! There isn't much time!"

The young man assisted the hesitant girl to her feet, and led her, trembling, to the ring. Triumphantly, Josephus Braun bore his charges away. Flurry. Excitement.

Who were they? wondered the crowd. No one seemed to know. Well, it didn't really matter. They were young —and in love. Anyone could see that.

A breathless hush. The circus band began to play Lohengrin, a little blaringly. Attendants, drafted from the circus performers, and transformed by the magic of quick change appeared, taking their places with quiet dignity.

And then the bride with a great bouquet of roses, still wearing her little dark suit, but very lovely! Her cheeks were deeply pink, and she was nervous and a little afraid, but there was a soft, tremulous beauty about her that the crowd sensed and approved. A little dark-eyed bride, trembling! They took her to their hearts and loved her, and smiled at her, and even wept over her, a little. It didn't matter about the groom. Just a good-looking young man, a little shabby.

The wedding went on. The gifts were presented. Josephus Braun beamed. The crowd beamed. The bridegroom beamed. And the little bride blushed and smiled.

The wedding was over. The crowd sighed a little regretfully, and the circus went on—while in the committee room the bridegroom bargained with the committee, taking some of the prizes and trading others for cash. At last, with their little rattletrap car stacked high with booty, the young couple drove away, alone, into the night.

And then a quiet roadway, ribboning into the deeper shadows of the velvety night.

"Tom," said the little bride, snuggling against his broad dark shoulder, "do you think it was all right?"

"Sure," said Tom, slipping his arm around her.

"I was awful scared," she said, trembling a little in remembrance. "I thought maybe they'd arrest us—or something—if they knew!"

"They didn't make any rules about it," said Tom, reasonably. "They just said they wanted a couple to get married!"

"It's wonderful," sighed the girl. "With all that money and all these prizes we can take baby from Aunt Mary and get us a room and live together 'til you get a job."

"Sure," said Tom.

The little car rattled happily on.

"And Tom—"

"Yes?"

"It was kind of beautiful, wasn't it—getting married all over again after three years?"

Modern Palestine

Modern Farming in Palestine

Prepared by National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.—WNU Service.

THE last decade has shown greater changes in Palestine than have occurred since the beginning of the Christian era.

The Holy Land, formerly the outpost of the East and the inspiration of the West, has become the meeting place of both.

Nowadays modern tractors, drawing a dozen plowshares at once, are seen beside the camel and the ass, dragging the primitive nail plow of Biblical times.

Beneath the cavern where King Saul sought the witch of Endor runs the pipe line which will carry the mineral oil of Iraq 627 miles, across desert and mountain, to the Mediterranean shore. Across the plain of Dothan, whence the Ishmaelite caravan carried Joseph into Egypt, speed high-powered automobiles.

Long lines of steel pylons, carrying electric energy generated by the River Jordan, bring light across the Plain of Sharon to illuminate countless homes formerly dimly lit by olive-oil lamps.

Modern machinery, delivering thousands of tons of soap annually, challenges the output of the soap-boilers of Shechem, now Nablus, who ply their ancient calling beneath the frowning scarp of Gerisim, where, in accordance with ancient religious rites, the few surviving Samaritans still celebrate their sunset sacrifice.

To meet growing needs, a new port has recently been constructed at Haifa, at the foot of Mount Carmel, in the only natural bay along the Palestine coast. There are speed boats on the Dead sea and seaplanes on the Sea of Galilee.

The creameries of a country-wide Jewish co-operative replace the lordly dish in which Jael, wife of Heber the Kenite, brought forth her butter.

Farming in Palestine

For centuries the Arab cultivator has carried on the primitive methods traditional throughout the East. Yoking his feeble oxen, his camel, or his ass to a rough-hewn wooden plow, he cultivates his wheat and barley, millet and sesame. In season he beats the fruit off his gnarled olive trees, and his animals stamp out the grain on the threshing floor.

Patches of unfenced land, scattered around the village, compose his farm; large tracts are still held in common and are subject to periodical distribution; while ancient custom releases herds of cattle to graze freely on the fields after harvest, thus rendering difficult the introduction of any but conventional crops.

Impressed by the development created by Jewish and German agricultural methods and aided by government agricultural inspectors, the people are beginning to stir.

Under Turkish rule the cultivator paid his dues in kind, and often money did not pass through his hands for months. Money is now universal, and the Arab, while learning its use, may be trained in thrift.

Initiative by the individual is rare. It is easier to get a number of villagers to adopt a new idea by discussing it with them together in the village meeting house than by arguing singly with each man. By the creation of Arab co-operative societies, distribution of improved seed, the establishment of government experiment stations, demonstration plots, and stud farms, it is hoped to better the lot of the farmer.

Palestine has been a highway on the caravan route between Egypt, Syria, and Asia Minor and the East for so many centuries that public security has always been of major importance. The Romans recognised this, and to protect their frontiers they flung their outposts the other side of Jordan.

Country Well Policed

Today Palestine has a modern civil police force composed of British and Palestinian personnel. Constables mounted on Arab horses for service in the hills, or on traffic duty in the towns, vie for smartness with the camel corps recruited from the Bedouin tribes of Beersheba, in the south.

Most of their work is behind scenes, but the traveler who happens to be in Jerusalem in the autumn and attends the annual police sports has opportunity of seeing them at work and play, from demonstrations of first aid to tent-pegging, from a tug-of-war to a musical ride by camels, followed by a display of camel-jumping.

Today reasonable security exists and the peasant is able to take his goods to market without the constant fear of being robbed on the way. However, occasionally the old-time bandit appears in the hills and gives trouble to administration, police and people before he is wiped out.

Before the war there were no roads in Palestine suitable for motor traffic; indeed, there was no need for them, for Palestine boasted only one automobile.

Instead of rough tracks and stony mountain paths, a network of modern roads now covers the country from Syria to the Egyptian frontier, from the Mediterranean to the River Jordan, and beyond into the gaunt steeps of Trans-Jordan. Desert routes to both the Sinai peninsula and to Baghdad are practicable for motor transport.

Among some 4,000 motor vehicles registered, the ubiquitous bus, built on to a truck chassis, has ousted the horsedrawn native cart and is seen everywhere, crowded with diverse passengers, from eastern prelates to office clerks, from inquiring travelers to veiled Moslem ladies, piled around with suitcases and farm produce.

Railways and Planes

Twenty years ago a French line from Jaffa to Jerusalem and a narrow-gauge line from Haifa going eastward across the River Jordan to join the pilgrim railway from Damascus to the Holy City of Medina, in the Hejaz, were Palestine's only railways. War operations necessitated a line from the Suez canal across Sinai, along the Maritime plain, by way of the ancient towns of Gazza and Lydda, the home of St. George, to Haifa. Passengers may now travel in comfortable sleeping and restaurant cars across the desert which Moses took 40 years to traverse and cross the width of Sinai and the Holy Land between breakfast and tea.

Recently fishermen on the Sea of Galilee, plying their age-old craft, were startled by the appearance of a flying boat, which, dropping from the skies, cleaved the waters of this sacred inland fresh-water lake which nestles below sea level in a cup of the northern hills. Galilee had become the meeting place of land and sea planes on the airway between Europe and eastern Asia.

In 1914 the only means of long-distance communication was by shepherd boy to herdsman shouting across mountain crag to hilltop—from highland to valley.

Today not only do networks of telegraph and telephone wires embrace the country, making it literally possible to speak from Dan to Beersheba, from Jordan valley to Mediterranean coast, but by land wire and wireless people may talk from Jerusalem or Jericho to Europe or America.

Palestine, birthplace of religious associations, but hitherto solely an agricultural country, is beginning to stir with industrial life. So far, neither coal nor oil has been found in commercial quantities; so, for the creation of power, the waters of the Jordan and Yarmuk have been harnessed.

Electric Light

An old sheik will tell you that the end of the war found the towns and villages of Palestine places of darkness, without a single street light.

"Most of us were asleep soon after sunset, as the flickering light from an olive-oil lamp was of little use."

The country is now being surrounded by a network of pylons conveying electrical energy generated by the waters of Jordan.

South of the Sea of Galilee were erected regulating sluices and dams across both the Jordan River and its tributary, the Yarmuk. These two sources are connected with a mile-long canal, and the flowing waters are diverted into turbines generating 8,500 horsepower each. The energy is transmitted across Palestine at 66,000 volts. Jerusalem is supplied with light from Diesel engines operated by another company.

A striking change in Palestine is the modern method of building. New types have largely superseded the picturesque vaulted and alcoved homes of the Arabs, whose domed rooms necessitate walls a yard thick, with immensely solid corners to withstand the weight of stone on the roof. The cost is now prohibitive and iron girders, formerly unavailable, are cheaper supports for flat roofs.

With the main towns doubling their population in ten years and the all-Jewish town of Tel Aviv, which has sprung up beside old Jaffa to a flourishing city of 60,000 people, town planners have been active.

Owing to the cosmopolitan origin of their builders, every form of architecture is portrayed in the new homes, types of central and eastern Europe predominating. Restrictions on their height prevent lofty buildings being erected.

Country settlements are also adopting up-to-date practices and many a village now possesses charming villas. Jerusalem has a fine new hotel, aptly called The King David.

NOT AGREED ON "PROLETARIAT"

Varying Definitions of Term Long in Use.

Recent political disturbances throughout the world bring up the question: What is the proletariat?

The dictionary gives two conceptions of the term "proletariat." In earlier usage, the word designated the indigent classes collectively of a community or of a state, including day laborers and all other persons without capital or assured means of support. In modern Socialism, the term refers to the wage workers of a state or of the world, collectively, regarded as the producers of capital and creators of wealth; the laboring classes; the workingmen. This last meaning of the term probably arose during the French revolution.

The word is derived from the Latin proletarius, which referred to the body of citizens who were without means and belonged to the fifth property class. They were exempt from military service and served the state by contributing to it their children (proles, offspring). It is believed that this class received its name in the time of Servius Tullius.

Karl Marx was probably largely responsible for the popular use of the word proletariat. In the Communist Manifesto of 1847, by Marx and Engels, the Socialist conception of the term, as opposed to the bourgeoisie, is clearly brought out. Under the heading "Bourgeoisie and Proletariat," the following definitions are given:

"By bourgeoisie is meant the class of modern capitalists, owners of the means of social production and employers of wage-labor; by proletariat, the class of modern wage-laborers who, having no means of production of their own, are reduced to selling their labor-power in order to live."

The notion of class warfare is explained in Engels' preface to the Manifesto in which he says:

"The whole history of mankind (since the dissolution of primitive tribal society, holding land in common ownership) has been a history of class struggles, contests between exploiting and exploited, ruling and oppressed classes. . . . A stage has been reached where the oppressed and exploited class—the proletariat—cannot attain its emancipation from the sway of the exploiting and ruling class—the bourgeoisie—without at the same time, and once for all, emancipating society at large from all exploitation, oppression, class distinction and class struggle."

These theories of Marx and Engels were brought to fullest realization by Lenin and the Bolsheviki, and their division of all persons into two distinct classes, the "workers of the world" and their "oppressors." —New York Times.

Week's Supply of Postum Free

Read the offer made by the Postum Company in another part of this paper. They will send a full week's supply of health giving Postum free to anyone who writes for it.—Adv.

In the Bermudas

Bermuda is a group of islands in the North Atlantic, 660 miles southeast of New York. Although said to be 365 in number, of which about a score are inhabited, they occupy a space only 18 by 2½ miles. The largest has an area of 9,000 acres, and the whole group contains 12,000 acres.

Age 13

Old enough for strong drugs?

It is not wise to give a laxative of adult strength to a child, just because you give it less often or in less amounts.

Stomach upsets and bowel troubles of growing children can often be traced to this single mistake.

There is a better way to relieve those occasional sluggish spells or constipation in a child of any age:

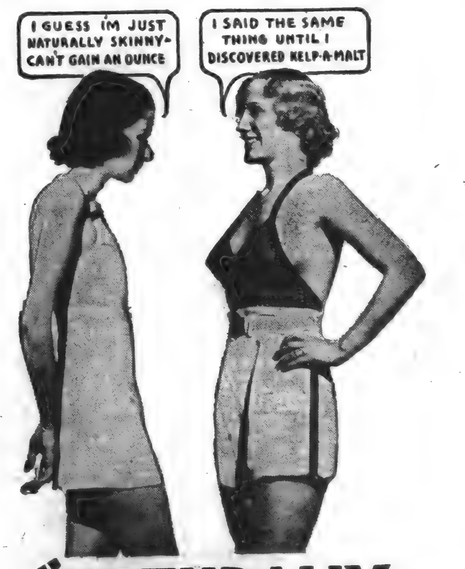
Use a liquid laxative containing senna (a natural laxative). California Syrup of Figs has the right amount for children's use, and this rich, fruity syrup does not harm or upset a child's system.

Doctors advise liquid laxatives, and hospitals use the liquid form. Almost any child who has been convalescing in the hospital usually comes out with bowels working like a well-regulated watch.

Make the change now to pure, California Syrup of Figs instead of harsh medicines, you won't risk any more violence to your child's appetite, digestion, and general physical condition. Those little upsets and complaints just disappear as a rule and the child is soon normal and happy again.

THE "LIQUID TEST." First: select a liquid laxative of the proper strength for children. Second: give the dose suited to the child's age. Third: reduce the dose, if repeated, until the bowels are moving without any help at all.

An ideal laxative for this purpose is the pure California Syrup of Figs, but be sure the word "California" is on the bottle.



"NATURALLY SKINNY FOLKS"

3 WAYS IN 1 TO ADD WEIGHT Quick!

GAIN 5 LBS. IN 1 WEEK OR NO COST.

Hosts of thin, pale, rundown folks—and even "Naturally Skinny" men and women—are amazed at this new easy way to put on healthy needed pounds quickly. Gains of 17 to 20 lbs. in one month—7 lbs. in a week—are reported regularly.

Kelp-a-Malt, the new mineral concentrate from the sea—gets right down to the cause of thin, underweight conditions and adds weight through a "3 ways in one" natural process.

First, its rich supply of easily assimilable minerals nourish the digestive glands which produce the juices that alone enable you to digest the fats and starches—the weight-making elements in your daily diet. Second, Kelp-a-Malt provides an amazingly effective digestive substance which actually digests 4 times its own weight of the flesh-building foods you eat. Third, Kelp-a-Malt's natural FOOD IODINE stimulates and nourishes the internal glands which control assimilation—the process of converting digested food into firm flesh, new strength and energy. Three Kelp-a-Malt tablets contain more iron and copper than a pound of spinach or 7½ lbs. of fresh tomatoes; more calcium than 6 eggs; more phosphorus than 1¼ lbs. carrots; more FOOD IODINE than 1600 lbs. of beef.

Try Kelp-a-Malt for a single week and notice the difference—how much better you sleep, how ordinary stomach distress vanishes, how firm flesh appears in place of scrawny hollows and the new energy and strength it brings you! Prescribed and used by physicians, Kelp-a-Malt is fine for children too—improves their appetites. Remember the name, Kelp-a-Malt, the original and genuine kelp and malt tablets. There is nothing else like them so don't accept imitations and substitutes. Try Kelp-a-Malt today, and if you don't gain at least 5 lbs. of good firm flesh in 1 week the trial is free.

Kelp-a-Malt comes in packages of 100 jumbo size tablets, 4 to 5 times larger than ordinary tablets and cost only a few cents a day to use. Kelp-a-Malt can be had at all good drug stores. If your dealer has not yet received his supply, send $1 for special introductory size bottle of 67 tablets to the address below.

SPECIAL FREE OFFER

Write today for fascinating instructive 50-page book on "How to Add Weight Quickly." Mineral Contents of Food and their effects on the human body. New facts about FOOD IODINE. Standard weight and measurement charts. Daily menus for weight building. Absolutely free. No obligation. Kelp-A-Malt Co., Dept. C108, 27-33 W. 20th St., New York City

KELP-A-MALT Tablets

OCTOBER

L 919

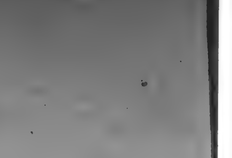
384

Memories of the Wild Never Closed to Dog

As his mistress strode through the long grass, Flush, the spaniel, leaped hither and thither, parting its green curtain. What a variety of smells interwoven in subtlest combination thrilled his nostrils: Strong smells of earth, sweet smells of flowers; nameless smells of leaf and bramble; sour smells as they crossed the road; pungent smells as they entered the bean fields.

But suddenly down the wind came tearing a smell sharper, stronger, more lacerating than any—a smell that ripped across his brain, stirring a thousand instincts, releasing a million memories—the smell of hare, the smell of fox. Off he flashed like a fish drawn in a rush through water further and further. He forgot his mistress; he forgot all humankind. He heard dark men cry, "Span! Span!" He heard whips crack. He raced; he rushed. At last he stopped bewildered; the incantation faded; very slowly, wagging his tail sheepishly he trotted quietly back across the fields to where Miss Mitford stood shouting, "Flush! Flush! Flush!" and waving her umbrella.—Virginia Woolf in the Atlantic Monthly.

Mercolized Wax



Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Forcordained

Some of the greatest men were not "raised" at all.

For good digestion

—there is nothing that can take the place of your own gastric, digestive secretions. Frequently, poor digestion is due to lack of tone in the stomach walls—because of low blood strength. S.S.S., the great, scientifically-tested medicine, is specially designed to fill a two-fold purpose in this respect . . . it aids in stimulating the flow of natural stomach secretions . . . and by building up deficient red corpuscles, with their hemo-glo-bin, it restores to a more normal functioning the secretions of the stomach digestive juices . . . so necessary for good digestion. This double value of S.S.S. is important.

By all means try S.S.S. for better health and more happiness. Its benefits are progressive . . . accumulative . . . and enduring. Unless your case is exceptional, you should soon enjoy again the satisfaction of appetizing food and good digestion . . . sound sleep . . . and renewed strength. This is why many say "S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again."

Do not be blinded by the efforts of a few unethical dealers who may suggest substitutes. You have a right to insist that S.S.S. be supplied you on request. Its long years of preference is your guarantee of satisfaction.

S.S.S. the world's great blood medicine

That Dove of Peace

Much peace prevails because it is too much trouble to fight.

Beautiful SKIN.. needs more than cosmetics

Beauty of skin comes from within. When constipation clogs the pores with intestinal wastes, CLEANSE INTERNALLY with Garfield Tea. Helps relieve the clogged system promptly, mildly, effectively. At your drug store 25c & 10c

FREE SAMPLE Write to GARFIELD TEA CO., Dept. 19 Brooklyn, N.Y.

GARFIELD TEA

For Hi-Class Photography mail films to us. 8 hi-gloss lifetime prints and two 5x7 enlargements 25c (coin). Also special colored enlargement offer. Prompt service. STAR PHOTO SHOP, LA CROSSE, WIS.

ITCHING SKIN

Wherever it occurs on the body—however tender or sensitive the parts—quickly and safely relieved by

Resinol

SORES AND BURNS—My Specialty Write for Free 144 Page Book Dr. Boil Wilson, Sumter, Miss.

For Large or Small Ranches, Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico, Write Reynolds Land Co., 626 Exchange Bldg., Denver, Colo.

LADIES, SEND ONLY 44c (COIN) for highest grade Electric Curling Iron. None better, satisfaction or money back. M-W-K MFG. CO., Grand Haven, Mich.

Nuggets of Gold will end your long, futile struggle for financial independence. $1. Absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Modernage 308 West 182nd St., N. Y. C.

WNU—A 41—34

DEATH SHOT kills all insects. Dilute 1 bottle 40 times. BEST-UV-ALL PRODUCTS, 305 Dyal-Upchurch Bldg., Jacksonville, Fla.

Swagger Furs Will Attend Game

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IN REGARD to the swagger, swanky sports furs which will attend the football games, here's the newsiest of fashion notes—a seven-eighths brown lapin coat with a lighter brown suede skirt. Fancy what a sensation in spectator row such a novel and stunning combination will create. Before telling further exciting news about football modes, we would like to stop long enough to say that suede is a new enthusiasm not only among sports fans but the loveliest of evening gowns are being made of this novel media. One such recently created in Paris for a leading American film star is of suede in that seductive "dusty pink" which is so flattering to most complexions.

To continue with more football fashion thrills, registering high in the list is the suit that uses eel gray lapin for a swagger coat which takes unto itself a skirt, scarf and belt (across front only) of wool knit in the new pine green which is so widely acclaimed this season. Other refreshingly out-of-the-ordinary sports style items include huge fur pockets, tiny fur cuffs, tuxedo revers of fur, the fur waist-depth cape, which is very important, also detachable fur vestees which keep you extra warm, high winds or no high winds.

Which all goes to show that the new football and otherwise sports furs are making novelty their big appeal this season.

For breath-taking novelty we cite the new suits which are fashioned of tweed in a tapestry effect (very new) that blends blue, red, purple, green and brown in indefinite stripes. Add a broad scarf collar and big pockets of brown caracul and go where you will you will sight nothing more eye-filling in the way of a sports spectator costume.

The girl in the picture to the left has selected a perfectly stunning fur-trimmed suit to accent her appearance on the grandstand. This model is as dressy as it is sportsy, and therefore can be properly worn most anywhere in the daytime. Its tuxedo revers of fur stamp it as being one of the newest of the new, for the fur-rever styling is "just out." A muff, too! Just as soon as the "frost is on the pumpkin," knowing fashionables will begin to carry muffs this season. All sorts of muffs with wee muffs in the lead, also the new accordion muffs so long and narrow, they crinkle up like the instrument they are named for. The muff here shown is a compromise between the two. The wide fur cuffs and the generously cut sleeves are also important style features.

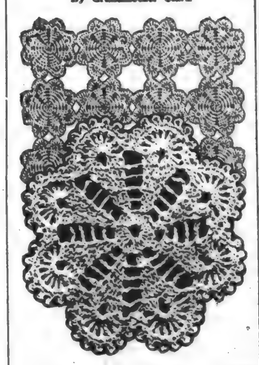
The handsome coat centered in the group is one that will quicken the pulse of any style-loving young modern. The large rolling collar and wide cuffs of dark gray Persian lamb are wonderfully effective against the lighter gray of the kidskin which fashions the coat. The dress of a plaid woolen in gay Mexican colors with green predominating and the felt hat in the new pine green is a perfect foil to the placid gray of the fur.

A very wearable type of fur coat is shown to the right, being of a soft brown summer ermine which makes it comfortable in the early not-too-cool autumn days. The pelts have been worked diagonally in the rippled loose back. The hat is devastating. One glance at it and the wearer, and the conquering football hero will no longer be master of his fate. It is of the new Robin Hood type which flaunts a gay little feather—the sort that flirts with you whether you will or no.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Crochet Motif for Bedspread

By Grandmother Clark



A bedspread in crochet is a work of art, attracts attention and frequently becomes an heirloom. A spread crocheted in one piece becomes cumbersome as the work progresses. How much simpler to crochet one motif at a time and then assemble the motifs to complete spread. Watch your work grow when it can be taken along with you to social gatherings.

The above illustration represents the "Snow Flake" motif and how it shows up when put together. This motif when made of carpet warp measures six inches. Thirty-two motifs can be made from one pound of warp. This is only one of the 29 motifs shown in our book No. 27 on motif bedspreads. These motifs can also be used to make match sets for bedroom: curtains, pillows, chairbacks, scarfs, etc.

Write our crochet department inclosing 15c for this book No. 27, illustrated, with instructions, or send 25c and receive also book No. 26, with 72 edgings and insertions in crochet for all purposes.

Address—Home Craft company—Dept. B—Nineteenth & St. Louis avenue—St. Louis, Mo.

Climbing Pikes Peak

At the time of the discovery, Zebulon Pike expressed the positive opinion that the Colorado peak named in his honor was so high that it never would be climbed. Automobiles now race to its summit over a perfect speedway.

Got Her Lock of Hair, but Not Paderewski's

Paderewski has, like many another notability, undergone the ordeal of complying with autograph hunters' demands for signatures. But the famous pianist, if we may judge by what is said to have happened on one occasion, draws the line at the distribution of mementoes in the shape of samples of his beautiful hair, albeit gifted by nature with a profusion of that article.

It was when he was visiting America that a well-known society woman had the audacity to hand through the window of his private car a gushing epistle, winding up with the request for "a lock of hair." It is alleged that Paderewski's secretary replied as follows: "You fail to specify whose hair you desire. M. Paderewski, therefore, in order to avoid disappointment, has secured for you some fine specimens from his manager, secretary, valet, waiter two cooks, and the cat."

KELP

Recently scientists have made startling discoveries of a sea treasure more important to life and happiness than that contained in the rusty, iron bound chests occasionally found in sunken ships.

In the coastal waters of the Pacific Ocean off California there is often found growing a huge sea plant with stems often measuring 90 feet or more in length, known as kelp. In these leaves are found such minerals as iron, copper, calcium, phosphorous, iodine, manganese and other elements once available in abundance in the soil but have been washed to the sea by the rains of the ages. These helpful elements are all found in the leaf of the kelp, the basis of Kelp-a-Malt.—Adv.

Bird Instinct Tested

To test the homing instinct of birds, the Ornithological Institute of Essen, Prussia, released 350 birds in distant towns and most of the flyers returned to Essen.

CREOMULSION

Your own druggist is authorized to cheerfully refund your money on the spot if you are not relieved by Creomulsion.

COUGHS

RECORDS WHITEWASHED

When John Vacko, headman of Lhots, Czechoslovakia, returned home he found that the walls of his room had been whitewashed by his wife, so he beat her. John told the judge the local council meets in the room, and to save paper, he had written the minutes on the walls. His wife's act caused the loss of an entire year's records.

Why Hospitals Use a Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the public is fast returning to laxatives in liquid form. Do you know the reasons?

The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual need. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The right dose of a liquid laxative brings a more natural movement, and there is no discomfort at the time, or after.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

A properly prepared liquid laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin brings safe relief from constipation. It gently helps the average person's bowels until nature restores them to regularity. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is an approved liquid laxative which all druggists keep ready for use. It makes an ideal family laxative; effective for all ages, and may be given the youngest child.

Lemons for Rheumatism Bring Joyous Relief

Want to be rid of rheumatism or neuritis pain? Want to feel good, years younger and enjoy life again? Well, just try this inexpensive and effective lemon juice mixture. Get a package of the REV PRESCRIPTION. Dissolve it at home in a quart of water, add the juice of 4 lemons. A few cents a day is all it costs. If you're not free from pain and feeling better within two weeks you can get your money back. For sale, recommended and guaranteed by all leading druggists. Any druggist will get the REV PRESCRIPTION for you.

IN TONES OF GREEN

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Green is exceedingly voguish this fall. The costume pictured is of one of the newest ribbed woolen weaves in the much-sought-for pine-green which is so really handsome. This smart young modern has brought her dark green costume right up to date with her bag, belt and glove cuffs crocheted of green and sand crepe paper. Whatever colors you may have chosen for your fall costume, you will be able to find the right shades of crepe paper for crocheting matching or harmonizing accessories, for there are fifty shades to choose from, including black and white. Crepe paper crochet has become quite an outstanding vogue. The work is easy and the material inexpensive. The accessory ensemble pictured is crocheted in a particularly simple stitch so that even the amateur need not hesitate to undertake it.

Fur Bibs

Fur should be used on suits with the collar making a bib down the front, thus causing attention and warding off pneumonia at the same time.

GLOVES STAND OUT BOLDLY THIS FALL

Gloves go gay. Never have they been so pert and full of individuality as they are today.

Gloves of the present, and those in a formative state for the fingers of 1935, no longer resignedly fit in with the costume so that one notices them only as a part of the whole. They stand out boldly from the ensemble, flaunting their merit independent of their background. Their duty now is to strike a dominant note in the ensemble either by their color or cut or other oddment.

Evening gowns are now accompanied by gloves with a vast amount of open work on the arm, occasionally cut-steel beading, and sometimes by shirring, tucking or otherwise copying some novel feature of the gown.

Monograms Are Used on Coat Lapel or as Buttons

Everyone smart is giving her right name this fall season, according to fashion shows. Coat lapels and dress fastenings feature monograms sometimes a half-foot deep, in leather, metal, wood, and even marble. Using one's own initials in leather for buttons on sports jackets is the trick of the day.

Real flower jewelry is still popular with one large house, whose collection featured a necklace, earrings and even a ring made of pale pink dahlias.

White chrysanthemums are replacing gardenias and camellias as boutonnieres and corsage flowers.

Artificial flowers are equally good, with copper gardenias stunning on new smoky-toned fabrics. In one instance six calla lilies were snakily twined as a girdle on an evening gown.

More Slashed Details

Slashed details are becoming more and more prevalent in dinner and evening dresses, posed not only just at the front but also appearing at side-front and back seams.

Mr. COFFEE-NERVES finds himself out of a job

TO BE SURE, many people find that coffee does not disagree with them. But others—and there are lots of them—cannot and should not drink it at all. You may be one of these—without realizing it. The caffein in coffee may be working night and day to rob you of sleep, upset your digestion, or undermine your nervous system.

If you suspect that coffee doesn't agree with you . . . try Postum instead for 30 days. It is simply whole wheat and bran, roasted and slightly sweetened. It is a delicious drink and contains nothing that can possibly harm you. A product of General Foods.

FREE—To help you get started in your fight against coffee-nerves, let us send you your first week's supply of POSTUM—Free! Fill in and mail the coupon below.

GENERAL FOODS, Battle Creek, Mich. W. N. U. 10-11-34

Please send me, without cost or obligation, a week's supply of Postum.

Name_____

Street_____

City_____ State_____

Fill in completely—print name and address. This offer expires July 1, 1935.

OCTOBER

L 919

U 385

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

For Sale: Potato Planter. Phone or see Don Keller, St. Joe. 40t1p.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

Wanted to rent small farm for Cash—May buy. What have you? Write P. O. Box 152, Angola, Ind. 40t3p.

Wanted: Popcorn and potatoes on subscription.

Wanted: Hard and Soft Maple and ash logs. Hardwood Lumber Co., Butler, Ind. Phone 210L. 39t4p.

For Sale: Full-blooded, dark colored Jersey Bull, 17-mo. old. 5 miles straight east of St. Joe. C. E. Treace, St. Joe, Rt. 1. Hicksville phone No. 57F12. 40t1p.

Auction: House and lot, located at 409 No. Pearl St., Butler, Ind. Will be sold Sat. Oct. 13 at 2 P. M. This house is a one-story bungalow with 7 rooms. The lot has some fruit, a good well and cistern. Some household goods. M. D. Sanders, Owner. Ross Leatherman, Auct. 40t1p.

NEWVILLE

Several men and women from here are employed at the Leighty Orchards.

A great many from here attended the Free Fall Fair at Auburn last week.

Quite a number from here attended the Home-Coming Sunday at Coburn Corners.

Mrs. Mary Smith and children from Mongo, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith from here attended the Carnival at Bryan, Ohio, Friday.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith, of Fort Wayne, called on Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith Sunday afternoon.

Bert Farner, and Mr. and Mrs. John Dove and son, Melvin, of Butler, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Lucille Traxler.

Levi Oberlin died Oct. 3 at his home north of here. Funeral services were held Friday. Burial in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Mrs Mary Smith and children were here last week from Mongo visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Iro Morhart.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Barnes have moved to the Baron farm and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, of Hicksville now occupies her property vacated by Barnes.

Visitors from here at the World's Fair last week were Mr. and Mrs. Justin Gloy, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Hoffer, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, Clayton Smith and Miss Bonnell Baker.

Mrs. Emma Morningstar and son, R. D., from Inkster, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ross and three children, from Detroit, spent Saturday and Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler.

Mrs. Ethel Davies, of Chicago, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Clark. Mrs. Jennie Gengnagel accompanied her home and will remain a week, attending the Century of Progress.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Huntington and daughter, Irma, of Gonstantine, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Blair, of Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Webster and children from Edgerton, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fusselman called on Mrs Kate Fusselman Sunday afternoon.

SPENCERVILLE

Mrs. Zetta Wertman is visiting friends at Columbia City.

The C. C. Club will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ruth Butler.

School closed on last Friday to allow the children to attend the Auburn fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mascot, of South Bend, Mrs. Mary Calloway and children and Mr. and Mrs. James Reed were Sunday dinner and supper guests of Wm. Reed and daughters.

The Home Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Frances Chapman.

Many from this place attended the Auburn fair last week, and a number assisted in the parade.

Mrs. Delbert Furnish and children were Sunday afternoon guests at the Wm. Reed home.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McNabb, of Auburn.

Mrs. Zelpha Steward will entertain the Young Ladies Social Club at her home on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Means and family were Sunday dinner guests at the David Amstutz home near Grabill.

Miss Ethel McNabb was a Sunday dinner guest of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and family.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Oct. 7 was 50, collection, $4.95; Lutheran 53, collection, $6.50.

R. U. Bowser and wife were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Badiac and family near Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beams and daughter, Doris, were Sunday evening guests at the Jerry Klopfenstein home near Grabill.

The Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet on Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 17, at the home of Mrs. Bell Means near the St. Joe depot.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kohr, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Andrews, of near Leo, called at the R. U. Bowser home Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Salmon and Mr. and Mrs. Gramer, of Fort Wayne, Glen Steward and son, of Auburn, were Sunday dinner guests at the Gust Hafner home.

The True Blue class of the M. E. Sunday School will be entertained on Friday evening at the home of Miss LaVern and Master LaVon Furnish, west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Furnish attended the Aubunr fair with their twin daughters, winning a prize for being the youngest twins present, about five months old.

Rev. Newcombe, wife and two sons left Thursday noon to attend the funeral of his sister-in-law in Pennsylvania. They also visited his father, who is very ill in a hospital in that state.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Furnish and children attended their reunion at Fort Wayne, Sunday.

The Home Bureau will observe family night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder on Tuesday evening, October 16. They will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Means. Pot luck supper at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Audra Wade celebrated her birthday anniversary at the Frank Butler home on Wednesday. Others assisting were her husband, Lloyd Wade, and daughters, Mary and Edith, Frank Butler, Mrs. Jane Butler and Gale Bowser and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bectenwall and son, Warren, Mrs. Frances Chapman and son, David, and two daughters, Rachel and Josephine, Mrs. Jane Butler and son, Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Bowser and two sons, Jimmy and Jerry, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and two daughters, Mary and Edith, of Defiance, spent Sunday at the Butler home near Lake Wawasee, Ind.

Making New Berm

The berm alond road one thru Spencerville is now being made permanent by the road employes. The berm was lowered several inches, then filled with stone and covered with tar and asphalt. At the time of construction the berm was not made permanent and much mud and water stood during the wet season. Now the berm will be free from this.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Mrs. Troas Carpenter spent Tuesday at Butler.

Most everybody in the community attended the Fall Fair at Auburn.

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Oct. 7, was 143, collection, $7.34.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place spent Sunday evening at the Geo. Hart home.

Miss Lotus Schootmaster and father, of Lansing, Mich., spent Sunday with Mr. Wesley Hart, who is gradually growing weaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm and family and Mr. and Mrs. Garth Shull and family attended the McCutcheon family reunion Sunday at Eden, Ohio.

The Home-Coming was a decided success. The largest crowd that had ever attended, mid beautiful sunshine, happy greetings, and a wonderful dinner, the day will long be a happy thought. A beautiful welcome, designed by Fred Hart and son, Glen, surely was appreciated by those at home, and the visitors. It was interwoven with flowers from Hart's nursery.

HAROLD YEISER GETS $5 REWARD

Some three weeks ago, Mr. Jones and wife, of the Jones Studio, Auburn, were spending the day in the Dills grove, and with them were their two cats, and George, a large tiger, wandered from them. When they were ready to return home they were compelled to leave George wandering about in the wilds of the St. Joe Valley. Mr. Jones posted a reward of $5 for the return of George, and Sunday night Harold Yeiser discovered the cat on the street of St. Joe near the Filling Station. Telling his father, they called the Jones Studio, and they came immediately to St. Joe and proved their ownership. Harold was glad to get the $5.00 and better still the Jones' were more than glad to get George back to their home.

Three weeks wandering about took much of his fleah, not being accustomed to hunting for food, and his coat of fur was somewhat ruffled up, anyway they are both happy that their pet has been returned to them.

W. W. KETCHAM NEW ELECTION BOARD MEMBER

W. W. Ketcham, an Auburn attorney, was appointed Tuesday by Roy Oberlin of Butler, county democratic chairman, as a member of the county board of election commissioners.

The republican member, renamed by Caunty Chairman, H. C. Springer, of Butler, is C. O. Metcalf, of Auburn. County Clerk, Carl Walter is ex-officio member of the board.

The board has the duty of preparing the copy for the ballots and having them printed and distributed with other supplies for the election. The board also receives the election reports from the precinct inspectors and tabulates the returns, besides managing other details of the election.

FOURTEEN DEKALB BOYS SEEK PLACES IN CCC CAMPS

Fourteen DeKalb county young men left Auburn Wednesday morning for Fort Wayne where they were given physical examinations as applicants for CCC camps. The boys were taken to Fort Wayne by C. O. Krise of Auburn, DeKalb county chairman of the Governor's Commission for Unemployment Relief. Those who pass the physical examination go to Fort Knox, Ky., for enlistment in the CCC for six months.

The boys leaving were Clare Parnell of Smithfield township, Harry Runyan of Butler township, V. Herbert Provines of Jackson township, Simeon Drew of Grant township, Adrian Hagerty of Wilmington township, Harley Like of Concord township, Paul Bice of Spencer township, Charles Atkins, Donald Greenwood, Edward Depew, DeLos McConnell of Keyser township, and Fred Ball, Myrl Stafford and James Buttermore of Union township.

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders
400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH A L L WORK GUARANTEED
Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

CELEBRATE FORTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their wedding on Sunday, October 7th The following guests were present:

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Burley, of Princeville, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Vance Woodcox and sons, Kent and Bruce, and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Scrivo, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Woodcox and sons, Billie and Loyd and daughters, Betty and Wanda, of Angola, Ind. Other callers were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kees and Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Woodcox and son, Morris, of St. Joe.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. Wm. Pepple spent last week with relatives at Auburn.

Joe Woodcox worked in the post office a few days this week.

Many of our citizens attended the fair at Auburn last week.

Beatrice Storer, of Fort Wayne, was a wek end guest of her parents here.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Mr. John Scott, of Auburn, is here the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Glen Wineland, and family.

Stanley Means spent Saturday and Sunday at A Century of Progress, accompanying an Auburn party of friends.

Little Miss Jeanne Hatch, of Spencerville, spent a couple days of last week with her brother, Jimmy, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Bowser, of Spencerville, were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowser and children.

Jerry Allen, born on Thursday to Mr. and Mrs Clayton Baker, residing on the John Koch farm. This is their second child.

George Berry, of Rome City, brother of Winfield Berry, west of St. Joe, was calling on old friends Monday afternoon in St. Joe.

Among those from St. Joe who attended the Home-Coming at Coburn Corners, Sunday, were Mrs. Eva Sheffer, Mrs. Clara McCann, Chas. Murphy and family, Dr. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker, Mrs. Ida Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keesler, Mrs. Jennie Abel, Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Shilling, Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee, Mrs. Amanda Coburn, Mrs. Lena Meek, Joe Hull, B. E. Widney and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Schondelmayer.

Home On Vacation

Goble Goodwin, of Cambridge City, Ind., spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Goodwin. He is taking two weeks vacation from his work with the state highway department.

ST. JOE M. P. CHURCH
William D Koehnlein, Pastor

St. Joe Church

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.
Evening Evangelistic Service at 7:30 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid will meet this evening (Thursday) with Mrs. Chas. Koch. The time has been announced for 7:30.

Rally Day, November 4th.

Concord Church

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.
Morning Worship at 10:45 A. M.

Our church does not believe in fanaticism or wild fire! Neither do we believe in cold, dead formalism! We do believe in a wholesome, healthv program of spiritual development and growth. Our main purpose is to inspire Christians to better living and to point sinners to "The Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." To this sort of a program the Methodist Protestant Church invites you. The past is gone. The future is uncertain. The present is ours. What are we doing with it?

SPENCERVILLE LUTHERAN

20th Sunday after Trinity

Harvest Home Festival service next Sunday evening at 7:30.

Your canned goods for the orphanage and old people's home is solicited at this time. Bring the goods Sunday morning that a display may be arranged in the afternoon. This service is sponsored by the young married people's class.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you e v e r used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Free RUBBER RINGS..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator; any size or make . . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl . . . a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. BOX 735

27t14

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunlding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN O F REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

More than two thousand years ago that wise old philosopher, Aristotle, said, "Taxation is the art of plucking feathers from the goose with the least amount of squawk." The main idea of tax gatherers has remained the same throughout the centuries – to make the taxes invisible, so that the man who pays the bill will not be aware of being taxed.

Out of every dollar you pay this company you contribute 13 cents in taxes to support the Government, Federal, state and local.

We stand involuntarily in the position of a "tax collector," for under the law regulating utilities, taxes become a part of the cost of service which must be borne by our customers.

Our policy for years has been to extend to our customers the benefits of economies and increased use of electricity in the form of rate savings. To-day the tax gatherers are piling taxes upon us at a greater rate than any possible savings.

H. T. Epmeier
Vice President & General Manager

INVISIBLE TAXES

OCTOBER

L 919

U 386

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. Charles Reasoner, who is in poor health, was able to be down town Monday.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mrs. F. L. Milliman has returned home from Fort Wayne, where she had been visiting her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Zav Sailer were Sunday guests of Tim Stahl and wife at Fort Wayne. The ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shilling and two sons and Mrs. Adam Shilling visited relatives at Hicksville, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cox and two sons made a brief call at the F. B. Leighty home Sunday enroute to Cincinnati.

Rev. J. E. Poer, of Lowell, Ind., called at News office last Friday and made us a visit. We consider him a very personal friend of years standing.

Don Burley, of Princeville, Ill., came Saturday evening to be a guest of relatives until Monday afternoon. His wife had been here for two weeks.

The township line road from Baker's Corners south one mile, is being graded with the county road gang this week. This road is between Newville and Spencer township.

A short in electric wiring at the George Baker farm, brought a fire call Tuesday forenoon, but before the department was able to make the run, the fire was extinguished without much loss.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ginther and Miss Treesa Minemeyer, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Ginther. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Quance and children and Mrs. Vina Quance of Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Taylor, of Jackson, Mich., were guests of Geo. Tustison and family over the week end. Mrs. Mary M. Blake of Bryston, O., spent the past week in the same home. H. D. Curie and wife and Miss Lillian Ernest of Garrett, were Sunday dinner guests.

A birthday dinner was given Wednesday noon in honor of Mr. Smith's 80th birthday, and his grandson, Jack Kees' second birthday, at the Leon Kees home. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark, of Fort Wayne were guests as Mrs. Clark claimed birthday honors on this same day.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milliman, of Alvordton, Ohio, were Sunday guests in the Geo. Milliman home.

J. E. Poer, minister of Church of Christ, at Lowell, Ind., was a recent over-night guest in the Meade Baker home.

Saturday while attending the fall fair at Auburn, the Fred Ulm farm dog killed 69 of their spring chickens and now the dog is dead.

Miss Tillie Mann, of New Orleans, La., and Mrs. Allie Moore and son, Roy Moore and wife from Hartford City, Ind., spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hursey. Sunday they spent with the Jay Hart family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Herrick and daughter, of Cuyahoga Falls, O., were here several days last week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orange Herrick, and also his brother, Dan, at Auburn, while attending the fair. The week before they drove to the World's Fair and while there Charles was injured by a car hitting him making it necessary for him to spend his time in the hospital, while in Chicago. He was able to return here Thursday without seeing the big fair. They left for Ohio Sunday afternoon.

PLEASANT SURPRISE

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 9, neighbors and friends, numbering 30, gathered at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran to remind Charles he had come to the end of another mile stone, it being his 58th birthday. All came in with well filled baskets and enjoyed an evening long to be remembered. Harry Hursh came in on this also as he enjoyed his birthday Oct. 10th.

Mr. Cochran was the recipient of a beautiful smoking stand presented to him by his wife. Derwood Ridgway making the presentation speech. At a late hour all departed to their homes wishing Charles many, many more happy birthdays. Those present were:

Glen Wineland and wife, M. C. Blue and wife, Harry Hursh and wife, J. C. Hull and wife, J. R. Shilling and wife, Will Hamilton and wife, M. H. Andress and wife, Harvey Hull, wife and son, Vernie Manroe, wife and two sons, James and Billie, Derwood Ridgway and wife, Bert Gee, Lela Northrup, Karma Jean Wilcox, Walter Ervin, Mrs. Blanch Leighty and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Cochran.

A Guest.

OCTOBER

L 919

U 387

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1934. NUMBER 41

NOW HARD AFTER CHICKEN THIEVES

A "fire at will" order was given farmers of Allen county Monday from the office of Sheriff Fred G. Lunz at Fort Wayne as new thefts of chickens and turkeys from farms of the county were reported. "Farmers are arming to combat the thefts, and no longer can the thief expect to get away with a warning," Chief Deputy Harold Oetting declared. "We have told owners of chickens to shoot first and investigate afterward i f prowlers are heard around their hencoops." Deputy Oetting said electric traps and even traps using dynamite and other explosives have been set by farmers in an attempt to end the thefts.

Sheriff Hoff of DeKalb county has also declared an open season on thieves. In connection with new reports of thefts about the county, he calls attention to a new law requiring that buyers of chickens for resale keep an accurate record of their transactions for inspection of officers of the law. Such dealers must be licensed, must get the name and address of the seller, keep a record of the number of chickens bought and, in cases where suspicion is aroused, get the automobile license number of the seller.

OPEN SEASON ON SQUIRRELS ENDS

The open season for squirrel hunting in Indiana ended Monday with a majority of Hoosier sportsmen reporting unusual success in bagging the limit of five on their trips in the woods. The closed season during which it is illegal to kill squirrels extends until August 1, 1935, and violators are subject to fines. The protection of the law does not extend to the red or piney squirrel which may be taken at any time.

Considerable dissatisfa c t i o n with the dates of the open season for squirrel hunting was expressed this vear by sportsmen in all part of the state. Many hunters found that the opening of the season came before the young squirrels had been weaned and the killing of the mothers led to the death of the young squirrels, thus making serious inroads into the supply, present and future. These sportsmen are proposing that the legislature meeting next January be requested to change the opening date of the squirrel season to protect squirrels until after the young have been weaned.

EDUCATIONAL WORK TO BE STARTED HERE

The indications are that several hundred people in DeKalb county will join the classes being organized under the government's emergency education program, County Supervisor J. W. Fleming, reports.

Mr. Fleming was in St. Joe Tuesday and reports that he expects to use three teachers in the county and that there is a possibility for the Tri-Township to have a joint class one evening a week.

Rural extension and economics will be featured giving place for both men and women.

For advice on the matter one may call Mrs. Grace Dilley, of St. Joe or Mrs. Stella Goldsmith, of Spencerville. The Newville advisor will be named later.

INDIANA FAVORS CORN-HOG PLAN

Indiana farmers favor continuation of the corn-hog reduction program of the agricultulal adjustment administration by a 11.62 per cent majority, official tabulations of voters from 92 counties showed, the Purdue agricultural division announced. The total votes showed 27,072 favoring continuation of the plan while 16,851 were against, a per centage of 61.62.

In DeKalb county the vote on the 1935 project was 336 to 325 and on the 1936 program it was 360 to 202.

Concord, Spencer and Newville voted on 1935 project, 25 for, 48 against; 1936 project, 23 for, 48 against.

Returns to Chicago

Miss Sake Bartlett, who has made her home here for the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kees has returned to Chicago for the winter, to be with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders
400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH A L L WORK GUARANTEED

Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

Consider Your Winters Fuel
cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

ROBBERS MAKE BIG HAUL AT SPENCERVILLE

Frank Beams suffered a loss Wednesday morning about 2 o'clock, of more than $1,000.00 in hard cash, besides many valuable notes, bonds and some cash belonging to the Beams estate.

Entrance was gained at the Beams Store rear door, sugar bags were placed against the safe door and then blown. A number of citizens heard the explosion but did not think of anything like that.

When Loretta Funk opened her store Wednesday morning, she discovered that her store had been ransacked of cigarettes, outings, muslin, toweling, prints, butter and meat, the cash drawer was relieved of $2 in change and a purse containing some change.

John Hoff was called but he was unable to locate finger prints, due to the skill of the robbers in covering up.

The Walter elevator was broken into but nothing is reported missing.

Mr. Beams reported that he had his telephone collections in the safe for three months period, and that he had not balanced his books yet with his cash.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

The nieces and sister-in-laws of Aunt Susan Sechler gave a party at her home in honor of her 78th birthday, Wednesday.

Aunt Susan, who is at present making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dilley, celebrates her birthday the 13th of November, but thinking it would be most enjoyable to hold it at her own home, are taking advantage of the wonderful weather ad celebrating a little ahead of time.

A Niece.

Miss Sechler has lived here a number of years and everyone is her friend, proving that her life has been a real satisfaction to all who know her. She, in her declining years, has not relinquished her interest in her church affairs, as is so often the case, but she is more and moae interested in its success. May she live many more years.

THE PRINCIPALS O F GREATNESS

A s nations g o, the United States is a very young country. Where we have 150 years of history behind us, other powers have thousands.

Yet no nation can point to a more inspiring past—or to a history which has given finer traditions. America sprang full-fledged from the hearts and minds of that handful of patriots who dedicated their lives to freeing us from foreign monarchic domination, and to establishment of a Republic which should have as its guiding principles, freedom, equality, the right to own property and the right to happiness.

There is a growing danger that, in seeking to conquer the perplexities of the moment—"casual embarrassment" in the life of a nation, to use the great Jefferson's words—we shall lose or weaken some of those traditions which our forefathers bought for us with blood and toil and self-sacrifice. If we solve temporary troubles at the expense of permanent blessings, the victory will be hard won indeed. If we tamper with our ideal of freedom, the United States will have little to look forward to in the future.

Every American should resolve, with the deepest sincerity, to do all he can to cherish, to protect, and to continue those principles o f freedom—freedom o f press, or thought, of religion; freedom to do what we will so long as others are not injured by our actions— which have made our country the greatest of all great nations. In all the welter of experiment and criticism that envelopes the entire world, no one has been able to offer a plan of government that gives the ordinary man so much as does ours.

Are the Constitution of the United States and the Declaration of Independence— the greatest libertarian documents ever written —to become dead letters, or are they to continue to guide us in the future?

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Patrons who failed to attend the first Parent-Teachers association meeting on Monday evening of this week missed a remarkably good address given by Dr. L. A. Warren of Fort Wayne. We wish that a larger number of the parents would take membership in the P. T. A.

There will be no school on Thursday and Friday of this week. All local teachers will be in attendance at the Northeastern Indiana Teachers Association which convenes in Fort Wayne on those days. We trust that these two days will be profitably used on the farm by certain of our older boys and that there will be fewer days of absence in the future for work.

The seventh and ninth grades are planning class parties for the near future.

First Home Basketball Games

Our boys basketball teams will open the 1934-1935 season on the home floor with games with the Leo H. S. teams on Friday evening, October 26th. The athletic council has decided to make the admission fee to games this year ten and fifteen cents. Pupils above the sixth grade and adults will pay the fifteen cents. Pupils below the seventh grade will pay ten cents. There will be new faces on the local teams this year but we are anticipating strong, hard fighting lads. One advantage the teams of this year have over those of last year will be height. Come out and help us start the season with victories over Leo H. S.

Eight girls from the local high school will sing in the DeKalb County H. S Chorus which appears on the Thursday morning program of the Northeastern Indiana Teachers Association.

Kathryn Young, who has been ill with typhoid fever has withdrawn from the local school. When her health is better her parents expect to remove to another community.

Clayton Baker, Vivian Richmond and Joyce Fusselman have been absent recently because of illness.

Madelyn Wyatt and Louise Sechler were premium winners at the Auburn Fair with English 10 themes.

REPORT OF THE RED CROSS & E. R. A. PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING SERVICE IN THE COUNTY FOR JULY, AUGUST, SEPTEMBER

During the months of July and August 176 home visits were made to Pre-school children from 5 to 6 years of age. 135 of these children were examined by our County physicians at our Health Conference in June. Many of the defects discovered were serious and needed immediate attention to fit the child for entrance to school.

Other home calls were as follows—Infants 12, pre-natal 6, maternity 1, tuberculosis sufferers 20, school children 20, well babies 6. A sputum cup was purchased for a young mother suffering from tuberculosis.

A blind man, who thought he could see at times, was taken to Ann Arbor University Hospital for examination, and a deaf mute child sent to a school for the deaf.

At the Teacher's Institute, the responsibility of the Teacher and Mother in the control of communicable diseases was discussed, and Mrs. Buckley, our Red Cross County Chairman, talked on the value of Junior Red Cross work.

To check the spread of infections and cotagion, all the schools in the county were visited during the first few weeks of school, and over 2,000 letters on the control of diseases were sent to the parents of pupils. 2,170 pupils were inspected. Twenty-nine had a skin infection, 22 had lice or nits in head and 11 whooping cases were visited in their homes.

Ninety-one pupils with visual defects were fitted with glasses and 462 dental defects corrected during the summer months.

Administrative work included the following items:

Meetings attended, 4, form letters distributed 3,600, cards mailed 2, individual letters written 37, calls and office interviews 277, interviews for or with patients 46, publicity items in papers 18.

Catherine E. Eoll,
Red Cross DeKalb County,
Public Health Nurse.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mr. and Mrs. John Bronus were over Tuesday guests in the Stanley Hallabaugh home.

O. E. Ginther and family were Sunday afternoon callers at the H. B. Lewis farm near Stroh, known as Hampshire hog breeders.

Lawrence Pflaumer and wife, of New Carlisle, Ohio, and Ernest Pflaumer, of Peru, Ind., were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pflaumer, Sunday.

Congressman J. I. Farley, of ing on voters endeavoring to ing on voters endeavoring to strengthen weak places in his political fence.

POLITICAL COERCION AT SOLDIERS HOME

Columbia City, Oct. 15.—"Political coercion of the rankest sort was attributed to the McNutt-appointed officials of the Indiana State Soldiers and Sailors Home in an address here tonight by Senator Arthur R. Robinson.

Ralph Gates, fourth district republican chairman, made a brief address preceding Senator Robinson.

"A few days ago, Lynn Parkinson, the republican chairman of Tippecanoe county and a registration clerk went out to the Indiana State Soldiers and Sailors Home for the purpose of registering inmates who were not yet eligible to vote.

"The chairman, the registration clerk, Glen Starke, and others went out at the request of a number of the aged inmates who declared they would be unable to get into designated place for registration.

"Imagine their astonishment when they were told that they would have to see 'headquarters.' 'Headquarters' was called and the Home adjutant, John W. Metzger, came to the widows' home where registration officials were. The adjutant told the registration cierk and his deputies that he, (the adjutant) had instructions from the Home commandant, Col. John H. Gilpin, not to permit Starke or any of his deputies into the home without the commandant's permission.

"The adjutant then called the sheriff who ordered the registration party away from the home.

"The county chairman informs me that he can furnish affidavits showing that the commandant threatened to dismiss the inmates from the home if they did not cease their political activities.

"The officers of the home are McNutt appointed and of course McNutt controlled. They have engineered political coercion of the rankest sort. The right to vote is one of the most elemental and sacred which an American citizen has. No McNutt appointee or anyone else has the right to deny citizens that right. The offiense of the McNutt appointees in the home is more grave when it is perpetrated on aged people who are practically helpless to assert their rights.

"Under McNutt regime we may expect much more such examples of coercion. McNuttism in Indiana should be stamped out and can only be eradicated by giving a rebuke to the McNutt policies by voting against his hand-picked ticket.

DEKALB FARMERS GET CORN-HOG CHECKS

On Tuesday, October 16th, payment started for DeKalb county farmers who signed corn-hog contracts. The corn-hog committee, with headquarters in the court house i n Auburn, designated Tuesday for the distribution of checks to signers in Fairfield, Spencer and part of Smithfield townships. On Wednesday those from part of Wilmington, all of Stafford, Keyser, Jackson, Concord, Newville and Butler townships and on Thursday signers from Troy, Richland, Grant, Union and part of Wilmington will be paid. Checks have not yet arrived for signers in part of Smithfield and Franklin townships but these will be here in a short time and signers will be notified.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

DuWayne Kinsey and wife were home from Indianapolis, Saturday and Sunday. DuWayne is getting along fine with his work.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

An Indian stone pedestal for grain grinding was unearthed by Ben Soule in Franklin township a few days ago when working on a road. The stone was about 4 feet under earth and is an exceptional true type. The stone has a real value.

Leighty Orchard
ST. JOE, INDIANA

Our farm sales began Monday, Oct. 15th. The present outlook is for a small apple crop east of the Rocky Mountains, which will mean high prices before spring. You had better put in your winter apples now.

If youp have no good place to keep them it will pay you to can for winter use.

If you have an order with us you will be notified when to come for them.

CIDER VINEGAR HONEY
NO SALES ON SUNDAY

REPUBLICAN RALLY

Community Gymnasium
ST. JOE
Friday Eve., Oct. 19
8:00 P. M.

DAVID HOGG
Candidate for CONGRESS
--AND--
JUDGE GEORGE LEONARD
of Fort Wayne
will discuss the issues of the campaign

The Public is Invited

OCTOBER

L 919

388

Maple Long Preferred by Furniture Craftsmen

"Through the centuries furniture craftsmen have appreciated maple and their loving hands have wrought such miracles of beautiful maple furniture that their historic consequence dwells with us today in our homes, where they enjoy enduring welcome," says the Educational Institute of the Furniture World.

"Particularly in the original American colonies, settled by our Pilgrim and Puritan forefathers, was this wood specially favored. Here in this humble beginning maple played a large part in the origin of the great colonial period in furniture design. During the Seventeenth century the Swedish influence in maple furniture design began to make itself felt.

"With crude tools, but great genius, skillful hands carved out of maple great furniture masterpieces that are today priceless treasures. Their splendid rugged character, fine and simple design, serve to emphasize the cheerful warmth of this historic wood.

"Present day designers hold maple in high reverence and respect the traditions of its background. And factories, too, busily engaged in the mass reproduction of maple furniture pieces, are faithful to the centuries-old legend of maple."

Matrimonial Tragedy

Briggs—Poor old Horrocks has had two unhappy marriages.

Gregory—That's pretty tough.

Briggs—Yes, his first wife left him, and his second wife hasn't.—Gazette (Montreal).

If You Eat Starches Meats, Sweets Read This

They're All Necessary Foods — But All Acid - Forming. Hence Most of Us Have "Acid Stomach" At Times. Easy Now to Relieve.

Doctors say that much of the so-called "indigestion," from which so many of us suffer, is really acid indigestion . . . brought about by too many acid-forming foods in our modern diet. And that there is now a way to relieve this . . . often in minutes!

Simply take Phillips' Milk of Magnesia after meals. Almost immediately this acts to neutralize the stomach acidity that brings on your trouble. You "forget you have a stomach!"

Try this just once! Take either the familiar liquid "PHILLIPS" or, now the convenient new Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets. But be sure you get Genuine "PHILLIPS".

Also in Tablet Form:

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at all drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Collegiate Glory

"Are you in favor of coeducation?"

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne. "But I don't think it is to be hoped that girls will ever learn to play football as well as boys."

Clean PLUGS FOR MORE POWER

Have Your Spark Plugs Cleaned BY THE NEW AC METHOD

only 5c a plug

Look for the "Plug-In-the-Tub"

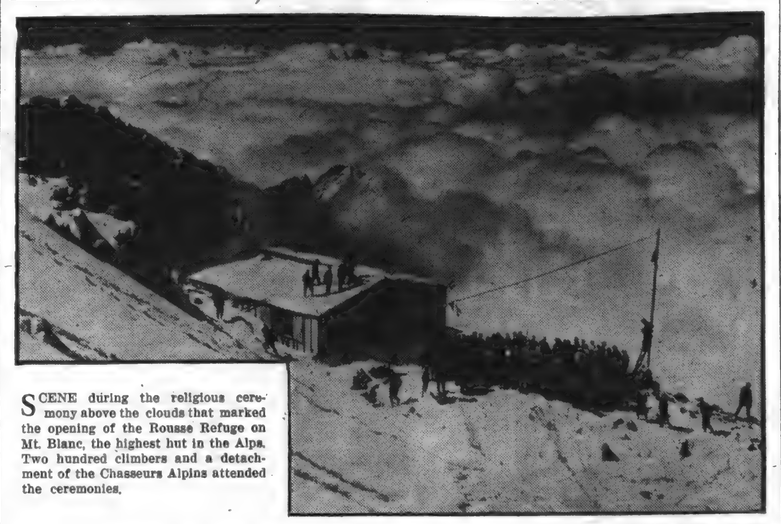
Dirty and Oxide-Coated spark plugs mis-fire intermittently—robbing your car of power. A thorough plug cleaning will restore that power—save gas, and assure quick starting. You will find the AC Spark Plug Cleaner at all better dealers, garages, and service stations. Replace badly worn plugs, of course, with new ACs.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM

Restores Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling. Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair. 60c and $1.00 at Druggists. Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO — Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N. Y.

Opening of the Highest Hut in the Alps



SCENE during the religious ceremony above the clouds that marked the opening of the Rousse Refuge on Mt. Blanc, the highest hut in the Alps. Two hundred climbers and a detachment of the Chasseurs Alpins attended the ceremonies.

BEDTIME STORY FOR CHILDREN

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

A GREAT COMMOTION

A GREAT commotion had broken out in the Old Orchard. Instantly Skimmer the Swallow flew over to see what it was all about and Peter Rabbit followed, lipperty lipperty-lip, as fast as his legs could take him. He was just in time to see Chatterer the Red Squirrel dodging around the trunk of a tree, first on one side, then on the other, to avoid the sharp bills of the angry feathered folk who had discovered him trying to rob a nest of its young.

It Was Their Nest.

Peter chuckled. "Chatterer is getting just what is due him," he muttered. "It reminds me of a time I got into a Yellow Jacket's nest. My, but those birds are mad!"

Chatterer continued to dodge from side to side of the tree while the birds darted down at him, all screaming at the top of their voices. Finally Chatterer saw his chance to run for the old stone wall. Only one bird was quick enough to catch up with him, and that one was such a tiny fellow that he seemed hardly bigger than a big insect. It was Hummer, the Hummingbird.

Hummer followed Chatterer clear to the old stone wall. A moment later Peter heard a humming noise just over his head and looked up to see Hummer alight on a twig, where he squeaked excitedly for a few minutes, for his voice is nothing but a little squeak. Often Peter had seen Hummer darting from flower to flower and holding himself still in mid air as he thrust his long bill into the heart of a flower to get the tiny insects there and the sweet juices he is so fond of. But this was the first time Peter had ever seen him sitting still. He was such a mite of a thing that it was hard to realize he was a bird. His back was a bright shining green. His wings and tail were brownish with a purplish tinge. Underneath he was whitish. But it was his throat on which Peter fixed his eyes. It was a wonderful ruby red which glistened and shone in the sun like a jewel.

Hummer lifted one wing and with his long needle-like bill smoothed the feathers under it. Then he darted out into the air, his wings moving so fast that Peter couldn't see them at all. But if he couldn't see them he could hear them. You see, they moved so fast that they made a sound very like the humming of Bumble the Bee. It is because of this that he is called the Hummingbird.

In a few minutes he was back again and almost at once was joined by Mrs. Hummer. She was dressed very much like him but did not have the beautiful ruby throat. She stopped only a minute or two and then darted over to what looked for all the world like a tiny cup of moss. It was their nest.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Fresh From Paris

This hat designed by Jane Blanchot of Paris is of green taupe, trimmed with a steel chain and wooden buckles.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I just received a letter from my nephew, who lives in England. He writes me that his wife is suffering with "water on the brain." Can you tell me what that means?

Sincerely,
U. TELMEE.

Answer: When a woman has "water on the brain" it simply means she has a notion (an ocean) in her head.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I live in a boarding house. I pay $20 a week but the food they serve is not fit for a pig to eat. What shall I do?

Truly yours,
I. BETTY KNOWS.

Answer: If the food is really not fit for a pig, just sleep there and get your meals some other place.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

My birthday was January 4. My girl sent me a pair of gloves for a present but they are too large for me. What shall I do?

Truly yours,
A. B. SEEDEE.

Answer: Just pour about a half ounce of Scotch whisky on them. If it's the kind of Scotch they're selling now, a half ounce will make them tight.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

My wife returns home next Saturday from the hospital bringing with her our triplets just five weeks old. I am surprising my wife, as I have just had a nursery fitted out for our new babies. It is a beautiful room and I would like to have a suitable name painted on the door instead of "Nursery." What do you suggest?

Yours truly,
POP. PAH.

Answer: Three babies, five weeks old, in one room? If I were you I would call it the "Bawl-room."

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I got a job last Monday in a department store in the shoe department. At the end of the first week I was discharged. Can you tell me why? I swear to you I didn't do anything.

Sincerely,
I. STAUL.

Answer: That's why you were discharged.

Dear Mr: Wynn:

I just moved into a new neighborhood. This morning I passed one of my new neighbors and bowed to her, but she did not return the bow. What would you do in a case like that?

Yours truly,
SHEEZA KATT.

Answer: That should be a warning to you. She may be the kind of a neighbor who never returns anything.

© the Associated Newspapers WNU Service.

Do YOU Know—

That the first regular baseball game was played at Hoboken, N. J., June 19, 1846, between the Knickerbocker club of New York and the New York club (a picked team). Only four innings were played, as under the rules then existing, a game was won when either team made 21 aces (runs) or over on even innings.

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate WNU Service.

FOR A GOLD STAR MOTHER

By ANNE CAMPBELL

THE first point of the star is Memory. . . .
The recollection of his baby ways.
Upon the road to yesterday we see
The shining candor of his infant gaze;
The touch of velvet cheek, the clinging hands,
The cunning accent making sweet demands.

Service to him, the next point of the star . . .
The days and nights were busy in his care.
There is no rest where little babies are
For mothers who are happiest to share
The beating of their hearts with their small sons.
They concentrate their lives on these dear ones.

Love is the third point of the star of gold.
In blest affection, all the stars converge.
Only a mother knows how hearts can hold
So much of love; it is her life's chief urge.
Her love will follow him across the world,
And past the gates where his lone flag is furled.

The fourth point of the star is sorrow . . . See!
The star is failing. . . . Shadowed is its light.
Only a mother's faith holds valiantly
Against the coming of the final night.
Now hurtling into space the gold star goes,
Its cargo all the heartbreak mother knows.

Only the fifth point keeps the star from wheeling
Forever lost in midnight's empty space;
But still upon the sky a faint light stealing
Shows it upheld within its lawful place.
Serene upon the heavens see it ride,
A gold star swinging by its fifth point—PRIDE!

Copyright.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

SEASONABLE DISHES

THE bride of today with all her equipment in culinary knowledge has no fear of failures in cookery. Up-to-date cook books with clear directions for preparing even the simple foods gives assurance to the most inexperienced.

Here is one which any bride will like to try:

Fancy Biscuit.

Take two cups of flour, four teaspoons of baking powder, one-half teaspoon of salt, one tablespoon of sugar, two tablespoons of shortening, one egg and two-thirds of a cup of milk, one-third cup of sliced dates, four tablespoons of peanut butter and one egg yolk. Sift the dry ingredients, work in the shortening with a fork until well blended, add milk and well beaten egg to form a soft dough. Roll out on a floured board and cut small rounds. Spread one with peanut butter, place one or two slices of dates and cover with another round. Press the edges together to enclose the butter and dates. Brush with egg diluted with a little milk or water and bake in a hot oven. If preferred cut the round larger and put the butter and date on one-half and fold over, pinching the edges together.

Mocha Frosting.

Take one-fourth cup of butter, one tablespoon of cocoa, two cups of confectioner's sugar and three to four tablespoons of strong coffee infusion. Cream the butter, add the cocoa. Stir in the sugar and coffee gradually. Beat until smooth and spread on the cake.

Coffee Ice Cream.

Scald one and one-half cups of milk with one-third of a cupful of finely ground coffee, strain through a double cheese cloth, add one cup of sugar, the beaten yolks of four eggs, one-fourth teaspoon of salt; cook over water until thick, adding one-fourth cupful of sugar and one cupful of cream; cool, add three more cups of cream and freeze. Serve garnished with maraschino cherries.

© Western Newspaper Union.

A Preserved Cathedral

The cathedral at York, England, has fared well in the preservation of its old glass. Every window in the nave and aisles, except four, retains its ancient glazing, the earliest in point of date being that of the Twelfth century.

WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says what you think might be a family quarrel may be just the neighbors playing a game of bridge.

WNU Service.

Quintuplets Now Have a Hospital

GENERAL view during the dedication of the Dafoe hospital at Callander, Ont., where the Dionne quintuplets are now cared for by three nurses under the charge of Dr. A. R. Dafoe, the attending physician at their birth.

Crocheted Rugs in Quilt Designs

By GRANDMOTHER CLARK

During the past years patchwork quilts have been the big article of interest to the home needleworker and now we have the crocheted rug in quilt designs. The beauty of these rugs can only be appreciated after you have seen one of them. Crocheted rugs have the best wearing properties.

The rug above illustrated is the "Flower Garden" rug, which you will recognize as having received its name from the "Flower Garden" quilt. Size of rug is 30 inches and made from 2 lbs. of rag strips. Each block is made separately and when the seven are finished they are slip stitched together. The colors to be used depends upon the material you may have on hand or can dye to colors desired. Use contrasting colors for the different rows and the brighter the colors the more sunshine the rug brings to the home.

Our book No. 24 on crocheted rag rugs in quilt designs contains 20 rugs shown in colors with instructions. Write our rug Dept. and send 15c for this book. Address Home Craft Co., Dept. C, 19th & St. Louis Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Milan Cathedral Is Modeled

Reproduced in detail, even to the more than 100 towers, a medal of the cathedral at Milan, Italy, has been built by a Belgian mechanic. Made of three-ply wood, the miniature cathedral contains more than 150 windows and 300 statues.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Why the Sudden Change to Liquid Laxatives?

Doctors have always recognized the value of the laxative whose dose can be measured, and whose action can be thus regulated to suit individual need.

The public, too, is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that a properly prepared liquid laxative brings a more natural movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. It forms no habit; you need not take a "double dose" a day or two later. Nor will a mild liquid laxative irritate the kidneys.

The wrong cathartic may often do more harm than good.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescription, and is perfectly safe. Its laxative action is based on senna —a natural laxative. The bowels will not become dependent on this form of help. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is obtainable at all druggists.

Split Duet

Neighbor—"Where's your brother, Freddie?" Freddie—"Aw, he's in the house playing a duet. I finished my part first."—Pathfinder

CREOMULSION

Your own druggist is authorized to cheerfully refund your money on the spot if you are not relieved by Creomulsion.

COUGHS

CUTICURA

Works Wonders in the Care of Your Hair

Before shampooing, anoint the scalp with Cuticura Ointment, then massage. Wash with a warm suds of Cuticura Soap. Rinse and wash again, then rinse thoroughly. This will keep your scalp in a healthy condition which is essential to good hair.

Ointment 25c and 50c. Soap 25c.

Proprietors: Potter Drug & Chemical Corporation, Malden, Mass.

For Hi-Class Photography mail films to us. 8 hi-gloss lifetime paints and two 5x7 enlargements 25c (coin). Also special colored enlargement offer. Prompt service. STAR PHOTO SHOP, LA CROSSE, WIS.

SORES LIKE LEGS, VARICOSE Write For Free Illustrated Booklet

OCTOBER

L 919

U 389

Scraps of Humor

ANY WIFE

"How old is your husband?"

"There are times when he is just a big baby, times when he is a man in his prime, and when I want to drag him out in the evening and he doesn't feel like going, he is an octogenarian all crippled up with rheumatism."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Hard to Fill

Aunt 'Liza's mistress was talking to her one morning when suddenly she discovered a little pickaninny standing shyly behind his mother's skirts. "Is this your little boy, Aunt 'Liza?" she asked.

"Yes, miss, dat's Prescription."

"Goodness, what a funny name, auntie, for a child! How in the world did you happen to call him that?"

"Ah simply calls him dat becus ah has sech hahd wuk getting him filled."

Grief for Him

"Hasn't this been a grand winter!" exclaimed the cheerful one.

"Grand me eye!" snarled the gloomy one.

"How do you get that way?" demanded the cheerful one.

"My business is selling skid chains and anti-freeze stuff for radiators," he growled.—Cincinntai Enquirer.

INTERESTING

"You seem absorbed."

"Yes. I am watching that professor over there; he has just eaten his favor and is now trying to put his refreshments through his buttonhole."

She Now Says "Introduce"

"Mr. Smith, let me present Miss Jones," said the hostess.

"Thanks," he smiled, "she looks like a gift any man would be proud to receive, but I'm afraid my wife would object to my taking her home."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Machinery

"What do you intend to do about the political machine?"

"I meant to use it to make hay while the sun shines," answered Senator Sorghum. "Only I'm afraid some of the boys out home have taken a fancy to the idea of a vacuum cleaner instead of a lawn mower."

Just Reporting

"Yes, dear," she said to her friend over tea. "My husband, I assure you, is the only man who has ever kissed me."

"Really, darling? Er—but tell me, are you bragging or complaining?"—Register (Des Moines).

Voice of Safety

"Why don't you write your reminiscenses?"

"I don't dare," answered Senator Sorghum. "Such an attempt would bring me into immediate conflict with too many men who are trying to forget the past."

"Moider" in His Eye

"You don't seem to have a thought for anything but driving a car. Why don't you put your wife before your car sometimes?"

"I'm scared of being found out."—Border Cities Star.

Extensive Repairs

Mrs. Lafferty—Ten stitches did the doctor have to put in me old man after the fight last night.

Mrs. O'Hara—Ten? Was that all? Shure, when the doctor seen me poor husband carried in this morning he says: "Has any wan got a sewing machine?"—Boston Transcript.

Ouch!

Tommy—There's a girl at our school, mamma, whom they call "Postscript." Do you know why?

Mamma—No, dear.

Tommy—Because her name is Adeline Moore.—Clipped.

A Hint

Manager—Pat, you wear a very old-fashioned coat in the office.

Clerk—Yes, sir, it is a bit out of date. I bought it the last time you gave me a rise.—From Ireland's Own.

Little Girl Allure

PATTERN 9086

This little frock is so cute it would add to the charm of a Shirley Temple—nothing more could be said for a frock! It is the essence of little-girl allure with its dropped-shoulder yoke, its cunning little collar and big buttons running down to that devastating point. The sleeves are short and puffy—exactly as they should be, and the box pleats are there so that its wearer can run fast as well as look pretty. It has well-fitting bloomers, as do all right-minded frocks for little girls in this year of grace!

Pattern 9086 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 4 requires 2⅛ yards 36-inch fabric and ¼ yard contrasting.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West 18th Street, New York, N. Y.

COMFORTING THOUGHT

Barber—Hair getting thin, sir. Obese Party — Thank goodness! That anti-fat is beginning to work.

In a Tough Spot

The taxi came to a halt. The fare descended a trifle uncertainly and proceeded to search his pockets slowly.

"Sorry, old man," he said, finally, "but I haven't a bean!"

Seeing that the driver was not taking it too well, he added:

"That's the position, old man, and you know you can't get blood out of a stone."

"No," agreed the driver, rolling up his sleeves, "but what makes you think you're a stone?"—Province (Vancouver).

Spectacular

"I suppose you regard all your display of eloquence as beneficial to the cause?"

"Well," answered Senator Sorghum, "to be candid, that eloquence isn't so much for the cause as for the effect."

Wrathful

"Was your dad mad when he bit into that piece of April fool candy with soap in it?"

"Was he mad! He was foaming at the mouth!"

It Made Her Anxious

Richleigh—I'm getting a new siren for my car.

Tall Beauty—Oh, Alfie! Does that mean all is over between us?—Bystander.

Velvet Goes Everywhere This Fall

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

YOU are going stepping along boulevard and avenue in crisp golden sunlit autumn days? A round of calls to make about town? Perhaps afternoon tea with friends at the club? Wear tailored velvet.

You have a swanky new plaid woolen daytime dress? Top it with a swagger coat and matching beret of velvet in black or a gorgeous hue.

You have a modish suit or ensemble of the loose woven nubby tweed the likes of which everybody is wanting this season? Give it a final touch of distinction with accessories of rich colored velvet—bag, belt, scarf and an Alpine hat in forest or pine green or the popular rust color.

You have accepted an invitation to dine and dance tonight? Wear regal velvet with stunning jewelry or glittering metal accents. You simply must own one of the scintillating silver mesh bag and triangle scarf sets such as the lovely young girl in the foreground of the illustration is so proudly wearing with her handsome velvet gown.

Of course the fall and winter wardrobe of the properly velvet-minded will include at least one de luxe velvet coat or evening wrap. The new three-quarter loose-from-the-shoulder coats of white velvet either self-scarfed or trimmed with brown fur are the latest.

Nor does the glory of velvet depart when the lights are out, for even when the woman of fashion retires she is supposed to dream sweet dreams in velvet. When we explain that the velvet which makes these perfectly lovely nightrobes is of the kind that actually washes as easily and as satisfactorily as your favorite muslins, batistes and nainsooks, velvet for "nighties" becomes a practical as well as a fascinating theme.

As to the models illustrated, the spotlight is being thrown on just such practical about-town tailored velvet suits as the one pictured to the left in the picture. It is of black transparent velvet and has the new narrow straight skirt. The jacket could not be simpler and neater if it tried. The velvet-covered buttons are tres chic. A white and silver blouse with scarf collar is worn with this tailleur. The velvet hat is a modish tricorne. Two rhinestone clips hold the face veil in place.

Centered above in this quartette of velvet fashions is a dinner suit. Velvet ensembles of this type are extremely roguish for semi-formal occasion. They carry that luxury look which is so indicative of dress-up modes this season. Observe, the skirt is floor length, which at once distinguishes it from the practical daytime velvet suit. The blouse top is of gold-striped velvet. It is new this fall to wear a formal hat with this type of costume. Chenille-dotted net and velvet fashions this stylish toque with its cunning veil.

The young woman wearing the four-strand pearl necklace with matching bracelet understands the art of dressing for she demonstrates that nothing so sets handsome jewelry off to perfection as black velvet fashioned as simply as possible. It has a high cowl neck in front, cut very low at the back. With this gown, to give it variation, comes a pair of long detachable white lace sleeves. Real jade and carnelian plaques clasp both necklace and bracelet.

Big corded balloon sleeves and a high neck slit down the back are the distinguishing features of the gown worn by the fortunate young woman possessing the silver-mesh bag and scarf.

© Western Newspaper Union.

SCARFS ARE BRAZEN WITH BRIGHT COLORS

Scarfs for winter are gay, almost brazen, with plaids and stripes in strong colors. Colors preferred are bright red, rust, wine, all varieties of green and some navy. Black and white still is popular. Materials include sheer woolens, cashmere, novelty materials, spun silk, velvet, rough heavy crepe and taffeta.

Shapes include the square and triangle, the ascot and a new favorite called the jockey, which is narrow and long enough to twist around the neck several times.

Dainty pastels in woolens, such as pale yellows and orange, are offered for tweed suits.

Small Checks and Large Make Costume Different

Those indispensable three-piece suits for sports or for spectatoring are frequently in checks this season. But the current mode being what it is in the way of a yen for something different, the checks are sometimes dissimilar in the same suit. One variation is wrought by the use of small checks in the jacket and skirt, and large checks of the same color and pattern in the long topcoat.

Tailored Suits Are Being Projected for Fall Wear

A stunning new tailored suit model is in a rich green gabardine. The double-breasted jacket has two large patch pockets which feature inverted pleats. A bi-swing back with a stitched down belt is an interesting fashion note. A white linen mannish blouse is worn with the suit. Brown accessories and a silver fox scarf add a note of distinctive chic to the costume.

Smart Parisians Now Are Going About Bareheaded

Parisians, the smartly-dressed feminine ones, are going about bareheaded, according to stylist Marjorie Howard, who recently returned from France.

If no hat at all is too much of a fashion leap to take at once, the next best thing, says Miss Howard, is a hat with a high crown.

"The things that are definitely out, finished, are flowers and the shallow hat. We shall see no more of either for a bit," she declared.

American buyers grabbed all the high-crowned hats they could get their hands on at the recent Paris midsummer openings in a reaction against the "potato chip" kind of headgear that's been worn all summer, she says.

In a season that is not lacking in the spectacular in clothes the split skirt is the most spectacular fashion of all.

"Day dresses are so close-fitting they need the slits. Evening dresses are slit to the knee or even above," said Miss Howard.

Fullness at Back Shown in Many Interpretations

Evening frocks with gathered fullness at the back of skirts show a stronger appreciation of the Augustabernard "bustle back" silhouette launched last season. At that time it registered as one of the most radical departures in silhouettes, partly because it introduced such massed fullness of the back. Up to that moment the skirts with excessively fitted hips were in command; another reason for its arousing interest was that it introduced a new movement in the use of gathered fullness of fabric worked on the straight, while all current effort has been concentrated on fullness through bias cuts.

Stamps Show Public Parks

Post Office Department Is Picturing the Beauties to Be Found in the National Playgrounds.

Washington.—Scenes from two more of the nation's playgrounds found places on United States postage stamps in September when the Post Office department released the four and eight-cent issues of its national park series. On September 18, the eight-cent Zion park (Utah) stamp joined its fellows already released for their twofold purpose of carrying mail and proclaiming the beauties of America's out-of-doors. The gray-green stamp had in its center a reproduction of "The Great White Throne"—towering templelike rock formation found in the park.

A week later, a four-cent sticker of autumn brown color, representing Mesa Verde National park of Colorado, took its place in the upper right-hand corner of part of the nation's mail. On its face stands, in a central design, the camera's story of "Cliff Palace," an awesome ruin of the now vanished cliff dwellers.

Yellowstone Best Known National Park.

"If your knowledge of geography is good," says a bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographical society, "you probably will know, in which states eight of the ten parks are located; but only if your knowledge is much better than average will you be able correctly to place them all.

"Yellowstone has been familiar to Americans since it became the country's first national park in 1872. Yet every year thousands of visitors turn homeward from its gates unaware that its area includes parts of Montana and Idaho as well as Wyoming.

"Inquiries as to the situations of the Grand canyon (Arizona), Mount Rainier (Washington) and Yosemite (California) can be answered by most persons with even a casual knowledge of the geography of America; but neither the embryo 427-000-acre Great Smoky Mountains National park of Tennessee and North Carolina, nor Glacier National park in Montana are so well known.

"Between the longitudes of Acadia National park along the rocky coast of Maine, and Crater Lake National park in southwestern Oregon, lie not only the parks that have been selected for the stamp series, but ten others, twenty in all within the continental borders of the United States. Two more, the Hawaii National park and Mount McKinley National park of Alaska, complete the list.

"Postage stamp geography was not born with the issue of this series. The Colosseum of Rome is depicted on an Italian stamp; a picture of the Arc de Triomphe is the central feature of a French issue; and several nations have placed miniature maps on the faces of their stamps.

"In 1900, Nicaragua pictured her famous volcanic peak, Mount Momotombo, on a postage stamp. Some commentators on the history of engineering efforts to construct a canal between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, assert that the Momotombo stamp, calling attention to the presence of volcanoes in Nicaragua, turned the scales in favor of the Panama route."

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

Powdered Saxolite

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

NOW! GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN AT DRASTICALLY REDUCED PRICES!

Big Price Cut on Bayer Aspirin!

POCKET TINS OF 12 NOW 15c

PAY NO MORE

NOW—Pay Less and Get Real BAYER Aspirin!

So as to put the reliability and quick action of Genuine Bayer Aspirin within the reach of everyone, the price you pay has been drastically cut. Cut so low that nobody need ever again accept an unknown preparation in place of real BAYER Aspirin.

15c Now For 12
25c Now For 24

For instance, the pocket tins of 12 real Bayer Tablets have been cut to 15c.

The popular 24 tablet bottles have been cut to 25c.

And the big, family size, 100 tablet bottles have again been reduced.

So—Always Say "Bayer" When You Buy

These new low prices make it a folly to accept unknown brands in order to save a few cents.

So—never ask for Bayer Aspirin by the name "aspirin" alone when you buy, but always say B-A-Y-E-R ASPIRIN and see that you get it.

ALWAYS SAY "BAYER ASPIRIN" NOW WHEN YOU BUY

NATURALLY SKINNY FOLKS

Add 5 lbs in 1 Week ...or No Cost...!

New Natural Mineral Concentrate From the Sea—RICH IN FOOD IODINE Building Up Thousands of Nervous, Skinny, Rundown Folks Where All Else Fails.

There is hope now for "Naturally Skinny" folks who can't seem to add an ounce no matter what they eat. A new way has been found to add fattening pounds of good, solid flesh and fill out those ugly, scrawny hollows even on men and women who have been underweight for years. 5 lbs. in 1 week guaranteed—15 to 20 lbs. in a few weeks not uncommon.

This new discovery, called Kelp-a-Malt, now available in handy tablets, offers practically all the vitally essential food minerals in highly concentrated form. These minerals, so necessary to the digestion of fats and starches—the weight making elements in your daily diet—include a rich supply of precious FOOD IODINE.

Kelp-a-Malt's FOOD IODINE nourishes the internal glands which control assimilation, the process of converting digested food into firm, solid flesh. 6 Kelp-a-Malt tablets contain more FOOD IODINE than 486 lbs. of spinach, 1600 lbs. of beef, 1389 lbs. of lettuce.

Try Kelp-a-Malt for a single week and notice the difference—how much better you sleep, how your appetite improves, how ordinary stomach distress vanishes. Watch flat chests and skinny limbs fill out and fattening extra pounds appear. Kelp-a-Malt is prescribed and used by physicians. Fine for children, too. Remember the name, Kelp-a-Malt, the original help and malt tablets. Nothing like them, so do not accept imitations. Try Kelp-a-Malt. If you don't gain at least 5 lbs. in 1 week, the trial is free. 100 jumbo size tablets, 4 to 7 times the size of ordinary tablets, cost but little. Sold at all good drug stores. If your dealer has not yet received his supply, send $1 for special introductory size bottle of 60 tablets to the address below.

SPECIAL FREE OFFER

Write today for fascinating instructive 32-page book on "How to Add Weight Quickly." Mineral Contents of Food and their effects on the human body. New facts about FOOD IODINE. Standard weight and measurement charts. Daily menus for weight building. Absolutely free. No obligation. Kelp-A-Malt Co., Dept C1015, 17-33 W. 20th St., New York City.

KELP-A-MALT Tablets

OCTOBER

L 919

U 390

FOR SALE!

OR TRADE COLUMN

CIDER: 10c and 20c per gallon. 41tf. Widney Orchard.

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

For Sale: Range cook stove. 41t1p. Mrs. J. C. Hull.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

For Sale: Potatoes, Pop corn, (old or new) green mongoes or pimientos, egg plant and lettuce. 41t1p. S. W. Armstrong.

Wanted to rent small farm for Cash—May buy. What have you? Write P. O. Box 152, Angola, Ind. 40t3p.

APPLES, APPLES: A large crop. Depression prices. Widney Orchard, St. Joe. 41tf.

Wanted: Popcorn and potatoes on subscription.

For Sale: Darwin tulip bulbs. 41t1p. Elizabeth Hart.

Wanted: Hard and Soft Maple and ash logs. Hardwood Lumber Co., Butler, Ind. Phone 210L. 39t4p.

Notice: All canned goods must be called for by Oct. 31. St. Joe Custom Canning Kitchen. 41t2.

For Sale: 8-ft.x 14-ft. wagon scales, $30.00. St. Joe Flour Mill, St. Joe, Ind. 41t4.

For Sale: 2 brood sows with 7 pigs each. Cholera immuned. 41t1p. Arthur Knop, Rt. 1

For Sale: An electric range at $50. If interested call News office. 41tf.

Why Under-Privileged?

We hear a lot now about underprivileged and over-privileged people; especially children, and emotional people like to make political talks on the subject but never define just what they mean. Each has his own general idea but they differ in detail.

No doubt Lincoln, Grant and Napoleon would all have been classed as under privileged children as well as Christ and Mohammed. The children of many prominnet families still living who make the front pages of news from divorce and police courts are proably in the over privilaged class.

Success or failure does not come from privilage, over or under, but from the acts of the individual and is entirely within his control. What is given to a person without effort on his part is of very doubtful benefit and usually does more harm than good.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

FUNK

Matilda Haynes Funk, of Spencerville, daughter of Elorio and Malissa Haynes, was born in Henry County, Ohio, June 16, 1866. On October 7, 1895, she became the wife of Alaxander McKinley, who preceded her in death February 22, 1909.

On February 6, 1911 she became the wife of Delmore Funk, who remained her constant companion until her death, October 12, 1934, reaching the age of 68 years, 3 months and 26 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure a bereaved husband, three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Jane Bates, Mrs. Harriet Osborn, both of Hamler, Ohio, Mrs. Rosa Root, of Wauseon, Ohio, and John Haynes, of Auburn. A host of other relatives and friends. In the spring of 1911 she was united with the Cedar Chapel M. E. Church of which she remained a member until death.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from Cedar Chapel M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Fabianske.

Rally at St. Joe

For this section of DeKalb county, chairman Springer makes the announcement today that on Friday evening, Oct. 19, Hon David Hogg and Judge George Leonard, of Fort Wayne, will be at St. Joe at the Gym for a rally. Everybody will be asked to attend regardless of party affiliations. Remember the date.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Oct. 14 was 81.

The Ladies Aid met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Nellie Perry.

Mrs. Mabel Hart, of Hicksville, spent Wednesday with her father, J. S. Shull.

Elizabeth Hart attended Sunday School and church at West Milford, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. U. Bowers, of Garrett, were supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Trostel, Saturday.

Walter Van Coburn was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Fusselman of West Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin Place spent Sunday at Fort Wayne with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Snyder and family.

Mrs. Lizzie Shull returned Sunday to her home at Decatur, after a few weeks visit with relatives and friends.

Miss Virginia Ginther and Mrs. Golden High, also Mr. and Mrs. Garth Shull and children called on M. C. Hart's Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder were host and hostess of the Spencer Township Home Bureau Tuesday evening, it being the annual family night.

Uncle Joe Shull and O. K. Shull and family left Friday for a week end visit with Dan Shull and family. They spent Sunday in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Hart and son, Lawrence, and family and Miss Berniece Sowers, of Hicksville, were supper guests Monday of Mrs. Alice Hart.

The Rural Housewife Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Gladys Hart, it was a beautiful day and all had a fine time. Seventeen members, one guest, Miss Wolf, and three babies were present. The roll call response was what we enjoyed most at the fall festival, the parade seemed to be the main attraction. The club made plans for a fish fry to be held at the home of Mrs. Claud Laub, Oct. 22, when they will entertain their families. The hostess served a dainty lunch of new strawberries, chocolate cake, pickles and coffee.

The Home Builders class of Coburn Corners, taught by Abner Trostel, sure had one fine surprise birthday party Sunday for Elizabeth Hart, when arriving home from West Milford, where she had been invited to attend Bible School, to find 36 guests in her home and the table laden with all good eats for a fine birthday dinner. To say Miss Hart was surprised would be stating it mildly. A lovely purse was presented the honor guest. It was an ideal day and all had a fine time. At evening all returned to their homes wishing Elizabeth many more happy birthdays.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Stage and Miss Craft were Friday night guests of Rev. and Mrs. Fabianske.

Miss Ethelyn Baker, Mrs. Pearl Dean and Mrs. Snyder spent Friday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Adams, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woodring spent Wednesday and Thursday visiting friends at Three Rivers, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brattian and children were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Place in Ft. Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Henderson of Auburn spent Sunday here calling on a number of their old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Timble, of Leo, Ind., were callers in the homes of Joe Spitler and Philip Chaney, recently.

Mrs. Cora Steward is spending the week visiting the Frank and Arthur Steward homes and other relatives at Garrett.

Bert Fisher, Clyde Rectenwall, Ralph Furnish and Roscoe Walter spent the past few days at A Century of Progress.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schulty spent the week end at Marion the guests of Mrs. Harriet Walton, mother of Mrs. Schulty.

The Friendly Bible Class met in the Lutheran basement on Thursday evening. Fifteen members were present. Pot luck supper was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Carson were Thursday evening guests in the Roy Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover McNabb and son, Robert, of Leo, Ind., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb and family.

Paul Bice left last week with the CCC boys and is now located at Camp Knox, Ky., and expects soon to leave for California.

Junior Chaney is the owner of a new trumpet, having joined the orchestra of the Harlan school under the direction of John Fryback.

Methodist Sunday School attendance for Oct. 14 was 65, collection $2.37, special collection, $5.57; Lutheran 59, collection, $2.57.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes and family were Sunday afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Neher and family at Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Princess Rectenwall and son, Warren, and Mrs. Elsie Fisher and children were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sharp of Leo.

Mrs. Jennie Chaney, while cleaning house last Wednesday, had the misfortune to fall and break her left arm also severely injuring her back.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder have moved from the James McKinley property and are now occupying the Bert Davis home. Bert having moved south of town.

Rev. and Mrs. Fabianske, daughter, Mary Carrol, son, John and Mrs. W. A. Sommer, were Saturday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Dilley near St. Joe.

The Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Frances Chapman. The guests were Mrs. Princess Rectenwall and Miss Isabel Chapman.

Mrs. Jane Butler, Mr. Boots, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Bowser and son and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and daughters, of Defiance, Ohio, motored to near Flint, Ind., recently and were guests of Mrs. Pearl Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arnold of near Wallen. It was the 19th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson and the 22nd anniversary of the Arnolds.

The True Blue Class met on Friday evening at the home of LaVern and LaVon Furnish, west of town. Eleven members of the class and their teacher, Mrs. Ethel Bowser, and fourteen guests were present. Ice cream and cake were served.

The C. C. Club was entertained on Thursday afternoon at the pleasant home of Mrs. Ruth Butler. Guests were Mesdames Passions, Venus Mason, and Miss Doris Beams. A contest was won by Mrs. Cora Steward. The club's next meeting will be held Nov. 1.

Mrs. Marjorie Spitler Rezor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spitler and Orla Dwyer, were quietly married last week and left for the World's Fair on their honeymoon. They will be at home upon their return at the country home of Mr. Dwyer, east of town.

The Young Ladies Social Club was pleasantly entertained on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Zelpha Steward. Those winning prizes were Mrs. LeAnna Steward, Miss Gaylon Markle, Mrs. Bernice Wilder and Mrs. Minnie Lantz. Miss Doris Beams was a guest.

The first Parent-Teacher meeting was held last Tuesday night at the High School building with Clyde Hart, president; Mrs. Clyde Rectenwall, vice president, and Miss Ida Reed, secretary-treasurer. It was decided at this time for the mothers of the basket ball teams to sponsor a group of chicken dinners to be given in the F. L. Beams building. The first will be given on Wednesday. All the township will be invited to assist in this work.

NEWVILLE

H. C. Weaner spent Saturday in Butler.

E. E. Traxler and Hugh Traxler spent Monday in Fort Wayne.

The U. B. Aid Society held an all day meeting at the U. B. parsonage Thursday.

Mrs. Lucille Traxler and children spent Saturday and Sunday in Butler with her parents.

The Christian Endeavor Society held da business meeting at the U. B. parsonage Friday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. Blackburn, of Butler, were Thursday evening guests of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore.

Rev. C. W. Moore, of this place and Rev. Price, of Butler, went to Logansport, Oct. 16, to attend an Evangelistic Retreat.

The Young People's class of the U B. Sunday School will be entertained Friday evening, Oct. 19, at the home of John Giant.

Men from here employed at the Leighty Orchard, were laid off this week, to allow the apples to mature more fully, and color better.

The Aid Society of the Christian Church will have their annual Fish Supper, at the Newville Christian Church Friday evening, Oct. 19. Come.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Eugene Carper was a week end guest of his daughter, Mrs. Foster Gee, and family.

John Dilley is expected home today from Terre Haute for the week end.

Foster Gee's have remodeled their kitchen making it much more convenient.

Rev. William Koehnlein made an address before the high school at Harlan Wednesday afternoon.

Silas Reasoner, of Auburn, was in town Tuesday on business, and looking after his farm interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Peters, of Jackson township, were afternoon callers in the Rolla Wiers home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dorsey and daughter, Jane, called at the home of Ben Dorsey near Hicksville, Sunday.

Earl Kinsey went to Indianapolis Wednesday evening following school to spend the week-end with DuWayne Kinsey and wife.

January 11 is the date set for the Tri-Township Farmers Institute, to be held in the local gym, under the leadership of Merritt Sechler.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Packer, of Butler, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Packer and daughters were Saturday evening guests in the Foster Gee home.

A large sack of sweet potatoes was presented The News by Ward Woodcox on Tuesday, and we are again appreciative of this fine spirit from one of our readers. Many thanks to you.

Mrs. Glen Freeburn and son, Charley, spent the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wineland. Glen Freeburn, two sons, Richard and Junior and daughter, Effiebel, came Friday, and all returned home Sunday.

Clarence A. Jackson, director of the gross income tax division and Congressman Farley opened the democratic campaign on Wednesday evening. Last Thursday evening the republican campaign was opened with U. S. Senator Arthur Robinson as the speaker. The court house was crowded to overflowing.

The Indiana Department of Conservation cannot grant permission for hunters to shoot rabbits on November 10, the day the quail season opens in Indiana, but the present law will be amended at the next session of the legislature to make the opening date for hunting both quail and rabbits fall on November 10.

Robert Wiers, Co. 586, Snake Riven, Wyoming, was chosen as the outstanding base ball player in Yellowstone Park Camp, among 25 chosen as having best record of all candidates, and each man was selected on his individual merits. His position on the C. C. C. All-American team is first baseman.

The repairing of the sidewalks of our town with F. E. R. A. labor is progressing nicely, and is a piece of work that will benefit every person who uses the walks. Mr. Harry Kees was chosen by the town board to supervise this work, and reports that there are still many places that should be repaired. All labor necessary is furnished and the property owner stands the expense of materials used.

E. C. Corn, wife and daughter, Luella, of Medford, Oregon, surprised the editor and wife, Saturday evening, when they drove up for the night. Not knowing they were making a trip east, their presence was hardly believable. Three weeks ago they left home for a coast to coast trip, combining business with pleasure. Sunday afternoon they left for Ohio, thence to Buffalo, and on to Massachusetts. A possibility is of their returning here in three or four weeks when they will head south for a number of calls in Indiana. It has been 24 years since they were residents of St. Joe, being pastor of the M. P. Church here. They are looking fine.

O. L. Lane and wife are moving this week to Defiance, Ohio, from the Shroyer property in the west end of town.

Charles Koch celebrated his birthday Sunday with Joseph Koch and family and Stanley Koch of Fort Wayne home for the day.

With the Churches

ST. JOE M. P. CHURCH

William D Koehnlein, Pastor

St. Joe Church

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

Evening Evangelistic Service at 7:30 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid will meet this evening (Thursday) with Mrs. Chas. Koch. The time has been announced for 7:30.

Y. P. Conference at North Manchester, October 19, 20 and 21

District Meeting at Butler Center, November 1 and 2.

Rally Day, November 4th.

LUTHERAN CHURCH

21st Sunday after Trinity

St. Joe

9:00 Morning Worship.

10:00 Sunday School.

Spencerville

9:15 Sunday School.

10:30 Morning Worship.

A. H. Fabianske.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of William S. Tyndall, deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 10 day of November, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 13th day of October, 1934.

MINNIE TYNDALL,
Executrix.

Atkinson & Husselman Atty. 41t3p

E. T. COCHRAN
Democratic Candidate for
COUNTY ASSESSOR
YOUR SUPPORT WILL BE APPRECIATED

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Free RUBBER RINGS ..for your Separator for a Limited Time

YOUR OPINION is wanted! In exchange for it we offer Two Rubber Bowl Rings for your separator, any size or make . . free and postpaid. We will also tell you about the "Cheapest Separator in the World to Buy and Use," the only separator made in America with a guaranteed Self-Balancing Bowl a separator with twelve valuable features not found on any other separator in the world. Just send postcard to address below telling your address, name and age of your separator and name of this paper Full details will be sent promptly

Anker-Holth PORT HURON, MICH. DEC 736

27t14

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

REMODELING SALE!

Light and Dark
OUTING
12½c Yard
In stripes and plaids.
36 inches wide.
A wonderful value—it will pay you to stock up for this winter

REMODELING SALE!

IRONING BOARD PAD AND COVER
The pad is a heavy unburnable composition. The cover is a good grade of unbleached muslin. Regular price 59c.
Now going for only
47c

REMODELING SALE!

Men's and Boys'
SWEATERS
$1.69 and $1.89
In the popular zipper style.
Regular $2.50 value.
Colors: Grey, Brown and Royal

REMODELING SALE!

Women's "SNUGGIE"
PANTIES and VESTS
They're warm as can be and Well Made
12¼ Wool.
An unusual buy at
37c

REMODELING SALE!

Girls'
SILK DRESSES
Sizes 8 to 14
Value to $3.00
A real buy at $1.66

REMODELING SALE!

Men's Work GLOVES
with the heavy fleeced palm and fingers. Stitched palms.
2 pair for 33c

REMODELING SALE!

Costume Jewelry
to be worn with the new style dresses. Formerly for 50c to $1.
A remarkable value at only
19c

REMODELING SALE!

Cottage Sets
$1.00 Values
Plain or figured. Full size.
To clean up at
44c

The McBride Co.
FEDERATED STORE AUBURN, IND.

WE HAVE HUNDREDS OF ITEMS THAT MUST BE MOVED FOR NEW STOCK. JUST A FEW ARE LISTED HERE:

Wayne T. VanAuken
Republican Sandidate
—FOR—
County Surveyor
QUALIFIED — ABLE
Your Support Solicited

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

OCTOBER

L 919 391

James Wilk was a Sunday dinner guest in the Mrs. Adam Shilling home.

Hear former Congressman David Hogg at the high school gym Friday evening, at 8.

Frank Curie and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook of Hicksville.

Zay Sailer, Chris Sailer, Merle Guilford and father, of Auburn, were at Rome City, Sunday.

Harry Kinsey and family, of Hamilton, were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kinsey, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox spent Monday with their son, Vernon Woodcox, and family at Angola.

Royce Gibford and Fred Hull and their wives were at Chicago Saturday and Sunday visiting A Century of Progress.

Marjorie Gee, of Fort Wayne, spent Saturday and Sunday here with her sister, Lucile, and grandmother, Mrs. S. D. Gee.

Charles and Clifford Bassett left last week for Arizona to spend the winter and to engage in the profession of digging clams.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gerddes moved from the Grover Curie property into the Wm. Staman property, recently vacated by W. B. Cox and family.

Roy Reidenbach and family, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. John Reidenbach, of Wawaka, spent Saturday afternoon and Sunday in Detroit, in the Lawrence Smith home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Hade, of north of Tiffin, Ohio, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Elson a week ago, while attending the fall fair. They saw many of their old friends while here.

Two fine samples of yellow pop corn are now on display in our window, grown by Roy Keller and Vern Coburn. A number of others report extra nice corn for this year, but we are from Missouri. Look it over when passing our office window.

Eugene Wyatt and wife and John Griffin and Mrs. Ella Bertin, of Auburn, were in town Friday and Mr. Wyatt made The News a substantial visit by advancing his subscription to 1935. Mr. Wyatt says he always feels at home when in St. Joe. While here the party called at the orchards to look around and of course, buy some of the Valley apples. Mr. Wyatt said: "I feel very proud of the part taken in our fair, by the St. Joe Valley people."

Albert Moore and Walter Stewart, with their families, were at Fort Wayne, Sunday afternoon.

Reighn Schondelmaver began clerking at Hurni's Store Thursday, because of the resignation of Mark Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. M A. Driver, of Lagrange, Ind., spent Sunday with Mrs. Inez Hadsell. Mr. Driver and Mrs. Hadsell are brother and sister.

C. M. Wertz, auditor of state board of public accounts was in St. Joe Friday, making an audit of the official records of the town clerk and treasurer.

Mrs. Clara Poper, of Butler, made a visit in the Henry Shroyer home for a few days. Cliff Carmony and wife, of Sidney, Ohio, were Wednesday evening guests.

Byron Woodcox and family, of Fort Wayne, were guests in the C. A. Woodcox home Sunday for dinner. They also called at the Miles Oberlin and George Wade homes.

Wm. Pepple left St. Joe Monday to spend the winter with his son, Earl, and family at Lake Gage near Angola. He will return in the spring to look after his affairs here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lantz, of Willard, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Whistler, of Wawasee, were Saturday callers in the Geo. Weaver home. Sunday afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Woods, of Kendallville.

Ye editor and wife fared pretty well last week for things to eat. The Buckinghams contributed a generous supply of large, juicy strawberries, together with cookies to eat with them and a beautiful bouquet of glads to grace the table. Thanks a lot.

Mr. Monroe Foltz, of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been spending the past two months with the Buckinghams and Foltzs, is now with his brother, C. J. Foltz, of Miller City, Ohio, for a week before leaving for his home in Cleveland. Monroe has been assisting with the work at both places.

A Republican Rally will be held at the high school gym, Friday evening, October 19, at eight o'clock. Hon. David Hogg, candidate for Congress will be the principal speaker. Judge Leonard, of Fort Wayne, will be a speaker at this rally also. The County Chairman invites the public regardless of political affiliations to this rally. Meet the candidates.

OCTOBER

L 919

U 392

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25,1934. NUMBER 42

NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION

To be held on Tuesday, November, 6th, 1934.

State of Indiana,
County of DeKalb, ss:

I, Carl Walter, Clerk of the DeKalb Circuit Court, do hereby certify to John P. Hoff, Sheriff of DeKalb County, Indiana, that on Tuesday, the sixth day of November, 1934, a General Election will be held in said county in the several townships thereof, and in each of the several voting precincts of said townships, at which election the following officers are to be elected, to-wit:

One United States Senator for the State of Indiana.

One Auditor of State for the State of Indiana.

One Secretary of State for the State of Indiana.

One Treasurer of State for the State of Indiana.

One Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Indiana.

One Clerk of the Supreme and Appellate Courts of the State of Indiana.

One Judge of the Supreme Court for the State of Indiana, Second District.

Two Judges of the Appellate Court for the State of Indiana, First Division.

Two Judges of the Appellate Court for the State of Indiana, Second Division.

One Member of Congress for the Fourth Congressional District of the State of Indiana.

One Judge of the 75th Judicial Circuit of the State of Indiana.

One Prosecuting Attorney of the 75th Judicial Circuit of the State of Indiana.

One Representative for DeKalb County in the General Assembly of the State of Indiana.

One County Auditor for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Treasurer for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Recorder, for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Sheriff for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Coroner for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Surveyor for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Assessor for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Commissioner for the Southeast District, County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Commissioner for the North District, County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

Three Councilmen-at-large for the County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Councilman for the First District, County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Councilman for the Second District, County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Councilman for the Third District, County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Councilman for the Fourth District, County of DeKalb, State of Indiana.

One Trustee for the Township of Butler, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Butler, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Concord, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Concord, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Fairfield, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Fairfield, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Franklin, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Franklin, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Grant, County of DeKalb.

One Justice of the Peace for the Township of Grant, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Grant, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for theTownship of Jackson, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Jackson, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Keyser, County of DeKalb.

One Assessor for the Township of Keyser, County of DeKalb.

One Justice of the Peace for the Township of Keyser, County of DeKalb.

One Constable for the Township of Keyser, County of DeKalb.

Three members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Keyser, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Newville, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Newville, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Richland, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Richland, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Smithfield, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Smithfield, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Spencer, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Spencer, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Stafford, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Stafford, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Troy, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Troy, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Union, County of DeKalb.

One Assessor for the Township of Union, County of DeKalb.

One Justice of the Peace for the Township of Union, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Union, County of DeKalb.

One Trustee for the Township of Wilmington, County of DeKalb.

One Justice of the Peace for the Township of Wilmington, County of DeKalb.

Three Members of the Advisory Board for the Township of Wilminton, County of DeKalb.

City of Auburn

One Mayor for the City of Auburn, County of DeKalb.

One Clerk-Treasurer for the City of Auburn, County of DeKalb.

Five Councilmen for the City of Auburn, County of DeKalb.

City of Garrett

One Mayor for the City of Garrett, County of DeKalb.

One Clerk-Treasurer for the City of Garrett, County of DeKalb.

Five Councilmen for the City of Garrett, County of DeKalb.

In Witness Whereof, I, Carl Walter, Clerk of the DeKalb Circuit Court, have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the seal of said Court, at the City of Auburn, this 12th day of October, 1934.

CARL WALTER,
Clerk DeKalb Circuit Court.

The above is a true and correct copy of the original certificate and notice of election, issued by the Clerk of the DeKalb Circuit Court.

JOHN P. HOFF,
Sheriff of DeKalb County, Ind.

FRANK SEILER, 79, DIES IN HOSPITAL

Frank P. Seiler, of 504 North Jackson St., a well known Auburn resident, died Friday morning at the Dr. Bonnell Souder hospital as the result of a heart ailment. Mr. Seiler celebrated his 79th birthday last Sunday and his children and grandchilren were at his home for their yearly family reunion.

Mr. Seiler was taken to the hospital late Thursday. For several years he had been in failing health and had been subject to heart attacks. His daughter, Mrs. Herbert Honey, of Hartford City, Ind., who came Thursday, was with him when he passed away.

Mr. Seiler was born October 11, 1855, in West Lebanon, Wayne county, Ohio, the son of John and Lucetta Seiler, and with his parents came to Fairfield township, DeKalb county, in the spring of 1864, locating on a farm in the dense timber. Acquiring a rudimentary education in the district schools of those days, Mr. Seiler engaged in the profession of teaching and for twenty years was thus engaged. In 1880 he completed a commercial course at Eastman's Business college at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., preparatory to entering a business career.

On October 7, 1887, Mr. Seiler was united in marriage to Mino I. Andrews, of Newville township, and to them were born two children, Paul Waldo Seiler, of Detroit, and Mrs. Herbert Honey, of Hartford City. They survive, together with one brother, Dr. John Seiler, of Akron, Ohio, now the last surviving member of the parental family.

In the year of 1898 Mr. Seiler was elected auditor of DeKalb county while a resident of Ashley, Ind., then a thriving railroad division point on the Wabash line. During his residence there Mr. Seiler built up a successful real estate and insurance business.

Mr. Seiler remained in office four years and then engaged in the real estate business in Auburn and continued in that profession until a short time ago when his age and failing health forced him to retire.

The deceased was a member of the First M. E. Church in Auburn. Politically he was a democrat.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon.

DISTRIBUTE WHEAT CHECKS IN COUNTY

Wheat allotment checks for the last payment of 1933 and the first payment of 1934 under the contract held by DeKalb county farmers have arrived. A total of 900 checks are here, some sixty being held up as yet in Washington because compliance sheets were not properly executed as to signature, etc. The sum of $18,946.53 will be paid.

The DeKalb county wheat control committee will start distribution of the checks Thursday.

Farmers in Fairfield, Smithfield, Richland and Keyser townships may get their checks at the county agent's office in Auburn on Thursday, Oct. 25.

Butler, Jackson, Union and Grant township contract signers may get checks at county agent's office in Auburn on Friday, October 26.

Franklin, Troy, Wilmington, Stafford, Newville, Concord and Spencer will get checks at the city hall at Butler on Saturday.

INDIANA FARM LOANS HEAVIEST IN DISTRICT

"Indiana is the heaviest borrower from the Federal Land Bank of Louisville and the Land Bank Commissioner of any of the four states of the Fourth Farm Credit Administration district," states Ernest Rice, General Agent. "Within the past 16 months land mortgage loans closed in Indiana reached the total of $48,393,000 borrowed by over 21,000 farmers of the state, this in addition to over 14,000 loans for upward of $48,000,000 which were outstanding prior to June 1, 1933, when the present loan campaign for saving mortgaged and distressed farms to their owners was inaugurated by the passage of the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act. Indiana farmers also are increasingly heavy borrowers from the 10 Production Credit Associations of the state, which at present have outstanding over 2,400 short term loans for over $775,000.

URGES ANOTHER FALL FAIR IN 1935

A resolution was unanimously passed at the jubilee meeting of the Auburn Chamber of Commerce Thursday night favoring a free fall fair in 1935. John Leighty, of St. Joe, introduced the resolution, which in effect was, that the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce promote a fair in 1935, or if not as a chamber, take steps to incorporate an organization to sponsor a fair.

The meeting was in the nature of a jollification over the success of the fair held four days during the first week in October. Altho the fair resulted in a financial loss in the neighborhood of $500, which the Chamber of Commerce will have to underwrite, nevertheless it was the unanimous opinion of the one hundred and sixty people present that it was the best fair in years. "Good things come high" was the opinion voiced by the promotors and the quality and number of exhibits justified the expense of staging it.

Has Operation

Simeon H. Maurer, of 514 South Indiana avenue, Auburn, who has been a patient several weeks in the Dr. J. A. Sanders hospital, was operated upon Saturday morning.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders
400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH ALL WORK GUARANTEED

Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

Consider Your Winters Fuel
cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

MR and MRS FARMER!
Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Wayne T. VanAuken
Republican Sandidate
—FOR—
County Surveyor
QUALIFIED — ABLE
Your Support Solicited

Leighty Orchard
ST. JOE, INDIANA
On account of the bright warm weather you may not have thought seriously of your WINTER APPLES. Wintr will come and you will want apples as badly as ever. Do not delay much longer as we will close our sales the first week in NOVEMBER.
CIDER VINEGAR HONEY
NO SALES ON SUNDAY

Now Chevrolet adds the world's lowest-priced six-cylinder 4-door sedan
to its line

This new and unusual value in an ideal family car brings 4-door Sedan ownership within reach of new thousands

Chevrolet—builder of the world's lowest-priced lines of Sixes—now adds to that line the world's lowest-priced six-cylinder 4-door Sedan.

The rich finish and trimly tailored lines of the Standard 4-door Sedan suggest a higher price. Roomy and convenient, it is a quality car throughout, with Body by Fisher, Fisher No Draft ventilation, the celebrated Chevrolet valve-in-head engine, weather-proof cable-controlled brakes, and a host of other fine features. And being a Chevrolet, it costs remarkably little to operate and maintain. We invite you to see this latest evidence of Chevrolet's ability to supply America with "Economical Transportation," today.

$540

List price of Standard Sedan at Flint, Mich., $540. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price is $18.00 additional. Prices subject to change without notice.

CHEVROLET MOTOR CO., DETROIT, MICH.
Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G. M. A. C. terms. A General Motors Value

ONE RIDE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

CHEVROLET

FURNISH SALES AND SERVICE
SPENCERVILLE, INDIANA

OCTOBER

L 919

0393

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

Of St. Joe News, published weekly at St. Joe, Indiana, for October 1, 1934.

State of Indiana, County of DeKalb, ss:

Before me, a Notary Public, in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Fred B. Leighty, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Publisher and the Owner of the ST. JOE NEWS, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management (and if a daily paper, the circulation,) etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

Editor, Fred B. Leighty, St. Joe, Ind. Ind.

Managing Editor, Fred B. Leighty, St. Joe, Ind.

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business manager are:
Publisher, Fred B. Leighty, St. Joe, Business Manager, Fred B. Leighty, St. Joe, Ind.

2. That the owners are:
Fred B. Leighty, St. Joe, Ind.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are:
None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

FRED B. LEIGHTY.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 22nd day of October, 1934.

LORA E. LEIGHTY, N. P.

My commission expires Jan. 14, 1936.

MISS VIVIAN BURNIER MARRIED SUNDAY

Miss Vivian Burnier daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Burnier of South Indiana Ave., Auburn, and Theodore Einkopf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Einkopf, of Garrett, were married Sunday morning immediately following the church service at the First Church of God in Auburn.

Miss Sue Bloom, of Garrett, was bride's maid and Kenneth Pickering, of Garrett, attended as best man. Miss Mildred Berringer played for the ceremony and Miss Alice Horning sang "I Love You Truly" as the couple marched to the altar.

Mrs. Einkopf wore a royal blue dress and dark hat and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. Her attendant also wore blue.

A wedding dinner was given for the families of the bride and groom at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burnier and the couple then left to spend several days in Chicago. They will live with the bride's parents for the present.

Mr. Einkopf, a graduate of Garrett high school in 1930, is employed at the Haynes Dairy in Garrett and the bride is a stenographer at the L. Waite Widney Plumbing shop. She was graduated with the class of 1931 of Auburn.

WARREN ARNOLD
—FOR—
County Treasurer
REPUBLICAN TICKET

County Tickets

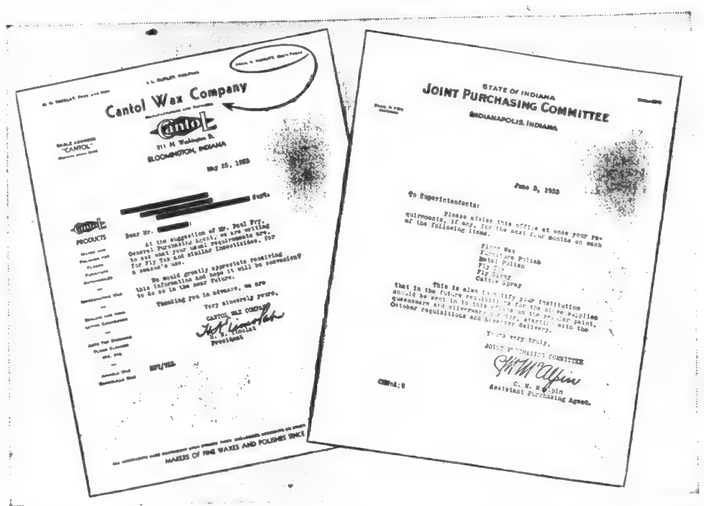
REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mountz.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer Warren Arnold.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.

McNutt's Name On Wax Company Letters To State Institutions



(NOTE: The name of the institutional superintendent has been deleted since he had no part in making these letters public.)

Stationery used by the Cantol Wax Company of Bloomington when it was introducing its wares to state institutions shortly after the man who promised "to sweep the statehouse clean" became Governor, carried the name of Paul V. McNutt as its secretary-treasurer—a virtual command from the Governor of Indiana for the institutions to buy from his own family, firm.

The above letter on the left is a photostatic copy of a letter that went to one of the twenty-four state institutions, while the one on the right is a "follow-up" dated eight days later from C. M. McAlpin, assistant to Paul P. Fry, state purchasing agent, urging that institutions advise "at once" what their needs would be in the line manufactured by the company.

The State of Indiana has done more than six thousand dollars in business with the Cantol outfit since McNutt became Governor. The concern is owned and operated by H. N. Timolat, the Governor's father-in-law, John C. McNutt, the Governor's father, Kathleen McNutt, the Governor's wife, Ann C. Rupley, and Hayden H. Allen, among the Governor's friends. The Governor's father came into the firm when he succeeded the Governor as secretary-treasurer.

Fish and Game Club Information

WINTER FEEDING FOR BIRDS IS SPONSORED

A state-wide program for the feeding of game and song birds which spend the winter months in Indiana, is being organized by the Department of Conservation with the cooperation of local conservation clubs, grain elevator operators and farmers. Under the supervision of the Division of Fish and Game, grain screenings will be collected by game wardens and sportsmen and stored for use when winter weather has deprived the birds of their natural food sources.

Winter feeding has been carried on to some extent in past years but there has been no organized effort to see that all birds were fed during the severe part of the winter. Regular feeding stations will be established by the wardens and sportsmen in areas where the birds have the necessary shelter. Many farmers have been interested in the program and will aid the clubs in securing grain for the birds and in seeing that it is distributed in suitable places.

In some communities where farmers are interested in the game management plan of the Division of Fish and Game, little winter feeding will be required. Small patches of grain were left in the fields to supplement the seed-bearing weeds which provide the greater part of the food supply for both game and song birds.

Persons interested in the winter feeding of birds can secure full details of the program in their community by offering their assistance to the officers of their local conservation club and to the game warden in their county or by writing to the Division of Fish and Game, Department of Conservation.

IDENTIFIES WOMAN IN ALLEN COUNTY

A woman, who is an inmate of the Allen county jail at Fort Wayne and whose identity was a mystery was identified by Sheriff John P. Hoff, of DeKalb county, Tuesday as Laura Morrow, or Laura Abel, whose father, Geo. Abel, lives near Woodlawn cemetery southeast of Auburn.

The woman was found Saturday sitting in a woodshed three miles south of Hoagland. She appeared there during a rain storm. Previously she had been at Decatur and Portland, Ind. When she was placed in the Allen county jail she refused to talk, but an investigation led to her identity.

She has not lived at her father's home for some years and she was of Butler. She was an inmate for of Butler. She was an inmate for a time of the Richmond State hospital, but was released several years ago. Recently she has wandered about and it is probable that she will be recommitted to the asylum.

PACKER PUBLICATION GIVES PRODUCERS PUBLICITY

The Packer, a publication devoted to the fruit and vegetable industry, and circulating in every state in the union, gave the St. Joe Valley Producers a write-up concerning the parade at the fall fair, in full detail as described in The News the following week of the fair.

The paper circulates among growers, wholesalers and retailers of fruits and vegetables and will no doubt arouse some interest in our community, to the benfit of the growers.

The Packer said: "The St. Joe Valley Association is composed of 80 growers, well experienced in the growing of their specific crops. Up to this year no attempt had been made to get the growers in an organization, but increasing production and the need of a wider outlet for these products has made an association seem desirable among the leaders. Such effort was made at the county fair this fall with fine results."

LARGE CROWD AT G. O. P. RALLY

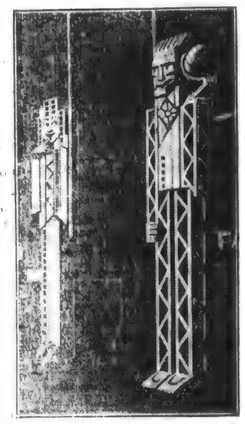
A large crowd of voters attended the G. O. P. rally at the school house last Friday night, and it was regarded as one of the most enthusiastic ever staged in this part of the county.

Henry C. Springer, county chairman, talked on the state issues in length and then introduced the county ticket.

David Hogg discussed the national issues from the standpoint of a representative in Congress, which office he is seeking from the voters of the fourth district.

The world had its greatest recorded calamity since the days of Noah in the fourteenth century when an epidemic of Black Death killed an estimated seventy-five million people.

Greet Children



Trestle Mike and Skyscraper Sally, two fantastic figures which guard the gates to the Enchanted Island, children's playground at the new World's Fair which opens in Chicago May 26. The playground has been completely changed with the exception of prices. These will be as low as last year.

SPINK ARMS HOTEL
410 North Meridian Street, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
Comfortable, Convenient, Modern, Quiet Location
Opposite Memorial Plaza
RATES
$2, $2.50 and $3 Single
$4, $4.50 and $5 Double
FIRST CLASS COFFEE SHOP AND DINING ROOM
Breakfast 25c, 35c 45c
Luncheon 40c, 50c
Full Course Dinner 75c
Every room with bath and shower. Also furnished kitchenette apartment suites at reasonable rates. Garage adjoining, and excellent parking facilities.
HEADQUARTERS
Hoosier State Press Association, Inc.

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

Next Monday evening at the St. Joe gym, a democratic rally will be held, with former Judge Link as speaker. Special music. You are invited to attend and become acquainted with the candidates. 12t1.

F. B. Leighty and wife were Sunday guests in the Joe West home at Fort Wayne. In the afternoon they called at the C. A. Patterson home and in the evening attended the Forest Park M. E. Church of which Rev. Howard J. Brown is pastor.

Another evidence that the classified column is a good place to advertise, is told by Mrs. J. C. Hull, when last week she run a 10c ad on a stove for sale. The very evening The News came out she had a customer and on Thursday two others. Could 10c do more?

Court Theatre--Auburn
ANNOUNCES NEW POLICY CHANGE
FREE
MIDNIGHT PREVIEW
—OF—
SUNDAY - MONDAY PROGRAM
COME AS LATE AS
9:30 SATURDAY
SEE 2 PROGRAMS 1 PRICE

Calvin C. Kain
-- FOR --
COUNTY SURVEYOR
Registered Engineer — — — 22 Years Experience
Courteous — — Obliging — — Qualified
Your Support Appreciated

For Fearless, Impartial and Efficient LAW ENFORCEMENT ELECT
Herbert N. Grimm
NICK
SHERIFF

When you hire a man to work for you, you like to hire one who knows his job.

HERBERT (NICK) GRIMM knows the job of SHERIFF. He is qualified to run this office efficiently by three years thaining as regular deputy sheriff and several more years as special deputy.

NICK GRIMM'S record as deputy shows that he will conduct the office of SHERIFF with greatest efficiency for the benefit of DeKalb County. No class or group will receive any special favors. Law will be enforced impartially.

SO for FEARLESS and EFFICIENT CONDUCT of OFFICE of SHERIFF

Elect HERBERT N. GRIMM
Democratic Ticket

For an ENVIED Complexion

Inimitable Djer-Kiss Face Powder lends to any skin perfection that withstands the closest test.

Finer—softer—absolutely pure—it permits a thinner powder film which lasts for hours. Delicately scented with the bewitching Djer-Kiss fragrance.

Peche Rachel Naturelle Blanche
60¢

Djer-Kiss
FACE POWDER
Genuine Djer-Kiss Parfum, in a dainty Vanette, Purse Size 25¢

OCTOBER

L 919

394

Jesse C. Provines

Is worthy of YOUR consideration and SUPPORT

-- FOR --

County AUDITOR

I WAS BORN IN JACKSON TOWNSHIP IN 1888. MY ENTIRE LIFE HAS BEEN LIVED IN DEKALB COUNTY.

MY RECORD IS WELL AND FAVORABLY KNOWN AS FARMER, TEACHER IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS, BOOKKEEPER FOR JACKSON TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE, (Mr. Lewis Howey) AND MANY YEARS AS MANAGER OF GRAIN ELEVATORS.

I BELIEVE THAT I AM AS WELL QUALIFIED FOR THE OFFICE OF COUNTY AUDITOR, AS ANY ONE, WHO HAS BEEN ELECTED TO THIS IMPORTANT OFFICE, FOR AT LEAST THE LAST 40 YEARS.

I HAVE NEVER ASKED FOR, NOR BEEN ELECTED TO ANY PUBLIC OFFICE.

ERNEST E. TURNER

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

—FOR—

SHERIFF

OF DeKALB COUNTY

YOUR SUPPORT APPRECIATED

Charles E. Miser

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

for COUNTY ASSESSOR

DeKalb Co. Your Support Appreciated.

Buy Your Printing Now and Save Time

PATENTS
AND TRADE-MARKS
C. A. SNOW & CO.

Successful Practice since 1875. Over 25,000 patents obtained for inventors in every section of country. Write for booklet telling how to obtain a patent, with list of clients in your State.

710 8th St., Washington, D. C.

Local Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Kilpatrick and daughter, of Fort Wayne, were Friday guests in the Dr. C. R. Price home.

Harvey Hull and Beeks Erick are at Miami attending the Legion convention accompanying the band.

Cecil VanZile, of Auburn, is the third DeKalb county man to receive a commission from the Indiana Conservation department as a deputy game warden for DeKalb county. Mr. VanZile's commission was received on Wednesday. The other deputies are William F. Brown, of Auburn, and John Crothers, of St. Joe.

The 74th birthday of Joe Hull was celebrated at his home Sunday. Paul Carpenter and wife were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Quance and children, of Auburn and Mrs. Mary Moon, of Logansport, were Sunday afternoon guests in the J. C. Hull home.

Mrs. Harlow Phillips, of Chicago returned home Sunday after ten days' visit in the Ed Lindley home. She is the Lindleys only child. Mrs. Phillips returned home Sunday with her daughter and husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Monroe and children, James, Billie and Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Monroe and daughter, Martha, of West Unity, Ohio, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Copp and family, of New Haven.

Your last opportunity to attend a democratic rally in the Tri-Township, will be Monday evening, Oct. 29, at St. Joe gym at 8 o'clock, when Dan Link will address the rally. Special music. The county candidates will be present We are looking for you. 42t1.

The F. B. Class of the Methodist Sunday School held a class party, Tuesday evening at the home of their teacher, Roy Reidenbach, and wife, and a goodly number attended. The class made plans for their winter activities and following their entertainment a fine plate lunch was served. Roy Koch and wife will entertain the November meeting.

The West Milford Church of Christ will begin evangelistic meetings Sunday evening, Oct. 28. Walter H. Coburn, the pastor will preach that evening. Monday evening Francis Garrett, formerly of Butler, will be there for the duration of the meeting. Miss Carma Hootman and Walter Coburn will conduct the singing. All who enjoy good singing and the pure Gospel come.

John Ulm and Joe Foltz, accompanied by their wives, started to the World's Fair Saturday morning, driving to Garrett to take the train. Before the train arrived Mr. Foltz had a heart attack and he and his wife were unable to continue their trip. Returning home Joe was in bed for a couple days. Monday they were called to Findlay, Ohio, by illness of relatives. The Ulms report a fine trip.

The burning of leaves and trash on all types of pavement causes irreparable damage to the surface, especially when it is one of the bituminous types, James D. Adams, Chairman of the State Highway Commission, pointed out in a recent letter to all city officials. These pavements have been made at considerable expense to the taxpayers and every care should be taken to prevent such damage as results from the burning of leaves and other trash on their surface, he stated.

The State Board of Tax Commissioners added momentum to the Federal Housing Administration program in Indiana today with the announcement that there would be no increases in assessments on property because of repairs or modernization work done under the housing program. The announcement was made in a letter to Fred Hoke, state director of the housing administration, from Philip Zoercher, chairman of the tax board. Mr. Zoercher's letter said: "In reference to the matter of repairs or modernization done under the housing plan, will say that it never has been our policy to penalize improvements and we certainly will not begin now."

Ralph Sechler and family spent several days last week in the Martindale home at Greenfield, Ind.

Harry Randall arrived Wednesday forenoon from Chicago, to be a guest of his mother until Sunday.

Jean Ridgway and Mary Stewart spent from Wednesday until Sunday at the home of Effiebel Freeburn in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Foltz went to Findlay, O., Monday to see a brother-in-law, John Roos, who is in a serious condition in the hospital.

Another copy of "News from Nowhere" C. C. Camp paper, has reached our office from Mal Woodcox. Any of the boys interested may call and look the paper over. Thanks Mal.

Sunday guests in the J. P. Buckingham home were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Foltz and son, Clyde, of Miller City, Ohio, Mr. M. E. Foltz, of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Foltz.

A freak potato is on display in The News office window. In the field lay a broken clevis and the potato just grew around this metal. Merwood Rhodes is responsible for this freak.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch and Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price spent Sunday in the John Draggoo home near Reading, Mich. The day was in honor of three birthdays and the wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ratiaczak and children, Martha and Jo, and Mrs. L. D. Burch, of Stryker, O., and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Brannan and daughter, Evelyn Mae, of Edon, O., spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. E. B. Smith.

Tri-Township Democrat rally, at community gym, St. Joe, Monday evening, Oct. 29, at 8 o'clock. Former Judge Dan Link will be the speaker Candidates of the county will be present. Special music. The public is invited. 42t1.

Laney Gee is reported as laid up with three broken ribs as result of an accident at the Beeber crossing last Saturday, when he run down the south track to avoid colliding with a train. He was returning from a trip into Michigan and had his family with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Inlow and daughter, Irene and four younger children, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Furnish spent Friday and Saturday in the home of Elmer Frost at Centerville, Iniana. Sunday they motored to the Monte Storer home at Harveysburg, Ohio, where the Inlow reunion was held on Monday. Charles Inlow and family from Peebles, Ohio, were in attendance.

Our Classified Ad Department

For Sale: Keefer Pears. 42t1. Mrs. S. D. Gee.

For Sale: Fresh Jersey Cow with calf 10-days old. Victor Dermott, 2 miles east St. Joe. 42t1p.

Times have changed—hill-billies are popular nowadays.

Next summer will be better; we feel it in our bones—our wishbones.

Think of the foolishness of Prince George, going on his vacation with forty-five pieces (suit cases and trunks) of personal luggage.

The average monthly relief payments amount to about $23 per family. The average family on the relief consists of about four and one-half members.

The cheapest new airplane is an International Aircraft Heath at $1095.

An all-time heat record was established in the Mid-West during July and August.

Nineteen-year olds lead all other age classes in the United States in the number of arrests.

Those who tell the truth do not have to remember what they have said.

It is believed that Dr. Harry J. Corper, Denver, Colorado, has discovered a serum that will be a positive preventive of tuberculosis. The serum is being given the final tests on some voluntary prisoners from the Colorado State Prison. These prisoners are "lifers" and if they live through the ordeal they will be given paroles.

The Century of Progress has already paid out 80 per cent. It is expected that the fair will easily pay out in full.

"The Coming American Boom," is the title of a popular new pamphlet written by Major Lawrence Angas, a British author and London stockbroker. Major Angas predicts the success of the so-called "New Deal."

Yale University graduates average the highest income of any university alumni.

Only 16.95 per cent of the thirty thousand most prominent people listed in "Who's Who in America" have less than a college education.

Mussolini directs that all boys of eight years of age and upwards shall receive military training, which recalls with unpleasant force the remark attributed to Napoleon, wherein he stated that a child could stop a bullet as well as a man.

High School Notes

Local Team Opens Basketball Season Here Friday Night

Leo Furnishes Opposition

Coach Noffsinger has been busily engaged for the past few weeks preparing his charges for the opening game to be played here Friday night. Little is known concerning the strength of the opposition but Leo can always be depended upon to place a strong aggregation on the floor.

The local club is again handicapped for lack of size. The team this year is being built around M. Simanton, the center who is the only member of the squad who can boast of veteran experience. Just who his team mates will be when the opening whistle blows is still a question in the minds of those around the school.

At the present time it looks as though F. Monroe would get the call for the one forward berth. This fellow lacks height and experience but it is hoped that his speed and stellar floor work will offset his two handicaps.

Either K. Richmond or C. Thornton will probably get the other forward assignment. The problem here is determining which of these boys fits into the combination better. One of the guard positions will be handled by one of the two former boys and the other guard position will probably be filled by Kaellner, Wiers, Davis or McSorley. Other promising material is being developed in Borthwick, Storer, Martin, Woodcox, Goodwin, and others.

The team has failed to show any scoring punch thus far and this week's practices will be aimed at polishing up the offense.

A few of the candidates have shown some indication of having a "basket eye" but fans will no doubt see a number of early season faults which are inevitable in an opening game.

Mrs. Nina M.
LITTLE

Garrett, Keyser twp.

CANDIDATE FOR

County Recorder

Democratic Ticket

Only woman candidate on either ticket. Widow, and a mother of two children. Unemployed.

Efficient, courteous and obliging. Qualified by business experience.

Tax Payer for 33 Years Resident of County 37 years.

Your kindness shown in voting for me November 6, will be gratefully appreciated.

Leo has no girl's varsity this year so the local sextet will be idle this week. They do not open their season until the early part of November.

The preliminary game will be played by the reserves of the two schools. First game starts at 700 o'clock.

1. (Noffsinger's account of basketball.)

Class parties in keeping with the Halloween season will occur as follows on this week end (Saturday:) Seniors at Bonnie McSorley's; Freshmen at Harriett Yeiser's; Seventh grade at Christine Zonker's.

County tests were given in Geography 7, Arithmetic 7, Arithmetic 8, and History 8 on Friday of this week.

One Act Play Contest

The DeKalb County High School one act play contest will be held in the local school auditorium on Wednesday evening, November 14. The three competing schools will be Ashley, Spencerville and St. Joe.

Mr. Gerdes is coaching the local play cast. Parts have been assigned and not more than two weeks time will be given for rehearsals.

Winners of county contests will meet in sub-district contests. Sub-district winners will go into a district contest. The purpose of the one act play contest is to promote public speaking in the high schools.

Butler High School's first and second boys teams play in St. Joe on Friday evening, November 2.

ARRIVE AT RED BLUFF IN EIGHT DAYS

Clifford Bassatt and son, Charlie left St. Joe two weeks ago on Monday morning and arrived at Red Bluff, Arkansas, on the following Tuesday. A letter just received by Edgar Lysher is reproduced for the benefit of our readers.

Friend Edgar:

"We are here, arrived last Tuesday. Red Bluff is just a wide place in the road, one small store. We are 1½ miles down a stream from there on Little River. It is a little smaller than the Maumee but is from 8 to 12 feet deep. We are about 14 miles from Ashdown the county seat, and is the nearest town of any size. It is very thinly settled around here, what few live here do a lot of market fishing. Think we will put out a line today. There are quite a lot of foxes and gray and black squirrels here. It is mighty warm at this place. The river is pretty low, they say, but if it was this deep at St. Joe we would call it deep. We had some awful hills to encounter this side of Centralia, Ill. There is pavement all the way except a few detours at the last end this side of Ashdown. There are lots of negroes here, also lots of rattlesnakes and moccasins but I haven't seen any of them yet. I heard a flock of geese go down stream some time in the night. This is going to be a red hot day, so I'll close for this time."

C. C. Bassett,
Ashdown, Ark.

% Lon Buster.

A laugh is the best of medicine--Take a dose

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES"—Just Kid Stuff For The Sergeant By POP MOMAND

PHONE 290

Stanley P. Nelson Monuments

Opposite Woodlawn and Rosalawn Cemeteries

AUBURN, IND.

OCTOBER

L 919

U 395

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

CIDER: 10c and 20c per gallon. 41tf. Widney Orchard.

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

WANTED: To buy White and Yellow Onions, any quantity. See George Hart, St. Joe. 42t6.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

Wanted to rent small farm for Cash—May buy. What have you? Write P. O. Box 152, Angola, Ind. 40t3p.

APPLES, APPLES: A large crop. Depression prices. Widney Orchard, St. Joe. 41tf.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Wanted: Popcorn and potatoes on subscription.

Wanted: Hard and Soft Maple and ash logs. Hardwood Lumber Co., Butler, Ind. Phone 210L. 39t4p.

Notice: All canned goods must be called for by Oct. 31. St. Joe Custom Canning Kitchen. 41t2.

For Sale: 8-ft. x 14-ft. wagon scales, $30.00. St. Joe Flour Mill, St. Joe, Ind. 41t4.

For Sale: An electric range at $50. If interested call News office. 41tf.

Help: The girl's physical education class needs a couple old mattresses for their work. If you have one to give away notify one of the high school girls. 42t1p.

New Dealers are better at writing books than balancing them.

A bulletin from the White House announces that there will be no inflation—this week.

Who remembers when the Blue Eagle was going to lead us back to prosperity in six months?

Pretty soon the people will be standing around scoreboards awaiting supreme court rulings.

"We live on one-third of what we eat," says Dr. (Senator) Royal S. Copeland, "and the doctors live on the rest."

There is nothing in the law to the effect that taxpayers are required to pay the costs of political campaigns.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of William S. Tyndall, deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 10 day of November, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 13th day of October, 1934.

MINNIE TYNDALL, Executrix.

Atkinson & Husselman Atty. 41t3p

FRANK E. LYON
CANDIDATE FOR
AUDITOR of DeKalb County
YOUR SUPPORT WILL BE APPRECIATED
DEMOCRATIC TICKET ELECTION, NOV. 6, 1934

SPENCERVILLE

Vera Reed was a Sunday evening guest at the Delbert Furnish home.

Mrs. Jane Butler was a Sunday night guest of the Gale Bowser family.

Miss Ellen McNabb, of Auburn, spent Friday with Elenor and Ulia Chaney.

Mrs. Mary Calaway spent the week end with her husband, Leland Calaway at Muncie, Ind.

The Young Ladies Social Club will meet on Friday evening with Mrs. Verna Rhodes, north of town.

Little Raymond Johnson, of Hicksville, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Herby Webb.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Gloyd and babe were Sunday guests of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hahn.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church was very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Bell Means recently.

Mrs. Florence Baker and daughter, of St. Joe, were Sunday dinner guests of her mother, Mrs. Hazel Steward and family.

Mrs. Ross Abel, Mrs. John McNabb and daughter, Ethel, assisted Mrs. Roy Chaney cook for threshers on Friday.

Mrs. Merritt Barney, of Hicksville, Ohio, was a week end guest of her daughter and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Baumgartner.

Mrs. Philip Chaney celebrated her 70th birthday anniversary at her home on Thursday. She received many cards reminding her of the fact.

Family night of the Home Bureau was held on Tuesday evening at thehome of Mr. and Mrs. Lehr Wilder. Pot luck supper was enjoyed and several readings were given.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Koch, of St. Joe, were recent guests at the F. L. Beams home and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Klopfenstein, of Grabill, were Sunday evening guests in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Chaney and family and Miss Ethel McNabb were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswalt of Ft. Wayne. They visited the new filtration plant while in the city.

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Mrs. Ralph Culbertson spent several days last week at the R. U. Bowser home.

Rlaph Beams spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beams.

The C. C. Club will be entertained on Nov. 1 at the home of Mrs. Zelpha Steward.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wann, of Harlan, were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chaney.

Miss Josephine Fisher was a Sunday guest of her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, at Leo.

Mrs. Earl McNabb and children, of Auburn, were week end guests of her father, George Horn, south of town.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

The first school dinner was given last Wednesday in the Beams store building and the sum of $15 was cleared.

Attendance at the M. E. Sunday School for Oct. 21 was 80, collection $3.12; Lutheran 69, collection $2.65.

Del Funk moved last week to near Cedar Chapel. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean purchased the place vacted by him.

Miss Ida Reed and Hubert McNamara were Sunday afternoon guests of Miss Fern Wright, of near the Hopewell Church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Bowser and children, of St. Joe, and J. L. Reed and wife were Sunday evening guests of the R. U. Bowser home.

Harvey Kimes, wife and son, Walter and Miss Steiner, were Thursday evening guests in the Verna Wilmot home in Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. Nancy Chaney visited her sister, Mrs. Jennie Chaney, who is confined to her bed with a broken arm and injured back, on Monday.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church will be entertained by Mrs. Janice Bowser on Wednesday, Oct. 31. The ladies will quilt.

On last Tuesday evening the official board of the Methodist Church met at the church and decided to hold a Rally Day and Home Coming service on Sunday, Nov. 4th. The committees were named on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay entertained the following guests at their home Sunday, for dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker, Miss Wanda and Master Ernest Kelley. Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Morr and babe, of Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes entertained for Sunday dinner their son, Walter from Detroit and Miss Steiner, of near Leo, Mrs. Minnie Kimes and family, Mrs. Vernon Wilmot, Mr. Clarence Widdifield and family all of Fort Wayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Mordie Widdifield of near Auburn.

NEWVILLE

Undertaker Miser, of Albion, spent Sunday afternoon at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ide were her Thursday from Chicago calling on friends.

A daughter, Delores Juan, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ross Sunday, Oct. 7.

There will be preaching services at the U. B. Church Sunday morning, October 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Mann and family from Garrett called on Mrs. Kate Fusselman Monday evening.

Mrs. Sada Washler and daughter, Sylvia, spent several days last week in the Ames home in Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Stark and baby were Sunday dinner guests in the Ross Nelson home.

Mrs. Jennie Gengnagel returned home last week from Chicago where she had been visiting her daughter and attending the Century of Progress.

Funeral services for Mrs. Belle Crum, who died at Garrett Oct. 21 were held at the Newville U. B. Church Tuesday afternoon. Burial in Evergreen cemetery.

The ladies of the U. B. Church are invited to attend a social tea at the Christian Church in Hicksville Oct. 30, at which time Miss Krill, a Methodist Missionary will give a talk.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Vote for "JAKE"
Ulysses S. Raut
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR
County RECORDER
LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF DeKALB COUNTY
YOUR INFLUENCE WILL BE APPRECIATED

Coburn's Corners

Mrs. Edna Jenkins conducted the prayer meeting Sunday evening.

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Oct. 21, was 83, collection $3.27.

Mrs. Inez Hadsell was a Sunday dinner guest of Mrs. Mattie Hart and daughter, Elizabeth.

John Crothers and family spent a few days the past week in Southern Indiana and Kentucky.

Clem Shull and family, of Hicksville, called on his father, J. S. Shull, Sunday afternoon.

Elizabeth Hart was a supper guest Monday evening of her sister, Bess Klopfenstein and son, Bob.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Conine and M. C. Hart called on James Wesley Hart Sunday. Mr. Hart is seriously ill.

Mrs. Alice Zimmerman and daughter, Mrs. Glawe, of Spencerville, called on Mattie Hart Sunday evening.

Miss Lenore Laub, who is attending school at Muncie, was a week end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laub.

New Grader Installed

An up-to-date Bean apple grader has been installed at the Widney Orchard, making it possible to care for 1,000 bushel of apples per day. The new machine arrived last week and is a wonderful help in caring for the crop.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Who remembers the days before the fiscal experts began working on our currency when people used to speak of the "almighty dollar?"

Has Heart Attack

George Knisely, of Auburn Junction, seized with a heart attack Saturday morning in front of the restaurant of C. M. Shaw at Auburn, fell to the sidewalk, his head striking the walk. Mr. Knisely was removed in the Dilgard ambulance to the Dr. J. A. Sanders hospital, where it is thot he has a fracture of the skull.

With the Churches

ST. JOE CIRCUIT

Methodist Protestant Church
William D Koehnlein, Pastor

St. Joe Church
Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.
Evangelistic Service at 7:30 P. M.
District Meeting Nov. 1 and 2, at Butler Center M. P. Church.
Rally Day Nov. 4th.

Concord Church
Sunday School Rally
Sunday School at 9:30.
Morning Worship at 10:45.
Pot luck dinner at 12:00.
Afternoon Service at 1:30.

E. T. COCHRAN
Democratic Candidate for
COUNTY ASSESSOR
YOUR SUPPORT WILL BE APPRECIATED

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Have You Read----

That every person employed under the McNUTT STATE GOVERNMENT RACKET pays two to five per cent of his or her salary received each month to the DEMOCRATIC SLUSH FUND?

AS A TAXPAYER

you indirectly contribute each month to this RACKET, called the two per cent club.

McNUTT states that these shake downs are paid WITHOUT COMPULSION

Ask ANY State Employer

If he has any choice about it.

State Employees have been told to pay or GET FIRED

Is there ANY DOUBT of the cause of INCREASED STATE GOVERNMENT EXPENSE?

Stop the McNUTT Salary Racket

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

Don't let your Child study in POOR LIGHT!

Let us guard the eyes of your family by making this free check-up

OUR eyes were built for daylight. Without enough good light indoors, eye-strain, headaches, even near-sightedness may result. But not one home in ten has enough light!

Wouldn't you like to know for sure whether your home is correctly lighted? Just phone us. We'll send out an expert with a Sight Meter, an amazing instrument that measures light as a thermometer measures heat. Why not take advantage of this free service? Call us today and say, "I want you to measure my lights."

This is the Sight Meter, the clever new instrument that measures light, and tells you how much you need for any task. Let us protect your family's eyes by checking the lights in your home.

INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

Better Light . . . Better Sight

L 919

396

NOVEMBER

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 397

SAMPLE COPY

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, NOV. 1, 1934 NUMBER 43

ST. JOE BOY DIES AFTER CRANKINC CAR

John Woodcox, Age 19, Filling Station Employe, Believed to have Ruptured Blood Vessel

Death came suddenly to John Woodcox, aged 19 years, Saturday morning at the Schlink rooming house, 305 South Cedar St., Auburn, where he was employed by Nick Ridlen. He arose at 6 o'clock and at 6:30 he died.

After leaving his room the young man went to where his automobile was parked in front of the rooming house to go to work at the filling station at the junction of Wayne and Van Buren streets. In cranking the car it is thought a blood vessel burst. He returned to his room and told his brother, Homer, that he felt sick and lay down on the bed. Homer prepared some soda for his brother thinking his stomach was out of order and Homer went to the filling station to inform the owner that John would not be able to go to work. When he returned to the room John had died.

John was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcox, of St. Joe, and had been working at the filling station in Auburn since he returned from a CCC camp two months ago. His body was brot to the Kinsey funeral home after Coroner B. O. Shook, of Spencerville held an inquest. The deceased graduated from the St. Joe high school in 1933.

John had been to St. Joe on Friday night to see his parents and to attend the school basket ball games, in order to see his many friends. He made plans to return home for Sunday, and the shocking news of Saturday morning was almost unbelievable.

John Gill Woodcox, son of Charles and Ida Gill Woodcox, was born at Woodburn, Indiana, April 5, 1915, departed this life at Auburn, Ind., Oct. 27, 1934, age 19 years, 6 months and 22 days.

John, as he was known to his many friends, grew to young manhood at his home in St. Joe, Ind. Graduated with honors, from the St. Joe High School in 1933.

At an early age, having been a regular attendant at the church and Sunday School, he acknowledged his Savior and became a member of the Christian Church.

Throughout his life, as a member of the church, he was always a conscientious and enthusiastic worker in the Master's vineyard. Being secretary of the Sunday School at the time of his death.

He was also secretary of the St. Joe High School Alumni Association. He leaves to cherish his short but useful life a father, mother, two brothers, Homer and DeVere, a sister, Maxine, and two grandmothers, Mrs. Martha Woodcox and Mrs. Ella Gill, together with a host of devoted friends.

Funeral services were held from the Christian Church, Monday afternoon, conducted by the pastor, H. K. Schondelmayer. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery,

Mrs. E. R. Kinsey, funeral director.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere gratitude to our many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and help in our time of sorrow, and especially John's and our friends for the many flowers and consoling words which were given us since his passing away. We cannot thank each one personally but all have our most heartfelt thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcox,
Homer, DeVere and Maxine Woodcox.

Fred Ulm and wife were at the World's Fair over the week end and the grandchildren and grandparents had a much more enjoyable time at home.

Judge Dan Link addressed the democratic rally here Monday evening in the gym and he of course did his stuff in fine style. A large number of republican voters were present. Music was furnished.

YOU HAVE A VOTE!

You have a vote. It is the one vote in all the country that you can dedicate certainly and surely to the protection and preservation of your individual rights There are votes all around you. This one may be influenced by a job, that one by the promise of a job, another by a bribe just taken. Yours is the one vote among them that you can follow in the privacy of an election booth and cast for the protection of your freedom and for the protection of your liberty.

Charles Collins and son Everett were recent guests of the World's Fair at Chicago, and they had a fine time. The fair closed on Wednesday this week.

Hallowe'en parties were in profusion Tuesday night.

Big republican rally at Auburn Saturday night with a torch light parade and speeches. See the ad elsewhere in this issue.

About the DeKalb Circuit Court

The operation of the circuit court in an Indiana county is always a matter of interest to the citizens. All have a right to know about this very important institution and how it is being conducted.

Many feel that the election of a judge should be a matter outside of party politics.

Persons equally honest and sincere differ in opinion on this question, and all have a right to so do.

A short report is herein submitted of the DeKalb Circuit Court which it is hoped will be of interest to the voters of DeKalb County, regardless of opinion as to what person shall be judge.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS

Since the present judge of this court has been in charge there have passed through the dockets of the court more than 8,200 civil, criminal and estate trial cases, as well as a large number of guardianships of minors and incompetent adults.

This large volume of business is being disposed of in such a manner that anyone can secure the prompt trial of a case. Delays that sometimes occur are caused by conditions the judge cannot avoid, and will continue to occur in all courts until some changes be made by proper legislation.

THE JUVENILE COURT

In addition to the duties above mentioned, the judge through the juvenile court has control over an average of about one hundred children.

The records of these children, both dependent and delinquent, are usually not open to the public, this consideration being given to those helpless ones, so often the victims of conditions over which they have no control.

By use of so called Mothers' Aid, we are happy to report that more than three-fourths of these children, whose fathers are dead or who have deserted them, are being left with their mothers at a cost of less than twenty cents per child per day. Families are thus kept together and at an expense reduced to less than one-third per child of the cost under the old system.

The present judge of the court does not deserve all the credit for these things. Much of the credit should go to the former judge and efficient probation officers and the board of guardians.

COURT EXPENSE

Taxation has always been a live issue about which the voters are properly interested.

It may be truly stated that the increase of taxes in DeKalb county of the past several years has not been caused by the expense of our court. This is true in face of the fact that the cost of care of dependent children (charged to the court budget) has necessarily been large in the past few years, because of an increase in number of these children.

A comparison of the net expense of our court for 1933 with 1923, which was the first year the undersigned was judge, shows a decrease of $2,949.49. This decrease is respectfully offered for your consideration, and exists although our court is now in session eleven months of the year instead of eight months as in 1923.

This saving in net expense of the court is largely due to the cases venued or sent here from other counties, the expenses of the trials of which are paid by the county sending any such cases here.

The cases sent here from other counties last year were almost three times the number sent per year ten years ago.

The net amount received by DeKalb County for venued cases since 1923 is $12,784.26, and the gross amount is $16,840.65. Of course, these figures do not include what we shall receive for 1934.

COURT OFFICERS

In the appointment of court officials, the present judge attempted to be guided by considerations other than political. At no time have these appointees been all of the same political party. It is not believed that politics should enter into the operation of any court.

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION

It has been a pleasure to submit this report to you. We trust it will meet with your approval. It is believed that service rather than political reward is what the voters want to consider in so vital a matter as the operation of a court.

In the disposition of the large volume of business in the past few years we submit that mistakes have been made. To claim otherwise would not be honest. Of course, some persons having cases in court have been disappointed, but we believe that most of them in the exercise of fairness and of common sense have remained friends.

The undersigned as a candidate has not left the duties of the office to make a campaign, is under no obligation except performance of duty, and stands upon his record.

If you feel as voters that this record deserves support, it will be gratefully received.

WM. P. ENDICOTT,
Candidate for Re-election as Judge,
On the Republican Ticket.

WHO YOU'RE VOTING FOR

SENATOR ARTHUR R. ROBINSON
G. O. P. Candidate
For the United States Senate

With the Churches

ST. JOE CIRCUIT

Methodist Protestant Church
William D Koehnlein, Pastor

St. Joe Church
Sunday School Rally
Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.
Evangelistic Service at 7:30 P. M.
District Meeting Nov. 1 and 2, at Butler Center M. P. Church.
Rally Day Nov. 4th.
Pot luck dinner at noon and all members are asked to participate in this rally service next Sunday.

Concord Church
Sunday School at 9:30.

ST. JOE LUTHERAN CHURCH
23 Sunday after Trinity
Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.
Preaching will be held immediately after Sunday School. Please note the change in time.

SPENCERVILLE
Worship in the evening at 7:00.
Ft. Wayne District Young People Rally at Auburn, Sunday afternoon.

A. H. Fabianske.

Giant Fourth District REPUBLICAN RALLY

-- IN --

Torch Light PARADE

Saturday, November 3. At AUBURN

AT 7:30 P. M. THE FOLLOWING SPEAKERS:

JAMES TUCKER, State Young People's Chairman.
Miss MARGARET WILLIAMS, of Bloomington.

Dance at the Auburn Country Club following the speech

Sponsored by the Young Republican Club

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

BIG AUCTION
COLTS! - COLTS!
AT CONRAD SALE BARN, GRABILL, IND. at 1:00 o'clock, on Saturday, November 3
20 - HEAD COLTS - 20
Of Yearling and two year old Colts consisting of 11 Mares and 9 Horse Colts. These colts are a little thin but re in good shape to go into the winter. Good boned and will develop into good work horses. They are all treated a[illegible] inst shipping fever. Several matched pairs of Bays, D rk Grays, Blacks and Blue Roans.
THEY SELL REGARDLESS. YOU ARE THE BUYER.
George Pancake, Owner
CURT HENDERSON, Auctioneer.

FRANK E. LYON
CANDIDATE FOR
AUDITOR of DeKalb County
YOUR SUPPORT WILL BE APPRECIATED
DEMOCRATIC TICKET ELECTION, NOV. 6, 1934

DO YOU KNOW?

Did you know th t 65% of the total amount now being spent ostensibly for relief work goes for overhead and is not spent for relief?

ELECT DAVID HOGG to CONGRESS and help prevent this wanton waste of your money.

The Federal Government is today spending $10,000 a minute and ccording to William Green, President of The American Federation of Labor, there are actually more men out of work than one year ago.

Do you realize that many men now given employment by the Government will be out of work fter November 6th?

Do you know that Indiana farmers paid $5,729,584 in processing taxes and received $1,441,939 during the first fiscal ye r.?

Do you know that Texas, Jack Garner's State, paid in AAA processing t xes to the total of $10,070,718 and received back $54,933,768? That Arkansas paid in $569,596, and received back $13,792,399? Why not a fair deal?

Do you know th t the National Government is going into debt Four Billion a year, and to raise the deficiency is selling interest-bearing non-taxable bonds to Wall Street?

Do you know that in the l st 18 months 110,000 people have been employed to help run the Government at Washington and their sal ries are more than $400,000,000 a year? David Hogg stopped the CORN BORER waste of money.

DAVID HOGG stands for human relief for those out of work and the aged and infirm. He stands ag inst Government waste.

DAVID HOGG will represent YOU

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 398

Do You Like the McNutt Managed State Prison?

? ? ?

MORE PRISONERS HAVE ESCAPED from this institution in the past year than the total of twenty previous years. Every employe of this prison is a democratic politician.

IS YOUR FAMILY and PROPERTY SAFE when desperate criminals are under the control of politicians rather than tried and capable persons? THIS QUESTION HAS BEEN ANSWERED in the past year.

STOP THE McNUTT PRISON RACKET!

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET NOVEMBER 6th.

—DeKalb County Republican Central Committee.

Harry M. Shull

Republicn Candidate for

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

IF ELECTED, I SHALL WORK FOR A SOUND AND ECONOMIC LEGISLATION

YOUR STPPORT APPRECIATED

Edgar W. Atkinson

— CANDIDATE FOR —

JUDGE

OF DeKALB CIRCUIT COURT
(On Democratic Ticket)
Your Support Will Be Appreciated

Cleve H. Grube

CANDIDATE FOR

Commissioner S. E. District

DeKalb County

LOWER TAXES AND ECONOMY IN OFFICE

Democratic Ticket Your Support Appreciated

Now since the government has stated that strikers may be eligible for relief we are assured of more and longer drawn out strikes in this country this winter.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Butler High School's first and second boys teams play here on Friday evening of this week.

A large crowd witnessed the games with Leo High School played on the home floor last Friday evening. The local reserves played a very good game in the first half but weakened in the second half permitting Leo reserve team to win by a score of 13 to 23. The first team game was a thriller and not until the final minutes of play could the winner be safely predicted. K. Richmond, Thornton, Simanton, J. Kaellner, Frank Mnoroe and C. Baker gave an excellent account of themselves and several fans are predicting a winning team for the season. The final score was 23 to 27.

October Attendance

The state uses the attendance records of September and October in determining the amount of money to be disbursed to schools from certain of the more recent tax laws. We are giving attendance summaries for the local school for the second school month which ended last Friday. First and second grades: Enrollment, 37; number neither tardy nor absent to date, 25; average daily attendance, 36.5; per cent attendance, 98.4. Third and Fourth Grades: Enrollment, 40; number neither tardy nor absent to date, 27; average daily attendance, 39.23; per cent attendance, 98.2. Fifth and Sixth Grades: Enrollment, 40; number neither absent nor tardy to date, 22; average daily attendance, 39.2; per cent attendance, 98. Grades Seven to Twelve: Enrollment, 143, number neither absent nor tardy, 73; average daily attendance, 136; per cent attendance, 96.6.

Absentees last week because of illness were Willis Reinhart of the seventh and Vivian Richmond of the eleventh grades. Both returned to school on Monday of this week.

Home Economics department, under the supervision of Miss Rouls served a special Halloween lunch on Wednesday of this week. Proceeds will be used to provide some equipment for the department.

In a called meeting of the high school athletic association held on Tuesday of last week Ersa Reidenbach, Harriett Yeiser and Walter Ervin were selected as yell leaders for this basketball season.

The St. Joe News office has printed our 1934-1935 basketball schedule. Have you received a copy? The association appreciates very much the ads given by Zonker's Store, Wade Inn, St. Joe Filling Station, and Kinsey's Store.

Arrangements are being made to start serving hot lunch Monday, Nov. 5th. Mrs. Frank Curie is the chairman with Mrs. Wilbur Yeiser and Mrs. Harvey Hull, assisting. The committee together with the school officials met and Mrs. Blanch Leighty was again chosen cook for the coming year. We are sure that with the services of Mrs. Leighty and also Miss Rouls, the new Home Economic teacher, the patrons will be very well satisfied the coming year.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS HOLD CLUB RALLY

District Young Republicans will close their campaign in the Fourth district with a rally held in Auburn Saturday night, November 3rd, according to an announcement made by Dean Ransburg, district chairman of Young Republican clubs.

James M. Tucker, state director of Young Republican clubs, and Miss Margaret Williams, Bloomington attorney, will be the principal speakers.

Preparations are being made to have a torch-light parade preceding the meeting. Delegations from all the counties of the Fourth district will attend, advance announcements indicate Ransburg said.

"This will be our biggest young voters rally and we are asking every effort to make the closing of the campaign an impressive one," the young Republican chairman said.

In Chicago one hundred fifty one-legged men attend the annual convention of the Association of Limb Manufacturers.

WARREN ARNOLD

— FOR —

County Treasurer

REPUBLICAN TICKET

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

DuWayne Kinsey spent a short time here with his mother, Sunday.

Miss Veva Wort, of Hicksville was a week end guest of Clara Wiers.

Carl Carpenter sold 28 head of cattle last week to Stuck & Brunner of Ney, O.

Miss Susan Sechler spent a few days last week at the Wm. Sechler home.

Martin Peters' of Rehoboth were Sunday afternoon callers in the Rolla Wiers home.

Derwood Ridgway has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Lutheran district brotherhood.

The largest turnip yet displayed here is one grown by J. E. Foltz and presented by J. P. Buckingham, weighing six pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Garold Cook, of Hicksville, were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie.

Sharlie Suzanne is the name give nto the 7½ pound daughter of Mr and Mrs. Carleton Shull, who arrived here on last Wednesday.

The farm bureau meeting will be held at the gym Tuesday evening with a play given by Troy and Stafford township workers, entitled, "Mrs. Stubbins Book Agent." Music and regular business.

Robert Wiers, who has been in the CCC camp at Yellowstone Park, has been returned to Indiana, and is now located at Freetown, Jackson county. His parents have just been advised of his return.

U. S. Raut, the republican candidate for Recorder, was in town on Wednesday just before we went to press with this issue. In talking with him, he states his regrets of not being able to call on all of the voters personally. Of course everyone knows "Jake" because of his many years of business affiliations in the county and we assured him that the voters would thoroughly understand the vastness of a campaign, and would remember him at the polls even though he had not made a personal contact with them.

FOR COMMISSIONER

Voters of DeKalb County go to the polls November 6th, and vote for your interests, by voting for William H. Brecbill, of Smithfield Township for County Commissioner. A man that has lived on the same farm since one year old and a heavy taxpayer, and will pledge myself to work and try and get lower taxes.

William H. Brecbill.

SPINK ARMS HOTEL
410 North Meridian Street, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
Comfortable, Convenient, Modern, Quiet Location
Opposite Memorial Plaza

RATES
$2, $2.50 and $3 Single
$4, $4.50 and $5 Double

FIRST-CLASS COFFEE SHOP AND DINING ROOM
Breakfast 25c, 35c 45c
Luncheon 40c, 50c
Full Course Dinner 75c

Every room with bath and shower. Also furnished kitchenette apartment suites at reasonable rates. Garage adjoining, and excellent parking facilities.

HEADQUARTERS
Hoosier State Press Association, Inc.

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET NOVEMBER 6th.

O

STOP!

the McNutt Rackets In INDIANA

O

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET NOVEMBER 6th.

DeKalb County Republican Central Committee.

Court Theatre--Auburn
ANNOUNCES NEW POLICY CHANGE

FREE
MIDNIGHT PREVIEW
— OF —
SUNDAY - MONDAY PROGRAM
COME AS LATE AS
9:30 SATURDAY
SEE 2 PROGRAMS 1 PRICE

Vote for John W. Mertz

A Farmer, A Friend to Labor. His record proves his ability.

Dependability and fairness to all.

Did You Buy School Books this Year?

If not do you know of some relative or friend who did? One of McNutt's promises in the last campaign was that he would not place the burden on the people by changing school books in these times. This promise has been violated.

THE SCHOOL BOOK GRAFT is held by a democratic politician at Bloomington, a close friend of Governor McNutt, and the school book cntracts were let by the McNutt controlled Board of Education at the insistence of Governor McNutt. All who were forced to buy school books were victims of this graft.

STOP McNUTTISM IN INDIANA

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET NOVEMBER 6th.

—DeKalb County Republican Central Committee.

Vote for Edgar W. ATKINSON for JUDGE

AS DeKALB COUNTY HOMES are being flooded with political advertising, we desire to call the voters' attention to our Candidate for Judge of the DeKalb Circuit Court.

Our candidate, Edgar W. Atkinson believes in the principal, that a public office is a public trust and that it is the duty of every public officer to serve the people honestly and economically. He believes that the cost of the operation of this court should be and can be reduced, without imparing its efficiency, and will, if elected, use every endeavor possible to minimize this cost. His broad experience in the DeKalb Circuit Court and in the Courts of adjoining counties leads him to belevee that this can be done.

Mr. Atkinson received his L. L. B. Degree in 1903 and immediately thereafter located in Auburn for the practice of law. By reason of his legal training and his diligent study of law, he has become an outstanding lawyer in Northern Indiana and his clientele can and will vouch for his ability to serve the people, if elected to this position. He is not only a profound lawyer, but he is well fitted by temperament and by practical experience to perform the duties of the office of Judge

Mr. Atkinson believes that political advertising is not necessary and that the voters should make an unbiased choice in the selection of their Circuit Judge, thus assuring that the administration of this public trust will always remain free from political connections and influence. Mr. Atkinson has frequently been called to act as special Judge in this, and other counties in Northern Indiana in the trial of important cases, and we submit his candidacy to you with the knowledge that his common-sense, honesty and justice can not be surpassed.

DeKalb County Democratic Central Committee

It is understood that President Roosevelt is in favor of some form of unemployment insurance and that a bill providing insurance for the unemployed will be introduced in the next Congress. Wisconsin is the only state now offering unemployed insurance.

Herman Kanwischer, Valparaiso, Indiana, included in his last will and testament an order providing that the pallbearers and taxi drivers at his funeral be given a half barrel of beer and $10 each.

NOVEMBER

L 919

U399

Jesse C. Provines

Is well qualifisd to be a good

County AUDITOR

He is worthy YOUR consideration and SUPPORT at the election booth on November 6th.

YOUR SUPPORT SOLICITED

ERNEST E.

TURNER

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

—FOR—

SHERIFF

OF DeKALB COUNTY

YOUR SUPPORT APPRECIATED

Charles E. Miser

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

for COUNTY ASSESSOR

DeKalb Co. Your Support Appreciated.

Calvin C. Kain

-- FOR --

COUNTY SURVEYOR

Registered Engineer — — — 22 Years Experience

Courteous — — Obliging — — Qualified

Your Support Appreciated

County Tickets

REPUBLICAN TICKET

Congress, David Hogg.
Judge, W. P. Endicott.
Prosecutor, George Mounts.
Representative, Harry Shull.
Auditor, Jesse Provines.
Treasurer Warren Arnold.
Recorder, U. S. Raut.
Sheriff, E. E. Turner.
Coroner, Harold Johnson.
Surveyor, Wayne VanAuken.
Assessor, Charles E. Miser.

DEMOCRAT TICKET

Congress, J. I. Farley.
Judge, E. W. Atkinson.
Prosecutor, John Armstrong.
Representative, John W. Mertz.
Auditor, F. E. Lyon
Treasurer, Claud Fitch.
Recorder, Nina M. Little.
Sheriff, Herbert Grimm.
Coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook.
Surveyor, Cal Kain.
Assessor, Eli Cochran.

SPENCERVILLE

Miss Myrtle Howey, a sister of M. H. Howey, died last Wednesday morning at a Fort Wayne hospital. The body was brought to the Walter funeral home, where the funeral was held on Friday afternoon. Rev. Newcombe officiating.

Mrs. Ethel Bowser was a Friday guest at the Ralph Culbertson home.

Mrs. Cora Steward returned home on Friday afternoon after spending several days visiting relatives in Garrett, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kimes moved Thursday from the Otto tenant house into the Wm. Reed property.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wolf of South Bend, were week end guests at the Wm. Reed home. James Reed and wife were Sunday dinner guests.

Mrs. Arla Dwyer and son, Forest, were recent guests at the Philip Chaney home.

Miss Wilda McNabb and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oswalt, of Fort Wayne, Mr and Mrs. Earl McNabb and family, of Auburn, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb and family.

Mrs. Clyde Rectenwall and Mrs. Fred Leighty attended the Seal Sale luncheon at the Irene Byron Sanatorium Thursday.

The Young Ladies Social Club met on Friday evening with Mrs. Vernie Rhodes, north of town. Mrs. Alein Neher was a guest. Those winning prizes were, Mrs. Vernie Rhodes, Mrs. Janice Bowser, Mrs. Cleo Reed and Mrs. Ellen Hart.

Mrs. Audra Wade is spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Janice Bowser and sons and Mrs. Audra Wade were Monday dinner guests at the Frank Butler home.

Messrs Frank Butler and Comp Boots were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Pearl Woods of near Angola.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ora Smith on Monday morning at 8:15, a son, William Eugene. Mrs. Elsie Allen is assisting in the home.

A Rally Day and Home-Coming service will be held next Sunday at the Methodist Church. Sunday School in the morning followed by a pot luck dinner and several week end guests of the latter's ternoon.

The C. C. Club will meet on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 1, at the home of Mrs. Tressie Smith. A mistake was made in the place of meeting last week.

School dinners will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 31 and Nov. 7. The sum of $37.60 was made at the first two dinners.

The Junior class of the High School was pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Josephine Fisher recently. Pot luck supper was enjoyed.

Mrs. Alein Neher and son spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rhodes and family.

Master Buddie Shockley very pleasantly entertained the Busy Bee class of the Methodist Sunday School at a Halloween party at his home Thursday evening.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sunday, Oct. 28, was 78, collection $3.46, special collection $3.27; Lutheran 71, collection $3.06.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Bowser and sons, Jerry and Jimmy, were week end guests of te latter's parparents at Defiance. Other guests on Sunday were the Misses Alice and Ethelyn Baker and Miss Lola Laux.

FRESH FOOT PRINTS

If a dollar is only worth fifty-six cents, what is the fifty-six cents worth?

The National Tuberculosis Association reports that Negroes are three times as subject to tuberculisos as the white race.

There are more telephones in Chicago than in France.

The various forms of heart diseases cause more deaths each year than tuberculosis and cancer combined.

The kind of war we like is a gasoline war.

In Russia, a government official was given the death sentence for stealing some government food.

The 1934 corn crop in the United States is estimated to be the lowest in 53 years.

An Ontario girl swallowed a seven-inch silver fork while she was examining her throat.

The world's largest and most modern distillery is the new Hiram Walker and Sons plant at Peoria. It covers 22 acres of ground and cost $5,000,000.

It costs $16,000 per page for advertising one issue in the American Weekly.

Newspapers are reorganizing their news and editorial staffs. You will no longer be inflicted with "Dizzy and Daffy," "Jafsie and Pretty Boy," "Hugh and Bobbie," and "The American Tragedy." You will now find the columns filled with "passes and touch-downs," "right wings and left wings," and "New Deals and raw deals."

Mayor La Guardia estimates the 1935 New York City budget at $550,416,853.

Now many Californians are being worried about what may happen in that state should Upton Sinclair be elected Governor and launch his EPIC (End Poverty in California) program. It is estimated that thousands of unemployed from the other 47 states will head for California.

A family at Herman, Pennsylvania, owns a German Bible which they claim has been used by their family since 1717; under present use the majority of the Bibles around here will last that long or longer.

"It pays to look well" but what it costs to look well is the thing that bothers most of us.

Otto Plinquist, who back in 1912 survived the sinking of the Titanic by jumping from the doomed liner and swimming for four hours before being rescued, recently drowned in a park swimming pool.

Over 16 million people in the United States are on the Federal relief roll.

"I live to hail that season,
By gifted minds foretold,
When men shall rule by reason,
And not alone by gold;
When man to man united,
And every wrong then righted
The whole world shall be lighted
As Eden was of old."

Voters of DeKalb County

Have You HEARD --THAT--

THE McNUTT forces are claiming credit for the lower property tax rate of the taxes payable in 1933?

This tax, paid in 1933, was for the year of 1932 and was levied before McNUTT was elected governor. BETTER THINK THIS OVER.

The low rate was because of the special session of the legislature, which passed the $1.50 tax law under Governor Leslie in the summer of 1932. McNUTT OPPOSED THIS $1.50 TAX LAW.

CAN YOU TRUST McNUTTISM?

STOP THE McNUTT TAX RACKET

VOTE THE REPUBLICAN ticket on November 6

—DeKalb County Republican Central Committee.

Wayne VanAuken

Republican Candidate for COUNTY

SURVEYOR

Thoroughly Competent Engineer with Highway and Drainage Work. Asking for office for the FIRST TIME.

The closing of the World's Fair on October 31 will be a sad event for about 14,000 employed there that have no job to go home to.

"My son observe the postage stamp," wrote Josh Billings," its usefulness depends upon its ability to stick to one thing until it gets there."

"Time brings all things." Recent reports show that the United States Forest Service is planting mustard in the burned-over timber lands. When I was a lad, my father kept the mustard pulled out of his crops.

ST. JOE

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Koehnlein were hosts to a large delegation of circuit members Tuesday evening sponsored by the local young folks and the Ladies Aid. A good time was had and a lunch was served.

The News comes to you somewhat depleted of its usual news interest because of the fact that Mrs. Leighty has been off duty for several days with a cold in the head and throat, and consequently the linotype department has practically been shut down to the news interests.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you e v e r used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Mrs. Nina M.

LITTLE

Garrett, Keyser twp.

CANDIDATE FOR

County Recorder

Democratic Ticket

Only woman candidate on either ticket. Widow, and a mother of two children. Unemployed.

Efficient, courteous and obliging. Qualified by business experience.

Tax Payer for 33 Years
Resident of County 37 years.

Your kindness shown in voting for me November 6, will be gratefully appreciated.

PHONE 290

Stanley P. Nelson Monuments

Opposite Woodlawn and Rosslawn Cemeteries

AUBURN, IND.

A laugh is the best of medicine--Take a dose

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES"—Just Kid Stuff For The Sergeant By POP MOMAND

NOVEMBER

L 919

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

CIDER: 10c and 20c per gallon. 41tf. Widney Orchard.

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

FOR SALE or TRADE on a used lounge, a Victrola and 50 records. Mrs. C. H. Sailer. 43t1p

WANTED: To buy White and Yellow Onions, any quantity. See George Hart, St. Joe. 42t6.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

WANTED TO BUY: Horseradish roots. Triangle Food Co. 43t3

APPLES, APPLES: A large crop. Depression prices. Widney Orchard, St. Joe. 41tf.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

FOR SALE: Coleman Instant Gas Range, used 4 months. Cost $69.00 new. Mrs. C. H. Sailer. 43t1p

Wanted: Popcorn and potatoes on subscription.

For Sale: 8-ft. x 14-ft. wagon scales, $30.00. St. Joe Flour Mill, St. Joe, Ind. 41t4.

For Sale: An electric range at $50. If interested call News office. 41tf.

FARM WANTED: We have a man who wants to buy in Concord township very soon. See W. D. RICKLE & CO, real estate dealers, Auburn, Indiana. 43t3p

FOR SALE: 1929 Ford, Sport Coupe, $115.00. $25 down, balance $9.00 month. Will take Chickens or Hogs as part down payment. O'Day Oil Station, Leo. 43t1p

FOR SALE: Shropshire Buck. If in the market see J. H. Leighty. 43t1p

FOR SALE: 2 Brood Sows with extra good litter of pigs by side. Ern Jenkins, phone 33F13. 43t1p

FOR SALE: Buffet, bed springs and mattress. See News. 43t1

FOR SALE: Johnathan and Grimes, all firsts at $1.00. Lester Coburn 43t1p

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of William S. Tyndall, deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 10 day of November, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receive their distributive shares.

Witness, My name, this 13th day of October, 1934.

MINNIE TYNDALL, Executrix.

Atkinson & Husselman Atty. 41t3p

The thirty pieces of silver for which Judas betrayed Christ is said to be exactly $11.28 in American money.

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Coburn's Corners

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Oct 28 was 65, collection $2.52.

Mr. and Mrs. McCutcheon and children, of Edon, Ohio, were Sunday dinner guests of Garth Shull and family.

Mrs. Mildred Curie and children Harold, Carlton and Joan, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Laney Gee. Little Carlton, who had one of his fingers almost cut off a week ago, is improving.

Mrs. Golden High, of Spencerville, called on Troas Carpenter Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. English, Bess and Bob Klopfenstein and Joe Close, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday diner guests of Mattie Hart and family.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Abel and son, of Kansas and Johnnie Abel of Auburn, called on relatives in this vicinity Saturday afternoon.

J. S. Shull spent Sunday at Ft. Wayne with one of his granddaughters.

Mrs. LaVon Murphy and children, of Hicksville, spent a few days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mason.

Henry Schoolmaster, of Lansing, Mich., and Albert and John Hart, Jr., of Fort Wayne, called on James Wesley Hart Sunday.

Club News

The Rural Housewife Club and their families gave a fish fry at the home of Claude Laub Monday evening, Oct. 22. There were 57 in attendance, and did they have a good time? Ask anyone present, and did they eat fish? Ask Will Hamilton, he came out ahead with three pounds. Little Ernest Jenkins with 2½ pounds. Did the ladies get enough, ask Hazel Washler. At the business meeting the club voted to incorporate Cheesetown as their work for the coming year, and the men were very enthusiastic in wanting to help the ladies, let them put up their Men and after nominating their tickets Hogg and Farley would have been left in the shade when it comes to swelling up and telling of many things they could put through. But the ladies in a very modest and quiet way showed them that when a woman wills she will. The entire ticket of the ladies carried. Marie Trostel was elected Mayor and in accepting the office, the powerful speech she delivered to her audience the men were more than pleased they got left. They could well see the work was in capable hands.

E. T. COCHRAN
Democratic Candidate for
COUNTY ASSESSOR
YOUR SUPPORT WILL BE APPRECIATED

NEWVILLE

Members of the Newville Christian Church attended the revival services at the Milford Christian Church Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Traxler celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff celebrated their first wedding anniversary, with a 6 o'clock dinner October 29.

George Price and Mr. Ridenour were here Saturday, from Hicksville.

Robert Brunson and Miss Ilah McCrory were united in marriage at the U. B Church, Oct. 28, by Rev. C. W. Moore immediately after the morning services. They were attended by Ethel Brunson and Mr. Sattison.

Mrs. Ina Traxler and Mrs. Mona Gaff spent Saturday in Fort Wayne.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Moore and family attended a Hard Times social Friday evening at the home of Mr. McCann, west of Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Norman and family, of South Bend, visited here over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt.

There were 5 conversions at the evening services at Mt. Pleasant Sunday evening, and 2 at the prayer meeting services, making 7 during the week. Rev. Moore will begin a revival meeting there Nov. 18.

Mrs. Kate Fusselman and Mr. and Mrs. E. Traxler spent Monday afternoon in Garrett with Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Thomas.

Song Misunderstood

Murder was being committed in a nearby home, according to reports sent to the police by a resident. He said women could be heard screaming at the top of their voices. Patrolman rushed to the house and found—two ladies practicing a duet they intended to sing in church Sunday!

That was not in St. Joe because choir interests have been put on the skids.

Local Briefs

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard and son Bobby of Auburn, Mrs. Mary Richmondt of Pittsburgh and Mrs. J. C. Ballentine of Ligonier were Tuesday evening guests of Mrs. Wm. Randall.

E. C. Corn, wife and daughter were over night guests of F. B. Leighty and wife Tuesday. They were enroute home from a trip to the east on business and to visit relatives, to their home at Medford, Oregon.

Sunday dinner guests in the George Kinsey home were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kinsey of Jackson, Mich., Harry Kinsey and family of Hamilton, Geo. Jenkins and wife of Butler, John Willet and Family of Hicksville and Roy Bowser and family of St. Joe.

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

Vote for "JAKE"
Ulysses S. Raut
REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR
County RECORDER
LIFE LONG RESIDENT OF DeKALB COUNTY
YOUR INFLUENCE WILL BE APPRECIATED

JOHN C. ARMSTRONG
(FORMER SHERIFF)
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY
Your Support Solicited

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders
400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH ALL WORK GUARANTEED
Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

Do You Know?

That under the M'NUTT BEER LAW, all beer from out of the state is controlled by ten democratic politicians called importers.

It has just been learned in the Federal Court at Indianapolis that these so-called importers have each been collecting $5,000 per year from each out of the state brewery.

THIS GRAFT, not provided for in the beer law, amounts to thousands of dollars.

DO YOU FAVOR, the distribution of beer in each county under the control of democratic politicians called distributors?

STOP THE M'NUTT BEER GRAFT IN INDIANA
VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET NOVEMBER 6th.
—DeKalb County Republican Central Committee.

Claude P. Fitch
BUTLER TOWNSHIP
CANDIDATE FOR
County Treasurer
A Resident and Taxpayer of County for 40 Years
Democrat Ticket Your Support Solicited

Buy a Milk Goat
FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES
WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.
Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

Indiana's New DRAINAGE ACT is Conceded the BEST in the MIDDLE WEST. Re-Elect
JOHN W. MERTZ, State Representative

For Honest and Courteous
LAW ENFORCEMENT
— ELECT —

HERBERT N. GRIMM
NICK
SHERIFF, Democrat Ticket

With a personal reputation that is impeachable, Nick Grimm has, for the efficient conduct of the Sheriff's office and fe rless enforcement of the law, These Qualifications:

Three years experience as regular deputy Sheriff, and several more as Special Deputy.

Twenty-Six months in the United States Army in the World War. Thirteen months in this country and thirteen months in France.

A Vote for Grimm is a Vote for Efficient, F earless Law Enforcement.

Your Vote Appreciated

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 401

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, NOV. 8, 1934 NUMBER 44

OFFICES IN DeKALB COUNTY ARE DIVIDED THIS YEAR

Democrats Win Seven While Republicans Claim Six of the County Offices.

Of thirteen major offices on the DeKalb county ticket in the election Tuesday, the democrats won seven and the republicans six.

The following democrats were victorious:

Frank E. Lyon, for auditor.
Claude P. Fitch, for treasurer.
Herbert N. Grimm, for sheriff.
Dr. B. O. Shook, for coroner.
Calvin C. Kain, for surveyor.
Wm. H. Brecbill, for commissioner north.
Cleve H. Grube, for commissioner southeast.

Republicans who won the county vote follow:

David Hogg, for congress.
Wm. P. Endicott, for judge.
George E. Mounts, for prosecuting attorney.
Harry M. Shull, for state representative.
U. S. Raut, for recorder.
Chas. E. Miser, for county assessor.

Sherman Minton, democratic candidate for the United States senate, won in DeKalb county over Arthur R. Robinson, the incumbent, by a majority of 16. The vote follows: Minton, 5,982; Robinson, 5,966.

The total vote for each office follows:

For congress, David Hogg 6,089, James I. Farley, 5,969; majority, 120.

For judge, Wm. P. Endicott, 6,070, Edgar W. Atkinson, 5,837; majority, 233.

For prosecuting attorney, Geo. E. Mounts, 6,014, John C. Armstrong, 5,769; majority, 245.

For state representative, Harry M. Shull, 6,328, John W. Mertz, 5,400; majority, 928.

For auditor, Frank E. Lyon, 6,159, Jesse C. Provines 5,679; majority, 480.

For treasurer, Claude P. Fitch, 5,972, Warren Arnold, 5,640; majority, 332.

For recorder, U. S. Raut, 5,960, Nina M. Little, 5,916; majority, 44.

For sheriff, Herbert N. Grimm, 6,209, Ernest E. Turner, 5,696; majority, 513.

For coroner, Dr. B. O. Shook, 6,078, Harold W. Johnson, 5,571; majority, 507.

For surveyor, Calvin C. Kain, 6,179, Wayne T. VanAuken, 5,568; majority, 611.

For county assessor, Chas. E. Miser, 6,232, Eli T. Cochran, 5,428; majority, 804.

For commissioner north, Wm. H. Brecbill, 5,829, Chas. G. Potter, 5,731; majority, 98.

For commissioner southeast, Cleve H. Grube, 5,835, Walter J. Baker, 5,775; majority, 60.

Following were the results in other nearby counties:

VOTE BY PRECINCTS IN DEKALB COUNTY

Official Figures Show Ballots Cast in Each of Forty-Five Polling Places in Tuesday's Election

Following is the official vote in the forty-five precincts in DeKalb county in the election Tuesday:

CONCORD

Congress—Farley 219, Hogg 247. Judge — Atkinson 244, Endicott 218. Prosecutor—Armstrong 234, Mounts 221. Representative—Mertz 203, Shull 245. Auditor—Lyon 233, Provines 232. Treasurer—Fitch 224, Arnold 224. Recorder—Little 209, Raut 248. Sheriff—Grimm 217, Turner 244. Coroner—Shook 271, Johnson 190. Surveyor—Kain 201, VanAuken 256. Assessor—Cochran 221, Miser 240. Commissioner—Brecbill 221, Potter 225. Commissioner—Grube 179, Baker 292.

SPENCER

Congress—Farley 166, Hogg 217. Judge—Atkinson 194, Endicott 178. Prosecutor—Armstrong 186, Mounts 182. Representative — Mertz 159, Shull 203. Auditor—Lyon 182, Provines 190. Treasurer —Fitch 178, Arnold 182. Recorder — Little 186, Raut 185. Sheriff —Grimm 179, Turner 190. Coroner — Shook 200, Johnson 180. Surveyor — Kain 163, VanAuken 209. Assessor—Cochran 167, Miser 197. Commissioner—Brecbill 167, Potter 186. Commissioner—Grube 135, Baker 244.

NEWVILLE

Congress — Farley 111, Hogg 140. Judge—Atkinson 125, Endicott 125. Prosecutor—Armstrong 127, Mounts 115. Representative— Mertz 114, Shull 117. Auditor—Lyon 137, Provines 119. Treasurer — Fitch 123, Arnold 112. Recorder — Little 123, Raut 117. Sheriff — Grimm 121, Turner 122. Coroner — Shook 109, Johnson 131. Surveyor — Kain 117, VanAuken 133. Assessor — Cochran 110, Miser 129. Commissioner—Brecbill 111, Potter 121. Commissioner—Grube 120, Baker 123.

UNION NO. 1

Congress—Farley 119, Hogg 123. Judge—Atkinson 110, Endicott 131. Prosecutor—Armstrong 118, Mounts 120. Representative — Mertz 85, Shull 152. Auditor—Lyon 107, Provines 130. Treasurer — Fitch 107, Arnold 127. Recorder —Little 83, Raut 167. Sheriff — Grimm 110, Turner 129. Coroner — Shook 114, Johnson 121. Surveyor — Kain 127, VanAuken 115. Assessor — Cochran 107, Miser 130. Commissioner—Brecbill 104, Potter 132. Commissioner—Grube 94, Baker 138.

UNION NO. 2

Congress—Farley 196, Hogg 208. Judge—Atkinson 162, Endicott 246. Prosecutor—Armstrong 204, Mounts 197. Representative — Mertz 137, Shull 256. Auditor — Lyon 176, Provines 215. Treasurer — Fitch 173, Arnold 213. Recorder— Little 147, Raut 255. Sheriff — Grimm 197, Turner 202. Coroner — Shook 203, Johnson 190. Surveyor — Kain 220, VanAuken 183. Assessor — Cochran 160, Miser 238. Commissioner—Brecbill 164, Potter 229. Commissioner —Grube 160, Baker 229.

UNION NO. 3

Congress—Farley 158, Hogg 175. Judge—Atkinson 161, Endicott 167. Prosecutor—Armstrong 190, Mounts 131. Representative — Mertz 143, Shull 179. Auditor—Lyon 188, Provines 138. Treasurer — Fitch 165, Arnold 149. Recorder — Little 112, Raut 217. Sheriff — Grimm 171, Turner 156. Coroner — Shook 171, Johnson 147. Surveyor — Kain 206, VanAuken 118. Assessor — Cochran 152, Miser 170. Commissioner—Brecbill 166, Potter 153. Commissioner —Grube 162, Baker 155.

UNION NO. 4

Congress—Farley 228, Hogg 185. Judge—Atkinson 175, Endicott 240. Prosecutor—Armstrong 232, Mounts 183. Representative — Mertz 167, Shull 241. Auditor—Lyon 195, Provines 215. Treasurer — Fitch 215, Arnold 186. Recorder—Little 169, Raut 238. Sheriff — Grimm 213, Turner 203. Coroner — Shook 228, Johnson 176. Surveyor—Kain 251, VanAuken 148. Assessor—Cochran 199, Miser 210. Commissioner—Brecbill 191, Potter 206. Commissioner—Grube 199, Baker 203.

UNION NO. 5

Congress — Farley 131, Hogg 136. Judge—Atkinson 120, Endicott 145. Prosecutor—Armstrong 141, Mounts 120. Representative — Mertz 110, Shull 150. Auditor—Lyon 121, Provines 140. Treasurer — Fitch 129, Arnold 127. Recorder—Little 93, Raut 167. Sheriff — Grimm 144, Turner 121. Coroner — Shook 129, Johnson 127. Surveyor—Kain 147, VanAuken 115. Assessor—Cochran 112, Miser 147. Commissioner—Brecbill 125, Potter 133. Commissioner —Grube 111, Baker 144.

UNION NO. 6

Congress — Farley 161, Hogg 185. Judge—Atkinson 145, Endicott 200. Prosecutor—Armstrong 168, Mounts 170. Representative — Mertz 133, Shull 203. Auditor—Lyon 155, Provines 185. Treasurer — Fitch 155, Arnold 177. Recorder—Little 129, Raut 212. Sheriff — Grimm 165, Turner 175. Coroner — Shook 180, Johnson 141. Surveyor—Kain 197, VanAuken 141. Assessor—Cochran 138, Miser 202. Commissioner—Brecbill 145, Potter 188. Commissioner —Grube 151, Baker 185.

UNION NO. 7

Congress — Farley 143, Hogg 188, Judge—Atkinson 153, Endicott 176. Prosecutor—Armstrong 150, Mounts 179. Representative — Mertz 118, Shull 204. Auditor—Lyon 145, Provines 182. Treasurer — Fitch 144, Arnold 179. Recorder—Little 130, Raut 209. Sheriff — Grimm 182, Turner 193. Coroner—Shook 154, Johnson 165. Surveyor—Kain 154, VanAuken 173. Assessor—Cochran 123, Miser 202. Commissioner—Brecbill 128, Potter 190. Commissioner—Grube 133, Baker 191.

UNION NO. 8

Congress—Farley 173, Hogg 211. Judge—Atkinson 178, Endicott 210. Prosecutor—Armstrong 192, Mounts 190. Representative — Mertz 154, Shull 227. Auditor—Lyon 175, Provines 205. Treasurer — Fitch 173, Arnold 207. Recorder—Little 145, Raut 243. Sheriff — Grimm 190, Turner 201. Coroner — Shook 190, Johnson 189. Surveyor — Kain 197, VanAuken 185. Assessor—Cochran 163, Miser 214. Commissioner—Brecbill 167, Potter 207. Commissioner —Grube 170, Baker 205.

UNION NO. 9

Congress—Farley 151, Hogg 127. Judge—Atkinson 145, Endicott 130. Prosecutor—Armstrong 149, Mounts 124. Representative —Mertz 108, Shull 171. Auditor—Lyon 150, Provines 125. Treasurer — Fitch 141, Arnold 129. Recorder — Little 89, Raut 191. Sheriff — Grimm 133, Turner 146. Coroner — Shook 153, Johnson 119. Surveyor — Kain 152, VanAuken 127. Assessor —Cochran 140, Miser 131. Commissioner—Brecbill 137, Potter 146. Commissioner—Grube 124, Baker 148.

UNION NO. 10

Congress — Farley 70, Hogg 79. Judge — Atkinson 65, Endicott 79. Prosecutor — Armstrong 67, Mounts 75. Representative — Mertz 51, Shull 88. Auditor — Lyon 63, Provines 80. Treasurer — Fitch 61, Arnold 79. Recorder — Little 43, Raut 101. Sheriff — Grimm 59, Turner 86. Coroner — Shook 61, Johnson 73. Surveyor — Kain 51, VanAuken 91. Assessor — Cochran 58, Miser 83. Commissioner—Brecbill 63, Potter 78. Commissioner — Grube 57, Baker 83.

KEYSER NO. 1

Congress — Farley 58, Hogg 35. Judge — Atkinsin 45, Endicott 38. Prosecutor — Armstrong 43, Mounts 34. Representative — Mertz 51, Shull 25. Auditor — Lyon 58, Provines 26. Treasurer — Fitch 56, Arnold 23. Recorder — Little 55, Raut. 29. Sheriff — Grimm 52, Turner 30. Corner—Shook 52, Johnson 24. Surveyor — Kain 51, VanAuken 32. Assessor—Cochran 45, Miser 33. Commissioner—Brecbill 51, Potter 24. Commissioner—Grube 55, Baker 25.

KEYSER NO. 2

Congress — Farley 58, Hogg 75. Judge — Atkinson 60, Endicott 70. Prosecutor — Armstrong 50, Mounts 81. Representative —Mertz 57, Shull 71. Auditor—Lyon 66, Provines 66. Treasurer—Fitch 69, Arnold 61. Recorder—Little 67, Raut 64. Sheriff —Grimm 64, Turner 67. Coroner—Shook 67, Johnson 60. Surveyor—Kain 51, VanAuken 78. Assessor—Cochran 65, Miser 65. Commissioner —Brecbill 72, Potter 55. Commissioner—Grube 63, Baker 65.

KEYSER NO. 3

Congress — Farley 83, Hogg 91. Judge—Atkinson 75, Endicott 100. Prosecutor — Armstrong 71, Mounts 101. Representative — Mertz 80, Shull 90. Auditor — Lyon 75, Provines 95. Treasurer — Fitch 83, Arnold 86. Recorder — Little 95, Raut 78. Sheriff — Grimm 76, Turner 100. Coroner — Shook 84, Johnson 86. Surveyor — Kain 69, VanAuken 105. Assessor—Cochran 72, Miser 101. Commissioner—Brecbill 77, Potter 90. Commissioner—Grube 74, Baker 95.

(Continued on Page Two)

Official Township Candidate Vote

CONCORD TOWNSHIP

Democrat Ticket		Republican Ticket
For Trustee		For Trustee
Ern W. Johnson	227	Abner W. Trostel	254
		Trostel Majority,	27
For Advisory Board		For Advisory Board
Royce Gibford	199	Frank Akins	264
For Advisory Board		For Advisory Board
Roy Wade	210	Edward Schrader	246
For Advisory Board		For Advisory Board
Adrian Washler	231	Samuel S. Wyatt	233

SPENCER TOWNSHIP

Democrat Ticket		Republican Ticket
For Trustee		For Trustee
F. E. Rhodes	207	Claude Laub	183
For Advisory Board		For Advisory Board
Lloyd Goldsmith	183	John Koch	201
Mervin Place	182	Frank Beams	189
John Ulm	172	James Reed	194

RE-ELECTED JUDGE

Hon. Wm. P. Endicott

REVIVAL SERIES TO OPEN SUNDAY

The Rev. William D. Koehnlein, pastor of the St. Joe Methodist Protestant Church, announced that the church will begin a campaign of evangelism Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Koehnlein will be his own evangelist, preaching Sunday morning at 10:30 and every evening at 7:30 o'clock except Saturday.

The musical program of the revival meetings will be under the direction of Sam Hara, of Detroit, Mich. Also Mr. Hara will be in charge of the children's service every evening at 7:00 P. M. Souvenirs will be given to each child present

Mr. Hara will arrive in the town the middle of the week and will immediately organize a chorus choir which will sing in the revival meetings each evening. All who would like to sing in this choir are urged to meet at the parsonage Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

The schedule of services for the first week will be as follows:

Sunday morning at 10:30 and evening at 7:30 o'clock.
Monday, "Children's Night.
Tuesday, "Ladies Aid Night."
Wednesday, "Question Night."
Thursday, "Family Night."
Friday, "Christian Church Night." Rev. H. A. Schondelmayer will deliver the message.

The Ladies Aid will meet today (Thursday) with Mrs. Addie Koch, in an all day meeting. The ladies of the church are all requested to be present and bring thimbles, as there will be sewing during the day. At noon pot luck dinner will be enjoyed.

Meeting of the four churches Thursday evening at Concord.

Young People's gathering at the Parsonage Tuesday evening, before Thanksgiving when the Co-Aid class of the St. Joe Sunday School will entertain the young people of the Concord, Milan Center and Harlan Sunday Schools.

AN ENJOYABLE SURPRISE

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Ricket, of Anderson St., Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Webster, of Stafford township, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Rickett and three children, Mrs. Hattie Draggoo, son, Clifton, wife and baby, Sally, of Concord, went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Rickett, Sunday to spend the day with the only uncle and aunt left on the Rickett side. Pot luck dinner was enjoyed and the host and hostess were completely and happily surprised.

The open season on rabbits starts next Monday. There is a bag limit of ten rabbits during the open season extending from Nov. 12 to Jan. 10. It is unlawful to hunt rabbits or other game with a ferret or to have a ferret in possession except under permit from the director of the Division of Fish and Game.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE OPENING

Of Our Remodeled Store.
A Real Celebration
-- STARTS --
SATURDAY

No brass bands....no free gifts....but a store full of real values made possible thru our joining and co-operating with more than 1,200 other home owned Federated Stores. You'll find our store modernized from front to back....brimming full and overflowing with new merchandise fresh from the leading markets You'll find the kind of values that will definitely mark this store the learing shopping center of Auburn.

New Fall Coats at McBride's

New materials, newer fur treatments, better service, lower prices, at McBride's House of Fashion. Come in Saturday, you'll find an unusually large assortment from which to make your selection, a representativ to advise and assist you, and coat prices from $8.88 up

Silk and Wool Dresses

Last minute styles, sport and dress models. All sizes and many colors to start this sale Saturday, but just remember they will sell fast at this price and the early buyer will get the choice.

$1.98

Full Fashioned Hosiery

Full fashioned! Perfect! In the new fall shades! These lovely hose will satisfy your desire for beauty as well as give you lasting wear. Panel heel! Cradle sole! Picot tops!

49c Pair.

McBride's Federated Store
AUBURN, - - - INDIANA

Office Phone: 37W. Residence Phone: 37J

Kinsey Funeral Home
AMBULANCE SERVICE
LICENSED EMBALMER
(Lady Attendant)
HARDWARE AND FURNITURE
Just a little cheaper— Be sure and ask for tickets

Consider Your Winters Fuel

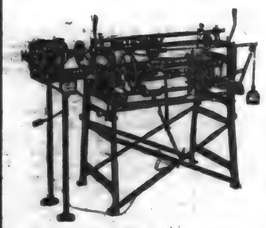
cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.



Ice Skates Hollow Ground
--on the--
Ideal Sharpener
WORK FULLY GUARANTEED

Geo. Gelhousen, 319 S. Randolph St. Phone 496 R Garrett, Ind.

Court Theatre--Auburn
ANNOUNCES NEW POLICY CHANGE
FREE
MIDNIGHT PREVIEW
—OF—
SUNDAY - MONDAY PROGRAM
COME AS LATE AS
9:30 SATURDAY
SEE 2 PROGRAMS 1 PRICE

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 402

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

ELECTION RETURNS
(Continued From Page One)

KEYSER NO. 4
Congress — Farley 66, Hogg 51. Judge — Atkinson 68, Endicott 47. Prosecutor — Armstrong 68, Mounts 49. Representative — Mertz 63, Shull 54. Auditor — Lyon 66, Provines 52. Treasurer — Fitch 75, Arnold 43. Recorder — Little 71, Raut 47. Sheriff — Girmm 62, Turner 55. Coroner — Shook 71, Johnson 44. Surveyor — Kain 67, VanAuken 51. Assessor — Cochran 66, Miser 50. Commissioner—Brecbill 74, Potter 41. Commissioner—Grube 66, Baker 50.

KEYSER NO. 5
Congress—Farley 221, Hogg 223. Judge—Atkinson 197, Endicott 234. Prosecutor—Armstrong 138, Mounts 301. Representative — Mertz 230, Shull 193. Auditor—Lyon 215, Provines 207. Treasurer — Fitch 254, Arnold 168. Recorder — Little 321, Raut 122. Sheriff — Grimm 244, Turner 184. Coroner — Shook 246, Johnson 170. Surveyor — Kain 247, VanAuken 178. Assessor—Cochran 178, Miser 230. Commissioner—Brecbill 247, Potter 178. Commissioner Grube 228, Baker 182.

KEYSER NO. 6
Congress—Farley 309, Hogg 174. Judge—Atkinson 283, Endicott 194. Prosecutor—Armstrong 244, Mounts 234. Representative — Mertz 302, Shull 158. Auditor—Lyon 296, Provines 166. Treasurer — Fitch 331, Arnold 136. Recorder — Little 375, Raut 109. Sheriff— Grimm 320, Turner 157. Coroner — Shook, 316, Johnson 139. Surveyor — Kain 324, VanAuken 145. Assessor—Cochran 274, Miser 187. Commissioner—Brecbill 302, Potter 157. Commissioner —Grube 309, Baker 147.

KEYSER NO. 7
Congress—Farley 179, Hogg 132. Judge—Atkinson 153, Endicott 146. Prosecutor—Armstrong 128, Mounts 172. Representative — Mertz 172, Shull 119. Auditor — Lyon 175, Provines 111. Treasurer — Fitch 189, Arnold 98. Recorder — Little 241, Raut 70. Sheriff — Grimm 189, Turner 108. Coroner—Shook 180, Johnson 111. Surveyor — Kain 196, VanAuken 96. Assessor — Cochran 164, Miser 131. Commissioner—Brecbill 163, Potter 108. Commissioner —Grube 179, Baker 109.

KEYSER NO. 8
Congress — Farley 171, Hogg 91. Judge — Atkinson 155, Endicott 95 Prosecutor—Armstrong 132, Mounts 122. Representative — Mertz 156, Shull 87. Auditor—Lyon 147, Provines 91. Treasurer — Fitch 179, Arnold 67. Recorder — Little 199, Raut 59. Sheriff — Grimm 165, Turner 87. Coroner — Shook 168, Johnson 75. Surveyor — Kain 173, VanAuken 71. Assessor —Cochran 49, Miser 97. Commissioner—Brecbill 164, Potter 76. Commissioner—Grube 160, Baker 81.

KEYSER NO. 9
Congress — Farley 181, Hogg 95. Judge—Atkinson 160, Endicott 113. Prosecutor—Armstrong 132, Mounts 152. Representative — Mertz 174, Shull 88. Auditor—Lyon 163, Provines 192. Treasurer — Fitch 185, Arnold 75. Recorder — Little 188, Raut 79. Sheriff — Grimm 174, Turner 98. Coroner — Shook 172, Johnson 86. Surveyor — Kain 169, VanAuken 89. Assessor — Cochran 162, Miser 102. Commissioner—Brecbill 173, Potter 82. Commissioner—Grube 173, Baker 81.

KEYSER NO. 10
Congress — Farley 93, Hogg 57. Judge—Atkinson 92. Endicott 54. Prosecutor—Armstrong 79, Mounts 46. Representative — Mertz 89, Shull 51. Auditor — Lyon 87, Provines 56. Treasurer — Fitch 100, Arnold 41. Recorder — Little 108, Raut 40. Sheriff — Grimm 97, Turner 50. Coroner — Shook 100, Johnson 41. Surveyor — Kain 90, VanAuken 54. Assessor — Cochran 89, Miser 51. Commissioner—Brecbill 95, Potter 46. Commissioner—Grube 93, Baker 48.

WILMINGTON NO. 1
Congress—Farley 133, Hogg 194. Judge—Atkinson 149, Endicott 178. Prosecutor—Armstrong 144, Mounts 176. Representative — Mertz 135, Shull 181. Auditor—Lyon 189, Provines 142. Treasurer — Fitch 150, Arnold 166. Recorder — Little 168, Raut 157. Sheriff — Grimm 180, Turner 144. Coroner — Shook 117, Johnson 212. Surveyor — Kain 160, VanAuken 161. Assessor — Cochran 133, Miser 193. Commissioner—Brecbill 132, Potter 186. Commissioner—Grube 176, Baker 147.

WILMINGTON NO. 2
Congress—Farley 118, Hogg 179. Judge—Atkinson 102, Endicott 198. Prosecutor—Armstrong 133, Mounts 161. Representative —Mertz 121, Shull 156. Auditor—Lyon 156, Provines 139. Treasurer — Fitch 122, Arnold 153. Recorder — Little 146, Raut 145. Sheriff — Grimm 150, Turner 140. Coroner — Shook 95, Johnson 197. Surveyor — Kain 135, VanAuken 148. Assessor — Cochran 109, Miser 172. Commissioner—Brecbill 115, Potter 189. Commissioner —Grube 142, Baker 151.

WILMINGTON NO. 3
Congress — Farley 93, Hogg 143. Judge—Atkinson 100, Endicott 150. Prosecutor—Armstrong 109, Mounts 127. Representative — Mertz 95, Shull 140. Auditor—Lyon 124, Provines 119. Treasurer — Fitch 105, Arnold 130. Recorder — Little 116, Raut 126. Sheriff — Grimm 114, Turner 132. Coroner — Shook 81, Johnson 165. Surveyor — Kain 104, VanAuken 135. Assessor — Cochran 89, Miser 156. Commissioner—Brecbill 96, Potter 143. Commissioner—Grube 126, Baker 119.

WILMINGTON NO. 4
Congress — Farley 83, Hogg 124. Judge—Atkinson 83, Endicott 121. Prosecutor—Armstrong 85, Mounts 114. Representative — Mertz 74, Shull 124. Auditor — Lyon 91, Provines 120. Treasurer — Fitch 79, Arnold 121. Recorder — Little 87, Raut 119. Sheriff — Grimm 97, Turner 113. Coroner — Shook 69, Johnson 138. Surveyor — Kain 83, VanAuken 122. Assessor — Cochran 72, Miser 129. Commissioner—Brecbill 74, Potter 125. Commissioner—Grube 94, Baker 114.

WILMINGTON NO. 5
Congress—Farley 115, Hogg 113. Judge—Atkinson 110, Endicott 126. Prosecutor—Armstrong 120, Mounts 106. Representative — Mertz 114, Shull 114. Auditor—Lyon 138, Provines 94. Treasurer — Fitch 122, Arnold 104. Recorder — Little 106, Raut 121. Sheriff — Grimm 116, Turner 116. Coroner — Shook 98, Johnson 134. Surveyor — Kain 106, VanAuken 123. Assessor — Cochran 100, Miser 123. Commissioner—Brecbill 119, Potter 107. Commissioner —Grube 106, Baker 122.

GRANT NO. 1
Congress—Farley 174, Hogg 169. Judge—Atkinson 167, Endicott 185. Prosecutor—Armstrong 162, Mounts 174. Representative—Mertz 149, Shull 196. Auditor—Lyon 183, Provines 158. Treasurer—Fitch 157, Arnold 177. Recorder—Little 174, Raut 173. Sheriff—Grimm 186, Turner 163. Coroner—Shook 165, Johnson 171. Surveyor—Kain 180, VanAuken 162. Assessor—Cochran 149, Miser 200. Commissioner—Brecbill 186, Potter 160. Commissioner —Grube 171, Baker 163.

GRANT NO. 2
Congress—Farley 159, Hogg 207. Judge—Atkinson 159, Endicott 201. Prosecutor—Armstrong 165, Mounts 187. Representative — Mertz 151, Shull 203. Auditor—Lyon 176, Provines 174. Treasurer — Fitch 157, Arnold 194. Recorder — Little 174, Raut 183. Sheriff — Grimm 199, Turner 166. Coroner — Shook 157, Johnson 191. Surveyor — Kain 175, VanAuken 176. Assessor — Cochran 140, Miser 218. Commissioner—Brecbill 179, Potter 171. Commissioner—Grube 168, Baker 178.

GRANT NO. 3
Congress — Farley 85, Hogg 87. Judge — Atkinson 78, Endicott 93. Prosecutor—Armstrong 87, Mounts 84. Representative — Mertz 75, Shull 93. Auditor—Lyon 86, Provines 83. Treasurer — Fitch 83, Arnold 85. Recorder — Little 75, Raut 90. Sheriff — Grimm 90, Turner 82. Coroner — Shook 89, Johnson 78. Surveyor — Kain 80, VanAuken 86. Assessor — Cochran 88, Miser 85. Commissioner—Brecbill 89, Potter 78. Commissioner—Grube 83, Baker 82.

RICHLAND NORTH
Congress — Farley 117, Hogg 119. Judge—Atkinson 135, Endicott 96. Prosecutor—Armstrong 82, Mounts 148. Representative — Mertz 90, Shull 142. Auditor—Lyon 114, Provines 119. Treasurer — Fitch 77, Arnold 161. Recorder — Little 96, Raut 134. Sheriff — Grimm 108, Turner 123. Coroner — Shook 118, Johnson 113. Surveyor — Kain 115, VanAuken 117. Assessor — Cochran 101, Miser 132. Commissioner—Brecbill 107, Potter 121. Commissioner—Grube 111, Baker 113.

RICHLAND SOUTH
Congress—Farley 105, Hogg 106. Judge—Atkinson 110, Endicott 93. Prosecutor—Armstrong 89, Mounts 116. Representative — Mertz 87, Shull 112. Auditor—Lyon 108, Provines 89. Treasurer — Fitch 82, Arnold 125. Recorder — Little 98, Raut 106. Sheriff — Grimm 109, Turner 96. Coroner — Shook 101, Johnson 99. Surveyor — Kain 93, VanAuken 113. Assessor — Cochran 97, Miser 101. Commissioner—Brecbill 102, Potter 99. Commissioner—Grube 91, Baker 104.

JACKSON NORTH
Congress—Farley 128, Hogg 130. Judge—Atkinson 146, Endicott 99. Prosecutor—Armstrong 138, Mounts 105. Representative — Mertz 130, Shull 118. Auditor—Lyon 136, Provines 113. Treasurer — Fitch 143, Arnold 95. Recorder — Little 103, Raut 140. Sheriff — Grimm 142, Turner 103. Coroner — Shook 139, Johnson 104. Surveyor — Kain 132, VanAuken 113. Assessor — Cochran 125, Miser 119. Commissioner—Brecbill 128, Potter 107. Commissioner—Grube 129, Baker 113.

JACKSON SOUTH
Congress — Farley 138, Hogg 142. Judge — Atkinson 143, Endicott 119. Prosecutor—Armstrong 137, Mounts 135. Representative — Mertz 123, Shull 136. Auditor — Lyon 137, Provines 122. Treasurer—Fitch 140. Arnold 120. Recorder — Little 117, Raut 149. Sheriff — Grimm 141, Turner 130. Coroner — Shook 163, Johnson 105. Surveyor — Kain 131, VanAuken 130. Assessor — Cochran 135, Miser 120. Commissioner—Brecbill 116, Potter 122. Commissioner—Grube 116, Baker 148.

SMITHFIELD NORTH
Congress — Farley 139, Hogg 79. Judge—Atkinson 134, Endicott 63. Prosecutor—Armstrong 130, Mounts 86. Representative — Mertz 127, Shull 88. Auditor — Lyon 137, Provines 78. Treasurer — Fitch 138, Arnold 74. Recorder — Little 129, Raut 86. Sheriff — Grimm 124, Turner 94. Coroner — Shook 138, Johnson 77. Surveyor — Kain 131, VanAuken 85. Assessor — Cochran 138, Miser 87. Commissioner—Brecbill 133, Potter 84. Commissioner—Grube 136, Baker 74.

SMITHFIELD NORTHWEST
Congress—Farley 119, Hogg 133. Judge—Atkinson 115, Endicott 116. Prosecutor—Armstrong 122, Mounts 168. Representative — Mertz 123, Shull 107. Auditor — Lyon 121, Provines 105. Treasurer — Fitch 113, Arnold 118. Recorder — Little 131, Raut 103. Sheriff — Grimm 132, Turner 108. Coroner — Shook 119, Johnson 106. Surveyor — Kain 118, VanAuken 103. Assessor — Cochran 133, Miser 114. Commissioner—Brecbill 118, Potter 112. Commissioner Grube 122, Baker 102.

SMITHFIELD SOUTH
Congress — Farley 102, Hogg 117. Judge — Atkinson 109, Endicott 105. Prosecutor—Armstrong 103, Mounts 108. Representative — Mertz 96, Shull 120. Auditor—Lyon 111, Provines 99. Treasurer — Fitch 90, Arnold 119. Recorder Little 99, Raut 116. Sheriff — Grimm 111, Turner 104. Coroner — Shook 112, Johnson 99. Surveyor — Kain 96, VanAuken 115. Assessor — Cochran 94, Miser 115. Commissioner—Brecbill 127, Potter 81. Commissioner—Grube 100, Baker 105.

FRANKLIN WEST
Congress—Farley 132, Hogg 104. Judge—Atkinson 129, Endicott 108. Prosecutor—Armstrong 138, Mounts 90. Representative—Mertz 120, Shull 109. Auditor—Lyon 146, Provines 82. Treasurer—Fitch 130, Arnold 99. Recorder—Little 129, Raut 101. Sheriff—Grimm 143, Turner 94. Coroner—Shook 132, Johnson 100. Surveyor—Kain 148, VanAuken 85. Assessor—Cochran 115, Miser 119. Commissioner—Brecbill 105, Potter 126. Commissioner—Grube 151, Baker 77.

FRANKLIN EAST
Congress—Farley 78, Hogg 140. Judge—Atkinson 80, Endicott 132. Prosecutor—Armstrong 77, Mounts 132. Representative—Mertz 59, Shull 149. Auditor—Lyon 78, Provines 126. Treasurer—Fitch 69, Arnold 135. Recorder—Little 77, Raut 133. Sheriff—Grimm 104, Turner 112. Coroner—Shook 57, Johnson 157. Surveyor—Kain 83, VanAuken 130. Assessor—Cochran 53, Miser 152. Commissioner—Brecbill 59, Potter 158. Commissioner—Grube 85, Baker 126.

FAIRFIELD WEST
Congress — Farley 96, Hogg 65. Judge — Atkinson 91, Endicott 65. Prosecutor — Armstrong 86, Mounts 70. Representative—Mertz 90, Shull 68. Auditor — Lyon 91, Provines 58. Treasurer — Fitch 70, Arnold 87. Recorder — Little 86, Raut 68. Sheriff — Grimm 84, Turner 72. Coroner — Shook 95, Johnson 60. Surveyor — Kain 85, VanAuken 72. Assessor — Cochran 74, Miser 74. Commissioner — Brecbill 82, Potter 68. Commissioner — Grube 77, Baker 70.

FAIRFIELD EAST
Congress — Farley 112, Hogg 111. Judge—Atkinson 117, Endicott 100. Prosecutor—Armstrong 98, Mounts 122. Representative — Mertz 109, Shull 114. Auditor — Lyon 114; Provines 107. Treasurer—Fitch 98, Arnold 124. Recorder—Little 106, Raut 116. Sheriff — Grimm 106, Turner 117. Coroner — Shook 115, Johnson 103. Surveyor—Kain 101, VanAuken 118. Assessor — Cochran 110, Miser 110. Commissioner—Brecbill 114, Potter 104. Commissioner —Grube 110, Baker 106.

STAFFORD
Congress — Farley 90, Hogg 64. Judge—Atkinson 97 Endicott 63. Prosecutor—Armstrong 92, Mounts 60. Representative — Mertz 86, Shull 66. Auditor—Lyon 109, Provines 50. Treasurer — Fitch 91, Arnold 61. Recorder — Little 95, Raut 61. Sheriff — Grimm 95, Turner 57. Coroner — Shook 81, Johnson 74. Surveyor — Kain 82, VanAuken 75. Assessor —Cochran 89, Miser 63. Commissioner—Brecbill 91, Potter 61. Commissioner—Grube 110, Baker 51.

TROY
Congress — Farley 45, Hogg 139. Judge—Atkinson 56, Endicott 124. Prosecutor—Armstrong 54, Mounts 122. Representative —Mertz 39, Shull 130. Auditor — Lyon 78, Provines 99. Treasurer — Fitch 44, Arnold 129. Recorder — Little 64, Raut 210. Sheriff — Grimm 50, Turner 125. Coroner — Shook 40, Johnson 135. Surveyor — Kain 54, VanAuken 117. Assessor — Cochran 54, Miser 118. Commissioner—Brecbill 60, Potter 116. Commissioner—Grube 66, Baker 112.

BUTLER TOWNSHIP
Congress—Farley 163, Hogg 200. Judge—Atkinson 165, Endicott 185. Prosecutor—Armstrong 174, Mounts 180. Representative—Mertz 162, Shull 195. Auditor—Lyon 169, Provines 135. Treasurer—Fitch 198, Arnold 169. Recorder—Little 167, Raut 188. Sheriff—Grimm 163, Turner 196. Coroner—Shook 179, Johnson 165. Surveyor—Kain 168, VanAuken 168. Assessor—Cochran 157, Miser 185. Commissioner Brecbill 161, Potter 181. Commissioner —Grube 170, Baker 175.

FARLEY RE-ELECTED BY 4,175 MAJORITY

Auburn Congressman's Big Lead in Allen County Over David Hogg Gives Him Victory

James I. Farley was re-elected Representative in Congress from the fourth district Tuesday by a majority of 4,175, according to almost complete unofficial returns. All precincts in other counties were in, but four precincts were still unreported in Allen county.

Congressman Farley's majority in Allen county was 3,936, and his majority in the fourth district outside of Allen county was but 125. His Republican opponent, David Hogg, at one time trailed Farley by only seven votes, in the district outside of Allen county, but he was snowed under by the Allen county vote.

Sherman Minton, Democratic senate candidate, won in the Fort Wayne area, as well as in the fourth district, over his Republican incumbent opponent, Sen. Arthur R. Robinson, by a comfortable majority.

The tabulated vote in the race for Fourth District congressman was:

ALLEN COUNTY
Farley—26,977.
Hogg—23,041.
Farley's Majority—3,936.
LAGRANGE COUNTY
Farley—2,713.
Hogg—2,318.
Hogg's Majority—105.
STEUBEN COUNTY
Farley—3,008.
Hogg—4,204.
Hogg's Majority—1,201.
NOBLE COUNTY
Farley—5,193.
Hogg—5,884.
Hogg's Majority—691.
DEKALB COUNTY
Hogg—6,089.
Farley—5,969.
Hogg's majority—120.
WHITLEY COUNTY
Farley—4,211.
Hogg—4,192.
Farley's Majority—19.
WELLS COUNTY
Farley—5,143.
Hogg—3,975.
Farley's Majority—1,348.
ADAMS COUNTY
Farley—4,377.
Hogg—3,616.
Farley's Majority—761.

Tabulation of the vote for Sherman Minton, Democrat, and the Republican incumbent, Arthur R. Robinson, in the race for U. S. Senator showed:

ALLEN COUNTY
(Four precincts unreported.)
Robinson—22,828.
Minton—27,172.
Minton Majority—4,344.
LAGRANGE COUNTY
Robinson—2,975.
Minton—2,548.
Robinson Majority—427.
STEUBEN COUNTY
Robinson—4,068.
Minton—3,050.
Robinson Majority—1,018.
NOBLE COUNTY
Robinson—5,042.
Minton—4,467.
Robinson Majority—575.
DEKALB COUNTY
Robinson—5,966.
Minton—5,982.
Minton's majority—16.
WHITLEY COUNTY
Robinson—4,046.
Minton—4,331.
Minton Majority—285.
WELLS COUNTY
Robinson—3,538.
Minton—5,341.
Minton Majority—1,803.
ADAMS COUNTY
Robinson—3,152.
Minton—4,846.
Minton Majority—694.
WABASH COUNTY
Robinson—6,763.
Minton—5,477.
Robinson Majority—286.
HUNTINGTON COUNTY
Robinson—5,480.
Minton—5,599.
Minton Majority—119.
KOSCIUSKO COUNTY
Robinson—7,698.
Minton—5,882.
Robinson Majority—1,816.

REPUBLICANS ELECT ONE CONGRESSMAN

Frederick Landis of Logansport Only G. O. P. Candidate to Oust Indiana Democrat Congressman

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7. — Thirteen democrats and one republican will represent Indiana in congress again next year but the lone republican will be a member of the lower house.

Almost complete returns from Tuesday's election at 4 o'clock this afternoon showed that eleven of the 12 democratic representatives were re-elected while Sherman Minton was displacing Arthur R. Robinson in the senate.

Although there was still a remote chance that another republican might be elected to the house, returns were just about conclusive.

The lone republican to be elected was Frederick Landis, Logansport, who defeated George R. Durgan, Lafayette, in the second congressional district.

Minton maintained a comfortable lead over Robinson, returns from 3,184 of the state's 3,835 precincts giving:

Minton 630,616.
Robinson 581,488.

The two democrats, besides Durgan, who faced the stiffest opposition in the congressional race were Mrs. Virginia Jenckes, Terre Haute sixth district representative, and Finly Gray, Connersville, both 10th district representatives.

With 215 out of 359 precincts in her district reported, Mrs. Jenckes held a lead of only 38,943 to 38,660 over Fred S. Purnell, a former congressman.

Only a few of the Vigo county precincts where Mrs. Jenckes has her best support, had been reported, however.

Gray fought a nip and tuck battle with Robert F. Murray, Muncie but the final count is expected to give the incumbent a lead of nearly 2,000.

In 279 out of 336 precincts in the 10th district, Gray was leading 48,293 to 45,652.

Samuel Pettengill, South Bend, third district; James I. Farley, Auburn, fourth district and Arthur Greenwood, Washington, seventh district, were faced with close contests in early returns but gradually outdistanced their republican foes.

Victory for New Deal

Minton's victory was a victory for the new deal in Indiana

Throughout his campaign he pledged his full support to the recovery program of the national administration.

Robinson, on the other hand, was the new deal's most severe critic.

Minton carried the entire democratic slate of state officers to victory, each of the candidates receiving approximately the same number of votes as accorded him.

This fact indicated that the voters stuck to a straight ticket, except for a minority who "scratched" in the congressional race.

Minton's election also was considered a personal victory for Gov. Paul V. McNutt.

Robinson forgot national issues on behalf of Minton.

Minton surprised even his closest followers by carrying both Lake and Marion counties, normally republican, by wide margins.

In fact it was in Marion county that he piled up the majority early last night which assured his election almost from the start.

Minton sprang almost from obscurity to United States senator.

Shortly after taking office, Governor McNutt appointed Minton to the post of public counselor of the Public Service commission. In utility rate reductions of $3,000,000.

Minton was nominated for senator during a bitter democratic state convention last June. He was selected for the job by Pleas Greenlee, patronage secretary of the administration, who finally won the governor over to the youthful attorney's candidacy.

The anti-McNutt element in the party wanted R. Earl Peters nominated but Minton swung the convention.

LODIE POTTER TO BE AUBURN MAYOR

Lodie Potter, now a city councilman, was elected mayor of Auburn Tuesday on the republican ticket, defeating Warren Lige, the incumbent, 1,672 to 1,086, or a majority of 586.

The republicans also took all the other city offices excepting one councilman. Forrest E. Potter was chosen for clerk-treasurer over Carl E. Wimer by 1,574 to 1,158, or a majority of 416. The republican councilmen-elect are C. H. Romeiser, Harve B. Elson, Wayne Smith and Noah E. Yoder. The democrat elected to the council is Myron Brandon, who is now a member of that body.

The vote for the republican candidates for councilmen follows: C. H. Romeiser, 1,820; Harve B. Elson, 1,711; Wayne Smith, 1,677; Noah E. Yoder, 1,675. The vote for the democrats follows: Myron Brandon, 1,214; Fred W. Knott, 1,044; Otto A. Gengnagel, 1,017; Frank Avery, 976. Having received the fifth highest vote for all candidates, Mr. Brandon will serve on the council with the four republicans. Under the new law, each party had only four candidates for councilmen.

Feick Wins at Garrett

Garrett voters chose Fred L. Feick, democrat, for mayor Tuesday over Harry M. Brown, republican, by a vote of 1,158 to 782. The majority was 376.

Harry E. Wert, democrat, was re-elected clerk-treasurer without opposition. He received 1,419 votes.

Three democrats were elected to the council. They are Geo. M. Schulthess, Jas. F. Ansbro and L. C. Swartout. Two republicans, Hosie T. Lanigor and Chas. Ort, were chosen for the council. Each party had nominated four candidates. The fourth democrat on the ticket was Add Quince. The other two republicans on the ticket were C. J. DuPont and O. W. Clark.

The total vote for each candidate for the council follows: Schulthess, 1,199; Ansbro, 1,144; Swartout, 1,046; Quince, 836; Lanigor, 1,123; Ort, 955; DuPont, 810; Clark, 804.

HUNDREDS STAY UP TO GET DEKALB COUNTY RETURNS

A great deal of interest was shown in this fall's election in Auburn and DeKalb county. The democratic headquarters in the Hotel Auburn and republican headquarters located at 408 South Main street were crowded beyond their capacity until about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning. Many remained all night, so great was their interest in learning how the votes would be reported in some of the precincts which were closely contested.

Many automobiles were parked in the streets around the court house square, voters coming from all parts of DeKalb county to hear the returns. The results of the county and Auburn and Garrett elections were received by telephone and radios transmitted the returns from the state and nation.

DEMOCRATS WIN 21 STATE GOVERNORS

Philip LaFollette Won Race in Wisconsin, Waving the Banner of the Progressive Party

Washington, Nov. 7.—Democrats elected 21 governors today in overwhelming state victories.

Republicans won five gubernatorial contests, recapturing Michigan after a close battle.

New deal forces ousted a republican state administration in Nevada and were leading opposition candidates in North Dakota and Oregon.

Philip LaFollette, running as a progressive party candidate, was elected over the incumbent democrat, A. G. Schmedeman, in Wisconsin, and Gov. Floyd B. Olson, Farmer-Laborite, retained control of Minnesota.

Incomplete returns indicated the gubernatorial lineup would be: Democrats, 39; republicans, 7; progressive, 1; Farmer-Labor, 1. Prior to elections, the count was: democrats, 38; republicans, 9; Farmer-Labor, 1.

Democrats were conceded victories today in Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Georgia, Iowa, Massachusetts, Nebraska Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas and Wyoming.

Republicans won in California, Kansas, Michigan, New Hampshire, and Vermont.

For the first time since 1890, a democratic governor was elected in Pennsylvania. New deal forces threatened further inroads into republican state offices.

Democrats threatened to gain a governor in North Dakota where incomplete returns showed Thomas Moodie leading Mrs. Lydia C. Langer, wife of the former republican governor.

On the other hand, republicans ousted democrats from control of the Michigan State administration by electing Frank D. Fitzgerald over Arthur J. Lacey.

Maine, which voted in September, re-elected its democratic governor, Louis J. Brann.

MINTON AND GOV. McNUTT FIND CAUSE FOR HAPPINESS

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—Sherman Minton, democrat, successful in his campaign for the United States senate and his sponsor, Gov. Paul V. McNutt, each found cause for happiness today in returns from yesterday's election.

"I am very happy at the results," Minton said. "Naturally I am not conceited enough to think that it is due to any personal popularity of mine. It is primarily a vote of confidence in our great president.

"The new deal lives and will continue to accomplish results."

Governor McNutt said: "I am very happy. I feel the victory is a justification of the programs the national and state administrations have offered our people. It is a mark of appreciation of the people."

The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company (A & P) made a clear profit last year of about $20,000,000.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

For an ENVIED Complexion

Inimitable Djer-Kiss Face Powder lends to any skin perfection that withstands the closest test.

Finer—softer—absolutely pure—it permits a thinner powder film which lasts for hours. Delicately scented with the bewitching Djer-Kiss fragrance.

Peche Naturelle
Rachel Blanche
60¢

Djer-Kiss
FACE POWDER
Genuine Djer-Kiss Perfume, in a dainty Vanette, Purse Size 25¢

NOVEMBER

L 919

0403

SPENCERVILLE

The True Blue class will meet on Saturday afternoon with Merton Allen.

Miss Ida Reed has been ill with a cold but was able to return to school on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowerman of Angola, were week end guests at the Vol Hay home.

The Home Bureau will meet on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Hazel Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wade and daughters were Sunday dinner guests at the Gale Bowser home.

The Young Ladies Social Club will be entertained on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Cleo Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp and Miss Marthanell Hosler, of Leo, were Sunday guests of the Bert Fisher home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Walker, of New Haven, Ind., were Friday afternoon guests of Mrs. Nancy Chaney.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hahn who resided on the George Hart farm, moved last week into the Saylor property.

Mr. and Mrs. Newcombe, of Ft. Wayne, spent Sunday with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Newcombe and family.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Nov. 4 was 91, collection $3.61; Lutheran 39, collection $1.78.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Howey, of Connersville, Ind., were week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Howey.

Mrs. Zetta Wertman, who has spent the past month at Columbia City visiting relatives and friends returned home Sunday.

The sum of $24.00 was cleared at the Halloween chicken supper given by the Lutheran Aid in their basement Saturday night.

The Home Missionary Society will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Cora Steward. At this time the ladies will knot comforts.

Roy Bowser, wife and children, of St. Joe, and James Reed and wife were Sunday afternoon guests at the R. U. Bowser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Hay and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bowerman, of Angola, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker and family.

Mrs. Nancy Chaney spent Sunday with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Chaney. Mrs. Chaney is not improving very fast from her recent fall.

The C. C. Club was pleasantly entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tressie Smith. Two guests were present, Mrs. Winnie Shook and Mrs. Clara Brattian.

Both teams of the basket ball association motored to LaOtto on Saturday night and played, the teams at that place. Owing to the low ceiling our boys were not at their best and lost both games.

Mrs. Jocie Carnes Shuff, of Niles, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lake, of New Haven, and Mrs. Dora Green, son and granddaughter, of Hicksville, were Sunday guests of the Cora Steward home.

Many of the former residents of this place attended the Rally Day and Home Coming services held at the Methodist Church on Sunday. Owing to the bad weather not as many were present as had planned to attend.

Miss Ila McCrory, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCrory and Mr. Bronson, of Butler, were married on Sunday at Butler. The young people will make their home at the home of the bride's parents, west of town.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you ever used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Harold Bowser, of near Fort Wayne, was a Monday caller at the R. U. Bowser home.

Miss Eleanor Chaney spent Wednesday night with Regena Klopfenstein of near Grabill.

Leland Calaway, of Muncie, Ind., was a week end guest of his wife, Mrs. Mary Calaway, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Culbertson and Mrs. Robert Rainsberger and son, Dick, of Fort Wayne, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Culbertson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dean and daughter, Joyce, were Sunday evening supper guests at the Roy Chaney home. Ray Baker and wife were Friday afternoon callers in the some home.

The Ladies Aid met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Janice Bowser. She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Audra Wade. The ladies at this meeting decided to hold a supper before Thanksgiving and a bazaar and supper before Christmas.

The freshman class of the Spencerville high school held a Halloween party at the home of Robert Mason, Tuesday eve. The house was decorated with Jack O' Lanterns, cats, owls, corn shocks and branches of leaves, making a very spooky appearance. Spooky games were played in darkness which afforded a very exciting time for all. At the hour of midnight a lunch was served consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and cider. Those present were: Wayne Shook, Donnie Spitler, Charles Warshler, Bob Hollobaugh, Carl Sylvester, Bob McInturf, Isabel Chapman, Waveline King, Miss Storer, Mildred Rinehold, Wilma Bishop, Mr. McCrory, Virginia Poper, Dorothy Mildred Newcombe, Helen Mae Webb, Madonna Gibson, Vera Wappes, Margaret Leckner, Gladys Maurer, Martha Newcombe, Mr. and Mrs. Paschen and son, Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mason, Carl Wilcoxson, Mrs. Lyle Leas and host, Robert.

NEWVILLE

Mrs. H. T. Smith and Mrs. Guy Smith spent Friday in Auburn.

Willis Heiber, of Antwerp, called on relatives here last Wednesday.

The Missionary Society was entertained Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 6 by Mrs. Eva Wasson.

Mrs. Kate Fusselman leaves this week to spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fusselman at West Milford.

The remains of Mrs. Clara Smith, who died at Butler, were brought here for burial in Evergreen cemetery, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wyatt, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt.

The Mt. Pleasant Aid Society quilted for Mrs. C. W. Moore at the U. B. parsonage Wednesday, Nov. 7, and the Newville U. B. Aid Society quilted today.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Venus Rex, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Smith and Clayton Smith, attended a birthday dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith, in honor of Clayton Smith.

High School Notes

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

Red Cross Roll Call

The annual Red Cross membership roll call will begin next Monday, November 12. Principal J. B. Munn has been requested to serve as village chairman. He is planning to attend a meeting of township chairmen in charge of roll call work which has been called for the Auburn Y. M. C. A. on Thursday evening of this week.

P. T. A. Next Monday Evening

It is planned to make the next P. T. A. meeting a local observance of Armistice Day. A World War veteran has consented to make the address of the evening. He announces his subject as "Lessons from the World War." Another World War veteran will have charge of the music for this program. A cordial invitation is extended to all ex-service men as well as patrons to be present at this meeting.

County Contest Next Wednesday Evening

On Wednesday evening, November 14, the DeKalb County High School One Act Play contest will be held in the local school auditorium. Three high schools—Ashley, Spencerville and the local school will compete for honors. There will be a small admission charge to defray the cost of judges, play booklets and similar incidental expenses. Mr. Gerdes is conducting rehearsals of the local cast on each evening of this week.

Typing Class Records

During last week the following records were made by pupils in the high school typing classes: (Five to Seven Minute Test) Eloise Draggoo, 32; Jean Goodwin, 38; Earl Kinsey, 48; Bonnie McSorley, 27; Berlene Beree, 28; Esther Richards, 28. (One Minute Test) Eloise Draggoo, 31; Beulah Storer, Curtice Northrup, 32; Jean Goodwin, 48; Earl Kinsey, 52; Bonnie McSorley, 36; and Berlene Beree, 38. The above figures means words per minute in the tests.

Class of 1928 Makes Gift To School Library

The class of 1928 which consisted of Dorothy Ginther, Beatrice Woodcox, Bruce Koch, Edward Kimes, Goebel Goodwin, Donald Davidson and George Simanton have voted to present the school with a number of books purchased by them through a bank balance their class did not use. This gift is very much appreciated. The library under the direction of Miss Rouls as teacher librarian and Mary Saewart as pupil librarian now presents a far better appearance than in some former years.

There are no home basketball games scheduled until Friday, November 23, when Hamilton plays here.

Butler High School brought two splendid teams to St. Joe on last Friday evening and played a high class brand of basketball. When the games were over Butler had won both by quite decisive scores. The local teams are not discouraged and along with Coach Noffsinger assert that their winning season is just about to start.

Kathryn Young returned to school on Monday after several weeks of absence due to typhoid fever.

Grades 3 and 4

Thirty-three boys and girls from our room were masked for the Halloween party last Wednesday afternoon. After serenading the lower grade rooms, we had much fun guessing each other. We finally decided that Frances Reidenbach and Patricia Maxwell were best dressed. We played several games and had refreshments. We were sorry when our party had to end.

Estella Hart was absent from classes one half day last week because of a cold and Maurice Shuff was out because of a sore foot.

Our honor roll for Spelling this week includes Walter Fetters, Dale Keeler, Patricia Maxwell, Betty Nichols, Frances Reidenbach, Mary Ellen Rude, Patricia Carpenter, Jean Hurni, James Kees and Betty Rudolph.

Local Briefs

Make it your business to read the classified ad column each week.

Mrs. Emma Gilbford came Sunday to spend some time in the J. H. Leighty home.

West Virginia trucks are coming to this section for potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Goodwin, of Lagrange, Ind., were guests of his parents, Tuesday.

Miss Wilma Bishop is spending the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. C. E. McCann.

Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Smith, of Ft. Wayne, were Sunday visitors in the J. P. Buckingham home.

Carl Carpenter and family were at Pioneer, Ohio, Sunday guests of Mrs. Carpenter's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scrivo, of Detroit, Mich., are here guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Woodcox.

John D. Rockefeller, 95-year-old oil king and philanthropist, is back at his Florida home for the winter and he is reported to be "feeling fine."

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Russel Wade were Mr. M. D. Engle, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wade and Mr. and Mrs. George Wade and daughter.

Miss Iris Wilmot and Miss Beatrice Mansfield visited Miss Wilma Bishop Sunday afternoon. Marcella Hallabaugh was a Thursday night guest in the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Petty, of Roan, were Sunday afternoon and supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Trostel. Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker were afternoon callers.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Garrison and Mrs. Mary Garrison, of Angola, were Sunday guests in the Wm. Miller home. Mrs. Garrison is just recovering from an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pincheon, of Fremont, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. John Jacobs and daughter, Connie Jean, of Sandiago, Calif., were Thursday guests in the home of Mrs. Wm. Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Fetters, Mrs. J. D. Fetters, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Warstler, Miss Rosie Camp and Ellsworth Jones, of Edon, O., were Sunday dinner guests of Paul Fetters and wife.

Mrs. Josephine Shuff, of Niles, Mich., was a dinner guest in the W. L. Hamilton home, Monday. Mrs. Shuff is writing fraternal insurance and was just closing her work in DeKalb county.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milliman were in town Thursday. Mrs. Milliman returned to Alvordton, O., while John is now in Peru, where he submitted to an operation Saturday for hernia.

Mrs. Mary Shuff is confined to her bed at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Milliman, being injured in a fall, when she stepped on some small stones, and was thrown. She is better today.

U. S. Road No. 6 from the DeKalb county line to Kendallville will be widened, the state highway commission has announced. Shoulders on each side will be made wider, the project to cost $30,000. The improvement has been approved by the United States bureau of public roads.

Among the real estate transfers of late to be found in Concord township are that of Frank M. and Clara Brandon to Wm. S. Brandon, 80 acres sec. 10, $1; Spencer: J. M. and Hattie Beams to Argyl Beams, 61.11 acres, 5 acres and .40 acre sec. 33, $1; Newville: Adrian E. Miller to Wellington and Harold Miller, 38.33 acres sec. 31.

The number of old age pension checks mailed by County Auditor Frank E. Lyon for the month of November was increased by 37 to a total of 192, the commissioners having granted that many more. The new pensions are for $8 and $12, the latter amount being for married couples. The total amount of the November payments was $1,660.

It is said that the proprietor of a gambling establishment just outside the boundary of the District of Columbia furnishes the winners at his tables with armed guards, so that they can get back into the city without being robbed, a circumstance that recalls one of the memory gems we had to learn in school. Think that day lost whose low-descending sun, views from thy hand no noble action done.

PROJECT LEADERS HOLD TRAINING SCHOOL

On Friday, November 23, at the Court House Assembly Room, the project leaders of the local home economics clubs will meet for the last training school meeting of the year. At this time reports on the achievements of the work in the local clubs during the past two months will be given. Miss Meta E. Martin, of Purdue University will be present and conduct demonstration work on quality standards to use in buying various household textiles and clothing. The leaders will examine a large number of textile pieces, studying values of fabrics as affected by various industrial practices and processes. Such factors as weave, twist, guage, thread count, tensil strength, ply, fill, weighting, tension, mercerization will be explained as they are used in the making of cloth.

All leaders are urged to be on hand early as there is a big day's study planned for the clubs during the coming winter months.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL IS ON

Governor Paul V. McNutt last week issued a proclamation calling attention to the week of November 11-29 being observed as Red Cross Roll Call Week. Volunteer workers for local chapters of the American Red Cross are now making plans for the annual membership campaign to be conducted in this county during that week.

A gain in membership was reported by the national organization for last year, and the response to the roll call this year is expected to be well up toward the pre-depression figure.

Immediately after President Roosevelt was inaugurated in 1933 the Red Cross pledged him its support and was called upon time and time again for cooperation. Disaster relief and rehabilitation for veterans and soldiers and sailors are a permanent national responsibility of the organization. There has been a close affiliation between the Red Cross and the various Federal Emergency Relief activities during the past year. Red Cross chapters gave information as to emergency setups; boys and war veterans were enrolled in Civilian Conservation Corps camps; first aid was taught on CWA and PWA projects; public health nurses worked to prevent illness and malnutrition in homes of the needy.

The federal government, cooperating with state governments, has undertaken to see that nobody in this country is without shelter or clothing. There is still much for private welfare organizations to do. Last year and the years preceding it showed that the Red Cross met the challenge of need in the depression as gallantly as it did the demands for service during the World War. An increased membership this year will provide the members and means through which the needs of the coming year can be met.

NEW HOME READY FOR CHICAGO STOCK SHOW

Finishing touches are now being made on the mammoth new home for the International Live Stock Exposition which will celebrate its 35th anniversary at the Chicago Stock Yards from December 1 to 8.

When completed, it will be the finest structure in the world devoted to such uses. The central section, or amphitheatre, will seat nearly double the number who could be accommodate in the old building which was destroyed in the fire that swept the Chicago Stock Yards last May.

Large Entry Listed

The foremost herds and flocks from every state in the Union and province of Canada will contest the continental championships of their kind at the 1934 Exposition. According to the management, entries closing on November 1st were the biggest in the history of this largest of the continent's agricultural shows, where over 12,000 animals were exhibited last year.

Farm boys and girls from every section of the country will take part in the 13th annual 4-H Club Congress to be held in connection with the International Live Stock Show. The Congress will be quartered in a handsome new building on the Exposition grounds that will replace the former 4-H building which was also consumed in the fire.

Farmers throughout the United States and Canada are now sending in entries for the International Grain and Hay Show, the largest competitive crops contest in the world. Closing date for entering this division of the Exposition is November 20th. Premiums will total over $5,000 and entries will be accepted free of charge.

Horse Show Scheduled

Thrilling riding and driving events will be included in the brilliant evening horse shows that will be held throughout the eight big days of the Exposition. Leading stables are listing entries of saddle horses, fancy harness horses and ponies, and hunters and jumpers that will appear on each of the programs.

In Budapest it is the law that mounted police wear mustaches.

Forty-one-year-old Mary Pickford is now a radio entertainer at $6,500 per broadcast.

Scientific research shows that the laundering of garments in hard water shortens their lives by twenty or forty per cent.

Three members of the 1871 Chicago Fire Dapartment were alive and able to attend the Sixty-Third Anniversary of the Great Chicago Fire.

A railroad train crosses the continent in 56 hours and 55 minutes, and a new record is established. Away back in 1848, an English train hit a clip of 68 miles per hour for a short distance. In matters other than railroading, the real problem is not merely to discover something worth doing, but rather to find some way of doing it long enough to render a real service.

SPINK ARMS HOTEL
410 North Meridian Street, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.
Comfortable, Convenient, Modern, Quiet Location
Opposite Memorial Plaza
RATES
$2, $2.50 and $3 Single
$4, $4.50 and $5 Double
FIRST CLASS COFFEE SHOP AND DINING ROOM
Breakfast 25c, 35c 45c
Luncheon 40c, 50c
Full Course Dinner 75c
Every room with bath and shower. Also furnished kitchenette apartment suites at reasonable rates. Garage adjoining, and excellent parking facilities.
HEADQUARTERS
Hoosier State Press Association, Inc.

PATENTS AND TRADE-MARKS
C. A. SNOW & CO.
Successful Practice since 1875. Over 25,000 patents obtained for inventors in every section of country. Write for booklet telling how to obtain a patent, with list of clients in your State.
710 8th St., Washington, D. C.

Russel R. Reidenour
Attorney
Auburn, Ind.

PHONE 290
Stanley P. Nelson
Monuments
Opposite Woodlawn and Rosalawn Cemeteries
AUBURN, IND.

A laugh is the best of medicine—Take a dose

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES"—Just An Associa..... Of Ideas — By POP MOMAND

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 4 0 4

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

CIDER: 10c and 20c per gallon. 41tf. Widney Orchard.

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

FOR SALE or TRADE on a used lounge, a Victrola and 50 records. Mrs. C. H. Sailer. 43t1p

WANTED: To buy White and Yellow Onions, any quantity. See George Hart, St. Joe. 42t6.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

WANTED TO BUY: Horseradish roots. Triangle Food Co. 43t3

APPLES, APPLES: A large crop. Depression prices. Widney Orchard, St. Joe. 41tf.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Wanted: Popcorn and potatoes on subscription.

For Sale: 8-ft. x 14-ft. wagon scales, $30.00. St. Joe Flour Mill, St. Joe, Ind. 41t4.

For Sale: An electric range at $50. If interested call News office. 41tf.

FARM WANTED: We have a man who wants to buy in Concord township very soon. See W. D. RICKLE & CO, real estate dealers, Auburn, Indiana. 43t3p

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3890

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Frederick Maynard Thornton deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 3rd day of December, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receieve their distributive shares.

Witness, My Name, this 5th day of November, 1934.

MABELLE S. THORNTON, Executrix.

Henry C. Springer, Atty. 44t3.

Public Sales

Arthur C. Koons and J. N. Scholes are billing a sale for Wednesday, Nov. 26, when they will sell 3 horses, 9 cattle, 4 brood sows, farming machinery, feed including alfalfa hay, clover hay, corn, oats. The Scholes residence is 1½ miles east of St. Joe. See ad for next week.

NEW CONTRACTS FOR AUBURN AND ST. JOE STAR ROUTES

Bids for the handling of five star mail routes out of Ft. Wayne post office are being sought by the post office department, Washington, D C., and will be received up to Jan. 15, 1935, at 4:30 P. M., Acting Postmaster L. G. Ellingham announced.

Decisions on the proposals will be made on or before February 26 and the contracts will be effective from July 1, 1935, to June 30, 1939. Proposals will be sent to the office of the Second Assistant Postmaster General, Washington.

Contracts for the same routes now in effect will expire on June 30, 1935. The addition of Harlan to the star route from Fort Wayne to St. Joe is only change planned in the routes for the next four years. Bonds, ranging from $2,200 to $1,000, are to be furnished by the successful bidders. On the star routes, mail is carried to towns where trains and buses do not stop or make convenient connections.

The routes, on which bids will be received, include the following:

From Fort Wayne, via Harlan, Spencerville and Grabill to St. Joe, 28.80 miles and return, 12 times weekly, leaving Fort Wayne at 6 A. M. and 3:30 P. M., and leaving St. Joe at 8 A. M. and 6 P. M., present annual pay, $1,871.67.

From Fort Wayne via Garrett, Auburn, Waterloo, Pleasant Lake, Angola, Fremont and Ray to Montgomery, Mich., 65.4 miles and return daily except Sunday, leaving Fort Wayne at 4:50 A. M. and returning by 8:15 P. M., present annual pay, $1,824.75.

Kodak Films—At News Office.

At Jersey City, New Jersey, three children, ranging in age from four to six murdered their seven-year-old playmate. The murdered boy's body was found in an old trunk.

HALLOWEEN PARTY HELD AT THE HOUK HOME IN JACKSON TOWNSHIP

The Loyal Woman's Class of the Lutheran Sunday School of Spencerville was invited to hold their monthly class meeting at the Houk home in Jackson township the night before Halloween. It was decided to be a mask party. You could mask or not as you decided.

" 'Twas the night before Halloween

And all thru the Houk house,
Every creature was stirring.
Even black cats, cross-eyed black owls, black horses, green and red mangoes, Jack 'O Lantern and a black mouse."

After deciding to hold the class party at the Houk home, the hostess began to make great preparations to entertain her masked guests and others.

She herself decided to mask and to represent the Rev. Aimee McPherson-Hutton by day, and by night to transform herself magically into a gypsy fortune teller. A mock marriage ceremony was hastily arranged and "Tillie the Toiler" and "Mac" had decided after returning from an extended cruise to go on a long one to last until death parted them.

The night before Halloween was decided on for the date, and the Houk home the place and the Rev. Aimee to perform the marriage ceremony free of charge. Even Tillie's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Goldsmith, or Mr. Simpkins of the Salon, where Tillie and Mac work, did not know of the arrangement until after they arrived at the Houk home.

Everything was very secretly arranged and great mystery surrounded the whole affair. Only a few close friends of the bride were let in on the arrangements. A famous Italian musician, Mr. George Beams, and Amelita Galli Curci, Mrs. Alda Pervine, who were to furnish the music, being told about it. Not even Ray Houk knew one iota about it.

They were all seemingly getting ready to go to Auburn and their red haired, freckle faced, hired man was there and he was going along to Auburn. At about 8 o'clock the spooks, ghosts, old colored men and women masked and some not, began to arrive and a great crowd of notables came from all over even Golduh Stubbins and her best friend were there.

Soon the music began as a prelude to the wedding and the musicians sang "Juanita," "Sweet Bunch of Daisies," and "Here Comes the Bride," as Tillie came down the stairs on Mr. Simpkins' arm, Rev. Aaimee leading the way and Mr. Simpkins carrying the rings as it was to be a double ring ceremony. However two other couples decided to get married also as Rev. Aimee had agreed to do the ceremonies free or at depression prices. So it was a triple ceremony. Only one woman tried to stop one wedding in which her former husband was taking part. Finally when it came time to use the rings Mr. Simpkins lost Tillie's ring, but it was soon found. Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Walter came late and Rev. Aimee performed the ceremonies over to make it more binding. Some of the men objected to the word "obey" in the ceremony but as Rev. Aimee said it was merely form and not used in reality anymore.

Many valuable presents were received from all over the world, from Mussolini, Prince of Wales, President and Mrs. F. D. R. and Prof. Paul V. McNutt and Mrs. McNutt sent the bride and groom two all day suckers. Charley Chaplin, Hollywood, sent a book, "Why Movie Stars Fail in Marriage," and many other valuable presents were received. Tillie divided the clothes pins she received from Jose and Ace Jefferson of the "Bean Family Fame" with the other brides. Golduh Stubbins furnished the angel food cake for the bride. Mr. L. G. Goldsmith, who was Mr. Simpkins furnished cider and Mac was Junior Ryan, the hired man of the Houk family, and Eleanore Benninghoff, a niece of Rev Aimee, was Tillie the Toiler.

Everything went off fine, except Rev. Aimee had a terrible pain in her left side and Mr. Simpkins losing Tillie's ring. Prizes were won by Mrs. Maud Beams in the bean contest and Mrs. Dean the teacher in the pumpkin seed contest. Other prizes were won by Junior Ryan, Max Markle, W. F. Rhoades, Frank Beams and Eleanore Benninghoff. Prizes were gum, shoe strings, all day suckers, etc. Tillie's mother, Mrs. Goldsmith, received a box of marshmallows and a flag and Mr. Simpkins a day book and a flag. Guests were, Junior Ryan, Max Markle, Mrs. Gladys Houk and daughter, Eleanor, of Hicksville. One Present.

NEW STATE PROGRAM FOR THIS SECTION

Announcement was made by the State Highway Commission that 30.00 miles of county road, beginning at or near Decatur, and extending northerly to St. Rd. No. 1 at or near St. Joe, connecting at the Sam Wyatt corners in Adams, Allen and DeKalb counties, has been taken into the state highway system. This road will pass through Coburn Corners, south.

Other state roads will be established as follows:

14.00 miles of county road, beginning at or near Albion and extending east to St. Rd. No. 327 at or near Garrett in Noble and DeKalb counties.

22.00 miles of county road, beginning at a point on St. Rd. No. 6 at or near Corunna and extending north to the Indiana-Michigan state line in DeKalb and Steuben counties.

14.00 miles of county road, beginning at or near Waterloo and extending north and east through Hamilton to the Indiana-Ohio state line in DeKalb and Steuben counties.

Inclusion of these roads in state system means they will be designated as state highways and will be marked as such with numbers and caution signs at curves and other danger points. Maintenance of the new state highway will later by carried on by the Maintenance Division of the Highway Commission, eliminating this expense from the county highway budget.

NEW FACES COMING TO TOWN

New faces are seen in town practically every day, and upon investigation we find many of them are people who are coming here to mill, having once tried a sack of the "Burco" flour, they are now making their way to the local mill with their grists for their winter's supply of flour.

One man stated that he had not been in St. Joe for 6 years to do any trading, while another had never been here before.

We were also curious to know the greatest distance any one grist was brought, and to date 21 miles distance from our little town, is the record.

It's a good sign when cars, trucks, wagons, and the like are seen waiting at the grist mill to be cared for.

Every sack of "Burco" that you buy will help keep the wheels of the local mill turning.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. D. D. Burley, Sunday, November 4, when some of his folks walked in to take him to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mildred Wilson, in Butler, Ind., where a number of his children and grandchildren had assembled to help him celebrate his 89th birthday. A pot luck dinner was served, to which all did ample justice.

Those present were: the guest of honor, Mr. D. D. Burley, Mrs. Constance Maurer, of Coldwater, Mich, son, Lawrence and wife, of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Clara Maurer and son, Kenneth, of Union City, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, of Fort Wayne, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Krontz and two children, of Butler, Ind., and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and daughter, Ruth.

Owing to the short time in which the party was arranged and the distance of some away, not all the children and grandchildren were present. A number of pictures were taken. Among those, one of the four generations, Mr. Burley, daughter, Mildred, granddaughter, Mrs. Kathryn Krontz and her two chilren, Donald and Max.

Mr. Burley is quite spry and in and in fairly good health for one of his age. The guests all departed to their respective homes, late in the afternoon, wishing Mr. Burley many more happy birthdays.

Charter No. 459

Report of the condition of Farmers and Merchants State Bank at Spencerville in the State of Indiana, at the close of its business on October 17, 1934.

BANKING ASSETS

Loans and Discounts		$ 64 632 03
Overdrafts		None
"U. S. Government Obligations, direct and fully guaranteed"		4 500
Other Bonds and Securities		15 207 65
Banking House,	$2 569 88
Furniture and Fixtures	1 246 89	3 816 77
Other Real Estate Owned		None
Cash on Hand and Balances with other Banks		39 484 67
Exchanges and Cash Items		35 35
Securities Borrowed		None
Other Assets Advanced with application to Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.		204 04
Total Banking Assets		$127 880 51

BANKING LIABILITIES

Demand Deposits—Individual	$13 282 07
Time Deposits, including Time Cert. of Deposits	64 391 80
Savings or Thrift Deposits	3 682 64
U. S. Government and Postal Savings Deposits	None
Deposits of the State and Political Subdivisions	17 995 69
Deposits of Other Banks, Cashier's and Certified Checks	None
Total Deposits		99 352 20
Bills Payable		None
Rediscounts		None
Securities Borrowed		None
Reserves for depreciation and losses		None
Other Liabilities		None
Total Banking Liabilities		$99 352 20
Capital Account:
Capital Stock *	$25 000
Preferred Capital Debentures	22 500
Total Capital *	$25 000 00
Surplus	2 500 00
Undivided Profits—Net	739 49
Reserves	288 82
Total Capital Account		28 528 31
Total Banking Liabilities and Capital Account		$127 880 51

* Includes proceeds of $15,000 of debentures sold to Reconstruction Finance Corporation and $7,500 of debentures sold to local interests, which debentures are subordinated to the rights of creditors and depositors.

Included in Loans and Discounts are Loans to Affiliated Companies	None
Included in Othed Bonds and Securities are Shares to Affiliated Companies	None
Included in Deposits are First Lien Trust Funds	None
Included in Total Deposits are Deposits Secured by Loans and or Investments	None
Loans and Investments Pledged To Secure Liabilities
U. S. Bonds and Securities	None
Other Bonds and Securities	None
Loans and Discounts (excluding rediscounts)	None
Total pledged (excluding rediscounts)	None
Pledged to Secure:
a U. S. Govt. and Postal Savings Deposits	None
b Public Deposits	None
c Other Deposits	None
d Borrowings (excluding rediscounts)	None
e Other Purposes	None
Total Pledged	None

State of Indiana
County of DeKalb, ss:

I, C. G. Rectenwall, Cashier of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank of Spencerville, Indiana, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my kowledge and belief. C. G. RECTENWALL, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of Nov., 1934. (Seal) William M. Allen, Notary Public.

My Commission Expires January 13, 1935.

Revival Meeting!

AT THE

Methodist Protestant Church

St. Joe, Indiana

BEGINNING ON

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

CONTINUING TO AND INCLUDING

Sunday Eve., Nov. 25th.

-- HEAR --

Mr. SAM HARA of Detroit, Michigan, Evangelistic Singer.

Rev. WILLIAM D. KOEHNLEIN,

PASTOR of the Local Methodist Protestant Church

Sunday Schedule

SUNDAY SCHOOL	9:30 A M.
EVANGELISTIC SERVICES	10:30 A. M.
CHILDREN'S SERVICES	7:00 P. M.
EVANGELISTIC SERVICE	7:30 P. M.

Week Day Schedule

CHILDREN'S SERVICES ..... 7:00 P. M.
(Souvenirs given at every service to all children present)

EVANGELISTIC SERVICE ..... 7:00 P. M.
(Every Evening Except Saturday)

A Few Subjects:

All Hope Gone and Yet Saved
The Biggest Sinner in DeKalb Co.
Evidences of Salvation
Loss and Profit
Unpardonable Sin
The Prodigal Son
The Lady Barber
The Spirit-Filled Life
If not Saved, Why Not.
Man's Dearest Treasure
The Pavement of Hell
The Devil's Bread Market
Religious Chiselers
Moral Insanity
Why Some People are Lost
Where Art Thou?

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Printing ordered today, can be delivered tomorrow if you wish it

C. E. McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Building
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders
400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH ALL WORK GUARANTEED

Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

NOVEMBER

L 919

0405

SECTION OF

ST. JOE NEWS

ST. JOE, INDIANA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1934

L 919

U406

NOVEMBER

HER HEART IS IN HER WORK Devoted Red Cross volunteer makes braille books for blind readers. Thousands engage in this work for the Red Cross.

RED CROSS NURSE PROTECTS MOTHER'S HEALTH —These nurses annually visit thousands of expectant mothers, instructing them in health measures.

WHEN THERE IS SICKNESS IN THE HOME—Red Cross Home Hygiene arms sisters and mothers with vital knowledge with which to meet this emergency.

WHAT THE RED CROSS DOES

IN DISASTER—Gave relief in 86 disasters this year. Expended for this relief $1,873,300.

FOR PUBLIC HEALTH—Employs 768 public health nurses. These nurses:

Make a million visits to the sick. Aid in health examinations of school children. Instruct in maternity cases to protect health of mother and baby.

Teaches Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick. Assists health authorities where epidemics occur.

FOR VETERANS—Aids in problems of 250,000 Veterans and their dependents. Provides recreation for veterans in hospitals. Sustains morale of men in regular service with friendly help.

FOR PUBLIC SAFETY—Trains men in first aid to the injured. Instructs in life saving and water safety.

FOR CHILDREN—Enrolls seven million school children in community service through Junior Red Cross.

FOR U. S. GOVERNMENT—Instructs 70,000 unemployed men in first aid. Safeguards C.C.C. camp workers with first aid and life saving knowledge. Maintains reserve of nurses for all emergencies.

FOR THE BLIND—Provides braille books through many libraries.

FOR THE NEEDY—Gives clothing, medical supplies, layettes for infants.

FOR THE NATION—Maintains 3,700 Chapters, 10,000 branches ready to meet any emergency. Five hundred thousand men and women volunteers give their services through the Red Cross.

FOR THE WORLD — Cooperates with Red Cross societies of 57 nations.

"IT'S YOUR MOVE!" —Gray Lady and disabled sailor play checkers. Red Cross provides recreation in all Government Hospitals.

WHEN YOU BREAK YOUR ARM ON THE JOB—Seventy thousand federal relief workers were taught Red Cross first aid to prepare against such emergencies.

DOBBIN TO THE RESCUE—Red Cross relief worker resorts to old methods in reaching marooned during winter floods in Washington and Idaho where 3,000 families were aided.

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 4 0 7

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, NOV. 15, 1934 — NUMBER 45

126 FARMERS AT MILL LAST MONTH

Ever since the grist mill at St. Joe became a reality, ye editor has been a booster for its success, feeling that it was a local institution that would be of value to every person, as it used a local raw product to produce a finished product, that of flour and feeds, that were always in demand.

In past years, while the mill changed hands frequently, it proved to be a boon to business men of St. Joe, even while at times it operated under the most adverse circumstances.

Today things have changed, the mill is running steady, consuming on the average of 250 bushels of wheat daily, and is now reaching out many miles in order to supply its demands.

An interesting bit of information was given us a few days ago by Mr. Gauntt, when we asked him how many farmers had made the exchange of wheat for flour during October, and upon checking up of the records, 57 farmers are reported and besides these 69 farmers sold wheat to the mill out right. When 156 different farmers can do business with one concern in our community, it is a record to be proud of.

The unpardonable sin is the one committed by the other fellow.

COUNTY COUNCIL MEMBERS ARE WELL DIVIDED

Democrats will have a majority on the new county council as a result of the election held in DeKalb County Tuesday of last week. The party vote will be 4 to 3.

The Democratic members will be Frank E. Draggoo, Leighton F. Tombow, Marion Clark and Walter Heitz. The Republicans are H. D. Weaver, Vernon L. Kepler and Fred E. Hart.

Each party nominated three candidates for councilman-at-large. The vote follows: H. D. Weaver, 5,688; Frank E. Draggoo, 5,597; L. F. Tombow, 5,594; Howard A. Hinklin, 5,331; Lloyd E. Eckhart, 5,429, and Joseph R. Wiley, 5,372.

The vote on district councilmen follows:

First, Vernon L. Kepler, 1,049, and Grover C. Walter, 759.

Second, Marion Clark, 1,221, and Arthur Lautzenhiser, 1,089.

Third, Walter Heitz, 1,790, and John H. Zimmerman, 1,270.

Fourth, Fred E. Hart, 2,108, and Joseph Foltz, 1,708.

The minor parties were given only a few votes in DeKalb County. For congress, John S. Patee, socialist, received 36 votes. For United States senator, Forrest Wallace, socialist, was given 49 votes. Albert W. Jackman, prohibitionist, 74, and Wenzel Stocker, communist 6.

For an off year election, a heavy vote was cast Tuesday in this county, the total being 11,948. This compared with 12,822 in the presidential election of 1932 and 10,560 in 1930.

REVIVAL MEETING CONTINUES AT M. P. CHURCH

The Revival meeting at the Methodist Protestant Church continues every evening, except Saturday, with the children's service at 7:00 P. M. Souvenirs will be given to each child present. Every child, whether they attend the Sunday School or not, is welcome. Evangelistic service at 7:30 P. M. Thursday evening is "Family Night." The largest family present will receive a lovely gift. Friday evening will be "Christian Church night" with the Rev. H. K. Schondelmayer to deliver the message.

The program for the following week is as follows:

Sunday School at 9:30 A. M.

Evangelistic services at 10:30.

Children's service at 7:00 P. M. Evening evangelistic service at 7:30.

Monday evening is "Friends Night."

Tuesday, "Women's Night."

Wednesday, Young People's Night."

Thursday, "Old People's Night." 50 years and over.

Friday, "Men's Night."

Young People's gathering at the Parsonage Tuesday evening, before Thanksgiving when the Co-Aid class of the St. Joe Sunday School will entertain the young people of the Concord, Milan Center and Harlan Sunday Schools.

DEMOCRATS WIN IN NINE OF TOWNSHIPS

Nine Democrats and six Republicans were elected to the office of township trustee in DeKalb County last Tuesday.

Following are the Democratic victors:

Union township, Newman Heffly; Keyser, Thomas J. Noel; Spencer, Franklin E. Rhodes; Smithfield, Jesse W. Camp; Stafford, Eugene D. Webster; Wilmington, Geo. W. Griest; Grant, Fern A. Morr; Newville, Romeo E. Richards; Fairfield, Ora E. Rowe.

The Republicans elected are: Butler township, Russell W. Housel; Concord, Abner W. Trostel; Jackson, Lewis Freeman; Franklin, Dode Houlton; Troy, Byron Campbell; and Richland, Oliver M. Foote.

Elmer O. Likens, Republican, won for assessor in Union township, and S. D. Johnston, Republican, in Keyser township. In the other townships, the trustees will assume the duties of assessor, in accordance with a new law.

The total vote on trustee in the fifteen townships follows:

Union: Newman Heffley, 1,762; Benjamin S. Miller, 1,328. Heffley's majority, 380.

Keyser: Thos. J. Noel, 1,294; E. E. Clark, 1,136. Noel's majority, 158.

Richland: Oliver M. Foote, 243; Emery M. Friend, 210. Foote's majority, 33.

Spencer: Franklin E. Rhodes, 207; Claud D. Laub, 183. Rhodes' majority, 24.

Smithfield: Jesse W. Camp, 346; Jerry M. Hamman, 328. Camp's majority, 18.

Stafford: Eugene D. Webster, 107; Milo J. Provines, 56. Webster's majority, 51.

Troy: Byron Campbell, 115; Clarence H. Hinkle, 70. Campbell's majority, 45.

Wilmington: Geo. W. Griest, 704; Roscoe Capp, 617. Griest's majority, 87.

Franklin: Dode Houlton, 241; John W. Duncan, 224. Houlton's majority, 17.

Grant: Fern A. Morr, 590; Frank S. George, 309. Morr's majority, 281.

Jackson: Lewis Freeman, 273; Artie R. McNamara, 270. Freeman's majority, 3.

Newville: Romeo E. Richards, 148; Stanley E. Davis, 112. Richards' majority, 36.

Concord: Abner W. Trostel, 254; Ernest W. Johnson, 227. Trostel's majority, 27.

Fairfield: Ora E. Rowe, 237; H. Dale Conrad, 148. Rowe's majority, 89.

Butler: Russell W. Housel, 201; Chas. Hosler, 174. Housel's majority, 27.

The vote on assessor follows:

Union: Elmer O. Likens, 1,905; Noah A. Lung, 1,182. Likens' majority, 723.

Keyser: S. D. Johston, 1,386; Wm. Martz, 1,050. Johnston's majority, 336.

ACCUSED OF SELLING MORTGAGED PROPERTY

Al Fee, residing in Union township north of Auburn, furnished a bond of $200 in the DeKalb circuit court Thursday to insure his appearance to defend a charge of selling mortgaged property.

The affidavit, prepared by Prosecuting Attorney R. W. Sharpless, was signed by Chas. Koch of St. Joe. He says he sold the defendant a horse for $35 on a conditional sale contract last June 19 and that in August the defendant disposed of it without the complainant's consent or knowledge.

The defendant contends that Koch owed him and he denies he committed any crime. His bond was signed by Harry M. Shull and John R. Clark.

BAKE SALE

The Methodist Aid will hold a sale of baked goods at Kinsey's Store, Saturday morning, starting at 9:00 o'clock. Let them supply you for your Sunday dinner.

45t1.

The St. Joe Valley bank by Attorney W. D. Stump, Thursday filed a complaint in the DeKalb circuit court against Olon and J. E. Dermott on a note executed to Eliza R. Kinsey Jan. 15, 1933, in the sum of $375 and due in six months. The note was assigned to the plaintiff and the demand is for $500.

Alpheus G. Mason, 26, farmer, Edon, Ohio, and Mercil Marvelle Davis, 19, St. Joe, were granted a marriage license Monday.

Candidates will now be busy making an itemized statement of their campaign expenses. Blanks can be secured at News office.

New liquor control, increase of intangible tax and repeal of primary law, are among some of the proposals now being planned by the democrats for the next legislature.

Laura Abel Morrow, of near Auburn, was taken to the Richmond state hospital Monday by Sheriff John P. Hoff, having been recommitted to the institution by Judge Endicott. She was in the asylum some years ago, but was discharged. Recently she wandered away and was found in a shed in Allen county. She was at first place in the Allen county jail and then was removed to the DeKalb county jail.

YEARLY REPORT OF DEKALB RED CROSS PUBLIC HEALTH NURSING SERVICE AUG. 13, 1933 TO JULY 1, 1934

An interesting Red Cross First Aid Class was organized by the Nurse and conducted for 34 CWA workers and 4 other adults in the Court House at Auburn during the second week of January. The Instructors, Dr. Souder, of Auburn, D. R. Weirick, of Butler, and Dr. John Showalter, of Waterloo, gave their time voluntarily, and the County Red Cross Chapter supplied the text books. Mr. Howard Nicholson, of Garrett, who received his Course for Instructors thru our local chapter, and Mrs. Snyder, from the Y. M. C. A. assisted in training the men and 3 women in Artificial Respiration.

During a scarlet fever epidemic in Waterloo and Ashley the Nurse assisted Drs. Ish and Showalter in the schools. Miss Elam, a graduate nurse from Garrett was secured through the CWA to assist in this work. Home visits in Waterloo and surrounding districts, 880 temperatures taken in schools and homes were some of the means used to care for and prevent the further spread of this disease.

A dental survey for all the pupils in the rural schools and for the pupils in the cities and towns as far as and including the sixth grades was conducted by our County Dental Physicians. Over 3,700 pupils were examined; 2,896 shewed dental defects, with an average defect of 3 per child, 910 pupils had these defects corrected; a 33% correction. Money given by Parent Teachers Associations in Auburn and the American Legion and 3 Sororities in Garrett cared for the pupils whose parents could not finance the cost.

Through the schools, a letter was sent by the Nurse to each mother whose child had not been immunized for the prevention of diphtheria. A couple of weeks after these letters were distributed Corunna reported a 50% immunization. Later on many more reported a successful immunization among the school pupils.

The Nurse and Mrs. Myers, our former County Chairman for the Governor's Unemployed Relief Commission organized a meeting to discuss projects for unemployed women. At this meeting, the Nurse asked for a Visiting Housekeeper to make home investigations and a clerk to make records from our Dental Survey. The Dental project was approved and Miss Mary Brandon employed. Over 3,240 records were mailed to the United States Public Health Dental Department at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Lois Wiley, our Red Cross Nursing Chairman and the Nurse organized Pre-school surveys to be held in central places. The Township Chairmen made a survey of all the pupils who would enter school in the fall. The County Physicians, assisted by the Chairman and Nurse gave a free examination to 135 children at 13 Pre-school Health Conferences.

Other home activities included 298 visits to schools, 335 class room visits, 224 health talks to pupils on dental care and immunization, 5,170 talks to individual pupils, 18 Health Classes for high school pupils and adults, 251 visits to school children. Vision testing with 150 defects corrected.

Other home visits were as follows:—18 prenatal, 18 infant, 2 new born, 12 tuberculosis, 24 preschool, 42 medical and surgical acute, investigations and others, 6 social service.

Administrative and office work included 351 letters and postcards written, 1011 calls and office interviews for general activities, 21 patients interviewed, 27 meetings and institutes attended, 19 health talks to adults, 36 publicity ads, 1400 health literature distributed, 6 transients aided, 4 overseas men helped.

The cost to the Red Cross Chapter to finance this service was as follows: Car and office expense $311.67 for 10½ months. Red Cross Nurse's salary $450.00 for 6 months. Volunteer service by Nurse 1 month.

CULTURE CLUB FROLICS

The Culture Club celebrated Halloween in a very unusual way at the home of Mrs. William Hamilton. The membership was informed that a bus would convey them to the home of their country hostess and that the bus would be waiting at the home of one of the club members in St. Joe.

After much running around over town, the members finally got together and were driven to the celebration. Upon arrival the guests were required to detour and find a side entrance, whereupon they all filed in dressed in ghost attire. The ghost's attendants requested that the guests be seated while the hob-gobblins pounded on pans, blew whistles and turned black cats loose in the crowd, trying to give the guests some idea of Ghost Land.

A ghost parade was then started, marching through the yard, ending in the garage, the beginning and end of all journeys. Mrs. Margaret Whistler, a guest, told a ghost story which made the guests not want to go home in the dark alone.

A "guess who" contest was played until all were unmasked. Games such as, paper bag contests, stunts imitating animal calls, marksman contest, fortune telling, etc.

A two course luncheon was served on a large table in the dining room, decorated with the orange and black, a large pumpkin for the center piece, and the tall tapers. First course, toasted cheese sandwiches, broom splinted celery, designed carrots, pickles, Waldorf salad with whipped cream; second course, ginger bread with whipped cream, coffee and cider. After refreshments a treasure basket hunt was inaugurated, filled with cracker-jack. Mrs. Clay Blue was the lucky cultured pirate to find the Captain Kid Treasure.

The guests then departed feeling that they had been benefited by being young once again, especially when they were compelled to remove mountains, and mole hill obstructions across the road by the other Halloweeners. "A good time was had by all"—actually.

Intended for previous issue of St. Joe News.

Join the American Red Cross.

Mrs. Adam Shilling and daughter, Lucile, were dinner guests on Sunday of Wm. Barnes and wife at Hicksville and afternoon callers on Mrs Anna and Rose Sowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran attended the funeral of Mrs. Wm. Holtzberg at Butler Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Holtzberg was the mother of Mrs. Stanley Monroe, of West Unity, Ohio.

Office Phone: 37W. Residence Phone: 37J

Kinsey Funeral Home
AMBULANCE SERVICE
LICENSED EMBALMER
(Lady Attendant)
HARDWARE AND FURNITURE
Just a little cheaper— Be sure and ask for tickets

Consider Your Winters Fuel
cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.
Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.
Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.
FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.
NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

NOVEMBER

L 919

Does Away With "Awkward Age"

PATTERN 1978

This is a frock for what used to be called the "awkward age"—the years between eight and sixteen. Styles like this have made it one of the most attractive feminine ages. The model is as young as youth, but designed with the skill of a woman's dress. Look at the front of that bodice with its nicked vest lines emphasized by cleverly placed buttons! See the way the panel idea is prolonged in the seams of the skirt! Don't you like the sleeves?—they can be short or long. And please don't overlook the back view, with that nice pointed yoke.

Pattern 1978 is available in sizes 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16. Size 12 takes 3⅛ yards 36-inch fabric and ⅝ yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE.

Address orders to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York City.

Smiles

NO WISH TO PATRONIZE

"A man in your position should avoid a patronizing manner," said the confidential friend.

"I'm trying to do just that," answered Senator Sorghum. "I have done my best to convince office seekers that my capacities for bestowing patronage are entirely exhausted."

Don't Tell Anyone

Mrs. Brown—She told me that you told her the secret I told you not to tell her.

Mrs. Green—The mean thing! I told her not to tell you I told her.

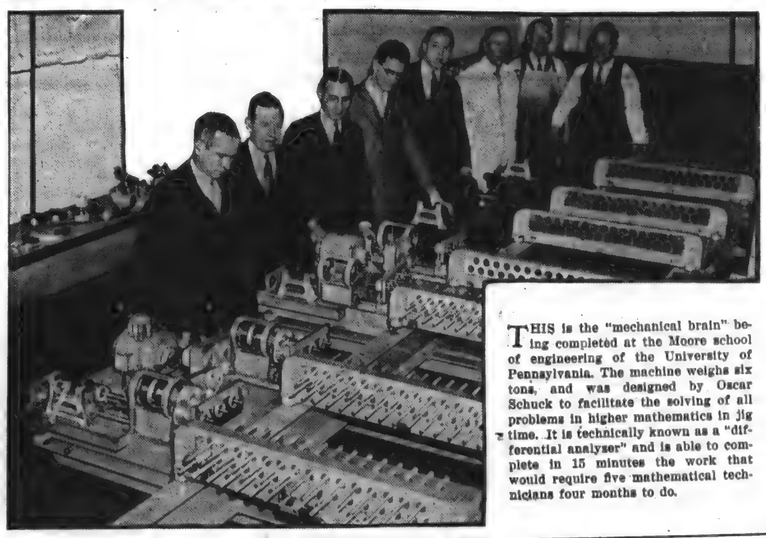
Mrs. Brown—Well, don't tell her that I told you she told me.—Buen Humor.

Pursuit of Knowledge

"Is your boy Josh learning much in college?"

"I don't know," answered Farmer Corntossel. "Judging by some of his favorite magazines, I'm inclined to think he has found out a lot of things he's keepin' to himself."

"Mechanical Brain" That Solves Problems



THIS is the "mechanical brain" being completed at the Moore school of engineering of the University of Pennsylvania. The machine weighs six tons, and was designed by Oscar Schuck to facilitate the solving of all problems in higher mathematics in jig time. It is technically known as a "differential analyser" and is able to complete in 15 minutes the work that would require five mathematical technicians four months to do.

Bedtime Story for Children

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

A LESSON IN POLITENESS

A FLOCK of modestly dressed yet rather distinguished looking feathered folks alighted in a cherry tree and began helping themselves to Farmer Brown's cherries. They were about the size of Winsome Bluebird, but did not look in the least like him, for they were dressed almost wholly in a beautiful rich, soft, grayish-brown. Across the end of each tail was a bright yellow band. On each, the forehead, chin, and a line through each eye was velvety black. Each wore a very stylish pointed cap, and on the wings of most of them were little spots of red which looked like sealing wax. From this they get the name of Waxwings. They were slim and trim and quite dandified, and in a quiet way were really beautiful.

"If they stay long, Farmer Brown won't have any cherries left," remarked Peter.

"Don't worry," replied Jenny Wren. "I don't know anybody equal to them for roaming about. Here are most of us with families, while those gadabouts haven't even begun thinking about housekeeping yet. They certainly do

They Were About the Size of Winsome Bluebird, but Did Not Look in the Least Like Him.

like those cherries, but I guess Farmer Brown can stand the loss of what they eat. He may have fewer cherries, but he'll have more apples because of them."

"How's that?" demanded Peter.

"Oh," replied Jenny, "they were over here a while ago when those little green canker worms threatened to eat up the whole orchard, and they stuffed themselves on those worms just the same as they are stuffing themselves on cherries now. They are very fond of small fruits, but most of those they eat are the wild kind which are of no use to Farmer Brown or to anybody else. They eat so many cedar berries that some folks call them Cedar Birds. Others call them Cherry Birds. Now just look at that performance, will you!"

There were five of the Waxwings, and they were seated side by side on a branch of the cherry tree. One of them had a plump cherry which he passed to the next one. This one passed it on to the next, and so it went to the end of the row and half way back before it was finally eaten. Peter laughed right out. "Never in my life have I seen such politeness," said he.

"Huh!" exclaimed Jenny Wren. "I don't believe it was politeness at all. I guess if you got at the truth of the matter you would find each one was stuffed so full that he thought he didn't have room for that cherry, and so passed it along."

"Well, I think that was politeness just the same," retorted Peter. "The first one might have dropped the cherry instead of passing it along."

Just then the Waxwings flew away.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

THROUGH A Woman's Eyes

By JEAN NEWTON

DOING NOTHING USEFUL!

"I HAD two hundred letters waiting, a few days ago, and I deliberately went out for the afternoon and spent two hours reading poetry. This was entirely outside my schedule, and you will probably raise your hands in horror at the thought of breaking up a well-budgeted day, but I believe in the end it makes for better quality of work."

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt wrote that not long ago in a message on the necessity of every person occasionally to learn to loaf.

"Sometimes it is extremely good for you to forget that there is anything in the world that needs to be done, and to do some particular thing that you want to do," she remarked. "Every human being needs a certain amount of time in which he can be peaceful. Peace may take the form of exercise, or reading, or any congenial occupation, but one thing which must not be connected with it is a sense of obligation to do some particular thing at some particular time."

That is a message which should be reprinted and sent to every woman, particularly every wife and mother in the country. The man or woman with a job and office hours may work very hard, they may be under great stress and strain, but usually, when they shut the door of the office behind them they know that time of peace which is indeed necessary to every human being—that time when there is nothing in particular that they have to do. When a man comes home, his time of relaxation begins. And so with the working girl who comes home to her mother, or the bachelor woman who returns to her flat. Usually, the time there has "no strings tied to it."

But the wife and mother! How aptly some one said hers is the clock that has no hands. Take a rainy Sunday. There may be no cards or games, the papers may be read. Then the family will be just "sitting around." But mother? Oh, no; that's a chance to catch up on the darning or to start that sweater she wants to knit for little Jane. She doesn't have to fold her hands to rest!

But, doesn't she! If it were not for that darning or knitting on her mind, would she not enjoy occasionally just folding her hands and "sitting around"? I say she may not even know it, but she would. I say that every woman who keeps house should keep some time free for what Mrs. Roosevelt calls a time for being peaceful—a time when she will do nothing that could possibly be called useful!

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

Do YOU Know—

That the first engagement token was the Gimmal ring, this name being derived from the Latin Gemmellus, which means joined. The ring was made of two separate bands, with little teeth cut in their inner edge, and were joined together by the bride and groom when they walked to the altar.

© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate. WNU Service.

PAPA KNOWS—

"Pop, what is antique?"
"Expensive old age."

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN . . . The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I read in the paper that a man fell from the roof of a ten-story building, into a wagon filled with soda water bottles. The newspaper claimed the man was not hurt. If this is true how do you account for it?

Truly yours,
I. DOUTIT.

Answer: That could happen, especially so if the soda water bottles were filled. In this particular case the man wasn't hurt because he fell into a wagon full of soft drinks.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am sure I met the meanest man in the world. This man, as soon as the cold weather comes around, goes down to the railroad tracks and calls out all sorts of vile names at the engineers as they pass in their engines. It seems the engineers get angry, but they can't stop their engines, so they throw pieces of coal at him, trying, of course, to hit him. That's just what this man wants. He has a bag with him and as the engineers throw the coal at him he picks it up and takes it home for his furnace. Did you ever hear of anyone meaner than that?

Truly yours,
I. GOSSIP.

Answer: That's pretty stingy; but I know a man once who was so stingy it is unbelievable. He wanted to commit suicide and he went next door to use his neighbor's gas.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have been married little over a year. My mother is coming to live with us. My husband says the only way he will let his mother-in-law live with us is for us to buy a folding bed for her to sleep in. Can you tell me why he insists on a folding bed?

Yours truly,
I. M. FRANTIC.

Answer: He figures if his mother-in-law sleeps in a folding bed he will be able to shut her up whenever he wants to.

© the Associated Newspapers.

Huckleberry Pie

By ANNE CAMPBELL

IT'S just a huckleberry pie
Set on the window ledge to cool.
Outside the summer sun is high,
The sky a blue inverted pool.
And once again a barefoot child
Sets out to find, tin pail in hand,
The berries hiding in the wild
Far off upon that pleasant land.

It was in huckleberry time
The farm was loveliest to see . . .
I saw the morning-glories climb
Upon my window happily;
And glancing backward, as I walked
With cheerful footsteps down the lane,
It seemed to me the brown wrens mocked
That little girl so tanned and plain.

But nothing changed that sense of peace
That was my heart's blest quality.
The woodland path was a release
From irksome household tasks to me.
But now upon small things intent,
I view with an approving eye
The sweetness of home's sacrament,
Caught in a huckleberry pie.

© Western Newspaper Union.

Checked Tweed Suit

Mannish lines are developed in this dark brown, yellow and green checked tweed suit. The skirt is cut straight and the coat is slit up the back. Hand-knit gloves and sweater of dark brown wool complete the costume.

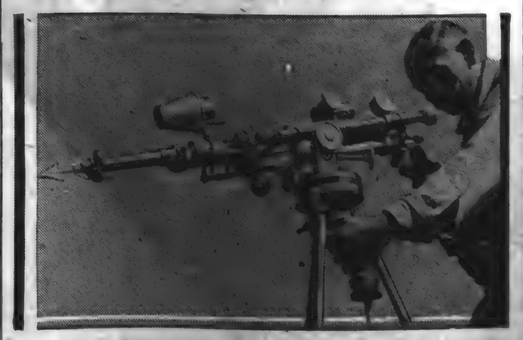
WITTY KITTY

By NINA WILCOX PUTNAM

The girl chum says it might help considerably if something was done about restricting the advice crop.

WNU Service.

Making It Tough for the Fishes



C. R. KLEIN of Santa Monica, Calif., is here shown with his recently completed harpoon gun which will be used for shooting swordfish, alligators, sharks, etc. The gun can also be used in emergencies by life guard stations for firing life lines to distressed persons and boats. The gun, constructed of steel and bronze, is 30 inches in length and weighs but 20 pounds. It has two hand pumps, one for low and the other for high pressure. The line can be shot 150 yards with 300 pounds pressure. The sight on the gun is similar to an airplane ring sight. The gun also has a rail attachment that can be used instead of a tripod. The tapered cone is used with the line wound on it, this cone keeping the line from tangling when the harpoon is fired. It is equipped with a pistol grip and trigger for firing.

Red Indians' Conception of a Supreme Being

The Indian Supreme Being had a number of different names: "He who gives us food," "He who is master of the earth," etc. Over a considerable part of the region, though not everywhere, he was also called Manitu, the common Algonkian word meaning supernatural being. Professor Cooper, anthropologist of the Catholic university of America, found that some of the Indians remembered his name as Kitci Manitu, or great spirit; but he is inclined to think that this title may have crept in since the coming of white men.

The Indians' Supreme Being was placed at the head of a highly developed organization of spirits by the eastern tribes, among whom Professor Cooper made his studies. He had under him four great "chief" spirits. Three ruled the birds, the four-footed animals and the fish, respectively. To the fourth was given the government of the caribou or wild reindeer, whose great importance to the Indians justified a separate rating.

Under each of the three "divisional chiefs" were many lesser overseer spirits, each having charge of a single species. Most important among the overseers of the birds were the rulers of the eagle and the fish hawk; chief among the overseers of mammals was the ruler of the bear. The Indians all agreed that these lesser spirits had not made their animals and did not own them; ownership was vested in the Supreme Being alone, and only he had the final decision over their disposal.

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the right dose of a properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a more natural movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It gently helps the average person's constipated bowels until nature restores their regularity.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drug store, ready for use.

The "Heavy Work"

An automobile tour can be rather pleasant if somebody else drives.

Help Kidneys

If poorly functioning Kidneys and Bladder make you suffer from Getting Up Nights, Nervousness, Rheumatic Pains, Stiffness, Burning, Smarting, Itching, or Acidity try the guaranteed Doctor's Prescription Cystex (Sis-tex) Cystex —Must fix you up or money back. Only 75¢ at druggists.

Constipation?

Rouge, creams and powders only hide complexion blemishes. They don't get at one of its frequent causes—constipation. Flush the bowels with Garfield Tea and rid yourself of the wastes that often clog pores and result in blotchy, erupted complexion. A week of this "internal beauty treatment" and smooth you. Begin tonight.

FREE SAMPLE Write to: GARFIELD TEA CO. Brooklyn, N. Y. Dept. B-8

(At your drug store)

GARFIELD TEA 25c & 10c

MEN, How would you like to receive 200 Letters a day, each containing a quarter? Will send plan and three formulas for 25c. BOGRAM SERVICE Box 414 - - - Lansing, Michigan.

PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM Restores Dandruff-Stops Hair Falling Imparts Color and Beauty to Gray and Faded Hair 60c and $1.00 at Druggists. Hiscox Chem. Wks., Patchogue, N.Y.

FLORESTON SHAMPOO—Ideal for use in connection with Parker's Hair Balsam. Makes the hair soft and fluffy. 50 cents by mail or at druggists. Hiscox Chemical Works, Patchogue, N. Y.

INDIAN HEAD CENTS $28.00 Half cents 1850. 1913 Liberty Head nickels 1866. Particulars send dime. Raymond E. Demaree, 113 N. Forsythe St., Berwin, Colorado.

Cash Paid for CANARIES FROM EVERYWHERE—WRITE NATIONAL PET SHOPS 2131 Olive St. - ST. LOUIS, MO.

SORES AND LUMPS—Any Sensitive Write for Free 224-Page Book on Boils, Carbuncles, Blotches, Ulcers.

NOVEMBER

L 919

0409

Housewife's Idea Box

To Press Synthetic Fabrics

Press synthetic fabrics with a warm iron first. Then increase the heat if necessary. If you have an automatic-control iron you eliminate the guess work.

THE HOUSEWIFE.

Copyright by Public Ledger, Inc.
WNU Service.

The Useful Onion

Everybody knows that boiled onions are splendid for breaking up a heavy cold, and also act as a stimulating nerve tonic, but not everybody profits by this knowledge.

Water in which onions have been boiled is a wonderful skin purifier, and whitens hands that are washed in it. In any case "onion water" should never be thrown away, as it makes splendid stock for soups.

The onion has household uses as well. If three or four bruised onions are boiled in a little water, the strained liquid is a cleaner of gilt picture frames. Apply with a soft brush, and polish with a clean duster.

Scorch marks caused by too hot an iron can be removed with a fairly wet paste made from boiled onion juice and fuller's earth. Leave on the scorch for an hour or two, and then wash off—first in cold and then in warm water.

If you tire easily—

why not reason out the cause of this unnatural condition?

Your first thought may be, "I must eat more." That's not all. You should enjoy what you do eat. Frequently, the blood cells are low... and this, perhaps, is what makes you feel weak. If this is your trouble the stomach may not be calling for sufficient food. Zest to eat may be lacking. But what a difference S.S.S. makes when taken just before meals. Just try it and notice how your appetite and digestion improve.

S.S.S. stimulates the flow of gastric juices and also supplies the precious mineral elements so necessary in blood-cell and hemo-glo-bin up-building. Do try it. It may be the rainbow you need to brush away present discouragement over your health condition.

Do not be blinded by the efforts of a few unethical dealers who may suggest substitutes. You have a right to insist that S.S.S. be supplied you on request. Its long years of preference is your guarantee of satisfaction.

S.S.S. the world's great blood medicine

Summing It Up

Make it thy business to know thyself, which is the most difficult lesson in the world.—Cervantes.

CREOMULSION

Your own druggist is authorized to cheerfully refund your money on the spot if you are not relieved by Creomulsion.

COUGHS

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR KIDNEYS!

If your kidneys are not working right and you suffer backache, dizziness, burning, scanty or too frequent urination, swollen feet and ankles; feel lame, stiff, "all tired out"... use Doan's Pills.

Thousands rely upon Doan's. They are praised the country over. Get Doan's Pills today. For sale by all druggists.

DOAN'S PILLS

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

▲▲▲ Have you anything around the house you would like to trade or sell? Try a classified ad. The cost is only a few cents and there are probably a lot of folks looking for just whatever it is you no longer have use for.

CLASSIFIED ADS GET RESULTS

Fur-Trimmed Short-Jacketed Suit

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IN THE game of late fall and early winter fashion about the most high-stylish play one can make is to stake all on a handsome short-jacketed suit, hiplength to be explicit, which is lavishly trimmed with luxurious fur. As an after thought add more than one fetching blouse. Begin with a blouse of tinsel knit, then a plaid velvet or taffeta and so on, leading up to a sumptuous tunic of glittering lame.

It is a question which is more exciting in point of novelty and elegance, the materials which go to make up these dramatic suits or the furs which adorn them. The new tweeds which fashion as many of the smartest suits are a treat to the eye both in the matter of color and novel weave.

However, all is not tweed that is tailored, for broadcloth is "in" this season and best-dressed women are ordering their suits made of handsome duvetyne in rich vibrant reds or greens or browns. Indeed than duvetyne we know of no smarter material for the new jacket suits, that is, unless you choose velvet.

As to interpreting the glories of velvet suits as "now is" in the style parade the most extravagant adjectives fall short of doing the theme justice. The best we can do is to call your attention to the fetching velvet costume centered in the illustration and let you judge for yourself as to what heights of glory this season's velvet suit fashions are being carried. A very choice grade of black velvet was selected for this formal afternoon suit. The sleeves are intriguingly worked with tucks to give them fullness at the elbow. The belt and pocket are decorated with gold-metal discs and the blouse is of red and gold lame. A flattering silver fox collar with a huge matching muff add "class" to this outfit de luxe. By the way we are going to see more muffs during the next few months than we have seen for winters and winters past.

The smart town suit to the left radiates that feeling of quiet elegance which bespeaks refinement and good taste. The brown striped woolen of which it is tailored is a more than ordinary weave. The effective styling of the generous mink collar is noteworthy in that it emphasizes the vogue which calls for clever rever treatments. This accent on designful revers is very noticeable throughout the fall and winter mode. The blouse worn with this suit is chartreuse crepe patterned with a gold threading.

The interesting note to carry in mind in regard to the suit to the right is that the jacket tops a one-piece dress—an excellent idea for winter warmth as well as costume chic. The jacket-and-dress suit is a favorite theme with designers. Very often the scheme is carried out in two woolens such as plaid for the dress with duvetyn or velveteen in a solid color for the jacket, the plaid repeated in the jacket lining. Nutria fur trims the light oxford wool suit in the picture. Fashion reports from Paris all stress the importance of nutria trimming and other similar furs. Another outstanding fashion is the black woolen suit which is trimmed in white ermine, galyak or breitschwantz.

© Western Newspaper Union.

WINTER GLOVE-MUFF BECOMES ACROBATIC

The winter glove-muff is becoming almost acrobatic. With wide and high cuffs reaching to the elbow, they look like coat sleeves, as they are intended to look, and when folded back over the hands and snapped together to form the muff, they in no way detract from the sleeve arrangement of the coat.

So wide is the cuff and so cleverly is the glove attached to it that the whole thing can also be worn as a hat. The hand of the glove is turned inside and lies flat across the top of the head, while the cuff—either of fur or fabric—forms the hat that is crushed into shape and held in place with a pin, feather, flower or button.

Milliners Are Awaiting New Trimmings for Hats

Hat trimmings have not said their last word and all the new millinery collections are reserving a very important place for them. There is a supple black felt toque, the front part of which is turned down as a brim and gathered in a draped effect against the crown, where it is held by a motif in red plastic material and metal, which is pinned through the felt.

Also, there is a cloche in grenat felt, entirely covered with rayon stitches in a lighter shade and in checked design. The crown is fastened at the back from the top of the head down to the hat band with black plastic buttons in half-conic shape.

Alluring Black Stockings to Be Popular for Winter

Deeper shades of hosiery are expected to be popular this winter, partly as a result of the revival of black hose. An off-black or mascara shade is outselling black, dealers report, and equally popular is a deep brown, called mahogany, which looks well with either black or brown attire. Hose for evening wear are darker than last winter, a beige-like suntan being preferred to the natural skin tone.

DOLMAN SLEEVES

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Many of the newest coats have dolman sleeves. The model pictured sets forth the attractiveness of this new silhouette which features big sleeves in fine shape. It is interesting to know that the taffeta frock worn underneath is in a rich red which matches the color of the handsome wool cloaking used for the dolman wrap. Luxurious blue fox trims collar and sleeves.

Old Sam's Advice

By E. L. GILL

© McClure Newspaper Syndicate.
WNU Service.

THE flower caught Bill Holland's eye. Blooming there so whitely in the stagnant waters of the swamp. He grasped Old Sam Matthias by the shoulder and pointed it out. Old Sam grunted in noncommittal fashion.

Young Bill had not been a cheerful companion to Old Sam on this last trip and Old Sam was showing his disappointment. Young Bill, for his part, was both definitely disappointed and irritated with Old Sam. He had come to the mountain shack of the old guide, seeking sympathy and help in the major crisis of his twenty-two years. But Old Sam was bored. Countless times before the boy had taken his problems to the unlettered, weather-beaten old guide in the hills, and always before Old Sam had set him aright.

The old man's attitude deepened Bill's resentment toward the world in general—and Betty in particular. The entire trouble, of course, was Betty. It was an ancient story that Bill told Old Sam—a story of the magnificent love of a boy for a girl; the boy imbued with the idealism of the age of chivalry hopelessly, fantastically in love with a fascinating bit of a girl suddenly irked by the restraint of old-fashioned standards and "out to find what life is all about."

It was not, Bill often told himself, that he had any desire whatever for the young lady's affection any longer. The maddening thing was that he couldn't rid his heart and mind and soul of her.

"I wouldn't know what to say to that, son," Old Sam condescended once or twice during the day. Nothing more. And when night had settled and they sat on the porch of the mountain shack, Old Sam talked of trout.

"I'm going to bed," the youth said.

"Got a little somethin' I'd might like to do tonight, been a thinkin' of that flower we saw back there in the swamp today. Somethin' sort of queer about that. Don't hanker much for sleep myself and have a mind to take the lantern and have a look. Better come along, you'll sleep the better for it."

The old man's suggestion sounded silly to the distracted youngster, who nevertheless consented, grudgingly.

The swamp was little more than a ten minute walk along the trail. Old Sam, boots drawn to his hips, led the way, carrying the lantern. The youth followed, flashlight in hand. At the edge of the water they stopped and, at Old Sam's direction, Bill searched the surface of the swamp until the flashlight caught the white flower.

"I'm a bit curious about that flower, Bill; I'm a-goin' to get it out and take it back to the shack; looks to me like a lily," and Old Sam started into the swamp, sinking knee-deep in the mire.

"It's some sort of a lily, sure as you live, son," he called back to Bill.

Back in the shack Ma Matthias rustled an old bucket, grumbling the while at "these consarn fool notions." Bill was dispatched to fill the bucket with clean rich earth and Old Sam set to work to replant his lily, talking the while in quiet, soothing tones, as he might have to a sick wayfarer.

"Brave little lady—had a right tough time of it out there in that swamp, I reckon.

"Can't figure out how you come to be in such a vile smellin' place—mighty bad company you was in.

"Seemed to like it right smart at that—stubborn as an old mule about comin' out—guess you didn't know them weeds was a-goin' to choke you in time.

"There she is now, Ma, good as new—and ain't she a beauty! Reckon she feels a lot better, too—suspect if she could talk she would be a-tellin' us that she's mighty happy to get out of that swamp."

But Old Sam got no further with his monologue. Young Bill Holland was dashing out through the open doorway of the shack.

• • •

Betty was dancing lightly from table to table, regaling the party with a song. Bill stood, unnoticed, watching. He waited until Betty's solo dance brought her close to where he stood. As she whirled, he caught her upraised arm in a biting grip. A youth rushed forward to resent the indignity. Bill's fist caught the point of his chin.

The merry-makers confronted Bill en masse at the doorway, denouncing him in shrill outbursts. Meanwhile, Bill was delivering eloquent if disjointed references to poisonous weeds and filthy water.

Betty was a subdued young lady. The first flush of fiery indignation passed as quickly as it came. It may have been an expression on Bill Holland's face; it may have been something else.

She was quite ready to go to the car with Bill. Meekly, she allowed herself to be led up the steps of the recorder's home. Meekly, too, aided by Bill's gruff promptings, she answered the necessary questions.

When they were again in the roadster and Bill had pocketed the document given him by the recorder, Betty laid her head on Bill's shoulder and, women-like, cried great, warm tears. Now, for the first time since he left Old Sam Matthias' shack far up in the hills, Bill's clenched jaw relaxed.

Far up in the hills Ma Matthias was again reminding Old Sam that he had to go to the swamp after breakfast. Ma was a practical soul and saw no sense in paying that florist down in town a dollar and a half for a potted lily and then leaving the pot buried in that dirty swamp.

But Old Sam was sleeping peacefully.

Old City Under Spotlight

Pecs, Hungary, With Long Historical Record, Comes Into Prominence With Probably Unprecedented Hunger Strike Ever Carried Out.

When hundreds of coal miners of Pecs, Hungary, recently sought to force their demands for increased wages upon their employers by remaining without food in coal pits, they brought fame to their town in one of the most unusual ways on record.

"Pecs, with approximately 64,000 inhabitants, is the eighth largest city in Hungary," says a bulletin from the Washington headquarters of the National Geographic society. "It lies about 110 miles almost due south of Budapest, near the southern border of the country, and about 15 miles west of the Danube river.

"Pecs has not often attracted international attention, but it has existed for many centuries—probably since Roman times. It was the see of a bishop as early as 1009. The Turks occupied it from 1543 to to 1686. Although there are few relics of its early years to be seen today, one minaret still stands from which, during Turkish occupation, Moslem criers called the faithful to prayer. The Turks altered many Christian churches and used them as mosques; but when the invaders returned east, the temporary mosques again became Christian places of worship.

"The Pecs cathedral, a four-towered building, was originally built in the Eleventh century, but was rebuilt during the latter part of the Nineteenth century. It is one of the city's outstanding landmarks and one of the oldest churches in Hungary. Pecs also has a university which was established about 600 years ago; but many times throughout the city's turbulent history it has had to close its doors.

"The Mecsek hills northwest of the city are famous for their vineyards. Well-kept farms frame the city, but Pecs is more famous as an industrial center than as a market. It stands out among Hungarian cities as one of the few where most of the workers are employed in industry. More than three-fifths are so employed. About one-third work in the coal mines, east of the city, others in pottery, metallurgical, and clothing industries.

"The coal mined in this area is the best in Hungary, and accounted for a large portion of the kingdom's production of more than 6,000,000 tons in 1932. Hungary also has important diggings at Ajk, and elsewhere, a number of brown-coal and lignite mines.

"Perhaps one reason why Pecs is not better known is that it is many centuries older than its present name. Before it was called Pecs in the Eighteenth century, it was known as Funfkirchen (German for 'Five Churches'). The German name was justified because thousands of Germans moved to the city when it was a sleepy town of 2,000, left by the Turks. After the Germans arrived, Jews arrived and organized the commerce of the growing city.

"Awakened Pecs was a magnet to thousands of Hungarian peasants and other Europeans. In 1840 there were more than 14,000 inhabitants; in 1900, 44,000.

"Today the city's population is a hodgepodge of many races. A recent census showed that about 63 per cent of Pecs' residents hailed from other parts of Hungary and many other countries of Europe."

Mercolized Wax

Keeps Skin Young

Absorb blemishes and discolorations using Mercolized Wax daily as directed. Invisible particles of aged skin are freed and all defects such as blackheads, tan, freckles and large pores disappear. Skin is then beautifully clear, velvety and so soft—face looks years younger. Mercolized Wax brings out your hidden beauty. At all leading druggists.

—Powdered Saxolite—

Reduces wrinkles and other age-signs. Simply dissolve one ounce Saxolite in half-pint witch hazel and use daily as face lotion.

Truly Great Man

Emerson's line: "It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude."

ALL CLEANED UP and RARIN' TO GO

CLEANED SPARK PLUGS GIVE MOTORS THE SPARK OF LIFE...SAVE GAS... MAKE STARTING EASY only 5¢ a plug

Registered AC Spark Plug Cleaning Station

Look for the "Plug-in-the-Tub"

Removing spark plug Oxide Coating gets rid of the chief cause of sluggishness, hard starting, loss of power. All Registered AC Cleaning Stations are ready—NOW—to clean your spark plugs. It costs so little—means so much! Badly worn plugs should, of course, be replaced with new ACs

For any line of Business

One of the many styles of the new Burroughs Cash Machines.

Burroughs CASH MACHINES

A distinct advance, applying new principles and new features to the registering of cash and recording of all transactions. Provide absolute protection together with speed and ease of operation. Made in a variety of styles and colors. Phone or write today for complete information.

SURPRISINGLY LOW PRICES

Burroughs Adding Machine Company
Merton Building, 200 W. Washington St.
Chicago, Ill.

NOVEMBER

L 919

FOR SALE!
OR TRADE COLUMN

Kinsey's for Stoves, just a little cheaper. Also Aladdin Lamps. 45t1.

CIDER: 10c and 20c per gallon. 41tf. Widney Orchard.

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

WANTED: To buy White and Yellow Onions, any quantity. See George Hart, St. Joe. 42t6.

For Rent: The Jno. Swaidner farm is for rent occupancy March 1st. 189 acres. A good home for some one willing and equipped. Write J. R. Cannan, Wapakoneta, Ohio. 45t4.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

For Rent: A St. Joe property at moderate rent. Inquire at News office. 37tf.

WANTED TO BUY: Horseradish roots. Triangle Food Co. 43t3

APPLES, APPLES: A large crop. Depression prices. Widney Orchard, St. Joe. 41tf.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

For Sale: An electric range at $50. If interested call News office. 41tf.

FARM WANTED: We have a man who wants to buy in Concord township very soon. See W. D. RICKLE & CO, real estate dealers, Auburn, Indiana. 43t3p

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3890

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Frederick Maynard Thornton deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 3rd day of December, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receieve their distributive shares.

Witness, My Name, this 5th day of November, 1934.

MABELLE S. THORNTON, Executrix.

Henry C. Springer, Atty. 44t3.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Myrtle Howey deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

Farmers & Merchants State Bank, Administrator.

November 9, 1934.

Atkinson & Husselman, Atty. 45t3

Revival Meeting!

AT THE

Methodist Protestant Church

St. Joe, Indiana

-- HEAR --

Mr. SAM HARA of Detroit, Michigan, Evangelistic Singer.

Rev. WILLIAM D. KOEHNLEIN, PASTOR of the Local Methodist Protestant Church

Sunday Schedule

SUNDAY SCHOOL	9:30 A. M.
EVANGELISTIC SERVICES	10:30 A. M.
CHILDREN'S SERVICES	7:00 P. M.
EVANGELISTIC SERVICE	7:30 P. M.

Week Day Schedule

CHILDREN'S SERVICES ..... 7:00 P. M.
(Souvenirs given at every service to all children present)

EVANGELISTIC SERVICE ..... 7:00 P. M.
(Every Evening Except Saturday)

FOR THE BEST
Bran and Middlings
AT LOWEST PRICES
—BUY FROM—
ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

CARD OF APPRECIATION

I wish in this manner to thank the voters of DeKalb Co., for their loyal support in the election, November 6.

45t1p Calvin C. Kain.

COBURN'S CORNERS

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Nov. 11 was 63, collection $3.20.

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Marvin Poper.

Mrs. Josephine Shuff, of Niles, Mich., called on Mattie Hart Monday afternoon.

Quite a number were absent from Bible School, due to different families entertaining the measles.

Each of the St. Louis Cardinal base ball players received $5,000 as his share of the world series money.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rothenberger and two daughters, of Montpelier, Ohio, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. George Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. Garth Shull and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ulm and their families spent Sunday at Edon, Ohio, with the ladies parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCutcheon.

The Sunshine and Shadow contest, which has been on for the past five months, is over. The Sunshiners winning by having 109 days and the Shadow 44. A fine entertainment and big supper is promised the winners Thanksgiving night.

Mrs. Ella Martin and son, Floyd of Paw Paw, Mich., Mrs. Dave Hamm and Mrs. Doris Stuck, of Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Shull and daughter, Carol, Mrs. Lilly Shull and daughter, Cecil, of Newville, called on Mrs. Eva Shull, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ella Wilmot celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Edna Jenkins. Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot are highly esteemed people and are enjoying good health. Congratulations and we hope they may spend many more happy years together.

The R. H. Club was very pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Laney Gee. Fourteen members and one guest were present. Special numbers were conducted by Berniece Wilder and Hazel Washler. A dainty luncheon of sandwiches, olives, pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee was served. The club adjourned to meet Nov. 20 with Marie Trostel.

NEWVILLE

A son was born Nov. 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Rickerd.

Miss Pauline Beree is home from a visit last week with relatives in Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gaff spent Sunday in Ft. Wayne with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wyatt.

Quarterly conference will be held at Mt. Pleasant U. B. Church Monday evening, Nov. 19.

The Missionary Society will give a program Sunday evening, Nov. 18 at the U. B. Church.

Eugene Webster left last Wednesday for Florida. He expects to bring back a truck load of fruit.

Cottage prayer meeting is being held at Mt. Pleasant this week. Revival services will begin there Nov. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hedford and R. C. Reed, of Fort Wayne, called on Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Richmond and family and Harry Brown and family were week-end guests of relatives in Peru, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, of this place and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith and family, from Mongo, were Sunday guests of relatives at Hicksville.

Mrs. Bird Ames was brought here from Butler last Thursday, to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Washler, where she will be cared for by Mrs. Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt, O. A. Blood, Miss Prudence Blood, Mrs. Emily Kline, Mrs. Geraldine Webster and Mrs. Mildred Enzor spent Saturday in Hicksville.

SPENCERVILLE

There are 13 cases of measles reported in the school, mostly in Junior High.

Gale Bowser is assisting his brother, Roy Bowser in remodeling his home at St. Joe.

The last of the school dinners was held on Wednesday of last week, nearly $75.00 was raised.

Fred High, who has been ill for the past three weeks, left on Tuesday for California, to spend the winter.

Mrs. Maude Beams will entertain the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church at her home on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 21.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Sunday, Nov. 11, was 58, collection, $2.10; Lutheran, 73, collection, $3.13.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bowser and children, of St. Joe and James Reed and wife, were Sunday dinner guests at the R. U. Bowser home.

Mrs. Zelpha Steward will entertain the C. C. Club at her home on Thursday afternoon, and on Thursday evening, Nov. 22, the club will meet with Mrs. Cleo Reed.

Miss Doris Rhoades entertained the following guests in honor of her guest, Miss Winifred Gunter, of Fort Wayne, over the week end, Miss Doris Beams and Miss Violet Pflaumer.

Merton Allen very pleasantly entertained the True Blue class at his home on Saturday. Contests were enjoyed. The guests were Mrs. Chloe Allen and daughters, Frankie and June and Miss Imogene Allen.

The Home Bureau Society of the Methodist Church was pleasantly entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cora Steward. The guests were Mrs. Minta Rhodes, Mrs. Princess Rectenwall, Miss Minta Steward and Miss Pat Wyans.

On Thursday evening of this week Miss Doris Beams and six high school girls went to Auburn at the request of County Supt. Stallman, to sing at a banquet given at the Christian Church. The young ladies were Margaret Kimes, Dorothy Markle, Anna Ellen Ryan; Pauline Furnish, Alice Baker and Isabelle Chapman.

The Young Ladies Social Club met on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Cleo Reed. Those winning prizes were Mrs. Troas Carpenter, Mrs. Janice Bowser, Mrs. Ruby Craft, and Mrs. Opal Berbower. The guests were Mrs. Esther Gloyd, Mrs. Mary Reed, Miss Winifred Gunter, of Fort Wayne, Miss Carol Reed and Miss Loraine Rhodes. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Esther Gloyd.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Miss Lois Engle and Ernest Woods, of Ligonier, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Weaver.

Miss Emma Whistler, of Wawasee, was a guest several days last week at the George Weaver home.

Mr. C. M. Pinchon, of Minneapolis, Minn., spent over the week-end here with his sister, Mrs. Wm. Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gerdes, of South Whitley, spent Sunday here with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Gerdes.

Albert Moore and family and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shroyer were at Ligonier, Sunday, guests of Albert's mother, Mrs. Cora Huff.

Mr. and Mrs. Webster Stout, of Fort Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Widney, of Columbia City, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Alice Copp.

Rev. Schondelmayer and family have moved to town from the Silas Reasoner farm into the Shroyer property, recently vacated by Mr. Lane.

Betty Keesler spent Monday night with Ellen Zimmerman.

Dr. J. E. Graham was named president of a new game club at Auburn last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Foltz, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham, spent Sunday afternoon at Huntertown, in the J. R. Hillegas home.

I desire to sincerely thank all those who were so kind to me and who so loyally supported me during the past campaign.

45t1p. Nina M. Little.

On Nov. 6 Florida's electorate ratified a constitutional amendment which exempts from taxation of every kind (state, county and municipal) all bona fide homes of an assessed value up to $5,000.00. It also went wet and grapes grow there galore. A winery is already established.

Miss Edna Landrey, of Muskegon, Mich., a student of the Bible Institute in Fort Wayne, was the week-end guest of Rev. and Mrs. William D. Koehnlein. Miss Landrey assisted Mrs. Koehnlein in the morning services at Milan Center and Concord and spoke at the children's services at St. Joe.

At the group meeting on last Thursday evening, comprising Harlan, Milan, St. Joe and Concord M. P. Churches, at Concord, 104 were in attendance. A program was prepared by a representative from each of the churches and it proved to be entertaining. Coffee, pumpkin pie and doughnuts were served. In three months a similar get-together will be held at the Milan Church.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

In a teachers meeting held Monday afternoon the local full time teachers voted to take memberships in the Red Cross for the year 1935. The teachers also assumed responsibility for conducting the roll call in both town and township. Since that meeting the work is under way and some one will call to see you about a Red Cross membership in the very near future. It is a compliment to be invited to join the Red Cross.

Mr. E. A. Marx, a school photographer, from South Bend, called at the local school on Tuesday afternoon and photographed all pupils from grades one to twelve. In about ten days proofs of the pictures will be here. Any pupil or parent desiring pictures may secure the same at a very nominal price. The order of the pictures is entirely optional.

There was a good attendance at the Parent-Teachers Association program on Monday evening. The program opened with community singing led by Mr. Gerdes. President H. K. Schondelmayer offered the opening prayer. Special numbers were then presented by groups of boys and girls from the fifth and sixth grades with their teacher, Miss Morr, at the piano. Ersa Reidenbach then read the poem "In Flander's Field," Following this Rev. Walter Coburn gave the address of the evening on the subject "Lessons from the World War." A short business meeting followed the program.

A majority of the members of the senior class have ordered class rings which they hope to receive just prior to the Christmas vacation.

The juniors are conducting candy bar sales to provide funds for the class treasury.

From funds raised by the special Halloween lunch the Home Economics Department has provided a fitting mirror for the clothing room. This department is contemplating a "penny supper" to raise additional funds in the near future.

The Fillmore Shull family have withdrawn from the local school. We are informed that their new home is in Garrett.

Third and Fourth Grades

The Fourth Grade are starting a transportation project in Geography. We expect some very interesting work.

Our third grade has covered over half of the work in their Readers; we are reading from supplementary books now.

The fourth grade honor roll for spelling this week includes Walter Fetters, Loren Inlow, Betty Nicholls, Frances Reidenbach, Mary Ellen Rude, Marilyn Zonker and William Smtih.

Mrs. Floy Smith is spending the week with her husband.

Mrs. K. E. Fling and daughter, Patty, of Bradford, Ohio, were Saturday dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Price.

Sunday dinner guests in the Will Hamilton home were Harry Hursh and wife, Mrs. Lela Northrup and Cecil Wisler and wife.

All children love the comics. We are now able to give you a 20 page comic with the Sunday Examiner for only 10c. Order a copy saved for you at News office.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran and Miss Karma Jean Wilcox spent Sunday afternoon at New Haven with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Copp and family also at Fort Wayne with Mrs. Areitta Wilcox.

TRAPPING SEASON IS OPENED IN INDIANA

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 15.—The open season on fur-bearing animals started in Indiana today with every indication that it will be a profitable one for the hundreds of Hoosiers who engage in the handling of native furs. The open season extends from Nov. 15 to January 15, permitting the taking of fox, opossum, raccoon, skunk, mink, and muskrat.

In anticipation of a greater number of trappers this year than in the past, Kenneth M. Kunkel, Director of the Division of Fish and Game, Department of Conservation, urged observance of state laws governing the taking of fur-bearing animals. Indiana residents are required to have a state license (the license issued for hunting and fishing also covers trapping) which is issued by county clerks or sporting goods dealers upon the payment of a $1 fee. No separate trapping license is required except for non-residents of the state. Non-resident trapping licenses are issued upon payment of a fee of $15.50. Licenses are required for trapping even when it is carried on the trapper's own land.

Other state laws make it unlawful: To trap on any land without the written consent of the owner, occupant or lessee; to set a steel trap on the land of another less than 18 inches inside a hole, cave or log, or to fail to inspect traps or deadfalls every 36 hours, or to fail to remove any animal or fowl caught therein; to remove or dislodge or attempt to remove or dislodge any undomesticated raccoon from its den or nesting place; to take any fur-bearing animal by digging or by use of smoke, fumes, or chemicals but a person may kill such animals on his own premises when necessary for the protection of his property, provided such killing is reported to the Department of Conservation within five days and arrangements made for the disposition of the hide; fur-bearing animals and the freshly skinned hides thereof taken lawfully in open season, may be possessed for five days after the season closes, Jan. 20 the possession of the animals or the freshly skinned hides or fur is prima facie evidence that the animals were taken in closed season.

Fur buyers operating in Indiana must secure buyers' licenses and must report to the Department of Conservation within 15 days after the closing of the fur season, showing all sales and purchases of fur. For Indiana residents the buyers' licenses are $10 a year and for non-residents $15 a year. These licenses are issued only by the Department of Conservation.

PUBLIC SALE!

Due to quitting farming the undersigned will sell at public sale at their residence on the J. N. Scholes farm, 1 mile north and ½ mile west of Coburntown Church, or 1½ miles east of St. Joe, on the river road, commencing at 10 a. m., C. S. T., on Wednesday, November 21, 1934

3 Head of Horses; 9 Head of Cattle; 4 Brood Sows; Almost complete set of Farming Machinery; A few pieces of furniture; Feed: Consisting of 35 tons of good alfalfa hay; 10 ton clover hay; 500 bushel corn; 150 bushel oats; 3 bushel good 80-day Little Early seed corn; 8 acres wheat in ground; about 40 shocks good corn fodder.

TERMS OF SALE: CASH IN HAND.

Arthur C. Koons
J. N. Scholes

A. E. Lybarger, Auct, Guy D. Wilson, Clerk.

Court Theatre--Auburn

ANNOUNCES NEW POLICY CHANGE

FREE

MIDNIGHT PREVIEW
—OF—
SUNDAY - MONDAY PROGRAM
COME AS LATE AS
9:30 SATURDAY
SEE 2 PROGRAMS 1 PRICE

AMERICAN
Shoe Rebuilders

400 South Main St. AUBURN, IND.
N. W. CHURCHILL, Prop.

Your Old Shoes Rebuilt Like New:

Men's Soles	75c, $1.00 and $1.25
Men's Soles and Heels	$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75
Men's Full Soles and Heels	$2.25
Men's Rubber Heels	40c and 50c
Ladies' Soles	65c, 75c and $1.00
Ladies' Soles and Heels	90c, $1.00 and $1.25
Ladies' Rubber or Leather Lifts	25c
Ladies' Rubber Heels	35c

Boy's, Girl's and Children's Work in Proportion
WE USE HIGH GRADE MATERIALS WITH ALL WORK GUARANTEED

Shoes Dyed Black - - 50c

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN OF REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch
(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

NOVEMBER

L 919

● ● ● we can give your printing that modernistic touch so popular in present day advertising

ST. JOE NEWS.

ADVERTISE your merchandise and it will sell!

VOL. XLIX — ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, NOV. 22, 1934 — NUMBER 46

NEWS GETS THREE INTERESTING LETTERS

From Boys in the C. C. Camps of California and all are Enjoying Camp Life.

Camp City Creek,
Co. 565, Highlands, Calif.

Dear Fred:

As it seems to be the custom of all the C. C. boys from home to write a description of their camp, I will describe ours.

We are located in a valley high in the mountains. The air is arid here and when we go into the valley it is hard to breathe and hear.

We are surrounded on three sides by mountains. On the fourth side is a canyon. The whole camp and mountains are surrounded and covered by sage and buck brush.

On our left we can just see the snow capped peak of Mt. Baldy and to our right are the mountains surrounding Death Valley. We are just twelve miles from San Bernardino and sixty miles from Los Angeles.

The road into town is all paved except a mile leading into camp. We are about twenty miles from Arrowhead Lake, which is a resort for many of the movie stars from Hollywood. At the foot of the mountains and also bordering the road into town are orange groves. Many groves are just turning while a few are getting ripe.

The roads are all crooked and those in the mountains are made of dirt. We can see about ten roads from camp and only two are paved.

Must close and I am thanking you for the paper as it seems to bring a feeling of home into the camp.

With my best wishes to you and St. Joe, I am,

Sincerely yours,
Harley Like.

Company Store, Co. 562, CCC
Camp F-155
Solvang, California
November 14, 1934

Mr. Fred Leighty, Editor:
St. Joe News, St. Joe, Ind.

Dear Fred:

Well, I guess it is about time that I tried in some small way to repay you for your courtesy in sending me The News every week. I'll try to paint for you the beauty and some of the great scenery that we saw in our trip to California from Idaho, and of the surroundings right here in camp.

We left Idaho at about ten o'clock on Thursday nite, Oct. 31, and it being so late in the evening we didn't get to see any new country until arising next morning, we were then in the Great Plains of Oregon and proceeded down the Columbia River all that day. At the place where it cuts thru the Coastal Range, the Columbia River has carved out of the solid rock, one of the greatest and most beautiful gorges in the world, it is all of fifty miles long and at places must be a mile wide, one of the most beautiful spots on our whole journey.

We arrived in Portland at two that afternoon (Thurs.) and left at four after being allowed to see some of the town. We proceeded down the valley between the Sierra Nevadas and the Rockies all the rest of the day and most of Friday. At Sacremento, Calif., we crossed over to the coast and saw the first of the Pacific at Vallejo, Cal., at about four Friday afternoon.

At Oakland we saw the sight that many wait whole lifetimes to view, the Golden Gates at sunset, really one of the most beautiful sights in the United States, and we were lucky enough to see it at the moment of its most impressiveness.

Upon arising next morning (Saturday) we saw that we had arrived at our detraining point, Orella, Calif. After eating breakfast on the train, we got our first view of the country that is to be our home for at least five months, and quite a nice country to see and to contemplate as one's home. Palm trees everywhere and Spanish type homes and buildings, along with the beauty of the Pacific and its expansive beaches, it makes quite a nice picture.

We are located in Camp Refugio, Pass, about twenty-eight miles from Santa Barbara, which is our railhead and supply town, but we receive our mail from Solvang, Calif., which is only about eight miles from town, and has a population of about 500 people. Santa Barbara is all that one hears about a California Town, all of the town is built on Spanish lines, and boasts one of the oldest Spanish Missions in the country, the population is obaut 35,000 and made up of a very fine class of people, too.

The location for our camp, must have been picked by an artist, in fact is is known as the most beautiful campsite in this District. We are situated on the very top of the Coastal Range, and from our windows can look down on one side into the Santa Ynex Valley and Solvang, while on the other of course is the Pacific, about thirty miles out are the Santa Barbara Islands, a cluster of three rocky islets. These can be seen on a clear view, seeming to be about five miles from the shore rather than the thirty that they are. All in all, I must say that I'm very appreciative of the opportunity to see America First, that the Government is giving us, for I'm sure that hardly any of us would have had the chance otherwise.

Thanking you again for The News, I remain,
Mal Woodcox.

November 12, 1934.
Glenburn, California.

To the Editor St. Joe News:

On July 5, 1934, I, together with Henry Mansfield, left St. Joe and went to Fort Wayne. We passed our preliminary medical examination. All in all, about 300 boys passed the examination. About 8 P. M. we entrained for Ft. Knox, Ky., which is the CCC conditioning camp for recruits from the northeast district.

Following our arrival we were given dinner, after which we went thru the final medical examination. Again Henry and I passed. Then we were supplied with the clothing and equipment necessary for our future camp life. After a six-day stay we again entrained—this time for Naples, Idaho. During four days riding we saw many places and things. Some of them were: Missouri mudflats, Iowa farms, beautiful Minnesota lakes, foothills in North Dakota, sheep ranches in Montana. We also passed thru one of the most impressive places of scenic beauty—Glacier National Park in the Rocky Mountains.

Naples is the summer CCC camp. We stayed here four months. We slept in tents which accommodated about 16 boys. The work consisted of building simple roads, fighting fires, and constructing bridges. Later about 40 boys were transferred to a "spike" camp 12 miles from the main camp. A "spike" camp is one which prepares a roadway to enable trucks from the main camp to gain easier access to the work project site. We were in the "spike" camp about three months. Then winter set in.

Since the Idaho winter is too inclement to permit work, the main and spike camps entrained for Glenburn, Calif., on October 29. We arrived at our destination the next day. Several large trucks took the boys (from Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky,) to camp, about 30 miles from the depot.

We sleep in barracks, each of which will accommodate 48 men. On work days we arise at 7:00 A. M., eat breakfast at 7:30, leave for work at 8:00. Since we are about 14 miles from camp, we bring our dinner with us. Coffee is made by the truck driver. At present I am with a squad of 10 fellows who cut wood. Another large bunch of boys is putting up a telephone wire thru the forest.

On Saturday, Sunday, and holidays we do not work. We generally use these days for recreation. A large room is provided for this purpose. We can play cards, ping-pong, billiards, or read. The exchange store—or "Canteen" is also located in the recreation room. Adjacent to this building is one of the most popular places in camp—the basket ball court. We can also play ball and horseshoe, in addition to hiking and taking photographs. On certain nights of the week—usually the week-end—two trucks take some of the boys to town.

This state is famous for its natural beauty, especially Mt. Shasta. It is the third highest peak in the United States—about 14,000 feet—snow-covered and very dignified. Since our camp is situated in volcanic region, there are many lava rocks laying about. A peaceful creek flowing by the camp adds to the beauty of the scenery.

The weather is for the most part pleasant, although the nights are frigid to the extent of thick frost formation on the windows. On one occasion snow fell during the night and in the morning it became warm enough to force us to remove our shirts while cutting wood.

Those mothers who wonder what their boys do while in the three C's should be pleased at the many advantages offered them—travel, association with new fellows, work which will develop their bodies, and finally, the chance to earn some money.

In the advent that more exciting adventures should befall the boys, I will do my best to keep the folks back home well informed of what goes on here.

Leslie "Chuck" Inlow,
CCC—Co. 561, Camp F-17,
Glenburn, California.

Our Thanksgiving Day

My Puritan grandmother swept and spun
And prayed to God on Thanksgiving Day;
Her soul content with a work well done
And her heart too earnest for pleasures gay.
But I like to think that her irksome load,
Travail and labor and urge and goad,
Was joy—because she was hewing a road
A road that should be my way.

My Puritan grandmother blazed a trail
And looked to God on Thanksgiving Day,
And how can I dare to shirk or fail,
I who have such a debt to pay?
Teach me, Lord, as I kneel in prayer,
To lift her torch in my hands, to dare
To keep unsullied and straight and fair
The road that she made my way.

L. MITCHELL THORNTON
in American Agriculturist

NEW HUNTING, FISHING LICENSES ARE PRINTED

Hunting, fishing and trapping licenses for 1935 have been printed and are now being prepared for distribution to the county clerks and other designated agents, to be placed on sale December 15th. While the licenses will be placed on sale throughout the state on Dec. 15, they will not be valid until Jan. 1.

The sale of hunting licenses has been unusually heavy thru out the state during recent weeks. In many counties the number of licenses issued has been in excess of the number issued during the same period in 1933. These licenses are issued on a calendar year basis, being good from January 1 to January 1, and must be renewed each year.

OUR LIBERTIES AT STAKE

In one of his books, the late ex-President Wilson said: "I do not want to live under a philanthropy. I do not want to be taken care of by the government. . . . I want only to have right and justice prevail so far as I am concerned. Give me right and justice and I will undertake to take care of myself. I will not live under trustees if I can help it. I do not care how wise, how patriotic, the trustees may be. I have never heard of any group of men in whose hands I am willing to trust the liberties of the American people."

Woodrow Wilson, before he became President, was a distinguished educator and historian, and in that statement he ably reflects the true American spirit—the spirit that won our independence, wrote our Constitution, and gave us democratic government. That spirit is the direct antithesis of paternalism. Its base is in the solid rock of individual self-reliance. Its image is the typical American who, like the War President, wants no one to determine his destinies, and wants only, under fair conditions, to carve out his own future.

If we, as a people, lose that spirit, the word Democracy will ring hollowly indeed. The nation abounds with those who would have us accept paternalism, fascism, communism—one form or another of dictatorship. They would have us surrender our liberties to a group of public trustees. And by doing that we would, in the fine words of the old saying, be trading our inheritance for a mess of pottage.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Answer the Call to Service.

If you want to rent a farm or have one to rent, a classified ad will help you.

"Without reading," says Donald Richberg, "A man can see only a small part of the world."

Sick and disabled veterans and their dependent families have been the special charge of the Red Cross and the recurring problems of hospitalization, claims and welfare continue a vital concern.

While the opening of the quail and rabbit hunting seasons has crowded fishing into the background, many of the real nimrods are still spending their spare time on the banks of streams and the lakes with considerable sport and good catches as their reward. Reports of the game wardens indicate some fine fishing although there are few fishermen out.

"If we knew the cares and crosses
Crowding round our neighbor's way;
If we knew the little losses,
Sorely grievous day by day,
Would we then so often chide him
For the lack of thrift and gain—
Casting o'er his heart a shadow,
Leaving on his life a stain?"

PILGRIMS' FAST DAY

PREVIOUS to the start of the Pilgrims from Leyden, Holland, on their trip to America, a solemn day of fasting was decreed, the day before leaving, the 21st day of July, 1620. After the landing in Plymouth, the Colonists experienced great hardships, and as a means of evidencing their reliance on Almighty God a solemn day of fasting was proclaimed for Wednesday, the 16th day of July, 1623. On this day no food was partaken of from sunrise to sunset, but the entire day was spent in religious observance and prayer.—Washington Star.

Office Phone: 37W. Residence Phone: 37J

Kinsey Funeral Home
AMBULANCE SERVICE
LICENSED EMBALMER
(Lady Attendant)
Hardware and Furniture
Just a little cheaper— Be sure and ask for tickets

Consider Your Winters Fuel
cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!
Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.
Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.

Built to one high standard of
CHEVROLET QUALITY

THE STANDARD CHEVROLET
For Economical Transportation

$465 AND UP

SPORT ROADSTER $465
COACH 495
COUPE 485
STANDARD SEDAN 540
STANDARD SEDAN DELIVERY
(to be announced soon)

Above are list prices of passenger cars at Flint, Mich. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price of Standard Models is $18 additional. List prices of commercial cars quoted are f. o. b. Flint, Mich. Special equipment extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

BUILT to the one high standard of Chevrolet quality; combining notable style, performance and stamina—the Standard Chevrolet is nevertheless the world's lowest-priced Six! . . . Features include Body by Fisher; Fisher No Draft Ventilation; Chevrolet valve-in-head engine; weatherproof, cable-controlled brakes. Drive the Standard Chevrolet—now.

THE MASTER CHEVROLET
Masterpiece of the low-price field

LARGE and luxurious, the Master Chevrolet is at the same time unusually economical. . . . You will be won by the performance of its 80-horsepower, valve-in-head engine . . . the rich finish of its Fisher Bodies . . . the extra safety of its weatherproof, cable-controlled brakes . . . and by its remarkable Knee-Action ride. Chevrolet dealers ask that you drive this car—today!

$540 AND UP

SPORT ROADSTER $540
COACH 580
TOWN SEDAN 615
SEDAN 640
COUPE 560
SPORT COUPE 600
CABRIOLET 665
SPORT SEDAN 675

Above are list prices of passenger cars at Flint, Mich. With bumpers, spare tire and tire lock, the list price of Master Models is $20 additional. Prices subject to change without notice.

CHEVROLET MOTOR COMPANY, DETROIT, MICHIGAN. Compare Chevrolet's low delivered prices and easy G.M.A.C. terms. A General Motors Value

ONE RIDE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

FURNISH MOTOR SALES
Spencerville, Indiana.

NOVEMBER

L 919 U412

The St. Joe News

Entered at the postoffice at St. Joe, Indiana, second class matter.

Republican in Politics, with fairness to all, for the best interest of the community and county as a whole.

F. B. Leighty, Editor and Publisher
Lora E. Leighty, Associate Editor

Subscription .....$1.50 per year

Card of Thanks, Resolutions of respect, Poetry, Business locals and all items pertaining to money raising will be charged for at our regular line rate for advertising.

GETS MONEY FROM UNKNOWN CREDITOR

Frank M. Brandon, who has charge of the liquidation of the St. Joe Valley Bank, reported to The News recently, a most peculiar happening.

A letter mailed at Spencerville, addressed to him personally, contained two $20 bills and one $10 bill, with a note unsigned stating:

"The enclosed money, is an amount I own the bank. The note is lost, I have learned. Nevertheless, I want to pay it anyway. See that this money is included in the settlement. I shall make myself known at the right time. For the present you will not know who I am. This includes interest."

In talking with Mr. Brandon he says that he is able to account for all papers and notes in his possession and that this must be of long standing and taken from the bank papers, possibly as uncollectable. But nevertheless, he has credited the amount to the miscellaneous receipts, received from sources other than from the inventory of the bank holdings.

WM. JOLLY MEETS WITH FATAL ACCIDENT

Funeral services for William T. Jolly, aged 54, of Hicksville, Ohio, who passed away at St. Joseph hospital, Fort Wayne, Indiana, Friday, November 16, 1934, were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Rhodes near Spencerville, Indiana, Sunday, November 18 at 1:30 P. M., Rev Joseph Ferguson, of Auburn, Indiana, officiating.

Mr. Jolly leaves his aged father, Thomas Jolly, one brother, Howard Jolly, and two sisters, Mrs. Myrta Klingle, of Hicksville, O., and Mrs. Verna Rhodes of Spencerville, Ind.

Death was due to an accident Thursday, shortly after noon, when he, with his brother, Howard, were enroute from Peabody, Ind., 16 miles west of Ft. Wayne, where they had gone with a load of feed for the St. Joe Flour Mill.

At the junction of Roads 14 and 24, Will stepped out of car to see whether there were any cars coming on the other road. The running board had been broken off the truck a couple days before, and a new one was to have been put on upon their return from this trip, and not thinking about this, Will stepped from the cab and fell to the pavement, and was run over by the truck.

Howard made a grab for him as he fell but could not hold on sufficiently to keep him from falling.

When picked up by Howard he realized that his injuries were serious and talked to his relatives until a few minutes before he died. The community was indeed shocked at this misfortune as Will was well known here, having lived on the Davis farm.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this opportunity to express our heartfelt appreciation to our friends and neighbors during our late bereavement, the death of our son and brother, William T. Jolly. Also for the beautiful floral fferings, the minister for his consoling words and the quartette for the beautiful songs rendered.

Thomas B. Jolly

COLOR PRINTING

WHEN our experience suggests the use of colored paper, colored ink or a combination of the two for the job you submit, to aim all toward harmonizing possible returns, we tell you so. If white paper and black ink are best, we suggest them.

Howard S. Jolly
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Klingele and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Merwood Rhodes and family.

AN APPRECIATION

I surely want to thank the Voters of DeKalb County for making my election possible.
46t1p. U. S. RAUT.

HAS LIGHT STROKE

Miss Susan Sechler suffered a stroke of paralysis last Thursday night and remained quite serious, until Saturday when she regained consciousness, and now shows signs of improvement. Susan is 79 years of age, and while she has been poorly, yet has a strong constitution, and will probably get around again.

MARRIED IN JUNE

and Lucille Gee, were married in and Lucille Gee, wer married in Michigan, last June, and their friends have recently learned of it. Mrs. Koch will remain here with Roy Koch and family, while her husband is away working on the state roads. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

BARKER-HATHAWAY

The following is the account of the recent marriage of Russell Hathaway, taken from the Lakewood, Ohio paper:

Lila Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David A. Barker, Newark, Ohio, recently became the bride of Dr. Harvey Russell Hathaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hathaway, former residents of St. Joe.

The bride was attended by Mrs. Myron Henderson, and Clayton Hathaway, brother of the groom was best man. Mrs. John Kuhns, of Springfield, Ohio, was the soloist. She sang, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride-elect wore Dr. Hathaway's mother's wedding gown, of the period of thirty-five years ago. It was of ivory brocaded satin, old fashioned lines, full skirt, high neckline, a full court train. The veil is of tulle and was draped cap shape. She carried white roses and gardenias.

The matron of honor wore a crepe gown in leaf green; her hat and accessories were in brown, and she carried an arm bouquet of Pernet roses.

A dinner was served at the Lake Shore hotel, after which the bridal couple left by motor for a southern wedding trip.

Miss Barker is a graduate from Lakewood hospital school of nursing. Dr. Hathaway is an alumnus of Wittenberg college and Western Reserve medical school.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

A. M. Baker severed his connection with the Zonker garage last week.

Mrs. S. D. Gee and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fuller were at Butler Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice Copp is at Columbia City for a few weeks stay in the B. V. Widney home.

Recent reports from the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics state that due to a shortage of garden produce last season that the food prices will soon start on a steady advance.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Frank, sons, Paul and Raymond and the latter's family, of Reading, Mich., were Sunday guests in the F. B. Leighty home. They joined with the St. Joe, Auburn and South Bend relatives in a pot luck dinner at the Chas. Quance home at Ft. Wayne.

Mrs. S. D. Gee, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fuller were Sunday dinner guests of Foster Gee and family. In the afternoon they were all guests in the Mrs. B. L. Nelson home at Antwerp, Ohio. Supper guests in the Gee home were Miss Myrtle Miller and Walter Gee.

Assessment of stockholders of the Harlan State bank for the full amount of their liability on their stock has been ordered by Judge Clarence R. McNabb in the Allen County circuit court at Fort Wayne. The petition for assessment stated in part that the value of all assets of the bank does not exceed $17,400 and that the debts and liabilities exceed $61,000. Total par value of the capital stock of the bank amounts to $25,000, and the full amount of liability of stockholders is needed in order that the debts and liabilities may be paid.

James Bertram, formerly a secretary to the late Andrew Carnegie, died leaving his $750,000 estate to his daughter but with a proviso, "In case however, my daughter shall die without issue surviving, I give such residuary estate to the Kingdom of Great Britian to use in payment of the national debt of Great Britian to the United States of America." Mr. Bertram had always remained a British subject, but he made his fortune in the United States and was much "put out" by the British Government's repudiation of her war debt to America.

BANKERS SUPPORT SOUND EXPANSION

By R. S. HECHT
Vice President, American Bankers Association

BANKERS universally recognize that the prime economic need of the nation is the stimulation of sound industrial and commercial activities and recent travels over a wide stretch of the country have shown me that they everywhere are making all effort possible to lend constructive financial support within the scope of their proper banking functions to promoting the expansion of business activity.

R. S. HECHT

Frequently in times past when our country suffered from an economic depression and consequent unemployment on a large scale, the rise of some broad new industrial development, such for instance as a new industry like the automobile industry, has been a powerful factor in stimulating a return or an accelerated growth of national prosperity. Such a movement means the creation of new wealth, the employment of large groups of people on useful lines and as a consequence the production and distribution of sound, effective purchasing power, which is a form of wholesome economic stimulant that has none of the evils of monetary inflation.

A New Force for Business Improvement

Perhaps we have at hand, if not the rising of a wholly new industry, a measurable equivalent in the potentialities of a widespread rebuilding and modernizing movement such as home renovising, plant remodeling, the putting of our railroads on a high speed air conditioned basis and other valuable developments in the construction field. The effects of such activities on employment and many lines of business would be most beneficial and I can repeat without reservation that we bankers are willing and eager to play our full economic part in any such constructive developments.

It has been made to appear that money has not gone to work because of the timidity of bankers rather than what is a true explanation, because business men have not had enough confidence in the business outlook to borrow the dollar from the banker and put it to work.

The basic requisite to the expansion of commercial bank loans is sound, normal business conditions on which to conduct sound, normal banking operations. The best business a bank can wish for is the opportunity to loan money to successful business men and manufacturers imbued with confidence to enter upon aggressive business enterprises and endowed with the ability to bring them to successful conclusions. Such loans mean business activity for the community, growing pay rolls and prosperity, and the banker wants to make them because to be identified with such activities not only means profits to him but, additionally, brings him the reward of good will in his community.

There is no better proof of the great desire of banks to take care of the short term requirements of the business world than to point out the abnormally low rates at which this demand is being supplied at the present time.

BANK DEPOSITS WERE SAFEST INVESTMENTS

High Government Official Says No Investments Except U. S. Bonds Suffered as Little Loss as Deposits in Closed Banks

WASHINGTON, D. C.—No form of investments except Government bonds suffered as little loss as deposits in closed banks during the years 1931-32-33, Jesse H. Jones, Chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, declared in a recent address.

"A point generally overlooked in connection with bank failures in this period, is that upon the whole, depositors in closed banks will get a somewhat larger percentage than has been true in bank failures over a period of say twenty-five years," Mr. Jones said. "Heretofore they have gotten about 58%, but in these wholesale bank closings, my estimate is that they will, upon the average, get about 65% of their deposits.

"Another point worthy of mention is that a depositor in a closed bank loses only a part of his deposit, while the bank stockholder loses all, plus a stock assessment.

"No form of investment, except Government bonds, has suffered as little loss as deposits in closed banks, and while I appreciate that there is little consolation in this fact, those who had their savings invested in stocks, bonds, mortgages, real estate, industrial investments, or in businesses of any kind, have had losses very much greater, and in a much larger percentage, than have depositors in closed banks.

"It is for these reasons, and others not necessary here to enumerate, that it is not possible to justify paying depositors in closed banks with the taxpayers' money."

FINDS BANKS WILLING, BORROWERS CAUTIOUS

Prominent Writer Refutes Statements Bankers Are Refusing Sound Loans — Describes Reasons for Reduced Volume of Credit.

FIGURES supplied by typical, well-managed banks in different parts of the country show that a high proportion of all applications for loans have been granted in the past year or two, says Albert W. Atwood in a recent article in The Saturday Evening Post on "The Idle Dollar." Excerpts from Mr. Atwood's article follow:

"Frequently banks state that as high as 90 per cent of all such applications are granted and for from 60 to 75 per cent of the amount asked for. Allowing that the bankers make these figures as favorable to their own case as possible, it seems strange that we are told again and again that banks are not lending at all.

"If we take into account the whole class of regular bank borrowers, the plain fact is very few want to borrow yet. For the word 'borrow' is merely another name for the word 'debt,' and we face a great world-wide drive to get out of debt.

"An experienced small-city banker, asked if banks were lending freely enough, wisely replied: 'The really good borrower does not wish to borrow now. In fact, I think our customers are making a remarkably fine showing in paying off their loans, especially loans of long standing.'

The Shrinkage of Credit

"Or if we think of business concerns rather than of individuals, it is conservative to say that those able to maintain high credit ratings have been mostly the ones able to maintain ample cash resources and, therefore, least in need of credit. As prices and costs fell, many concerns found themselves with plenty of cash because of the shrinkage in operations. Cash resources were still further swollen by reduced dividends, and smaller inventories made bank borrowing still less necessary.

"Expressed in another way, banks cannot expand credit, they cannot make loans, unless there is a demand for the same. Fundamentally, the business transaction makes the loan, the loan does not make the transaction. It is a mistake to try to force upon business organizations funds which they do not need. Under the circumstances the 'idle dollar' is a natural and proper enough phenomenon. A demand for credit is difficult to create artificially, and there is always danger in so doing.

"Banks must be liquid enough at all times to pay depositors. The idea of a commercial loan is that it represents a self-liquidating process in business. If the banker makes only those advances that are inherently sound, and selects his maturities wisely, he will have incoming funds to meet demands.

Government Lending

"As everbody knows, the Government has vast lending agencies, for home owners, farmers, and the like. These have nothing to do with the subject of this article, except that all such Government operations would be impossible if the banks did not lend the Government money for the purpose.

"No one can set a time when borrowing will be resumed. But it will come when men once more feel that conditions are sufficiently settled to warrant them in taking chances, in entering upon deals, and in trying to make money."

Mr. Atwood says that it may be that the banks are overcautious now, just as they were overconfident in 1929, but calls attention to the fact that until a little more than a year ago banks were failing "partly because they had loaned too freely, and were being criticised right and left for precisely that fault." He adds:

"Indeed the banks which had been cautious in their lending policy came through the crisis safely. Under such conditions it is utterly useless to criticise banks for not making loans. After the experience they had for several years, especially in 1932 and 1933, it is only natural that they should relax their requirements very slowly and gradually.

"Unfortunately, many of the applications for loans are not people who want temporary banking accommodation for three or six months and are quite able to meet their maturity dates, but are from those who really need permanent capital. They are merely said they want someone to stake them to a new start. What they really seek is a partner to furnish them with long-time capital. But depositors insist upon being paid on demand; and, therefore, it is a grave question whether banks should tie up their funds for any length of time."

HOW ONE FARMER HELPED HIMSELF

A farmer determined to keeping records found that it cost $16.00 to produce an acre of corn. His average yield was 33 bushels, selling for 50 cents per bushel. On this basis he was producing without either profit or loss.

A study of his costs indicated methods by which the yields might be increased without proportional expenses. By making use of facts discovered at the Experiment Stations, the farmer secured an increased yield of four and one-half bushels per acre (37½ bushels, instead of 33). By increasing the yield and holding down expenses, this farmer was able to make a profit of six cents per bushel.

SPENCERVILLE

Mrs. Zetta Wertman spent the week end with Carol and Dickie Reed.

The Young Ladies Social Club will meet with Miss Gaylon Markle Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Markle, of near Harlan, were Monday guests of Mrs. Zetta Wertman.

Mrs. Mary Calaway spent the week-end with her husband, Leland Calaway, at Muncie.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Edward, of Auburn, spent Tuesday afternoon at the Roy Chaney home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Oswalt and Miss Wilda McNabb were Sunday guests at the John McNabb home.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortie Widdifield, of near Auburn, were Monday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kimes.

Attendance at the Methodist Sunday School for Nov. 18 was 67, collection, $2.67; Lutheran 65, collection, $2.42.

The Kraft family very pleasantly assisted Harrold Kraft in celebrating his birthday anniversary, at his home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curie, of St. Joe and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Beams were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sommer.

Sunday guests of Mrs. Hazel Steward were Mr. and Mrs. Ercil Steward, of Butler, Mrs. Mabel Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker and daughter, Delores, of St. Joe.

The Young People's class of the St. Joe Lutheran Sunday School was pleasantly entertained on Thursday evening by the young people of the local Lutheran Church in their basement here.

The Cheerful Workers class met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Minta Rhodes. The class voted to hold Christmas exchange and elect officers at the home of Mrs. Minnie Tyndall in December.

Mrs. Laura Baltz and Mrs. Golden High left on Tuesday for Fort Wayne, where they will spend a few days visiting their nieces and nephew before Mrs. Baltz will leave to spend the winter with her son, Thomas Baltz, in the east.

The C. C. Club was very pleasantly entertained on last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Zelpha Steward. A nominating committee was named, Mrs. Agnes Baker, Mrs. Ruth Butler and Mrs. Maude Beams for the new officers which will be elected at the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Cleo Reed. Two new members were received into the club, Mrs. Venus Mason and Mrs. Winifred Shook.

Born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, of north of town, a son. Mrs. Richmond was formerly Miss Winifred Harper.

The Home Bureau met on Wednesday afternoon at the Joseph Spitler home. Mrs. Marjorie Dwyer acting as hostess. The club elected their officers for the following year: president, Mrs. Kathryn Dean; vice president, Mrs. Winifred Shook; secretary, Mrs. Marjorie Dwyer; assistant secretary, Mrs. Thelma Hart; treasurer, Mrs. Ralla Markle. The club decided to hold a Christmas exchange with an all day meeting at the next session which will be held at the home of Mrs. Claudie Hafner, assisted by Mrs. Jane Butler.

Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Baumgartner were Sunday dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hiner at Garrett.

Local Briefs

Albert Moore and family were Sunday guests of Will Goldsmith and wife at Concord.

Mrs. Maggie High is staying in the Houck home this winter, being unable to care for herself.

David Furnish and family, of Detroit, were Saturday and Sunday guests of relatives here and at Spencerville.

Glen Potter and Robert Emerson of Auburn, were in town Wednesday morning checking up on the F. E. R. A work in progress here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown and son, Fritz, and William Crick and family, of Fort Wayne, were Sunday guests of Charles Morr and family.

In five years of economic depression and partial recovery Red Cross has given direct relief to one out of every five persons in the United States.

An all time record for warm weather was threatened Monday when the temperature soared high at noon, nearly 70. In 1930 the record established was 76.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Fuller, of Flint, Mich., are here spending the week with Mrs. S. D. Gee, and on Friday they expect to return home and take Mrs. Gee with them for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker, of South Bend, Wm. Quance and family, of Auburn, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Koehnlein, Sam Hara and F. B. Leighty and wife were Saturday supper guests at the J. C. Hull home.

The City National bank of Auburn, has secured a judgment of $87 in the DeKalb circuit court against Joe E. Wyatt and Wm. M. Long on a note. Russell R. Ridenour is attorney for the plaintiff. The defendants defaulted.

John P. Hoff, sheriff has transferred 100 acres of land in section 6, Concord township, $5,700, to John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Co. In Spencer township, Merritt A. and Annis Butler to First Joint Stock Land Bank, 100 acres sec. 31, $1.

The farm young people of DeKalb County have organized a county unit to be known as the DeKalb Study Club. Meetings will be held each month at Auburn. The purpose of the organization is to study how conditions on the farm may be bettered in the future. All young people interested are invited to attend. The county meeting will be held Monday evening, November 26 at the Court House in Auburn. An interesting program is scheduled. Everyone interested is invited to come.

WE PAY
Highest Market Prices for WHEAT

Exchange
Flour for Wheat also bolted Meal for Corn—Try us once —You will Come Again.

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

For an ENVIED Complexion

Inimitable Djer-Kiss Face Powder lends to any skin perfection that withstands the closest test.

Finer—softer—absolutely pure—it permits a thinner powder film which lasts for hours. Delicately scented with the bewitching Djer-Kiss fragrance.

Pink Rachel Naturelle Blanche 60¢

Djer-Kiss FACE POWDER

Genuine Djer-Kiss Parfum, in a dainty Vanette, Purse Size 25¢

NOVEMBER

L 919

413

THIS WAS The Study Lamp of the Age of Whiskers . .

Get one of the NEW STUDY LAMPS

The Study lamp of the gay Nineties, like its bewhiskered man, was as much the result of necessity as of fashion.

Today science has developed a radically new lamp for study and reading. America's foremost eyesight specialists and lighting engineers wrote the specifications. It provides the wealth of glorious light that eyes need when studying or doing other visual tasks for prolonged periods.

It gives 6 to 10 times as much light as ordinary lamps. No eye-straining glare. Uses 100-watt MAZDA lamp.

Every study table should have one of these new lamps. No other lamp can give you all of its benefits.

• • • •

Specifications by: The Illuminating Engineering Society—country-wide organization of lighting experts.

Certified by: The Electrical Testing Laboratories—keen, impartial engineering organization of New York City.

Endorsed for Lighting Effectiveness by: The Lighting Committee of the Edison Electric Institute; also by the National Better Light-Better Sight Bureau.

This Tag Identifies It

Because many models of this new lamp look little different from ordinary lamps, the tag shown at the right was developed. It certifies that the Electrical Testing Laboratories, famous engineering organization in New York, has made exacting tests and found that the lamp bearing it conforms to the new sight-saving specifications. Let this tag guide you to the new lamp designed to save eyes. See your dealer today.

Better Light . . . Better Sight

Public Sales

The undersigned will sell at public sale at the late residence of J. M. Douglas, deceased, located first house east of Concord, 1 mile north and 2 miles west of St. Joe, on

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1934

Commencing at 1:00 o'clock:

The home propertyconsisting of a 7-room house, nice small barn, poultry house, corn crib and 3 acres of ground. A nice country home and close to store, church, with telephone and electric line passing.

The personal property consists of Hard coal stove, Coal and wood heating stove, Small cook stove, extension table and six chairs, 1 sideboard, Mirror, 3 Stands, Cupboard with glass front, Writing desk, Wash stand, Book case and writing desk combined, Couch, 2 beds and springs, Rocking chairs, Rugs and Linoleum, 2 Commodes, Singer Sewing Machine, Dishes and cooking utensils, Boiler and wash board, Sausage grinder, Handy Meat Saw, Large Water pitcher and bowl, Stove pipe, Set stove rollers, Household scales, Lamps, Post hole digger, Potatoe fork, Scoop shovel, Scythe, Grind stone, 3 cord dry wood, Corn in the crib, and many other articles not listed herewith.

TERMS: Cash on day of sale.

LLOYD DOUGLAS.

PLANS FOR NEW ROAD TO DECATUR

Assurance was given Thursday by the state highway commission that as soon as right-of-way has been obtained by officials of Adams, Allen and DeKalb counties, the highway department would begin maintenance of a county road between Decatur and St. Joe, a distance of 27 miles.

Adams told the delegation that the theory of the plan was to permanently relieve the counties of maintenance expenses on county roads. He said that although the counties must first obtain rights-of-ways, either by donations from the land owners or through purchase, the savings to the respective counties in maintenance more than offsets the right-of-way expense.

MR and MRS FARMER!

Of course you DESIRE the BEST FLOUR and BREAD you e v e r used. To obtain this have your wheat exchanged for flour at

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

REVIVAL MEETINGS CLOSE SUNDAY

The meetings at the Methodist Protestant Church will close Sunday with services both at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Wednesday evening "Young People's Night" subject, "Where Is Your Name Recorded?" Thursday is "Old People's Night," the oldest person present will receive a lovely gift. The subject, "Why Some People are lost;" Friday i s "Men's Night," subject, "The Biggest Sinner in DeKalb County;" Saturday evening a program will be given by the children; Sunday morning subject, "The Spirit-Filled Life;" Sunday evening subject, "T h e Devil's Bread Market." Children's services every evening at 7:00 P. M., and considerable interest is being shown in this service, being attended by 35 or 40 more children each evening. Gifts are given for their attendance.

Splendid crowds are in attendance each night to enjoy the messages of the pastor and singer. The Christian Church members attended in a body on Friday and Sunday nights, which is greatly appreciated by the pastor and people.

HOME BUREAU

The Concord Township Home Bureau met at the home of Laura Washler, Friday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mary Krise. Songs led by Laura Washler after which the Club Creed was read by all followed by the Lord's Prayer. Secretary's report read and approved. Twenty-six members responded to roll call with "What have I to be thankful for." Mrs. Nevada Wyatt gave a reading on "What Constitutes a real Home."

"Thanksgiving season makes one part of us thankful for all the good to eat and another part of us thankful for our blessings," was discussed by Anna Tustison. Reading "Give thanks for what?" given by Doris Yeiser. Three contests were conducted by Inez Shields, Linnie Thorp and Iva Yeiser.

The hostess and her committee, Nevada Wyatt, Linnie Thorp, Mary Washler and Inez Shields, served salad, pickles, sandwiches and coffee.

High School Notes

ST. JOE

Local School Wins Contest

On Wednesday evening of last week the DeKalb County One Act Play Contest was held in the local school auditorium. Just prior to the contest position on the program was decided by lot. Ashley drew first place on the program and presented a one act play entitled "A Gift Horse." Spencerville drew second place and presented the playlet, "The Smartest Thing in Boots."

Third place was drawn by our school which presented the one act play "The Orange Colored Necktie." Mrs. Fitch, of Garrett High School served as judge. Immediately upon the conclusion of the program she announced her decision as follows: St. Joe, first; Ashley, second; and Spencerville, third.

This decision means that the local play cast consisting of Jean Goodwin, Norma Rickerd, Vivian Richmond, Harriett Yeiser, Earl Kinsey, Keith Wilmot, and Leonard Curie, w i l l represent DeKalb County in the sub-district contest which is to be held at Angola this week. Winning casts from Noble, Steuben and LaGrange Counties also compete in this contest. Much credit is due Mr. Bruce Gerdes who directed the local cast for the local school's victory.

The visiting schools expressed themselves as well pleased with the fine attendance. The local cast expect to present their play as part of a lyceum number at Ashley on Monday evening, November 26.

Red Cross Roll Call

With local full time teachers responding 100% and a good response from St. Joe and Concord Township families t h e local school will have a good membership report for the DeKalb County Chapter of the Red Cross when the Roll Call ends. If you have not already joined the Red Cross for 1935 do so this week.

Rev. Koehnlein and his evangel i s t i c singer, Mr. Hara, had charge of a special school assembly held on last Friday afternoon for the upper six grades. Mr. Hara sang several selections and Rev. Koehnlein conducted devotions.

The seniors are planning to have pictures taken this week.

Basketball Games

The Hamilton girls and boys teams come to St. Joe for games on Friday evening of this week. On Tuesday evening of next week the first and second boys teams of Spencerville will play our boys teams on the local floor. Keep these games in mind. Admission prices for both these games will be ten and fifteen cents.

Third and Fourth Grades

Our Spelling honor roll for this week includes Estella Hart, Loren Inlow, Dale Keeler, Candace Loftus, Patricia Maxwell, Frances Reidenbach, Marv Ellen Rude, and Marilyn Zonker.

As an added feature for our opening exercises each morning, we give the answer to a question which our teacher gives us the last thing on the evening before. We like the question period very much. The questions are all kinds and we may ask anyone for the answer.

The fourth grade are mastering division this week.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

The fifth and sixth grades are beginning a Good English Drive in their room this week which will help each one to be more thoughtful of their English.

Those on the honor roll in spelling for last week were as follows: Mary Close, Maurice Hurni, Nelda Kees, Mary Likes, Burnadine Wade, Sylvia Washler, Barbara Stroh, Dorothy Stewart, Marcel Pugsley, Myra Keesler, Paul Keller, Harold Inlow, Jack Goodwin, Evelyn George, Ruth Donley and Frank Curie.

SPENCERVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

The new library books, which were ordered some time ago, have at last arrived.

The much needed rubber caps for the Home Economics chairs have also arrived. Now the department can change classes without disturbing the other groups. In this department the girls are serving breakfasts and luncheons.

The school children and teachers are enjoying hot soup with their cold lunches four days a week.

The seniors have ordered their class rings. They expect them to be here by the 16th of December. They also are looking at class bracelets. The seniors that did not order rings are planning on getting bracelets.

Last Thursday evening, Mr. Crons, of Fort Wayne, took their pictures at the school house. The proofs came the following Wednesday and the seniors are rushing the proofs back to the studio so they may get their pictures by Christmas.

T h e sophomores held their postponed class party on Tuesday evening, Novemebr 20 at the home of Mr. Harold Kagey.

The typing class has now started on individual work. Last week they had a football game. They typed on four different paragraphs. Every time each made a perfect copy he received six points for his side.

Our school has been entertaining the measles, but most of the pupils are back with us now. This absence will cause the attendance to fall. The seniors have not had any measles thus far and are still in the lead. Hurrah for the seniors!

Local B. B. teams won over Waterloo last Friday evening.

After trailing by 7 to 6 at the half, Spencerville came back in the last half two periods to beat out Waterloo by a score of 16 to 13 in a rough and tumble game at Waterloo. Rectenwall and Furnish starred for the winners with six points apiece, while Rohm was high for the losers with five.

In the preliminary, the Spencerville Seconds defeated the Waterloo Seconds, 19 to 16.

The Line-up and Summary of the First team game:

Spencerville

	G.	F.	T.
Hensley, F	0	0	0
Means, F	2	0	4
Steward, C	0	0	0
Rectenwall, G	2	2	6
Furnish, G	3	0	6
Totals	7	2	16

Waterloo

	G.	F.	T.
Rohm, F	2	1	5
V. Dunn, F	0	0	0
Turner, F	1	0	2
Centa, C	0	0	0
Kline, C	0	0	0
Kaiser, G	2	0	4
B. Dunn, G	1	0	2
Harpster, G	0	0	0
Totals	6	1	13

Our next game will be with St. Joe on November 27 at St. Joe, and with Ashley on November 28 at Spencerville.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

Those absent on Monday were Roger Laub, Marjorie Brown, Donna Mae Washler, Lucille Bice, and George Hart.

Roger Laub and Donna Mae Washler have the measles.

First and Second Grades

Those neither absent nor tardy this year:

First Grade: Wayne Ayers, Estel Baughman, Marion Coburn, Joyce Dean, Velma Jean Furnish, LaVon Hart, Marcle Knop, Johnie Peppler, Roland Shockley, Maszelle Timmerman, Gene White.

Second Grade: Rachel Chapman, Marian Coles, Richard Francies, Charlotte Groves, Lorraine Rhodes, Maurice Woodring.

Those on the honor roll are:

Carl Ankney, Rose Marie Crothers, Joyce Dean, Gene White, LaVon Hart, Athalene Hensley, Donna Jean Milliman, Hazel Ankney, Lorraine Rhodes.

Coburn's Corners

Joe Shull spent Sunday with his son, O. K. Shull and family.

Attendance at Coburn Corners for Nov. 18 was 62, collection, $2.73.

Mrs. Bess Klopfenstein, of Fort Wayne, spent the week-end with her parents.

Frederick Laub spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Laub.

Mrs. Eleanor Crothers a n d Thelma Hart called on Mrs. Fred Hart Wednesday evening.

CONCORD

Kodak Films—At News Office.

Mrs. Clifton Draggoo and baby are spending the week in Auburn with her mother, Mrs. Jay Van-Zile.

Mrs. Joe Knisely and daughter, Gracy, spent last week with Mrs. Ray Littlefield and family, helping her tie comforts.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Fetters and family, Mrs. John Fetters, Miss Eloise Draggoo, Mrs. Ford Jackson and daughter, Iris, were Fort Wayne shoppers Saturday.

The First Harvest

IT APPEARS that in the year 1621, the Pilgrim Fathers were so overjoyed when their first harvest was gathered in that they held a service of gratitude to God. The New England colonists set apart a day for that specific purpose, and since then similar services have been held annually, the last Thursday in November being the day appointed. In 1864, Sarah Josepha Hale, who is the reputed author of the nursery rhyme: "Mary had a little lamb," advocated the granting of a general holiday throughout the states on Thanksgiving day. This was adopted

Dell Draggoo sold his Delco light plant last week to the Mt. Pleasant Church and now Mr. Draggoo is connected onto the electric line, passing his home.

Mrs. C. and Mable Jackson have been guests for the last few days in the home of Holl Jackson and helping to care for him, while under the care of a doctor. He is suffering with rheumatism and lumbago, and is in a critical condition.

NEWVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Wyatt spent Tuesday in Fort Wayne.

John Shaffer, of Butler, was a business caller here Tuesday.

Floyd Taylor was under the care of a physician the first of the week.

Mrs. Lillian Washler and son, Delbert, spent Sunday with Cleve Washler, in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Price were here Sunday from Toledo, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter.

Cleve Washler underwent an appendicitis operation, at the Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne, Nov. 13.

Rev. W. N. Sherrill, of Crawfordsville, Ind., is assisting Rev. C. W. Moore in revival services at Mt. Pleasant.

While cutting wood Friday, George Baron was struck in the eye with a chip injuring the eye ball, but not blinding him.

Eugene Webster, who returned home Thursday from Florida with t truck load of fruit, left this week for another load, for the Thanksgiving trade.

Sparks from a chimney set fire to the roof of the Orlan Hatch home Friday. Neighbors formed a bucket brigade and soon had the fire under control.

We can help you solve your printing problems

SPINK ARMS HOTEL

410 North Meridian Street, INDIANAPOLIS, IND.

Comfortable, Convenient, Modern, Quiet Location

Opposite Memorial Plaza

RATES

$2, $2.50 and $3 Single

$4, $4.50 and $5 Double

FIRST CLASS COFFEE SHOP AND DINING ROOM

Breakfast 25c, 35c 45c

Luncheon 40c, 50c

Full Course Dinner 75c

Every room with bath and shower. Also furnished kitchenette apartment suites at reasonable rates. Garage adjoining, and excellent parking facilities.

HEADQUARTERS

Hoosier State Press Association, Inc.

Advertise Your Business

Russel R. Reidenour

Attorney

Auburn, Ind.

You get results from printing done by us

PHONE 220

Stanley P. Nelson Monuments

Opposite Woodlawn and Rosslawn Cemeteries

AUBURN, IND.

A laugh is the best of medicine-Take a dose

"KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES"—Meet Sergeant Squirt

By POP MOMAN

NOVEMBER

L 919

414

Our Classified Ad Department

FOR SALE!

OR TRADE COLUMN

CIDER: 10c and 20c per gallon. 41tf. Widney Orchard.

For Sale: 25 White Rock Pullets, reasonable. See Carleton Shull, St. Joe. 46t1p.

For Sale: Kitchen Range, good condition. Call Byron Welch, Spencerville, phone No. 343. 46t1p

WANTED: To buy White and Yellow Onions, any quantity. See George Hart, St. Joe. 42t6.

For Rent: The Jno. Swaidner farm is for rent occupancy March 1st. 189 acres. A good home for some one willing and equipped. Farm lays 7 miles southeast of St. Joe. Write J. R. Cannan, Wapakoneta, Ohio. 45t4

For Sale: Heatrola heating Stove, in good condition. See Floyd Weikel, 1 mile north of St. Joe. 46t1p.

Have your glasses fitted by Benj. F. Griest, Eyesight Specialist, Office in American Bldg., Hicksville, Ohio. 28tf.

For Sale: Next Saturday, all left over canned goods. Custom Canning Kitchen. 46t1p.

APPLES, APPLES: A large crop. Depression prices. Widney Orchard, St. Joe. 41tf.

For Sale: Organ, price reasonable. See News office. 46t1p.

Dr. Ralph S. Fox, Dentist, Auburn, Ind., general practice and X-Ray. Phone 129W. 32tf.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE

Cause No. 3890

Notice Is Hereby Given to all persons interested in the estate of Frederick Maynard Thornton deceased, to appear in the DeKalb Circuit Court, held at Auburn, Indiana, on the 3rd day of December, 1934, and show cause, if any, why my Final Settlement Accounts with the estate of said deceased should not be approved; and said heirs and all others interested, are notified to then and there make proof of heirship or claim and receieve their distributive shares.

Witness, My Name, this 5th day of November, 1934.

MABELLE S. THORNTON, Executrix.

Henry C. Springer, Atty. 44t3.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the undersigned has been appointed by the DeKalb Circuit Court, of the State of Indiana Administrator of the Estate of Myrtle Howey deceased, late of said County.

Said Estate is supposed to be solvent.

Farmers & Merchants State Bank, Administrator.

November 9, 1934.

Atkinson & Husselman, Atty. 45t3

"Man prefers to believe what he prefers to be true."

Fifty thousand persons flock to the funeral of a slain gunman. A public official who has spent a long and useful lift at his desk gets a line in the papers to the effect that so-and-so "has another birthday." A philosopher of the cynic school would draw the conclusion that the proper way for a man to get attention from his fellows is to raise as much perdition as possible and die young, with his boots on.

At a political gathering in Pennsylvania, a score were wounded and four killed. In Germany, a dying woman leaves her bed to vote. Shooting voters of the opposing party is hardly to be countenanced. Those who were killed might better have run, and lived to vote another day. The German woman acted unwisely. Yet, upon the whole, perhaps the country would be better off if there were more who took politics seriously and set a life-blood value upon the franchise.

FOR THE BEST

Bran and Middlings

AT LOWEST PRICES

—BUY FROM—

ST. JOE FLOUR MILL

Postmaster General James A. Farley, the son of a New York State saloon-keeper neither drinks nor smokes.

Samuel and Martin Insull will be names found frequently in newspapers and magazines while their trial lasts, probably four or five months, but their names will not be found in the new book of "Who's Who in America."

The Mid-West farmers and stockmen have voted for another hog-corn deduction program for 1935. The 1935 plan has not been completed but a plan proposed will pay 45 cents for the reduced bushels of corn and three dollars per head on the reduced number of hogs.

"It isn't the thing you do, dear,
It's the thing you leave undone
That gives you a bit of heartache
At the setting of the sun.
The tender word forgotten;
The letter you did not write;
The flowers you did not send, dear,
Are your haunting ghosts at night."

Just as the process tax financed the hog reduction program the sales tax is proposed in the new Townsend Old Age Pension plan to take care of the surplus unemployment in the United States. The new proposed plan will make persons past the age of 60 eligible to draw $200 per month providing he is unemployed. There are no other strings to the proposition other than the $200 be spent each month but not invested. With this plan operating it is claimed that there will be plenty of employment for all of those under the age of 60.

More than 22,000 Indiana farmers were benefitted by the loan facilities of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville and the Land Bank Commissioner to the extent of upwards of $52,000,000 in loans closed during the period from June 1, 1933 to October 28, 1934. Analysis of a large percentage of the loans shows that borrowers used 91 cents of each dollar so borrowed for the purpose of paying creditors whom they already owed. In many cases these creditors were pressing for payment and the loans provided the borrowers with funds to repay them and thus avoid foreclosure.

TEACHERS READY TO START NEW COURSES

Jesse Fleming, of Auburn, who will be in charge of the rural emergency educational program in DeKalb county, met a number of the teachers who will have classes, in Auburn on Saturday. They were given instructions in their duties by Mr. Fleming. Some of the classes will start next week but the exact dates have not been scheduled, except in the rural extension program.

Classes will convene in Auburn and Garrett. At Garrett they will be held in school buildings. The place of meeting for Auburn is still undecided. Afternoon and evening classes will be held. Anyone is eligible to study in these classes except in the commercial course where the study is limited to unemployed persons on relief. It is preferred that high school pupils do not enroll.

In the rural extension program Charles Lash, and Franklin Van Scoik, of Auburn and Mrs. Maurine Fitch, of Garrett, will be the teachers. The centers will be, Garrett for Keyser, Butler and Richland townships and the class will be held on Monday; St. Joe for Concord, Spencer and Newville townships, Tuesday; Butler for Wilmington, Franklin, Troy and Stafford townships, Wednesday; Auburn for Union, Jackson and Grant townships, Thursday; Ashley for Fairfield and Smithfield townships, Friday. People assigned to centers which are farther away from their homes than a nearer center may go to the nearest center.

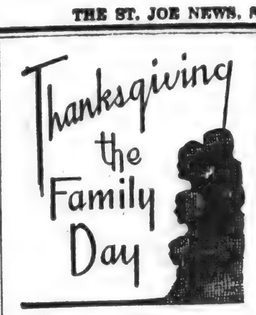
Miss Nora Armstrong, of Auburn, will teach the commercial classes.

Buster Hettrick, of Jackson township, will be in charge of the physical education classes which will come under the head of the recreational program.

The general adult classes for women will include home management and budgets, sewing, designing and making over, and nutrition projects. They will be in charge of Miss Marie Baker, of Auburn, and Miss Gladys Bohls, of Garrett.

For men in adult classes there will be trigonometry, arithmetic for trades, mechanical arts, radio and electricity, in charge of Franz Robuck, of Butler.

In classes in English, there will be branches in dramatics, public speaking and sociology. Miss Ruth Beard, of Hamilton, will be assisted by Miss Marie Baker in this department. Miss Baker will also have supervision of the parent educational feature. Miss Beard will teach the history and current events classes. A teacher for economics and psychology is to be supplied.



THANKSGIVING is a day of glory and substance. Such a day it was in the beginning and it is hoped it ever shall be. Its glory is the spirit of thankfulness that pervades the hearts of us all. The substance is the bountiful supply of food that is ours.

Perhaps these are the reasons that Thanksgiving is particularly a family day, a day in which all of the family are thankful to be gathered under one roof once more. Thanksgiving day, observes a writer in the Kansas City Star, was born in that spirit as the Pilgrims went to church over snowy trails and returned to eat dinner of wild turkey from the forest and cranberries from the nearby marshes.

One may follow the traditional menu for that day or one may improvise, using the turkey for the main theme, building such variations of flavors about it that you may have your own gastronomic symphony so perfectly planned that your guests will remember your Thanksgiving dinner, for the particular harmonies of color and table need not follow too closely the spirit of the day. Your decorations may be thoroughly modern or traditional, as you please. The bowl of fruits as centerpiece is the latter. It may be flanked by such decorations as glass blown herons or silver pheasants.

For the Formal Dinner the Bird is Carved in the Kitchen.

An Early American Thanksgiving Dinner.
Roast Turkey Stuffed
A Pair of Chickens Stuffed and Boiled With Cabbage and a Piece of Lean Pork.
A Chicken Pie
Potatoes, Turnips, Squash, Onions
Gravy and Gravy Sauce, Apple and Cranberry Sauce, Oyster Sauce, Brown and White Bread
Plum and Plain Pudding
With Sweet Sauce Mince, Pumpkin and Apple Pies
Cheese

No longer does the table groan with food. The modern hostess places very few viands on the table. For the formal dinner the bird is carved in the kitchen and served from that quarter. For the informal or family dinner the bird may come to the table as the festive dish that graces the board. Turkey or any fowl may be prepared and stuffed well in advance of the dinner. Chicken, duck, goose or any fine roast may be served on Thanksgiving day. Your purse, your appetite and the personal tastes of the family should be considered.

"Variety is the mother of enjoyment."

Columbus, Ohio, bartendeds are complaining that beer-mugs and cocktail glasses are now besmeared with lipatick that will not come off with the customary rinsing.

The world's largest glass-eye factory is located at Denver, Colorado. This factory got an order recently for two identical glass eyes, with the exception that one was to be painted "a little bloodshot, for use the morning after."

In order to give the unemployed work The Great Pyramid of Egypt was ordered built by Cheops about 3,700 B. C. Its base covers thirteen acres and its height was originally thought to be 481 feet. This pyramid is said to have required the work of 100,000 men for about 20 years.

Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., recently lost its twenty-fifth consecutive football game. Their team has not won a football game since 1931.

As near as we can figure it out, the United States government now has fifty-two New Deal alphabetical administrations, corporations, commissions, etc.

In the new Congress nineteen states will be represented entirely (both in the house and senate) by Democrats. Twenty-four states will have no Republicans in the house and twenty-eight states will have no Republican senators.

The United States Post Office Department, reports that, on an average, about 800 letters without addresses are mailed each day.

The "Christmas Rush" if there will be such a thing, is expected to cause an additional employment of bout one-half million more people.

Thanksgiving turkeys are cheaper this year per head but higher per pound. The scarcity of feed has affected the quality and size of this season's turkey.

The total cost of operating the new Burlington Route's Zephyr train, including labor and estimated maintenance is 32.9 cents per mile.

A news account advertises the fact that one Gloria Roberts of Washington, D. C. wants to sell herself as wife for $12,000. Most of the girls around her are offering to get married for nothing, and even, some of them into nothing.

Tax experts report that their recent investigations show that for each cent rise in the price of gasoline that the consumption of gasoline decreases about five per cent.

Sears & Roebuck sell two dollars worth of every hundred dollars worth of purchase made in various kinds of merchandise by the farmers of the United States.

"Character is the result of two things—mental attitude and the way we spend our time."

The National Industrial Recovery Act (NRA) was passed as an emergency act and will expire the 16th of next June unless extended by Congress.

In Italy that government has ruled that all letters must close with "Viva Il Duce" (Long live Mussolini.)

If the bill introduced into the Texas house of representatives carries, persons convicted there of habitual drunkenness will be tattooed on the back of each hand with a capital "H."

Most of the Socialists I know do not work—they only talk about work," once said Elbert Hubbard. "What they want is an orthodox heaven of ease where the harps are always in tune and the robes are always laundered."

The American Legion believes that immediately upon declaration of war, the entire man power of the nation should be mobilized—either for military or industrial use. No one should be exempt because of wealth or social position. Those who are not willing to fight for their country would have to work for it at soldier's wages.

We don't begrudge Mrs. Helen Reid, the 16,000,00th visitor at the Century of Progress, that truck load of clocks, the crate of chocolates, nor the five gallons of perfume, but we would like to have the monkey that was included in the gifts that were presented her by the fair exhibitors.

Just now the papers are featuring the winning of large sums at this, that or the other sweepstakes. It is questionable whether the broadcasting of such news is to be approved. Without going into the moral aspects of the situation, and leaving each man free to play penny ante or stake his homestead at draw poker if his conscience permits him to do so, gaming is economically wrong. History records no sound and beneficial system whereby money can be passed from hand to hand in that way.

C. E.
McCLINTOCK
Attorney at Law
City National Bank Bunilding
104 West Eighth St.
Auburn, Indiana

1935 Auto Plates Issued In New System.

Indiana motorists are being provided with a new and prompt service in obtaining their 1935 license plates, according to Frank Finney, Commissioner of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, who has installed a new system of issuing the plates as well as a simplified form of Driver license. The new system has been planned by the state to eliminate the long, tiresome waits heretofore experienced in the branches and will do so if the applicant follows the instructions he will receive.

The colors of the 1935 vehicle plates are black numerals upon a background of robin's egg blue.

The sale will open in the 150 branches over the state on December 10th and the statutory date, when all motorists are required to display the new tags, is January 1st.

The Department will mail an application, fully made out, to each car owner registered in 1934. The data imprinted upon the application has been taken from the title files in the State House and, if the description fits the very car for which the applicant seeks plates, it will only be necessary for the owner to sign the card and write in the name of his county and township. The applicant is requested to check the make, style of car and other data on the application to make sure that the description is correct. This is important. The correct fee is also printed upon the application. The application is then presented to the branch office and upon payment of the fee, and the service charge of twenty-five cents, the plates will be promptly issued. The applications will be mailed and in the hands of the owners by December 6th. The form also carries other coupons for department records. Do not detach or separate any of the application form you receive. Take it intact to the local branch office.

Also with the application there will be mailed two applications for driver licenses. Please fill out the blanks before presenting to the branch.

When the plate application is received please read carefully the information printed upon the reverse side. The Department earnestly solicits and will appreciate your cooperation which will make for the success of the system and provide a most satisfactory service for the 800,000 motorists of Indiana.

1935 STATE OF INDIANA PASSENGER

The accompanying number plate has been assigned to the addressee named hereon to be used on a MOTOR VEHICLE of make, weight and horse-power indicated for the year ending Dec. 31 1935

File No. Model Yr.	Serial Wgt.-Make	Title Style	Eng. No. H.P. or Cap.	FEE
363011	1526803	C901763	1237654
2651-34	3945 BUICK	SEDAN	29.4	$10

JOHN DOE
1001 E MARION
INDIANAPOLIS IND

12 34

Notify Auto Licenses Dept. immediately of any change of address to avoid delay on plates next year.

Owner Must Sign Name Here in Ink

363011 1526803 C901763 1237654
2651-34 3945 BUICK SEDAN 29.4 $10
JOHN DOE
1001 E MARION
INDIANAPOLIS IND
12 34

BRANCH COPY 1935 REGISTRATION

363011 1526803 C901763 1237654
2651-34 3945 BUICK SEDAN 29.4 $10

AUTO LIST 1935

JOHN DOE
1001 E MARION
INDIANAPOLIS IND
12 34

CO.
TP.

Form 1 DO NOT DETACH

Application for Registration of Passenger Vehicle—1935

Poll Tax Receipt Must Accompany This Application.

STATE OF INDIANA

Bureau of Motor Vehicles—Dept. of Treasury

File No. Model Yr. | Serial Wgt.-Make | Title Style | Eng. No. H.P. or Cap. | FEE
363011 1526803 C901763 1237654
2651-34 3945 BUICK SEDAN 29.4 $10
JOHN DOE
1001 E MARION
INDIANAPOLIS IND
12 34

IF ABOVE ADDRESS HAS BEEN CHANGED PLEASE CORRECT ON THIS CARD

Has Your Motor License Been Revoked.....When.....

Sign Here.....

Write Name of County.....Township.....

Date of Purchase? Month.....Year.....

STATE OF INDIANA, COUNTY OF.....ss:

Subscribed and sworn to before me this.....day of.....19.....

Notary Public My Commission Expires

SEAL READ OTHER SIDE

Buy a Milk Goat

FOR HEALTH, INVESTMENT AND ECONOMY. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO BE SICK AT OUR PRICES

WE HAVE A REAL MILKING STRAIN O F REGISTERED TOGGENBURGS. WRITE US REGARDING YOUR NEED.

Bon Ton Milk Goat Ranch

(Hancock County) FOUNTAIN GREEN, ILL.

"The man who wins is the man who works—
The man who toils while the next man shirks.
The man who stands in his deep distress
With head held high in deadly press—
Yes, he is the man who wins."

President Roosevelt, who is President of the American Red Cross, says of this humanitarian work: "The Red Cross is the instrument of expression of a great group of Americans who have given generously for human welfare in times of distress or emergency."

NOVEMBER

L 919

U 4 1 5

Advertise Your Business

ST. JOE NEWS.

We can help you solve your printing problems

VOL. XLIX ST. JOE, DeKALB COUNTY, INDIANA, THURSDAY, NOV. 29, 1934 NUMBER 47

MEMBERS OF AUBURN CLUB ENTERTAINED AT ST. JOE

Active and associate members of the Auburn Culture Club and one honorary member of the organization who is visiting in Auburn were the guests on Wednesday night of the St. Joe Ladies Literary Club at a meeting held in the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Leighty near St Joe. Twenty-two from the Auburn club attended.

With Mrs. Lora Leighty playing the piano, the St. Joe club members sang a welcome song, after which their club song, composed by Mrs. DeLora Curie, the only living charter member, was sung. The St. Joe club was organized thirty-nine years ago.

Miss Violet May reviewed the club study book, "America as Americans See It." The book is composed of forty-six essays by American authorities in their respective fields and was compiled by Fred Ringel. The St. Joe club in addition to the book is doing work outlined by the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. Mary Gerdes gave a reading, "The Lost Word," by Henry Van Dyke and Mrs. Belle Woodcox read a paper on "Youth and the Depression," written by Janalyce Rouls.

Community singing and the serving of refreshments completed the informal program.

The active members of the Auburn club in attendance were: Mrs. Janet Trader, Mrs. Seely Dirrim, Mrs. Mary Kreamelemeyer, Mrs Ruby Morris, Mrs. Fidelis Feller, Mrs. Lilliam Adams, Mrs. Flossie Mavis, Mrs. Gladys Mavis, Mrs. Marguerite Brown, Mrs. Ethel Elson, Mrs. Buncie Holben, Mrs. Edna Wilcox, Mrs. Cora Clark, Mrs. Nellie Knott, Mrs. Grenivere Olinger and Mrs. Effie Garver, the latter residing in Garrett.

The associate members were: Mrs. Carrie DePew, Mrs. Lottie Shugers, Mrs. Willie Gumpp, Mrs. Della Kutzner, and Mrs. Alpha Batdorf, and the honorary member was Mrs. Anna Bishop of Detroit.—Auburn Evening Star.

DAVID HAMM, A GARRETT B. & O. EMPLOYE, DEAD

The death of David Hamm, a Baltimore & Ohio switch tender, took place at his home at 402 East King street in Garrett at noon Friday. He was ill with diabetes for three years. He suffered a stroke of paralysis a year ago and had been bedfast ever since.

Mr. Hamm was born near Leo on an Allen county farm March 20, 1864, making his age more than 70 years. He was a son of George Hamm and the family moved to Garrett thirty-three years ago from St. Joe. Mr. Hamm entered the B. & O. service at that time.

Mr. Hamm and Catherine Bolin of Columbus Grove, O., were married 35 years ago. Surviving are the widow, the father, six brothers, Sam, John D. and Charles of Garrett, Henry, of Coldwater, Mich., Daniel of Denver, Colo., and William of Marion, Ind.; three sisters, Mrs. Grover C. Sapp of Garrett, Mrs. Caroline Norris of Auburn, and Mrs. O. W. Engle of Stevenspoint, Wis., and a stepson, Charles Morice, in the south.

Mr. Hamm's father is ninety-three years of age. Mrs. Hamm died June, 1923. The deceased was a member of the Nazarene Church and Railway Trainmen No. 158.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the G. W. Iler funeral home in Garrett. Rev. J. O. McKinley, pastor of the Auburn Nazarene Church officiated. Interment in Union cemetery, north of Garrett.

JURORS TO SERVE DURING NEXT TERM

Jurors and talesmen for the December term of the DeKalb circuit court were drawn at the office of County Clerk Carl Walter Monday by Jury Commissioners Clyde E. Hart, of Spencer township and Herman L. Brown, of Auburn.

The new term opens next Monday. The list follows:

GRAND JURY

Claude Miller, Butler Twp.
Lloyd Yeiser, Concord.
Carl Perkins, Spencer.
Elmer E. Dunn, Grant.
Wilbur Walters, Jackson.
Ed S. Kelham, Butler Twp.

PETIT JURY

Forest Dermott, Newville.
H. M. Van Lear, Garrett.
Walter E. Saxer, Keyser.
Oscar Noel, Butler Twp.
Hugh Carper, Auburn.
James Rugman, Keyser.
Clarence Hinkle, Troy.
Roy Bowser, Concord.
Nicholas Funk, Wilmington.
Wm. J. Staman, Concord.
Albert Bainbridge, Grant.
Joseph N. Scholes, Concord.

TALESMEN

Lee Wilmot, Keyser.
Russell Holben, Auburn.
Geo. Miller, Stafford.
Winn Keep, Franklin.
F. J. Neblung, Auburn.
Howard Frederick, Smithfield.
Arthur Loutzenheiser, Franklin.
Lloyd E. Houser, Butler Twp.
B. J. Campbell, Troy.
H. L. Souder, Troy.
Albert Yoder, Jackson.
Joseph Lige, Jackson.

THE NEW THANKSGIVING

When the Pilgrims knelt around Plymouth Rock and offered thanks to heaven for the meager bounties that the new land of America had given them, enabling them to live for another year, there was a real Thanksgiving in their hearts. Tangible things had been showered upon them, things they could see, eat, take shelter under.

Today the Thanksgiving memory goes on, and we inevitably think of that first Pilgrim celebration. In realitiy, we have, in all, more to be thankful for than did the Pilgrims—this mighty land, almost unscratched in the bounty of its physical resources, a land where men and women and children are protected from many of the ills that struck constantly at the pioneers. In ever increasing ratio Thanksgiving should be celebrated by happiness. We have so much to be grateful for, and after all we pay so little for it.

Just one of the reasons why we should be grateful is brought forcibly to our attention at this season as 2,100 anti-tuberculosis associations fling themselves into the annual Christmas Seal Sale again. Thanksgiving Day is a worthy time for the beginning of this public health effort. America is thankful that it has been allowed to strike mighty blows at the menace which tuberculosis is. A winning fight, the people of America and of Indiana are carrying on against tuberculosis. For this, if for none other of our blessings, should we all be intensely thankul. More than a hundred thousand lives a year are beging saved throughout the country by the lillte Christmas Seal, through sanatoria, health education, clinical facilities, child nutrition classes, school health work, fresh air schools, summer nutrition camps, better nursing, and many other facilities which the little Christmas Seal has given us in less than a quarter of a century.

In Indiana alone the death rate has been cut more than sixty-seven per cent since 1910. In that year 4,710 people in Indiana died from tuberculosis, while last year only 1,863 died. The death rate in 1910 was 174.4 per hundred thousand and in 1933 it was but 56.9 per hundred thousand.

Thanksgiving Day, therefore, should carry deep significance in a public health way to Hoosiers, as well as the citizens of the United States, in our neighbor commonwealths. Thanksgiving Day is real when we think of how we have been allowed to save ourselves through education from this preventable and curable disease. The Christmas Seal Sale officially starts throughout Indiana on Thanksgiving Day. What better way of giving thanks is there for each individual in Indiana than to buy the little Holiday emblems of good health as generously as financial ability will permit?

F. R. Bowman is president of the county organization, while Mrs. Lora Leighty is chairman of Concord and Mrs. Princess Rectenwall chairman of Spencer township. Mrs. Esther Bowman has also been appointed as a member of the seal sale committee.

Office Phone: 37W. Residence Phone: 37J

Kinsey Funeral Home

AMBULANCE SERVICE

LICENSED EMBALMER

(Lady Attendant)

Hardware and Furniture

Just a little cheaper— Be sure and ask for tickets

Consider Your Winters Fuel

cost right NOW. It can be put in at a more reasonable price now than later. Let us help you with your fuel problems. Soft coals of different kinds in our bins.

Dundon Red Ash — BEST OF WEST VIRGINIA SOFT COAL—BURNS CLEAN AND IS A DANDY FURNACE COAL.

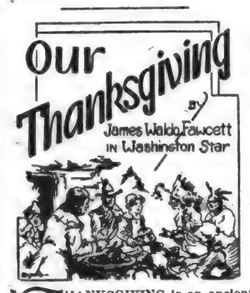
Steel Roofing and Roll Roofing, Cement, Lime, Plaster, Nails and whatever you need--See us FIRST.

FEEDS! FEEDS!

Call and see our line. If we haven't it in stock, we will get it.

NATHAN GRAIN CO.

Bert Jackson, Mgr., Coal and Lumber Dept.
Sam Keesler, Mgr., Grain Dept.



THANKSGIVING is an ancient custom, but it has had its ups and downs. Historians say that it has not always been the universally popular occasion which it now is considered to be.

The first Thanksgiving ceremoniously observed in North America was that conducted by Rev. Mr. Wolfall, chaplain of the Frobisher expedition to Newfoundland, May 27, 1578, and the earliest Thanksgiving observance reported within the present boundaries of the United States was that held by the Popham colonists at Sagadahoc, Maine, in August, 1607.

But the first specification of a whole day of thanksgiving was that proclaimed by William Bradford, first governor of Massachusetts Colony of Pilgrims, "in gratitude for the plenteous harvest" of 1621. The date was December 13, old style.

The festival became an annual and regular one in Massachusetts in 1684, and the example so established was followed by all the other New England colonies. It was the most important feast of the year, taking rank above Christmas, of which the Puritans disapproved.

During the Revolutionary war there were at least eight separate days of general thanksgiving. George Washington ordered days for prayer and thanks on December 18, 1777, and May 7, 1778.

But it was not the Father of His Country who first conceived the idea of a national Thanksgiving day for the newly liberated colonies. Contrary to common belief, it was congress rather than the first President that was responsible. The credit in the circumstances is due particularly to Elias Boudinot, a member of the house of representatives from New Jersey, who on September 25, 1789, introduced a resolution calling upon "all the citizens of the United States" to join "with one voice in returning to Almighty God their sincere thanks for the many blessings he had poured upon them." The original document is still in the files of the congress, where it recently was discovered.

The Great Day Dawned. The Parade Was Held.

The record shows that the motion prompted strenuous debate. Opposition to the proposal was passionately intense. Aedanus Burke of South Carolina attacked "this mimicking of European customs." Thomas T. Tucker of Virginia sardonically submitted that "it might be well to wait for some experience of the efficiency of the Constitution before returning thanks for it." Thomas Jefferson opposed the plan for fear it might imply a connection between state and church. The fact was that Thanksgiving day never had been accepted in the South. It had been considered an exclusively evangelical occasion, a sectarian festival of the Congregationalists. The Episcopal, or Anglican, communion would have none of it.

But it was an Episcopalian who signed the proclamation when Boudinot's resolution finally was accorded congressional approval. It happened, too, that it was the first document of its kind ever endorsed by an American Chief Executive. November 26 was the day assigned, and Washington summoned the new nation to express gratitude "for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of government."

However, the opposition party was not satisfied. Jefferson, for one, declined to take part in the ceremonies. His celebrated rival, Alexander Hamilton, on the other hand, determined to make a really memorable event of the festival. With the imaginative flair which distinguished him, he visioned a "monster celebration," with Washington as its presiding genius. There should be a great parade, a colorful and dramatic pageant, an American equivalent, more or less, of a Roman triumph. Troops were to march, bands to play, flags to fly, and the multitude could be counted upon to cheer.

The whole affair, Hamilton decided, should culminate in a banquet at Fraunces tavern. To the festal board he invited his chosen friends and preparations for their entertainment in the grand manner proceeded.

But Mrs. Washington had plans of her own. She desired a formal levee at the Executive Mansion in Franklin square, and invitations were dispatched to "everybody who was anybody." Hamilton, naturally, was one of those whose presence was requested.

Abraham Lincoln Was Responsible for Present Custom.

The great day dawned. The parade was held. The reception followed. Hamilton was late in arriving at the tavern, a tardy host at his own dinner.

To his amazement, the giver of the feast found his guests had not waited for him to appear. They had been eating and drinking for all they were worth in his absence.

From the doorway Hamilton surveyed the scene, his face scarlet with rage. Nevertheless, he held his tongue for fear of the "public scandal" of an outburst. Silence fell as he moved across the room to a place at the table. But the inevitable outburst followed.

The next morning Washington sent for Hamilton and demanded an explanation. The younger man apologized as best as he could, but the older "called the whole proceedings a disgrace."

For fire long years there were no Thanksgiving day proclamations, no Thanksgiving day celebrations.

In a later period Andrew Jackson and Zachary Taylor refused to order observance of the festival. Abraham Lincoln was responsible for the present custom of keeping the fourth or last Thursday in November as a national day of thanks to God.

But it was not until comparatively recent years that the people of the entire country began to celebrate the annual occasion with enthusiasm.

TAX SITUATION IN DEKALB COUNTY

With the fall taxpaying period ended, delinquent taxes in DeKalb county have mounted to a new high, at $229,000. This is an increasing of $78,000, or approximately 50 per cent, as compared with a year ago.

The annual abstract prepared by County Auditor Frank E. Lyon last January showed that $858,368 in taxes was payable during the year 1934, including $151,000 delinquent from previous years. The collections made by County Treasurer Merritt M. Maxwell this year aggregated $629,000, leaving $229,000 unpaid. Last spring Mr. Maxwell collected $31,000 in delinquent taxes and this fall, $32,742. Current taxes collected this fall amounted to $275,000 and last spring $291,000.

The total receipts in 1934 were $12,000 less than in 1933.

CULTURE CLUB OBSERVES THANKSGIVING

At the home of Mrs. Winifred Hart on last Wednesday evening the Culture Club met to thank providence for culture and refinement and for the food that keeps culture and refinement together in the form of body and soul. The ladies went in a body in Roy Koch's school bus dressed up as Puritans. They looked like a crowd of Puritan dust chasers that we see to advertise the cleansing product that makes things "spick and span." The home was beautifully decorated in Thanksgiving ensigns.

The evening was spent in original and new games and indulging in a two-course luncheon, of parker house rolls, individual chicken pie, cranberry salad, pickles; dessert, wafers and coffee.

SOME LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. John Beard and Mrs. Fred Beard, of Waterloo, were recent guests of Mrs. Wm. Randall.

Harry Shuff moved last week from the Craig Sheffer property into the J. W. Hart residence.

Avilla state bank opened Friday in Class A. The moratorium on the bank has been in effect since July 10, 1932.

Harvey T. Judson took charge of the Ashley post office on last Tuesday, as acting postmaster, succeding J. W. Mintzen.

Only three of those special low priced Perfection Oil Stoves left and no more at this low price.
Kinsey's Hdwe. & Furniture Co. 4714.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akins and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Buckingham were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hathaway in their new home near Kendallville.

Ray Reasoner has sold his small farm to Glen Cole, and then purchased the Wm. Staman farm, next to the corporation. Ray will move in the spring to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Talbert and two children Coil and Eleanor, Robert Koehnlein, of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Ford, of Lagro, Ind., were Sunday afternoon guests in the Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Koehnlein home.

Mrs. Guy Walker and daughter, Helen and Dick Jennings, of South Bend, were over Friday night guests in the F. B. Leighty home. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walker, who have been visiting relatives here, returned home with them on Saturday afternoon.

NOVEMBER

L 919

416

BLOUSE SERVING DOUBLE PURPOSE

Patterns 9132 and 9133

One of the most pleasant things about the returning vogue of the suit is that blouses are again high style. Women who pride themselves upon the ability to make a limited budget go a long way love their blouses. Think of the same suit, for instance, with the two different blouses sketched today. Pattern 9133 is a simple affair of tailored lines with pleats that flare out at the bottom in a chic little peplum effect. Pattern 9132 has its becoming surplice accentuated by a graceful frill.

Pattern 9132 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 36 requires 2¼ yards 39 inch fabric.

Pattern 9133 may be ordered only in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 2¼ yards 39 inch fabric.

Complete, diagrammed sew chart included.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE.

Send your order to Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 232 West Eighteenth Street, New York.

SMILES

PRIVILEGED DISCOURTESY

"Senatorial courtesy is not what it used to be."

"Perhaps not at present," answered Senator Sorghum. "We need to get rid of a certain impression that successful discourtesy is an evidence of superior influence."

'Sawful!

She—How did you enjoy your visit on the farms?

He—I was afraid of the butter out there.

She—The butter? Was it so strong?

He—I'll say it was—and I never saw a meaner billy goat in my life."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Trade Note

"What is Philip doing these days?"

"Running a branch business."

"But who on earth buys branches?"—Royal Arcanum Bulletin.

Really Lengthy

"She uses words I don't understand."

"Polysyllabic?"

"Yes; and some longer than that."

The Leader

California Women Prepare to Save the Nation

NINETY-FIVE women of the Santa Monica bay region in California, known as the "Fourth Squadron," clad in black breeches white shirts, overseas caps and black boots, are being intensively trained in cavalry manual in an open field near Culver City. The squadron is under the command of Capt. R. B. Lindsay, former army officer, who puts the girls through regular army drills, maneuvers, skirmishes, jumping and that brand of hard riding known to Uncle Sam's cavalry troops.

Bedtime Story for Children

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

FAREWELLS AND WELCOMES

ALL through the long summer Peter watched his feathered friends and learned things in regard to their ways he had never suspected. As he saw them keeping the trees of the Old Orchard free of insect pests, picking up countless seeds of weeds everywhere, and helping Farmer Brown in his garden, he began to understand something of the wonderful part these feathered

September Came and Some of Peter's Friends Bade Him Good-by people have in keeping God's Great World beautiful and worth living in.

He had many a hearty laugh as he watched the bird babies learn to fly and to find their own food. All about him all summer long they were going to school, learning how to watch out for danger and how to use their eyes and ears and all the things a bird must know who would live to grow up.

As the days grew shorter and fall drew near Peter discovered that his feathered friends were gathering in flocks and roaming here and there. It was one of the first signs that summer was nearly over, and it gave him just a little feeling of sadness. He heard few songs, for the singing season was over. Also he discovered that many of the hitherto most beautifully dressed of his feathered friends had changed their finery for sober traveling suits in preparation for the long journey far south where they would spend the winter. The fact is, he actually failed to recognize some of them at first.

September came and some of Peter's friends bade him good-by. They were starting on the long journey, planning to take it in easy stages for the most part. Each day saw some fly away. As Peter thought of the dangers before them he wondered rather wistfully if he would ever see them again. But some there were who lingered even after Jack Frost's first visit. Welcome and Mrs. Robin, Winsome and Mrs. Bluebird, Little Friend the Song Sparrow and his wife were among these. But by and by even they were forced to leave.

Sad indeed and lonely would these days have been for Peter had it not been that with the departure of the friends he had spent so many happy hours with was the arrival of certain other friends from the Far North, where they had their summer homes. Some of these stopped for a few days only. Others came to stay, and Peter was kept busy looking for and welcoming them. A few old friends of the summer would stay all winter. Sammy Jay was one, Downy and Hairy, the Woodpeckers, were others. And one there was whom Peter loves dearly; it was Tommy Tit the Chickadee.

© T. W. Burgess.—WNU Service.

Mother's Cook Book

FISH AND FISH SAUCES

FISH is always in season, as canned, pickled and smoked fish are available in almost any inland city when the fresh ones are not to be found in the market. There are occasions other than in hot weather when jellied fish is desirable; the following is a favorite:

Jellied Fish.

Remove the bones and skin of a two-pound fish. Chop fine and add a half cupful of water, a teaspoonful of grated onion, two dozen blanched and finely chopped almonds and a dash of cayenne. When all these ingredients are well blended pack into a mold and steam for an hour. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

Fish a la Reine.

Put one tablespoonful of butter into a saucepan and when melted add one tablespoonful of flour, mix well and add one cupful of rich milk, stir and cook until smooth. Remove from the heat and add the yolk of one egg and three mushrooms finely chopped, a tablespoonful of minced parsley, one-half teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Add to this one and one-half cupfuls of flaked fish—any cold boiled or canned fish will serve. Heat over hot water and serve in potato baskets.

Roe Sauce.

To make roe sauce, wash the roe, drop into boiling water and simmer for twenty minutes; drain and with a silver fork remove all the membrane; add one-half cupful of butter and place over a dish of hot water; when very hot add a half cupful of cream, a half teaspoonful of onion juice, a teaspoonful of salt, a pinch of mace and serve in a sauce boat.

Sauce Tartar.

Place four egg yolks, four tablespoonfuls of water, and four tablespoonfuls of olive oil together. Stand in a dish of hot water and stir until the mixture thickens; take from the heat, add a tablespoonful of tarragon vinegar, two chopped olives, one chopped sour pickle and a tablespoonful of capers chopped fine; add one tablespoonful of finely minced parsley, a half teaspoonful of salt and a dash of cayenne. Serve at once.

© Western Newspaper Union.

QUESTION BOX

By ED WYNN... The Perfect Fool

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am a bank messenger and carry an enormous pay roll every Tuesday. With all this crime wave going on what would you advise me to do?

Sincerely,
S. CARED.

Answer: Play safe.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I have been keeping company with a young lady for two years. We are engaged to be married. Every time I kiss her she closes her eyes. Why does she do that?

Sincerely,
J. CUPS.

Answer: Send me your photograph and I'll answer that.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I read some statistics in the papers regarding auto accidents and it said that most of the women pedestrians who were hit by automobiles, strange to say, were hit by women drivers. How do you account for that?

Yours truly,
V. HICKLE.

Answer: That is the most natural thing in the world. It is woman's nature to run down her own sex.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

Can you tell me what is meant by the expression, "Hush money"?

Sincerely,
IMA NASS.

Answer: "Hush money" means the wages that are paid to babies' nurses.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I live in Newark, N. J. I know a boy who is now serving a term in Sing Sing prison. I was thinking of going up to see him. Can you tell me the "fare" there?

Yours truly,
I. ROB, TOO.

Answer: The "fare" is the same as ever, just bread and water.

Dear Mr. Wynn:

I am going with a girl about twenty years of age. I am about twenty-one years old. I just can't make her out. One thing puzzling me is every time I call on her, before the evening's over she invariably says: "You tickle me." What have you to say about that?

Sincerely,
